CLEMSON WELCOMES WAKE FOREST ON SENIOR DAY

Clemson will take to Frank Howard Field at Memorial Stadium one final time in 2019 in search of a school-record 22nd consecutive home win when the team hosts Wake Forest on Saturday, Nov. 16. Kickoff in Death Valley is scheduled for 3:30 p.m. ET.

The contest will be Clemson's first since clinching the ACC Atlantic Division last week at NC State to earn its fifth consecutive ACC Championship Game berth, a first in conference history. This week, Clemson can become only the second program in conference annals to finish back-to-back years with an 8-0 record in regular season conference play.

Prior to the game, Clemson will honor its 2019 senior class with Senior Day festivities. Presently, Clemson's seniors hold a 51-3 overall record in the last four years, standing as one of only five senior classes in FBS history to post at least 51 career wins in four years. The group is 26-1 in Death Valley, 29-2 in ACC regular season play (32-2 against the ACC overall) and has spent its entire tenure in the AP Top 10, including an active streak of 34 consecutive appearances in the AP Top 5.

The game has been also designated as Hall of Fame Day, as the Clemson University Block C Club will induct nine members, including former running back James Davis, into the school's athletic Hall of Fame. For information on this year's inductees, see Page 23.

Collectively, Clemson has played at a Hall of Fame level in 2019 according to a multitude of metrics. Clemson has held a lead of 14 or more points for two-thirds (66.7 percent) of plays this season, a lead of 21 or more points for more than half of plays (52.7 percent) and a lead of 35 or more points for more than a quarter (28.7 percent) of plays this season.

While much discussion of Clemson's 2019 season has centered around its opponents, the program has adhered to its belief that "it's about how we play, not who we play." Clemson has dominated the vast majority of its opponents even when accounting for opponent strength. This season, Clemson's defense is limiting its FBS opponents to 42.0 percent of their season averages in points and 62.5 percent of their season averages in yards. Meanwhile, Clemson's offensive production would equal 145.1 percent of opponents' season averages in points allowed and 126.2 percent of their season averages in yards allowed.

NOTES

THE TIGER 280

Three items of note in 280 characters or less:

🔥 This week, Clemson can win its 26th consecutive game, dating to the 2018 season opener. To date, there have been only 21 winning streaks of 26 games or more in the 150-year history of major college football, including only three such streaks since 2000.

🔥 Clemson became the first team to reach 10 wins in 2019. It represents Clemson's ninth straight 10-win season, tied for the third-longest streak in FBS history. Eight of its 10 wins have come against Power Five opponents. No other team has more than six Power Five wins this year.

🔥 With school records now in hand, RB Travis Etienne is three rushing touchdowns away from breaking James Conner's ACC record for rushing touchdowns (52) and three touchdowns of any kind from breaking Conner's record for total touchdowns (56).

WHAT TO WATCH FOR THIS WEEK

- Clemson attempting to open a season 11-0 for the fifth time in program history, joining 11-0 starts in 1948, 1981, 2015 and 2018.

- Clemson winning the first 11 games of a season for the third time under Head Coach Dabo Swinney (2015 and 2018). Swinney is already the first coach in Clemson history to coach the school to have multiple 11-0 starts, as legendary coaches Frank Howard and Danny Ford only accomplished the feat once each, in 1948 and 1981, respectively.

- The 2019 Tigers winning an 11th game to tie the 1948, 1978, 2012 and 2013 squads for the sixth-most wins in a season in school history.

- The 2019 Clemson seniors attempting to win their 52nd game in the last four years to move into fourth for the most career victories by a senior class in FBS history. Only the 2018 Clemson and Alabama seniors (55 each) and 2017 Alabama seniors (53) have recorded at least 52 wins in four years.

- Clemson's 2019 seniors attempting to improve to 30-2 in regular season ACC play to match the 2018 seniors (30 from 2015-18) as the winningest class in school history in regular season conference play, one shy of the conference record of 31.

- Clemson attempting to win its 26th consecutive game, dating to the start of the 2018 season, to extend the longest winning streak in school history and second-longest winning streak in ACC history.

- Clemson attempting to post only the 22nd winning streak of 26 or more games in major college football history.

- Clemson entering the week as the only team in the country with eight wins against Power Five opponents this season. No other team in the country has more than six. Clemson has won seven of the eight contests by 14 or more points.

- Clemson attempting to win a 22nd consecutive home game to break the record for the longest home winning streak in school history, set across the 2013-16 seasons. Clemson's last home loss came on Nov. 12, 2016, against Pitt. The current 21-game streak is presently tied for the school record and is only the second home winning streak of at least 20 games in school history. With Alabama's home loss last week, Clemson now holds the nation's longest active home winning streak.

- Clemson attempting to finish with an undefeated home record for a third consecutive season, which would be a first under Head Coach Dabo Swinney.

- Clemson attempting to go undefeated at home in three straight seasons for the first time since 1981-83, which included a tie in both 1982 and 1983. Clemson's last time posting a perfect home record with no ties in three straight years was 1939-41, when the program played only two home games a year.

- Clemson attempting to win a seventh home game this year to allow the 2019 senior class (26 home wins from 2016-19) to tie the school record for most home wins by a senior class, matching the mark set by the 2017 and 2018 seniors (27 each).

- Clemson attempting to finish with a perfect regular season ACC record in back-to-back seasons for the first time since a three-season stretch across the 1981-83 seasons.

- Clemson attempting to become the second ACC program to post back-to-back 8-0 regular season conference records since the conference moved to an eight-game conference slate in 1992, joining Florida State (1992-94, 1996-97, 1999-2000 and 2013-14).

- Clemson attempting to defeat its 21st consecutive ACC opponent, including postseason play, dating to October 2017 against Georgia Tech. A 21st consecutive victory against a conference opponent (including postseason play) would be the longest such streak in school history. It would be Clemson's 19th straight win in ACC regular season play, one shy of the school-record 20-game streak posted by the 1981-84 Tigers.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 67-17-1 all-time against Wake Forest. Clemson's current 66 all-time wins against Wake Forest are its second-most against any opponent in school history, trailing the Tigers' 70 wins against South Carolina.

- Clemson attempting to win its 11th consecutive game against Wake Forest, dating back to 2009. It would mark Clemson's second 11-game winning streak in series history, trailing a 15-game streak from 1977-91. Clemson's current 10-game winning streak against Wake Forest is the Tigers' longest active winning streak against an ACC foe.

- Clemson attempting to earn a 10th straight home victory against Wake Forest, dating back to 2000. Clemson's last home loss to Wake Forest came in 1998. It would mark Clemson's seventh double-digit home winning streak against a single opponent in school history and its second such streak against Wake Forest (16 straight home wins in the series from 1963-91).

- Head Coach Dabo Swinney attempting to improve to 11-0 as a head coach against Wake Forest. Wake Forest is one of five ACC schools against whom Swinney is undefeated as head coach, a list that also includes Duke (3-0), Louisville (6-0), Virginia (3-0) and Virginia Tech (5-0).

- Clemson attempting to defeat an ACC Atlantic Division opponent for a 14th straight time and for the 34th time in 35 opportunities.

- Clemson attempting to win its 14th game by 20 or more points in its last 15 attempts against ACC competition. Presently, 14 of Clemson's 16 wins against ACC programs since the start of the 2018 season have resulted in a victory margin of 20 points or more.

- Clemson attempting to push its winning streak in Saturday games to 40 to extend the longest Saturday winning streak in school history. Clemson's current 39-game run of consecutive Saturday victories is the longest active streak in the country.

- Clemson entering the week as one of only two teams in the country to rank in the Top 5 in both total offense (second, 545.8 per game) and total defense (fourth, 251.5).

- Clemson (5,458) needing 542 yards to post the eighth 6,000-yard season in Clemson history. All but one of the seven previous 6,000-yard seasons have come in Dabo Swinney's head coaching tenure.

- Clemson (2,698) entering the week 302 rushing yards shy of the seventh 3,000-yard rushing season in program history.

- Clemson (453) needing 47 more points to produce the sixth 500-point season in team history, joining the 2018 (664), 2016 (588), 2015 (577), 2012 (533) and 2013 (522) seasons.

- Clemson (61) needing nine more touchdowns to produce the fourth 70-touchdown season in school history, joining the 2018 (90), 2016 (75) and 2015 (71) seasons.

- Clemson attempting to score 45 points in six consecutive games for the first time in school history. Clemson's current five-game streak is the second-longest in ACC history behind only Florida State (six in 2013).

- Clemson attempting to win a sixth straight game by 30 or more points to break a tie with 2013 Florida State for the longest such streak in conference history.

- Clemson attempting to reach 50 points in four straight games for the first time in program history.

NOTES

- Clemson attempting to record 600 yards of offense for a fifth time to add to its current single-season school record for 600-yard games (four).

- Clemson attempting to reach 500 yards in a sixth straight game for the first time since October and November of the 2016 season.

- Clemson attempting to exceed 7.0 yards per play for a fifth game in a row. Clemson's current four-game streak is presently tied with the first four games of 2018 for the program's longest streak on record.

- Clemson attempting to post both 200 rushing yards and 200 passing yards in a sixth consecutive game. Clemson's five straight 200/200 games are the program's longest streak on record.

- Clemson entering the game as the only team in the country averaging at least 250 yards both rushing (269.8) and passing (276.0).

- Clemson (two) needing one more 400-yard rushing game in 2019 to break the school record for 400-yard rushing games in a season (two each by the 1950, 1992 and 2018 squads).

- Clemson (four) rushing for 300 yards in a fifth game this season to tie the school record for 300-yard rushing games in a single season (five each in 1950, 1978 and 2018).

- Clemson attempting to rush for at least 200 yards in six straight games for the first time since opening the 2000 season with seven straight 200-yard rushing performances.

- Clemson attempting to rush for multiple touchdowns in a 12th consecutive game for the first time since a 15-game streak across the 2016-17 seasons.

- Clemson, which has rushed for five touchdowns in each of its last two games, attempting to rush for five touchdowns in three straight games for the first time in school history. While Clemson has never accomplished the feat in three straight games, Clemson has twice rushed for five touchdowns three times in a four-game span in the same season in school history (November 1954 and September 2000).

- Clemson attempting to produce more passing yards than its opponent in a 14th consecutive game, dating to last season, for the first time since an 18-game streak across the 2015-17 seasons.

- Clemson attempting to throw three or more touchdowns in six straight games for the first time in school history.

- Clemson attempting to hold an 11th straight opponent below 300 yards of total offense to become the first team since the turn of the century to open a season holding opponents below 300 yards in each of the first 11 games.

- Clemson attempting to hold a 14th consecutive opponent to 20 or fewer points for the first time since the 1949-51 seasons under Head Coach Frank Howard.

- Clemson attempting to hold a ninth consecutive opponent below 200 passing yards for the first time since games 3-11 of the 2008 season. During Clemson's current run of four consecutive College Football Playoff berths starting in 2015, Clemson has held opponents below 200 passing yards 43 times, second-most in the country, with a 42-1 record in those contests.

- Clemson entering the game having held five consecutive opponents to a completion percentage of 50.0 percent or worse. A sixth straight game would be Clemson's first such streak since a seven-game span including the 1999 season finale and first six games of 2000.

- Clemson attempting to produce a fourth straight game with zero giveaways for the first time in complete records dating back to 1954.

- Clemson attempting to win the turnover margin in six consecutive games for the first time under Head Coach Dabo Swinney.

- Clemson attempting to produce a takeaway for a sixth consecutive game and for the 14th time in 15 games, dating to 2018.

- Clemson attempting to create multiple turnovers for a third straight game for the first time since a five-game span across the final three games of 2018 and the first two games of 2019.

- Clemson entering the game with three defensive touchdowns in 2019, tied for seventh in the country. A fourth defensive touchdown this season would represent Clemson's second time in three years scoring four defensive touchdowns in a season (four in 2017).

- Running back Lyn-J Dixon (478) needing 70 more rushing yards to break his single-season career high (547) set as a freshman last season.

- Running back Travis Etienne (50) needing two rushing touchdowns to tie or three rushing touchdowns to break the ACC record for career rushing touchdowns held by Pitt's James Conner (52).

- Etienne (54) needing three touchdowns of any kind to break Conner's ACC record for career total touchdowns (56). In doing so, Etienne (324) would also pass Conner (338) as the highest-scoring non-kicker in ACC history and trail only 11 kickers in career scoring.

- Etienne (324) needing only six points to pass Aaron Hunt (329) for third on Clemson's all-time scoring list. Etienne already stands as Clemson's scoring leader among non-kickers.

- Etienne, by virtue of his recent performance, entering the game in striking distance of school records for rushing yards in a series:

MOST RUSHING YARDS IN A SERIES OF GAMES IN A SEASON (CLEMSON HISTORY)

| Most Yards in... | Record | Held By                | Needed* |
|------------------|--------|------------------------|---------|
| 3 Games          | 520    | Woodrow Dantzler, 2000 | 196     |
| 4 Games          | 654    | Travis Etienne, 2018   | 221     |
| 5 Games          | 752    | Travis Etienne, 2019   | 127     |
| 6 Games          | 858    | Terrence Flagler, 1986 | 106     |

* - rushing yards needed by Etienne this week to reach each mark

- Etienne attempting to record multiple rushing touchdowns in four consecutive games for the first time in his career. He would be the first Clemson player to accomplish the feat since James Davis in 2006.

- Etienne attempting to reach 200 rushing yards in a game for the fourth time in his career to add to his school record for career 200-yard rushing games. He would become the first Clemson player with three 200-yard rushing games in a single season.

- Etienne attempting to take sole possession of the school record for consecutive 100-yard rushing games by reaching the mark in a sixth straight game. He is presently tied with Kenny Flowers (five in 1985) and Raymond Priester (five in 1996-97).

- Etienne trying to post his sixth consecutive 100-yard rushing game to move into a tie for the eighth-longest streak in ACC history.

- Etienne (15) recording another 100-yard rushing game to pass Raymond Priester (15) for sole possession of second on Clemson's all-time leaderboard for career 100-yard rushing games. It would pull him one game shy of Wayne Gallman's school career record of 17 from 2014-16.

- Etienne (six) attempting to post a seventh 100-yard rushing game this season to tie Raymond Priester (seven in 1996) and Kenny Flowers (seven in 1985) for third-most in a season in school history.

- Etienne (3,638) entering the game 243 rushing yards shy of James Davis (3,881) for second on Clemson's career rushing yardage leaderboard.

- Etienne (4,377) needing 15 all-purpose yards to pass Travis Zachery (4,391) for fifth on Clemson's leaderboard for career all-purpose yards. He is 210 yards away from passing Andre Ellington (4,586) for fourth.

- Etienne attempting to rush for a touchdown in a fifth straight game for the first time since a six-game streak across the final five games of 2018 and the 2019 season opener. It would be his third career streak of five games or more with a rushing touchdown.

