CLEMSON WELCOMES WOFFORD FOR NON-CONFERENCE TILT

Clemson will host its annual Military Appreciation Day and Purple Out contest when the Tigers host in-state foe Wofford in a non-conference game on Saturday, Nov. 2. Kickoff at Memorial Stadium is scheduled for 4 p.m. ET.

Clemson and members of its squad enter November on the precipice of a number of school records. The Tigers are already in the midst of a school-record 23-game winning streak, and last week, Clemson won its 20th consecutive home game. With another victory at Death Valley this week, Clemson can tie the school record for its longest home winning streak, matching the 21 consecutive Memorial Stadium victories posted across the 2013-16 seasons.

Memorial Stadium has recently played host to one of the most productive and explosive players in Clemson's illustrious 124-year history. Including his three rushing touchdowns against Boston College last week, running back Travis Etienne enters this week with 46 career rushing touchdowns and 49 career total touchdowns, putting him within striking distance of "Thunder and Lightning" for school records in each category.

"Thunder" James Davis presently holds the school record with 47 career rushing touchdowns across the 2005-08 seasons, a mark Etienne can tie with one rushing touchdown or break with two rushing touchdowns. "Lightning" C.J. Spiller holds the Clemson record in total touchdowns with 51, a record Etienne can tie with two touchdowns or break with three touchdowns.

Etienne's productivity is one reason why Clemson's offense ranks fourth in the country and first in the ACC in yards per game, but a look at Clemson's overall team statistics paints Clemson as one of college football's most complete teams. Clemson is presently the only team in the country to rank in the Top 5 in both total offense (525.9, fourth) and total defense (246.1, fourth) and currently stands as the only team with seven wins against Power Five opponents this season.

At 124-30 for his career, Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney enters this week in search of his 125th career victory. Per records maintained by Sports Reference, he would become the 10th coach in major college football history to reach 125 wins in 155 or fewer games, joining George Woodruff (142), Urban Meyer (148), Bob Neyland (148), Chris Petersen (151), Joe Paterno (153), Fielding Yost (153), Barry Switzer (153), Bud Wilkinson (153) and Henry Williams (154).

THE TIGER 280

Three items of note in 280 characters or less:

🐾 Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney will attempt to earn his 125th head coaching victory on Saturday in his 155th career game. According to records from Sports Reference, Swinney would become the 10th coach in major college football history to reach 125 wins in 155 or fewer games.

🐾 Travis Etienne can break records held by "Thunder and Lightning" this week. Etienne needs two TDs to break James Davis' school record for career rushing touchdowns (47) and can break C.J. Spiller's record for career total touchdowns (51) with three total touchdowns on Saturday.

🐾 In 124 years and 1,256 games of Clemson football, the Tigers have never posted 45 points in four consecutive games in school history. This week, Clemson can post a fourth straight 45-point performance for the first time.

CLEMSON

WHAT TO WATCH FOR THIS WEEK

- Clemson attempting to open a season 9-0 for the sixth time in program history and the fourth time in the last five years (1948, 1981, 2015, 2016 and 2018). Clemson earned conference titles in all of the previous five seasons in which it opened 9-0 and earned national championships in three of those years.

- Clemson attempting to win the first nine games of a season for the fourth time under Head Coach Dabo Swinney (2015, 2016 and 2018). All other coaches in Clemson history have combined for two 9-0 starts, including one each by Frank Howard and Danny Ford.

- The 2019 Clemson seniors attempting to win their 50th game in the last four years to become the ninth senior class in FBS history to accomplish the feat. The 50th win would tie the 2019 Clemson seniors with the 2017 senior class for the second-most career wins in school history.

- Head Coach Dabo Swinney (124-30) attempting to win his 125th career game as a head coach. Per records from Sports Reference, he would be the 10th-fastest coach in major college football history to 125 wins in terms of games coached, trailing George Woodruff (142), Urban Meyer (148), Bob Neyland (148), Chris Petersen (151), Joe Paterno (153), Fielding Yost (153), Barry Switzer (153), Bud Wilkinson (153) and Henry Williams (154).

- Clemson attempting to win its 24th consecutive game, dating to the start of the 2018 season, to extend the longest winning streak in school history and second-longest winning streak in ACC history.

- Clemson entering the week as the only team in the country with seven wins against Power Five opponents this season. Even despite the inclusion of a one-point conference road victory in September, Clemson has won those seven contests by an average of 29.4 points.

- Clemson attempting to win a 21st consecutive home game to tie the longest home winning streak in school history, set across the 2013-16 seasons. Clemson's last home loss came on Nov. 12, 2016, against Pitt. The current 20-game streak is only the second home winning streak of at least 20 games in school history. It represents the second-longest active streak in the country.

- Clemson winning its sixth home game of the season to add to its active eight-year streak of winning at least six games at Memorial Stadium.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 13-4 against Wofford all-time.

- Clemson and Wofford squaring off in Memorial Stadium for the sixth time in their last six meetings, dating back to a 26-0 win by Frank Howard's Tigers in 1940. Wofford hosted five of the first six all-time meetings between the schools, including a 16-0 Clemson win at Wofford in Clemson's inaugural season in 1896.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 34-0 against Football Championship Subdivision teams since the NCAA formed the division prior to the 1978 season.

- Clemson attempting to push its winning streak in Saturday games to 38 to extend the longest Saturday winning streak in school history. Clemson's current 37-game run of consecutive Saturday victories is the longest active streak in the country.

- Clemson attempting to score 45 points in four consecutive games for the first time in school history.

- Clemson attempting to record 600 yards of offense for a fourth time this season to surpass the 2012, 2017 and 2018 squads (three each) for sole possession of the most 600-yard games in a single season in school history.

- Clemson attempting to post back-to-back 600-yard games for the first time in school history.

- Clemson attempting to reach 500 yards in a fourth straight game for the first time since a six-game stretch in October and November of the 2016 season.

- Clemson, which averaged 7.9 yards per play against Louisville and 8.4 against Boston College, attempting to exceed 7.5 yards per play in three straight games for the first time in records dating back to 1954.

- Clemson attempting to rush for at least 275 yards in four straight games for the first time in the Dabo Swinney era and the first time since games 4-7 of the 1990 season.

- Clemson attempting to record consecutive 300-yard rushing games for the first time since the South Carolina and Pitt games last year.

- Clemson attempting to rush for multiple touchdowns in a 10th consecutive game for the first time since a 15-game streak across the 2016-17 seasons.

- Clemson attempting to produce more passing yards than its opponent in a 12th consecutive game, dating to last season, for the first time since an 18-game streak across the 2015-17 seasons.

- Clemson attempting to throw three or more touchdowns in four straight games for the first time since a five-game streak to open the 2013 season.

- Clemson attempting to hold an opponent below 300 yards of total offense to join the 2006 LSU Tigers and 2011 Alabama Crimson Tide as the only teams since 2000 to hold opponents below 300 yards in nine straight games to open a season.

- Clemson attempting to hold a seventh consecutive opponent below 200 passing yards for the first time since a nine-game stretch in games 3-11 of the 2008 season. During Clemson's current run of four consecutive College Football Playoff berths starting in 2015, Clemson has held opponents below 200 passing yards 41 times, second-most in the country, with a 40-1 record in those contests.

- Clemson entering the game having held three consecutive opponents to a completion percentage under 50.0 percent. A fourth straight game would be Clemson's first such streak since a five-game run in October and November of 2014.

- Clemson attempting to produce a second straight game with zero giveaways for the first time since the first two games of the 2018 season.

- Clemson attempting to win the turnover margin in four consecutive games for the first time since a five-game streak across the final three games of the 2018 season and the first two games of 2019.

- Clemson entering the game with three defensive touchdowns in 2019, tied for fourth in the country.

NOTES

A fourth defensive touchdown this season would represent Clemson's second time in three years scoring four defensive touchdowns in a season (four in 2017).

- Clemson attempting to record multiple sacks in a 17th consecutive game for the first time since the 2012-13 seasons. It would be Clemson's third multi-sack streak of 17 games or more since 1980 (18 from 1991-92, 17 from 1998-99) and would tie for the second-longest streak in that span. To accomplish the feat, Clemson would need to record multiple sacks against a Wofford offense that enters the week having surrendered only one sack in seven games this season.

- Clemson potentially finishing with an advantage in time of possession in four straight games for the first time since games 3-6 of the 2017 season.

- Running back Lyn-J Dixon (925) needing 75 more rushing yards to reach 1,000 career rushing yards.

- Running back Travis Etienne (46) needing one rushing touchdown to tie or two rushing touchdowns to break James Davis' school record for career rushing touchdowns (47 from 2005-08).

- Etienne (46) entering the game four rushing touchdowns shy of becoming the third player in ACC history with 50 career rushing touchdowns (52 by James Conner; 50 by Lamar Jackson).

- Etienne (49) needing one touchdown to join C.J. Spiller and Travis Zachery as the only players in school history to record 50 career total touchdowns.

- Etienne (49) needing two touchdowns to tie or three touchdowns to break C.J. Spiller's school record for career total touchdowns (51).

- Etienne attempting to record three rushing touchdowns in consecutive games for the first time since setting a school record by scoring three in three straight games against Syracuse, Wake Forest and NC State in 2018.

- Etienne attempting to reach 200 rushing yards in a game for the third time in his career to break the school record for career 200-yard rushing games (two each by Ray Yauger, 1967-69; Terrence Flagler, 1982-86; Raymond Priestler, 1994-97; Andre Ellington, 2009-12). Presently, Flagler is the only player in school history to post two 200-yard games in a single season, a feat Etienne can match with another 200-yard day in 2019.

- Etienne attempting to rush for 100 yards in four consecutive games to match his career-long streak set in games 3-6 of the 2018 season.

- Etienne (13) recording another 100-yard rushing game to tie James Davis (14) for third on Clemson's all-time leaderboard for career 100-yard rushing games. Etienne currently sits four games shy of Wayne Gallman's school career record of 17 from 2014-16.

