CLEMSON SEEKS SIXTH STRAIGHT WIN AGAINST SOUTH CAROLINA

Clemson will attempt to extend its winning streak against in-state rival South Carolina to six games when the Tigers face the Gamecocks for the 117th time on Saturday, Nov. 30. Kickoff at Williams-Brice Stadium is scheduled for noon ET.

Clemson, holder of the nation's longest active overall winning streak (26), home winning streak (22) and road winning streak (11), will attempt to extend its recent run of victories against its rival. Clemson has won five straight against South Carolina since 2014 and will attempt to earn a sixth consecutive win against the Gamecocks for the first time since a seven-game streak from 1934-40. Clemson has scored at least 34 points in every game of its five-game series winning streak, winning by an average margin of 23.4 points in that span.

Since the start of October, Clemson's weekly scoring margins have displayed a brand of dominance rarely seen in FBS history. Clemson is in the midst of a six-game streak of wins by 30 or more points, one shy of matching 1976 Michigan and 2011 Houston for the longest such streaks in the AP Poll era (since 1936). Clemson has also won four consecutive games for 45 or more points, presently standing with 1944 Army and 1972 Nebraska as the only teams since 1936 to do so.

Clemson's performance since October has been bolstered by the historic output of Doak Walker Award semifinalist Travis Etienne. Etienne has posted 873 rushing yards on 86 carries (10.2 avg.) and nine rushing touchdowns in the last six games, breaking school records for rushing yards in a six-game span and consecutive 100-yard rushing games (six). Etienne presently ranks seventh in the country in rushing yards (1,335), but has accrued his yardage despite totaling at least 65 fewer carries than anyone else in the top seven. By virtue of Clemson's propensity for building big leads and its commitment to playing so many players, only 39 of Etienne's 153 carries this season have come in the second half, including only four fourth-quarter carries.

Etienne's 8.73 yards-per-carry average leads the nation and is a full two yards per carry better than any of the six players ahead of him in rushing yardage. Etienne holds an 8.10 yards-per-carry average for his career, just shy of the NCAA record held by Army's Glenn Davis (8.26 from 1943-46) among players with 300 career carries.

NOTES

THE TIGER 280

Three items of note in 280 characters or less:

🐾 Clemson has won six straight games by 30 or more points, an ACC-record, since the start of October. A seventh straight victory by 30 or more points this week would tie 2011 Houston and 1976 Michigan for the longest streak in the AP Poll era (since 1936).

🐾 No running back in the country has been more explosive than Travis Etienne, whose 8.73 yards per carry lead the country. He ranks seventh in the nation in rushing yards (1,335) but has outrushed the top six by a full two yards per carry on average.

🐾 A win this week would represent Clemson's 10th victory against SEC competition since the start of the 2016 season. Clemson's nine wins against the SEC since 2016 outpace the totals of three active SEC members: Ole Miss (eight), Vanderbilt (eight) and Arkansas (four).

WHAT TO WATCH FOR THIS WEEK

- Clemson attempting to complete its eighth undefeated regular season in school history, joining the 1900 (6-0), 1906 (4-0-3), 1948 (10-0), 1950 (8-0-1), 1981 (11-0), 2015 (12-0) and 2018 (12-0) Clemson squads. A win would make it Clemson's sixth time finishing a regular season without any losses or ties.

- Clemson attempting to open a season 12-0 for only the fourth time, joining a 12-0 record in every game of the 1981 season and a 12-0 mark in the first 12 games of the 2015 and 2018 seasons.

- Clemson winning the first 12 games of a season for the third time under Head Coach Dabo Swinney (2015 and 2018). Swinney was already the first coach in Clemson history to coach the school to multiple 12-0 starts. Danny Ford accomplished the feat once during Clemson's 1981 national championship campaign.

- The 2019 Tigers winning a 12th game to tie the 1981 and 2017 squads for the fourth-most wins in a season in school history.

- Clemson (114) attempting to earn its 115th victory this decade to join Alabama (123 in the 2010s), Ohio State (115 in the 2010s), Penn (124 in the 1890s) and Yale (116 in the 1890s) as the only major college football programs since 1890 to win 115 games in a single decade.

- The 2019 Clemson seniors attempting to win their 53rd game to tie the 2017 Alabama seniors for third-most in FBS history in a four-year span. Clemson would match the 2018 Alabama seniors as the fastest to 53 wins (56 games).

- Clemson attempting to win its 27th consecutive game, dating to the start of the 2018 season, to extend the longest winning streak in school history and second-longest winning streak in ACC history. A 27-game winning streak would take sole possession of the 18th-longest streak in major college football history.

- Clemson attempting to become the first team in the AP Poll era (since 1936) to win five straight games by 45 or more points. Clemson is one of only three teams in the era to win four in a row by 45-plus points (1944 Army and 1972 Nebraska).

- Clemson attempting to add to its active six-game streak of wins by 30 or more points. A seven-game streak of 30-point wins would tie the longest streak in the AP Poll era, matching Houston in 2011 and Michigan in 1976.

- Clemson entering the week as the only team in the country with nine wins against Power Five opponents this season. Even with the inclusion of a one-point road victory against a conference opponent in late September, Clemson has won its nine games against Power Five opponents by an average margin of 33.3 points, including seven victories of 31 or more points.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 71-42-4 all-time against South Carolina. Clemson's 70 all-time wins against South Carolina are the program's most against any opponent.

- Clemson attempting to record six consecutive wins against South Carolina for the first time since a seven-game streak from 1934-40. That seven-game streak stands as the longest winning streak in the series by either team.

- Clemson's 2019 senior class attempting to become the 14th class in school history to defeat South Carolina in four consecutive seasons, joining the 1900, 1919, 1930, 1937, 1938, 1939, 1940, 1983, 1991, 2000, 2005, 2017 and 2018 seniors.

- Clemson attempting to move its all-time road record against South Carolina to 52-32-3. Clemson's 51 current road wins at South Carolina are more than double its most all-time road wins against any other opponent. Clemson's second-most road wins against an opponent is 25 at Wake Forest.

- Clemson winning a third straight road game against South Carolina for the first time since defeating the Gamecocks on the road three times across the 2003-07 seasons.

- Clemson entering the contest having won its last three games in the series against South Carolina by at least 21 points (49 points in 2016, 24 points in 2017 and 21 points in 2018). A fourth consecutive win of 21 points of more would mark the longest streak of 21-point victories in the series by either team.

- Head Coach Dabo Swinney attempting to improve to 7-5 all-time against South Carolina and make him the first Clemson coach with wins against the Gamecocks in six straight years since Jess Neely accomplished the feat in his final six games in the series from 1934-39.

- Swinney attempting to become the fourth coach in Clemson history to defeat South Carolina seven times, joining Frank Howard (13), Danny Ford (7) and Tommy Bowden (7).

- Clemson entering the game 9-1 against SEC competition since 2016.

- Clemson attempting to win its 10th straight regular season game against SEC competition. Clemson's last regular season loss to an SEC team came against Georgia in 2014.

- Clemson attempting to win its 12th straight true road game to tie the school-record 12-game streak from 2015-17.

- Clemson (11) entering the game with the longest active road winning streak in the country.

- Clemson seeking its 24th victory in its last 25 true road games.

- Clemson seeking its 37th victory in its last 40 games away from home.

- Clemson attempting to win its 23rd consecutive regular season non-conference game. Clemson's current 22-game streak against non-conference opponents in the regular season dates to a 73-7 win against South Carolina State on Sept. 6, 2014. No member of Clemson's current roster has lost a non-conference game in regular season play.

- Clemson attempting to conclude its regular season on a 29-game regular season winning streak, the longest active streak in the country. Clemson's current 28-game regular season winning streak started following a regular season loss at Syracuse on Oct. 13, 2017.

- Clemson attempting to push its winning streak in Saturday games to 41 to extend the longest Saturday winning streak in school history. Clemson's current 40-game run of consecutive Saturday victories is the longest active streak in the country.

- Clemson entering the week as the only team in the country to rank in the Top 5 in both total offense (third, 543.1 per game) and total defense (second, 238.2).

- Clemson (5,974) needing 26 yards to post the eighth 6,000-yard season in Clemson history. All but one of the seven previous 6,000-yard seasons have come in Dabo Swinney's head coaching tenure.

- Clemson (2,866) entering the week 134 rushing yards shy of the seventh 3,000-yard rushing season in program history.

- Clemson (68) needing two more touchdowns to produce the fourth 70-touchdown season in school history, joining the 2018 (90), 2016 (75) and 2015 (71) seasons. Clemson's 68 touchdowns have been scored by 18 different players; last year, Clemson set a school record with 22 different players scoring touchdowns in 2018.

- Clemson attempting to set an ACC record by scoring 45 points in a seventh consecutive game. Clemson's active six-game streak is currently tied with 2013 Florida State for the longest in ACC history.

- Clemson attempting to reach 50 points in five straight games for the first time in program history.

- Clemson (505) needing 45 points to post the fourth 550-point season in school history, joining the 2018 (664), 2016 (588) and 2015 (577) seasons.

- Clemson attempting to record 600 yards of offense for a fifth time to add to its current single-season school record for 600-yard games (four).

- Clemson attempting to reach 500 yards in a seventh straight game for the first time since an 11-game streak to end the 2015 season.

- Clemson attempting to exceed 7.0 yards per play for a sixth game in a row. Clemson's current five-game streak is the program's longest streak on record.

- Clemson entering the game one of only two teams in the country averaging at least 250 yards per game both rushing (260.6) and passing (282.5).

- Clemson (two) needing one more 400-yard rushing game in 2019 to break the school record for 400-yard rushing games in a season (two each by the 1950, 1992 and 2018 squads).

- Clemson (four) rushing for 300 yards in a fifth game this season to tie the school record for 300-yard rushing games in a single season (five each in 1950, 1978 and 2018).

- Clemson attempting to rush for multiple touchdowns in a 13th consecutive game for the first time since a 15-game streak across the 2016-17 seasons.

- Clemson, which rushed for five touchdowns in two of its last three games, attempting to rush for five touchdowns three times in a four-game span, a feat Clemson has only accomplished twice in the same season in school history (November 1954 and September 2000).

- Clemson attempting to produce more passing yards than its opponent in a 15th consecutive game, dating to last season, for the first time since an 18-game streak across the 2015-17 seasons.

- Clemson attempting to throw five touchdowns in consecutive games for the first time since last year's Florida State and Louisville games.

- Clemson attempting to throw three or more touchdowns in seven straight games for the first time in school history.

- Clemson attempting to hold a 12th straight opponent below 300 yards of total offense to open the season. Per ESPN Stats & Info, Clemson was already the first team in searchable data dating back to 1996 to open a season by holding its first 11 opponents to 300 or fewer yards, a feat matched by Ohio State this year.

- Clemson attempting to hold a 15th consecutive opponent to 20 or fewer points for the first time since a 31-game streak across the 1937-40 seasons under Hall of Fame coaches Jess Neely and Frank Howard.

- Clemson attempting to hold a 10th consecutive opponent below 200 passing yards for the first time since the final 10 games of the 1977 regular season. During Clemson's current run of four consecutive College Football Playoff berths starting in 2015, Clemson has held opponents below 200 passing yards 44 times, second-most in the country, with a 43-1 record in those contests.

- Clemson entering the game having held six consecutive opponents to a completion percentage of 50.0 percent or worse. A seventh straight game would be Clemson's first such streak since the 1999 season finale and first six games of 2000. Clemson's last streak of seven consecutive games holding opponents below 50.0 percent passing in a single season was a nine-game streak in 1977.

- Clemson attempting to win the turnover margin in seven consecutive games for the first time under Head Coach Dabo Swinney.

- Clemson attempting to produce a takeaway for a seventh consecutive game and for the 15th time in 16 games, dating to 2018.

- Clemson attempting to win the turnover margin for a ninth time this season, which would match the 2013 squad for Clemson's most such games in a season under Head Coach Dabo Swinney.

- Clemson attempting to create multiple turnovers for a fourth straight game for the first time since a five-game span across the final three games of 2018 and the first two games of 2019.

- Clemson entering the game with three defensive touchdowns in 2019, tied for ninth in the country. A fourth defensive touchdown this season would represent Clemson's second time in three years scoring four defensive touchdowns in a season (four in 2017).

- All three of Clemson's career leaders in yards per carry (Travis Etienne - 8.10, Lyn-J Dixon - 7.35, Tavien Feaster - 5.99) potentially playing in the contest. Feaster transferred to South Carolina from Clemson as a graduate transfer this past offseason.

- Running back Lyn-J Dixon (512) needing 36 rushing yards to break his single-season career high in rushing yards (547) set as a freshman last season.