- Etienne (1,214) needing only 286 more rushing yards this season to become the first player in school history to record multiple 1,500-yard rushing seasons.

- Etienne (13) needing only seven more rushing touchdowns this season to become the first player in ACC history to record multiple seasons of 20 or more rushing touchdowns in a career. Etienne (24 in 2018) is presently one of only four players in league history with a 20-touchdown rushing season to his credit, including Pitt's James Conner (26 in 2014), Virginia Tech's Ryan

Williams (21 in 2009) and Louisville's Lamar Jackson (21 in 2016).

- Etienne (13) needing only two more rushing touchdowns to become the first player in Clemson history to rush for at least 15 touchdowns in multiple seasons in a career.

- Etienne (15) sitting five more touchdowns of any kind shy of becoming the first Clemson player with 20 total touchdowns in multiple seasons. Presently, Etienne's 2018 campaign (26) and C.J. Spiller's 2009 season (21) represent the only seasons of 20-plus touchdowns by individuals in school history.

- Etienne (two) seeking his single-season career-high third touchdown reception.

- Wide receiver Tee Higgins (19) needing one receiving touchdown to tie Aaron Kelly (20 from 2005-08) and Deon Cain (20 from 2015-17) for fourth for career touchdown receptions in Clemson history. He is two touchdowns shy of tying Mike Williams (21 from 2013-16) for third.

- Higgins (2,016) chasing No. 13 Airese Currie (2,030), No. 12 Deon Cain (2,040) and No. 11 Hunter Renfrow (2,133) on Clemson's career receiving yardage list.

- Higgins (735) sitting 201 yards shy of his single-season career high in receiving yards, set as a sophomore last season (936).

- Higgins attempting to catch a touchdown in three straight games for the first time this season. He caught touchdown passes in five straight games across the final four games of the 2018 season and the 2019 season opener.

- Quarterback Trevor Lawrence attempting to throw a touchdown pass in a 21st consecutive game. His current 20-game streak is the longest active streak in the country. (Note: UCF's McKenzie Milton had a 24-game streak prior to suffering an injury in November 2018 that will likely preclude him from playing in 2019).

- Lawrence entering the game with 53 career passing touchdowns, the second-most through a sophomore season in ACC history. The record is presently held by Jameis Winston across his first two seasons at Florida State (65).

- Lawrence (23) sitting seven passing touchdowns shy of joining Tajh Boyd and Deshaun Watson as the only players in school history to throw 30 touchdown passes in multiple seasons.

- Lawrence attempting to throw three touchdown passes in six consecutive games for the first time in his career. He is already the first Clemson quarterback to accomplish the feat in five straight games.

- Lawrence (six) attempting to join Tajh Boyd (18), Deshaun Watson (13) and Charlie Whitehurst (eight) as the only players in school history to record at least seven career 300-yard passing games.

- Lawrence (5,583) entering the game 137 yards shy of passing Nealon Greene (5,719) for sixth on Clemson's career passing yardage leaderboard. He is also 180 yards shy of passing Cullen Harper (5,762) for fifth.

- Lawrence (6,081) needing 16 combined rushing and passing yards to pass Steve Fuller (6,096) for sixth on the school's leaderboard for career total offense.

- Lawrence (61) entering the game seven touchdowns shy of tying Woodrow Dantzler (68) for third in school history in career total touchdown responsibility.

- Kicker B.T. Potter attempting to convert a third field goal of 50 yards or more to tie Richard Jackson's school record for 50-yard field goals in a single season from 2009. Potter recorded a field goal of 51 yards against both Georgia Tech and Louisville.

- Wide receiver Justyn Ross attempting to catch a touchdown in three straight games for the first time since his first three games of his career.

SENIOR DAY

Currently, the 2019 senior class...

- ... holds a 51-3 overall record in the last four years, one of only five senior classes in FBS history to post at least 51 career wins in four years.

- ... will become the second senior class in conference history to play in four consecutive ACC Championship games, and with a win in Charlotte, could become the second class in conference history to win four ACC titles outright, joining Clemson's 2018 class.

- ... is attempting to become Clemson's second straight senior class to earn four consecutive College Football Playoff berths during their careers.

- ... has won 43 games against Power Five conference opponents since 2016, the most in the country.

- ... has been ranked in the AP Top 10 in every poll of their careers, one of only two senior classes in the country able to make that claim. That includes a streak of 34 consecutive appearances in the Top 5 since 2017, the longest streak in school history.

- ... is 26-1 in Death Valley, one victory away from tying the 2017 and 2018 Clemson seniors for the most career wins at Memorial Stadium.

- ... holds a 29-2 record in ACC regular season play and a 32-2 overall record against ACC opponents. A 30th ACC regular season win this week would tie the school record and conclude the seniors' regular season ACC careers one win shy of the all-time conference record of 31.

- ... can finish 23-1 in ACC Atlantic division play with a win this week. The class has already posted 4-0 marks against four of their six Atlantic division foes (Boston College, Florida State, Louisville and NC State) and can add Wake Forest to that list with a victory Saturday.

Included below is the list of players who will be honored on Senior Day this week. This includes academic seniors who may potentially elect to forego their final year of athletic eligibility (e.g.: Christian Wilkins in 2017 prior to returning for 2018).

-- ON THE OPPONENT --

SERIES HISTORY VS. WAKE FOREST

Clemson owns 66 all-time wins over Wake Forest, its second highest victory total against any opponent (70 wins vs. South Carolina). Clemson has a 56-9-1 lead in the series since the formation of the ACC in 1953, an .856 winning percentage.

NOTES

Clemson has played Wake Forest in football 66 consecutive years, as the last year the two schools did not play was 1952. Only South Carolina has a longer string of consecutive seasons played against the Tigers.

Clemson is 37-7 against Wake Forest in games played in Clemson, which dates to a 13-0 Clemson win in Charlotte in the teams' first meeting in 1933. Clemson is 32-7 in Death Valley in the series.

Clemson has won 10 in a row in the series, all under Head Coach Dabo Swinney, by a combined score of 390-124. That represents an average victory margin of 26.6, and Clemson has scored at least 28 points in all 10 games.

This will be the ninth straight year that Wake Forest has faced a Top 20 Clemson team, including five years in a row facing a Top 5 Clemson squad.

STREAKIN' AGAINST THE DEACONS

Clemson enters this year's game against Wake Forest in search of its 11th consecutive victory against the Demon Deacons. Clemson's 10-game winning streak is its longest active winning streak against any FBS foe.

The Tigers have produced 10-game winning streaks against opponents seven times in school history. Wake Forest is the only opponent against whom Clemson has recorded multiple winning streaks of 10-plus games, posting a 15-game winning streak against the Demon Deacons from 1977-91 as well as a 10-game streak from 1940-50.

Clemson has recorded three win streaks of 10 or more games against Wake Forest in comparison to a combined four 10-game streaks against all other opponents (Furman, Virginia, The Citadel and Presbyterian).

Note: Clemson has won nine straight home games against Wake Forest (2000-17) and can add Wake Forest to this list with a win this week.

SERIES MEMORIES

- Clemson defeated Wake Forest on Halloween in 1981 by an 82-24 score. That was the highest-scoring ACC game in Clemson history until 2012 when NC State and Clemson combined for 110 points in a 62-48 Clemson win. Clemson was 12-for-12 on third down in that 1981 game and gained 756 yards of total offense, including 536 on the ground, still school records for the modern era.

- The two teams have played three neutral site games over the years, including one in Tokyo, Japan. Clemson won that game in 1982 by a 21-17 score to close out an ACC Championship season.

- Clemson had a 7-3 record against Wake Forest under Tommy Bowden, but five of the seven Clemson wins were decided by 10 points or less.

- Clemson won the 2006 game at Wake Forest, 27-17. The late Gaines Adams had a game-changing 66-yard fumble return on a botched field goal attempt in the fourth quarter to cut the Demon Deacons' lead to 17-10. The Tigers scored 24 points in the fourth period to gain the victory against the eventual ACC champions.

- In 2011, the Tigers won 31-28 on a 43-yard field goal by Chandler Catanzaro on the last play of the game. That gave the Tigers the Atlantic Division title, and Clemson went on to win its first ACC title in 20 years.

FRANK AND PEAHEAD

Only one coach in history — Wake Forest's Peahead Walker — won as many as four games against Clemson without a loss in Death Valley. Frank Howard and Walker had a close friendship, but Peahead had a 4-0 record against Howard in Death Valley.

Walker fielded some tough teams, but lost five in a row to the Tigers from 1937-41, including his first two outings against Howard, 39-0 and 29-0, after Jess Neely's departure to Rice in 1940.

Peahead's response was to win six in a row against Howard from 1942-47, knocking No. 16-ranked Clemson out of a likely AP Top 20 finish in 1945 with a season-ending 13-6 victory. Even if Peahead conceded that three of his wins from 1942-44 were during Howard's depleted "war years," he still held a 3-2 edge over his soon-to-be comedic partner on the gridiron speaking circuit.

In the final three years of the Howard-Walker rivalry from 1948-50, both the Tigers and Deacons were at their strongest. In going undefeated in both 1948 and 1950, Clemson faced only one Top 20 team in regular season play each year: Peahead's No. 19 Wake Forest in 1948 and his No. 17 Deacs in 1950, both on the road. Howard's 21-14 and 13-12 wins, respectively, enabled his Tigers to finish No. 11 and No. 10 in the nation; Peahead's 1948 Deacons settled for a No. 20 national ranking.

LAST GAME VS. WAKE FOREST

Clemson 63, Wake Forest 3

(Oct. 6, 2018 at Winston-Salem, N.C.)

Travis Etienne, Lyn-J Dixon and Adam Choice all eclipsed the 100-yard rushing mark as the No. 4/4 Clemson Tigers amassed 698 total offensive yards en route to a 63-3 defeat of the Wake Forest Demon Deacons at BB&T Field.

Between Etienne, Dixon, Choice and three other rushers, Clemson ran for 471 yards, the team's most in a single game under head coach Dabo Swinney. Through the air, a balanced effort quarterbacked by Trevor Lawrence powered the Tigers. Lawrence completed 18 of his 21 pass attempts in the first half alone, connecting with nine different receivers to amass 173 yards and two touchdowns in the first 30 minutes.

The Tigers held a 7-0 advantage at the end of the first quarter courtesy of a 59-yard scoring run by Etienne. It was the first of six touchdowns of 50 yards or more by Clemson during the contest, including two by Etienne, two by Dixon, one by Choice and one by receiver Justyn Ross.

The game represented the second straight ACC road game in which Clemson played all 72 dressed players. Four different players appeared at quarterback for the Tigers, including starter Trevor Lawrence, quarterbacks Chase Brice and Ben Batson and wide receiver Hunter Renfrow.

Clemson's 60-point win against Wake Forest last season was, at the time, Clemson's largest margin of victory against an ACC opponent in school history. Clemson later exceeded that mark a month later against Louisville. It was also the third-largest conference win by any FBS team in 2018.

-- NOTES FROM LAST GAME --

POSTGAME NOTES VS. NC STATE

- Clemson clinched the ACC Atlantic Division title and will play the Coastal Division champion in the ACC Championship Game on Saturday, Dec. 7, at Bank of America Stadium in Charlotte.

- Clemson will become the first ACC team to represent a division in five consecutive ACC Championships Games.

- Clemson earned a berth in the ACC Championship

Game for the seventh time, passing Virginia Tech (six) for the most total ACC Championship Game appearances in either division.

- Clemson earned its eighth overall division title, including a co-championship in 2012 in which the Tigers did not appear in the ACC Championship Game.

- Clemson won the turnover margin, 4-0, its largest advantage in that category since a plus-five turnover differential against Oklahoma in the 2014 Russell Athletic Bowl. Clemson converted the four turnovers into 20 points.

- Clemson won the turnover margin in a fifth consecutive game for the first time since the final three games of the 2018 season and the first two games of 2019.

- Clemson did not produce a giveaway, representing a third straight game with zero giveaways for the first time since the North Carolina, Maryland and Georgia Tech games in 2010.

- Clemson has now scored at least 55 points in three straight games for the first time in the program's 124-year history. Clemson has scored at least 50 points in three straight games for the first time since 2013 against Virginia, Georgia Tech and The Citadel.

- Clemson has now scored 45 points in five consecutive games for the first time in school history.

- The margin of victory represented 18th win of 45 points or more in ACC play all-time. Clemson has been led by Dabo Swinney in 10 of those contests.

- Clemson gained 549 yards to reach 500 yards for a fifth straight game for the first time since a six-game stretch in October and November of the 2016 season.

- Clemson, which averaged 7.9 yards per play against Louisville, 8.4 against Boston College and 11.0 against Wofford, averaged 7.1 yards per play and has now exceeded 7.0 yards per play in four straight games for the first time since the first four games of the 2018 season.

- Clemson outgained NC State, 303-166, in passing yards to produce more passing yards than its opponent in a 13th consecutive game, dating to last season, for the first time since an 18-game streak across the 2015-17 seasons.

- Clemson held NC State to 10 points and has now held 13 consecutive opponents to 20 or fewer points for the first time since the 1958-59 seasons under Head Coach Frank Howard.

- Clemson held NC State to 290 yards and has now held 10 straight opponents below 300 yards of total offense and joined the 2011 Alabama Crimson Tide as the only teams since 2000 to hold opponents below 300 yards in each of the first 10 games of a season.

- Clemson allowed only 166 passing yards and held an eighth straight opponent below 200 passing yards for the first time since a nine-game stretch in games 3-11 of the 2008 season.

- Clemson allowed NC State to complete only 48.2 percent of passes and has now held five consecutive opponents to a completion percentage under 50.0 percent, Clemson's first such streak since October and November of 2014.

- During the contest, Clemson (5,458) entered the Top 10 in school history in total yards in a single season.

- Clemson's seventh touchdown of the game was its 60th of the season, making the 2019 season the seventh 60-touchdown season in school history.

- Clemson finished the first quarter with a 28-0 lead. In doing so, Clemson tied its school record for first-quarter points, matching the 28 points scored against Duke in the first quarter on Nov. 3, 2012.

- The 28-point first quarter tied for the fourth most in any quarter in school history. It was Clemson's 23rd quarter of 28 points or more all-time.

- Clemson has now outscored opponents by a 128-7 total in first quarters this season.

- Clemson led at halftime, 42-0. According to ESPN Stats & Info, the 42-point halftime lead tied for the second-largest in an ACC game in the last 15 seasons (44, Louisville vs. NC State in 2016).

- Clemson opened a game with touchdowns on four consecutive drives for the first time since Nov. 24, 2018, against South Carolina.

- Clemson's first two drives totaled 84 and 92 yards. It was Clemson's first instance this season scoring on consecutive drives of 84 yards or longer.

- Clemson scored at least 35 points against NC State for a third consecutive time for the first time in series history.