- Etienne (890) needing 110 rushing yards to reach 1,000 rushing yards in back-to-back seasons. He would become the sixth player in school history to reach 1,000 rushing yards in multiple seasons, joining Raymond Priestler (1995-96), Woodrow Dantzler (2000-01), James Davis (2006-07), Andre Ellington (2011-12) and Wayne Gallman (2015-16).

- Etienne (890) rushing for 110 yards to reach the 1,000-yard mark in his ninth game of the season to tie Terrence Flagler's school record for fewest games needed to reach 1,000 rushing yards (nine in 1986). Another 1,000-yard campaign by Etienne would be the 22nd 1,000-yard rushing season in school history.

- Etienne (3,314) entering the game 115 yards behind No. 5 Wayne Gallman (3,429), 122 yards behind No. 4 Andre Ellington (3,436) and 233 yards behind No. 3 C.J. Spiller on the school's all-time career rushing yardage leaderboard.

- Etienne (294) chasing No. 6 Travis Zachery (300), No. 5 Nelson Welch (301) and No. 4 C.J. Spiller (308) on Clemson's all-time scoring list.

- Etienne attempting to average 10.0 yards per carry in a game on at least five attempts for the 12th time in his career to pass Colin Kaepernick for sole possession of the most by any FBS player since 2000.

- Etienne (3,999) needing a single all-purpose yard to become the ninth player in Clemson history to record 4,000 career all-purpose yards.

- Etienne (3,999) needing 85 all-purpose yards to overtake Jacoby Ford (4,083) for eighth on the school leaderboard for career all-purpose yards.

- Wide receiver Tee Higgins (17) chasing Nos. 7 Glenn Smith (18 from 1949-51) and Jordan Leggett (18 from 2013-16) and No. 6 Artavis Scott (19 from 2014-16) on the school's all-time leaderboard for career receiving touchdowns. Aaron Kelly (20 from 2005-08) and Deon Cain (20 from 2015-17) are presently tied for fourth.

- Higgins (1,869) entering the game 118 yards away from passing Jacoby Ford (1,986) for 14th on the school's career receiving yardage list. He is 161 yards shy of matching Aiese Currie (2,030) for 13th.

- Higgins (1,869) needing 131 more receiving yards to become the 14th player in Clemson history to record 2,000 career receiving yards.

- Quarterback Trevor Lawrence attempting to throw a touchdown pass in a 19th consecutive game. His current 18-game streak is the longest active streak in the country. (Note: UCF's McKenzie Milton had a 24-game streak prior to suffering an injury in November 2018 that will likely preclude him from playing in 2019).

- Lawrence attempting to throw three touchdown passes in four consecutive games for the first time in his career. He would be the first Clemson quarterback to do so since Tajh Boyd in 2012.

- Lawrence (six) attempting to join Tajh Boyd (18), Deshaun Watson (13) and Charlie Whitehurst (eight) as the only players in school history to record at least seven career 300-yard passing games.

- Lawrence (396) completing four passes to become the eighth player in Clemson history to complete 400 career passes.

- Lawrence (396) needing six completions to pass Kyle Parker (401 from 2009-10) for seventh-most career completions in Clemson history.

- Lawrence (47) throwing two touchdowns to tie or three touchdowns to pass Charlie Whitehurst (49 from 2002-05) for the third-most career passing touchdowns in school history.

- Lawrence (5,495) needing 16 combined rushing and passing yards to pass No. 8 Rodney Williams (5,510) and 55 combined yards to pass No. 7 Cullen Harper (5,549) on the school's leaderboard for career total offense.

- Lawrence (53) entering the game six touchdowns shy of tying Charlie Whitehurst (59) for fourth in school history in career total touchdown responsibility.

- Kicker B.T. Potter attempting to convert a third field goal of 50 yards or more to tie Richard Jackson's school record for 50-yard field goals in a single season from 2009. Potter recorded a field goal of 51 yards against both Georgia Tech and Louisville.

The teams met in 2001, when quarterback Woody Dantzler led Clemson to a 38-14 win. That was Clemson's final game prior to the events of Sept. 11 of that year.

Clemson defeated Wofford, 45-10, in the season opener of Clemson's 1981 National Championship season. The score was tied 3-3 at the end of the first quarter.

Wofford's last win in the series took place in 1933, a 14-13 Terriers win in Spartanburg. Wofford also won consecutive games by shutout in 1925 and 1926.

The two teams first met in 1896, the first year of Clemson football. The Tigers won that game, 16-0, in Spartanburg in what was just the third game in Clemson football history. Clemson won the second meeting, 21-0, in 1900 in the second game of John Heisman's coaching career at Clemson.

This will be only the sixth meeting between the two programs in the AP Poll era (since 1936) and only the

CLEMSON VS. SOUTHERN CONFERENCE

Clemson has not lost to a Southern Conference school since the Tigers left the Southern Conference to help form the ACC in 1953. Clemson has won 45 games in a row against Southern Conference teams. Clemson last lost to a Southern Conference team in 1952 when South Carolina defeated the Tigers, 6-0, when both schools were still Southern Conference members.

The last time Clemson lost to a team currently in the Southern Conference was 1936 when Furman defeated the Tigers, 12-0.

CLEMSON UNDEFEATED VS. FCS TEAMS

Entering this week's contest, Clemson is a perfect 33-0 against Football Championship Subdivision teams since the NCAA formed the division prior to the 1978 season (Southern Conference schools became I-AA in 1982.)

Clemson has outscored FCS teams by a 1363-225 margin all-time, an average victory margin of 34.5 points. Clemson has won 32 of the 33 games by double digits, including each of the last seven by at least 34 points.

Only one FCS squad has stayed within double digits of Clemson, a distinction held by this week's opponent, Wofford. Clemson defeated Wofford, 35-27, in 2011, with Wofford's 27 points standing as the most by an FCS school against Clemson.

MILITARY APPRECIATION DAY

Clemson, formally founded as Clemson Agricultural College in November 1889, was originally a military school, reflecting a belief at the time that a military atmosphere produced the highest academic excellence. Beginning with the first graduating class of 1896, more than 10,000 Clemson men and women have served in the armed forces. Throughout the decades, Clemson's military heritage has remained, even as the university transitioned to a coeducational civilian institution in 1955.

Saturday's game against Wofford will be Clemson's 26th Military Appreciation Day. The history of the special day dates to 1994 when Clemson had a special flyover for the Clemson vs. Georgia Tech game on Nov. 12, just one day after Veterans Day. Clemson had a flyover of four F-16s from Shaw Air Force Base during pregame as the highlight of the celebration that day.

Clemson has celebrated its military history every year since during games held in November or when Clemson plays host to a school with its own military heritage. Clemson has a 21-4 record in the previous 25 Military Appreciation Day games. The Tigers have won 11 such games in a row, with the last loss coming against Virginia Tech in 2007.

LAST GAME VS. WOFFORD

Clemson 49, Wofford 10

(Sept. 5, 2015, at Clemson S.C.)

Second-ranked Clemson had a strong performance on both sides of the ball in a season-opening 49-10 win against Wofford.

Clemson held Wofford to just 123 rushing yards and 2.7 yards per rush. Wofford entered that season having ranked in the top 10 in the FCS in rushing 17 straight years and averaged 297 yards a game on the ground the year before. The Tigers had 10 tackles for loss as a team.

Offensively, Clemson gained 533 yards of total offense, including 311 in the air and 222 on the ground. It was just the 14th time in history Clemson recorded 300 yards passing and 200 yards rushing in the same game.

Defensively, T.J. Green led the way with a career-high 13 tackles, including a career-best 2.5 tackles for loss. Safety Jayron Kearse recorded 12 tackles, a tackle for loss and a pass broken up. Senior linebacker B.J. Goodson added 12 stops.

Quarterback Deshaun Watson completed 18-of-22 passes for 194 yards and two scores. Preseason All-ACC receivers Artavis Scott and Mike Williams each caught a touchdown pass from Watson, while Wayne Gallman led the team in rushing with 14 carries for 92 yards and two scores. Clemson also received a rushing touchdown from Zac Brooks and two from the late Tyshon Dye.

The 49-10 victory was Clemson's largest margin of victory in a season opener since 2006 when Clemson defeated Florida Atlantic, 54-6.

ACTIVE PLAYERS: CAREER STATS VS. OPPONENT

No member of Clemson's current roster has logged a snap against Wofford. Four members of Clemson's current roster were redshirting during the teams' last

-- NOTES FROM LAST GAME --

POSTGAME NOTES VS. BOSTON COLLEGE

- Clemson gained 674 yards and reached 600 yards of offense for the third time this season to match the 2012, 2017 and 2018 squads for the most in a single season in school history.

- Clemson outgained Boston College, 674-177. The 497-yard differential is Clemson's biggest since a 545-yard advantage against Kent State on Sept. 2, 2017. It was Clemson's largest yardage differential against an ACC opponent since the conference's founding in 1953, surpassing a 464-yard advantage against Wake Forest in 2000.

- The game marked the sixth time that Clemson has outgained an ACC opponent by 400 yards. Five of those six contests have come under Head Coach Dabo Swinney.

- Clemson has now produced at least 550 yards in three straight games for the first time since contests against Virginia, Georgia Tech and The Citadel in 2013.

- Clemson's season-high 59 points were its most against Boston College in the 29-game all-time series between the two schools, surpassing 56 scored in a 56-10 win in 2016. Clemson's 674 yards were also its most in series history, surpassing the 576 yards produced against the Eagles in 2012.

- Clemson has now reached 45 points in three consecutive games for the first time since the Duke, Maryland and NC State games in November 2012.

- Clemson rushed for 302 yards and has now rushed for at least 275 yards in three straight games for the first time in the Dabo Swinney era and the first time since the Wake Forest, Virginia and Duke games in 2000.