- Running back Travis Etienne (51) needing one rushing touchdown to tie or two rushing touchdowns to break the ACC record for career rushing touchdowns held by Pitt's James Conner (52).

- Etienne (55) needing two touchdowns of any kind to break Conner's ACC record for career total touchdowns (56). In doing so, Etienne (330) would also pass Conner (338) as the highest-scoring non-kicker in ACC history and trail only 11 kickers in career scoring.

- Etienne attempting to reach 200 rushing yards in a game for the fourth time in his career to add to his school record for career 200-yard rushing games. He would become the first Clemson player with three 200-yard rushing games in a single season.

- Etienne attempting to add to his school-record streak of six consecutive 100-yard rushing games. A seventh straight 100-yard rushing game would tie him with Maryland's Steve Atkins (1978), Virginia Tech's David Wilson (2011) and Louisville's Lamar Jackson (2017) for the fifth-longest streak in ACC history.

- Etienne (16) recording another 100-yard rushing game to tie Wayne Gallman (17 from 2014-16) for the school record for career 100-yard rushing games.

- Etienne (seven) attempting to post an eighth 100-yard rushing game this season to tie his 2018 campaign for second-most 100-yard rushing games in a season in school history.

- Etienne (3,759) entering the game 123 rushing yards shy of passing James Davis (3,881) for second on Clemson's career rushing yardage leaderboard. He needs 208 rushing yards to pass Raymond Priester (3,966) for Clemson's all-time record for career rushing yards.

- Etienne (4,535) needing 52 all-purpose yards to pass Andre Ellington (4,586) for fourth on Clemson's leaderboard for career all-purpose yards.

- Etienne attempting to rush for a touchdown in a sixth straight game for the first time since the final five games of 2018 and the 2019 season opener. It would tie that streak by Etienne and a six-game streak produced by Woodrow Dantzler in 2000 for the seventh-longest streak in school history.

- Etienne (1,335) chasing No. 3 Raymond Priester (1,345 in 1996) and No. 2 Wayne Gallman (1,527 in 2015) on Clemson's single-season rushing yardage leaderboard.

represent the only seasons of 20-plus touchdowns by individuals in school history.

- Etienne (two) seeking his single-season career-high third touchdown reception.

- Wide receiver Tee Higgins (22) sitting five touchdown receptions shy of the school record, held jointly by DeAndre Hopkins and Sammy Watkins (27 each).

- Higgins (2,080) chasing No. 11 Hunter Renfrow (2,133) and No. 10 Jerry Butler (2,223) on Clemson's career receiving yardage list.

- Higgins (799) sitting 137 yards shy of his single-season career high in receiving yards, set as a sophomore last season (936).

- Higgins attempting to catch a touchdown in four straight games for the first time this season. He caught touchdown passes in five straight games across the final four games of the 2018 season and the 2019 season opener.

- Higgins attempting to catch multiple touchdowns in back-to-back games for the first time in his career. He would become the first Clemson receiver to catch multiple touchdown passes in back-to-back games since Deon Cain vs. Louisville and Boston College in 2016.

- Higgins (12 in 2018, eight in 2019) attempting to become the first player in school history to post double-digit touchdown receptions in consecutive seasons. He would join Sammy Watkins (2011 and 2013) as the only players in school history to post 10 or more touchdown receptions in multiple seasons in a career.

- Quarterback Trevor Lawrence attempting to throw a touchdown pass in a 22nd consecutive game. His current 21-game streak is the longest active streak in the country. (Note: UCF's McKenzie Milton had a 24-game streak prior to suffering an injury in November 2018 that will likely preclude him from playing in 2019).

- Lawrence entering the game with 57 career passing touchdowns, the second-most through a sophomore season in ACC history. The record is presently held by Jameis Winston across his first two seasons at Florida State (65).

- Lawrence (27) attempting to throw three touchdowns to tie or four touchdowns to pass his single-season career high in passing touchdowns (30), set as a freshman last year.

- Lawrence (27) sitting three passing touchdowns shy of joining Tajh Boyd and Deshaun Watson as the only players in school history to throw 30 touchdown passes in multiple seasons.

- Lawrence attempting to throw three touchdown passes in seven consecutive games for the first time in his career. He is already the first Clemson quarterback to accomplish the feat in six straight games.

- Lawrence (2,575) needing 425 more passing yards this season to become the third quarterback in Clemson history to post multiple 3,000-yard passing seasons, joining Tajh Boyd (three from 2011-13) and Deshaun Watson (two from 2015-16). Lawrence would be the first to accomplish the feat across his freshman and sophomore seasons.

- Lawrence (449) completing 10 passes to pass No. 6 Nealson Greene (458) and 12 passes to pass No. 5 Woodrow Dantzler (460) on Clemson's leaderboard for career pass completions.

- Lawrence (6,349) needing 438 combined rushing and passing yards to pass Nealson Greene (6,786) for fifth on the school's leaderboard for career total offense.

- Lawrence (65) entering the game three touchdowns shy of tying Woodrow Dantzler (68) for third in school history in career total touchdown responsibility.

- Lawrence entering the contest having thrown 111 consecutive pass attempts without an interception, dating to the first quarter at Louisville on Oct. 19.

- Safety Tanner Muse attempting to post an interception in consecutive games for the second time this season. He recorded an interception in each of Clemson's first two contests this year.

- Muse (four) needing two more interceptions to tie for fifth in school history in interceptions in a season.

- Kicker B.T. Potter attempting to convert a third field goal of 50 yards or more to tie Richard Jackson's school record for 50-yard field goals in a single season from 2009. Potter recorded a field goal of 51 yards against both Georgia Tech and Louisville.

- Potter (61) entering the game third in Clemson history in PATs in a single season. He trails only Greg Huegel, who made 76 PATs in 2018 and 71 PATs in 2016.

- Cornerback A.J. Terrell attempting to intercept a pass in consecutive games for the first time in his career.

SENIOR CLASS SUPERLATIVES

Clemson honored its 2019 senior class with Senior Day festivities prior to its Nov. 16 contest against Wake Forest. As it enters its final regular season game this week, the 2019 senior class...

- ... holds a 52-3 overall record in the last four years, one of only four senior classes in FBS history to post at least 52 career wins in four years.

- ... will become the second senior class in conference history to play in four consecutive ACC Championship games, and with a win in Charlotte, could become the second class in conference history to win four ACC titles outright, joining Clemson's 2018 class.

- ... is attempting to become Clemson's second straight senior class to earn four consecutive College Football Playoff berths during their careers.

- ... has won 44 games against Power Five conference opponents since 2016, the most in the country.

- ... has been ranked in the AP Top 10 in every poll of their careers, one of only two senior classes in the country able to make that claim. That includes a streak of 36 consecutive appearances in the Top 5 since 2017, the longest streak in school history.

- ... finished 27-1 in Death Valley, tying the 2017 and 2018 Clemson seniors for the most career wins at Memorial Stadium.

- ... produced a 30-2 record in ACC regular season play and a 33-2 overall record against ACC opponents. The 30th ACC regular season win tied the school record and concluded the seniors' regular season ACC careers one win shy of the all-time conference record of 31.

- ... finished 23-1 in ACC Atlantic Division play. The class posted 4-0 marks against five of its six Atlantic division foes (Boston College, Florida State, Louisville, NC State and Wake Forest).

- ... can become the 14th Clemson senior class to post a perfect 4-0 record against South Carolina with a win this week.

-- ON THE OPPONENT --

SERIES HISTORY VS. SOUTH CAROLINA

Saturday's game will be the 117th all-time meeting between Clemson and South Carolina. It will be the 111th consecutive year the two schools have met, as the teams have played every year since (and including) the 1909 season. That is the second-longest active streak of consecutive years played in a rivalry in the nation. The only longer consecutive rivalry is Minnesota vs. Wisconsin, as those teams will play for a 113th consecutive year (every year since and including 1907) on Saturday.

107	North Carolina-Virginia (from 1910^)

*Series must have been played every season in that span to qualify
^Neither school fielded a team in 1917-18 due to World War I

The Clemson vs. South Carolina series dates to 1896, the first year of football at Clemson and the fourth season for South Carolina. Clemson holds the advantage 70-42-4 since that first meeting in Columbia, a game won by South Carolina, 12-6. Clemson's first win took place the following year, an 18-6 victory in Columbia.

Clemson broke a five-game losing streak to South Carolina in 2014 with a 35-17 win at Clemson. Deshaun Watson led the Tigers to the victory with 269 yards passing and 13 yards rushing. He threw for two scores and rushed for two more despite playing with a torn ACL.

A win this week would be Clemson's sixth in a row in the series, which would be Clemson's first such streak against its in-state rival since 1934-40 when the Tigers won seven in a row.

The 2019 senior class would become the 14th Clemson class to earn four wins against South Carolina in four years, joining the seniors of 1900, 1919, 1930, 1937, 1938, 1939, 1940, 1983, 1991, 2000 and 2005, 2017 and 2018. In 2005, Charlie Whitehurst became the only quarterback for either team in the series to start four victories.

Clemson has more wins (70) over South Carolina than any other opponent and those victories represent 9.3 percent of Clemson's all-time victory total (755). Clemson's 2004 victory in the series was the program's 600th all-time win.

The two teams played in Columbia as part of "Big Thursday" every year through 1959. In the 57 Big Thursday games, Clemson recorded a 33-21-3 advantage. The teams have played 59 games since the last Big Thursday game in 1959 with a nearly identical record, 37-21-1, in favor of Clemson. Clemson is 19-10-1 in the series at Clemson since 1960 and 18-11-0 in the series in Columbia.

SERIES TIDBITS

- Four Clemson quarterbacks have started and defeated South Carolina at least three times, Steve Fuller (1976-78), Homer Jordan (1980-82), Charlie Whitehurst (2002-05) and Deshaun Watson (2014-16). Whitehurst is the only quarterback in the series to start four straight victories.

- The visiting team won seven years in a row between 1991-97.

- Clemson has a record of 51-32-3 in Columbia, including a 34-10 win in Columbia in its most recent visit in 2017.

- Clemson entered the game four years ago ranked No. 1 in the nation. It marked the first time either team was ranked No. 1 entering the contest. Clemson won, 37-32, in Columbia. This year marks the fifth straight season that Clemson will enter the game ranked in the Top 5.

- This weekend's game will be played on the Saturday after Thanksgiving for the 13th year in a row. Clemson has a 13-8 record against South Carolina when the game is played the Saturday after Thanksgiving or on Thanksgiving Day. The only game played on Thanksgiving was the 1963 contest that was moved from the Saturday before Thanksgiving to Thanksgiving due to the death of President John F. Kennedy.

MEMORABLE PLAYS IN THE SERIES

- 1948: Phil Prince blocked a punt and Oscar Thompson returned the ball for a touchdown with 4:15 remaining to give Clemson a 13-7 win in Columbia and allow Clemson to keep an undefeated season.

- 1959: Harvey White connected with future Super Bowl Champion Bill Mathis for a 26-yard touchdown pass in the third quarter to put Clemson up 19-0 in the final Big Thursday game in Columbia. White completed 9-of-10 passes on the day and led the Tigers to the 27-0 victory.

- 1962: Don Chuy and Billy Weaver combined to sack Dan Reeves for a 13-yard loss on fourth down with just 33 seconds left, preserving Clemson's 20-17 victory. South Carolina had driven to the Clemson 25 for that last play.

- 1966: Harry Olszewski, an All-America offensive guard, picked off a fumbled snap in mid-air and ran 12 yards for a touchdown. The 35-10 victory allowed Clemson to win the ACC title.

- 1967: Buddy Gore's 43-yard run in the third period led to a Tiger touchdown and was a momentum-swaying play in Clemson's victory over the Gamecocks, a win that allowed Clemson to clinch a share of the ACC title. That was the key run on this day that saw Gore become the first Clemson back in history to go over 1,000 yards in a season and break Brian Piccolo's ACC single-season rushing record.

- 1971: Eddie Seigler kicked a 52-yard field goal to lead Clemson to a 17-7 win over the Gamecocks. It was the first field goal of at least 50 yards in Clemson history.

- 1972: With Clemson leading 7-6 in the fourth period, Jimmy Williamson batted down a Dobby Grossman two-point conversion pass to preserve the victory for the Tigers.

- 1977: Jerry Butler made a 20-yard touchdown catch of a Steve Fuller pass with 49 seconds left to give Clemson a 31-27 win in Columbia. It clinched a Gator Bowl bid for the Tigers, Clemson's first bowl bid in 18 years.