- Clemson has now thrown three or more touchdowns as a team in five straight games for the second time in school history and the first time since the first five games of the 2013 season.

- Clemson rushed for 246 yards and has now rushed for 200 yards in five straight games for the first time in the Dabo Swinney era and the first time since 2006.

- Clemson has now rushed for multiple touchdowns in 11 consecutive games for the first time since a 15-game streak across the 2016-17 seasons.

- Quarterback Trevor Lawrence completed 20-of-27 passes for 276 yards with three touchdowns and no interceptions. He also rushed eight times for a career-high 59 yards with a rushing touchdown.

- Lawrence became the first Clemson quarterback to throw three touchdown passes in five consecutive games.

- Lawrence has now thrown a touchdown pass in 20 consecutive games, adding to the longest active streak in the country. (Note: UCF's McKenzie Milton had a 24-game streak prior to suffering an injury in November 2018 that will likely preclude him from playing in 2019).

- During the contest, Lawrence passed Charlie Whitehurst (59) for fourth in school history in career total touchdown responsibility.

- Lawrence opened the scoring on Clemson's opening drive on a seven-yard touchdown run. Clemson has now scored on its first possession of five straight games for the first time since games 6-10 of the 2011 season.

- The rushing touchdown pushed Lawrence's single-season career high in rushing touchdowns to seven. It was his eighth career rushing touchdown.

- Lawrence recorded a career-long 28-yard rush in the first quarter.

- Running back Travis Etienne rushed 14 times for 112 yards with two rushing touchdowns and caught three passes for 31 yards with a receiving touchdown.

- With 18 points in the game, Etienne (324) passed C.J. Spiller (308) to become the highest-scoring non-kicker in Clemson history. Etienne now trails only kickers Chandler Catanzaro (404), Greg Huegel (379) and Aaron Hunt (329) on Clemson's all-time career scoring leaderboard.

- With a fifth straight 100-yard rushing game, Etienne tied the school record for consecutive 100-yard rushing games set by Kenny Flowers in 1985 and by Raymond Priester in 1996-97 (five each).

- Etienne recorded his 15th career 100-yard rushing game to tie Raymond Priester for second on Clemson's all-time leaderboard for career 100-yard rushing games. Etienne now sits two games shy of Wayne Gallman's school career record of 17 from 2014-16.

- Etienne posted his sixth 100-yard rushing game this season to take sole possession of fifth-most in a single season in school history.

NOTES

- Etienne's eight-yard rushing touchdown in the third quarter was the 50th rushing touchdown of his career, making him only the third player in ACC history to record 50 career rushing touchdowns (52 by James Conner and 50 by Lamar Jackson).

- Etienne has now scored multiple rushing touchdowns in three consecutive games for the first time this season and the first time since the Duke, South Carolina and Pitt games in 2018.

- Etienne has now recorded 752 rushing yards in the last five games, breaking Terrence Flagler's school record for the most rushing yards in a five-game span in a single season (744 in 1986).

- On a four-yard touchdown reception from Lawrence in the first quarter, Etienne broke C.J. Spiller's (51) school record for career total touchdowns with his 52nd career touchdown (prior to adding Nos. 53 and 54 later in the game). The receiving touchdown was his second of the season and the fourth of his career.

- Etienne recorded his 12th rushing touchdown of the season on a 19-yard run in the first quarter. He added his 13th of the season on an eight-yard run in the third quarter.

- During the game, Etienne (3,638) passed C.J. Spiller (3,547) for third on the school's all-time career rushing yardage leaderboard.

- Etienne (4,377) also passed Raymond Priestner (4,282) and James Davis (4,335) for sixth on the school leaderboard for career all-purpose yards.

- Wide receiver Tee Higgins caught four passes for 73 yards and recorded his fifth touchdown reception of the season on a 33-yard scoring pass from Lawrence in the first quarter.

- With the touchdown reception, Higgins tied Artavis Scott (19 from 2014-16) for sixth on the school's all-time leaderboard for career receiving touchdowns.

- During the game, Higgins (2,016) passed Jacoby Ford (1,986) for 14th on the school's career receiving yardage list.

- Higgins also became the 14th player in Clemson history to record 2,000 career receiving yards.

- Wide receiver Justyn Ross posted a team-high 75 yards on four receptions, including a 33-yard touchdown grab from Lawrence in the second quarter.

- Ross has now caught a touchdown in back-to-back games for the second time this season, joining games against Florida State and Louisville.

- Offensive lineman John Simpson recorded his first career rushing touchdown on a one-yard run in the second quarter. He became the first Clemson offensive lineman to score a touchdown since Brandon Thomas recovered a fumble in the end zone at Georgia Tech on Oct. 29, 2011.

- Running back Michel Dukes recorded his second career touchdown on a one-yard run on Clemson's final drive.

- During the contest, running back Lyn-J Dixon (1,025) reached 1,000 career rushing yards.

- Clemson recovered four fumbles, the team's most in a game in the Dabo Swinney era. The team's most fumble recoveries under Swinney had been three, including most recently in a 24-22 victory against Notre Dame in torrential rains in 2015.

- Linebackers James Skalski and Chad Smith combined for Clemson's first turnover of the game when Skalski recorded his first career forced fumble that was recovered by Smith for his second career fumble recovery.

- Defensive tackle Tyler Davis recorded his first career fumble recovery in the first quarter.

- Defensive end Xavier Thomas added his first career fumble recovery in the second quarter to thwart a drive that had entered the Clemson red zone.

- Long snapper Jack Maddox added his first career fumble recovery in the fourth quarter.

- Defensive end Logan Rudolph recorded his first career sack.

- Captains for the contest were safety Tanner Muse, wide receiver Diondre Overton, linebacker Isaiah Simmons and offensive lineman John Simpson.

WITH THE WIN

- Clemson has now won 10 games for a school-record ninth consecutive season. Clemson matched Texas (2001-09) for the third-longest streak of 10-win seasons in FBS history.

- Clemson opened a season 10-0 for the fifth time in program history, joining 10-0 starts in 1948, 1981, 2015 and 2018. Including ties, it represents Clemson's sixth undefeated start through 10 games including a 9-0-1 season in 1950.

- Clemson won the first 10 games of a season for the third time under Head Coach Dabo Swinney (2015 and 2018). Swinney was already the first coach in Clemson history to lead the school to multiple 10-0 starts, as legendary coaches Frank Howard and Danny Ford only accomplished the feat once each, in 1948 and 1981, respectively.

- The 2019 Clemson seniors won their 51st game in the last four years to pass the 2017 senior class for sole possession of the second-most career wins in school history.

- Clemson won its 25th consecutive game, dating to the start of the 2018 season, to extend the longest winning streak in school history and second-longest winning streak in ACC history.

- Clemson has now posted only the 28th winning streak of 25 or more games in major college football history.

- Clemson earned its eighth win against Power Five opponents this season, the most in the country. Even despite the inclusion of a one-point conference road victory in late September, Clemson has won those eight games by an average margin of 25.1 points per game.

- Clemson defeated an ACC Atlantic Division opponent for the 13th straight time and for the 33rd time in 34 opportunities.

- Clemson won its 11th straight true road game, which pulled Clemson within one game of the school-record 12-game streak from 2015-17.

- Clemson's 11-game road winning streak remains the longest active road winning streak in the country. With an Alabama loss earlier in the day, Clemson also assumed possession of the longest active home winning streak in the country (21).

- Clemson earned its 23rd victory in its last 24 true road games.

- Clemson recorded its 36th victory in its last 39 games away from home.

- Clemson improved to 59-28-1 all-time against NC State. Clemson's 59 wins against NC State are the program's third-most against any opponent.

- Clemson earned an eighth straight victory against NC State and its 15th in the last 16 years. The eight-game winning streak is the longest in the all-time series between the two schools, surpassing Clemson's seven-year winning streak from 2004-10.

- Clemson pushed its all-time road record against NC State to 22-16. The Tigers have now won seven of their last eight games in Raleigh, dating to 2005.

- Clemson won its fourth straight game in Raleigh to pull within one victory of Clemson's longest all-time road winning streak at NC State (five from 1949-62).

- Head Coach Dabo Swinney moved to 10-1 all-time against NC State.

- Clemson has now won 68 of its last 72 games overall dating to 2014, including 41 of its last 43 games against ACC teams.

- Clemson has now won 71 of its last 73 games against unranked teams.

- Clemson improved to 47-0 since 2015 when scoring first.

- Clemson has now won 75 of its last 77 games when leading at halftime.

- Clemson is now 96-2 since 2011 when leading after three quarters.

- Clemson now has a 96-2 record when totaling more first downs than its opponent since 2011.

- Clemson now holds a 54-3 record when winning the turnover margin since 2011.

- Clemson improved to 63-1 when rushing for 200+ yards under Dabo Swinney.

- Clemson is now 49-0 when both passing and rushing for 200+ yards under Dabo Swinney.

- Clemson is now 46-2 when having a 100-yard rusher since 2011.

- Clemson has now won 78 straight games when holding teams under 23 points (dates to 2010).

- Clemson pushed its winning streak in Saturday games to 39 to extend the longest Saturday winning streak in school history. Clemson's current 39-game run of consecutive Saturday victories is the longest active streak in the country.

-- BEST IS THE STANDARD --

MOST WINS SINCE 2015, SECOND-MOST SINCE 2011

Clemson has a 107-15 record since starting its current stretch of 10-win seasons in 2011. Only Alabama (111-11) has more wins the last eight-plus years. The Tigers also have the second-highest winning percentage (.877) in that time frame.

MOST WINS (2011-19)

10-WIN SEASONS

Clemson entered 2019 riding a streak of eight consecutive seasons with 10+ wins. The program's eighth consecutive 10-win season in 2018 tied the Tigers with the 1985-92 Miami Hurricanes and the 2004-11 Virginia Tech Hokies for the fourth-longest streak in FBS history and made Clemson one of only six programs to accomplish the feat.

By earning its 10th win of the 2019 season, Clemson became only the fourth program in FBS history to record at least nine consecutive 10-win seasons, tying the 2001-09 Texas Longhorns for the third-longest streak on record.

The record for consecutive 10-win seasons is 14, set by Florida State (1987-2000). Alabama is the only other program with an active streak of at least eight straight 10-win seasons.

The Tigers now have 16 10-win seasons in school history, with more than half coming in the last nine years under head coach Dabo Swinney. The 2018 season was Clemson's fifth with at least 12 wins, with Swinney sitting at the helm for four of them.

A CENTURY MARK FOR THE DECADE

Head Coach Dabo Swinney can vividly recall the looks he received when he said Clemson was on the cusp of the winningest decade in program history following a 2010 campaign in which the Tigers finished 6-7. In 2017, that vision became a reality with two seasons to spare when Clemson collected its 88th win of the decade in the ACC Championship Game against Miami (Fla.) to surpass the Tigers of the 1980s (87) for most wins in any decade in school history.

With a rivalry win against South Carolina to close the 2018 regular season, Clemson reached triple digits in wins in a decade for the first time in program history. Included below are the schools that have accomplished that feat.

100 WINS BY DECADE

Note: FBS programs

Clemson has a 113-22 record in the decade of the 2010s. That computes to an .837 winning percentage, the best for any decade in school history and the first time Clemson has won more than 80 percent in a single decade.

In the 1980s, Clemson had a .767 winning percentage (87-25-4), the nation's fifth-best winning percentage. Clemson did not have a losing season in any year in the 1980s under Danny Ford, who coached every game in that decade. Dabo Swinney has coached every game in the decade of the 2010s, and with Clemson clinching another winning season in 2019, will finish the decade with nine winning seasons and one losing season (6-7 in 2010).

SENIORS CHASING HISTORY

The 2018 Clemson seniors left their legacy not only in program history but also in the annals of the sport, recording 55 wins to tie for the most wins by any senior class in FBS history.

Throughout the 2018 season, Head Coach Dabo Swinney reminded his players that anything Clemson had done once, they'd done again. The 2019 senior class will have the opportunity for that maxim to once again ring true.

The 2019 Clemson seniors are 51-3 since 2016, passing the 2017 Clemson seniors for the second-most in school history and standing two wins ahead of Alabama's current seniors for the best active record. The group can tie the 2018 seniors for the best four-year mark in school, conference and Football Bowl Subdivision history with 14 wins in 2019 and can own the record outright if it were to repeat with another 15-0 campaign.

The 2019 seniors are the third Clemson class and one of nine overall classes in FBS history to record 50 all-time wins.

FOUR LEAGUE TITLES IN A ROW

Clemson has won four straight ACC championships, joining Oklahoma as one of just two Power Five Conference schools to have an active streak of four consecutive conference championships.

POWER FIVE CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS (2015-18)

| Conference | 2015           | 2016           | 2017           | 2018           |

| SEC        | Alabama        | Alabama        | Georgia        | Alabama        |

From 2015-18, Clemson became the first ACC school to win four outright titles in a row. Florida State was a champion or co-champion nine years in a row from 1992-00, but never won more than three outright in a row.

Clemson's victory in the 2018 ACC Championship Game made Clemson only the second Power Five Conference school since the inception of league championship games in 1992 to win four straight conference championship games, joining the Florida Gators, who won four straight SEC Championship Games in a row from 1993-96.

On Dec. 7, Clemson can become the first school to win five straight with a victory in the 2019 ACC Championship Game.

POWER OVER THE POWER FIVE

Early in his head coaching tenure, Dabo Swinney laid out his belief to then-Clemson athletic director Terry Don Phillips that the Tigers needed to add tough non-conference challenges on top of their tests in ACC play to serve as a foundation for the program's growth.

"I had a conversation with Terry Don and said, 'Terry Don, I know we are not very good right now, but we need to play people because that is going to help me teach and help me develop the culture and the mindset that you have to have to win at the highest level,'" recounted Swinney. "I didn't think we had that, and that's what we committed to. That's what we've done."

That scheduling philosophy and culture change has resonated in the Clemson program, and since 2013, no team can claim more wins against Power Five Conference opponents than the Tigers.

ESTEEMED COMPANY

Head Coach Dabo Swinney's run of excellence in his decade-plus at Clemson has placed him in the company of college football legends.

Swinney enters this week with a winning percentage of .808, sitting as one of only 13 head coaches in history with at least 10 seasons of FBS head coaching experience to post a mark of .800 or better. That list presently includes Knute Rockne (.881), Frank Leahy (.864), Urban Meyer (.854), George Woodruff (.846), Barry Switzer (.837), Tom Osborne (.836), Fielding Yost (.833), Percy Haughton (.832), Bob Neyland (.826), Bud Wilkinson (.826), Jock Sutherland (.812), and Bob Devaney (.806). Washington's Chris Petersen dropped from the ranks with a loss in early November.