- The 300-yard rushing performance was Clemson's third of the season and the 18th of the Swinney era. Clemson is 18-0 in those contests.

- Clemson exceeded 300 passing yards and 300 rushing yards for the fifth time under Head Coach Dabo Swinney. It was Clemson's first such game since last year's contest against South Carolina.

- Clemson scored on its first six drives of the game — every drive of the first half. It marked Clemson's first time scoring on the first six drives of a game since Sept. 17, 2016, against South Carolina State.

- Clemson produced a season-high 36 first downs, the program's most since recording 38 first downs against South Carolina in 2018.

- Clemson has now rushed for multiple touchdowns in nine consecutive games for the first time since the first nine games of the 2018 season.

- Clemson has now produced more passing yards than its opponent in 11 consecutive games, dating to last season, for the first time since an 18-game streak across the 2015-17 seasons.

- Clemson held Boston College to 177 total yards, the fewest allowed by Clemson this season and the fewest allowed by the Tigers since keeping Boston College to 113 yards last season. Clemson has allowed only 290 yards to Boston College in the last two seasons.

- One week after Boston College rushed for 429 yards against an NC State squad that had entered the week as the conference's top rushing defense, Clemson held Boston College to 97 rushing yards. Boston College entered the week averaging 278.3 rushing yards per game, sixth in the country and first in the ACC.

- Clemson became the fourth team since 2000 to hold each of its first eight opponents of a season to 300 or fewer total yards, joining 2006 LSU, 2011 Alabama and 2012 Alabama.

- By holding Boston College to 80 passing yards, Clemson has now held six consecutive opponents below 200 passing yards for the first time since a nine-game stretch in games 3-11 of the 2008 season.

- Clemson held Boston College to 6-of-18 (33 percent) passing. Clemson has now held three consecutive opponents to a completion percentage under 50.0 percent for the first time since keeping Georgia Tech, Boston College and Miami below 50 percent in October 2015.

- Clemson recorded two sacks and has now recorded multiple sacks in 16 consecutive games for the first time since the 2012-13 seasons. It is Clemson's third multi-sack streak of 16 games or more since 1980 (18 from 1991-92, 17 from 1998-99). Clemson extended the streak against a Boston College offense that entered the week having surrendered only three sacks in seven games this season.

- Clemson forced 11 punts and allowed only 10 first downs.

- Clemson did not turn the ball over and played its first turnover-free game of the season. It was the program's first game with no giveaways since last year's College Football Playoff National Championship Game against Alabama.

- Clemson won the turnover margin in a third consecutive game for the first time since a five-game streak across the final three games of the 2018 season and the first two games of 2019. Clemson improved to 52-3 when winning the turnover margin since 2011.

- Clemson held the ball for 33:46 and finished a third straight game with an advantage in time of possession for the first time since games 3-6 of the 2017 season.

- Running back Travis Etienne rushed 16 times for 109 yards and tied his career high with three rushing touchdowns. He also caught three passes for 33 yards.

- The performance represented Etienne's fifth career game with three rushing touchdowns.

- Etienne has now rushed for 100 yards in three consecutive games for the first time this season and the first time since the South Carolina, Pitt and Notre Dame games last season.

- Etienne recorded his 13th career 100-yard rushing game to pass Andre Ellington and C.J. Spiller (12 each) for sole possession of fourth on Clemson's all-time leaderboard for career 100-yard rushing games. He is now four games shy of Wayne Gallman's school career record of 17 from 2014-16.

- Etienne (46) now sits one rushing touchdown shy of James Davis' school record for career rushing touchdowns (47 from 2005-08).

- Etienne (49) tied Davis for third on Clemson's all-time leaderboard for total touchdowns and sits behind only C.J. Spiller (51) and Travis Zachery (50) on the list.

- With 18 points in the game, Etienne tied running back James Davis (294 from 2005-08) for seventh on Clemson's all-time scoring list. Etienne already ranks fourth on the list among non-kickers.

- During the game, Etienne (3,999) passed Wayne Gallman (3,902) for ninth in career all-purpose yards in school history. He is now one all-purpose yard shy of becoming the ninth player in Clemson history to record 4,000 career all-purpose yards.

- The game was Etienne's second multi-touchdown rushing game of the season, joining the season opener in which he rushed for three touchdowns against Georgia Tech. It was his 13th career game with multiple rushing touchdowns, tying Wisconsin's Jonathan Taylor for the second-most in the country since Etienne entered college football in 2017.

- Etienne recorded all three touchdown runs in the first half, scoring on plays of three, four and five yards.

- Quarterback Trevor Lawrence completed 16-of-19 passes for 275 yards with three touchdowns. He also rushed eight times for 42 yards.

- Lawrence has now thrown a touchdown pass in 18 consecutive games and has thrown a touchdown in 22 of his 23 career contests.

- Lawrence has now thrown at least three touchdown passes in three consecutive games for the first time in his career. He is the first Clemson quarterback to do so since Tajh Boyd in 2013.

- As a team, Clemson has now thrown three or more touchdowns in three straight games for the first time since games against Virginia, Georgia Tech and The Citadel in 2013.

- With the performance, Lawrence (5,089) joined Tajh Boyd, Deshaun Watson, Charlie Whitehurst, Woodrow Dantzler, Cullen Harper and Nealon Greene as the only Clemson players all-time to throw for 5,000 career yards.

- With three touchdown passes, Lawrence (53) passed C.J. Spiller (52) for fifth in school history in career total touchdown responsibility.

- Lawrence opened the game 9-for-9 for 139 yards to seven different receivers prior to his first incompleteness in the second quarter.

- Wide receiver Diondre Overton recorded a career-high 119 yards on three receptions for a school-record-tying three touchdowns. It represented his first career 100-yard receiving game, surpassing his previous career high of 75 yards set against Florida State in 2018.

- For his performance, Overton earned the Leather Helmet Award, presented annually by the Boston College Gridiron Club to the most valuable player of the Clemson-Boston College game.

- Overton recorded the seventh three-touchdown receiving performance in school history, matching Dreher Gaskin (vs. Auburn on Nov. 21, 1953), Tony Horne (vs. Texas-El Paso on Oct. 4, 1997), Rod Gardner (vs. North Carolina on Oct. 21, 2000), DeAndre Hopkins (vs. Ball State on Sept. 8, 2012, and vs. Duke on Nov. 3, 2012) and Mike Williams (vs. South Carolina on Nov. 28, 2016) for the school record in single-game touchdown receptions.

- Overton recorded a 22-yard touchdown reception from Lawrence in the first quarter. It was his first touchdown catch since Oct. 7, 2018, at Wake Forest.

- Overton added his second touchdown of the day on a career-long 63-yard reception in the third quarter, giving him his first multi-touchdown day of his career.

- Overton scored his third touchdown of the day on 34-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Chase Brice in the fourth quarter.

- Wide receiver Amari Rodgers added his third touchdown reception of the season on a 19-yard pass from Lawrence in the second quarter.

- With 36 receiving yards in the game, wide receiver Tee Higgins (1,869) passed Brian Wofford (1,857) to enter the Top 15 in school history in career receiving yards.

- Defensive end Logan Rudolph recorded a 39-yard fumble return for touchdown in the third quarter for his first career touchdown.

- The fumble return for touchdown by Rudolph was Clemson's first since Tanner Muse on Oct. 13, 2017 at Syracuse. (Note: Clemson recovered a fumble in the end zone for a touchdown with no return at Georgia Tech on Sept. 22, 2018.)

- The fumble recovery was the first of Rudolph's career. The fumble was forced on a sack by linebacker Chad Smith, his second forced fumble of the season.

- Clemson opened the scoring on a 23-yard field goal by kicker B.T. Potter on Clemson's first possession. With the field goal, Clemson pushed its record when scoring first to 45-0 since 2015.

- Clemson held a 17-0 lead after the first quarter. In that quarter, Clemson produced 12 first downs on only 15 plays.

- Clemson led, 38-7, at halftime. Clemson has now won 73 of its last 75 games when leading at halftime.

- Clemson accrued 24 first downs in the first half. In 2012, Clemson produced only 20 first downs in the midst of producing a school-record 487 first-half yards against Duke that year.

- Prior to the game, Clemson inducted former linebacker Levon Kirkland into the Clemson Ring of Honor. Kirkland was a two-time All-American and three-time first-team All-ACC selection as an outside linebacker between 1988-91. He was a second-team AP All-American and finalist for the Butkus Award as a junior in 1990, a unit that led the nation in total defense, prior to being a first-team All-America selection as a senior by the American Football Coaches Association, Sporting News and Walter Camp Foundation in 1991.

- Offensive Line Coach Robbie Caldwell coached his 500th career game. Per a survey of sports information directors around the country, Caldwell is believed to join Northwestern Defensive Coordinator Mike Hankwitz as the only active FBS coaches to reach the 500-game mark.

- Captains for the contest were offensive tackle Tremayne Anchrum, running back Travis Etienne, defensive tackle Nyles Pinckney and safety K'Von Wallace.

WITH THE WIN

- Clemson won its 23rd consecutive game, dating to the start of the 2018 season, to extend the longest winning streak in school history and second-longest winning streak in ACC history.

- Clemson has now won 17 consecutive ACC regular season games for the second time in school history (20 from 1981-84).

- Clemson has now recorded seven wins against Power Five opponents this season, the only team in the country able to make that claim.

- Clemson has now opened a season 8-0 for the eighth time in school history, joining the 1948, 1981, 2000, 2011, 2015, 2016 and 2018 campaigns.

- Clemson won its 20th consecutive home game. Clemson's last home loss came on Nov. 12, 2016, against Pitt. It joins the school-record streak of 21 games from 2013-16 as the only 20-game home winning streaks in school history.

- Clemson has now won 41 of its last 42 games at Death Valley.

- Clemson's 20-game active home winning streak is the second-longest in the country, trailing Alabama's 31-game home winning streak.

