Exhibition 1 -- Florida State 95, Barry 66

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – Florida State's exhibition opener provided a glimpse of what lies ahead for the Seminoles – both in the upcoming season and beyond. It also showed coach Leonard Hamilton a few things he'd like for his team to tighten up between now and the Seminoles' season opener on November 6. So, in that sense, it was a near-perfect evening for FSU, which got 19 points and five assists from senior Trent Forrest in a 95-66 victory over Barry University at the Donald L. Tucker Center. Forrest, the central figure for an FSU team that lost its top two scorers from a year ago, was one of six Seminoles to finish in double-figures. Anthony Polite added 18 – including 16 in the second half – while RaiQuan Gray (10 points) and newcomers Patrick Williams (12, nine rebounds), Nathanael Jack (10), Dominik Olejniczak (10 points, seven rebounds) and Malik Osborne (seven points, seven boards) all enjoyed productive outings.

Game 1 -- Pitt 63, Florida State 61

PITTSBURGH, Pa. -- Reserves Ryan Murphy and Terrell Brown scored 13 points to lead Pitt to a 63-61 win over Florida State in the season opener for both teams. The Panthers won despite shooting just 31 percent (16 of 51) from the field. Pitt survived by getting into the lane relentlessly against the bigger Seminoles, an approach that helped them outscore Florida State 22-13 at the free throw line. Senior guard Trent Forrest led Florida State with 19 points. Devin Vassell added 14 but the Seminoles couldn't survive 14 turnovers and 27 fouls. RaiQuan Gray, Malik Osborne and Balsa Koprivica all fouled out for Florida State. Florida State went up 40-31 on a layup by Osborne with 13:37 to play. The Panthers, however, responded. The Seminoles had a chance to tie it at the end of regulation but Patrick Williams missed a jumper with two seconds to go. Anthony Polite grabbed the offensive rebound but couldn't get a shot off before the buzzer. Florida State shot 40 percent (21 of 53) from the floor.

Game 2 -- Florida State 63, Florida 51

GAINESVILLE, Fla. -- Devin Vassell scored 13 points, M.J. Walker added 12 and Florida State upset No. 6 Florida 63-51 on Sunday, extending its series winning streak to six. The Seminoles (1-1) avoided their first 0-2 start since 2000 thanks to suffocating defense that forced the rival Gators (1-1) into 16 turnovers and a woeful shooting performance. Florida was 14 of 50 from the field, including 4 of 22 from 3-point range. A sellout crowd witnessed FSU take over late in the first half and really seize control after the break. The Gators went 10 minutes with just one field goal -- a dunk on an inbound play -- as Florida State pulled ahead 38-25 in the opening minutes of the second half. The 'Noles went up by 14 on Anthony Polite's 3-pointer with 9:31 to play. The Seminoles made 11 of their first 20 shots in the second half. They also finished with five blocked shots and eight steals.

Game 8 -- Florida State 63, Purdue 60 (OT)

NICEVILLE, Fla. – Trent Forrest scored 17 points to lead Florida State to a 63-60 overtime victory over Purdue in the Emerald Coast Classic championship game. The Seminoles outscored the Boilermakers 5-2 in the extra period by getting their points at the free-throw line including the final two with only one second left to play. Purdue, trailing by only a point, took several potentially winning shots in the last minute but was unable to score against a stifling Florida State defense. Devin Vassell was the only other Seminole scoring in double figures with 13 points. That included the final two free throws in overtime after getting fouled when he grabbed a missed Purdue shot. Matt Haarms led the Boilermakers with 16 points followed by Jahaad Proctor with 12 and Eric Hunter Jr. with 10. It was a back-and-forth game with 10 lead changes and 11 ties. Florida State never led by more than four points while the Boilermakers briefly went ahead by seven early in the second half after trailing 27-24 at the intermission.