- 1980: Willie Underwood recorded a 37-yard interception return for a touchdown that clinched Clemson's upset of South Carolina and Heisman Trophy winner George Rogers in 1980. Underwood was named Sports Illustrated Player of the Week for his performance in that game.

- 1981: Just as it had happened 33 years previously, a blocked punt played a major role in a Clemson victory over South Carolina in an undefeated season. Rod McSwain blocked a South Carolina punt and Johnny Rembert recovered in the end zone for the touchdown. Just as it had been 33 years prior, the line of scrimmage was the South Carolina 28.

- 1988: Rodney Williams, a native of Columbia, led Clemson to a 29-10 victory in his final game at Death Valley. Tied as Clemson's winningest starting quarterback in history with 32 wins, he threw for 192 and rushed for 38 and scored a touchdown.

- 1990: Chris Gardocki made his final punt in Death Valley memorable when he had a 78-yard boot in the fourth quarter to give South Carolina bad field position and clinch Clemson's 24-15 victory over the Gamecocks. It remains the third-longest punt in Clemson history.

- 1995: Emory Smith carried South Carolina tacklers 20 yards on the way to a 54-yard run that led to the game-clinching touchdown in Columbia. Smith ended the game with 101 yards rushing.

- 2007: Mark Buchholz kicked a 35-yard field goal on the last play of the game to give Clemson a 23-21 victory in Columbia.

- 2016: Mike Williams caught three touchdown passes in the first half, including one in which carried a South Carolina defensive back the final nine yards into the end zone. It led to a 56-7 Clemson victory, the Tigers' largest victory margin over the Gamecocks since 1900 (51-0).

TEN UNUSUAL SERIES FACTS

10. Though 29 is an unusual point total in football, four times in the last 37 years, the winner of the Clemson-South Carolina game has scored exactly 29 points. That includes 2010 when South Carolina defeated Clemson, 29-7. Clemson beat South Carolina by the same score in 2004. Clemson won 29-10 in 1988 and 29-13 in 1981.
9. Charlie Whitehurst is the only starting quarterback to lead a team to four wins in the history of the series. He did that for the Tigers between 2002-05. Deshaun Watson could have potentially matched Whitehurst's accomplishment if he returned for his senior year, but the current Houston Texans signal-caller instead opted to enter the NFL Draft.
8. Josh Cody had a 4-0 record for Clemson against South Carolina between 1927-30. He is the only coach in the series to have a perfect record with a minimum of three games coached.
7. Paul Williams was the last player to letter for both schools. He lettered for Clemson in 1978 and for South Carolina in 1980. He will be supplanted for that title this year by Tavien Feaster, who spent 2016-18 with Clemson prior to joining South Carolina as a graduate transfer for 2019.
6. A Clemson captain actually played for South Carolina. Cary Cox, who passed away in 2008, lettered for the Gamecocks in 1943. After the war, he enrolled at Clemson and served as captain for the Tigers in 1947.
5. Clemson had three touchdown plays of at least 76 yards against South Carolina in 2006 in a loss. Jacoby Ford scored on 76-yard touchdown pass, C.J. Spiller on an 80-yard run and Jock McKissic on an 82-yard interception return. It is the only game in Clemson history in which Clemson had three scoring plays of at least 75 yards and still lost.
4. In both 1948 and 1981, a blocked punt returned for a touchdown proved to be the pivotal play in a Clemson victory — victories that allowed Clemson to go on to an undefeated season. In both instances, the original line of scrimmage was the South Carolina 28-yard-line.

3. Willie Underwood had two interceptions to lead Clemson to victory over South Carolina in 1980. A starter for four years, the strong safety never had recorded an interception in any of his first 46 games as a Tiger, then had two against the Gamecocks in his 47th and final game. One of the picks was a 37-yard return for a touchdown, the only touchdown of his career.

2. In a placekicking career that spanned five years, Bob Paulling made 107-of-109 extra points. Both of his misses were at South Carolina, one in 1981 and one in 1983. He had a streak of 70 consecutive made extra points (second-longest in Clemson history) between the two miscues.

1. In the 30 games that Frank Howard coached for Clemson against South Carolina, Clemson scored 411 points and South Carolina scored 411 points.

THROW OUT THE RECORD BOOKS?

Though the cliché states, “You can throw out the record books when these two teams get together,” while there have been some upsets in the Clemson-South Carolina series, usually the team with the better record comes away with the victory. The team entering the game with the better overall record has a 24-9-1 record in the series since 1981. That computes to 72 percent over a 38-year period. Four times during that era, both teams had the same record.

The team with the better overall record entering the game is 7-7 in the last 14 years. In the history of the series, Clemson has a 45-18-3 record when it enters the contest with the better record. Clemson has had the better record in 66 of the 116 previous meetings. The teams have had the same winning percentage entering the game nine times and Clemson has a 6-3 record in those situations.

Clemson is 52-21-3 (.704) against South Carolina over the years when the Tigers enter the game with at least the same record as South Carolina. Clemson has a 70-42-4 advantage in the series overall. The Gamecocks have a 21-18-1 record in the series when they enter the game with the better record.

LAST GAME VS. SOUTH CAROLINA

Clemson 56, South Carolina 35

(Nov. 24, 2018 at Clemson, S.C.)

Completing its seventh undefeated regular season in school history, the No. 2/2 Clemson football team defeated in-state rival South Carolina, 56-35, on a cold and foggy Saturday night at Memorial Stadium. With the win, the Tigers' fifth straight in the series, Clemson improved to 12-0 overall, while South Carolina moved to 6-5 on the year.

The Tigers posted a season-high 744 yards of offense against the Gamecocks. Trevor Lawrence amassed a career-high 393 passing yards on 27 completions in 36 attempts, including eight straight completions for 106 yards to open the game. His passing yard total was also the program's highest ever against South Carolina. His top targets were Tee Higgins, who totaled 142 yards with a score in six receptions, and Hunter Renfrow, who was on the receiving end of a pair of 20-plus-yard passes on third down to keep two Tiger drives alive. On the ground, Travis Etienne added 150 yards and two touchdowns on 28 carries, and Adam Choice ran for three scores in just seven carries. Defensively, Isaiah Simmons led the team with seven solo tackles, and J.D. Davis hauled in his first career interception.

The Gamecocks took an initial 7-0 lead on a nine-yard touchdown pass from Jake Bentley to Deebo Samuel, capping the game's first drive. The Tigers tied it up just over four minutes later with a Choice one-yard rush, and Higgins then hauled in a 22-yard pass from Lawrence as the first quarter was expiring to give Clemson a 14-7 lead.

The second quarter saw both teams go for it on fourth-and-goal, and while South Carolina did not convert, Lawrence pitched it to Christian Wilkins for a one-yard scoring rush that put the Tigers up 21-7. The Gamecocks did, however, score on their ensuing drive when Bentley connected with Kiel Pollard for a 67-yard touchdown reception. Each team scored once more before the quarter ended, with Clemson's coming in the form of a Choice two-yard rush and South Carolina's as a Samuel 75-yard pass from Bentley, to bring the halftime score to 28-21 in favor of the Tigers.

Clemson added two more rushing scores in the third quarter, one of two yards by Etienne and the other of 13 yards by Tavien Feaster. The Tiger defense forced another stop on fourth-and-goal to keep the Gamecocks off the board, leaving the score at 42-21 heading into the final 15 minutes.

Choice punctuated a 98-yard drive, Clemson's longest scoring drive of the year, with a 15-yard rush to open the fourth quarter scoring. South Carolina then added a pair of passing touchdowns, and, with less than a minute remaining on the clock, Etienne barreled seven yards for the game's last touchdown, bringing the final score to 56-35.

LAST MEETING AT SOUTH CAROLINA

Clemson 34, South Carolina 10

(Nov. 25, 2017 at Columbia, S.C.)

Using a balanced offensive attack, No. 3 Clemson toppled South Carolina, 34-10, at Williams-Brice Stadium, marking the fourth consecutive victory for the Tigers in the Palmetto Bowl. The game was a battle of Top 25 teams according to the College Football Playoff rankings, as Clemson entered ranked No. 4 and South Carolina No. 24.

Clemson outgained South Carolina by 262 yards and totaled 17 more first downs. The defense was stellar as well, shutting out the Gamecocks through three quarters and keeping quarterback Jake Bentley in check for most of the contest.

In fact, a defensive highlight for the Tigers resulted in the first score of the evening, as Clemson cornerback Ryan Carter picked off a pass and sprinted into the end zone on a 12-yard return, providing Clemson with a 7-0 first-quarter lead.

The Tigers tacked on 13 more points in the second quarter to push their lead to 20-0, as quarterback Kelly Bryant led Clemson on two scoring drives. Bryant finished the game 23-of-34 passing for 272 yards and two touchdowns.

Hunter Renfrow provided the Tigers with more breathing room, scoring on the first play from scrimmage in the third quarter on a 61-yard receiving touchdown.

On the next series, the South Carolina offense continued to struggle, as Trayvon Mullen stepped in front of a pass to secure an interception, marking the Gamecocks' second turnover of the night. A few possessions later, Clemson put together a 13-play, 69-yard drive that featured a critical 13-yard run by Bryant on fourth down to extend the drive deep in South Carolina territory.

Soon after, the series was capped off by a five-yard rushing touchdown by Travis Etienne, giving Clemson a 34-0 lead that it carried into the fourth quarter. The Gamecocks scored 10 points in the final period, though, converting a pair of Tiger interceptions into points.

The victory was the first for Clemson against a South Carolina team that entered the game with at least eight wins since 2000.

CLEMSON VS. SEC OPPONENTS

Clemson has enjoyed a recent run of success against opponents from the Southeastern Conference. While the Tigers are 17-9 against SEC foes under the guidance of Head Coach Dabo Swinney, Clemson's success against the SEC has been particularly pronounced as of late, as the Tigers are 11-3 against the conference in the College Football Playoff era, including a 9-1 mark in regular season play during that time frame.

Clemson has won nine of its last 10 against the SEC since the start of the 2016 season, including all seven games in regular season play.

* - Clemson/Opponent

Clemson's nine wins against SEC opponents since 2016 exceed the SEC win totals of three of the conference's active members. Clemson's nine wins against the SEC outpace the totals of Ole Miss (eight), Vanderbilt (eight) and Arkansas (four) in that time frame.

Swinney's 17 wins against SEC opponents date back to his final game as an interim coach, when he defeated South Carolina and Steve Spurrier, 31-14, at Clemson.

That victory led to his hiring as Clemson's full-time coach the Monday after that victory.

Swinney's 17 non-conference wins against SEC teams are the most by any non-SEC coach since 2008. Texas A&M Head Coach Jimbo Fisher, ranks second with 10 from his tenure at Florida State, and former Georgia Tech Head Coach Paul Johnson ranks third with eight.

CLEMSON FOLLOWING OPEN DATES

Since joining the ACC as a charter member in 1953, Clemson has played 58 regular season games following off weeks. The Tigers are 39-19 in those contests.

Clemson is 12-2 under Head Coach Dabo Swinney when playing a regular season game following an off week, including two such occurrences in both the 2013 and 2014 seasons and soon to be another such occurrence in 2019. Clemson has won 10 of its last 11 regular season games after bye weeks, including each of its last six. This year marks the first time since 2006 that Clemson will face South Carolina following an open date.

-- NOTES FROM LAST GAME --

POSTGAME NOTES VS. WAKE FOREST

- According to ESPN Stats & Info, Clemson joined 1944 Army and 1972 Nebraska as the only teams in the AP Poll era to win four consecutive games by 45 or more points.

- Clemson won a sixth straight game by 30 or more points to break a tie with 2013 Florida State for the longest such streak in conference history.

- Including a 63-3 victory against Wake Forest last year, Clemson has outscored Wake Forest, 115-6, across the last two seasons.

- Clemson held Wake Forest to 105 total yards, including only 41 passing yards. Wake Forest entered the game averaging 487.3 total yards per game, including a conference-best 314.1 passing yards per game.

- Clemson recorded 26 first downs to Wake Forest's five. Clemson's defense produced more three-and-outs (seven) than Wake Forest's offense produced first downs (five). Those seven official three-and-outs also don't include a one-play Wake Forest drive that ended with an interception.

- The five first downs surrendered are Clemson's fewest since the 2017 Kent State game (five) and the fewest against an ACC opponent since the 2009 Boston College game (four).

- Clemson's 105 yards allowed were the program's fewest since allowing 102 to South Carolina State in 2016. It was Clemson's fewest yards allowed against an FBS and ACC opponent since holding Boston College to 54 total yards in 2009.

- Clemson allowed only 2.06 yards per play (105 yards on 51 plays). It was the lowest yards-per-play average allowed by Clemson since last season at Boston College (1.98).

