CLEMSON WELCOMES MIAMI (FLA.) FOR PRIME-TIME TOP 10 TILT

Death Valley will host its first battle of Top 10 teams since 2016 on Saturday, when No. 1 Clemson welcomes No. 7 Miami (Fla.) in front of a national television audience on ABC. Kickoff at Memorial Stadium is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. ET.

Saturday's game will mark the first meeting between Clemson and Miami since the 2017 ACC Championship Game, when Clemson earned a 38-3 victory to secure the third of Clemson's five consecutive ACC titles across the last five seasons. That game featured the No. 1-ranked Tigers and the No. 7-ranked Hurricanes, the exact same AP Poll rankings these squads carry into Saturday night's contest.

Clemson enters Saturday's game with a 12-9 all-time record in games in which both teams enter ranked in the AP Top 10. That includes a 7-2 mark since the start of the 2016 season. It will represent the fifth such matchup in Death Valley history, including most recently Clemson's classic 42-36 win against Louisville in 2016 that featured future NFL superstars Deshaun Watson and Lamar Jackson at quarterback.

While much focus is expected to be placed on marquee quarterbacks Trevor Lawrence and D'Eriq King in this contest as well, the game will also feature two defenses that have been among the nation's most productive behind the line of scrimmage in recent years. Since 2016, Clemson and Miami rank No. 1 and No. 2 in the country, respectively, in both sacks and tackles for loss. Clemson holds a 209-177 lead over Miami in sacks and a 521-494 lead in tackles for loss in that time frame. Both teams enter this game ranked in the Top 10 in tackles for loss, Defenses around the country have had their hands full with Clemson running back Travis Etienne since his arrival on the college football scene in 2017. As a freshman, Etienne had a rushing touchdown in that 2017 game against Miami, one of 38 career games in which he has scored a touchdown either by rush or by reception. He is presently tied with Florida's Tim Tebow and Louisiana Tech's Kenneth Dixon for the FBS record for most career games scoring a touchdown, a record he can hold outright with another touchdown this week.

Etienne's prowess as a receiver was on display last week, as he recorded 114 receiving yards, a Clemson record for a running back. This week, he'll have the opportunity to become the first Clemson player to record a rushing touchdown and receiving touchdown in back-to-back games since C.J. Spiller in 2009.

NOTES

WHAT TO WATCH FOR THIS WEEK

- Clemson hosting its first matchup of AP Top 10 teams at Memorial Stadium since 2016 and attempting to improve to 13-9 all-time against AP Top 10 teams. For more on Clemson's history against Top 10 opponents, see the "Top 10 History" section below.
- Clemson hosting a team ranked in the AP Top 15 at Death Valley for the 10th time under Dabo Swinney. Clemson is 6-3 in those contests, including wins in each of its last four such games since 2015.
- Clemson attempting to improve to 22-3 against AP Top 25 teams since 2015. At 21-3 in those games presently, Clemson's 87.5 percent winning percentage against AP-ranked opponents in that time frame is the best in the country, ahead of Ohio State (84.0) and Alabama (83.3).
- Clemson attempting to even its all-time series against Miami at 6-6.
- Clemson attempting to win a third straight game against Miami for the first time in school history.
- Clemson and Miami playing for the first time in regular season play since 2015, when Clemson handed Miami its worst loss in program history, a 58-0 road victory for the Tigers. Including postseason play, the game will be the first between the two teams since Clemson's 38-3 victory in the 2017 ACC Championship Game in Charlotte.
- Clemson attempting to earn its first home victory against Miami in school history. Miami collected victories in the teams' only two meetings in Death Valley to date, a three-overtime win in 2005 and a 30-21 win in 2010.
- Though 2020 will technically be a divisionless season, Clemson will attempt to improve to 30-8 against opponents historically from the ACC Coastal Division, including postseason play, under Head Coach Dabo Swinney. Clemson has won 15 of its last 16 games against the Coastal Division since 2015.
- Clemson attempting to push its streak of consecutive victories in games that would typically count as ACC interdivisional matchups to 12 games, dating back to the 2016 ACC Championship Game.
- Clemson attempting to win a 25th consecutive game against an ACC opponent, including postseason play. A 25-game winning streak against conference opponents would move past the 1998-2001 Florida State Seminoles for sole possession of the third-longest streak in conference history.
- Clemson attempting to win a 25th consecutive home game to extend its school record for the longest home winning streak in school history. Of the 119 players on Clemson's 2020 roster, 110 have never experienced a home loss in their Clemson careers. Nine fifth-year seniors on Clemson's 2020 roster were on the 2016 team that recovered from a home loss to Pitt by winning the national championship that season.
- Clemson (24 straight wins) attempting to tie the school record for longest home unbeaten streak. Clemson was unbeaten in 25 straight games at Memorial Stadium from 1980-84, posting 23 wins and two ties under Danny Ford in that span.
- Clemson entering the game having won 32 consecutive regular season games, the longest such streak in ACC annals. Clemson's last regular season loss came in October 2017 at Syracuse.
- Clemson attempting to improve to 23-1 in October games in the College Football Playoff era (since 2014).
- Clemson attempting to push its winning streak in Saturday games to 47 to extend the longest Saturday winning streak in FBS history. Last week, Clemson passed the 1953-57 Oklahoma Sooners (45) for the longest streak in FBS annals.
- Clemson, which has scored at least 37 points in each of its first three games, trying to open a season with four consecutive games of 37 points or more for the first time since 2011

- Clemson, which has won each of its first three games by at least 18 points, attempting to win each of its first four games of a season by that margin for the fifth time, joining the 1900, 1929, 1940 and 2000 seasons.
- Head Coach Dabo Swinney attempting to secure his 134th career win as a head coach to tie Virginia's George Welsh (134) for the second-most career wins by an ACC head coach. At the time of his retirement following the 2000 season, Welsh was the winningest head coach in ACC history prior to being passed by Bobby Bowden.
- Swinney attempting to move his career winning percentage to .812 to move past Lafayette and Pitt's Jock Sutherland in the NCAA FBS record book for 11th all-time for coaches with at least 10 years of head coaching experience.
- Clemson attempting to win the turnover margin in back-to-back games for the first time this season.
- Clemson attempting to play a 12th consecutive game without turning the ball over multiple times. Clemson's current 11-game streak with one giveaway or fewer is the program's longest in the last 20 years.
- Clemson entering the game having recorded multiple sacks in 25 of its last 26 games, including each of its last nine.
- Clemson attempting to record at least three sacks in a sixth straight game, dating to last season, for the first time since a seven-game streak across games 8-14 of the 2018 season.
- Clemson playing its 18th game all-time while ranked No. 1 in the AP Poll to move past Pitt and Tennessee for sole possession of the 15th-most since the poll's inception in 1936. It will be Dabo Swinney's 17th game coached at No. 1, tying him with College Football Hall of Famer Ara Parseghian for 19th all-time.
- Clemson attempting to improve to 16-2 all-time when ranked No. 1 by the Associated Press. Clemson has never lost a regular season game as the nation's top-ranked team.
- Clemson attempting to hold Miami to three or fewer points for a third straight meeting (58-0 in 2015, 38-3 in 2017). It would be Clemson's first time holding a single opponent to three or fewer points in three straight meetings since doing so in three games against The Citadel in 1978, 1986 and 2000. It would be Clemson's first time doing so against an FBS opponent and ACC opponent since a four-game streak against Maryland from 1993-96 in which the Tigers produced three straight shutouts from 1993-95 plus a 35-3 win in 1996.
- Clemson entering the game having not allowed a touchdown to Miami in 150:10 of game action. Miami's most recent touchdown against Clemson came with 10 seconds remaining in the second quarter on Oct. 2, 2010, 3,661 days prior to this Saturday's contest.
- Running back Travis Etienne (at least one rushing or receiving touchdown in 38 of his 46 career games) needing a touchdown of any kind to take sole possession of the FBS record for most career games with a touchdown, presently shared with Florida's Tim Tebow (38 games from 2006-09) and Louisiana Tech's Kenneth Dixon (38 from 2012-15).
- Etienne attempting to record his 19th career 100-yard rushing game to tie Virginia's Tiki Barber for ninthmost in ACC history. Etienne's 18 100-yard rushing games are already a Clemson record.
- Etienne (4,281) needing 48 rushing yards to move past Boston College's AJ Dillon (4,328 from 2017-19) for the fourth-most career rushing yards in ACC history. He is 111 yards shy of passing UNC's Amos Lawrence (4,391 from 1977-80) for third.
 - Etienne (58) needing two more rushing touchdowns

NOTES

Carolina (5,828 from 1993-96) on the ACC's all-time career all-purpose yardage leaderboard.

