

CLEMSON RING OF HONOR MEMBERS

The Ring of Honor is the highest honor a Clemson student-athlete can receive. A recipient must first be a member of the Clemson Hall of Fame, earn at least an undergraduate degree, and make a significant contribution to the heritage of Tiger athletics. Honorees will have their jersey retired.

Ring of Honor Members

The 1981 Football Team was inducted into the Clemson Ring of Honor during the fall of 2006 in conjunction with the team's 25-year anniversary celebration of winning the national title. Every player, coach, manager, and administrator associated with that team is considered in the Ring of Honor within the team concept. The Tigers had a perfect 12-0 record that season, as they defeated Nebraska by a score of 22-15 in the 1982 Orange Bowl to claim the National Championship. For more information on Clemson's 1981 squad, see pages 70,71.

The 1984 Men's Soccer Team won the NCAA Championship in grand style, as it became the first team in NCAA soccer history to defeat the #1, #2, #3, and #4-seeded teams in the tournament on the way to the title. Clemson defeated two-time defending champion Indiana 2-1 in the National Championship match in the Kingdome in Seattle, WA. John Lee scored the winning goal for Dr. I.M. Ibrahim's team with 1:42 left. The team was inducted into the Clemson Ring of Honor in 2009.

The 1987 Men's Soccer Team won the NCAA Championship with a victory over San Diego State at Historic Riggs Field, the only national championship claimed on the Clemson campus. The Tigers were led by Hermann Trophy winner Bruce Murray. The victory over the Aztecs culminated a magic run for the Tigers, who were seeded #23 in the 24-team tournament. A crowd of 8,332 fans celebrated the victory at the home of Clemson soccer, the largest home crowd in Tiger history.

Rusty Adkins was the first baseball player named to the Clemson Ring of Honor in 1997. He is the only three-time All-American in Tiger baseball history (1965,66,67). A three-time First-Team All-ACC player, he hit .444 in 1965, an average that remained a Tiger record for 37 years. Adkins had a 41-game hitting streak that remains in the top 10 in NCAA history. He was named to the ACC's 50-Year Anniversary team in 2002.

Bob Bradley was the first administrator named to the Ring of Honor in 2005. He served Clemson for 45 years in the sports information office as director and emeritus director. He received the Arch Ward Award as the College Sports Information Directors of America Man-of-the-Year in 1976. He was inducted into the organization's Hall of Fame in 1975, the Clemson Athletic Hall of Fame in 1985, the Gator Bowl Hall of Fame in 2000, and the state of South Carolina Hall of Fame in 2001. The press box at Memorial Stadium was named in his honor during the 1988 season as well.

and an on-the-field-of-competition All-American in school history.

Fred Cone, who was inducted into the Ring of Honor in 1997, was the first player in Clemson history to rush for at least 2,000 yards in a career. Cone played for the Tigers from 1948-50. He is fifth on the Clemson career list for rushing touchdowns with 30. Cone was a starter on two undefeated Clemson teams (1948,50), one of only two players in school history to accomplish that feat.

Jerry Butler joined teammate Steve Fuller in the Clemson Ring of Honor in 1999. The two-time All-ACC player was a First-Team AP All-American in 1978 when he joined Fuller in leading Clemson to a #6 final national ranking and 11-1 record. He had at least one reception in 36 consecutive games, a record that still stands today. In 1979, Butler was the #5 overall draft pick of the NFL by the Buffalo Bills, where he played at a Pro Bowl level for seven seasons.

Dale Davis was the first men's basketball player inducted into the Ring of Honor in 1999. He was a three-time All-ACC pick from 1987-91 and a first-team pick in 1990 in leading Clemson to its first ACC regular-season championship. He is still among the ACC's top 10 in career field-goal percentage. The first-round draft pick of the Indiana Pacers played 16 seasons in the NBA. He totaled 8,706 points and 8,605 rebounds in 1,094 games in his career.

Jonathan Byrd was an All-American on the course and in the classroom for the Tiger golf team between 1997-00. He became the first four-time, First-Team All-ACC golfer in Clemson history. He was also an honorable mention All-American in 1998, a first-team selection in 1999, and a third-team pick in

Jeff Davis, captain of the 1981 National Championship team, joined the Ring of Honor in 1995. He was a first-team All-American in 1981 when he led the team in tackles (175). Davis was also named MVP of the ACC and defensive MVP of the Orange Bowl victory (22-15) over Nebraska, the game that