Among the legends Swinney has already passed are College Football Hall of Famers Bo Schembechler (.775), Bear Bryant (.780) and Henry Williams (.785), as well as Nick Saban (.792 prior to NCAA adjustment), whose Crimson Tide were defeated by Swinney and the Tigers in the most recent College Football Playoff National Championship.

Against Florida State earlier this year, Swinney passed the career total of Danny Ford, who won 121 combined games at Clemson (96) and Arkansas (25).

With a win against Wofford in early November, Swinney recorded his 125th win in his 155th career game. Per records available via Sports Reference, he became the 10th-fastest coach to reach 125 career wins in terms of games coached.

DABO AT 150

In the 150-year anniversary season of college football, Head Coach Dabo Swinney coached his 150th game as leader of the Clemson program in the fourth game of the season against Charlotte. He became just the second Clemson coach to reach 150 career games, joining Hall of Famer Frank Howard, who coached 295 games as Clemson's head coach from 1940-69.

Only eight coaches have coached at least 150 games at schools presently in the Football Bowl Subdivision while achieving an .800 or better mark. Interestingly, Clemson holds a 4-0 combined all-time record against the top three coaches on the list.

Note: List does not include George Woodruff, who went 142-25-2 at Penn, Illinois and Carlisle, two of which are not presently in the FBS.

TOP WIN PERCENTAGE IN ACC HISTORY

Head Coach Dabo Swinney entered the 2019 season already perched atop ACC history in overall winning percentage with a mark of .795 prior to the start of the season. He has since pushed that percentage to .808 with 10 wins in 2019.

EXCEEDING EXPECTATIONS

Clemson has equaled or exceeded its postseason AP and USA Today rankings in comparison to its preseason rankings each of the last eight years. That included quite an accomplishment in both 2016 and 2018, as it finished No. 1 by winning the national championship to exceed the school's No. 2 preseason ranking both times.

Clemson exceeded its preseason ranking each of the last eight years in the coaches poll, a streak that will come to an end in 2019 by simple virtue of Clemson opening the season atop the 2019 poll.

With regard to Associated Press voting, Clemson has exceeded its preseason ranking in the AP poll in seven of the last eight years. The lone exception came in 2013, when Clemson was picked No. 8 in the AP preseason poll and finished No. 8.

WHEN IN DOUBT, CLEMSON RESPONDS

Prior to maintaining status quo at No. 4 following a 59-7 win against Boston College, Clemson had dropped in the AP Poll following each of its three previous victories against North Carolina, Florida State and Louisville. In Head Coach Dabo Swinney's tenure, the Tigers have routinely responded well following dips in the AP rankings.

Under Swinney, Clemson is 24-4 (and 3-0 in 2019) in games in which it enters ranked lower in the AP Poll than it did in its previous contest. This includes the 2014, 2016, 2017 and 2018 season openers in which Clemson opened the season lower than its ranking from the final game of the previous campaign. Including most recently against Boston College on Oct. 26, Clemson has won its last 16 games when entering ranked lower in the AP Poll than in its previous game.

CHAMPIONSHIP HERITAGE

After being named Clemson's full-time coach in December of 2008, Head Coach Dabo Swinney set about securing his first signing class in 2009.

His first class, which he tabbed the "Dandy Dozen," brought home Clemson's first ACC title since 1991 during their junior campaign in 2011. Excluding the 2019 signing class that debuted this season, all 10 of Clemson's signing classes under Swinney have at least one ACC and/or national title to their credit in their four years at Clemson.

25 AND COUNTING

Clemson enters this week riding a 25-game winning streak dating to the 2018 season opener. Clemson's active winning streak is one of only five double-digit winning streaks in the country and is 10 wins ahead of the nation's next-longest streak.

ACTIVE WINNING STREAKS (FBS)

| Rk | School     | Wins |
|----|------------|------|
| 1. | Clemson    | 25   |
| 2. | Ohio State | 15   |
| 3. | Minnesota  | 11   |
|    | Baylor     | 11   |
| 5. | LSU        | 10   |

Clemson's current 25-game winning streak marks the program's 10th all-time winning streak of at least 10 games and the longest streak in team history. Clemson surpassed its previous record 17-game winning streak from 2014-15 for sole possession of the longest streak in school history with a 41-6 win against Syracuse on Sept. 14.

The current streak marks the third time Dabo Swinney has had a winning streak of at least 10 games. Danny Ford had three separate streaks of at least 10 games, including a 13-game streak from 1980 through the last game of the 1981 season.

Frank Howard had a 15-game winning streak from 1947-49 and was part of a 13-game streak from 1939-40. The school's first 10-game winning streak took place under Walter Riggs and John Heisman from 1899 to 1901.

20-POINT WINS & 14-POINT WINS

Clemson's 2019 squad extended two historically profound victory margin streaks early in the 2019 season.

Observers will often point to Clemson's 27-23 come-from-behind victory against Syracuse in late September of 2018 as a turning point in the team's 15-0 national championship season. Following that win, in which redshirt freshman Chase Brice led the team to victory after starting the week as the squad's third-team quarterback, Clemson won 11 straight games by at least 20 points. Per ESPN Stats & Info, Clemson's 11-game streak of 20-point wins across the 2018-19 seasons was one game shy of the 2018 Alabama Crimson Tide for the longest streak of 20-point wins in the AP Poll era (since 1936).

STREAKS OF 20-POINT WINS (AP POLL ERA)

| Rk | School         | Year(s) | Streak |
|----|----------------|---------|--------|
| 1. | Alabama        | 2018    | 12     |
| 2. | Clemson        | 2018-19 | 11     |
| 3. | Stanford       | 2010-11 | 10     |
|    | Boise State    | 2002    | 10     |
|    | Temple         | 1973-74 | 10     |
|    | Nebraska       | 1971    | 10     |
|    | New Mexico St. | 1959-60 | 10     |

That streak was broken in the second week of the 2019 season when Texas A&M scored a touchdown with only six seconds remaining to cut Clemson's margin of victory from 21 to 14.

A one-point victory against North Carolina in the final weekend in September brought Clemson's streak of 14 consecutive 14-point wins to a close. The streak tied for the third-longest in the AP Poll era, per ESPN Stats & Info.

STREAKS OF 14-POINT WINS (AP POLL ERA)

| Rk | School        | Year(s) | Streak |
|----|---------------|---------|--------|
| 1. | Army          | 1944-46 | 21     |

GAMES IN STREAK OF 14-POINT WINS (2018-19)

| Date     | Opponent       | For | Against | Margin |
|----------|----------------|-----|---------|--------|
| 10/6/18  | Wake Forest    | 63  | 3       | +60    |
| 10/20/18 | NC State       | 41  | 7       | +34    |
| 10/27/18 | Florida State  | 59  | 10      | +49    |
| 11/3/18  | Louisville     | 77  | 16      | +61    |
| 11/10/18 | Boston College | 27  | 7       | +20    |
| 11/17/18 | Duke           | 35  | 6       | +29    |
| 11/24/18 | South Carolina | 56  | 35      | +21    |
| 12/1/18  | Pittsburgh     | 42  | 10      | +32    |
| 12/29/18 | Notre Dame     | 30  | 3       | +27    |
| 1/7/19   | Alabama        | 44  | 16      | +28    |
| 8/29/19  | Georgia Tech   | 52  | 14      | +38    |
| 9/7/19   | Texas A&M      | 24  | 10      | +14    |
| 9/14/19  | Syracuse       | 41  | 6       | +35    |
| 9/21/19  | Charlotte      | 52  | 10      | +42    |

Since the streak was snapped in a one-point win at North Carolina in September, Clemson has responded with another five wins of 14 or more points, meaning the Tigers have won 19 of their last 20 contests by a margin of at least 14 points.

POLL STREAKS

Clemson has been ranked in the top 25 of 80 consecutive AP polls dating to the 2014 season, the third-longest active streak in the nation. That includes a streak of 71 straight top-10 rankings, tied for first in the country with Alabama.

As far as total top-25 rankings since 2011, Clemson has appeared in 135 of a possible 142 polls (95.1 percent). That is the third-most in the nation, trailing only Alabama (142) and Oklahoma (138).

ROAD WARRIORS

After a home game against Wake Forest this week, Clemson will return to the road against South Carolina having won 23 of its last 24 true road games and 36 of its last 39 games away from home overall.

Clemson is 4-0 on the road this year, with all four victories coming in ACC play. At Louisville on Oct. 19, Clemson won its 10th straight true road game, which marked only the second streak of 10 consecutive true road victories in the program's illustrious history. The streak sits one game shy of the school-record streak of 12 consecutive true road wins set across the 2015-17 season.

LONGEST WINNING STREAKS IN TRUE ROAD GAMES (CLEMSON HISTORY)

| First Win                | Last Win                 | Streak |
|--------------------------|--------------------------|--------|
| Louisville, 9/17/15      | Virginia Tech, 9/30/17   | 12     |
| NC State, 11/4/17        | [Active]                 | 11     |

SATURDAYS ARE FOR THE TIGERS

Clemson enters this week having won each of its last 39 Saturday games. Clemson went 12-2 during the 2017 campaign, with its only losses coming on a Friday at Syracuse and a Monday on New Year's Day in the Sugar Bowl.

You have to travel back to Nov. 12, 2016, a total of 1,099 days prior to this week's contest, for Clemson's most recent loss on a Saturday.

Clemson's 39-game Saturday winning streak is the longest active streak in the FBS. In total, Clemson has won 58 of its last 59 Saturday games. The Tigers' current 39-game streak started following a 2016 loss to Pitt that was preceded by a 21-game Saturday winning streak across the 2014-16 seasons, previously the longest such streak in program history.

CONSECUTIVE SATURDAY WINS

UNBEATEN

Only five undefeated teams remain in the FBS after Alabama and Penn State dropped from the unbeaten ranks last week. With a victory last week, Clemson became the first team to reach 10 wins this season.

REMAINING UNDEFEATED TEAMS (FBS)

| School     | Record | This Week             |
|------------|--------|-----------------------|
| Clemson    | 10-0   | vs. Wake Forest (7-2) |
| Baylor     | 9-0    | vs. Oklahoma (8-1)    |
| LSU        | 9-0    | at Ole Miss (4-6)     |
| Minnesota  | 9-0    | at Iowa (6-3)         |
| Ohio State | 9-0    | at Rutgers (2-7)      |

The 2019 season represents the 17th time Clemson has completed the month of October with an undefeated record and the 13th time it has done so with a perfect record (no ties). Clemson earned conference titles in 10 of the previous 16 instances, including national championship campaigns in 1981, 2016 and 2018

PLAYING TO A STANDARD

While many have attempted to center discussion of Clemson's play in 2019 on the quality of its opponents, under Head Coach Dabo Swinney, Clemson has subscribed to a philosophy of "it's not who you play, it's how you play." Inside the team's Allen N. Reeves Football Complex, a visual representation of the team's schedule includes a Clemson logo for every game in lieu of opponents' logos, not as a sign of disrespect, but rather as a visual reminder that every week Clemson is playing against its own standard as well.

The Clemson standard has been on display in the majority of the team's performances this season. SportSource Analytics tracks Relative Points and Relative Yards Per Game, described as the following:

"Sorts all FBS teams by the average percentage of points and yards they accumulated per game with respect to the opponents' normal points and yards averages. For example, if a team scores 21 points against a team that only gives up (on average) 14 points, they get a 150 percent for that game offensively. For offense, over 100 percent is considered good, and for defense under 100 percent is considered good."

The measure allows a window of insight into how Clemson has dominated its opponents relative to their typical performance, rather than leaning on the opponents' record.

RELATIVE POINTS AND YARDS PER GAME (CLEMSON, 2019)

| Category                   | Nat'l Rank | Pct.  |
|----------------------------|------------|-------|
| Offensive Points Pct./Game | 9          | 145.1 |
| Offensive Yards Pct./Game  | 9          | 126.2 |
| Defensive Points Pct./Game | 4          | 42.0  |
| Defensive Yards Pct./Game  | 3          | 62.5  |

*Note: FBS opponents only

Effectively, the numbers communicate that Clemson gains 145 percent of the points and scored 126 percent of the yards typically allowed by its opponents on average, while limiting opponents to only 42 percent of the yards and 62 percent of the points it typically accrues.

In addition, Clemson ranks among the nation's best in game control, a measurement of what percentage of snaps teams have spent with various leads. Clemson has led for 84 percent of all plays this season, including holding a lead of at least 21 points for more than half of all plays and at least 35 points or more for more than a quarter of all plays.

GAME CONTROL (CLEMSON, 2019)

COACHES CORNER

Clemson's performance in 2019 has become a Rorschach test of sorts for observers of college football. Included below is a sampling of what coaches responsible for preparing their teams to face Clemson have said about the Tigers this year.

North Carolina Head Coach Mack Brown on Oct. 14:

"The expectation for Clemson is that they blow everybody out. You go back a couple years ago and they barely beat Syracuse, they barely beat Pittsburgh and they win a national championship and we think, 'They hung in there and it's a comeback.' Now we're saying they stink? They don't stink. They've got the best players in the country and still probably the best team in the country. The fact that we played them good, everybody is mad at them instead of being excited for us. It's weird how people look at it, but they key is to win. You're not going to blow everybody out every week."

Louisville Head Coach Scott Satterfield on Oct. 14:

"I was just watching that [Florida State] film and it was 42-0 in the third quarter, I was like 'Wow, man, they turned it on.' I think when they had that off-week they got back on track. Everyone is talking about, 'What is this Clemson team? But they have won 21 straight games [prior to Oct. 19], I think 14 out of their last 15 they have won by more than 14 points. It's unbelievable that people want to try to write a story about this isn't the Clemson team we are used to. These guys are good, they are well-coached, they expect to win, and they have a lot of talent."

Boston College Head Coach Steve Addazio on Oct. 21:

"There's no doubt in my mind that they're the No. 1 team in the country. Skilled, talented everywhere. Have proven it on the field. When I watch the tape, I see no weaknesses. I see great athletes and a great coaching staff. I think both their offensive coordinators and their defensive coordinator, those guys are elite guys and you can tell when you watch their tape how well-coached each side of the ball is."

Addazio, postgame on Oct. 26:

"This Clemson team is an elite team. You're talking about a first-round draft pick quarterback. You're talking about a first-round draft pick tailback. You're talking about two first-round draft pick wide receivers. I think [they have] an outstanding offensive line. On defense, they have elite personnel everywhere. They're super, super athletic. As Dabo has mentioned, this might be the best back end he's had. Their front end, while they lost some guys, they have some really super athletic guys in there and I think you can see that. This is an elite team... This team right here, that's one of the top, elite teams in America. Absolutely. Unquestionably. Whatever anybody else was saying, I don't know what they're talking about. That's my opinion. That's one of the top, elite teams in America, so whatever anybody else was saying, I don't know what they're talking about."