- Etienne (4,304) needing 196 combined rushing and passing yards to become the 12th player in school history to record 4,500 career yards of total offense. Every player ahead of him in school annals recorded at least 3,300 passing yards to help reach that figure. Etienne has 23 career passing yards.
- Etienne (65) needing three touchdowns to tie or four touchdowns to pass Woodrow Dantzler (68) for fourth on Clemson's all-time leaderboard for career touchdown responsibility. He is already fifth on that list despite not having a passing touchdown to his credit in a category that credits both touchdowns scored and touchdowns thrown.
- Etienne, who scored a touchdown both rushing and receiving last week, attempting to become the first Clemson running back to score both ways in back-to-back games since C.J. Spiller against Florida State and NC State in 2009. Etienne has five career games with both a rushing and receiving touchdown, two shy of Spiller's mark of seven
- Quarterback Trevor Lawrence entering the game having thrown 314 consecutive passes without an interception, the third-longest streak in ACC history. He needs 26 more pass attempts without an interception to surpass NC State's Ryan Finley (339 from 2016-17) for the second-longest streak in conference history.
- Lawrence (73) needing three touchdowns to tie or four touchdowns to pass Russell Wilson (76) for fifthmost career passing touchdowns in ACC history.
- Lawrence (nine) attempting to post a 10th career 300-yard passing game to join Tajh Boyd (18) and Deshaun Watson (13) as the only players in school history to record double-digit career 300-yard passing games.
- Lawrence attempting to post back-to-back 300-yard passing games for the first time since the final two games of the 2018 season against Notre Dame and Alabama.
- Lawrence attempting to throw three touchdown passes in a third straight game for the first time since a school-record eight-game stretch last season.
- Lawrence attempting to record his 17th career game with three or more passing touchdowns to pass Deshaun Watson for sole possession of the second-most such games in school history.
- Lawrence (8,547) needing 252 combined passing and rushing yards to pass Woodrow Dantzler (8,798) for fourth on Clemson's all-time leaderboard for career total offense.
- Placekicker B.T. Potter entering the game with four career field goals of 50 yards or more. He is one such field goal one shy of the career school record of five held by Chris Gardocki (1988-90) and Donald Igwebuike (1981-84)
- Potter (101-for-101 for his career) entering the game as Clemson's all-time record-holder for consecutive extra points made. He has also converted his last six field goal attempts, dating to last year's national championship game.
- Potter (101) needing six extra points to tie or seven extra points to pass Bob Paulling (107 from 1979-83) for fourth on Clemson's leaderboard for career PATs.
- Receiver Amari Rodgers attempting to record a touchdown reception in three consecutive games for the first time in his career.
- Rodgers attempting to become the first Clemson receiver with back-to-back games with multiple touchdown catches since a three-game streak by Tee Higgins last season against Wake Forest, South Carolina and Virginia.
- Rodgers (511) chasing No. 8 Billy Davis (555 from 1980-83) and Nos. 6 Willie Jordan (569 from 1975-

78) and C.J. Spiller (569 from 2006-09) on Clemson's leaderboard for career punt return yards.

ESPN will broadcast College GameDay from Clemson on Saturday in advance of its prime-time contest against the Hurricanes.

The game will mark Clemson's 25th appearance in ESPN College GameDay's featured game. The Tigers enter the contest with a 16-8 record in the presence of College GameDay, including victories in 12 of their last 13 appearances. Prior to Clemson's loss in the College Football Playoff National Championship, Clemson had won 11 straight games when featured on College GameDay, which had been the nation's longest streak.

College GameDay's most recent visit to Clemson came in the 2019 season opener, when ESPN and ACC Network aired a special in-stadium edition in advance of Clemson's 52-14 win against Georgia Tech on a Thursday night. The upcoming broadcast will be Clemson's first time hosting the traditional Saturday morning show since 2016, prior to No. 5 Clemson's classic 42-36 victory against No. 3 Louisville.

College GameDay made its first appearance in Clemson prior to the Tigers' 31-7 win against Georgia Tech in 2006. The show also emanated from Bowman Field twice in 2013 before games against Georgia and Florida State, once in 2015 before the Notre Dame game and in 2016 prior to the Louisville game.

SERIES HISTORY VS. MIAMI (FLA.)

Saturday's game will be the 12th all-time meeting between Clemson and Miami. With a win, Clemson can even the series at 6-6 all-time.

This will mark the seventh time in the last eight meetings in the series that Miami will enter a meeting with Clemson ranked in the Top 20. It will mark only the second all-time meeting with both teams in the Top 10, joining No. 1 Clemson's defeat over No. 7 Miami in their most recent meeting in the 2017 ACC Championship Game, a 38-3 Clemson victory.

Prior to that neutral site game in 2017, the road team had won each of the five previous meetings in the series. From 2004-09, all three meetings between the teams resulted in overtime victories for the road team. The stretch represented just the second time in FBS history that two teams played three straight overtime games in a series

Prior to 2004, the two schools had not met since the 1956 season, a 21-0 Miami victory. Clemson went on to finish with a 7-2-2 record in 1956, and was ranked 19th in the final AP Poll, while the Hurricanes finished 8-1-1 and were ranked sixth. The Tigers also played in the Orange Bowl that year against Colorado and lost 27-21, and thus, both of Clemson's losses in 1956 came in the same stadium — the Orange Bowl.

MEMORABLE SERIES MOMENTS

- Jan. 1, 1951 Clemson appeared in the Orange Bowl for the first time and squeaked out a 15-14 win against Miami to complete an undefeated season. Sterling Smith's tackle of Frank Smith in the end zone gave Clemson a safety with under six minutes left in the game and gave the Tigers the victory. Don Wade also had two interceptions in the game. It was Clemson's second undefeated season in the last three years for Frank Howard's Tigers.
- Nov. 16, 1956 Vice President Richard Nixon was in attendance for Clemson's game against Miami at the Orange Bowl (then known as Burdine Stadium). Surrounded by security from various agencies, a loud explosion sounded and alarmed the body guard along with the Vice President. To everyone's relief, it was discovered that it was just the cannon fired off by a Clemson cheerleader when Clemson kicked off.
- Nov. 6, 2004 Clemson scored 21 unanswered points and held No. 10 Miami scoreless in the second half to upset the Hurricanes, 24-17, in overtime at the Orange Bowl. It was Clemson's third win over a top-10 team in two seasons, as running back Reggie Merriweather, who will call Saturday's game on radio as part of the Clemson Tigers Network, rushed for 114 yards and three touchdowns including the overtime game-winner.
- Sept. 17, 2005 Miami defeated Clemson, 36-30, in a triple-overtime contest before a sellout crowd at Death Valley. Clemson tied the score with 15 seconds left on a 27-yard field goal by Jad Dean. Clemson tied the score at the end of the first overtime on a fourth-down touchdown pass from Whitehurst to Curtis Baham. Tyrone Moss scored what proved to be the game-winner in the third overtime on a 25-yard run. It was the first overtime loss in Clemson history after five consecutive wins. The official length of the game was 4:10, the longest game in Clemson history.
- Oct. 24, 2009 Kyle Parker hit Jacoby Ford on a 26-yard touchdown pass on third-and-11 in overtime to lift Clemson to a 40-37 overtime victory at No. 8 Miami. It tied for the highest-ranked team Clemson defeated on the road in school history. C.J. Spiller, playing in front of his father for the first time as a Tiger, gained 310 all-purpose yards to establish a school record. DeAndre McDaniel was named national defensive player of the week for his two interceptions, including one that he returned 23 yards for a score. There were nine lead changes in the game, as neither team scored twice in a row.
- Oct. 24, 2015 Clemson tied the program's largest margin of victory against an ACC opponent and handed Miami its worst defeat in history with a 58-0 rout in Sun Life Stadium. The Tigers rushed for over 400 yards in the victory. Clemson would later eclipse that victory margin mark twice in 2018 with a 61-point win against Louisville and a 60-point win at Wake Forest.

LAST GAME VS. MIAMI

Clemson 38, Miami 3

(Dec. 2, 2017 at Charlotte, N.C.)

Fueled by a balanced offensive attack and a stifling defensive performance, No. 1 Clemson won its third straight and 17th all-time ACC Championship, defeating the No. 7 Miami Hurricanes, 38-3, at Bank of America Stadium. With the win, Clemson improved to 12-1 overall, while Miami moved to 10-2.

Offensively, the Tigers were sparked by Kelly Bryant, who completed his first 15 passes for 164 yards and finished the game with 252 yards and one passing touchdown on a career-high 23 completions after connecting with 10 different receivers. He was also named the game's MVP. The ground game proved strong as well, as four different Tigers rushed for scores.

The Clemson defense held Miami to just 22 yards of offense in the first quarter and 214 for the whole game while also forcing three Hurricane turnovers in the third quarter alone.

Travis Etienne put Clemson on the board first, darting four yards for a touchdown just under five minutes into the matchup. The score was set up when Bryant connected with Hunter Renfrow on third down for a 23-yard gain a few plays earlier. A Miami 46-yard field goal attempt then sailed wide left, and on Clemson's ensuing drive, Bryant broke free for an 11-yard scoring run that gave the Tigers a 14-0 lead near the end of the first quarter. The junior quarterback was also a perfect 9-for-9 passing for 124 yards during the first 15 minutes.

Adam Choice upped Clemson's lead to 21-0 two minutes into the second quarter with a one-yard touchdown run. That proved to be the halftime score, and the 21-point advantage was good for the largest halftime lead in ACC Championship game history.

Five minutes into the second half, an Alex Spence 46-yard field goal pushed the Tigers' lead to 24-0, and Ryan Carter forced a fumble that was recovered by Dorian O'Daniel on the Hurricanes' next drive. The Tigers did not score on that possession, but Carter halted Miami again a few minutes later with an interception in Hurricane territory. Clemson did find the end zone then, with Tavien Feaster powering 11 yards and putting the Tigers up 31-

Kendall Joseph caused Miami's third turnover of the third quarter with just under two minutes left in it when he intercepted a Malik Rosier pass, and Bryant connected with Deon Cain for a 27-yard score two plays later. Miami scored its only points on a 22-yard field goal by Michael Badgley with three and a half minutes remaining in the game.

LAST HOME GAME VS. MIAMI

Miami 30, Clemson 21

(Oct. 2, 2010)

The No. 16 Miami Hurricanes scored 27 first-half points and held on for a 30-21 win over Clemson on Homecoming at Memorial Stadium.

Andre Ellington's 71-yard and 14-yard touchdown runs gave Clemson a 14-7 lead. But behind 280 yards of offense and four touchdown passes by Jacory Harris, the Hurricanes took a 27-14 lead at halftime. Miami capped its first-half scoring when Harris connected with Leonard Hankerson for a seven-yard touchdown pass in the second quarter after Kyle Parker's interception with 24 seconds left.

However, Clemson's defense responded in the second half, holding Miami to three points and 96 total yards of offense. Ellington's three-yard touchdown run cut the Hurricanes' lead to six points.