- Clemson held an 11th straight opponent below 300 yards of total offense to become the first team since the turn of the century to open a season holding opponents below 300 yards in each of the first 11 games. ESPN Stats & Info says it is the first such occurrence in records back to 1996.

- Clemson has now held 14 consecutive opponents to 20 or fewer points for the first time since the 1949-51 seasons under Head Coach Frank Howard.

- Clemson held a ninth consecutive opponent below 200 passing yards for the first time since games 3-11 of the 2008 season.

- Clemson held a sixth consecutive opponent to a completion percentage of 50.0 percent or worse, Clemson's first such streak since a seven-game span including the 1999 season finale and first six games of 2000.

- Clemson outgained Wake Forest in passing yards, 348-41, and produced more passing yards than its opponent in a 14th consecutive game, dating to last season, for the first time since an 18-game streak across the 2015-17 seasons. The 307-yard difference in passing yardage was Clemson's largest in a single game since a 2017 game against The Citadel (418).

- Clemson reached 50 points in a fourth straight game for the first time in program history.

- Clemson has now scored 45 points in six consecutive games for the first time in school history. The streak matches the 2013 Florida State Seminoles for the longest in ACC history.

- Clemson (505) has now produced the sixth 500-point season in team history, joining the 2018 (664), 2016 (588), 2015 (577), 2012 (533) and 2013 (522) seasons.

- Clemson gained 516 total yards and has now reached 500 yards in six straight games for the first time since October and November of the 2016 season.

- Clemson averaged 7.1 yards per play and reached 7.0 yards per play for a fifth game in a row, surpassing the first four games of 2018 for the program's longest streak on record.

- With five passing touchdowns in the game, Clemson has now thrown three or more touchdowns in six straight games for the first time in school history.

- In addition, Clemson has now rushed for multiple touchdowns in 12 consecutive games for the first time since a 15-game streak across the 2016-17 seasons.

- Quarterback Trevor Lawrence completed 21-of-27 passes for 272 yards with four touchdowns and no interceptions. His 211.3 pass efficiency rating marks his fourth game this season -- and the sixth of his career -- with a 200.0 or better passer rating.

- Lawrence tied his career high in touchdown passes (four), matching his four touchdown passes at Georgia Tech and at Florida State in 2018.

- Lawrence has now thrown at least three touchdown passes in six consecutive games for the first time in his career, a first in school history. He had already been the first Clemson quarterback to accomplish the feat in five straight games.

- Lawrence has now thrown a touchdown pass in 21 consecutive games. His 21-game streak is the longest active streak in the country. (Note: UCF's McKenzie Milton had a 24-game streak prior to suffering an injury in November 2018 that will likely preclude him from playing in 2019).

- With 268 combined passing and rushing yards in the game, Lawrence (6,349) passed Steve Fuller (6,096) for sixth on the school's leaderboard for career total offense.

- Lawrence (5,855) also passed Nealon Greene (5,719) and Cullen Harper (5,762) for fifth on Clemson's career passing yardage leaderboard.

- Running back Travis Etienne rushed 16 times for 121 yards and a touchdown. He also caught three passes for 37 yards.

- With another 100-yard performance, Etienne took sole possession of the school record for consecutive 100-yard rushing games by reaching the mark in a sixth straight game, surpassing five-game streaks by Kenny Flowers (1985) and Raymond Priester (1996-97).

- Etienne's six consecutive 100-yard rushing games moved him into a tie for the eighth-longest streak in ACC history.

- Etienne (16) passed Raymond Priester (15) for sole possession of second on Clemson's all-time leaderboard for career 100-yard rushing games. It pulled him one game shy of Wayne Gallman's school career record of 17 from 2014-16.

- Etienne posted his seventh 100-yard rushing game this season to tie Raymond Priester (seven in 1996) and Kenny Flowers (seven in 1985) for third-most in a season in school history.

- During the game, Etienne (4,535) passed Travis Zachery (4,391) for fifth on Clemson's leaderboard for career all-purpose yards.

- Etienne has now rushed for a touchdown in five straight games for the first time since a six-game streak across the final five games of 2018 and the 2019 season opener. It represents his third career streak of five games or more with a rushing touchdown.

- After setting the school record for rushing yards in a five-game span last week, Etienne (873) broke the school record for rushing yards in a six-game span, passing Terrence Flagler's 858-yard six-game span in 1986.

- Wide receiver Tee Higgins caught four passes for 64 yards and three touchdowns.

- Higgins recorded the eighth three-touchdown receiving performance in school history, matching Dreher Gaskin (vs. Auburn on Nov. 21, 1953), Tony Horne (vs. Texas-El Paso on Oct. 4, 1997), Rod Gardner (vs. North Carolina on Oct. 21, 2000), DeAndre Hopkins (vs. Ball State on Sept. 8, 2012, and vs. Duke on Nov. 3, 2012), Mike Williams (vs. South Carolina on Nov. 28, 2016) and Diondre Overton (vs. Boston College on Oct. 26, 2019) for the school record in single-game touchdown receptions.

- The receiving touchdowns were Higgins' 20th, 21st and 22nd of his career, passing Mike Williams (21 from 2013-16) for third-most career touchdown receptions in school history.

- Higgins has now caught a touchdown in three straight games for the first time this season. He caught touchdown passes in five straight games across the final four games of the 2018 season and the 2019 season opener.

- The game was Higgins' first of the season with multiple touchdown receptions, the fourth such performance of his career. His three touchdown receptions surpassed his career high, set against The Citadel in 2017 and against Florida State and Pitt in 2018.

- During the game, Higgins (2,080) passed Airese Currie (2,030) and Deon Cain (2,040) for 12th on Clemson's career receiving yardage list.

- Clemson opened the scoring on a 14-yard touchdown pass from Lawrence to Higgins on Clemson's opening drive. It marked Clemson's sixth straight game scoring on its opening drive.

- Etienne scored Clemson's second touchdown of the game on its second drive, punctuating the possession with a 14-yard touchdown run, the 51st rushing touchdown of his career.

- On that run, Etienne (330) passed Aaron Hunt (329) for third on Clemson's all-time scoring list. Etienne already stood as Clemson's scoring leader among non-kickers.

- The rushing touchdown moved Etienne past Louisville's Lamar Jackson (50) for sole possession of the second-most career rushing touchdowns in ACC history, one shy of the record held by Pitt's James Connor (52).

- Higgins added another 14-yard touchdown reception from Lawrence in the second quarter. He then scored his second touchdown of the quarter -- his third of the day -- on a 30-yard reception from Lawrence 29 seconds later.

- Higgins' second and third touchdowns were scored with 42 seconds and 13 seconds remaining in the second quarter, respectively. The 29 elapsed seconds were the shortest period of time between touchdowns for a Clemson player since Derrick Hamilton scored 14 seconds apart on touchdown passes from Charlie Whitehurst against Duke in 2003.

- Wide receiver Frank Ladson Jr. recorded his third touchdown reception of the season on a 10-yard pass from Lawrence in the third quarter. It was his first touchdown since the third game of the season at Syracuse.

- Running back Lyn-J Dixon gained 96 all-purpose yards, rushing six times for 34 yards and a touchdown and catching two passes for 62 yards.

- Dixon recorded a career-long 55-yard reception in the third quarter. On the following play, he rushed nine yards into the end zone for his fifth rushing touchdown of the season.

- Wide receiver Joseph Ngata recorded his third touchdown reception of the season on a 21-yard touchdown pass from Chase Brice in the fourth quarter.

- With seven touchdowns in the game, Clemson (68) is now two touchdowns shy of recording the fourth 70-touchdown season in school history, which would join the 2018 (90), 2016 (75) and 2015 (71) seasons.

- Safety Tanner Muse added to his single-season career high in interceptions with his fourth interception of the season. It was the seventh of his career.

- Muse later added his second sack of the season, the fourth of his career.

- With Muse's interception, Clemson produced a takeaway for a sixth consecutive game and for the 14th time in 15 games, dating to 2018.

- Cornerback A.J. Terrell added his second interception of the season in the second quarter. He returned the interception 37 yards to the Wake Forest 30-yard line to set up Lawrence's 30-yard touchdown to Higgins one play later.

- Clemson has now recorded multiple takeaways in three straight games for the first time since a five-game span across the final three games of 2018 and the first two games of 2019.

- Clemson finished plus-one in the turnover margin and has now won the turnover margin in six consecutive games for the first time under Head Coach Dabo Swinney.

- Wide receiver Amari Rodgers recorded a season-long 53-yard punt return in the first quarter.

- Punter/kicker Steven Sawicki recorded a career-long 53-yard punt in the quarter.

- Clemson outscored Wake Forest in the first quarter, 14-3. Clemson has now outscored opponents by a 142-10 margin in first quarters this season.

- All of Clemson's seniors were captains for the contest. Representing the team for the coin toss were tackle Tremayne Anchrum, safety Tanner Muse, offensive lineman Sean Pollard and linebacker Chad Smith.

WITH THE WIN

- Clemson opened a season 11-0 for the fifth time in program history, joining 11-0 starts in 1948, 1981, 2015 and 2018.

- Clemson won the first 11 games of a season for the third time under Head Coach Dabo Swinney (2015 and 2018). Swinney had already been the first coach in Clemson history to coach the school to multiple 11-0 starts, as legendary coaches Frank Howard and Danny Ford only accomplished the feat once each, in 1948 and 1981, respectively.

- The 2019 Tigers won an 11th game to tie the 1948, 1978, 2012 and 2013 squads for the sixth-most wins in a season in school history.

- Clemson won its 26th consecutive game, dating to the start of the 2018 season, to extend the longest winning streak in school history and second-longest winning streak in ACC history.

- Clemson has now posted only the 22nd winning streak of 26 or more games in major college football history.

- Clemson is now the only team in the country with nine wins against Power Five opponents this season. No other team in the country entered the week with more than six.

- Clemson won its 22nd consecutive home game to break the record for the longest home winning streak in school history, set across the 2013-16 seasons. Clemson's last home loss came on Nov. 12, 2016, against Pitt. The 22-game home winning streak is the nation's longest active home winning streak.

- The 2019 Clemson seniors won their 52nd game in the last four years to move into fourth for the most career victories by a senior class in FBS history. The group joined the 2018 Clemson and Alabama seniors (55 each) and 2017 Alabama seniors (53) as the only senior classes to record at least 52 wins in four years.

- Clemson's seniors earned their 52nd victory in 55 games, tying the 2018 Alabama seniors for the fastest to 52 wins in FBS history.

- Clemson's 2019 seniors improved to 30-2 in regular season ACC play to match the 2018 seniors (30 from 2015-18) as the winningest class in school history in regular season conference play, one shy of the conference record of 31.

- Clemson finished with an undefeated home record for a third consecutive season, a first under Head Coach Dabo Swinney.

- Clemson has now gone undefeated at home in three straight seasons for the first time since 1981-83, which included a tie in both 1982 and 1983. Clemson's last time posting a perfect home record with no ties in three straight years had been 1939-41, when the program played only two home games a year.

- Clemson won its seventh home game this year to allow the 2019 senior class to tie the school record for most home wins by a senior class, matching the mark set by the 2017 and 2018 seniors (27 each).

- Clemson finished with a perfect regular season ACC record in back-to-back seasons for the first time since a three-season stretch across the 1981-83 seasons.

- Clemson became the second ACC program to post back-to-back 8-0 regular season conference records since the conference moved to an eight-game conference slate in 1992, joining Florida State (1992-94, 1996-97, 1999-2000 and 2013-14).

- Clemson defeated its 21st consecutive ACC opponent, including postseason play, dating to October 2017 against Georgia Tech. The 21st consecutive victory against a conference opponent (including postseason play) is the longest such streak in school history. It was Clemson's 19th straight win in ACC regular season play, one shy of the school-record 20-game streak posted by the 1981-84 Tigers.

- Clemson improved to 67-17-1 all-time against Wake Forest. Clemson's 67 all-time wins against Wake Forest are its second-most against any opponent in school history, trailing the Tigers' 70 wins against South Carolina.

- Clemson won its 11th consecutive game against Wake Forest, dating back to 2009. It marks Clemson's second 11-game winning streak in series history, trailing a 15-game streak from 1977-91. Clemson's 11-game winning streak against Wake Forest is the Tigers' longest active winning streak against an ACC foe.

- Clemson earned a 10th straight home victory against Wake Forest, dating back to 2000. Clemson's last home loss to Wake Forest came in 1998. It marks Clemson's seventh double-digit home winning streak against a single opponent in school history and its second such streak against Wake Forest (16 straight home wins in the series from 1963-91).