- Clemson won its ninth consecutive game against Boston College, dating back to 2011. Clemson's nine-game winning streak against Boston College is its second-longest active streak against an ACC opponent, trailing Clemson's 10-game active winning streak against Wake Forest.

- Clemson improved to 11-4 against Boston College since the Eagles joined the ACC in 2005.

- Clemson extended its home winning streak against the Eagles to six games, dating back to 2009. Clemson is undefeated at home against Boston College under Dabo Swinney (6-0).

- Clemson defeated an ACC Atlantic Division opponent for a 12th straight time and for the 32nd time in 33 opportunities.

- Clemson, which entered the game fourth in the AP Poll after being ranked No. 3 last game, won a 16th consecutive game when ranked lower in the AP

NOTES

Poll than in its previous contest. Clemson is now 24-4 under Dabo Swinney when playing a game at a lower AP ranking than in its previous contest, including season openers in which Clemson opened lower than it finished the prior season.

- Clemson pushed its winning streak in Saturday games to 37 to extend the longest Saturday winning streak in school history. Clemson's current 37-game run of consecutive Saturday victories is the longest active streak in the country.

- Clemson has now won 66 of its last 70 games overall dating to 2014, including 40 of its last 42 games against ACC teams.

- Clemson improved to 94-2 since 2011 when leading after three quarters.

- Clemson now has a 94-2 record when totaling more first downs than its opponent since 2011.

- Clemson improved to 61-1 when rushing for 200+ yards under Dabo Swinney.

- Clemson is now 47-0 when both passing and rushing for 200+ yards under Dabo Swinney.

- Clemson pushed its record to 42-1 since 2015 when outscoring opponents in the "Middle Eight," defined as the final four minutes of the first half and the first four minutes of the second half.

- Clemson is now 44-2 when having a 100-yard rusher since 2011.

- Clemson has now earned victories in 32 of its last 33 games against ACC Atlantic Division teams.

- Clemson has now won 69 of its last 71 games against unranked teams.

- Clemson has now won 76 straight games when holding teams under 23 points (dates to 2010).

TIED FOR MOST WINS SINCE 2015, SECOND-MOST SINCE 2011

Clemson has a 105-15 record since starting its current stretch of 10-win seasons in 2011. Only Alabama (111-10) has more wins the last eight-plus years. The Tigers also have the second-highest winning percentage (.875) in that time frame.

The recent success has been particularly pronounced in the midst of Clemson's streak of College Football Playoff appearances since 2015. Clemson and Alabama are tied for the most wins in the country in that span, including splitting two national championships in that time frame.

10-WIN SEASONS

Clemson entered 2019 riding a streak of eight consecutive seasons with 10+ wins. The program's eighth consecutive 10-win season in 2018 tied the Tigers with the 1985-92 Miami Hurricanes and the 2004-11 Virginia Tech Hokies for the fourth-longest streak in FBS history and made Clemson one of only six programs to accomplish the feat.

The record for consecutive 10-win seasons is 14, set by Florida State (1987-2000). Alabama is the only other program with an active streak of at least eight straight 10-win seasons.

The Tigers have 15 10-win seasons in school history, with more than half coming in the last eight years under head coach Dabo Swinney. The 2018 season was Clemson's fifth with at least 12 wins, with Swinney sitting at the helm for four of them.

A CENTURY MARK FOR THE DECADE

Head Coach Dabo Swinney can vividly recall the looks he received when he said Clemson was on the cusp of the winningest decade in program history following a 2010 campaign in which the Tigers finished 6-7. In 2017, that vision became a reality with two seasons to spare when Clemson collected its 88th win of the decade in the ACC Championship Game against Miami (Fla.) to surpass the Tigers of the 1980s (87) for most wins in any decade in school history.

With a rivalry win against South Carolina to close the 2018 regular season, Clemson reached triple digits in wins in a decade for the first time in program history.

Clemson has a 111-22 record in the decade of the 2010s. That computes to an .835 winning percentage, the best for any decade in school history and the first time Clemson has won more than 80 percent in a single decade.

In the 1980s, Clemson had a .767 winning percentage (87-25-4), the nation's fifth-best winning percentage. Clemson did not have a losing season in any year in the 1980s under Danny Ford, who coached every game in that decade. Dabo Swinney has coached every game in the decade of the 2010s and has eight winning seasons and one losing season (6-7 in 2010).

SENIORS CHASING HISTORY

The 2018 Clemson seniors left their legacy not only in program history but also in the annals of the sport, recording 55 wins to tie for the most wins by any senior class in FBS history.

Throughout the 2018 season, Head Coach Dabo Swinney reminded his players that anything Clemson had done once, they'd done again. The 2019 senior class will have the opportunity for that maxim to once again ring true.

The 2019 Clemson seniors are 49-3 since 2016, tied with Alabama for the best mark in the country. The group can tie the 2018 seniors for the best four-year mark in school, conference and Football Bowl Subdivision history with 14 wins in 2019 and can own the record outright if it were to repeat with another 15-0 campaign.

With another win this week, the 2019 seniors can become the third Clemson class and ninth overall class in FBS history to record 50 all-time wins.

FOUR LEAGUE TITLES IN A ROW

Clemson has won four straight ACC championships, joining Oklahoma as one of just two Power Five Conference schools to have an active streak of four consecutive conference championships.

From 2015-18, Clemson became the first ACC school to win four outright titles in a row. Florida State was a champion or co-champion nine years in a row from 1992-00, but never won more than three outright in a row.

Clemson's victory in the 2018 ACC Championship Game made Clemson only the second Power Five Conference school since the inception of league championship games in 1992 to win four straight conference championship games, joining the Florida Gators, who won four straight SEC Championship Games in a row from 1993-96. Clemson can become the first school to win five straight with a victory in the 2019 ACC Championship Game.

POWER OVER THE POWER FIVE

Early in his head coaching tenure, Dabo Swinney laid out his belief to then-Clemson athletic director Terry Don Phillips that the Tigers needed to add tough non-conference challenges on top of their tests in ACC play to serve as a foundation for the program's growth.

"I had a conversation with Terry Don and said, 'Terry Don, I know we are not very good right now, but we need to play people because that is going to help me teach and help me develop the culture and the mindset that you have to have to win at the highest level,'" recounted Swinney. "I didn't think we had that, and that's what we committed to. That's what we've done."

That scheduling philosophy and culture change has resonated in the Clemson program, and since 2013, no team can claim more wins against Power Five Conference opponents than the Tigers.

ESTEEMED COMPANY

Head Coach Dabo Swinney's run of excellence in his decade-plus at Clemson has placed him in the company of college football legends.

Swinney enters this week with a winning percentage of .804, sitting as one of only 14 head coaches in history with at least 10 seasons of FBS head coaching experience to post a mark of .800 or better. That list presently includes Knute Rockne (.881), Frank Leahy (.864), Urban Meyer (.854), George Woodruff (.846), Barry Switzer (.837), Tom Osborne (.836), Fielding Yost (.833), Percy Haughton (.832), Bob Neyland (.826), Bud Wilkinson (.826), Jock Sutherland (.812), Bob Devaney (.806) and Chris Petersen (.800).

Among the legends Swinney has already passed are College Football Hall of Famers Bo Schembechler (.775), Bear Bryant (.780) and Henry Williams (.785), as well as Nick Saban (.795 prior to NCAA adjustment), whose Crimson Tide were defeated by Swinney and the Tigers in the most recent College Football Playoff National Championship.

Swinney (124) is one win away from reaching 125 career victories as a head coach. Against Florida State earlier this year, Swinney passed the career total of Danny Ford, who won 121 combined games at Clemson (96) and Arkansas (25).

TOP ACTIVE WINNING PERCENTAGE

With Clemson's victory at Louisville and Washington's defeat by Oregon on Oct. 19, Head Coach Dabo Swinney assumed the top spot on the NCAA's list of winningest active head coaches by percentage with a minimum of five years of experience.

DABO AT 150

In the 150-year anniversary season of college football, Head Coach Dabo Swinney coached his 150th game as leader of the Clemson program in the fourth game of the season against Charlotte. He became just the second Clemson coach to reach 150 career games, joining Hall of Famer Frank Howard, who coached 295 games as Clemson's head coach from 1940-69.

NOTES

Swinney became the 17th coach with at least 10 years of experience to post a winning percentage of .800 or better. Only nine coaches have coached at least 150 games at schools presently in the Football Bowl Subdivision while achieving that mark. Interestingly, Clemson holds a 4-0 combined all-time record against the top three coaches on the list.

Note: List does not include George Woodruff, who went 142-25-2 at Penn, Illinois and Carlisle, two of which are not presently in the FBS.

With a win this week, Swinney can record his 125th win in his 155th career game. Per records available via Sports Reference, he would become the 10th-fastest coach to reach 125 career wins in terms of games coached.

EXCEEDING EXPECTATIONS

Clemson has equaled or exceeded its postseason AP and USA Today rankings in comparison to its preseason rankings each of the last eight years. That included quite an accomplishment in both 2016 and 2018, as it finished No. 1 by winning the national championship to exceed the school's No. 2 preseason ranking both times.

Clemson exceeded its preseason ranking each of the last eight years in the coaches poll, a streak that will come to an end in 2019 by simple virtue of Clemson opening the season atop the 2019 poll.

With regard to Associated Press voting, Clemson has exceeded its preseason ranking in the AP poll in seven of the last eight years. The lone exception came in 2013, when Clemson was picked No. 8 in the AP preseason poll and finished No. 8.

WHEN IN DOUBT, CLEMSON RESPONDS

Prior to maintaining status quo at No. 4 this week, Clemson had dropped in the AP Poll following each of its three previous victories against North Carolina, Florida State and Louisville. In Head Coach Dabo Swinney's tenure, the Tigers have routinely responded well following dips in the AP rankings.