Facing a fourth-and-one at the Miami 20 with under nine minutes left in the game, Brandon Harris stopped Ellington for no gain. The Hurricanes then drove 68 yards on the ensuing drive and clinched the game with Matt Bosher's 29-vard field goal with 2:40 remaining.

The Tigers turned the ball over two more times, their fifth and sixth turnovers of the game. All six turnovers (three interceptions, three fumbles) were lost in Clemson territory.

Ellington had a game-high 107 rushing yards and three touchdowns, while Miami's Damien Berry totaled 101 yards on 24 carries. Hankerson added a game-high seven catches for 147 yards and three touchdowns.

Miami overcame 12 penalties for 105 yards as well. Da'Quan Bowers led Clemson's defense with seven tackles, including three-and-a-half tackles for loss, a sack and a caused fumble.

-- NOTES FROM LAST GAME --

POSTGAME NOTES VS. VIRGINIA

- Quarterback Trevor Lawrence completed 25-of-38 passes for 329 yards with three touchdowns and no interceptions.
- The 300-yard passing game was Lawrence's second of the season and the ninth of his career. His ninth 300-yard passing game moved him past Charlie Whitehurst for sole possession of the third-most in Clemson history. It pulls him within one 300-yard game of joining Tajh Boyd (18) and Deshaun Watson (13) as the only players in school history to record double-digit career 300-yard passing games.
- The game was Lawrence's 16th of his career with three or more passing touchdowns, tying Deshaun Watson for the second-most such games in school history.
- During the game, Lawrence (73) passed Jacory Harris (70) for sole possession of sixth on the ACC's all-time career passing touchdowns leaderboard.
- Including his 329 passing yards in the game, Lawrence (7,793) became only the fourth quarterback in Clemson history with 7,500 career passing yards.
- Lawrence has now thrown 314 consecutive passes without an interception, the longest active streak in the country and the third-longest streak in ACC history. He has now recorded only the third 300-pass streak without an interception in conference history.
- Lawrence became the first quarterback to complete 25 passes in a game against Virginia since Duke's Daniel Jones completed 33 on Oct. 1, 2016.
- Running back Travis Etienne rushed 14 times for 73 yards with one rushing touchdown, and he also set a Clemson receiving yardage record for a running back with 114 receiving yards on five receptions with a receiving touchdown.

NOTES

- Etienne's receiving performance broke C.J. Spiller's Clemson running back record of 108 receiving yards, set against Duke in 2008. Etienne recorded the fourth 100-yard receiving game by a running back in Clemson history, as all three previous instances were recorded by Spiller.
- Etienne scored his second rushing touchdown of the season, the 58th of his career, on a 16-yard firstquarter run.
- By scoring a touchdown in the 38th different game in his career on that run, Etienne tied the FBS record for most career games with a touchdown (by any means), held jointly by Florida's Tim Tebow (38 games from 2006-09) and Louisiana Tech's Kenneth Dixon (38 from 2012-15).
- During the game, Etienne (390) passed placekicker Greg Huegel (379 from 2015-18) for second on Clemson's career scoring leaderboard.
- Etienne surpassed his single-game career high in receiving yardage of 98, set in the 2019 Fiesta Bowl against Ohio State.
- Etienne's first three receptions went for 21, 16 and 46 yards on 3rd-and-16, 3rd-and-9, and 3rd-and-16, respectively
- Etienne recorded his first receiving touchdown of the season — the seventh of his career — on a four-yard pass from Lawrence in the third quarter.
- The receiving touchdown was the 65th total touchdown of Etienne's career, moving him into a tie with DeMarco Murray for the 13th-most in the FBS since 1956.
- With 187 all-purpose yards in the game, Etienne (5,581) became the second player in Clemson history and the seventh player in ACC history to record 5,500 career all-purpose yards.
- During the game, Etienne (5,581) passed Dalvin Cook (5,399), Duke Johnson (5,526), Ted Brown (5,565) and Jamison Crowder (5,575) to move into fourth on the ACC's leaderboard for career all-purpose yardage.
- Wide receiver Amari Rodgers caught a career-hightying six passes for 72 yards with two touchdowns.

- The game was the third multi-touchdown game of Rodgers' career, joining two-touchdown receiving performances at Florida State in 2018 and at Syracuse in 2019
- Rodgers scored his second touchdown of the season the 10th of his career on a 27-yard pass from Lawrence in the second quarter. He added another touchdown later in the quarter on a nine-yard pass from Lawrence
- Rodgers has now recorded a touchdown reception in consecutive games for the third time in his career (vs. Florida State and Louisville in 2018; vs. Boston College and Wofford in 2019).
- Running back Chez Mellusi scored his fourth career rushing touchdown on a two-yard fourth-quarter run. It was his first touchdown since scoring against Virginia in the 2019 ACC Championship Game.
- Wide receiver Brannon Spector posted career highs with four receptions for 32 yards.
- Safety Nolan Turner recorded Clemson's first interception of the season in the second quarter, picking off Virginia quarterback Brennan Armstrong.
- The interception was the fourth of Turner's career but his first in regular season play. Turner previously had an interception in the 2018 Cotton Bowl vs. Notre Dame, 2019 ACC Championship Game vs. Virginia and the 2019 Fiesta Bowl vs. Ohio State.
- Cornerback Andrew Booth Jr. recorded his first career interception on a highlight-reel one-handed interception on the opening drive of the second half.
- Linebacker Baylon Spector recorded a career-high 13 tackles. His previous high was six, set against Ohio State in last year's Fiesta Bowl.
- Defensive lineman Bryan Bresee recorded the first full sack of his career in the second quarter. He had previously split a sack in the team's season opener at Wake Forest.
- Placekicker B.T. Potter opened the scoring on a 47-yard field goal on Clemson's opening drive. He later added a 42-yard field goal in the third quarter and has now converted his last six field goal attempts, dating to last year's National Championship Game.

- With his fourth PAT of the game, Potter passed Obed Ariri (99 from 1977-80) for fifth on Clemson's leaderboard for career PATs and became the fifth player in school history to convert 100 career PATs.
- Potter extended his school record for consecutive PATs made to 101.
- Running back Lyn-J Dixon returned the opening kickoff a career-long 52 yards on his first kickoff return of the season
- Clemson won the turnover margin and snapped a three-game streak without winning the margin, dating to the 2019 season finale. Clemson is now 59-3 when winning the turnover margin since 2011.
- Clemson did not turn the ball over and produced an 11th consecutive game without turning the ball over multiple times. Clemson's 11-game streak with one giveaway or fewer is the program's longest in Head Coach Dabo Swinney's tenure.
- Clemson recorded three sacks and has now recorded multiple sacks in 25 of its last 26 games, including each of its last nine.
- Clemson played its 17th game all-time while ranked No. 1 in the AP poll, tying Pitt and Tennessee for 15th-most since the poll's inception in 1936. It was Dabo Swinney's 16th game coached at No. 1, moving him into sole possession of 20th among coaches in the AP Poll era (since 1936) and pulling him within one game of Ara Parseghian (17) for 19th.
- The game was Clemson's first of four scheduled home games in the month of October. If played as scheduled, it would represent the seventh time Clemson has played four home games in a single month, joining the 1920, 1987, 1989, 1993, 2008 and 2011 campaigns. In all six of the previous instances, Clemson posted a winning record in those contests.
- Punter Will Spiers made his 47th career start to break Cole Chason's school record for career starts by a punter (46 from 2003-06).
- Linebacker James Skalski appeared in his 50th career game. Chad Smith (58 from 2016-19) holds Clemson's career record for games played by a linebacker.

WITH THE WIN...

- Clemson pushed its winning streak in Saturday games to 46 to extend the longest Saturday winning streak in school history and take sole possession of the longest streak in FBS history. Clemson's current run of 46 consecutive Saturday victories now surpasses the 1953-57 Oklahoma Sooners for the longest streak in FBS history.
- Clemson became the first program to win 300 ACC regular season games, according to official conference records. The ACC credits Clemson with a 300-143-6 record all-time in ACC regular season play.
- Clemson improved to 40-8-1 against Virginia all-time. Virginia becomes the fifth opponent against whom Clemson has collected 40 all-time wins (South Carolina, Wake Forest, NC State and Furman).
- Clemson won a fifth consecutive game against Virginia for the first time since opening its all-time series against the Cavaliers with a 29-game winning streak across the 1955-89 seasons. That previous 29-game winning streak is tied for the sixth-longest winning streak in FBS history for one team over another.
- Though 2020 is technically a divisionless season, Clemson improved to 29-8 against opponents historically from the ACC Coastal Division, including postseason play, under Head Coach Dabo Swinney. Clemson has now won 15 of its last 16 games against traditional Coastal Division opponents since 2015. Clemson has won its last 11 such games, dating back to the 2016 ACC Championship Game.
- Clemson won its 24th consecutive game against an ACC opponent, including postseason play. The 24-game winning streak against conference opponents ties the 1998-2001 Florida State Seminoles for the third-longest streak in conference history.
- Clemson won its 24th consecutive home game to extend its school record for the longest home winning streak in school history. Of the 120 players on Clemson's 2020 roster, 111 have never experienced a home loss in their Clemson careers. Nine fifth-year seniors on Clemson's 2020 roster were on the 2016 team that recovered from a home loss to Pitt by winning the national championship that season.
- Clemson won its 32nd consecutive regular season game, adding to the longest such streak in ACC annals. Clemson's last regular season loss came in October 2017 at Syracuse.
- Clemson improved to 23-1 in October games in the College Football Playoff era (since 2014).
- Clemson improved to 15-2 all-time when ranked No. 1 by the Associated Press. Clemson has never lost a regular season game as the nation's top-ranked team.
- Head Coach Dabo Swinney secured his 133rd career win as a head coach, pulling him within one victory of Virginia's George Welsh (134) for the second-most career wins by an ACC head coach. At the time of his retirement following the 2000 season, Welsh was the winningest head coach in ACC history prior to being passed by Bobby Bowden.
- Clemson has now won 75 of its last 80 games overall dating to 2014.
- Clemson has now won 45 of its last 47 games against ACC teams.
- Clemson improved to 103-2 since 2011 when leading after three quarters.
- Clemson is now 53-1 when scoring first since 2015.
 - Clemson has now won 81 of its last 83 games when leading at halftime.