Game 9 -- Indiana 80, Florida State 64

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. – Devonte Green senior scored a career-high 30 points, knocked down five 3-pointers and helped fuel a late spurt with two big shots to lead undefeated Indiana past No. 17 Florida State 80-64 in the ACC/Big Ten Challenge. Green went 10 of 15 from the field, 5 of 7 on 3s and 5 for 7 at the free throw line. He also grabbed six rebounds and finished with three assists and two steals -- not bad for someone who missed Indiana's first three games with an injured hamstring. With Green back, the Hoosiers are off to their best start since 2012-13. They earned their third straight win over a ranked team dating to last season and head into Big Ten play with a boost of confidence. It wasn't just Green, either. Freshman forward Trayce Jackson-Davis had 15 points and eight rebounds, while junior Justin Smith chipped in with 14 points and five boards. Trent Forrest scored 13 to lead the Seminoles, who had their seven-game winning streak snapped. M.J. Walker and Devin Vassell added 10 points apiece.

Game 15 -- Florida State 78, Louisville 65

LOUISVILLE, Ky. -- M.J. Walker scored 23 points for Florida State as the 18th-ranked Seminoles beat No. 7 Louisville 78-65. The Seminoles endured a big game from Louisville's Jordan Nwora to pull the upset. The preseason All-American scored 32 points, matching a career high. But the Cardinals could not overcome a 55.2% shooting performance by the Seminoles in losing their second straight. Florida State made 11 of 23 3-pointers. Nwora had a hot hand early for Louisville, scoring 21 points in the first half. The junior shot 6 of 9 from the floor, but the Cardinals combined to make just 10 of 37. They went the last 5:04 without a field goal as the Seminoles took 39-32 lead into the break. Walker helped offset Nwora's early barrage. The junior came off the bench to score 15 points in the first half on 6-of-8 shooting, including 3 of 5 from 3-point range. Walker finished one point short of his career high. Trent Forrest added 20 points on 9-of-11 shooting, and Devin Vassell scored 14. Florida State led 52-42 with 13:43 remaining. Louisville cut that to 54-51 on Nwora's putback, but that was as close as the Cardinals would get.

Game 18 -- Florida State 83, Miami 79 (OT)

CORAL GABLES, Fla. – No. 9-ranked Florida State forced 24 turnovers, including three in a row in overtime, and rallied Saturday to earn their ninth consecutive victory by beating Miami 83-79. Sophomore Devin Vassell set a career high for the third consecutive game by leading Florida State with 23 points while adding 11 rebounds and five assists. His two free throws with six seconds left sealed the win. Walker played only 23 minutes because of foul trouble but scored 19 points, all in the second half, Malik Osborne's three-point play with 2:25 left in overtime put the Seminoles ahead to stay. The Seminoles won despite shooting 42 percent and committing 16 turnovers. They compensated by scoring 21 points off takeaways. Not that Florida State's characteristically strong defense wasn't stout from the start. The Hurricanes had to call a timeout when they were trapped on the game's first possession. They blew a dunk, threw up air balls and had 10 shots blocked. But Miami stayed in the game early with a strong defensive effort of its own. DJ Vasiljevic sank a 3-pointer and then scored on a breakaway to give the Hurricanes their biggest lead with 5:20 remaining, 65-56. The Seminoles have won nine consecutive overtime games, including two this season. Their last OT loss came against Iowa in December 2016.

Game 20 -- Virginia 61, Florida State 56

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. – – Kihei Clark was the littlest player on the court, but he made the biggest play. The 5-foot-9 guard made the go-ahead layup with 59 seconds left, and Virginia ended No. 5 Florida State's 10-game winning streak, 61-56. Clark drove down the left side of the lane, reached across and banked his shot in on the right side. The victory was Virginia's first as an unranked team against a team in the Top 5 since the Cavaliers beat Duke 73-68 on Feb. 28, 2013. Mamadi Diakite had 19 points and nine rebounds for Virginia and Braxton Key added 13 points and nine rebounds. The Seminoles forced 17 turnovers while committing just seven, but were outscored 10-9 off those miscues by the Cavaliers. Virginia also won the rebounding battle 36-23. Devin Vassell led Florida State (17-3, 7-2) with 17 points. The loss was the Seminoles' first since Dec. 3 at Indiana.