Under Swinney, Clemson is 24-4 (and 3-0 in 2019) in games in which it enters ranked lower in the AP Poll than it did in its previous contest. This includes the 2014, 2016, 2017 and 2018 season openers in which Clemson opened the season lower than its ranking from the final game of the previous campaign. Including most recently against Boston College on Oct. 26, Clemson has won its last 16 games when entering ranked lower in the AP Poll than in its previous game.

CHAMPIONSHIP HERITAGE

After being named Clemson's full-time coach in December of 2008, Head Coach Dabo Swinney set about securing his first signing class in 2009.

His first class, which he tabbed the "Dandy Dozen," brought home Clemson's first ACC title since 1991 during their junior campaign in 2011. Excluding the 2019 signing class that debuted this season, all 10 of Clemson's signing classes under Swinney have at least one ACC and/or national title to their credit in their four years at Clemson.

23 AND COUNTING

Clemson enters this week riding a 23-game winning streak dating to the 2018 season opener. Clemson's active winning streak is one of only four double-digit winning streaks in the country.

ACTIVE WINNING STREAKS (FBS)

Rk	School	Wins
1.	Clemson	23
2.	Ohio State	14
3.	Appalachian State	13
4.	Minnesota	10
5.	Baylor	9
	LSU	9

Clemson's current 23-game winning streak marks the program's 10th all-time winning streak of at least 10 games and the longest streak in team history. Clemson surpassed its previous record 17-game winning streak from 2014-15 for sole possession of the longest streak in school history with a 41-6 win against Syracuse on Sept. 14.

The current streak marks the third time Dabo Swinney has had a winning streak of at least 10 games. Danny Ford had three separate streaks of at least 10 games, including a 13-game streak from 1980 through the last game of the 1981 season.

Frank Howard had a 15-game winning streak from 1947-49 and was part of a 13-game streak from 1939-40. The school's first 10-game winning streak took place under Walter Riggs and John Heisman from 1899 to 1901.

20-POINT WINS & 14-POINT WINS

Clemson's 2019 squad extended two historically profound victory margin streaks early in the 2019 season.

Observers will often point to Clemson's 27-23 come-from-behind victory against Syracuse in late September of 2018 as a turning point in the team's 15-0 national championship season. Following that win, in which redshirt freshman Chase Brice led the team to victory after starting the week as the squad's third-team quarterback, Clemson won 11 straight games by at least 20 points. Per ESPN Stats & Info, Clemson's 11-game streak of 20-point wins across the 2018-19 seasons was one game shy of the 2018 Alabama Crimson Tide for the longest streak of 20-point wins in the AP Poll era (since 1936).

STREAKS OF 20-POINT WINS (AP POLL ERA)

Rk	School	Year(s)	Streak
1.	Alabama	2018	12
2.	Clemson	2018-19	11

	Boise State	2002	10
	Temple	1973-74	10
	Nebraska	1971	10
	New Mexico St.	1959-60	10

That streak was broken in the second week of the 2019 season when Texas A&M scored a touchdown with only six seconds remaining to cut Clemson's margin of victory from 21 to 14.

A one-point victory against North Carolina in the final weekend in September brought Clemson's streak of 14 consecutive 14-point wins to a close. The streak tied for the third-longest in the AP Poll era, per ESPN Stats & Info.

POLL STREAKS

Clemson has been ranked in the top 25 of 78 consecutive AP polls dating to the 2014 season, the third-longest active streak in the nation. That includes a streak of 69 straight top-10 rankings, tied for first in the country with Alabama.

As far as total top-25 rankings since 2011, Clemson has appeared in 133 of a possible 140 polls (95.0 percent). That is the third-most in the nation, trailing only Alabama (140) and Oklahoma (136).

- Has won 66 of its last 70 games overall dating to 2014.
- Has won 40 of its last 42 games against ACC teams.
- Has won 73 of its last 75 games when leading at halftime.
- Is 94-2 since 2011 when leading after three quarters.
- Is 45-0 when scoring first since 2015.
- Has a 94-2 record when totaling more first downs than its opponent since 2011.
- Has a 52-3 record when winning the turnover margin since 2011.
- Is 61-1 when rushing for 200+ yards under Dabo Swinney.
- Is 47-0 when both passing and rushing for 200+ yards under Dabo Swinney.
- Is 42-1 since 2015 when outscoring opponents in the "Middle Eight," defined as the final four minutes of the first half and the first four minutes of the second half.
- Is 44-2 when having a 100-yard rusher since 2011.
- Has won 22 of its last 23 games away from home against ACC teams.
- Has won 22 of its last 23 road games.
- Has won 35 of its last 38 games away from home.
- Has won 41 of its last 42 games at home.
- Has won 32 of its last 33 games against ACC Atlantic Division teams.
- Has won 22 games in a row in September.
- Has won 22 of its last 23 games in October.
- Has won 10 games in a row in November.
- Has won 10 games in a row in December.
- Has won 69 of its last 71 games against unranked teams.
- Has won 21 of its last 23 games against top-25 teams since the start of the 2015 season.
- Entered 2019 having won 39 of its last 41 games against teams that ended their season in a bowl game (including 2018 Boston College, whose bowl game was cancelled as the result of inclement weather).
- Has won 76 straight games when holding teams under 23 points (dates to 2010).

ACC WINNING STREAKS

Clemson has won 40 of its last 42 games vs. ACC opponents, including ACC Championship game wins against North Carolina (2015), Virginia Tech (2016), Miami (2017) and Pittsburgh (2018).

Clemson has won its most recent game against every ACC team and owns a streak of at least two wins against 12 of the 13 squads.

ACTIVE WINNING STREAKS VS. ACC TEAMS

Syracuse	2	2017 at Syracuse, 24-27
Pittsburgh	1	2016 at Clemson, 42-43

Note: Clemson also won its last four games against Maryland prior to the Terrapins' exit from the ACC. The Terps' last win over Clemson came in 2009 at Maryland.

ROAD WARRIORS

Though Clemson will enjoy the comfort of Death Valley again this week, Clemson has won 22 of its last 23 true road games and 35 of its last 38 games away from home overall.

NOTES

Clemson is 3-0 on the road this year, with all three victories coming in ACC play. At Louisville on Oct. 19, Clemson won its 10th straight true road game, which marked only the second streak of 10 consecutive true road victories in the program's illustrious history. The streak sits two games shy of the school-record streak of 12 consecutive true road wins set across the 2015-17 season.

LONGEST WINNING STREAKS IN TRUE ROAD GAMES (CLEMSON HISTORY)

SATURDAYS ARE FOR THE TIGERS

Clemson enters this week having won each of its last 37 Saturday games. Clemson went 12-2 during the 2017 campaign, with its only losses coming on a Friday at Syracuse and a Monday on New Year's Day in the Sugar Bowl.

You have to travel back to Nov. 12, 2016, a total of 1,085 days prior to this week's contest, for Clemson's most recent loss on a Saturday.

Clemson's 37-game Saturday winning streak is the longest active streak in the FBS. In total, Clemson has won 57 of its last 58 Saturday games. The Tigers' current 37-game streak started following a 2016 loss to Pitt that was preceded by a 21-game Saturday winning streak across the 2014-16 seasons, previously the longest such streak in program history.

COACHES CORNER

Clemson's performance in 2019 has become a Rorschach test of sorts for observers of college football. Included below is a sampling of what coaches responsible for preparing their teams to face Clemson have said about the Tigers this year.

North Carolina Head Coach Mack Brown on Oct. 14: "The expectation for Clemson is that they blow everybody out. You go back a couple years ago and they barely beat Syracuse, they barely beat Pittsburgh and they win a national championship and we think, 'They hung in there and it's a comeback.' Now we're saying they stink? They don't stink. They've got the best players in the country and still probably the best team in the country. The fact that we played them good, everybody is mad at them instead of being excited for us. It's weird how people look at it, but they key is to win. You're not going to blow everybody out every week."

Louisville Head Coach Scott Satterfield on Oct. 14: "I was just watching that [Florida State] film and it was 42-0 in the third quarter, I was like 'Wow, man, they turned it on.' I think when they had that off-week they got back on track. Everyone is talking about, 'What is this Clemson team? But they have won 21 straight games [prior to Oct. 19], I think 14 out of their last 15 they have won by more than 14 points. It's unbelievable that people want to try to write a story about this isn't the Clemson team we are used to. These guys are good, they are well-coached, they expect to win, and they have a lot of talent."

Boston College Head Coach Steve Addazio on Oct. 21: "There's no doubt in my mind that they're the No. 1 team in the country. Skilled, talented everywhere. Have proven it on the field. When I watch the tape, I see no weaknesses. I see great athletes and a great coaching staff. I think both their offensive coordinators and their defensive coordinator, those guys are elite guys and you can tell when you watch their tape how well-coached each side of the ball is."

Addazio, postgame on Oct. 26: "This Clemson team is an elite team. You're talking about a first-round draft pick quarterback. You're talking about a first-round draft pick tailback. You're talking about two first-round draft pick wide receivers. I think [they have] an outstanding offensive line. On defense, they have elite personnel everywhere. They're super, super athletic. As Dabo has mentioned, this might be the best back end he's had. Their front end, while they lost some guys, they have some really super athletic guys in there and I think you can see that. This is an elite team... This team right here, that's one of the top, elite teams in America. Absolutely. Unquestionably. Whatever anybody else was saying, I don't know what they're talking about. That's my opinion. That's one of the top, elite teams in America, so whatever anybody else was saying, I don't know what they're talking about."

PLAYERS PER GAME

Clemson played an average of 72.5 players per game in 2018, an average that far exceeded all other AP Top 25 finishers, including fellow College Football Playoff participants Alabama (55.7), Notre Dame (55.4) and Oklahoma (52.4).

The approach to creating functional depth and rewarding players ready to play has been a key philosophy for Head Coach Dabo Swinney, whose own collegiate playing career was hatched as a walk-on fighting for playing time in Alabama's receiving corps.

"We're fully committed to playing guys who deserve to play," Swinney said. "You commit to a guy early in the season, and even if a guy's only played 10 percent of the snaps, when you get to game eight or nine, they've got some good experience."