600-YARD GAMES

Clemson produced its fourth 600-yard game of the season in the team's ninth game of 2019, breaking a school record set previously during the 2012, 2017 and 2018 campaigns.

Clemson's 10 600-yard games since 2017 are the third-most in the country.

Clemson's third 600-yard game of the season came in a 674-yard effort against Boston College on Oct. 26. Clemson outgained the Eagles, 674-177, in the game. The 497-yard differential was Clemson's biggest since a 545-yard advantage against Kent State on Sept. 2, 2017 and was Clemson's largest yardage differential against an ACC opponent since the conference's founding in 1953, surpassing a 464-yard advantage against Wake Forest in 2000.

The game marked Clemson's sixth time outgaining an ACC opponent by 400 or more yards, five of which have come under Head Coach Dabo Swinney. Clemson added another dominant performance one week later with a 446-yard margin against Wofford.

OFFENSIVE BALANCE

During Clemson's active 25-game win streak, the Tigers have featured remarkable offensive balance. Prior to the College Football Playoff National Championship Game that dropped Clemson to 248.2 rushing yards per game for the season, Clemson's 2018 squad had been the first team in Clemson history to average at least 250 yards per game rushing and passing. Only three Clemson teams in history have averaged at least 200 yards per game of each in the same season (2000, 2015 and 2018).

This year, Clemson is one the only team to average 250 rushing yards and 250 passing yards per game. Of Clemson's 5,458 total yards this season, 49.4 percent of its yards have come on the ground, with 50.6 percent coming through the air. Clemson, Cincinnati, TCU, Bowling Green and Georgia Tech are the only five schools within one percent of exact 50-50 balance in run-pass yardage this season.

Clemson has exceeded both 200 passing yards and 200 rushing yards in a game 49 times under Dabo Swinney, posting a perfect record in those contests. Clemson's 15 such games since the start of the 2018 season are tied for the most in the country.

GAMES WITH 200 RUSHING YARDS AND 200 PASSING YARDS (SINCE 2018)

| 4. | Memphis        | 12        |
|    | UCF            | 12        |

Clemson has reached the 200/200 plateau in each of its last five contests, its longest such streak on record.

STRONG OUT OF THE GATES

"Some start fast, some start slow, but the thoroughbred is great at the final pole."

Dabo Swinney has used that horse-racing analogy with his team in 2019 to encourage his team to "run its own race" this season. As far as individual games have been concerned, Clemson has not had to worry about starting slow.

Through 10 games, Clemson has outscored opponents by a 128-7 margin (+121) in the first quarter. Presently, only 26 teams in the country (including Clemson) have a plus-121 point differential in entire games this season.

Clemson's 12.1-point average scoring differential in the first quarter is the largest in the country this season.

AVERAGE FIRST QUARTER SCORING DIFFERENTIAL

| Rk | School         | Q1 Avg. Pt. Diff. |
|----|----------------|-------------------|
| 1. | Clemson | +12.1      |
| 2. | UCF            | +10.8             |
| 3. | Oklahoma       | +10.3             |
| 4. | Washington     | +9.4              |
| 5. | Ohio State     | +9.2              |

Against NC State last week, Clemson finished the first quarter with a 28-0 lead. In doing so, Clemson tied its school record for first-quarter points, matching the 28 points scored against Duke in the first quarter on Nov. 3, 2012. The 28-point first quarter tied for the fourth most in any quarter in school history and was Clemson's 23rd quarter of 28 points or more all-time.

YARDS PER PLAY

Clemson shattered its school record for yards per play in 2018 at 7.35, the program's first time exceeding seven yards per play in a season. Clemson enters this week averaging 7.53 yards per play in 2019.

MOST YARDS PER PLAY (CLEMSON HISTORY)

| 5. | 2013        | 6.36        |

Including special teams, Clemson recorded a school-record 19 touchdowns of 50 yards or more in 2018. Players responsible for 17 of the 19 touchdowns of 50 yards or more returned for Clemson in 2019. Justyn Ross led Clemson with six such touchdowns, followed by four from Travis Etienne, three each from Lyn-J Dixon and Amari Rodgers, and one each by now-departed running backs Adam Choice and Tavien Feaster.

| 5. | 2001 | 2   | 7    |    |     | 1   |    | 10    |

Clemson has recorded eight touchdowns of 50 yards or more in 2019, including four passing, three rushing and one via interception return. The eight 50-plus-yard touchdowns already rank tied for ninth-most in a season for Clemson since 1950.

Clemson opened the 2019 season with an explosive performance in a 52-14 win against Georgia Tech. The Tigers racked up 632 yards of offense on only 79 plays, averaging 8.0 yards per play even despite a methodical 11-play, 42-yard clock-killing drive to conclude the game. Clemson amassed 411 of those yards on 49 carries, a rushing average of 8.4 yards. Against Louisville, Clemson exceeded the 8.0-yard mark again, rushing for 298 yards on 37 carries for an 8.1-yard average. Clemson posted its third 8.0-plus-yard effort of the season against Wofford, averaging 11.3 yards per carry by accruing 419 yards on 37 attempts.

Including the three such games this season, Clemson's six games with an 8.0 or better yards per carry average since 2018 are the most in the FBS.

Clemson has produced a touchdown run of 90 yards (Travis Etienne vs. Georgia Tech), a touchdown pass of 87 yards (Trevor Lawrence to Amari Rodgers at Syracuse) and a touchdown run of 86 yards (Etienne vs. Wofford) in 2019. The 2019 Tigers joined the 2013 Clemson squad as the only teams in the program's 124-year history to post multiple touchdowns from scrimmage of 85 yards or more in a single season. This year's squad is the first to produce plays of 85 or more yards both on the ground and through the air.

The approach to creating functional depth and rewarding players ready to play has been a key philosophy for Head Coach Dabo Swinney, whose own collegiate playing career was hatched as a walk-on fighting for playing time in Alabama's receiving corps.

"We're fully committed to playing guys who deserve to play," Swinney said. "You commit to a guy early in the season, and even if a guy's only played 10 percent of the snaps, when you get to game eight or nine, they've got some good experience."

That philosophy was on display in record fashion in Clemson's Sept. 21 contest against Charlotte. In that game, Clemson played a school-record 111 players. Clemson later played 105 players against Wofford in early November.

* - first year of new redshirt regulations

YOUTH MOVEMENT

One year after Clemson returned a school-record 61 lettermen for the 2018 season, Clemson entered the 2019 campaign with a roster that includes 80 freshmen and sophomores.

However, despite the roster featuring the largest freshman class in Dabo Swinney's tenure at Clemson, the Tigers' youth is not devoid of experience. Last season, the first year of new redshirt regulations allowed Clemson to play a then-school-record 20 true freshmen in 2018. Clemson immediately shattered that record in its 2019 season opener, with 27 true freshmen making their collegiate debuts in that contest. An additional eight players made their debuts three weeks later against Charlotte.

First-year freshmen to play for Clemson this year include Davis Allen, LaVonta Bentley, Kaleb Boateng, Andrew Booth Jr., Joseph Charleston, David Cote, Mac Cranford, Tyler Davis, Michel Dukes, Hampton Earle, Hamp Greene, Chase Guynup, Tye Herbstreit, Jake Herbstreit, Tayquon Johnson, Sheridan Jones, Frank Ladson Jr., Jaelyn Lay, Zac McIntosh, Matt McMahan, Chez Mellusi, Joseph Ngata, Ruke Orhororo, Kane Patterson, Jalyn Phillips, Taisun Phommachanh, Will Putnam, Hunter Rayburn, Etinosa Reuben, Brannon Spector, Aidan Swanson, Ray Thornton III, Mason Trotter, Jonathan Weitz, Greg Williams and Lannden Zanders.

The only true freshmen not to see game action for Clemson this year are injured linebackers Bryton Constantin and Matthew Maloney.

DOMINANT DEFENSE

Since the advent of the College Football Playoff in 2014, Clemson has routinely produced one of the nation's elite defenses.

Clemson has ranked in the Top 10 in the country in total defense in each of the last five seasons and has ranked among the Top 10 in scoring defense in three of those campaigns.

CLEMSON DEFENSE SINCE 2014

| Year | Yds/G | Rank | Pts/G | Rank |

| 2018 | 285.9 | 5    | 13.1  | 1    |

Clemson and Michigan are the only two programs in the country to produce a Top 10 defense in each of the last five years.

DEFENSE: 2018 VS. 2019

Clemson's 2018 defense became the first in school history to lead the nation in scoring defense, limiting teams to 13.1 points per game en route to a 15-0 season and a national championship. A comparison of numbers between the 2018 and 2019 Clemson defenses shows that this year's unit is matching or exceeding the output of the 2018 group that included seven players (including two reserves) that made NFL rosters this season (Christian Wilkins, Clelin Ferrell, Dexter Lawrence, Austin Bryant, Mark Fields, Trayvon Mullen and Albert Huggins).

Below is a look at 13 key defensive categories. The 2019 group is ahead of the 2018 team's season averages in eight of the 13, including scoring defense, pass defense and total defense.

CLEMSON DEFENSE SEASON AVERAGES

| Category                 | 2018         | 2019         |

BACKFIELD INVADERS

Clemson's defense calls Death Valley home but might as well file for dual residency in opponents' backfields. Since 2014, Clemson leads the nation in both sacks and tackles for loss.

MOST SACKS SINCE 2014

| Rk | School     | No. |
|----|------------|-----|
| 1. | Clemson    | 272 |
| 2. | Alabama    | 247 |
| 3. | Ohio State | 236 |
| 4. | Penn State | 235 |
| 5. | Utah       | 212 |
|    | Michigan   | 212 |

MOST TACKLES FOR LOSS SINCE 2014

| Rk | School       | No. |
|----|--------------|-----|
| 1. | Clemson      | 714 |
| 2. | Ohio State   | 587 |
| 3. | Alabama      | 582 |
| 4. | Penn State   | 580 |
| 5. | Miami (Fla.) | 576 |

Clemson recorded a banner day in both categories in the team's Week 3 win at Syracuse. In that game, Clemson posted 15 tackles for loss, tied for the fifth-most in a game in school history and the most under Head Coach Dabo Swinney. It was Clemson's most since recording 15 tackles for loss vs. Utah State on Oct. 16, 2004.

Among those 15 tackles for loss were eight sacks, tied for the eighth-most sacks in a game in school history.

MULTI-SACK GAMES

Prior to being held without a sack against option-heavy Wofford on Nov. 2, Clemson had recorded multiple sacks in each of its previous 16 games, dating to last season. Clemson has posted 22 multiple-sack games since 2018, the most in the FBS.

GAMES WITH MULTIPLE SACKS (SINCE 2018)

| Rk | School           | No. |
|----|------------------|-----|
| 1. | Clemson          | 22  |

| 3. | Miami (Fla.)     | 19  |
|    | UAB              | 19  |
| 5. | Seven teams tied | 18  |

Clemson's 16-game streak with multiple sacks across the 2018-19 seasons was the program's third-longest streak since 1980.

NO FLY ZONE

While outside observers focused on the loss of four NFL Draft picks (plus an additional undrafted free agent signing) from Clemson's defensive line after 2018, Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney spent the offseason telling anyone who would listen that the Tigers were returning the best back seven he's had in his tenure at Clemson.

Clemson's pass defense has rewarded Swinney's faith, ranking among the nation's best in nearly every key statistical pass defense category.

POINTS OFF TURNOVERS

Since the start of the 2018 postseason, Clemson's offense and defense have both been dominant in possessions starting following turnovers. Since the 2018 ACC Championship Game, the Tigers hold a 144-21 advantage against opponents in points off turnovers.

Clemson recorded a 7-0 margin in points off turnovers against Syracuse on Sept. 14, a particularly impressive stat when accounting for the degree of difficulty. In that contest, Clemson's two giveaways resulted in Syracuse starting resulting drives at the Clemson nine-yard line and Clemson three-yard line. Those two drives ended in an interception and a turnover on downs, respectively.

CLOSE-GAME SUCCESS

Though Clemson has not played a large number of one-possession games in recent times, the Tigers have proven very adept at winning such contests since 2011. The Tigers have played 29 games with a final margin of eight points or less, and Clemson's .862 winning percentage in those one-possession contests is the best in the country in that span.

OWNING THE "MIDDLE EIGHT"

During its current run of four consecutive College Football Playoff appearances dating to 2015, Clemson has frequently won one of the hidden "games within the game."

SportSource Analytics tracks the "Middle Eight," the section of the game defined as the final four minutes of the first half and the first four minutes of the second half. Clemson has outscored opponents in that time window 43 times since 2015, posting a 42-1 record in those contests.

Clemson was historically strong in that category in 2018, outscoring opponents 132-10 in the middle eight, an average margin of +8.1 points per game. That per-game differential was the largest by any program in the country since 2013.

One striking example of the importance of the middle eight came in the 2018 Cotton Bowl, as Clemson and Notre Dame played a tightly contested first half that saw Clemson holding only a 9-3 advantage with four minutes left in the first half. A touchdown with 1:44 remaining pushed Clemson's lead to 16-3, and Head Coach Dabo Swinney's decision to attack on a drive originating from Clemson's 20-yard line with 48 seconds remaining resulted in another score with two seconds to play in the second quarter, giving Clemson a 23-3 lead at the break.

The importance was also on display at Florida State in 2018, as after a scoreless first quarter, Clemson held only a 14-0 lead entering the final four minutes of the first half. Clemson scored two quick touchdowns in the final four minutes of the second quarter and opened the second half with another touchdown 58 seconds into the third quarter, giving the Tigers a commanding 35-0 lead in an eventual 59-10 win.

ESTABLISHED FIREPOWER

Clemson's eye-popping, record-setting offensive campaign in 2018 was authored at the skill positions in large part by underclassmen. The group was led in passing by true freshman Trevor Lawrence (3,280 yards), in rushing by sophomore Travis Etienne (1,658 yards), in receiving by sophomore Tee Higgins (59 receptions, 12 touchdowns) and freshman Justyn Ross (1,000 receiving yards).

Clemson was one of only three FBS programs to produce a 3,000-yard passer, 1,500-yard rusher and 1,000-yard receiver in 2018 and one of only 20 teams (including only nine Power Five teams) to accomplish the feat this decade. If Clemson repeats the feat, it would become the first program this decade to produce a player in all three categories in back-to-back seasons.

Clemson is the first Power Five program this decade to return a 3,000-yard passer, 1,500-yard rusher and 1,000-yard receiver from the year before. The only other FBS program to return such a trio was Western Michigan after the 2014 season.

As noted by ESPN, the 2019 Tigers are the first team to return its leading passer, rusher and receiver from a national championship squad since 2010, when Alabama returned leading passer Greg McElroy, leading rusher Mark Ingram and leading receiver Julio Jones from its 2009 championship squad.