- Head Coach Dabo Swinney improved to 11-0 as a head coach against Wake Forest. Wake Forest is one of five ACC schools against whom Swinney is undefeated as head coach, a list that also includes Duke (3-0), Louisville (6-0), Virginia (3-0) and Virginia Tech (5-0).

- Clemson defeated an ACC Atlantic Division opponent for a 14th straight time and for the 34th time in 35 opportunities.

- Clemson has now won 72 of its last 74 games against unranked teams.

- Clemson has now won 76 of its last 78 games when leading at halftime.

- Clemson improved to 97-2 since 2011 when leading after three quarters.

- Clemson now has a 97-2 record when totaling more first downs than its opponent since 2011.

- Clemson is now 48-0 when scoring first since 2015.

- Clemson is now 47-2 when having a 100-yard rusher since 2011.

- Clemson has now recorded a 55-3 record when winning the turnover margin since 2011.

- Clemson has now won 79 straight games when holding teams under 23 points (dates to 2010).

- Clemson improved to 43-1 since 2015 when outscoring opponents in the "Middle Eight," defined as the final four minutes of the first half and the first four minutes of the second half. Clemson outscored Wake Forest 14-0 in that time period in the contest.

NOTES

- Clemson pushed its winning streak in Saturday games to 40 to extend the longest Saturday winning streak in school history. Clemson's current 40-game run of consecutive Saturday victories is the longest active streak in the country.

MOST WINS SINCE 2015, SECOND-MOST SINCE 2011

Clemson has a 108-15 record since starting its current stretch of 10-win seasons in 2011. Only Alabama (113-11) has more wins the last eight-plus years. The Tigers also have the second-highest winning percentage (.878) in that time frame.

10-WIN SEASONS

Clemson entered 2019 riding a streak of eight consecutive seasons with 10+ wins. The program's eighth consecutive 10-win season in 2018 tied the Tigers with the 1985-92 Miami Hurricanes and the 2004-11 Virginia Tech Hokies for the fourth-longest streak in FBS history and made Clemson one of only six programs to accomplish the feat.

By earning its 10th win of the 2019 season, Clemson became only the fourth program in FBS history to record at least nine consecutive 10-win seasons, tying the 2001-09 Texas Longhorns for the third-longest streak on record.

The record for consecutive 10-win seasons is 14, set by Florida State (1987-2000). Alabama is the only other program with an active streak of at least nine straight 10-win seasons.

The Tigers now have 16 10-win seasons in school history, with more than half coming in the last nine years under head coach Dabo Swinney. The 2018 season was Clemson's fifth with at least 12 wins, with Swinney sitting at the helm for four of them.

A CENTURY MARK FOR THE DECADE

Head Coach Dabo Swinney can vividly recall the looks he received when he said Clemson was on the cusp of the winningest decade in program history following a 2010 campaign in which the Tigers finished 6-7. In 2017, that vision became a reality with two seasons to spare when Clemson collected its 88th win of the decade in the ACC Championship Game against Miami (Fla.) to surpass the Tigers of the 1980s (87) for most wins in any decade in school history.

With a rivalry win against South Carolina to close the 2018 regular season, Clemson reached triple digits in wins in a decade for the first time in program history. Included below are the schools that have accomplished that feat.

100 WINS BY DECADE

Note: FBS programs

Clemson has a 114-22 record in the decade of the 2010s. That computes to an .838 winning percentage, the best for any decade in school history and the first time Clemson has won more than 80 percent in a single decade.

In the 1980s, Clemson had a .767 winning percentage (87-25-4), the nation's fifth-best winning percentage. Clemson did not have a losing season in any year in the 1980s under Danny Ford, who coached every game in that decade. Dabo Swinney has coached every game in the decade of the 2010s, and with Clemson clinching another winning season in 2019, will finish the decade with nine winning seasons and one losing season (6-7 in 2010).

SENIORS CHASING HISTORY

The 2018 Clemson seniors left their legacy not only in program history but also in the annals of the sport, recording 55 wins to tie for the most wins by any senior class in FBS history.

Throughout the 2018 season, Head Coach Dabo Swinney reminded his players that anything Clemson had done once, they'd done again. The 2019 senior class will have the opportunity for that maxim to once again ring true.

The 2019 Clemson seniors are 52-3 since 2016, passing the 2017 Clemson seniors for the second-most in school history and standing one win ahead of Alabama's current seniors for the best active record. The group can tie the 2018 seniors for the best four-year mark in school, conference and Football Bowl Subdivision history with 14 wins in 2019 and can own the record outright if it were to repeat with another 15-0 campaign.

The 2019 seniors are the second Clemson class and one of only four classes all-time to reach 52 career wins in a four-year span. Clemson's 2019 group did so in 55 games, tying the 2018 Alabama seniors as the quickest to that mark.

FOUR LEAGUE TITLES IN A ROW

Clemson has won four straight ACC championships, joining Oklahoma as one of just two Power Five Conference schools to have an active streak of four consecutive conference championships.

B12	Oklahoma	Oklahoma	Oklahoma	Oklahoma
P12	Stanford	Washington	USC	Washington

From 2015-18, Clemson became the first ACC school to win four outright titles in a row. Florida State was a champion or co-champion nine years in a row from 1992-00, but never won more than three outright in a row.

Clemson's victory in the 2018 ACC Championship Game made Clemson only the second Power Five Conference school since the inception of league championship games in 1992 to win four straight conference championship games, joining the Florida Gators, who won four straight SEC Championship Games in a row from 1993-96.

On Dec. 7, Clemson can become the first school to win five straight with a victory in the 2019 ACC Championship Game.

POWER OVER THE POWER FIVE

Early in his head coaching tenure, Dabo Swinney laid out his belief to then-Clemson athletic director Terry Don Phillips that the Tigers needed to add tough non-conference challenges on top of their tests in ACC play to serve as a foundation for the program's growth.

"I had a conversation with Terry Don and said, 'Terry Don, I know we are not very good right now, but we need to play people because that is going to help me teach and help me develop the culture and the mindset that you have to have to win at the highest level,'" recounted Swinney. "I didn't think we had that, and that's what we committed to. That's what we've done."

That scheduling philosophy and culture change has resonated in the Clemson program, and since 2013, no team can claim more wins against Power Five Conference opponents than the Tigers.

ESTEEMED COMPANY

Head Coach Dabo Swinney's run of excellence in his decade-plus at Clemson has placed him in the company of college football legends.

Swinney enters this week with a winning percentage of .809, sitting as one of only 13 head coaches in history with at least 10 seasons of FBS head coaching experience to post a mark of .800 or better. That list presently includes Knute Rockne (.881), Frank Leahy (.864), Urban Meyer (.854), George Woodruff (.846), Barry Switzer (.837), Tom Osborne (.836), Fielding Yost (.833), Percy Haughton (.832), Bob Neyland (.826), Bud Wilkinson (.826), Jock Sutherland (.812), and Bob Devaney (.806). Washington's Chris Petersen dropped from the ranks in early November.

Among the legends Swinney has already passed are College Football Hall of Famers Bo Schembechler (.775), Bear Bryant (.780) and Henry Williams (.785), as well as Nick Saban (.793 prior to NCAA adjustment), whose Crimson Tide were defeated by Swinney and the Tigers in the most recent College Football Playoff National Championship.

Against Florida State earlier this year, Swinney passed the career total of Danny Ford, who won 121 combined games at Clemson (96) and Arkansas (25).

With a win against Wofford in early November, Swinney recorded his 125th win in his 155th career game. Per records available via Sports Reference, he became the 10th-fastest coach to reach 125 career wins in terms of games coached.

DABO AT 150

In the 150-year anniversary season of college football, Head Coach Dabo Swinney coached his 150th game as leader of the Clemson program in the fourth game of the season against Charlotte. He became just the second Clemson coach to reach 150 career games, joining Hall of Famer Frank Howard, who coached 295 games as Clemson's head coach from 1940-69.

Only eight coaches have coached at least 150 games at schools presently in the Football Bowl Subdivision while achieving an .800 or better mark. Interestingly, Clemson holds a 4-0 combined all-time record against the top three coaches on the list.

EXCEEDING EXPECTATIONS

Clemson has equaled or exceeded its postseason AP and USA Today rankings in comparison to its preseason rankings each of the last eight years. That included quite an accomplishment in both 2016 and 2018, as it finished No. 1 by winning the national championship to exceed the school's No. 2 preseason ranking both times.

Clemson exceeded its preseason ranking each of the last eight years in the coaches poll, a streak that will come to an end in 2019 by simple virtue of Clemson opening the season atop the 2019 poll.

With regard to Associated Press voting, Clemson has exceeded its preseason ranking in the AP poll in seven of the last eight years. The lone exception came in 2013, when Clemson was picked No. 8 in the AP preseason poll and finished No. 8.

WHEN IN DOUBT, CLEMSON RESPONDS

Prior to maintaining status quo at No. 4 following a 59-7 win against Boston College, Clemson had dropped in the AP Poll following each of its three previous victories against North Carolina, Florida State and Louisville. In Head Coach Dabo Swinney's tenure, the Tigers have routinely responded well following dips in the AP rankings.

Under Swinney, Clemson is 24-4 (and 3-0 in 2019) in games in which it enters ranked lower in the AP Poll than it did in its previous contest. This includes the 2014, 2016, 2017 and 2018 season openers in which Clemson opened the season lower than its ranking from the final game of the previous campaign. Including most recently against Boston College on Oct. 26, Clemson has won its last 16 games when entering ranked lower in the AP Poll than in its previous game.

CHAMPIONSHIP HERITAGE

After being named Clemson's full-time coach in December of 2008, Head Coach Dabo Swinney set about securing his first signing class in 2009.

His first class, which he tabbed the "Dandy Dozen," brought home Clemson's first ACC title since 1991 during their junior campaign in 2011. Excluding the 2019 signing class that debuted this season, all 10 of Clemson's signing classes under Swinney have at least one ACC and/or national title to their credit in their four years at Clemson.

26 AND COUNTING

Clemson enters this week riding a 26-game winning streak dating to the 2018 season opener. Clemson's active winning streak is one of only three double-digit winning streaks in the country and is nine wins ahead of the nation's next-longest streak.

Clemson's current 26-game winning streak marks the program's 10th all-time winning streak of at least 10 games and the longest streak in team history. Clemson surpassed its previous record 17-game winning streak from 2014-15 for sole possession of the longest streak in school history with a 41-6 win against Syracuse on Sept. 14.

The current streak marks the third time Dabo Swinney has had a winning streak of at least 10 games. Danny Ford had three separate streaks of at least 10 games, including a 13-game streak from 1980 through the last game of the 1981 season.

Frank Howard had a 15-game winning streak from 1947-49 and was part of a 13-game streak from 1939-40. The school's first 10-game winning streak took place under Walter Riggs and John Heisman from 1899 to 1901.

20-POINT WINS & 14-POINT WINS

Clemson's 2019 squad extended two historically profound victory margin streaks early in the 2019 season.

Observers will often point to Clemson's 27-23 come-from-behind victory against Syracuse in late September of 2018 as a turning point in the team's 15-0 national championship season. Following that win, in which redshirt freshman Chase Brice led the team to victory after starting the week as the squad's third-team quarterback, Clemson won 11 straight games by at least 20 points. Per ESPN Stats & Info, Clemson's 11-game streak of 20-point wins across the 2018-19 seasons was one game shy of the 2018 Alabama Crimson Tide for the longest streak of 20-point wins in the AP Poll era (since 1936).

STREAKS OF 20-POINT WINS (AP POLL ERA)

Rk	School	Year(s)	Streak
1.	Alabama	2018	12

	Boise State	2002	10
	Temple	1973-74	10
	Nebraska	1971	10
	New Mexico St.	1959-60	10

That streak was broken in the second week of the 2019 season when Texas A&M scored a touchdown with only six seconds remaining to cut Clemson's margin of victory from 21 to 14.

A one-point victory against North Carolina in the final weekend in September brought Clemson's streak of 14 consecutive 14-point wins to a close. The streak tied for the third-longest in the AP Poll era, per ESPN Stats & Info.

9/21/19	Charlotte	52	10	+42

Since the streak was snapped in a one-point win at North Carolina in September, Clemson has responded with another six wins of 14 or more points, meaning the Tigers have won 20 of their last 21 contests by a margin of at least 14 points. Clemson has won 19 of those 21 contests by 20 or more.

POLL STREAKS

PLAYING TO A STANDARD

While many have attempted to center discussion of Clemson's play in 2019 on the quality of its opponents, under Head Coach Dabo Swinney, Clemson has subscribed to a philosophy of "it's not who you play, it's how you play." Inside the team's Allen N. Reeves Football Complex, a visual representation of the team's schedule includes a Clemson logo for every game in lieu of opponents' logos, not as a sign of disrespect, but rather as a visual reminder that every week Clemson is playing against its own standard as well.