That philosophy was on display in record fashion in Clemson's Sept. 21 contest against Charlotte. In that game, Clemson played a school-record 111 players.

YOUTH MOVEMENT

One year after Clemson returned a school-record 61 lettermen for the 2018 season, Clemson entered the 2019 campaign with a roster that includes 80 freshmen and sophomores.

However, despite the roster featuring the largest freshman class in Dabo Swinney's tenure at Clemson, the Tigers' youth is not devoid of experience. Last season, the first year of new redshirt regulations allowed Clemson to play a then-school-record 20 true freshmen in 2018. Clemson immediately shattered that record in its 2019 season opener, with 27 true freshmen making their collegiate debuts in that contest. An additional eight players made their debuts three weeks later against Charlotte.

First-year freshmen to play for Clemson this year include Davis Allen, LaVonta Bentley, Kaleb Boateng, Andrew Booth Jr., Joseph Charleston, David Cote, Mac Cranford, Tyler Davis, Michel Dukes, Hampton Earle, Hamp Greene, Tye Herbstreit, Jake Herbstreit, Tayquon Johnson, Sheridan Jones, Frank Ladson Jr., Jaelyn Lay, Zac McIntosh, Matt McMahan, Chez Mellusi, Joseph Ngata, Ruke Orhorhoro, Kane Patterson, Jalyn Phillips, Taisun Phommachanh, Will Putnam, Hunter Rayburn, Etinosa Reuben, Brannon Spector, Aidan Swanson, Ray Thornton III, Mason Trotter, Jonathan Weitz, Greg Williams and Lannden Zanders.

The only true freshmen not to see game action for Clemson this year are injured linebackers Bryton Constantine and Matthew Maloney and midseason walk-on offensive lineman Chase Guynup.

600-YARD GAMES

Clemson produced its third 600-yard game of the season in the team's eighth game of 2019. The three 600-yard games tied a school record set previously during the 2012, 2017 and 2018 campaigns.

Clemson's nine 600-yard games since 2017 are tied for the third-most in the country.

Clemson's third 600-yard game of the season came in a 674-yard effort against Boston College on Oct. 26. Clemson outgained the Eagles, 674-177, in the game. The 497-yard differential was Clemson's biggest since a 545-yard advantage against Kent State on Sept. 2, 2017 and was Clemson's largest yardage differential against an ACC opponent since the conference's founding in 1953, surpassing a 464-yard advantage against Wake Forest in 2000.

The game marked Clemson's sixth time outgaining an ACC opponent by 400 or more yards, five of which have come under Head Coach Dabo Swinney.

YARDS PER PLAY

Clemson shattered its school record for yards per play in 2018 at 7.35, the program's first time exceeding seven yards per play in a season. Clemson enters this week averaging 7.20 yards per play in 2019.

Including special teams, Clemson recorded a school-record 19 touchdowns of 50 yards or more in 2018. Players responsible for 17 of the 19 touchdowns of 50 yards or more returned for Clemson in 2019. Justyn Ross led Clemson with six such touchdowns, followed by four from Travis Etienne, three each from Lyn-J Dixon and Amari Rodgers, and one each by now-departed running backs Adam Choice and Tavien Feaster.

Eight games into the season, Clemson has already recorded seven touchdowns of 50 yards or more in 2019, including four passing, two rushing and one via interception return. The seven 50-plus-yard touchdowns already rank tied for 13th-most in a season for Clemson since 1950.

Clemson opened the 2019 season with an explosive performance in a 52-14 win against Georgia Tech. The Tigers racked up 632 yards of offense on only 79 plays, averaging 8.0 yards per play even despite a methodical 11-play, 42-yard clock-killing drive to conclude the game. Clemson amassed 411 of those yards on 49 carries, a rushing average of 8.4 yards. Against Louisville, Clemson exceeded the 8.0-yard mark again, rushing for 298 yards on 37 carries for an 8.1-yard average. It was Clemson's fifth game with a yards per carry average of eight yards or better since the start of the 2018 season, the most in the FBS.

The 2019 Tigers joined the 2013 Clemson squad as the only teams in the program's 124-year history to post multiple touchdowns from scrimmage of 85 yards or more in a single season. This year's squad is the first to produce plays of 85 or more yards both on the ground and through the air.

DOMINANT DEFENSE

Since the advent of the College Football Playoff in 2014, Clemson has routinely produced one of the nation's elite defenses.

Clemson has ranked in the Top 10 in the country in total defense in each of the last five seasons and has ranked among the Top 10 in scoring defense in three of those campaigns.

DEFENSE: 2018 VS. 2019

Clemson's 2018 defense became the first in school history to lead the nation in scoring defense, limiting teams to 13.1 points per game en route to a 15-0 season and a national championship. A comparison of numbers between the 2018 and 2019 Clemson defenses shows that this year's unit is matching or exceeding the output of the 2018 group that included seven players (including two reserves) that made NFL rosters this season (Christian Wilkins, Clelin Ferrell, Dexter Lawrence, Austin Bryant, Mark Fields, Trayvon Mullen and Albert Huggins).

Below is a look at 13 key defensive categories. The 2019 group is ahead of the 2018 team's season averages in 10 of the 13, including scoring defense, pass defense and total defense.

Clemson recorded a banner day in both categories in the team's Week 3 win at Syracuse. In that game, Clemson posted 15 tackles for loss, tied for the fifth-most in a game in school history and the most under Head Coach Dabo Swinney. It was Clemson's most since recording 15 tackles for loss vs. Utah State on Oct. 16, 2004.

Among those 15 tackles for loss were eight sacks, tied for the eighth-most sacks in a game in school history.

NO FLY ZONE

While outside observers focused on the loss of four NFL Draft picks (plus an additional undrafted free agent signing) from Clemson's defensive line after 2018, Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney spent the offseason telling anyone who would listen that the Tigers were returning the best front seven he's had in his tenure at Clemson.

Clemson's pass defense has rewarded Swinney's faith, ranking among the nation's best in nearly every key statistical pass defense category.

POINTS OFF TURNOVERS

Since the start of the 2018 postseason, Clemson's offense and defense have both been dominant in possessions starting following turnovers. Since the 2018 ACC Championship Game, the Tigers hold a 114-21 advantage against opponents in points off turnovers.

Clemson recorded a 7-0 margin in points off turnovers against Syracuse on Sept. 14, a particularly impressive stat when accounting for the degree of difficulty. In that contest, Clemson's two giveaways resulted in Syracuse starting resulting drives at the Clemson nine-yard line and Clemson three-yard line. Those two drives ended in an interception and a turnover on downs, respectively.

CLOSE-GAME SUCCESS

Though Clemson has not played a large number of one-possession games in recent times, the Tigers have proven very adept at winning such contests since 2011. The Tigers have played 29 games with a final margin of eight points or less, and Clemson's .862 winning percentage in those one-possession contests is the best in the country in that span.

OWNING THE "MIDDLE EIGHT"

During its current run of four consecutive College Football Playoff appearances dating to 2015, Clemson has frequently won one of the hidden "games within the game."

SportSource Analytics tracks the "Middle Eight," the section of the game defined as the final four minutes of the first half and the first four minutes of the second half. Clemson has outscored opponents in that time window 43 times since 2015, posting a 42-1 record in those contests.

Clemson was historically strong in that category in 2018, outscoring opponents 132-10 in the middle eight, an average margin of +8.1 points per game. That per-game differential was the largest by any program in the country since 2013.

One striking example of the importance of the middle eight came in the 2018 Cotton Bowl, as Clemson and Notre Dame played a tightly contested first half that saw Clemson holding only a 9-3 advantage with four minutes left in the first half. A touchdown with 1:44 remaining pushed Clemson's lead to 16-3, and Head Coach Dabo Swinney's decision to attack on a drive originating from Clemson's 20-yard line with 48 seconds remaining resulted in another score with two seconds to play in the second quarter, giving Clemson a 23-3 lead at the break.

The importance was also on display at Florida State in 2018, as after a scoreless first quarter, Clemson held only a 14-0 lead entering the final four minutes of the first half. Clemson scored two quick touchdowns in the final four minutes of the second quarter and opened the second half with another touchdown 58 seconds into the third quarter, giving the Tigers a commanding 35-0 lead in an eventual 59-10 win.

ESTABLISHED FIREPOWER

Clemson's eye-popping, record-setting offensive campaign in 2018 was authored at the skill positions in large part by underclassmen. The group was led in passing by true freshman Trevor Lawrence (3,280 yards), in rushing by sophomore Travis Etienne (1,658) and in receiving by sophomore Tee Higgins (59 receptions, 12 touchdowns) and freshman Justyn Ross (1,000 receiving yards).

Clemson was one of only three FBS programs to produce a 3,000-yard passer, 1,500-yard rusher and 1,000-yard receiver in 2018 and one of only 20 teams (including only nine Power Five teams) to accomplish the feat this decade. If Clemson repeats the feat, it would become the first program this decade to produce a player in all three categories in back-to-back seasons.

Clemson is the first Power Five program this decade to return a 3,000-yard passer, 1,500-yard rusher and 1,000-yard receiver from the year before. The only other FBS program to return such a trio was Western Michigan after the 2014 season.

As noted by ESPN, the 2019 Tigers are the first team to return its leading passer, rusher and receiver from a national championship squad since 2010, when Alabama returned leading passer Greg McElroy, leading rusher Mark Ingram and leading receiver Julio Jones from its 2009 championship squad.

300-YARD GAMES

Clemson's balance and its willingness to take what defenses offer on the ground or through the air sometimes limits opportunities for quarterback Trevor Lawrence to accrue some of the passing numbers put up around the country. But even playing in an offense that values balance and for a coach who values spreading playing time throughout the roster, Lawrence has still

UNPRECEDENTED DEBUT

In a June article examining the statistical context of Lawrence's freshman campaign, 247Sports' Chris Hummer noted, "there is no historical comparison for what Lawrence accomplished as a freshman."