Game 21 -- Florida State 74, Virginia Tech 63

BLACKSBURG, Va. – Devin Vassell was too ramped up trying to help No. 5 Florida State beat Virginia Tech to realize he was earning himself a place in the ACC record book. Vassell tied an ACC mark by shooting 7 for 7 from 3-point range and scored 27 points to lift the No. 5 Seminoles to a 74-63 victory over the Hokies. Vassell and the Seminoles rebounded from Tuesday night's loss at Virginia that snapped a 10-game winning streak. Florida State remained a game out of first place in the ACC standings. The Seminoles led for much of the first half, were ahead 34-29 at the break and held the lead the rest of the way. Florida State grabbed a 60-44 advantage on a free throw by Trent Forrest with 9:25 remaining before the Hokies scored the next nine points. They cut the lead to 60-53 on a dunk by Nahiem Alleyne with 6:23 left, but got no closer. Tyrece Radford paced the Hokies with 18 points. Virginia Tech lost its third consecutive game. Vassell connected on his first six shots from the floor -- five 3-pointers -- and made 8 of 10 for the game. He was the lone Florida State player in double figures, but 10 different Seminoles scored and seven scored at least seven points.

Contributions came from throughout the Duke lineup on a quiet night for big man Vernon Carey Jr. Junior guard Jordan Goldwire matched his career high with 13 points on 5-for-5 shooting -- including three 3s -- after coming in averaging 4.0 points. Alex O'Connell had five straight points during a key second-half sequence after FSU had gone up 52-50, then freshman Matthew Hurt went 4 for 4 at the line in the final 11.7 seconds as a clincher.

Game 26 -- Florida State 82,

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – Patrick Williams scored 16 points, Anthony Polite had 10 points and six rebounds and No. 8 Florida State pulled away in the second half, beating Pittsburgh 82-67. Williams, a freshman forward, scored in double figures for the 10th time this season as the Seminoles improved to 14-0 at home. Au'Diese Toney had 15 points and seven rebounds, and Xavier Johnson added 12 points and seven assists for Pittsburgh. Balsa Koprivica to lead N.C. State (17-10, 8-8), which was trying to bolster its NCAA Tournament resume even more. But the Wolfpack shot 41% and couldn't get to the line after halftime with the same frequency, a combination that turned scoring into a tougher test. The Seminoles handled the halftime deficit with composure to win for the sixth time in seven games. They made 10 of 17 shots to take a 57-48 lead on Trent Forrest's basket in the lane and were up big on the boards for much of the second half before finishing the half with a 23-17 advantage. Florida State's win secured a top-four seed in next month's ACC Tournament and the double bye into the quarterfinals that comes with it.

Louisville 67

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. -- Trent Forrest scored 14 of his 16 points after halftime, and No. 6 Florida State rallied from a double-digit deficit to beat No. 11 Louisville 82-67. The Seminoles moved past the Cardinals into first place in the ACC. They lead Louisville and No. 7 Duke by a half-game. Patrick Williams' thunderous dunk put an exclamation point to a 15-0 run that put the Seminoles ahead for good. Florida State outscored Louisville 50-27 in the second half and extended its home winning streak to 22 games. Devin Vassell and M.J. Walker each scored 12 points for FSU, which set a school record for ACC regular-season wins with three remaining in the 20-game schedule. Ryan McMahon scored 14 points and Jordan Nwora had 13 points and eight rebounds for Louisville, which went more than seven minutes without a field goal during one second-half stretch. The Cardinals played short-handed most of the night after junior center Malik Williams injured his left foot minutes into the game. He returned to the bench with a boot on the foot.

How Florida State's Leonard Hamilton, The ACC's Overlooked Coaching Mainstay, Has Stayed Relevant

By Craig Meyer

Pittsburgh Post Gazette

February 18, 2020

It was several years ago, he guesses it was 10 or 15, that Leonard Hamilton was asked a well-intentioned but loaded question.

How long are you going to do this?