The Clemson standard has been on display in the majority of the team's performances this season. SportSource Analytics tracks Relative Points and Relative Yards Per Game, described as the following:

"Sorts all FBS teams by the average percentage of points and yards they accumulated per game with respect to the opponents' normal points and yards averages. For example, if a team scores 21 points against a team that only gives up (on average) 14 points, they get a 150 percent for that game offensively. For offense, over 100 percent is considered good, and for defense under 100 percent is considered good."

The measure allows a window of insight into how Clemson has dominated its opponents relative to their typical performance, rather than leaning on the opponents' record.

RELATIVE POINTS AND YARDS PER GAME (CLEMSON, 2019)

Category	Nat'l Rank	Pct.
Offensive Points Pct./Game	6	151.2
Offensive Yards Pct./Game	8	127.4
Defensive Points Pct./Game	2	38.1
Defensive Yards Pct./Game	1	58.4

*Note: FBS opponents only

Effectively, the numbers communicate that Clemson scores 151 percent of the points and gains 127 percent of the yards typically allowed by its opponents on average, while limiting opponents to only 38 percent of the points and 58 percent of the yards it typically accrues.

In addition, Clemson ranks among the nation's best in game control, a measurement of what percentage of snaps teams have spent with various leads. Clemson has led for 85 percent of all plays this season, including holding a lead of at least 21 points for more than half of all plays and at least 35 points or more for more than a quarter of all plays.

COACHES CORNER

Clemson's performance in 2019 has become a Rorschach test of sorts for observers of college football. Included below is a sampling of what coaches responsible for preparing their teams to face Clemson have said about the Tigers this year.

North Carolina Head Coach Mack Brown on Oct. 14: "The expectation for Clemson is that they blow everybody out. You go back a couple years ago and they barely beat Syracuse, they barely beat Pittsburgh and they win a national championship and we think, 'They hung in there and it's a comeback.' Now we're saying they stink? They don't stink. They've got the best players in the country and still probably the best team in the country. The fact that we played them good, everybody is mad at them instead of being excited for us. It's weird how people look at it, but they key is to win. You're not going to blow everybody out every week."

Louisville Head Coach Scott Satterfield on Oct. 14: "I was just watching that [Florida State] film and it was 42-0 in the third quarter, I was like 'Wow, man, they turned it on.' I think when they had that off-week they got back on track. Everyone is talking about, 'What is this Clemson team? But they have won 21 straight games [prior to Oct. 19], I think 14 out of their last 15 they have won by more than 14 points. It's unbelievable that people want to try to write a story about this isn't the Clemson team we are used to. These guys are good, they are well-coached, they expect to win, and they have a lot of talent."

Boston College Head Coach Steve Addazio on Oct. 21: "There's no doubt in my mind that they're the No. 1 team in the country. Skilled, talented everywhere. Have proven it on the field. When I watch the tape, I see no weaknesses. I see great athletes and a great coaching staff. I think both their offensive coordinators and their defensive coordinator, those guys are elite guys and you can tell when you watch their tape how well-coached each side of the ball is."

Addazio, postgame on Oct. 26: "This Clemson team is an elite team. You're talking about a first-round draft pick quarterback. You're talking about a first-round draft pick tailback. You're talking about two first-round draft pick wide receivers. I think [they have] an outstanding offensive line. On defense, they have elite personnel everywhere. They're super, super athletic. As Dabo has mentioned, this might be the best back end he's had. Their front end, while they lost some guys, they have some really super athletic guys in there and I think you can see that. This is an elite team... This team right here, that's one of the top, elite teams in America. Absolutely. Unquestionably. Whatever anybody else was saying, I don't know what they're talking about. That's my opinion. That's one of the top, elite teams in America, so whatever anybody else was saying, I don't know what they're talking about."

600-YARD GAMES

Clemson produced its fourth 600-yard game of the season in the team's ninth game of 2019, breaking a school record set previously during the 2012, 2017 and 2018 campaigns.

Clemson's 10 600-yard games since 2017 are the third-most in the country.

The 497-yard differential was Clemson's biggest since a 545-yard advantage against Kent State on Sept. 2, 2017 and was Clemson's largest yardage differential against an ACC opponent since the conference's founding in 1953, surpassing a 464-yard advantage against Wake Forest in 2000.

Clemson added another dominant performance one week later with a 446-yard margin against Wofford.

OFFENSIVE BALANCE

During Clemson's active 26-game win streak, the Tigers have featured remarkable offensive balance. Prior to the College Football Playoff National Championship Game that dropped Clemson to 248.2 rushing yards per game for the season, Clemson's 2018 squad had been the first team in Clemson history to average at least 250 yards per game rushing and passing. Only three Clemson teams in history have averaged at least 200 yards per game of each in the same season (2000, 2015 and 2018).

This year, Clemson one of only two teams to average 250 rushing yards and 250 passing yards per game. Of Clemson's 5,974 total yards this season, 48 percent of its yards have come on the ground, with 52 percent coming through the air.

Clemson has exceeded both 200 passing yards and 200 rushing yards in a game 49 times under Dabo Swinney, posting a perfect record in those contests. Clemson's 15 such games since the start of the 2018 season are the second-most in the country.

STRONG OUT OF THE GATES

"Some start fast, some start slow, but the thoroughbred is great at the final pole."

Dabo Swinney has used that horse-racing analogy with his team in 2019 to encourage his team to "run its own race" this season. As far as individual games have been concerned, Clemson has not had to worry about starting slow.

Through 11 games, Clemson has outscored opponents by a 142-10 margin (+132) in the first quarter. Presently, only 23 teams in the country (including Clemson) have a plus-132 point differential in entire games this season.

Clemson's 12.0-point average scoring differential in the first quarter is the largest in the country this season.

AVERAGE FIRST QUARTER SCORING DIFFERENTIAL

Rk	School	Q1 Avg. Pt. Diff.
1.	Clemson	+12.0
2.	UCF	+10.7
3.	Ohio State	+9.45
4.	Oklahoma	+8.73
5.	Alabama	+8.64

In a division-clinching win against NC State on Nov. 9, Clemson finished the first quarter with a 28-0 lead. In doing so, Clemson tied its school record for first-quarter points, matching the 28 points scored against Duke in the first quarter on Nov. 3, 2012. The 28-point first quarter tied for the fourth most in any quarter in school history and was Clemson's 23rd quarter of 28 points or more all-time.

YARDS PER PLAY

Clemson shattered its school record for yards per play in 2018 at 7.35, the program's first time exceeding seven yards per play in a season. Clemson enters this week averaging 7.49 yards per play in 2019.

MOST YARDS PER PLAY (CLEMSON HISTORY)

Including special teams, Clemson recorded a school-record 19 touchdowns of 50 yards or more in 2018. Players responsible for 17 of the 19 touchdowns of 50 yards or more returned for Clemson in 2019. Justyn Ross led Clemson with six such touchdowns, followed by four from Travis Etienne, three each from Lyn-J Dixon and Amari Rodgers, and one each by now-departed running backs Adam Choice and Tavien Feaster.

Clemson has recorded eight touchdowns of 50 yards or more in 2019, including four passing, three rushing and one via interception return. The eight 50-plus-yard touchdowns already rank tied for ninth-most in a season for Clemson since 1950.

Clemson opened the 2019 season with an explosive performance in a 52-14 win against Georgia Tech. The Tigers racked up 632 yards of offense on only 79 plays, averaging 8.0 yards per play even despite a methodical 11-play, 42-yard clock-killing drive to conclude the game. Clemson amassed 411 of those yards on 49 carries, a rushing average of 8.4 yards. Against Louisville, Clemson exceeded the 8.0-yard mark again, rushing for 298 yards on 37 carries for an 8.1-yard average. Clemson posted its third 8.0-plus-yard effort of the season against Wofford, averaging 11.3 yards per carry by accruing 419 yards on 37 attempts.

Including the three such games this season, Clemson's six games with an 8.0 or better yards per carry average since 2018 are the most in the FBS, and have helped Clemson lead the country in yards per carry in 2019.

Clemson has produced a touchdown run of 90 yards (Travis Etienne vs. Georgia Tech), a touchdown pass of 87 yards (Trevor Lawrence to Amari Rodgers at Syracuse) and a touchdown run of 86 yards (Etienne vs. Wofford) in 2019. The 2019 Tigers joined the 2013 Clemson squad as the only teams in the program's 124-year history to post multiple touchdowns from scrimmage of 85 yards or more in a single season. This year's squad is the first to produce plays of 85 or more yards both on the ground and through the air.

PLAYERS PER GAME

Clemson played an average of 72.5 players per game in 2018, an average that far exceeded all other AP Top 25 finishers, including fellow College Football Playoff participants Alabama (55.7), Notre Dame (55.4) and Oklahoma (52.4).

The approach to creating functional depth and rewarding players ready to play has been a key philosophy for Head Coach Dabo Swinney, whose own collegiate playing career was hatched as a walk-on fighting for playing time in Alabama's receiving corps.

"We're fully committed to playing guys who deserve to play," Swinney said. "You commit to a guy early in the season, and even if a guy's only played 10 percent of the snaps, when you get to game eight or nine, they've got some good experience."

That philosophy was on display in record fashion in Clemson's Sept. 21 contest against Charlotte. In that game, Clemson played a school-record 111 players. Clemson later played 105 players against Wofford in early November.

YOUTH MOVEMENT

One year after Clemson returned a school-record 61 lettermen for the 2018 season, Clemson entered the 2019 campaign with a roster that includes 80 freshmen and sophomores.

However, despite the roster featuring the largest freshman class in Dabo Swinney's tenure at Clemson, the Tigers' youth is not devoid of experience. Last season, the first year of new redshirt regulations allowed Clemson to play a then-school-record 20 true freshmen in 2018. Clemson immediately shattered that record in its 2019 season opener, with 27 true freshmen making their collegiate debuts in that contest. An additional eight players made their debuts three weeks later against Charlotte.

First-year freshmen to play for Clemson this year include Davis Allen, LaVonta Bentley, Kaleb Boateng, Andrew Booth Jr., Joseph Charleston, David Cote, Mac Cranford, Tyler Davis, Michel Dukes, Hampton Earle, Hamp Greene, Chase Guynup, Tye Herbstreit, Jake Herbstreit, Tayquon Johnson, Sheridan Jones, Frank Ladson Jr., Jaelyn Lay, Zac McIntosh, Matt McMahan, Chez Mellusi, Joseph Ngata, Ruke Orhorhoro, Kane Patterson, Jalyn Phillips, Taisun Phommachanh, Will Putnam, Hunter Rayburn, Etinosa Reuben, Brannon Spector, Aidan Swanson, Ray Thornton III, Mason Trotter, Jonathan Weitz, Greg Williams and Lannden Zanders.

The only true freshmen not to see game action for Clemson this year are injured linebackers Bryton Constantin and Matthew Maloney.

DOMINANT DEFENSE

Since the advent of the College Football Playoff in 2014, Clemson has routinely produced one of the nation's elite defenses.

Clemson has ranked in the Top 10 in the country in total defense in each of the last five seasons and has ranked among the Top 10 in scoring defense in three of those campaigns.

DEFENSE: 2018 VS. 2019

Clemson's 2018 defense became the first in school history to lead the nation in scoring defense, limiting teams to 13.1 points per game en route to a 15-0 season and a national championship. A comparison of numbers between the 2018 and 2019 Clemson defenses shows that this year's unit is matching or exceeding the output of the 2018 group that included seven players (including two reserves) that made NFL rosters this season (Christian Wilkins, Clelin Ferrell, Dexter Lawrence, Austin Bryant, Mark Fields, Trayvon Mullen and Albert Huggins).

Below is a look at 13 key defensive categories. The 2019 group is ahead of the 2018 team's season averages in nine of the 13, including scoring defense, pass defense and total defense.

BACKFIELD INVADERS

Clemson's defense calls Death Valley home but might as well file for dual residency in opponents' backfields. Since 2014, Clemson leads the nation in both sacks and tackles for loss.

Clemson recorded a banner day in both categories in the team's Week 3 win at Syracuse. In that game, Clemson posted 15 tackles for loss, tied for the fifth-most in a game in school history and the most under Head Coach Dabo Swinney. It was Clemson's most since recording 15 tackles for loss vs. Utah State on Oct. 16, 2004.

Among those 15 tackles for loss were eight sacks, tied for the eighth-most sacks in a game in school history.