In 2018, despite not starting four games, Lawrence posted the 10th season of 3,000 passing yards, 30-plus passing touchdowns, five or fewer interceptions and a 65.0 or better completion percentage by an FBS quarterback since 2000. It was only the fifth such season by a Power Five quarterback in the time frame, and the first by a freshman.

INTERCEPTION AVOIDANCE

The ascendance of Lawrence was key in Clemson's record-setting explosiveness in 2018. But often lost amid the barrage of big plays was Lawrence's ability to keep the ball in Clemson's hands.

Lawrence set a single-season Clemson record by closing the 2018 season with 169 consecutive pass attempts without an interception. Lawrence threw an interception on his 13th pass attempt of the season opener against Georgia Tech, ending a streak of 182 consecutive pass attempts without an interception. Lawrence's streak ended five attempts shy of the school record held by Tajh Boyd (187, 2012-13).

While mild panic emerged from national observers about Lawrence's eight interceptions thus far in 2019, Lawrence still holds Clemson's career interception rate record.

200-YARD RUSHING GAMES

Travis Etienne wasted no time rewriting history in 2019. He recorded a career-high 205 yards in the season opener against Georgia Tech, the 17th 200-yard rushing game in Clemson history. It was Etienne's second career 200-yard day, tying him with Ray Yaeger, Terrence Flagler, Raymond Priestler and Andre Ellington for the most in school history.

Etienne's 12 carries were the fewest by any Clemson player in the midst of a 200-yard performance, undercutting Buck George's 15 attempts in Clemson's first individual 200-yard rushing day in school history in 1952.

100-YARD RUSHING GAMES

Etienne posted his first career 100-yard rushing performance in Clemson's third game of the season in 2018, rushing for 162 yards in a victory against Georgia Southern. It was his first of eight 100-yard rushing games that season, one shy of Wayne Gallman's single-season school record of nine from 2015.

With 13 career 100-yard rushing performances (eight in 2018, four in 2019 and one in 2017), Etienne entered the Top 5 in school history in the category. He currently sits four games shy of Gallman's school career record of 17 from 2014-16.

RACE FOR 1,000

Despite averaging 14.25 carries per game through the team's first eight contests, Etienne (890) enters this week 110 yards from reaching 1,000 rushing yards on the season. If he were to reach the mark this week, it would tie the mark for the fastest any Clemson player has rushed for 1,000 yards in a season and represent only the second time a Clemson player had accomplished the feat in single-digit games.

TOUCHDOWN STREAKS

Etienne concluded the 2018 season having scored at least one rushing touchdown in each of Clemson's final five games of the season. He totaled nine rushing touchdowns (plus one receiving touchdown) in those final five contests. He opened the 2019 season with a career-high-tying three-touchdown performance.

Etienne accounts for two of the eight-longest streaks of consecutive games with a rushing touchdown in school history.

DOING MORE WITH LESS

Etienne posted school records in rushing yards (1,658) and rushing touchdowns (24) in 2018 despite recording only 204 carries. His record-setting campaign in 2018 resulted in his selection as a Doak Walker Award finalist, as he joined C.J. Spiller (2009) as only the players in Clemson history to be named as a finalist for the honor.

The award eventually went to Wisconsin's Jonathan Taylor, who turned in a superb season of his own with 2,194 yards and 16 touchdowns on 307 attempts. Taylor averaged 7.15 yards per carry and averaged a touchdown every 19.1 carries; on 104 fewer carries, Etienne averaged 8.13 yards per carry and a touchdown every 8.5 carries.

If Etienne had received the same number of carries as Taylor and maintained his per-carry averages for rushing yards and rushing touchdowns, the resulting pace would total 2,495 yards and 36 rushing touchdowns, higher totals than every Heisman running back since Barry Sanders in 1988.

-- NO. 3 WR AMARI RODGERS --

COMEBACK KID

Since his arrival at Clemson in 2017, Amari Rodgers has been hailed by coaches and teammates as one of the program's hardest workers. The work ahead of Rodgers was substantial on March 25 this season, when the junior wide receiver from Knoxville, Tenn., tore his ACL during spring practice.

Rodgers attacked his rehab with his trademark work ethic, returning to action 166 days later in Clemson's Week 2 game against Texas A&M, receiving a thunderous roar from Death Valley following his first reception.

A week later, Rodgers re-announced his presence nationally, catching four passes for 121 yards with two receiving touchdowns in a 41-6 prime-time win at Syracuse. His performance included touchdown receptions of 16 and 87 yards, the latter of which tied for the fourth-longest pass play in program history.

Rodgers' performance at Syracuse came with an odd historical parallel. The game was the first sellout at Syracuse since 1998, when Rodgers' father, Tee Martin, quarterbacked Tennessee to a win at Syracuse at the beginning of a national championship season.

-- NO. 5 WR TEE HIGGINS --

TOUCHDOWN STREAK

While teammate Justyn Ross led Clemson with 1,000 receiving yards in 2018, no Clemson receiver found the end zone more than Tee Higgins. The Tennessee native recorded 12 receiving touchdowns, tied with two different seasons by Sammy Watkins for the second-most in a single season in school history.

Higgins is primed for an assault on some of the greats presently populating Clemson's all-time leaderboard for career receiving touchdowns. His 38-yard touchdown grab against North Carolina was his 17th career touchdown reception, tying him for ninth in school history.

Higgins closed the 2018 campaign with at least one touchdown in each of Clemson's final four games. With a touchdown in the first game of 2019, he pushed his consecutive games streak to five, tied for the second-most in school history. He was six feet away from extending the streak to six in the second game of the season at Texas A&M, when he was brought down at the Texas A&M 2-yard line on a highlight-reel 29-yard reception.

-- NO. 11 LB ISAIAH SIMMONS --

MR. VERSATILITY

A track star turned safety turned linebacker turned free-ranging weapon, Clemson's Isaiah Simmons has rapidly emerged as one of college football's most versatile players.

"He was like a young giraffe running around out there. He was elbows and knees," Head Coach Dabo Swinney described of Simmons' arrival on campus. "Quickly, the one thing that showed up early was his physicality. He likes it. That showed up quick [as did] just his pure athleticism."

In addition to being Clemson's most prolific tackler, Simmons leads Clemson this season in sacks (6.0) and tackles for loss (11.5) while also contributing five pass breakups, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery. Presently, Simmons is one of only two FBS players — and the only one in the Power Five — credited with at least 60 tackles, 5.0 sacks and 10.0 tackles for loss this season.

Isaiah Simmons	Clemson	64	11.5	6.0
DeAngelo Malone	Western Kentucky	62	16.0	9.0

*Note - tackles as credited initially by NCAA stats, not coaches' film review

"He's what everybody's looking for because he's that hybrid guy," Swinney said of Simmons. "He's long. He can cover. He can play first, second and third down. He legitimately could go play safety. He's a guy that could probably make all-conference for us at probably three different positions if you played him there."

-- OFFENSIVE LINE --

SACKS ALLOWED

Clemson is powered up front in 2019 by one of the most senior-laden offensive lines in school history. Alongside sophomore left tackle Jackson Carman, Clemson's line includes four senior starters in left guard John Simpson, center Sean Pollard, right guard Gage Cervenka and right tackle Tremayne Anchrum.

In the season opener, Clemson started four senior offensive linemen in a game for the first time since the 2011 South Carolina game, when Phillip Price, David Smith, Antoine McClain and Landon Walker started alongside junior Dalton Freeman. The last time Clemson had four senior starters on the offensive line for the majority of a season was 2007, when sophomore Thomas Austin was joined by seniors Barry Richardson, Chris McDuffie, Brandon Pilgrim and Christian Capote.

Dating back to last season, Clemson's offense has allowed only 11 total sacks in its last 16 games, including holding teams to zero sacks in eight of those 16 contests.

Clemson's protection for quarterback Trevor Lawrence has taken on an almost-mythical quality, according to Syracuse Head Coach Dino Babers, whose own prolific defensive line was held without a sack against Clemson in 2019.

"[It's like] Game of Thrones. He's got a castle, he's got a moat, he's got some dragons. That dude's protected," Babers said.

SACK DIFFERENTIAL

Clemson's domination in its current winning streak has been powered in part at the line of scrimmage, where Clemson holds an 84-23 edge over opponents in sacks in that time frame. Clemson's +61 margin in sacks since 2018 is by far the top differential in the country, as no other program can boast a sack differential greater than +46 since 2018.

NO-NAME NO MORE

The college football world became well-acquainted and familiar with the faces that populated Clemson's 2018 defensive line. In addition to producing four picks in the first four rounds of the 2019 NFL Draft, Clemson's 2018 defensive line featured some of the most gregarious names and faces in the sport in Christian Wilkins, Clelin Ferrell, Dexter Lawrence and Austin Bryant.

The average observer may not know the names and faces of Clemson's 2019 unit as well, but the unit has served notice of its arrival with an impressive start to the season. Included below is a quick collection of quotes from Dabo Swinney about each of Clemson's listed starters or co-starters on the defensive line:

- DE Justin Foster: "He's just an old salty dog. He's just steady. You can count on him. He's tough."

- DE Xavier Thomas: "Xavier Thomas, geez. That guy is a special talent, but he's got to be a down-in, down-out special player."

- DE Logan Rudolph: "Nobody's game planning for Logan Rudolph. Nobody knows who he is, but you will. That guy is a football player."

- DT Tyler Davis: "It's not often you see a D-tackle show up and start. To see a guy start [as a true freshman] and really play at a high level... even though we've had that precedent here, that's still pretty unique."

- DT Nyles Pinckney: "He's a fourth-year guy and he looks that way. He just carries himself that way and has played some good football for us."

- DT Jordan Williams: "Tool-wise and ability-wise, he's got it all."