The Florida State men's basketball coach was taken aback, even insulted. Now 71 years old and in his 18th season with the Seminoles, Hamilton is occasionally faced with questions about what keeps him energized in a profession that drains and overwhelms men much younger than him. Such queries, rife with implications and rooted in stereotypes, are irrelevant in Hamilton's eyes.

"I don't relate to what they're asking me," he said. "How do I keep going? I've never stopped."

On Tuesday, Pitt will travel south to face Hamilton's Florida State team, which is ranked No. 8 in the Associated Press poll, marking the third time in the past four seasons it has cracked the top 10.

In a conference with three Hall of Fame coaches — Duke's Mike Krzyzewski, North Carolina's Roy Williams and Syracuse's Jim Boeheim — and a fourth seemingly destined to end up there (Virginia's Tony Bennett), Hamilton is often and perhaps unfairly overlooked. But like many of the ACC's luminaries, he has found a way to stay relevant and thrive in an ever-evolving sport.

"A lot of coaches, once they get a system they're comfortable with, they just believe that their players have to adapt to that," said Stan Jones, who has worked as an assistant coach under Hamilton every year but one since 1996. "He tends to adapt more to what it takes for his team to be successful and for the kids he gets to have the best chance to develop so that not only can they play well for us at Florida State, but they'll give themselves their best chance to succeed at the next level."

At 21-4 and one game out of first place in the ACC standings, the Seminoles are a virtual lock to make the NCAA tournament for the eighth time in the past 12 years at a program that had made it just 10 times in its first 61 years of existence. A team that lost six of its top eight scorers from the previous season could very well make it to the Sweet 16 for the third-consecutive year.

Hamilton is fifth in career victories at an ACC school, trailing only Krzyzewski, Dean Smith, Roy Williams and Gary Williams. Though a Final Four appearance has eluded him, he has made a career out of winning at places where few have — at Oklahoma State, which hadn't had back-to-back postseason appearances in more than 30 years; at Miami, which had reintroduced its program only five years before his arrival; and now at Florida State, a school where football is unquestionably king. Hamilton's career path reflects the personality of a man who has long believed he is best suited for more challenging jobs.

Obstacles, after all, are nothing new to him. Born in segregated North Carolina, Hamilton became the first black player ever at Tennessee-Martin. When he was hired as an assistant coach at Kentucky in 1974, he was the first black coach in the history of a storied program that had integrated only five years earlier. At Oklahoma State, he was the first ever black head coach in the Big Eight Conference.

In being a trailblazer, he didn't find pressure, but a sense of responsibility, leaning heavily on the lessons passed on to him by his father.

"I always felt from an early age that I had to work harder than everybody else," Hamilton said. "That was an important part of my DNA. Never having anybody to complain or make excuses to, like so many people have, only gave me one potential outcome — I either had to be successful or had to keep working until I became successful."

By excelling in those positions, he helped provide inspiration to other black coaches, including the man who will be on the opposite sideline Tuesday night.

"When I was younger, when I was a player and things like that, you looked around and you didn't see a lot of people that looked like me on the sidelines in positions of leadership," Pitt coach Jeff Capel said. "When I did, I immediately became a fan of them because my dad was in this profession and he was trying to climb that ladder."

Along the way, he has continuously adapted. After getting to Florida State, he abandoned the three-out two-in motion offense he used in the rugged Big East to something more fitting for the up-tempo ACC. When the Seminoles went on a foreign tour in Greece in 2013, he saw the way the game was changing overseas and implemented a scheme utilizing more spacing.

Hamilton insists very little about him has changed over the years, and in some ways, he's right. His fundamental principles and beliefs have remained unchanged, namely in how he interacts with and treats those with whom he works. Jones recalls how in Hamilton's lone season as an NBA coach, with the Washington Wizards in 2000-01, he surprised an assistant coach by calling his wife to ask how their children were adjusting to their new school. Last year, he stood strongly by the side of forward Phil Cofer, whose father died as the team played in the NCAA tournament.

"Coaches at our level, they say they do those things, but sometimes, their actions don't speak the same as their words," Jones said. "He's a guy that does more and says less."