-- NO. 9 RB TRAVIS ETIENNE --

200-YARD RUSHING GAMES

Travis Etienne wasted no time rewriting history in 2019. He recorded a then-career-high 205 yards in the season opener against Georgia Tech, the 17th 200-yard rushing game in Clemson history. At the time, it was Etienne's second career 200-yard day, tying him with Ray Yauger, Terrence Flagler, Raymond Priestler and Andre Ellington for the most in school history.

Etienne then went on a record-grabbing spree on Nov. 2 against Wofford. He posted a career-high 212 yards on only nine carries, becoming the first Clemson player to post three career 200-yard games and joining Terrence Flagler as the only players with multiple 200-yard games in a single season. Etienne set those marks in the same contest in which he rushed for his 48th career touchdown to break James Davis' career record at Clemson.

Etienne's 12 carries against Georgia Tech had been the fewest by any Clemson player in the midst of a 200-yard performance. He undercut that mark with his nine-carry performance against Wofford, becoming only the third FBS player since 2000 to rush for 200 yards on single-digit carries.

NOTES

5. Travis Etienne 2019 6

With another 100-yard effort this week, Etienne can take sole possession of the school record for consecutive 100-yard rushing games, breaking the current mark of five set by Kenny Flowers in 1985 and by Raymond Priestler in 1996-97. It would also tie for the eighth-longest streak in ACC history.

10.0+ PER CARRY

Etienne's explosive 2019 season opener resulted in an average of 17.1 yards per carry against Georgia Tech, which at the time was the second-best single-game average of his career (19.1 vs. Louisville in 2018). Against Louisville in mid-October, he ripped off 192 yards on 14 carries for a 13.7-yard average, and in early November, he posted a career-best 23.6-yard average on nine carries for 212 yards against Wofford.

The games marked the 10th, 11th and 12th times in Etienne's career that he averaged at least 10 yards per carry in a game with at least five rushing attempts. His 12 qualifying games passed Colin Kaepernick for the most by any FBS player since 2000.

Presently, Etienne ranks fourth according to conference thresholds in which players qualify by reaching 1,000 career rushing yards. Etienne's average is the best in conference history by any player with at least 200 career carries.

ETN1K

Etienne reached 1,000 rushing yards on the 2019 season in Clemson's ninth game despite averaging 13.7 carries per game through the team's first nine contests. In reaching the 1,000-yard mark in that game against Wofford, he tied the mark for the fastest any Clemson player has rushed for 1,000 yards in a season and became only the second Clemson player to reach 1,000 rushing yards in single-digit games.

HISTORY OF EXPLOSIVENESS

Nine of Etienne's 50 career rushing touchdowns and 54 career total touchdowns have covered more than 50 yards. His nine rushing touchdowns of 50-plus yards are the most by a Clemson player in records back to 1950, and his nine total touchdowns covering that length are the third-most in that time frame.

CAREER TOUCHDOWNS OF 50-PLUS YARDS (CLEMSON SINCE 1950)

Including a 90-yard touchdown run in the season opener against Georgia Tech and an 86-yard touchdown run against Wofford, Etienne has two touchdown runs of 85-plus yards this season. Since 1950, he is the first Clemson player to record two touchdown runs of 85-plus yards. Etienne has three runs of 80 or more yards in his career, surpassing the previous school record held by Derrick Witherspoon and C.J. Spiller (two each).

TOUCHDOWN STREAKS

Etienne accounts for two of the eight-longest streaks of consecutive games with a rushing touchdown in school history.

DOING MORE WITH LESS

Etienne posted school records in rushing yards (1,658) and rushing touchdowns (24) in 2018 despite recording only 204 carries. His record-setting campaign in 2018 resulted in his selection as a Doak Walker Award finalist, as he joined C.J. Spiller (2009) as only the players in Clemson history to be named as a finalist for the honor.

The award eventually went to Wisconsin's Jonathan Taylor, who turned in a superb season of his own with 2,194 yards and 16 touchdowns on 307 attempts. Taylor averaged 7.15 yards per carry and averaged a touchdown every 19.1 carries; on 104 fewer carries, Etienne averaged 8.13 yards per carry and a touchdown every 8.5 carries.

If Etienne had received the same number of carries as Taylor and maintained his per-carry averages for rushing yards and rushing touchdowns, the resulting pace would total 2,495 yards and 36 rushing touchdowns, higher totals than every Heisman running back since Barry Sanders in 1988.

-- NO. 16 QB TREVOR LAWRENCE --

TEAM PRODUCTION

Clemson's 55-10 win at NC State on Nov. 9 represented quarterback Trevor Lawrence's 21st career start in his 26th career game. Clemson is 26-0 in Lawrence's time at Clemson, including a 21-0 record in his starts.

Lawrence is credited with 1,299 career offensive snaps at Clemson. In that time, he has never taken a second-half snap with Clemson trailing. The only game in which Clemson has trailed in the fourth quarter in Lawrence's tenure was in 2018 against Syracuse, a game Lawrence exited in the first half with an injury.

As a team, Clemson has averaged 45.4 points in Lawrence's 21 career starts, the second-highest average for any team in the country whose quarterback has recorded 20 career starts.

300-YARD GAMES

Clemson's balance and its willingness to take what defenses offer on the ground or through the air sometimes limits opportunities for quarterback Trevor Lawrence to accrue some of the passing numbers put up around the country. But even playing in an offense that values balance and for a coach who values spreading playing time throughout the roster, Lawrence has still been able to light up defenses in his young career.

Lawrence posted five 300-yard games in his freshman campaign in 2018, including 300-yard efforts in both College Football Playoff games. He posted his sixth career 300-yard game in Week 3 of the 2019 season, throwing for a career-high 395 yards in a win at Syracuse.

UNPRECEDENTED DEBUT

In a June article examining the statistical context of Lawrence's freshman campaign, 247Sports' Chris Hummer noted, "there is no historical comparison for what Lawrence accomplished as a freshman."

In 2018, despite not starting four games, Lawrence posted the 10th season of 3,000 passing yards, 30-plus passing touchdowns, five or fewer interceptions and a 65.0 or better completion percentage by an FBS quarterback since 2000. It was only the fifth such season by a Power Five quarterback in the time frame, and the first by a freshman.

INTERCEPTION AVOIDANCE

The ascendance of Lawrence was key in Clemson's record-setting explosiveness in 2018. But often lost amid the barrage of big plays was Lawrence's ability to keep the ball in Clemson's hands.

Lawrence set a single-season Clemson record by closing the 2018 season with 169 consecutive pass attempts without an interception. Lawrence threw an interception on his 13th pass attempt of the season opener against Georgia Tech, ending a streak of 182 consecutive pass attempts without an interception. Lawrence's streak ended five attempts shy of the school record held by Tajh Boyd (187, 2012-13).

While mild panic emerged from national observers about Lawrence's eight interceptions thus far in 2019, Lawrence still holds Clemson's career interception rate record and is the only qualified passer in school history to throw an interception on fewer than two percent of pass attempts.

NOTES

-- NO. 3 WR AMARI RODGERS --

COMEBACK KID

Since his arrival at Clemson in 2017, Amari Rodgers has been hailed by coaches and teammates as one of the program's hardest workers. The work ahead of Rodgers was substantial on March 25 this season, when the junior wide receiver from Knoxville, Tenn., tore his ACL during spring practice.

Rodgers attacked his rehab with his trademark work ethic, returning to action 166 days later in Clemson's Week 2 game against Texas A&M, receiving a thunderous roar from Death Valley following his first reception.

A week later, Rodgers re-announced his presence nationally, catching four passes for 121 yards with two receiving touchdowns in a 41-6 prime-time win at Syracuse. His performance included touchdown receptions of 16 and 87 yards, the latter of which tied for the fourth-longest pass play in program history.

Rodgers' performance at Syracuse came with an odd historical parallel. The game was the first sellout at Syracuse since 1998, when Rodgers' father, Tee Martin, quarterbacked Tennessee to a win at Syracuse at the beginning of a national championship season.

-- NO. 5 WR TEE HIGGINS --

TOUCHDOWN STREAK

While teammate Justyn Ross led Clemson with 1,000 receiving yards in 2018, no Clemson receiver found the end zone last season more than Tee Higgins. The Tennessee native recorded 12 receiving touchdowns, tied with two different seasons by Sammy Watkins for the second-most in a single season in school history.

Higgins has placed himself in the midst of some of the greats presently populating Clemson's all-time leaderboard for career receiving touchdowns. His 33-yard touchdown grab against NC State was his 19th career touchdown reception, tying him for sixth in school history.

| 10. | Perry Tuttle, WR       | 1978-81        | 17        |

Higgins closed the 2018 campaign with at least one touchdown in each of Clemson's final four games. With a touchdown in the first game of 2019, he pushed his consecutive games streak to five, tied for the second-most in school history. He was six feet away from extending the streak to six in the second game of the season at Texas A&M, when he was brought down at the Texas A&M 2-yard line on a highlight-reel 29-yard reception.

-- NO. 11 LB ISAAH SIMMONS --

MR. VERSATILITY

A track star turned safety turned linebacker turned free-ranging weapon, Clemson's Isaiah Simmons has rapidly emerged as one of college football's most versatile players.

"He was like a young giraffe running around out there. He was elbows and knees," Head Coach Dabo Swinney described of Simmons' arrival on campus. "Quickly, the one thing that showed up early was his physicality. He likes it. That showed up quick [as did] just his pure athleticism."

In addition to being Clemson's most prolific tackler, Simmons leads Clemson this season in sacks (6.0) and tackles for loss (11.5) while also contributing five pass breakups, an interception, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery. Presently, Simmons is one of only five FBS players — and one of only two in the Power Five — credited with at least 65 tackles, 11.5 tackles for loss and 6.0 sacks this season. Among that group, only Simmons, North Carolina's Chazz Surratt and Florida Atlantic's Akileis Leroy are the only ones to also record an interception this season.

FBS PLAYERS WITH 65 TACKLES, 11.5 TACKLES FOR LOSS AND 6 SACKS (2019)

| Player          | School           | Tackles* | TFL  | Sacks |
|-----------------|------------------|----------|------|-------|
| Isaiah Simmons^ | Clemson          | 69       | 11.5 | 6.0   |
| DeAngelo Malone | Western Kentucky | 77       | 18.0 | 9.0   |
| Jessie Lemonier | Liberty          | 65       | 12.0 | 8.5   |
| Akileis Leroy^  | Florida Atlantic | 76       | 13.5 | 6.5   |

* Note - tackles as credited initially by NCAA stats, not coaches' film review; ^ Indicates players who also have an interception this season

With two regular season games and the postseason still remaining, Simmons is already the fourth Clemson player since 2000 to record at least 65 tackles, 11.5 tackles for loss and 6.0 sacks in a season. The other three to accomplish the feat are some of Clemson's most decorated defenders of the last decade (and, notably, all defensive linemen).

CLEMSON PLAYERS WITH 65 TACKLES, 11.5 TACKLES FOR LOSS AND 6 SACKS (SINCE 2000)

| Player          | Year | Tackles* | TFL  | Sacks |
|-----------------|------|----------|------|-------|
| Isaiah Simmons^ | 2019 | 69       | 11.5 | 6.0   |
| Clelin Ferrell  | 2017 | 66       | 18.0 | 9.5   |
| Andre Branch    | 2011 | 77       | 17.0 | 10.5  |

* Note - tackles as credited initially by NCAA stats, not coaches' film review; ^ Indicates players who also have an interception this season

"He's what everybody's looking for because he's that hybrid guy," Swinney said of Simmons. "He's long. He can cover. He can play first, second and third down. He legitimately could go play safety. He's a guy that could probably make all-conference for us at probably three different positions if you played him there."

-- OFFENSIVE LINE --

SACKS ALLOWED

Clemson is powered up front in 2019 by one of the most senior-laden offensive lines in school history. Alongside sophomore left tackle Jackson Carman, Clemson's line includes four senior starters in left guard John Simpson, center Sean Pollard, right guard Gage Cervenka and right tackle Tremayne Anchrum.

In the season opener, Clemson started four senior offensive linemen in a game for the first time since the 2011 South Carolina game, when Phillip Price,

David Smith, Antoine McClain and Landon Walker started alongside junior Dalton Freeman. The last time Clemson had four senior starters on the offensive line for the majority of a season was 2007, when sophomore Thomas Austin was joined by seniors Barry Richardson, Chris McDuffie, Brandon Pilgrim and Christian Capote.

Dating back to last season, Clemson's offense has allowed only 12 total sacks in its last 18 games, including holding teams to zero sacks in nine of those 18 contests.

SACKS ALLOWED (LAST 18 GAMES)

| 11/9/19  | NC State       | 1     | 5         | 55-10       |

Clemson's protection for quarterback Trevor Lawrence has taken on an almost-mythical quality, according to Syracuse Head Coach Dino Babers, whose own prolific defensive line was held without a sack against Clemson in 2019.

"[It's like] Game of Thrones. He's got a castle, he's got a moat, he's got some dragons. That dude's protected," Babers said.

SACK DIFFERENTIAL

Clemson's domination in its current winning streak has been powered in part at the line of scrimmage, where Clemson holds an 86-24 edge over opponents in sacks in that time frame. Clemson's +62 margin in sacks since 2018 is by far the top differential in the country, as no other program can boast a sack differential greater than +45 since 2018.

-- DEFENSE --

NO-NAME NO MORE

The college football world became well-acquainted and familiar with the faces that populated Clemson's 2018 defensive line. In addition to producing four picks in the first four rounds of the 2019 NFL Draft, Clemson's 2018 defensive line featured some of the most gregarious names and faces in the sport in Christian Wilkins, Clelin Ferrell, Dexter Lawrence and Austin Bryant.

The average observer may not know the names and faces of Clemson's 2019 unit as well, but the unit has served notice of its arrival with an impressive start to the season. Included below is a quick collection of quotes from Dabo Swinney about each of Clemson's listed starters or co-starters on the defensive line:

- DE Justin Foster: "He's just an old salty dog. He's just steady. You can count on him. He's tough."

- DE Xavier Thomas: "Xavier Thomas, geez. That guy is a special talent, but he's got to be a down-in, down-out special player."

- DE Logan Rudolph: "Nobody's game planning for Logan Rudolph. Nobody knows who he is, but you will. That guy is a football player."

- DT Tyler Davis: "It's not often you see a D-tackle show up and start. To see a guy start [as a true freshman] and really play at a high level... even though we've had that precedent here, that's still pretty unique."

- DT Nyles Pinckney: "He's a fourth-year guy and he looks that way. He just carries himself that way and has played some good football for us."

- DT Jordan Williams: "Tool-wise and ability-wise, he's got it all."

STOPPING THE RUN

Clemson held Texas A&M to 2.0 yards per carry on 27 carries in Week 2, the lowest yards-per-carry average allowed by Clemson since holding Boston College to 0.3 yards per carry on Nov. 10, 2018. A week after the Texas A&M game, Clemson then held Syracuse to 0.4 yards per carry in prime time.