- Clemson has now won 76 of its last 78 games against unranked teams.

ON THIS DATE (OCT. 10)

- Oct. 10, 1903: Clemson beat Georgia, 29-0. In the first 10 minutes, Clemson fumbled the ball three times. After the game, the Georgia team made a deal with the Clemson team. They would give the Clemson team a bushel of apples for every point Clemson would defeat Georgia Tech above the score Clemson made against Georgia. The score turned out to be Clemson 73, Georgia Tech 0. Apples were plentiful around Clemson that winter 44 bushels.
- Oct. 10, 1992: Clemson overcame a 28-0 deficit to defeat Virginia, 29-28. Nelson Welch kicked a 32-yard field goal with 52 seconds left to cap the comeback. Quarterback Louis Solomon came off the bench with the score 28-0 and led the comeback. His 64-yard scoring run just before the half changed the course of the game. The win over the No. 10 Cavaliers was just the third in Clemson history over a top-10 team on the road.
- Overall: Clemson is 8-7 all-time on Oct. 10 and has won each of its last five games played on that date. That streak includes Oct. 10 victories in 1981, 1987, 1992, 1998 and 2015.

Clemson's recent success has been particularly pronounced in the midst of Clemson's five-year streak of College Football Playoff appearances since 2015. Clemson leads Alabama for the most wins in the country in that span, while those two teams have each earned two national championships in that time frame.

12-WIN SEASONS

Clemson has won at least 12 games in five consecutive seasons, the longest active streak of 12-win seasons and one of only four such streaks in major college football history, joining Alabama (five from 2014-18), Penn (seven from 1892-98) and Yale (five from 1888-92).

Even at lower thresholds, Clemson's streak of success would remain impressive. Of the 130 active FBS schools, only 30 programs won at least six games in all five seasons from 2015-19. That number dips to 12 when pushing the win total to eight, and drops all the way to four (Clemson, Alabama, Oklahoma and Ohio State) when setting the bar at 10 wins.

10-WIN SEASONS

Clemson entered 2020 riding a streak of nine consecutive seasons with 10+ wins. The program's ninth consecutive 10-win season in 2019 made Clemson only the fourth program in FBS history to record at least nine consecutive 10-win seasons, typic the 2001-09 Texas Longhorns for the third-longest streak on record. With another 10-win season in 2020, Clemson would become only the third program in FBS history to produce a "double-double" -- double-digit wins in a double-digit number of consecutive seasons.

The record for consecutive 10-win seasons is 14, set by Florida State (1987-2000). Alabama is the only other program with an active streak of at least nine straight 10-win seasons.

The Tigers have 16 10-win seasons in school history, with more than half coming under head coach Dabo Swinney. The 2019 season was Clemson's sixth with at least 12 wins, with Swinney sitting at the helm for five of them.

2010s IN REVIEW

Head Coach Dabo Swinney can vividly recall the looks he received when he said Clemson was on the cusp of the winningest decade in program history following a 2010 campaign in which the Tigers finished 6-7. In 2017, that vision became a reality with two seasons to spare when Clemson collected its 88th win of the decade in the ACC Championship Game against Miami (Fla.) to surpass the Tigers of the 1980s (87) for most wins in any decade in school history.

With a rivalry win against South Carolina to close the 2018 regular season, Clemson reached triple digits in wins in a decade for the first time in program history. Included below are the schools that have accomplished that feat.

"Transformative," Head Coach Dabo Swinney called the 2010s prior to the 2020 College Football Playoff National Championship Game to conclude the 2019 season. "We've transformed Clemson, and the next decade is the Roaring Twenties. I heard those were great. Hopefully we can relive those."

THE 750 CLUB

With a 45-14 victory against Florida State in October 2019, Clemson recorded its 750th all-time victory, becoming the 15th FBS program (and first ACC program) at the time to reach 750 all-time wins.

SENIORS CHASING HISTORY

Every January, Head Coach Dabo Swinney conducts his first official meeting with his new team. The first order of business in the meeting is to "reset the room," reorganizing the seating arrangement with seniors in front and all succeeding classes in order behind them in the team auditorium

The 2020 Clemson seniors reached the front of the room having watched each of the two classes in front of them depart as the winningest senior classes in FBS history, tied with the 2018 Alabama seniors at 55 wins in four years. This year's group needs 14 wins in 2020 to follow in that lineage and match that mark.

The 2019 seniors were the second Clemson class and one of only three classes all-time to reach 55 career wins in a four-year span. Clemson's 2019 group reached 55 wins in 58 games, tying the 2018 Alabama seniors as the quickest to that mark.

FIVE LEAGUE TITLES IN A ROW

Clemson won its fifth straight ACC championship in 2019, as the Tigers and the Oklahoma Sooners both became the first programs in an active FBS conference since the 1971-75 Alabama Crimson Tide to win five consecutive outright titles.

Clemson had already been the first ACC school to win four outright titles in a row prior to extending the streak to five in 2019. Florida State was a champion or co-champion nine years in a row from 1992-2000, but never won more than three outright in a row.

Clemson's success in the conference championship game era is unprecedented, as in 2019, Clemson became the first school since the formation of conference championship games in 1992 to win five consecutive conference title games.

POWER OVER THE POWER FIVE

Early in his head coaching tenure, Dabo Swinney laid out his belief to then-Clemson athletic director Terry Don Phillips that the Tigers needed to add tough non-conference challenges on top of their tests in ACC play to serve as a foundation for the program's growth.

"I had a conversation with Terry Don and said, 'Terry Don, I know we are not very good right now, but we need to play people because that is going to help me teach and help me develop the culture and the mindset that you have to have to win at the highest level," recounted Swinney. "I didn't think we had that, and that's what we committed to. That's what we've done."

That scheduling philosophy and culture change has resonated in the Clemson program, and since 2013, no team can claim more wins against Power Five Conference opponents than the Tigers.

NO. 1 FOR NO. 1 RECRUITS

As Clemson was in the midst of the winningest decade in school history and tied for the third-winningest decade in major college football history, Head Coach Dabo Swinney would frequently point out that Clemson accomplished its goals by finding the right fits for its program in recruiting rather than chasing recruiting rankings.

Swinney often noted that Clemson accomplished its immense success in his tenure despite never signing the No. 1 recruiting class in the country. That changed in 2020, when ESPN ranked Clemson's 2020 group as the nation's top recruiting class. Clemson also recorded its highest rankings in both Rivals (No. 2) and 247 Sports (No. 3) history.

Clemson has signed the nation's consensus top player in two out of the last three recruiting cycles, welcoming quarterback Trevor Lawrence in 2018 and defensive tackle Bryan Bresee in 2020.

Clemson is the only team in the country to sign Rivals' No. 1 recruit twice in a three-year span since Dabo Swinney was named head coach at Clemson. Signing the No. 1 overall recruit again in 2021 would make Clemson the first school to sign the nation's top player in back-to-back years in accessible Rivals.com and 247 Sports data.

Clemson and Alabama (two each) are tied for the most No. 1 recruits signed since 2009 per Rivals' rankings. Clemson and Georgia (two each) are tied for the most in that span per the 247 Composite.

Clemson's recruiting classes have finished in the top 15 of at least one of three primary recruiting services (ESPN, Rivals and 247 Sports) every year since 2011. Clemson is one of only seven schools to produce a Top 15 class in each of the last 10 years, a group that also includes Alabama, Auburn, Georgia, LSU, Notre Dame and Ohio State. After that group, the next longest active streak of Top 15 classes is five (Florida).

ESTEEMED COMPANY

Head Coach Dabo Swinney's run of excellence in his decade-plus at Clemson has placed him in the company of college football legends.

Swinney boasts a career winning percentage of .811, sitting as one of only 13 head coaches in history with at least 10 seasons of FBS head coaching experience to post a mark of .800 or better.

FIVE "FINAL FOURS" FOR SWINNEY

While the term "Final Four" may still be the linguistic property of the men's basketball tournament, since the advent of the four-team College Football Playoff in 2014, Head Coach Dabo Swinney has had Clemson among the sport's final four teams in each of the last five seasons, joining Alabama Head Coach Nick Saban (2014-18 seasons) as the only coaches to make the College Football Playoff five consecutive years. Oklahoma has qualified for four College Football Playoffs in the last five years, one under Bob Stoops and three in a row under current coach Lincoln Riley.

The men's college basketball tournament dates to 1939. In the history of that tournament, only John Wooden of UCLA (nine from 1967-75) and Mike Krzyzewski of Duke (five from 1988-92) coached teams to five consecutive Final Fours.

During Wooden's streak of nine straight Final Fours, he recorded eight championships and a semifinal loss. Coach K's Blue Devils had two championships, a second-place finish and two semifinal losses in their run. Saban's run produced two championships, two runner-up finishes and a semifinal loss in his run from 2014-18, while Swinney so far has two championships, two runner-up finishes and a semifinal loss from 2015-19.

Swinney is 6-3 in College Football Playoff games and that .667 percentage is tied for the best among football coaches who have been in at least three games. When compared to basketball coaches who have been in the Final Four, only three have a better winning percentage than Swinney with a minimum of eight games coached: John Wooden (21-3, .875), Adolph Rupp (9-2, .818) and Bob Knight (7-2, .778).

^{* -} Men's Basketball Final Four or College Football Playoff games

With another "Final Four" appearance by virtue of a College Football Playoff selection in 2020, Swinney would join basketball's John Wooden (nine straight at UCLA from 1968-75) as the only college football or men's basketball coaches to take teams to six consecutive Final Fours in their respective sports.