MULTI-SACK GAMES

Prior to being held without a sack against option-heavy Wofford on Nov. 2, Clemson had recorded multiple sacks in each of its previous 16 games, dating to last season. Clemson has posted 23 multiple-sack games since 2018, the most in the FBS.

NO FLY ZONE

While outside observers focused on the loss of four NFL Draft picks (plus an additional undrafted free agent signing) from Clemson's defensive line after 2018, Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney spent the offseason telling anyone who would listen that the Tigers were returning the best back seven he's had in his tenure at Clemson.

Clemson's pass defense has rewarded Swinney's faith, ranking among the nation's best in nearly every key statistical pass defense category.

POINTS OFF TURNOVERS

Since the start of the 2018 postseason, Clemson's offense and defense have both been dominant in possessions starting following turnovers. Since the 2018 ACC Championship Game, the Tigers hold a 158-21 advantage against opponents in points off turnovers.

Clemson recorded a 7-0 margin in points off turnovers against Syracuse on Sept. 14, a particularly impressive stat when accounting for the degree of difficulty. In that contest, Clemson's two giveaways resulted in Syracuse starting resulting drives at the Clemson nine-yard line and Clemson three-yard line. Those two drives ended in an interception and a turnover on downs, respectively.

CLOSE-GAME SUCCESS

Though Clemson has not played a large number of one-possession games in recent times, the Tigers have proven very adept at winning such contests since 2011. The Tigers have played 29 games with a final margin of eight points or less, and Clemson's .862 winning percentage in those one-possession contests is the best in the country in that span.

OWNING THE "MIDDLE EIGHT"

During its current run of four consecutive College Football Playoff appearances dating to 2015, Clemson has frequently won one of the hidden "games within the game."

SportSource Analytics tracks the "Middle Eight," the section of the game defined as the final four minutes of the first half and the first four minutes of the second half. Clemson has outscored opponents in that time window 44 times since 2015, posting a 43-1 record in those contests.

Clemson was historically strong in that category in 2018, outscoring opponents 132-10 in the middle eight, an average margin of +8.1 points per game. That per-game differential was the largest by any program in the country since 2013.

One striking example of the importance of the middle eight came in the 2018 Cotton Bowl, as Clemson and Notre Dame played a tightly contested first half that saw Clemson holding only a 9-3 advantage with four minutes left in the first half. A touchdown with 1:44 remaining pushed Clemson's lead to 16-3, and Head Coach Dabo Swinney's decision to attack on a drive originating from Clemson's 20-yard line with 48 seconds remaining resulted in another score with two seconds to play in the second quarter, giving Clemson a 23-3 lead at the break.

The importance was also on display at Florida State in 2018, as after a scoreless first quarter, Clemson held only a 14-0 lead entering the final four minutes of the first half. Clemson scored two quick touchdowns in the final four minutes of the second quarter and opened the second half with another touchdown 58 seconds into the third quarter, giving the Tigers a commanding 35-0 lead in an eventual 59-10 win.

ESTABLISHED FIREPOWER

Clemson's eye-popping, record-setting offensive campaign in 2018 was authored at the skill positions in large part by underclassmen. The group was led in passing by true freshman Trevor Lawrence (3,280 yards), in rushing by sophomore Travis Etienne (1,658) and in receiving by sophomore Tee Higgins (59 receptions, 12 touchdowns) and freshman Justyn Ross (1,000 receiving yards).

Clemson was one of only three FBS programs to produce a 3,000-yard passer, 1,500-yard rusher and 1,000-yard receiver in 2018 and one of only 20 teams (including only nine Power Five teams) to accomplish the feat this decade. If Clemson repeats the feat, it would become the first program this decade to produce a player in all three categories in back-to-back seasons.

Clemson is the first Power Five program this decade to return a 3,000-yard passer, 1,500-yard rusher and 1,000-yard receiver from the year before. The only other FBS program to return such a trio was Western Michigan after the 2014 season.

As noted by ESPN, the 2019 Tigers are the first team to return its leading passer, rusher and receiver from a national championship squad since 2010, when Alabama returned leading passer Greg McElroy, leading rusher Mark Ingram and leading receiver Julio Jones from its 2009 championship squad.

200-YARD RUSHING GAMES

Travis Etienne wasted no time rewriting history in 2019. He recorded a then-career-high 205 yards in the season opener against Georgia Tech, the 17th 200-yard rushing game in Clemson history. At the time, it was Etienne's second career 200-yard day, tying him with Ray Yauger, Terrence Flagler, Raymond Priestler and Andre Ellington for the most in school history.

Etienne then went on a record-grabbing spree on Nov. 2 against Wofford. He posted a career-high 212 yards on only nine carries, becoming the first Clemson player to post three career 200-yard games and joining Terrence Flagler as the only players with multiple 200-yard games in a single season. Etienne set those marks in the same contest in which he rushed for his 48th career touchdown to break James Davis' career record at Clemson.

Etienne's 12 carries against Georgia Tech had been the fewest by any Clemson player in the midst of a 200-yard performance. He undercut that mark with his nine-carry performance against Wofford, becoming only the third FBS player since 2000 to rush for 200 yards on single-digit carries.

10.0+ PER CARRY

Etienne's explosive 2019 season opener resulted in an average of 17.1 yards per carry against Georgia Tech, which at the time was the second-best single-game average of his career (19.1 vs. Louisville in 2018). Against Louisville in mid-October, he ripped off 192 yards on 14 carries for a 13.7-yard average, and in early November, he posted a career-best 23.6-yard average on nine carries for 212 yards against Wofford.

The games marked the 10th, 11th and 12th times in Etienne's career that he averaged at least 10 yards per carry in a game with at least five rushing attempts. His 12 qualifying games passed Colin Kaepernick for the most by any FBS player since 2000.

3,000-YARD CLUB

Presently, Etienne ranks fourth according to conference thresholds in which players qualify by reaching 1,000 career rushing yards. Etienne's average is the best in conference history by any player with at least 200 career carries.

ETN1K

Etienne reached 1,000 rushing yards on the 2019 season in Clemson's ninth game despite averaging 13.7 carries per game through the team's first nine contests. In reaching the 1,000-yard mark in that game against Wofford, he tied the mark for the fastest any Clemson player has rushed for 1,000 yards in a season and became only the second Clemson player to reach 1,000 rushing yards in single-digit games.

HISTORY OF EXPLOSIVENESS

Nine of Etienne's 51 career rushing touchdowns and 55 career total touchdowns have covered at least 50 yards. His nine rushing touchdowns of 50-plus yards are the most by a Clemson player in records back to 1950, and his nine total touchdowns covering that length are the third-most in that time frame.

Including a 90-yard touchdown run in the season opener against Georgia Tech and an 86-yard touchdown run against Wofford, Etienne has two touchdown runs of 85-plus yards this season. Since 1950, he is the first Clemson player to record two touchdown runs of 85-plus yards. Etienne has three runs of 80 or more yards in his career, surpassing the previous school record held by Derrick Witherspoon and C.J. Spiller (two each).

TOUCHDOWN STREAKS

Etienne accounts for two of the eight-longest streaks of consecutive games with a rushing touchdown in school history. He enters this week having rushed for a touchdown in five straight games and can tie his second-longest streak (six) by scoring on the ground again this week.

DOING MORE WITH LESS

Etienne posted school records in rushing yards (1,658) and rushing touchdowns (24) in 2018 despite recording only 204 carries. His record-setting campaign in 2018 resulted in his selection as a Doak Walker Award finalist, as he joined C.J. Spiller (2009) as only the players in Clemson history to be named as a finalist for the honor.

The award eventually went to Wisconsin's Jonathan Taylor, who turned in a superb season of his own with 2,194 yards and 16 touchdowns on 307 attempts. Taylor averaged 7.15 yards per carry and averaged a touchdown every 19.1 carries; on 104 fewer carries, Etienne averaged 8.13 yards per carry and a touchdown every 8.5 carries.

If Etienne had received the same number of carries as Taylor and maintained his per-carry averages for rushing yards and rushing touchdowns, the resulting pace would total 2,495 yards and 36 rushing touchdowns, higher totals than every Heisman running back since Barry Sanders in 1988.

-- NO. 16 QB TREVOR LAWRENCE --

TEAM PRODUCTION

Clemson's 52-3 win against Wake Forest on Nov. 16 represented quarterback Trevor Lawrence's 22nd career start in his 26th career game. Clemson is 26-0 in Lawrence's time at Clemson, including a 22-0 record in his starts.

Lawrence is credited with 1,352 career offensive snaps at Clemson. In that time, he has never taken a second-half snap with Clemson trailing. The only game in which Clemson has trailed in the fourth quarter in Lawrence's tenure was in 2018 against Syracuse, a game Lawrence exited in the first half with an injury.

As a team, Clemson has averaged 45.7 points in Lawrence's 22 career starts, the second-highest average for any team in the country whose quarterback has recorded 20 career starts.

300-YARD GAMES

Clemson's balance and its willingness to take what defenses offer on the ground or through the air sometimes limits opportunities for quarterback Trevor Lawrence to accrue some of the passing numbers put up around the country. But even playing in an offense that values balance and for a coach who values spreading playing time throughout the roster, Lawrence has still been able to light up defenses in his young career.

Lawrence posted five 300-yard games in his freshman campaign in 2018, including 300-yard efforts in both College Football Playoff games. He posted his sixth career 300-yard game in Week 3 of the 2019 season, throwing for a career-high 395 yards in a win at Syracuse.

UNPRECEDENTED DEBUT

In a June article examining the statistical context of Lawrence's freshman campaign, 247Sports' Chris Hummer noted, "there is no historical comparison for what Lawrence accomplished as a freshman."

In 2018, despite not starting four games, Lawrence posted the 10th season of 3,000 passing yards, 30-plus passing touchdowns, five or fewer interceptions and a 65.0 or better completion percentage by an FBS quarterback since 2000. It was only the fifth such season by a Power Five quarterback in the time frame, and the first by a freshman.

INTERCEPTION AVOIDANCE

The ascendance of Lawrence was key in Clemson's record-setting explosiveness in 2018. But often lost amid the barrage of big plays was Lawrence's ability to keep the ball in Clemson's hands.

While mild panic emerged from national observers about Lawrence's eight interceptions in 2019, Lawrence still holds Clemson's career interception rate record and is the only qualified passer in school history to throw an interception on fewer than two percent of pass attempts.

-- NO. 3 WR AMARI RODGERS --

COMEBACK KID

Since his arrival at Clemson in 2017, Amari Rodgers has been hailed by coaches and teammates as one of the program's hardest workers. The work ahead of Rodgers was substantial on March 25 this season, when the junior wide receiver from Knoxville, Tenn., tore his ACL during spring practice.

Rodgers attacked his rehab with his trademark work ethic, returning to action 166 days later in Clemson's Week 2 game against Texas A&M, receiving a thunderous roar from Death Valley following his first reception.

A week later, Rodgers re-announced his presence nationally, catching four passes for 121 yards with two receiving touchdowns in a 41-6 prime-time win at Syracuse. His performance included touchdown receptions of 16 and 87 yards, the latter of which tied for the fourth-longest pass play in program history.

Rodgers' performance at Syracuse came with an odd historical parallel. The game was the first sellout at Syracuse since 1998, when Rodgers' father, Tee Martin, quarterbacked Tennessee to a win at Syracuse at the beginning of a national championship season.

-- NO. 5 WR TEE HIGGINS --

TOUCHDOWN STREAK

While teammate Justyn Ross led Clemson with 1,000 receiving yards in 2018, no Clemson receiver found the end zone last season more than Tee Higgins. The Tennessee native recorded 12 receiving touchdowns, tied with two different seasons by Sammy Watkins for the second-most in a single season in school history.

Higgins has placed himself in the midst of some of the greats presently populating Clemson's all-time leaderboard for career receiving touchdowns. On Nov. 16, he scored three touchdowns against Wake Forest, tying a school record and surging ahead of Mike Williams, Aaron Kelly and Deon Cain for third on the school leaderboard for career receiving touchdowns.

Higgins' second and third touchdowns of the game against Wake Forest were scored 29 seconds apart, the shortest period of time between touchdowns for a Clemson player since Derrick Hamilton scored 14 seconds apart on touchdown passes from Charlie Whitehurst against Duke in 2003.

Higgins enters this week having scored at least one receiving touchdown in three straight games. Higgins closed the 2018 campaign with at least one touchdown in each of Clemson's final four games. With a touchdown in the first game of 2019, he pushed his consecutive games streak to five, tied for the second-most in school history. He was six feet away from extending the streak to six in the second game of the season at Texas A&M, when he was brought down at the Texas A&M 2-yard line on a highlight-reel 29-yard reception.