STOPPING THE RUN

Clemson held Texas A&M to 2.0 yards per carry on 27 carries in Week 2, the lowest yards-per-carry average allowed by Clemson since holding Boston College to 0.3 yards per carry on Nov. 10, 2018. A week after the Texas A&M game, Clemson then held Syracuse to 0.4 yards per carry in prime time.

The games represented the 18th and 19th times since 2014 that Clemson has held an opponent to 2.0 or fewer yards per carry, fourth-most in the country. Clemson is 18-1 in those contests.

Since Brent Venables joined Clemson as defensive coordinator prior to the 2012 season, Clemson has allowed only 1.14 points per possession, the second-fewest in the country in that span. No program has given up fewer points per possession since 2018, as Clemson's 0.78 points allowed per possession since the start of last season makes Clemson one of only two programs in the country to allow fewer than a full point per drive to opponents.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

In addition to Clemson's elite on-field performance in 2018, the squad simultaneously posted one of the best academic semesters in the program's history. The squad posted team records in average GPA and number of players earning a 3.0 or better, all while collecting the AFCA Academic Achievement Award for the first time in Clemson history.

In the spring of 2019, the NCAA announced APR metrics for the 2017-18 academic year as well as public recognition awards for the Top 10 percent of programs in each sport at every level. Clemson set a program record with a 992 APR for the 2017-18 academic year, third-best in the FBS, earning NCAA recognition for the eighth time in the last nine years.

Clemson is one of only 34 of the 130 FBS programs to earn at least one APR recognition since the 2009-10 academic year, one of only 28 to earn it multiple times, and one of only three programs to earn the award eight-plus times in that span.

ACC: WE DO THIS

Arguments about conference strength were once again en vogue during the 2019 offseason, with various pundits and commentators offering opinions on the state of the ACC and the national landscape.

Head Coach Dabo Swinney has repeatedly contended that the quality of Clemson's conference competition has been central to its postseason success.

"This league doesn't take a back seat to anyone. It's a very competitive league," Swinney said at ACC Kickoff in July. "At the end of the day, I think the credit goes to this conference; I think that's why we've been so successful in the postseason."

Entering the 2019 season, the ACC:

- Has won more football national titles than any other conference since 2013 (three of the last six).

- Has had a team in either the College Football Playoff or the BCS National Championship Game in each of the past six years.

- Matched its league record with 11 bowl teams in 2018, including Boston College, Clemson, Duke, Georgia Tech, Miami, NC State, Pitt, Syracuse, Virginia, Virginia Tech and Wake Forest. The 11 bowl teams tied for the most among any conference.

- Is the only conference to send every team to at least one bowl game over the last three seasons. In addition, the ACC is tied for the most bowl teams (32) among all conferences over the last three years (11 in 2016, 10 in 2017, 11 in 2018).

- Has produced 19 postseason wins since the 2016 season, the most of any conference.

Those facts aren't lost on Swinney, who has actively contested narratives questioning the ACC's strength.

"The rhetoric used to be, 'Well, an ACC team's never going to win the national championship because they don't play anybody. So when they get to the postseason and they've gotta play the big bad boys, they can't beat them,'" Swinney said. "Well, now we win, and [they say] the only reason we win is because we don't play anybody. So you can't have it both ways."

RELATIVELY SPEAKING

Clemson's 2019 roster has many connections to college and professional athletics. Below is a list of the connections:

- Tremayne Anchrum, OL: His father, Tremayne, played college basketball at Southern California.

- Ben Batson, QB: Son of Clemson strength and conditioning coach Joey Batson.

- J.C. Chalk, TE: Grandson of former Alabama coach Gene Stallings, who was Dabo Swinney's head coach at Alabama when Swinney was a player.

- Bryton Constantin, LB: Son of Tony Harris, who played college basketball at University of New Orleans, then in NBA with the 76ers and Celtics.

- Carson Donnelly, DB: Father, Chris, played at Alabama with Dabo Swinney.

- Brian Dawkins, Jr., CB: Son of former Clemson All-American and nine-time NFL Pro Bowl safety Brian Dawkins, who was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2018.

- Mike Jones Jr., LB: Son of Mike Jones Sr., who played at NC State prior to a nine-year NFL career with the Cardinals, Patriots, Rams and Titans.

- Joseph Ngata, WR: Brother of Washington linebacker Ariel Ngata.

- Ruke Orhorhoro, DE: Cousin of three family members who played or are still playing college football — Michael Ojemudia (Iowa), Mario Ojemudia (Michigan) and Ovie Oghoufo (Notre Dame).

- Patrick Phibbs, LS: Son of Bruce Phibbs, who won a Division I-AA championship with Southern Illinois in 1983 as a fullback and long snapper.

- Amari Rodgers, WR: Son of former Tennessee quarterback Tee Martin.

- Logan Rudolph, DE: Brother of former Oklahoma State quarterback Mason Rudolph, now with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

- Will Swinney, WR: Son of Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney.

- Drew Swinney, WR: Son of Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney

- Nolan Turner, SS: Son of former Alabama player Kevin Turner, who also played eight years in the NFL with New England Patriots.

- James Skalski, LB: Father, John, played football at Oklahoma.

- Baylon Spector, LB: Son of former Clemson receiver Robbie Spector.

- Will Spiers, P: Son of former Clemson punter and baseball All-American Bill Spiers.

- Regan Upshaw, DE: Son of nine-year NFL defensive tackle Regan Upshaw

- Jake Venables, LB: Son of Clemson defensive coordinator Brent Venables.

#WRU TO THE NFL

Clemson's status as an elite producer of pro talent has been inarguable in recent years, particularly at wide receiver, where the school has adopted the moniker of "Wide Receiver U" (or #WRU in hashtag form).

Since the 2013 NFL Draft, no school has had more receivers selected in the NFL Draft than Clemson.

2019 GAME RECAPS

GAME 4	CHARLOTTE	10
	CLEMSON	52
	SEPT. 21, 2019 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. – Top-ranked Clemson defeated Charlotte 52-10 at Memorial Stadium night in Dabo Swinney's 150th career game as head coach at Clemson. The win extended Clemson's school-record win streak to 19 games, dating to the start of the 2018 season. The Tiger defense held the 49ers to 216 yards of total offense.

Quarterback Trevor Lawrence threw two touchdown passes, including a 58-yard touchdown to Tee Higgins on his first attempt of the game, as well as a two-yard touchdown pass to Cornell Powell early in the second quarter before giving way to the Tiger reserves. Chase Brice connected with Joseph Ngata for a 37-yard touchdown in the third quarter. The touchdown reception was Ngata's first career touchdown reception. Running backs Travis Etienne, Lyn-J Dixon and Michel Dukes all accounted for a rushing touchdown, respectively, as well.

Clemson held Charlotte to 63 passing yards. Safety K'Von Wallace returned a 66-yard interception for a touchdown in the first quarter, his fourth career interception and first career touchdown.

Clemson played a school-record 111 players in the contest, shattering the previous record of 94, set against The Citadel in 2017 and again against Louisville in 2018.

GAME 5	CLEMSON	21
	NORTH CAROLINA	20
	SEPT. 28, 2019 KENAN MEMORIAL STADIUM • CHAPEL HILL, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. – No. 1 Clemson stopped North Carolina on a two-point conversion attempt with less than two minutes remaining to defeat the Tar Heels, 21-20, at Kenan Memorial Stadium. The game marked the first time in nine years that the Tigers traveled to Chapel Hill, N.C., and represented the first time since 2002 that Clemson beat the Tar Heels in Chapel Hill.

North Carolina opened the game with a four-play touchdown drive capped by a 40-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Sam Howell to Dyami Brown. Running back Travis Etienne eventually responded for Clemson with a 13-yard touchdown in the second quarter.

After Howell produced a second passing touchdown for North Carolina, quarterback Trevor Lawrence found the end zone for his fourth rushing touchdown of the season to tie the game at 14 with less than a minute to go before halftime.

The teams traded scoreless possessions throughout the third quarter, but in the fourth quarter, Lawrence connected with Tee Higgins on a 38-yard touchdown to give the Tigers their first lead of the game with 9:54 remaining. Lawrence finished the contest having completed 18-of-30 passes for 206 yards and a career-best 45 rushing yards. Higgins finished with game highs in receptions (six) and receiving yards (129).

Trailing 21-14, North Carolina engineered a 16-play, 75-yard touchdown drive to pull within one point with 1:17 remaining. North Carolina Head Coach Mack Brown opted to try a two-point conversion attempt, but the Tiger defense stood tall, as Xavier Thomas, James Skalski and Nolan Turner combined to tackle quarterback Sam Howell to preserve the lead. A Clemson recovery on an ensuing outside kick sealed the victory.

GAME 6	FLORIDA STATE	14
	CLEMSON	45
	OCT. 12, 2019 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. – No. 2 Clemson defeated Florida State Seminoles, 45-14, as Clemson became just the 15th FBS program — and the first in the Atlantic Coast Conference — to reach 750 all-time wins.

Quarterback Trevor Lawrence completed 17-25 passes for 170 yards and three touchdowns. Lawrence also rushed for his fifth touchdown of the season in the contest. Wide receiver Justyn Ross added two touchdown receptions in the second quarter, finishing with 61 receiving yards on five catches.

Running back Travis Etienne surpassed 3,000 career rushing yards on the afternoon, finishing with 127 rushing yards and a three-yard touchdown reception in the first quarter. Amari Rodgers added a 29-yard touchdown on a reverse to open the scoring in the second half.

Though Clemson's offense helped the Tigers run out to a quick 28-0 lead, the defense was one of the stories of the game, forcing four turnovers, including three interceptions. Cornerback Derion Kendrick recorded his first career interception, which he returned 38 yards for a pick-six. It was Clemson's second interception return for touchdown this season, giving Clemson multiple pick sixes in every season since 2013.

Clemson's 39:37 possession time was the program's longest since its school-record 42:58 possession time against North Carolina on Nov. 7, 1992.