STAFF CONTINUITY

Clemson has become a beacon of stability in the increasingly unstable environment of college football. Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney is in his 18th overall season at Clemson in 2020, including his 12th full season as head coach (and his 13th including an interim stint in 2008).

Since the start of Swinney's first season as full-time head coach in 2009 through 2019, there had been 392 head coaching tenures in the FBS, but only one such tenure at Clemson. Clemson and Duke are the only schools in the ACC with only one head coach since the start of the 2009 season, and among the 11 schools ever to qualify for the College Football Playoff, only Clemson and Alabama have had only one head coach since 2009.

This year's Clemson staff will be one of only six in the FBS to feature at least four coaches (head coach and/ or full-time assistants) who have been with their current program for at least 10 seasons in 2020.

He became just the second coach to coach 150 career games at Clemson, joining Hall of Famer Frank Howard, who coached 295 games as Clemson's head coach from 1940-69

Entering 2020, only eight coaches had coached at least 150 games at schools presently in the Football Bowl Subdivision while achieving an .800 or better mark. Interestingly, Clemson holds a 4-0 combined all-time record against the top three coaches on the list.

A FAMILIAR NO. 1

Clemson opened the season at No. 1 atop both polls, marking the program's second straight top preseason ranking. With the top selection in the AP Poll, Clemson became the sixth program since the inception of the preseason poll in 1950 ever to open consecutive preseason polls at No. 1, joining Alabama (2016-18), USC (2004-05), Oklahoma (1985-87, 1974-75, 1956-57), Ohio State (1969-70) and Notre Dame (1953-54).

Seeing Clemson at No. 1 has started to feel familiar in recent years, as 2020 is now the sixth straight year in which Clemson has appeared at No. 1 in at least one AP Poll. Dabo Swinney joined Nick Saban (12) as the only coach in AP Poll history (since 1936) to lead a team to at least one No. 1 ranking in six consecutive years. Clemson joins Alabama (12 from 2008-19) and Miami (seven from 1986-92) as the only programs to appear at No. 1 in at least six consecutive years.

Records reflect results as the AP No. 1, not total games coached

A total of 22 coaches have led the AP's top-ranked team into a game at least 15 times. Sixteen of the 22 coaches on the list are College Football Hall of Famers, and a 17th (Bob Stoops) is on the ballot for 2021. Swinney holds a total of nine career victories over five coaches on the list, including two each over Stoops, Nick Saban, Urban Meyer and Steve Spurrier and one over Bobby Bowden.

CHAMPIONSHIP HERITAGE

After being named Clemson's full-time coach in December of 2008, Head Coach Dabo Swinney set about securing his first signing class in 2009.

His first class, which he tabbed the "Dandy Dozen," brought home Clemson's first ACC title since 1991 during their junior campaign in 2011. All of Clemson's first 11 signing classes under Swinney have at least one ACC title to their credit in their four years at Clemson. Every signing class since 2012 has played for at least one national title, and every class since 2013 has won a national championship with exception of Clemson's 2019 class, which fell just shy in the College Football Playoff National Championship Game last season.

EXCEEDING EXPECTATIONS

Prior to 2019, Clemson equaled or exceeded its postseason AP and USA Today rankings in comparison to its preseason rankings in eight straight seasons. That included quite an accomplishment in both 2016 and 2018, as it finished No. 1 by winning the national championship to exceed the school's No. 2 preseason ranking both times.

Clemson exceeded its USA Today coaches poll preseason ranking eight straight years from 2011-18, the longest such streak in poll history. With regard to Associated Press voting, Clemson exceeded its preseason ranking in the AP poll in seven of the last nine years. The lone exceptions came in 2013, when Clemson was picked No. 8 in the AP preseason poll and finished No. 8, and 2019, when Clemson finished second in the country after opening the season at No. 1.

Clemson has won each of its last 46 Saturday games. ALL-ACC HONORS

Clemson's 16 All-ACC selections in 2019 led the conference and double the next-closest program (Wake Forest and Pitt, eight each). Clemson tied for the third-most selections in school history, trailing the program's 18 selections in 2018 and 17 selections in 2015.

Seven of Clemson's 16 All-ACC selections (not counting honorable mentions) returned in 2020, the most in the conference as of the start of spring practice.

ESTABLISHED FIREPOWER

In the past two seasons, the 2018 and 2019 Clemson squads became two of only 21 teams since 2010 to produce a 3,000-yard passer, 1,500-yard rusher and 1,000-yard receiver. By virtue of Trevor Lawrence, Travis Etienne and Tee Higgins each reaching their respective thresholds in 2019, Clemson became the first program this decade to produce a player in all three categories in back-to-back seasons.

Clemson was the only school to produce a 3,000/1,500/1,000-yard passing/rushing/receiving trio in 2019.

CHASING FBS IMMORTALITY

Etienne has scored at least one touchdown rushing or receiving in 38 of his 46 career games. Entering 2020, the FBS record for most career games scoring a touchdown was held jointly by Florida's Tim Tebow (38 games from 2006-09) and Louisiana Tech's Kenneth Dixon (38 from 2012-15). Etienne tied that mark with a touchdown last week, and can absolutely shatter the mark if he scores at his normal rate (82.6 percent of his career games) this season.

SEASONS WITH 7.0+ PER CARRY

Through his first three seasons, Etienne earned the distinction as the only FBS running back to average at least 7.0 yards per carry on at least 100 carries in three different seasons since 2000. The only other FBS player to accomplish the feat since the turn of the century was Nevada quarterback Colin Kaepernick, who did so from 2008-10.

This season, Etienne will attempt to become the first FBS player since 2000 to reach that average in four different seasons. He opened his career with a 7.2-yard average on 107 carries in 2017, a career-best 8.1-yard average on 204 carries in 2018 and an ACC-leading 7.8-yard average on 207 carries in 2019.

Against Louisville in mid-October, he ripped off 192 yards on 14 carries for a 13.7-yard average, and in early November, he posted a career-best 23.6-yard average on nine carries for 212 yards against Wofford.

Etienne's 12 career games averaging double-digit yards per carry on at least five attempts exceed Colin Kaepernick's 11 for the most by any FBS player since 2000

Etienne averaged at least 7.0 yards per carry in each of his first three seasons. Etienne is the only FBS back since 2000 to average 7.0 yards in three different seasons and joins Kaepernick (three years) as the only two FBS players at any position to accomplish the feat.

200-YARD RUSHING GAMES

Etienne recorded a then-career-high 205 yards in Clemson's 2019 season opener against Georgia Tech, the 17th 200-yard rushing game in Clemson history. It was Etienne's second career 200-yard day, tying him with Ray Yauger, Terrence Flagler, Raymond Priester and Andre Ellington for the most in school history.

Etienne then went on a record-grabbing spree in November 2019 against Wofford. He posted a careerhigh 212 yards on only nine carries, becoming the first Clemson player to post three career 200-yard games and joining Terrence Flagler as the only players with multiple 200-yard games in a single season. Etienne set those marks in the same contest in which he rushed for his 48th career touchdown to break James Davis' career record at Clemson.

Etienne's 12 carries against Georgia Tech had been the fewest by any Clemson player in the midst of a 200-yard performance. He undercut that mark with his nine-carry performance against Wofford, becoming only the third FBS player since 2000 to rush for 200 yards on single-digit carries.

HISTORY OF EXPLOSIVENESS

Nine of Etienne's 58 career rushing touchdowns have covered at least 50 yards. His nine rushing touchdowns of 50-plus yards are the most by a Clemson player in records back to 1950, and his 10 total touchdowns covering that length (including a 53-yard touchdown reception in the Fiesta Bowl) are tied for the second-most in that time frame.

TOUCHDOWN STREAKS

Etienne accounts for three of the nine-longest streaks of consecutive games with a rushing touchdown in school history. Prior to being held scoreless against The Citadel in Clemson's second game, Etienne rushed for a touchdown in 10 straight games across the 2019-20 seasons, the longest streak of consecutive games with a rushing touchdown in school history.

RETURNING 4,000-YARD CAREER RUSHERS (FBS HISTORY)

Clemson returned one of the most proflific career passer-rusher duos in college football history in 2020. Trevor Lawrence entered his junior campaign with 6,945 career passing yards, while Travis Etienne entered his senior season with 4,038 career rushing yards. The 2020 Clemson Tigers became only the third team in FBS history to return a 6,000-yard career passer and 4,000-yard career rusher, joining the 2001 Oregon State Beavers and 2018 Washington Huskies.

Per data available via Sports Reference, of the 139 players who have rushed for 4,000 yards all-time prior to 2020, Etienne was one of only 14 to enter his final collegiate season with 4,000 career yards.

Then against Virginia in Clemson's third game of 2020, Etienne set a Clemson receiving yardage record for a running back with 114 receiving yards on five receptions. His performance broke Spiller's Clemson running back record of 108 receiving yards, set against Duke in 2008. It was only the fourth 100-yard receiving game by a running back in Clemson history, with all three previous instances recorded by Spiller.

After finishing his first two seasons with 17 career receptions for 135 yards and two touchdowns, Etienne was much more involved in the passing game in 2019, recording 37 receptions for 432 yards and four touchdowns. His 432 receiving yards in 2019 ranked as the third-most in a season for a running back in Clemson history, trailing only the 2008 and 2009 production of Spiller, a College Football Hall of Fame nominee.

A similar performance in the passing game in 2020 could help Etienne join elite company in college football history. Only 11 players in FBS history have finished their careers with at least 4,000 rushing yards and at least 1,000 receiving yards. Etienne has already exceeded the 4,000-yard mark on the ground for his career and entered 2020 with 567 career receiving yards. With 433 receiving yards in 2020, Etienne would become the 12th FBS player all-time to join the 4,000/1,000 club.

TREAD ON THE TIRES

While some observers were surprised by Etienne's decision to return to Clemson in 2020, a projected second-round grade and a desire to complete his degree program made Etienne's call an easy one.