The games represented the 18th and 19th times since 2014 that Clemson has held an opponent to 2.0 or fewer yards per carry, fourth-most in the country. Clemson is 18-1 in those contests.

Prior to facing Louisville on Oct. 19, Clemson had gone 27 consecutive games without allowing opponents to produce a 100-yard rusher, which had been the longest active streak in the country and the school's longest since at least 1980.

Clemson's two 100-yard rushers allowed since 2018 rank tied for the second-fewest in the country.

POINTS ALLOWED PER POSSESSION

Since Brent Venables joined Clemson as defensive coordinator prior to the 2012 season, Clemson has allowed only 1.14 points per possession against FBS opponents, the second-fewest in the country in that span. No program has given up fewer points per possession against FBS opponents since 2018, as Clemson's 0.78 points allowed per possession since the start of last season makes Clemson one of only two programs in the country to allow fewer than a full point per drive to opponents.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

In addition to Clemson's elite on-field performance in 2018, the squad simultaneously posted one of the best academic semesters in the program's history. The squad posted team records in average GPA and number of players earning a 3.0 or better, all while collecting the AFCA Academic Achievement Award for the first time in Clemson history.

In the spring of 2019, the NCAA announced APR metrics for the 2017-18 academic year as well as public recognition awards for the Top 10 percent of programs in each sport at every level. Clemson set a program record with a 992 APR for the 2017-18 academic year, third-best in the FBS, earning NCAA recognition for the eighth time in the last nine years.

Clemson is one of only 34 of the 130 FBS programs to earn at least one APR recognition since the 2009-10 academic year, one of only 28 to earn it multiple times, and one of only three programs to earn the award eight-plus times in that span.

ACC: WE DO THIS

Arguments about conference strength were once again en vogue during the 2019 offseason, with various pundits and commentators offering opinions on the state of the ACC and the national landscape.

Head Coach Dabo Swinney has repeatedly contended that the quality of Clemson's conference competition has been central to its postseason success.

"This league doesn't take a back seat to anyone. It's a very competitive league," Swinney said at ACC Kickoff in July. "At the end of the day, I think the credit goes to this conference; I think that's why we've been so successful in the postseason."

Entering the 2019 season, the ACC:

- Has won more football national titles than any other conference since 2013 (three of the last six).

- Has had a team in either the College Football Playoff or the BCS National Championship Game in each of the past six years.

- Matched its league record with 11 bowl teams in 2018, including Boston College, Clemson, Duke, Georgia Tech, Miami, NC State, Pitt, Syracuse, Virginia, Virginia Tech and Wake Forest. The 11 bowl teams tied for the most among any conference.

- Is the only conference to send every team to at least one bowl game over the last three seasons. In addition, the ACC is tied for the most bowl teams (32) among all conferences over the last three years (11 in 2016, 10 in 2017, 11 in 2018).

- Has produced 19 postseason wins since the 2016 season, the most of any conference.

Those facts aren't lost on Swinney, who has actively contested narratives questioning the ACC's strength.

"The rhetoric used to be, 'Well, an ACC team's never going to win the national championship because they don't play anybody. So when they get to the postseason and they've gotta play the big bad boys, they can't beat them,'" Swinney said. "Well, now we win, and [they say] the only reason we win is because we don't play anybody. So you can't have it both ways."

RELATIVELY SPEAKING

Clemson's 2019 roster has many connections to college and professional athletics. Below is a list of the connections:

- Tremayne Anchrum, OL: His father, Tremayne, played college basketball at Southern California.

- Ben Batson, QB: Son of Clemson strength and conditioning coach Joey Batson.

- J.C. Chalk, TE: Grandson of former Alabama coach Gene Stallings, who was Dabo Swinney's head coach at Alabama when Swinney was a player.

- Bryton Constantin, LB: Son of Tony Harris, who played college basketball at University of New Orleans, then in NBA with the 76ers and Celtics.

- Carson Donnelly, DB: Father, Chris, played at Alabama with Dabo Swinney.

- Brian Dawkins, Jr., CB: Son of former Clemson All-American and nine-time NFL Pro Bowl safety Brian Dawkins, who was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2018.

- Mike Jones Jr., LB: Son of Mike Jones Sr., who played at NC State prior to a nine-year NFL career with the Cardinals, Patriots, Rams and Titans.

- Joseph Ngata, WR: Brother of Washington linebacker Ariel Ngata.

- Ruke Orhorhoro, DE: Cousin of three family members who played or are still playing college football — Michael Ojemudia (Iowa), Mario Ojemudia (Michigan) and Ovie Oghoufo (Notre Dame).

- Patrick Phibbs, LS: Son of Bruce Phibbs, who won a Division I-AA championship with Southern Illinois in 1983 as a fullback and long snapper.

- Amari Rodgers, WR: Son of former Tennessee quarterback Tee Martin.

- Logan Rudolph, DE: Brother of former Oklahoma State quarterback Mason Rudolph, now with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

- Will Swinney, WR: Son of Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney.

- Drew Swinney, WR: Son of Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney

- Nolan Turner, SS: Son of former Alabama player Kevin Turner, who also played eight years in the NFL with New England Patriots.

NOTES

- James Skalski, LB: Father, John, played football at Oklahoma.
- Baylon Spector, LB: Son of former Clemson receiver Robbie Spector.
- Will Spiers, P: Son of former Clemson punter and baseball All-American Bill Spiers.
- Regan Upshaw, DE: Son of nine-year NFL defensive tackle Regan Upshaw
- Jake Venables, LB: Son of Clemson defensive coordinator Brent Venables.

-- HALL OF FAME DAY --

CLEMSON ATHLETIC HALL OF FAME CLASS OF 2019

Eight former Clemson athletes representing seven sports plus a former athletic director who made one of the most notable coaching hires in the 124-year history of the school's athletic department comprise the Clemson Athletic Hall of Fame Class of 2019.

The announcement was made by Director of the Block C Club Bob Mahony, who oversees the Hall of Fame and the selection process. The nine-member class will be inducted this weekend and is highlighted below:

JAMES DAVIS - Football (2005-08)

- No. 2-ranked rusher in Clemson history with 3,881 yards just 85 yards short of Raymond Priester's career record entering the 2019 season.

- Tallied 47 rushing touchdowns, which stood as the Clemson record until Clemson's game against Wofford on Nov. 2 this year. Ranks fourth in Clemson history in total touchdowns with 49 and eighth in scoring.

- First-team All-ACC in 2006 and 2007 when he helped team to a bowl game each season.

- ACC Rookie of the Year in 2005 when he rushed for 879 yards and led Clemson to a Top 25 final ranking.

- Most Valuable Player of Clemson's win over Colorado in 2005 Champs Sports Bowl when he had 28 carries for 150 yards and a touchdown in a 19-10 win.

- Had 1,187 yards rushing on 5.8 yards per rush and 17 touchdowns in 2006, then followed that with 1,064 rushing yards in 2007.

- Remembered for his 216-yard rushing game against 12th ranked Georgia Tech in 2006, a career high for the native of Atlanta.

- Finished his career with 14 100-yard games, tied for third in Clemson history.

- Led Clemson in rushing all four years he was in the program, only player in Clemson history to lead the Tigers in that category four times.

JIMMY GLENN - Soccer (1990-93)

- One of four finalists for Hermann Award in 1993, the Heisman Trophy of college soccer.

- Unanimous first-team All-American in 1993. Also one of four finalists for the Missouri Award that year.

- ACC Player of the Year in 1993 when he led the league and the nation in goals with 32.

- Led Clemson in goals scored and points in 1990, 1991 and 1993.

- His 32 goals scored are still tied for the Clemson single-season record and eighth-best in NCAA history. Henry Abadi also had 32 goals in 1973. His 76 points in 1993 are still the Clemson record and fifth-best in NCAA history.

- Had 32 goals and 12 assists in 1993, only player in Clemson history with 30 goals and double figures in assists in same year.

- Had eight career hat tricks in his career, tied for first in Clemson history. Four of them came in 1993.

- Third in Clemson history in career points with 164 and third in total goals with 68. Finished his career with 28 assists to go with those 68 goals.

- Clemson team finished fifth in the nation in 1990 when Glenn was a freshman and fifth in 1993, his senior year.

- Scored game-winning goal with one second left to beat No. 1 Virginia in 1993.

- Named to ACC 50-Year Anniversary soccer team.

KAREN HARTMANN - Women's Track (1992-95)

- Named to ACC 50-Year Anniversary track team in 2002.

- Burst on the scene when she earned All-America honors as a freshman. Finished third in the 800 meters at the NCAA indoor meet with a time of 2:04.55, still fourth-best in Clemson history.

- Also won All-America honors outdoors as a freshman, she finished sixth at the NCAA championships in the 1500 with a time of 4:22.72.

- ACC Indoor Meet MVP in 1993 when she won the mile and the 800 meters. Only Clemson women's athlete to win two individual events at that ACC Championship. Became the second Clemson woman to win ACC Indoor Meet MVP honors in history.

- Competed in the 800 meters at the Indoor NCAA Championships in 1992 and 1993, still only Clemson track athlete to make it to the NCAAs Indoor in the 800 meters twice.

- Helped the 1992 Clemson indoor track team to a No. 22 finish and the 1992 outdoor team to No. 17 national finish.

- Helped Clemson indoor track team to ACC title in 1992. Team finished second two other times in her career.

- Her 2:04.55 time in the indoor 800 meters is still fourth best in Clemson history and her indoor mile time is seventh. Her 1500-meter outdoor time of 4:15.87 is still third best, 24 years after she graduated.

- Five-time All-ACC honoree overall.

BRIAN KOWITZ - Baseball (1988-90)

- Received national acclaim in 1990 for his 37-game hitting streak, the second longest in school history and one of the top 25 streaks in college baseball history.

- Hit an incredible .430 over those 37 games with 61 hits in 142 at bats, he also drove in 43 runs and scored 45.

- Second-Team All-American by Baseball America in 1990.

- The ACC Player of the Year in 1990 when he was second in the nation in runs scored. One of just three Clemson outfielders to be named ACC Player of the Year since 1975.

- Won the Mitchell Award as the Clemson team's Most Valuable Player in 1990.

- That 1990 season he batted .403 with 60 RBIs and 87 runs scored with 102 hits. His 102 hits are still 10th and his 87 runs are still fourth Clemson history. Had team-best 22 doubles and also stole 34-42 bases.

- Had a career batting average of .319 with 53 doubles, 11 triples and 124 RBIs.

- Ninth-round draft choice of Atlanta Braves in 1990 and played for the Braves in 1995.

TERRY DON PHILLIPS - Athletic Director (2002-12)

- During his career (2002-12), Clemson had 57 top 25 finishes and won 13 ACC Championships in all sports.

- Clemson football had six Top 25 seasons, including a 11-2 mark in his final year as Athletic Director, the most wins by the Clemson team in 31 years. Tigers defeated a top-10 LSU team in his final game.

- The previous season, 2011, the Tigers won their first ACC Championship in 20 years with a 38-10 win over Virginia Tech.

- The athletic program invested more than $140 million in facilities during his tenure.

- Named the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics Athletic Director of the Year for the Southeast Region in 2012.

- Won Bobby Dodd Athletic Director Award in 2012.

- Clemson constructed the West End Zone addition and Poe Indoor Football Facility under his watch.

- Hired Dabo Swinney to an interim position in October of 2008, then named him the permanent coach at the end of the regular season. Swinney has led Clemson to two National Championships and five ACC Championships. He is the winningest active coach in the FBS in terms of percentage.

- Also hired Brad Brownell, Clemson men's basketball coach, who can become Clemson's winningest basketball coach this year.

K. C. RIVERS - Basketball (2005-09)

- Ranked eighth in Clemson history in scoring with 1,684 points. One of the most consistent players in school history, he averaged between 14.0 and 14.7 points per game each of his last three years.

- Second-team All-ACC in 2007-08 when he led Clemson to one of its best seasons, a 24-10 record, a third-place finish in the ACC regular season and the program's second appearance in the ACC Championship game, the first since 1962.

- Scored 28 points in ACC Championship game against North Carolina.

- That team finished 22nd in the final AP poll, the best final ranking for the program in 11 years.

- Also second-team All-District by American Basketball Coaches Association in 2007-08.

- Led Clemson's 2007-08 team in scoring with 14.7 points, scoring exactly 500 points.

- Helped Clemson to NCAA Tournament each of his last two years and to the NIT Finals in 2007 as a sophomore.

- Made 88 three-point goals in 2006-07, still fifth in school history.

- Clemson's career leader in three point goals with 281, he is also third in steals with 210. Had record-tying eight three-point goals at Virginia in 2008.

- Has gone on to long professional career, mostly in Europe. In 2014-15, played on Real Madrid team that won the Euro League and Spanish League championships.

NADRA SIMMONS - Women's Swimming (1984-88)

- Seven-time All-American over three seasons during the greatest era of Clemson women's swimming.

- That included earning All-America honors in the 100 backstroke three consecutive years (1985-87).

- During her career, the Clemson team finished 19th at the NCAA meet in 1985, 7th in 1986 and program best fifth in 1987 and 1988.

- Team won women's program's first ACC Championship in 1987 and then duplicated the feat in 1988.

- Simmons first won All-America honors in the 100 back in 1985 at the University of Texas.

- Won All-America honors in the backstroke in 1986 and was an All-American on the 200 medley relay and the 400 medley relay. Once again accomplished the feat in 1987.

- Won the ACC Championship in the 100 back in 1986 with a time of 56.87.

- Qualified for the US Olympic Trials in the backstroke in 1984 and 1988.

- Inducted into the Indiana High School Swimming Hall of Fame in 2015. She was a four-time high school All-American at Lafayette Jefferson High School in Indiana before coming to Clemson.

- Nadra Simmons Woerner now lives in Zionville, Indiana, with her husband, Tim, and their two children.

MITCH SPRENGELMEYER - Tennis (1994-97)

- Named ITA National Senior Player of the Year for 1997.

- Also won the Van Nostrand Award for sportsmanship in 1997, the first player in college tennis history to win both honors in the same year.

- Had a 36-7 record in 1997, a .837 winning percentage, fourth-best in school history. That included an incredible 11-2 record in tiebreakers.

- All-American in singles in 1997 and an All-American in doubles in 1996.

- Finished his career with a 115-50 record in singles and 112-48 record in doubles. One of 12 players in Clemson history to win at least 100 of each in a career. Still eighth in career double victories.

- Had a strong junior year as well, he finished 30-13 in singles and ranked 59th in the final ITA rankings. He and Bruce Li were 10th ranked as a doubles team that year.

- Led Clemson to the ACC team championship, the school's first since 1988. Helped Clemson go 3-0 in the tournament in Atlanta, including a 4-3 upset of Duke in the championship match.