-- NO. 11 LB ISAIAH SIMMONS --

MR. VERSATILITY

A track star turned safety turned linebacker turned free-ranging weapon, Clemson's Isaiah Simmons has rapidly emerged as one of college football's most versatile players.

"He was like a young giraffe running around out there. He was elbows and knees," Head Coach Dabo Swinney described of Simmons' arrival on campus. "Quickly, the one thing that showed up early was his physicality. He likes it. That showed up quick [as did] just his pure athleticism."

In addition to being one of Clemson's most-prolific tacklers, Simmons leads Clemson this season in sacks (6.0) and tackles for loss (12.0) while also contributing five pass breakups, an interception, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery. Presently, Simmons is one of only five FBS players — and one of only two in the Power Five — credited with at least 70 tackles, 10 tackles for loss and 5 sacks this season. Among that group, only Simmons, North Carolina's Chazz Surratt and Florida Atlantic's Akileis Leroy are the only ones to also record an interception this season.

FBS PLAYERS WITH 70 TACKLES, 10 TACKLES FOR LOSS AND 5 SACKS (2019)

Player	School	Tackles*	TFL	Sacks

Simmons is already the fourth Clemson player since 2000 to record at least 65 tackles, 11.5 tackles for loss and 6.0 sacks in a season. The other three to accomplish the feat are some of Clemson's most decorated defenders of the last decade (and, notably, all defensive linemen).

CLEMSON PLAYERS WITH 65 TACKLES, 11.5 TACKLES FOR LOSS AND 6 SACKS (SINCE 2000)

"He's what everybody's looking for because he's that hybrid guy," Swinney said of Simmons. "He's long. He can cover. He can play first, second and third down. He legitimately could go play safety. He's a guy that could probably make all-conference for us at probably three different positions if you played him there."

-- OFFENSIVE LINE --

SACKS ALLOWED

Clemson is powered up front in 2019 by one of the most senior-laden offensive lines in school history. Alongside sophomore left tackle Jackson Carman, Clemson's line includes four senior starters in left guard John Simpson, center Sean Pollard, right guard Gage Cervenka and right tackle Tremayne Anchrum.

In the season opener, Clemson started four senior offensive linemen in a game for the first time since the 2011 South Carolina game, when Phillip Price, David Smith, Antoine McClain and Landon Walker started alongside junior Dalton Freeman. The last time Clemson had four senior starters on the offensive line for the majority of a season was 2007, when sophomore Thomas Austin was joined by seniors Barry Richardson, Chris McDuffie, Brandon Pilgrim and Christian Capote.

Dating back to last season, Clemson's offense has allowed only 15 total sacks in its last 19 games, including holding teams to zero sacks in nine of those 19 contests.

Clemson's protection for quarterback Trevor Lawrence has taken on an almost-mythical quality, according to Syracuse Head Coach Dino Babers, whose own prolific defensive line was held without a sack against Clemson in 2019.

"[It's like] Game of Thrones. He's got a castle, he's got a moat, he's got some dragons. That dude's protected," Babers said.

SACK DIFFERENTIAL

Clemson's domination in its current winning streak has been powered in part at the line of scrimmage, where Clemson holds an 88-27 edge over opponents in sacks in that time frame. Clemson's +61 margin in sacks since 2018 is by far the top differential in the country, as no other program can boast a sack differential greater than +50 since 2018.

NO-NAME NO MORE

The college football world became well-acquainted and familiar with the faces that populated Clemson's 2018 defensive line. In addition to producing four picks in the first four rounds of the 2019 NFL Draft, Clemson's 2018 defensive line featured some of the most gregarious names and faces in the sport in Christian Wilkins, Clelin Ferrell, Dexter Lawrence and Austin Bryant.

The average observer may not know the names and faces of Clemson's 2019 unit as well, but the unit has served notice of its arrival with an impressive start to the season. Included below is a quick collection of quotes from Dabo Swinney about each of Clemson's listed starters or co-starters on the defensive line:

- DE Justin Foster: "He's just an old salty dog. He's just steady. You can count on him. He's tough."

- DE Xavier Thomas: "Xavier Thomas, geez. That guy is a special talent, but he's got to be a down-in, down-out special player."

- DE Logan Rudolph: "Nobody's game planning for Logan Rudolph. Nobody knows who he is, but you will. That guy is a football player."

- DT Tyler Davis: "It's not often you see a D-tackle show up and start. To see a guy start [as a true freshman] and really play at a high level... even though we've had that precedent here, that's still pretty unique."

- DT Nyles Pinckney: "He's a fourth-year guy and he looks that way. He just carries himself that way and has played some good football for us."

- DT Jordan Williams: "Tool-wise and ability-wise, he's got it all."

STOPPING THE RUN

Clemson held Texas A&M to 2.0 yards per carry on 27 carries in Week 2, the lowest yards-per-carry average allowed by Clemson since holding Boston College to 0.3 yards per carry on Nov. 10, 2018. A week after the Texas A&M game, Clemson then held Syracuse to 0.4 yards per carry in prime time.

In November, Clemson held Wake Forest to 1.7 yards per carry, marking the 20th time since 2014 that Clemson has held an opponent to 2.0 or fewer yards per carry, fourth-most in the country. Clemson is 19-1 in those contests.

Prior to facing Louisville on Oct. 19, Clemson had gone 27 consecutive games without allowing opponents to produce a 100-yard rusher, which had been the longest active streak in the country and the school's longest since at least 1980.

Clemson's two 100-yard rushers allowed since 2018 rank tied for the second-fewest in the country.

POINTS ALLOWED PER POSSESSION

Since Brent Venables joined Clemson as defensive coordinator prior to the 2012 season, Clemson has allowed only 1.13 points per possession against FBS opponents, the second-fewest in the country in that span. No program has given up fewer points per possession against FBS opponents since 2018, as Clemson's 0.75 points allowed per possession since the start of last season makes Clemson the only program in the country to allow fewer than a full point per drive to opponents.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

In addition to Clemson's elite on-field performance in 2018, the squad simultaneously posted one of the best academic semesters in the program's history. The squad posted team records in average GPA and number of players earning a 3.0 or better, all while collecting the AFCA Academic Achievement Award for the first time in Clemson history.

In November 2019, the AFCA announced that Clemson had repeated as Academic Achievement Award winners, making Clemson the only school in the country to earn the award across both of the 2018-19 seasons.

The NCAA announced APR metrics for the 2017-18 academic year as well as public recognition awards for the Top 10 percent of programs in each sport at every level in spring of 2019. Clemson set a program record with a 992 APR for the 2017-18 academic year, third-best in the FBS, earning NCAA recognition for the eighth time in the last nine years.

Clemson is one of only 34 of the 130 FBS programs to earn at least one APR recognition since the 2009-10 academic year, one of only 28 to earn it multiple times, and one of only three programs to earn the award eight-plus times in that span.

In the second week of November, the American Football Coaches Association announced that Clemson was one of six programs to earn the 2019 AFCA Academic Achievement Award. Clemson has now won the award in back-to-back years and is the only program to repeat across the 2018-19 seasons.

ACC: WE DO THIS

Arguments about conference strength were once again en vogue during the 2019 offseason, with various pundits and commentators offering opinions on the state of the ACC and the national landscape.

Head Coach Dabo Swinney has repeatedly contended that the quality of Clemson's conference competition has been central to its postseason success.

"This league doesn't take a back seat to anyone. It's a very competitive league," Swinney said at ACC Kickoff in July. "At the end of the day, I think the credit goes to this conference; I think that's why we've been so successful in the postseason."

Entering the 2019 season, the ACC:

- Has won more football national titles than any other conference since 2013 (three of the last six).

- Has had a team in either the College Football Playoff or the BCS National Championship Game in each of the past six years.

- Matched its league record with 11 bowl teams in 2018, including Boston College, Clemson, Duke, Georgia Tech, Miami, NC State, Pitt, Syracuse, Virginia, Virginia Tech and Wake Forest. The 11 bowl teams tied for the most among any conference.

- Is the only conference to send every team to at least one bowl game over the last three seasons. In addition, the ACC is tied for the most bowl teams (32) among all conferences over the last three years (11 in 2016, 10 in 2017, 11 in 2018).

- Has produced 19 postseason wins since the 2016 season, the most of any conference.

Those facts aren't lost on Swinney, who has actively contested narratives questioning the ACC's strength.

"The rhetoric used to be, 'Well, an ACC team's never going to win the national championship because they don't play anybody. So when they get to the postseason and they've gotta play the big bad boys, they can't beat them,'" Swinney said. "Well, now we win, and [they say] the only reason we win is because we don't play anybody. So you can't have it both ways."

GAME 5	CLEMSON	21
	NORTH CAROLINA	20
	SEPT. 28, 2019 KENAN MEMORIAL STADIUM • CHAPEL HILL, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. - No. 1 Clemson stopped North Carolina on a two-point conversion attempt with less than two minutes remaining to defeat the Tar Heels, 21-20, at Kenan Memorial Stadium. The game marked the first time in nine years that the Tigers traveled to Chapel Hill, N.C., and represented the first time since 2002 that Clemson beat the Tar Heels in Chapel Hill.

North Carolina opened the game with a four-play touchdown drive capped by a 40-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Sam Howell to Dyami Brown. Running back Travis Etienne eventually responded for Clemson with a 13-yard touchdown in the second quarter.

After Howell produced a second passing touchdown for North Carolina, quarterback Trevor Lawrence found the end zone for his fourth rushing touchdown of the season to tie the game at 14 with less than a minute to go before halftime.

The teams traded scoreless possessions throughout the third quarter, but in the fourth quarter, Lawrence connected with Tee Higgins on a 38-yard touchdown to give the Tigers their first lead of the game with 9:54 remaining. Lawrence finished the contest having completed 18-of-30 passes for 206 yards and a career-best 45 rushing yards. Higgins finished with game highs in receptions (six) and receiving yards (129).

Trailing 21-14, North Carolina engineered a 16-play, 75-yard touchdown drive to pull within one point with 1:17 remaining. North Carolina Head Coach Mack Brown opted to try a two-point conversion attempt, but the Tiger defense stood tall, as Xavier Thomas, James Skalski and Nolan Turner combined to tackle quarterback Sam Howell to preserve the lead. A Clemson recovery on an ensuing outside kick sealed the victory.

2019 GAME RECAPS

GAME 10	CLEMSON	55
	NC STATE	10
	NOV. 9, 2019 CARTER-FINLEY STADIUM • RALEIGH, N.C.

RALEIGH, N.C. – Notified just before kick of the opportunity to clinch the Atlantic Division, No. 4/3 Clemson secured its spot in the ACC Championship Game with a 55-10 win at NC State.

Clemson warmed up in its traditional white pants but switched to its championship "orange britches" right before kickoff upon being informed of Wake Forest's loss to Virginia Tech. Clemson then used a record-tying 28-point first quarter to run out to a 28-0 lead.

Running back Travis Etienne added three total touchdowns to bring his career total to 54, breaking C.J. Spiller's record for career touchdowns (51). Etienne finished the game with 112 rushing yards on 14 attempts, and hauled in three receptions for 31 yards.

Quarterback Trevor Lawrence completed 20-of-27 passes for 276 yards and three touchdowns, becoming the first Clemson quarterback to pass for three touchdowns in five consecutive games. The sophomore also rushed for a career-high 59 yards on eight attempts and found the end zone once on the ground.

Justyn Ross and Tee Higgins each recorded 33-yard touchdown receptions. Offensive lineman John Simpson scored his first career touchdown, scoring on a one-yard handoff.

Clemson forced four NC State turnovers, all fumbles, as Xavier Thomas, Chad Smith, Tyler Davis and Jack Maddox all recorded fumble recoveries. The defense allowed 290 total yards, its 10th straight opponent to accrue fewer than 300 yards to open the season.

	NOV. 16, 2019 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. – No. 3/3 Clemson downed Wake Forest, 52-3, on Senior Day, setting a school record with its 22nd consecutive home victory. The 49-point victory was an ACC-record sixth straight by 30 or more.

The Tigers scored on a Trevor Lawrence pass to Tee Higgins on their opening drive, then closed out the half with back-to-back scores from Lawrence to Higgins in just 29 seconds of game clock. Etienne turned in 16 carries for 121 yards and a touchdown, while also catching three passes for 37 yards and took sole possession of the school record for consecutive 100-yard rushing games by reaching the mark in a sixth straight game.

Safety Tanner Muse recorded four tackles (two for loss) a sack and an interception, as the Tiger defense held Wake Forest to 105 total yards of offense (41 passing, 64 rushing).