"I just felt like I could come back and improve that grade," Etienne said. "I don't have my degree. Coming back and going second round (in 2021), at least I'd have my degree. Leaving for the second round has never been a dream of mine. I feel like I can do so much better than that. The NFL is going to be there."

Detractors cited the "wear and tear" of another collegiate season as reasons why Etienne would have benefited from turning pro, but the story of Etienne's career usage has been one of immense production in very measured opportunities. In his first three seasons from 2017-19, Etienne averaged only 12.0 carries per game. Even accounting for only his two seasons as a full-time starter, he averaged only 13.7 carries per game from 2018-19.

The difference in the amount of tread left on Etienne's tires, figuratively speaking, to some of the NFL's most recent draft picks at running back is stark. All six running backs selected in the first two rounds of the 2020 NFL Draft were early entrants, and Etienne entered his senior season with fewer career carries than all but two of the six.

Etienne's single-season career high in carries is 207, set in 2019. Even if Etienne were to add another 207 carries to his career total in 2020, despite using all four years of his eligibility, he would still enter the NFL with 201 fewer carries than Jonathan Taylor's three-year career, 120 fewer carries than AJ Dillon's three-year run and the exact same number as J.K. Dobbins' three-year tenure.

QB WIN STREAKS

After entering his first four career games at Clemson as a reserve, Trevor Lawrence was named Clemson's starting quarterback heading into its game against Syracuse on Sept. 29, 2018. Clemson's victory in that contest was its first with Lawrence as a starter.

Lawrence would go on to guide Clemson to another 24 straight wins as the starting quarterback prior to suffering his first defeat in the College Football Playoff National Championship game to conclude the 2019 season. Per ESPN Stats & Info, Lawrence's 25-game winning streak tied for the sixth-longest by a starting quarterback in major college football history and finished one shy of being the longest such streak to open a career.

ALL-AMERICAN DOUBLE?

If Trevor Lawrence and running back Travis Etienne were to both earn consensus All-American status (first-team honors from three or more of the five NCAA-recognized selectors) following the season, it would mark only the sixth such occurence in FBS history. Clemson will attempt to become only the third school to produce such a duo, joining Notre Dame (four) and Penn State (one).

As a sophomore, Lawrence shattered school single-season and multi-season records in that category in 2019. Lawrence enters this week having thrown a school-record 314 pass attempts without an interception, the third-longest streak in ACC history.

His 18 consecutive completions tied ACC single-game records held by Virginia's Michael Rocco (vs. Miami in 2012) and North Carolina's Mitch Trubisky (vs. James Madison in 2016).

300-YARD GAMES

Clemson's balance and its willingness to take what defenses offer on the ground or through the air sometimes limits opportunities for Lawrence to accrue some of the passing numbers put up around the country. But even playing in an offense that values balance and for a coach who values spreading playing time throughout the roster, Lawrence has still been able to light up defenses in his career, ranking third on Clemson's all-time leaderboard in 300-yard passing games.

LAWRENCE'S LEGS

Lawrence had a Clemson team-high and career-best 107 rushing yards on 16 carries and scored on a career-long 67-yard run in Clemson's 29-23 win against Ohio State in last year's PlayStation Fiesta Bowl. The 67-yard run was the longest by a Clemson quarterback since Woody Dantzler had a 75-yard scoring run at Virginia in 2000.

Lawrence finished 2019 with 563 rushing yards on 103 carries, an average of 5.47 yards per rush. That rushing average was the best in a season for a Clemson quarterback since transitioning away from single-wing formations in 1953.

KILLER T'S STRIKE IN OPENER

The prolific duo of Trevor and Travis shot out of the starting gate quickly in 2020, with Lawrence producing 351 passing yards and Etienne producing 102 rushing yards in Clemson's season opener at Wake Forest.

The performance represented the 15th time in history that Clemson has produced both a 300-yard passer and a 100-yard rusher in a single game. All 15 instances at Clemson have come since the turn of the century. Twelve have come under Dabo Swinney, including four by the Lawrence/Etienne duo.

It was the seventh time Clemson had a 350-yard passer and a 100-yard rusher in a game.

SPOTLIGHT ON THE SPECIALISTS

Clemson's special teams has lived up to its name so far in 2020, both in terms of its on-field production and its engaging storylines.

- B.T. Potter, PK: Clemson's cannon-legged junior has been remarkably consistent on both his shortest kicks and his longest kicks throughout his career. He is 101-for-101 on PATs, and his 101 consecutive PATs broke Clemson's school record (88 by Mark Buchholz from 2007-08). Potter, who has been one of the nation's foremost touchback specialists throughout his career, is also a perfect 4-for-4 on field goal attempts of 50 yards or more during his Clemson tenure, one 50-yarder away from tying Clemson's career record.
- Will Spiers, P: A four-year starter at punter, Spiers made his 47th career start on Oct. 3, breaking Cole Chason's Clemson record for a punter (46 from 2003-06). His experience has been evident in his finish to the 2019 season and his hot start in 2020. In 2019, he finished with a career-high 41.7-yard net average, the second-best single-season mark in school history behind Dale Hatcher's 1984 performance (42.4), and he saved his best performances for the biggest games, dropping 10 of his 16 punts in last year's College Football Playoff inside the 20.
- Will Swinney, H: Spiers is not the only four-year starter among Clemson's special teams corps. Swinney is in his fourth season as Clemson's primary holder and has held for more placekicks than any player in Clemson history. Since 2017, Clemson has scored 376 points on placekicks, including field goals and PATs. Swinney, a 2020 William V. Campbell Trophy semifinalist, has held for 373 of those 376 points, and including his receiving touchdown vs. Louisville in 2018, he's touched the ball for 379 total points for Clemson in his career. Clemson's only three kicking points not held by Will Swinney in his career were instead held by his brother, Drew. Clemson's last hold by any player outside the Swinney family was on the final point of Clemson's 2016 national championship following Hunter Renfrow's touchdown with one second remaining.

- Jack Maddox, LS: Maddox is in his first-year as Clemson's starting long snapper. A native of Acton, Mass., his attention first turned to Clemson after visiting his uncle, who is a professor at the university. He walked on at Clemson, and this past August, the redshirt junior was en route to Clemson's Applied Science Lab to take a nap when Head Coach Dabo Swinney approached him and asked him if he'd already paid his fall tuition. Upon Maddox confirming that he had, Swinney told him he'd have a little extra money in his pocket this semester, as Maddox was being placed on scholarship for the 2020 season.

- Quinn Castner, PK: Castner joined Clemson's program in August. At 140 pounds, the 5-foot-5 walkon became the 15th player below 150 pounds to appear on Clemson's roster since 1944. He became a viral sensation for his debut against The Citadel once Dabo Swinney, after exaggerating Castner's vitals as "5-foot-3 and 80 pounds... maybe," told the following anecdote about Castner and Clemson's current culture: "I put him out there and gave him a chance to kick one off, and listen, he ain't kicked one deep in the end zone yet since he's been here... So I put the first [team] kickoff out there and said, 'All right, boys, we've got a little wind, I'm putting my man Quinn out there. Y'all know this is coming out and y'all need some dadgum practice...' Potter booms 'em out of the end zone and I wanted them to get a little work, so I got my man Quinn out there, and what does he do? He kicks that sucker four yards deep in the end zone, and the whole team went crazy. They just loved it, and, I mean, that's special."

- Returners: Four different players (WR Amari Rodgers, CB Derion Kendrick, RB Travis Etienne and WR Will Swinney) have accounted for Clemson's six punt returns this season. Clemson is averaging 16.3 yards per punt return this year, ninth-best in the nation and less than a yard shy of Clemson's school record of 17.1 set in 1948. Meanwhile, on kickoff return, Clemson jumpstarted its 41-23 win against Virginia when RB Lyn-J Dixon returned the opening kickoff a career-long 52 yards on his first return of the season.

PLAYERS PER GAME

One year after leading all AP Top 25 finishers with an average of 72.5 players per game in 2018, Clemson once again lapped the field in average players per game in 2019.

Clemson played an average of 76.0 players per game in 2019, an average that far exceeded all Power Five programs by more than 11 players — $a\ full\ unit$ — per game.

The approach to creating functional depth and rewarding players ready to play has been a key philosophy for Head Coach Dabo Swinney, whose own collegiate playing career was hatched as a walk-on fighting for playing time in Alabama's receiving corps.

"We're fully committed to playing guys who deserve to play," Swinney said. "You commit to a guy early in the season, and even if a guy's only played 10 percent of the snaps, when you get to game eight or nine, they've got some good experience."

That philosophy was on display in record fashion against Charlotte in September 2019, when Clemson played a school-record 111 players. Clemson later played 105 players against Wofford and 93 players against Wake Forest that season as well.

Clemson's high-water mark for player participation this season is 96 against The Citadel in the team's home opener.

YOUTH + EXPERIENCE

One year after Clemson returned a school-record 61 lettermen for the 2018 season, Clemson entered the 2019 campaign with a roster that included 80 freshmen and sophomores. Clemson's 2020 squad is a mixture of youth and experience, as Clemson has 60 returning lettermen yet still features a roster that includes 81 players classified as freshmen or sophomores.

In the first year of new redshirt regulations in 2018, Clemson played a then-school-record 20 true freshmen. Clemson immediately shattered that record in its 2019 season opener, with 27 true freshmen making their collegiate debuts in that contest. An additional eight true freshmen made their debuts to push that total to a school-record 36. The only true freshmen not to see game action for Clemson in 2019 were injured linebackers Bryton Constantin and Matthew Maloney.

Clemson's 78-player participation in its 2020 season opener included 22 true freshmen from Clemson's most recent 23-player recruiting class who made their collegiate debuts in the contest. The only Clemson true freshman signee who did not play in the game was DeMonte Capehart, who did not travel with the team.