Through it all, he has managed to stay young in an industry that has a nasty habit of rapidly aging many. In his early 70s, Hamilton — in what has become something of a running, awe-inspiring joke — could pass for 45, making him the closest thing college basketball has to Benjamin Button.

It's not due to a lack of effort. Hamilton said he still works the same number of long hours, makes the same number of phone calls and sleeps the same number of hours as he did decades ago. He doesn't hunt, fish or play golf. One of his only diversions, in fact, is listening to hours of gospel music late at night after he has finished watching film.

Hamilton has even, after initially agreeing to it reluctantly, embraced social media. His Twitter profile is an active source of humor, from posting a video of him and his players signing "Silent Night" in Santa hats in the team's locker room to joking about his resemblance to actor Robert Wisdom, who played police major Howard "Bunny" Colvin on the HBO series "The Wire."

For Hamilton, it's a way to provide a glimpse at the jovial personality many close to him know well, a sharp break from his stoic, almost distant demeanor in games.

"I've seen people in the airport and they'll say 'Gosh, do you ever smile?'" he said. "It has become so comical because nobody likes to have more fun than me."

It's a way to stay relevant and accessible 280 characters at a time. More than anything, though, it's a window into a man who is, nearly 50 years into his career, living his best life and producing his best teams.

Kentucky, Joe B. Hall And 'Divine Intervention' Saved Leonard Hamilton's Coaching Career

By Lucas Aulbach

Louisville Courier Journal

February 23, 2020

Leonard Hamilton's ties to the Bluegrass State run deep.

It's not just Joe B. Hall, although the former Kentucky coach is the biggest reason why it all happened. When you spend as long as he did in one place, he said, part of you never leaves.

"I was there for 12 years," Hamilton said last week, ahead of Monday's game between his Florida State team and Louisville. "I still have friends and relatives. My brother just moved from Lexington down here with me, but I have nephews and family members that still live in Lexington. Some of my longtime friends are there, and I stay in contact with quite a few of them on a regular basis — not only in Lexington, but friends all over the state of Kentucky."

Hamilton, now 71, caught up with Hall last time he was in town in January, spending an evening with him and FSU's assistant coaches at a hotel lobby where the team was staying.

They had plenty to talk about — Hamilton spent 12 years as an assistant coach on Hall's staff at UK, from 1974 to 1986, and hasn't had enough opportunities to catch up with him since he left Kentucky. He'd come on the Joe B. and Denny Show when Hall and former Louisville coach Denny Crum hosted a radio show before it ended in 2014, but life as a college basketball coach is busy. There just hasn't been much time.

Still, Hamilton will tell you he wouldn't be where he is today — in his 19th season as head coach at FSU, and leading an Atlantic Coast Conference contender — if "divine intervention" and a call from Hall just days after he'd taken a job as a salesman at Dow Chemical hadn't brought him to the commonwealth 46 years ago.

It was a Monday, his first day at Dow, when his wife let him know Hall had called while he was at work. Hamilton called back that night, and Hall told him he'd been recommended for an assistant coach opening on his staff at UK (Hall had just been hired after Adolph Rupp was forced into retirement).

Hall was out of town but would be in Lexington on Tuesday afternoon and suggested Hamilton come by for an interview Wednesday — Hamilton booked a flight to Lexington out of Charlotte, North Carolina, on Monday, met with Hall that Tuesday evening and was back at work at Dow Wednesday.

When Hall offered the job the next Monday, Hamilton said, he didn't wait. It was lunchtime, but UK's newest assistant coach had somewhere to be.

"I wrote a note — 'to whom it may concern, I resign my position effective immediately. Thank you very much for the opportunity.' I got in my car and moved out of my hotel," he said. "My wife said to me 'I am not driving.' She said 'if you want me to go, I'm riding.' I left one of my cars there in Gastonia (North Carolina) at my family's house and I drove to Lexington."

It was a quick exit, but working at Dow wasn't Hamilton's dream job. Taking a job as an assistant at UK, though, was a step in the right direction. He wanted to be a head coach of a college basketball team — he just didn't think it would be possible.