- Led Clemson to a No. 19 national finish as a team in 1997 as a senior, as he was No. 19 in the final individual singles poll.

- Four-time honoree on the ACC Academic Honor Roll.

- Named to ACC 50-Year Anniversary Team in 2002.

DAVE THOMPSON - Football (1968-70)

- First-team All-American by Newspaper Enterprise Association and second team All-American by UPI in 1970 as an offensive guard.

- Joined Wayne Mass and Harry Olszewski as the only Clemson offensive lineman to earn All-American honors between 1960-76.

- First-team All-ACC in 1970 as an offensive guard.

- Won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy for the state of South Carolina in 1970.

- Starter at center for all 10 games as a junior in 1969, then all 11 games at guard in 1970. His versatility was a key to his success at the professional level.

- Second-round selection of the Lions in the 1971 NFL Draft, he was the 30th pick overall. In today's expanded NFL with 32 teams, his 30th overall selection would have been a first-round pick.

- Highest-drafted pure offensive lineman in Clemson history with his No. 30 selection. Lou Cordileone (12th) and Harold Olsen (13th) went both ways when they were drafted in the 1960 NFL Draft.

- Played in 56 games over five years in the NFL. Played in all 14 games in three of those five seasons. He was with Detroit Lions from 1971-73, the New Orleans Saints from 1974-75 and on the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' practice squad in 1976.

CLEMSON, S.C. – Behind a career-best 205 rushing yards from Travis Etienne, the No. 1/1 Clemson Tigers defeated the Georgia Tech Yellow Jackets, 52-14, at Memorial Stadium on Aug. 29. Clemson rushed for 411 yards, its most in a season-opener since 1957 and the most allowed by Georgia Tech since 1975.

Quarterback Trevor Lawrence opened the scoring for the Tigers with a six-yard touchdown run in the first quarter. Lawrence completed 13-of-23 pass attempts for 168 yards and one touchdown on the day and added three carries for 24 yards with the rushing touchdown.

Etienne found the end zone three times among his 12 attempts, including a career-long and school-record-tying 90-yard touchdown run in the opening quarter. It was the longest run by any player in Memorial Stadium history. His third and final score of the night came from 48 yards out in the opening minutes of the third quarter.

Tee Higgins finished with four catches for 98 yards, including a 62-yard touchdown from Lawrence with 4:34 to go in the first half to put Clemson ahead 28-0 after two quarters. Second-half touchdowns by Lyn-J Dixon and Frank Ladson Jr. and a 51-yard field goal by B.T. Potter completed the scoring for Clemson.

Clemson forced four turnovers, including interceptions by Tanner Muse and Denzel Johnson and fumble recoveries by Baylon Spector and Xavier Kelly. The four takeaways were Clemson's most since 2015 against Notre Dame. Isaiah Simmons led the defense with nine tackles.

CLEMSON, S.C. – No. 1/1 Clemson extended its winning streak to 17 games, tying the school record set across the 2014-15 seasons, as the Tigers defeated the No. 12/11 Texas A&M Aggies inside a sold-out Memorial Stadium, 24-10.

Quarterback Trevor Lawrence completed 24-of-35 passes for 268 passing yards and one passing touchdown along with his second rushing touchdown of the season. Lyn-J Dixon led the ground attack, posting 79 yards on 11 attempts and one touchdown.

One year after Clemson's top-ranked scoring defense allowed 501 yards at Texas A&M, Clemson held Texas A&M to 289 total yards on Saturday. It included holding quarterback Kellen Mond to 236 passing yards (97 through three quarters) after Mond accounted for 430 yards in the team's meeting in 2018.

After a scoreless first quarter, Texas A&M opened the scoring on a 16-play drive that ended with a 32-yard field goal. But Clemson responded with three scoring drives to end the half. Lawrence connected with Justyn Ross for a 30-yard touchdown in the second quarter. After a 29-yard field goal by B.T. Potter, Lawrence rushed for his second touchdown of the season with 33 seconds remaining in the second quarter to push the lead to 14 at the break.

Dixon added a rushing touchdown in the second half to bring Clemson's point total to 24. Texas A&M's lone touchdown of the day came on a Jalen Wydermyer touchdown reception with only six seconds remaining, snapping a streak of 11 consecutive wins by 20 points or more, one shy of the most by any team in the AP Poll era (since 1936).

SYRACUSE, N.Y. — No. 1/1 Clemson set a new school record with its 18th consecutive victory, defeating the Syracuse Orange, 41-6, at The Dome in Clemson's first road test of the season. It was a charged atmosphere, representing the third-largest crowd in facility history and Syracuse's first home sellout since 1998.

Quarterback Trevor Lawrence completed 22-of-39 passes for a career-high 395 yards with three passing touchdowns. His 395 passing yards represented the 11th-highest single game total in school history.

Clemson had two receivers post 100-yard games. Tee Higgins recorded 150 yards on seven receptions, all in the first half, the most by a Tiger in a half since Sammy Watkins' school-record 177-yard first half against Wake Forest in 2012. Amari Rodgers added 121 yards on four catches, including touchdown receptions of 16 and 87 yards.

Clemson led throughout, with Rodgers opening the scoring. Twice, Clemson gifted Syracuse the ball inside Clemson's own 10-yard line following turnovers, but Clemson forced an interception and turnover on downs on the resulting possessions.

Despite the gaudy offensive numbers, the story of the game was Clemson's stout defense, which held Syracuse out of the end zone and helped Clemson outgain Syracuse, 612-187. Clemson finished with 15 tackles for loss, its most in the Dabo Swinney era, including eight sacks, tied for the eighth-most in a game in school history.

CLEMSON, S.C. – Top-ranked Clemson defeated Charlotte 52-10 at Memorial Stadium night in Dabo Swinney's 150th career game as head coach at Clemson. The win extended Clemson's school-record win streak to 19 games, dating to the start of the 2018 season. The Tiger defense held the 49ers to 216 yards of total offense.

Quarterback Trevor Lawrence threw two touchdown passes, including a 58-yard touchdown to Tee Higgins on his first attempt of the game, as well as a two-yard touchdown pass to Cornell Powell early in the second quarter before giving way to the Tiger reserves. Chase Brice connected with Joseph Ngata for a 37-yard touchdown in the third quarter. The touchdown reception was Ngata's first career touchdown reception. Running backs Travis Etienne, Lyn-J Dixon and Michel Dukes all accounted for a rushing touchdown, respectively, as well.

Clemson held Charlotte to 63 passing yards. Safety K'Von Wallace returned a 66-yard interception for a touchdown in the first quarter, his fourth career interception and first career touchdown.

Clemson played a school-record 111 players in the contest, shattering the previous record of 94, set against The Citadel in 2017 and again against Louisville in 2018.

|        | NORTH CAROLINA   | 20 |
|        | SEPT. 28, 2019KENAN MEMORIAL STADIUM • CHAPEL HILL, N.C. |    |

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. - No. 1 Clemson stopped North Carolina on a two-point conversion attempt with less than two minutes remaining to defeat the Tar Heels, 21-20, at Kenan Memorial Stadium. The game marked the first time in nine years that the Tigers traveled to Chapel Hill, N.C., and represented the first time since 2002 that Clemson beat the Tar Heels in Chapel Hill.

North Carolina opened the game with a four-play touchdown drive capped by a 40-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Sam Howell to Dyami Brown. Running back Travis Etienne eventually responded for Clemson with a 13-yard touchdown in the second quarter.

After Howell produced a second passing touchdown for North Carolina, quarterback Trevor Lawrence found the end zone for his fourth rushing touchdown of the season to tie the game at 14 with less than a minute to go before halftime.

The teams traded scoreless possessions throughout the third quarter, but in the fourth quarter, Lawrence connected with Tee Higgins on a 38-yard touchdown to give the Tigers their first lead of the game with 9:54 remaining. Lawrence finished the contest having completed 18-of-30 passes for 206 yards and a career-best 45 rushing yards. Higgins finished with game highs in receptions (six) and receiving yards (129).

Trailing 21-14, North Carolina engineered a 16-play, 75-yard touchdown drive to pull within one point with 1:17 remaining. North Carolina Head Coach Mack Brown opted to try a two-point conversion attempt, but the Tiger defense stood tall, as Xavier Thomas, James Skalski and Nolan Turner combined to tackle quarterback Sam Howell to preserve the lead. A Clemson recovery on an ensuing outside kick sealed the victory.

CLEMSON, S.C. – No. 2 Clemson defeated Florida State Seminoles, 45-14, as Clemson became just the 15th FBS program — and the first in the Atlantic Coast Conference — to reach 750 all-time wins.

Quarterback Trevor Lawrence completed 17-25 passes for 170 yards and three touchdowns. Lawrence also rushed for his fifth touchdown of the season in the contest. Wide receiver Justyn Ross added two touchdown receptions in the second quarter, finishing with 61 receiving yards on five catches.

Running back Travis Etienne surpassed 3,000 career rushing yards on the afternoon, finishing with 127 rushing yards and a three-yard touchdown reception in the first quarter. Amari Rodgers added a 29-yard touchdown on a reverse to open the scoring in the second half.

Though Clemson's offense helped the Tigers run out to a quick 28-0 lead, the defense was one of the stories of the game, forcing four turnovers, including three interceptions. Cornerback Derion Kendrick recorded his first career interception, which he returned 38 yards for a pick-six. It was Clemson's second interception return for touchdown this season, giving Clemson multiple pick sixes in every season since 2013.

Clemson's 39:37 possession time was the program's longest since its school-record 42:58 possession time against North Carolina on Nov. 7, 1992.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. – No. 3/2 Clemson defeated Louisville, 45-10, at Cardinal Stadium. The Tiger defense forced three turnovers and totaled six sacks in the win, holding Louisville to just 263 yards.

Clemson racked up 551 yards offensively behind another big day from junior running back Travis Etienne in helping the Tigers to their 10th consecutive true road win.

Etienne continued his stellar play against the Cardinals, rushing for 192 yards on 14 attempts including a 49-yard touchdown run in the third quarter. It gave him 443 yards on 28 carries and three touchdowns on the ground in three career games against Louisville. It marked the first time Etienne rushed for 100-plus yards in back-to-back games since a three-game streak in 2018 against South Carolina, Pittsburgh and Notre Dame.

Quarterback Trevor Lawrence completed 20-of-29 passes and three touchdown passes despite starting the game 3-for-7 for five yards with two interceptions in the first quarter. Justyn Ross, Joseph Ngata and Cornell Powell each hauled in a touchdown reception.

Linebacker Isaiah Simmons led the defense once again, registering eight total tackles, two sacks and one pass breakup. Justin Foster tallied a career-best two sacks and 3.5 tackles for loss. K'Von Wallace and A.J. Terrell each recorded interceptions in the contest.

With the victory, Head Coach Dabo Swinney became the winningest active FBS coach by percentage among coaches with at least five seasons of experience.

CLEMSON, S.C. – No. 4/2 Clemson extended the nation's longest winning streak to 23 games at Memorial Stadium, dominating Boston College, 59-7, on Homecoming. Clemson outgained Boston College, 674-177, and the 497-yard differential was Clemson's largest against an ACC opponent since the conference's founding in 1953, surpassing a 464-yard advantage against Wake Forest in 2000.

Diondre Overton tied a school record with three touchdown receptions. He finished with three receptions for 119 receiving yards, with his three catches resulting in touchdowns of 22, 63 and 34 yards.

Travis Etienne recorded his fifth three-touchdown game of his Clemson career, scoring three first-half touchdowns and posting 109 yards on 16 carries. Trevor Lawrence completed 16-of-19 passes for 275 yards and three touchdowns for a career-high passer rating of 257.9. In addition to throwing two touchdowns to Overton, Lawrence found Amari Rodgers for Rodgers' third touchdown of the season on a 19-yard strike.

The Clemson defense held the Boston College rushing attack, which posted 429 yards against NC State a week earlier, to only 96 yards. The Eagles came into the contest ranked sixth in the nation and first in the ACC with 278.3 rushing yards per game. Logan Rudolph returned a fumble 39 yards to score his first career touchdown. Chad Smith led the defense with nine total tackles, a forced fumble and a sack.

CLEMSON, S.C. – Behind a career-best 212 rushing yards from running back Travis Etienne, No. 4/3 Clemson defeated Wofford, 59-14, at Memorial Stadium on Military Appreciation Day. The win also extended Clemson's home winning streak to 21 games, tying the school record.

Etienne broke James Davis' (47 from 2005-08) school rushing touchdowns record in the second quarter on an 86-yard touchdown, his second score of the day. Etienne's 212 yards came on just nine attempts. Etienne crossed the 1,000-yard mark on the season in just nine games, tying Terrence Flagler's for fewest games needed to reach 1,000 rushing yards in a season.

Quarterback Trevor Lawrence threw for three touchdowns and 218 yards in the win. Lawrence completed 12-of-16 passes and rushed for 33 yards on four attempts with a rushing touchdown. Amari Rodgers caught his fourth touchdown of the season, a 35-yard strike in the first quarter. Justyn Ross and Tee Higgins also added receiving touchdowns.

Clemson's explosive offense gave the Tigers back-to-back 600-yard games and four straight 45-point games for the first time in school history.

Isaiah Simmons recorded his first interception of the season, picking off Wofford quarterback Joe Newman in the second quarter. Jake Venables tied for a team high with eight total tackle, four of which resulted in a loss. Conversely, Clemson's offense ran 64 plays, none of which produced negative yardage.

CARTER-FINLEY STADIUM • RALEIGH, N.C.

RALEIGH, N.C. – Notified just before kick of the opportunity to clinch the Atlantic Division, No. 4/3 Clemson secured its spot in the ACC Championship Game with a 55-10 win at NC State.

Clemson warmed up in its traditional white pants but switched to its championship "orange britches" right before kickoff upon being informed of Wake Forest's loss to Virginia Tech. Clemson then used a record-tying 28-point first quarter to run out to a 28-0 lead.

Running back Travis Etienne added three total touchdowns to bring his career total to 54, breaking C.J. Spiller's record for career touchdowns (51). Etienne finished the game with 112 rushing yards on 14 attempts, and hauled in three receptions for 31 yards.

Quarterback Trevor Lawrence completed 20-of-27 passes for 276 yards and three touchdowns, becoming the first Clemson quarterback to pass for three touchdowns in five consecutive games. The sophomore also rushed for a career-high 59 yards on eight attempts and found the end zone once on the ground.

Justyn Ross and Tee Higgins each recorded 33-yard touchdown receptions. Offensive lineman John Simpson scored his first career touchdown, scoring on a one-yard handoff.

Clemson forced four NC State turnovers, all fumbles, as Xavier Thomas, Chad Smith, Tyler Davis and Jack Maddox all recorded fumble recoveries. The defense allowed 290 total yards, its 10th straight opponent to accrue fewer than 300 yards to open the season.