Capehart made his debut a week later against The Citadel, as did true freshmen walk-ons Hunter Helms, Quinn Castner and Bubba McAtee.

OFFENSIVE BALANCE

Clemson has featured remarkable offensive balance while qualifying for the College Football Playoff National Championship Game in each of the last two years. Clemson has averaged at least 200 rushing yards and 200 passing yards per game four times in school history, with two of those seasons occurring in the 2018 and 2019 campaigns.

Clemson exceeded the 200/200 mark rushing and passing in 2019 by averaging 240.4 rushing yards per game and 288.3 passing yards per game. Clemson was one of only three teams in 2019 to average at least 240 yards per game in each category, along with fellow CFP participants Ohio State and Oklahoma. Clemson broke the 3,000-yard mark both rushing and passing in 2019, making the campaign only the third 3,000/3,000 season in school history (2015 and 2018).

Clemson has exceeded both 200 passing yards and 200 rushing yards in 51 games under Dabo Swinney, posting a perfect record in those contests. Clemson's 17 such games since the start of the 2018 season are the most in the country.

Clemson got back on pace with 200/200 performances at South Carolina in the regular season finale and against Virginia in the ACC Championship Game to give the Tigers seven 200/200 games in an eight-game span.

TIGHT END RENAISSANCE

Last year, Clemson tight ends combined for 26 receptions for 239 yards and no scores in 2019. A year earlier, the Tigers recorded 17 catches for 161 yards and two scores by tight ends in 2018.

With junior tight end Braden Galloway returning in 2020 after playing only in the College Football Playoff a year ago to join a group that included talented sophomore Davis Allen and veteran J.C. Chalk, observers anticipated more influence from the tight ends in the Clemson offense in 2020.

That anticipation became reality in the season opener against Wake Forest when Galloway, Allen and Chalk combined for seven catches for 114 yards and a touchdown.

"When you have a great tight end in there that's a threat down the field, it just creates more matchup problems," Head Coach Dabo Swinney said following the game.

The group's 114 yards at Wake Forest ranked as the third-most receiving yards for the tight end position in a single game under Swinney, eight yards shy of the top mark of 122 against Florida State in 2016. It was the sixth game of at least 100 receiving yards by Clemson tight ends in the Swinney era.

This season could be the most productive season for Clemson tight ends since the 2016 National Championship team featured the play of All-American Jordan Leggett. Clemson tight ends had 797 receiving yards that year, most in the Swinney era, on 52 catches.

The record for receptions for the tight end position under Swinney is 65, in 2011 when the Tigers featured John Mackey Award winner Dwayne Allen.

STRONG OUT OF THE GATES

"Some start fast, some start slow, but the thoroughbred is great at the final pole."

Dabo Swinney used that horse-racing analogy with his team to encourage his team to "run its own race" in 2019. Clemson was strong out of the gates in 2019, outscoring opponents by a 177-34 margin (+143) in the first quarter. Only 26 teams in the country (including Clemson) recorded a plus-143 or better point differential in entire games in 2019.

Clemson's 9.53-point average scoring differential in the first quarter was the second-largest in the country in 2019, contributing significantly to Clemson's second-place finish in overall scoring differential. Clemson defeated the team with the nation's top scoring differential (Ohio State) and suffered its only loss of the season at the hand of the No. 3 team in that category (LSU).

YARDS PER PLAY

Clemson shattered its school record for yards per play in 2018 at 7.35, the program's first time exceeding seven yards per play in a season. That record stood for barely 12 months until Clemson broke it again in 2019 by averaging 7.38 yards per play.

The 497-yard differential was Clemson's biggest since a 545-yard advantage against Kent State on Sept. 2, 2017 and was Clemson's largest yardage differential against an ACC opponent since the conference's founding in 1953, surpassing a 464-yard advantage against Wake Forest in 2000. Clemson added another dominant performance one week later with a 446-yard margin against Wofford, resulting in the 2019 campaign producing two of the school's nine largest

650-POINT SEASONS

Clemson scored 659 points in 2019, concluding the season only five points shy of tying the school record of 664 set in 2018. Clemson is responsible for two of the 22 650-point seasons in major college football history and two of only 16 since Division I split in 1978. Clemson was the first school with back-to-back 650-point seasons since Yale in 1888-89, predating the start of official NCAA recordkeeping in 1937 and the second year of which was coincidentally the year Clemson was founded.

THE CFP ERA'S DOMINANT DEFENSE

Since the advent of the College Football Playoff in 2014, Clemson has routinely produced one of the nation's elite defenses.

Clemson has ranked in the Top 10 in the country in total defense in each of the last six seasons and has ranked among the Top 10 in scoring defense in four of those campaigns.

BACKFIELD INVADERS

Clemson's defense calls Death Valley home but might as well file for dual residency in opponents' backfields. Since Brent Venables took over as Clemson's defensive coordinator in 2012, Clemson leads the nation in both sacks and tackles for loss, and has led the country in tackles for loss in five of the last eight seasons.

Clemson's success sacking quarterbacks has not been limited to a handful of high-production players but is instead indicative of team-wide success. In the College Football Playoff era (since 2014), 71 different Clemson players have recorded at least half a sack. Nine of those players reached double-digit career sacks (Clelin Ferrell, 27.0; Austin Bryant, 20.5; Shaq Lawson, 16.0; Christian Wilkins, 16.0; Carlos Watkins, 14.0; Kevin Dodd, 12.0; Vic Beasley, 12.0; Isaiah Simmons, 10.5; Dexter Lawrence, 10.5).

Clemson's 13 sacks this season rank tied for second in the country, trailing Pitt, who had played one more game than Clemson to date.

WELCOME TO THE SHOW

Clemson entered its 2020 season opener against Wake Forest missing two presumptive preseason starters at defensive end in Justin Foster and Xavier Thomas, perhaps leaving the uninitiated to wonder from where Clemson's pass rush might come.

America, meet true freshmen Myles Murphy and Bryan Bresee.

Bresee joined Clemson as the consensus No. 1 player in America for the class of 2020. Murphy joined the Tigers as ESPN.com's third-ranked player in the class. Both made an immediate impact in their collegiate debuts.

It had been five years since a Clemson true freshman had recorded a sack in a season opener, when Dexter Lawrence and Tre Lamar each did so in the 2016 season opener at Auburn. Both Murphy and Bresee got on the stat sheet in the opener against Wake, with Murphy compiling two sacks among a team-high seven tackles and Bresee adding half a sack and the Tigers' first blocked field goal since Week 2 of 2018.

With two sacks in the opener, Murphy was already halfway toward entering the Top 5 in Clemson history in sacks by a first-year freshman. Bresee is a half-sack behind him at 1.5 through three games.

TAKEAWAYS, NO GIVEAWAYS

Clemson emphasizes the importance of turnover margin every week on what it dubs "TANOGA Tuesday," standing for "TakeAways, NO GiveAways."

Clemson was treading water in that respect early in 2019, creating 12 takeaways but turning the ball over 11 times in the first half of the regular season. But Clemson's ball security improved drastically in the season's second half and in the postseason, as the Tigers finished the season turning the ball over only twice in its final eight games. Clemson had six games with zero giveaways in 2019, a school record, surpassing the five turnover-free games in 1988, 1994, 2007 and 2018.

Clemson finished the year with 15 giveaways on the season, tied for the eighth-fewest in school history.

Clemson's 1.0 per-game average in giveaways ranked third in school history, behind only the 1940 and 2007 seasons.

Defensively, Clemson's 30 takeaways tied with the 2009 and 2013 squads for the school's most under Head Coach Dabo Swinney. The 2019 Tigers won the turnover margin 11 times, the most under Swinney.

Clemson plus-15 margin in turnovers tied with the 1989 team for the ninth-best mark in school history, and at +1.00 per game, Clemson finished eighth in the country in turnover margin per game, the program's first time ranking in the Top 10 in the category since 2007 (+1.00, ninth). By total margin rather than by per-game margin, Clemson finished tied for sixth in the country in 2019.

POINTS OFF TURNOVERS

Clemson's offense and defense have both been dominant in possessions following turnovers since the 2018 ACC Championship game. Since that time, the Tigers hold a 196-28 advantage against opponents in points off turnovers

Clemson outscored opponents off turnovers, 134-21, in 2019, and its +7.53-point-per-game differential off turnovers ranked third in the country.

CLOSE-GAME SUCCESS

Though Clemson has not played a large number of one-possession games in recent years, the Tigers have proven very adept at winning such contests since 2011. In that span, the Tigers have played 30 games with a final margin of eight points or less, and Clemson's .867 winning percentage in those one-possession contests is the best in the country in that time frame.

Clemson's win against Ohio State in the Fiesta Bowl last season pitted the nation's top two teams in one-score games since 2011 against one another in a win-or-go-home one-possession game. With the six-point win, Clemson improved to 26-4 in one-score games in that span, reaching the mark against a Buckeye squad that entered the game with a .735 winning percentage since 2011 in one-score games.

OWNING THE "MIDDLE EIGHT"

During its current run of five consecutive College Football Playoff appearances dating to 2015, Clemson has frequently won one of the hidden "games within the game."

SportSource Analytics tracks the "Middle Eight," the section of the game defined as the final four minutes of the first half and the first four minutes of the second half. Clemson has outscored opponents in that time window 48 times since 2015, posting a 47-1 record in those contests.

Clemson was historically strong in that category in 2018, outscoring opponents 132-10 in the middle eight, an average margin of +8.1 points per game. That per-game differential was the largest by any program in the country since 2013. Clemson outscored opponents in the Middle Eight 10 times in 2019, posting a 108-24 advantage in that time window.

Clemson recorded a critical middle eight performance in its 2019 Fiesta Bowl win against Ohio State. Trailing 16-0 prior to the final four minutes of the first half, Clemson scored 14 points in the half's waning minutes to pull the halftime deficit to two. The 14-point momentum swing in that span helped Clemson to victory in the fifth-largest comeback in school history.