Hamilton had spent three years as an assistant at Austin Peay in Clarksville, Tennessee, but he said when he asked administration officials if he'd be considered for the head coach opening years later when coach Lake Kelly retired, he was told no.

"The reason I resigned at Austin Peay is I became discouraged that I would not have an opportunity to become the head coach because I was an African American," Hamilton explained. "I just got discouraged and decided that if I wasn't going to have an opportunity to be a head coach, I needed to go where I could earn my own stripes. I thought that selling chemicals was the way for me to go — and needless to say, God had another plan for me."

"That was a real concern in that era," Stan Jones, FSU's associate head coach who has worked with Hamilton for nearly 25 years, said. "... Coach Hall called him before he got embedded into that job at Dow Chemical, and he immediately traveled up there to meet with Coach Hall and take that job."

Jones didn't work with Hamilton during his 12 years in Lexington. He joined Hamilton's staff during his time as head coach of Miami, following his years at UK, and has been with him nearly nonstop since then — Jones spent one year on Rick Stansbury's staff at Mississippi State, when Hamilton was out of basketball in 2001, but rejoined him when FSU hired him in 2002.

He was with Hamilton when he met with Hall last month. Those years meant a lot to Hamilton, Jones said, and he's spoken about them often as the two have been on the same staff in years since at Miami and Florida State, with a season in between coaching the NBA's Washington Wizards. (Hamilton also served as head coach at Oklahoma State from 1986-90.)

"So many of those players still come through and see him," Jones said. "He talks to them, he talks about them, they call him and ask him for advice on business decisions, on family issues — Melvin Turpin's son Kiel Turpin played for us for four years back in the early part of the last decade. He's just such a great people person. He never let's anybody go that's been part of his life."

Those years in Kentucky shaped Hamilton as a coach. Hall taught him how to handle the limelight, from TV and radio interviews to "preparing for some of the most high-profile games you can think of," and Hamilton watched how he'd connect with recruits and with his players off the court.

"That whole intensity of being in the fishbowl existence and making sure that you're aware of the challenges of being in that position — all those things helped prepare me for whenever the opportunity became available for me to become a head coach and have my own program," Hamilton said.

He learned about the biggest rivalry in the Bluegrass State, too.

Hamilton was on staff with Hall when the Wildcats met Louisville with a berth in the Final Four on the line in 1983. Hamilton and UK lost "the Dream Game," as it's become known, but would go 3-1 in four other games against the Cardinals before he left for Oklahoma State in 1986.

Hamilton knew there was a rivalry between the two schools — his head coach and two players at Austin Peay were from Lexington. But his focus was on the scoreboard, not the name on the other jersey.

"Now, those people who had grown up in Kentucky, they took those games to a whole 'nother emotional level," Hamilton said. "They took it to heights on steroids. It was unbelievable how much emotions went into that game. But for me personally, I had to maintain what I thought was the right focus to not get enamored with the emotional part and just try to be prepared."

"During those days, Louisville had a really, really good team. Coach Crum was doing an outstanding job, and they were unbelievably successful. It was a big game for people in the state, and it took on an almost outstanding intense rivalry that I'm sure people enjoy to this day."

Of course, there's a different rivalry that has Hamilton's focus this week. Florida State hosts Louisville at 7 p.m. Monday night in a clash between two top ACC contenders that will have a big impact on how seeding shakes out in next month's conference tournament.

The Seminoles beat Louisville handily six weeks ago, but the Cardinals showed what they're capable of when they ripped off 10 wins in their next 10 games. Monday's showdown is a heavyweight fight between two teams that could meet again deep in the ACC Tournament.

Win, lose or draw, though, Hamilton said he won't get too high or too low. He's taken the court against Louisville plenty of times over the years — one night won't make or break him.

"I'm not stressed because I realize that my calling is not necessarily to win basketball games as it is to develop young people to their fullest potential," Hamilton said.

"The wins and losses pretty much take care of themselves."