ALL-CONFERENCE O-LINEMEN

As Clemson climbed into the elite echelon of college football programs during the last decade, observers posited that Clemson's rise coincided with the rapid ascent of its offensive line play.

During Clemson's five-year run of College Football Playoff appearances from 2015-19, the Tigers produced a total of 22 All-ACC selections along the offensive line, including 10 first-team honors. Clemson's 22 all-conference selections by offensive linemen are the most of any Power Five program, and its 10 first-team selections are tied with Oklahoma for the most in that span.

PASS PROTECTION

Clemson's protection for quarterback Trevor Lawrence has taken on an almost-mythical quality in recent years, according to Syracuse Head Coach Dino Babers, whose own prolific defensive line was held without a sack against Clemson in 2019.

"[It's like] Game of Thrones. He's got a castle, he's got a moat, he's got some dragons. That dude's protected." Babers said.

The standard remains high for Clemson's 2020 unit, which features four new starters. Last year, led by four seniors, Clemson's 2019 offensive line was named as a Joe Moore Award semifinalist, and its metrics compared favorably to the four lines that went on to be named as finalists, including the LSU squad that earned the award and helped lead the Bayou Bengals to a national championship.

Though Clemson's 2020 offensive line features four new starters from 2019, the unit does not lack experience among its starting five. Clemson's four new starters — Matt Bockhorst, Cade Stewart, Will Putnam and Jordan McFadden — entered the 2020 season with 1,821 combined offensive snaps in their careers as a function of Clemson's philosophy of developing its depth by furnishing playing time for reserves whenever possible.

Swinney was effusive in his praise of his starting offensive line's performance in Week 1, describing it to his team as "poetry in motion" and "as good of an offensive line performance as we've had in my time here."

"Our offensive line, I'm telling you, that first group – I don't think I've ever had so much fun watching and grading the tape," Swinney said of the line's performance against Wake Forest. "It was just awesome to watch those guys play... They do a lot of moving, and we just handled it so well. That set the tone for everything."

TRENCH WARFARE

Clemson's success in its 32-1 run since 2018 has been powered in part at the line of scrimmage, where Clemson holds a 114-41 edge over opponents in sacks in that time frame, including a 13-6 edge this season. Clemson's +73 margin in sacks since 2018 is by far the top differential in the country, as no other program can boast a sack differential greater than +55 since 2018.

300 OR FEWER YARDS

Clemson opened the 2019 season by keeping each of their first 12 opponents to fewer than 300 yards, marking the first time in ESPN Stats & Info searchable data going back to 1996 that a team had held the first 12 opponents of a season under that mark. ACC Coastal Division champion Virginia became the first team to hit the 300-yard plateau on Clemson, accounting for 387 in the ACC Championship Game.

20 OR FEWER POINTS

Prior to surrendering 23 points in the Fiesta Bowl, Clemson had not surrendered more than 20 points since the 2018 regular season finale and had held 16 consecutive opponents to 20 or fewer points. A defensive streak of that length had not occurred at Clemson in 79 years, when Hall of Fame coaches Jess Neely and Frank Howard combined for a 31-game streak across the 1937-40 seasons

Prior to the 16-game streak in 2018-19, there had been only four streaks of 15 or more such games in Clemson history. All four came in a vastly different era not just for college football, but for Clemson University as well. At the time of all four previous streaks, Clemson was an all-male, military institution still operating as Clemson Agricultural College before becoming known as Clemson University in 1964.

STOPPING THE RUN

Clemson has held opponents to 2.0 or fewer yards per carry in 22 games in the College Football Playoff era (since 2014), the second-most in the country. Clemson is 21-1 in those contests.

Clemson opened 2020 with two such performances. Clemson allowed only $1.1\ \text{yards}$ per carry in its season opener against Wake Forest and then held The Citadel to $1.8\ \text{yards}$ per carry, representing the team's first time holding consecutive opponents to $2.0\ \text{yards}$ per carry or fewer since games $2-3\ \text{last}$ season against Texas A&M and Syracuse.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

Clemson has matched its on-field success in recent years with national acclaim for its success in the classroom. Of note:

- Clemson set a program record in APR in the NCAA's most recent figures released in May 2020, recording a multi-year APR score of 993 for the 2018-19 academic year. The performance marked the third straight year Clemson broke its program record in the metric after breaking its 992 from 2017-18, which had broken its 987 mark from 2016-17.
- Clemson's 993 multi-year APR ranked fourth in the Power Five and fifth among FBS programs, trailing only Washington (999), Ole Miss (997), Northwestern (995) and Air Force (995). That metric covered a four-year span in which Clemson matched its off-field success with on-field accolades that included a 55-4 record, four College Football Playoff appearances and two national championships.
- The NCAA recognized Clemson with its annual APR Public Recognition Award, which is bestowed upon programs ranking in the Top 10 percent of their respective sports. Only 37 of the 130 FBS programs have earned at least one APR recognition since the 2009-10 academic year. Only 30 of them have earned it multiple times. Clemson, Duke and Northwestern programs are the only ones to earn the award nine or more times in that 10-year span.
- Clemson is one of only six FBS programs with an active streak of having earned an APR Public Recognition Award in each of the last three academic years, a group that also includes Air Force, Boston College, Navy, Northwestern and Washington.
- With its most recent award for the 2018-19 academic year, Clemson is now the only FBS program since the NCAA created the APR metric in 2003 to win a national championship and an APR Public Recognition Award in the same year multiple times. Alabama is the only other school to accomplish the title/APR double in a single year once (2011-12 academic year).

In addition to the APR honors, in November 2019, the AFCA announced that Clemson had repeated as Academic Achievement Award winners, making Clemson the only school in the country to earn the award across both of the 2018-19 seasons. Clemson had earned the award a year earlier as well in the midst of major college football's first 15-0 season since 1897.

ACC: WE DO THIS

Entering the 2020 season, the ACC was tied for the most football national titles of any conference since 2013 (three of the last seven). The conference has had a team in either the College Football Playoff or the BCS National Championship Game in each of the past seven years.

No conference produced more bowl teams in 2019 than the ACC, which placed 10 of its 14 members in bowl games. With the selection of 10 teams in 2019, the ACC has had 42 bowl teams in the previous four years, including double-digit selections all four years (11 in 2016, 10 in 2017, 11 in 2018 and 10 in 2019).

CLEMSON 37
WAKE FOREST 13

SEPT. 12, 2020
TRUIST FIELD • WINSTON-SALEM, N.C.

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. – A stellar outing by quarterback Trevor Lawrence and a Clemson-record 18th career 100-yard rushing performance by running back Travis Etienne led No. 1 Clemson to a 37-13 victory over Wake Forest in front of only 68 people in the first game under COVID-19 protocols.

Lawrence went 22-of-28 for 351 yards and a touch-down along with two touchdown runs. With 102 yards, Etienne passed Wayne Gallman (17 from 2014-16) for Clemson's career 100-yard rushing games record.

Defensively, Winston-Salem native K.J. Henry recorded the first of Clemson's six sacks on the night. Myles Murphy (2.0) and Bryan Bresee (0.5) each contirbuted sacks, become Clemson's first true freshmen with sacks in a season-opener since 2016.

Lawrence's two rushing touchdowns gave the Tigers a 14-0 first quarter lead, marking his first career game with multiple rushing touchdowns. His first passing touchdown of the season was a 12-yard strike to tight end J.C. Chalk in the second quarter.

A career-long-tying 52-yard B.T. Potter field goal as the first half expired gave Clemson a 27-0 halftime lead. During the game, Potter broke Mark Buchholz's Clemson record for consecutive PATs (88 from 2007-08).

Clemson carried a 37-3 lead into the fourth quarter before surrending the final 10 points. The Tigers played 78 of their 80 available players in the contest.

GA	SEPT. 19, 2020 Memorial Stadium • Clem

CLEMSON, S.C. — No. 1 Clemson won its home opener in front of a socially distanced crowd of 18,609 fans at Memorial Stadium, defeating The Citadel by a score of 49-0. The victory marked Clemson's 31st consecutive regular season win, passing the 2013-15 Florida State Seminoles for the longest such streak in ACC history.

Quarterback Trevor Lawrence went 8-of-9 passing for 168 yards with three passing touchdowns and a rushing touchdown. Freshman quarterback D.J. Uiagalelei added his first two career scores on the ground.

All of Clemson's points came in a 49-point first half, Clemson's most points in the first two quarters of play since scoring 49 against Temple in a 63-9 victory on Oct. 12, 2006.

Clemson's defense held the Bulldogs to just 162 total yards and added a score of its own when linebacker James Skalski returned a fumble 17 yards for the first touchdown of his career. Freshman Myles Murphy added two tackles for loss and forced the fumble that led to the Skalski scoop-and-score.

Wide receiver Frank Ladson Jr. recorded career highs in receptions (three), receiving yards (87) and receiving touchdowns (two)

Clemson produced its first shutout since the 2016 Fiesta Bowl, a 31-0 win against Ohio State. It was Clemson's first regular season shutout since a 54-0 win against Syracuse in 2016. The shutout was Clemson's seventh under Head Coach Dabo Swinney, and its fifth home shutout in his tenure.

VIRGINIA 23 CLEMSON 41 OCT. 3, 2020 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

Clemson's defense picked off Virginia quarterback Brennan Armstrong twice. Nolan Turner recorded the Tigers' first interception of the season in the second quarter, and on the first drive of the second half, Andrew Booth Jr. made a spectacular one-handed interception, the first of his career, in the corner of the end zone.

The Cavaliers answered with a touchdown before Etienne recorded his second score of the game to give Clemson a 34-17 lead. Chez Mellusi added a fourth quarter two-yard rushing touchdown, his first of the season and first since the 2019 ACC Championship against the Cavaliers, to extend the Tiger lead to 41-17 before a late Virginia touchdown brought the final score to 41-23.
