TIGERS RETURN TO DEATH VALLEY FOR OCT. 24 DATE WITH SYRACUSE

Clemson returns home to Death Valley this week for its third of four scheduled home games in the month of October, as the top-ranked Tigers are set to face the Syracuse Orange on Oct. 24. Kickoff at Memorial Stadium is scheduled for noon ET.

Clemson's depth was on display last week, as four different players (including starting punter and emergency quarterback Will Spiers) completed at least two passes and 17 different players caught a pass to contribute to the Tigers' second 500-yard passing day in school history. Clemson's 17 different players recording a reception were its most in a single-game under Dabo Swinney.

MOST DIFFERENT PLAYERS TO RECORD A RECEPTION IN A GAME UNDER DABO SWINNEY

5.	South Carolina State	9/7/13	14
	Charlotte	9/21/19	14
	Georgia Southern	9/15/18	14

This week, running back Travis Etienne will continue his assault on the ACC record book, as he enters Saturday's contest with 4,474 career rushing yards, 128 yards shy of tying (or 129 yards shy of breaking) the ACC's career rushing yardage record held by NC State's Ted Brown (4,602 from 1975-78). Etienne has reached at least 128 yards in a game 10 times in his career, including a memorable 203-yard effort against Syracuse in 2018.

* - ACC contest; Note: Home games in bold

While Clemson's offense continues to garner headlines and accolades, Clemson's defense has produced a pair of suffocating performances in each of the last two weeks. After holding seventh-ranked Miami to nine first downs two weeks ago, Clemson held Georgia Tech to seven first downs last Saturday, marking Clemson's first time holding consecutive opponents to single-digit first downs since the Wake Forest and South Carolina games last November. This week, Clemson will attempt to hold a third consecutive opponent to fewer than 10 first downs for the first time since its 1954 season finale and the first two games of 1955.

The 23-point threshold has been telling for that unit in recent years. Dating to 2010, Clemson has won 85 consecutive games when holding opponents below 23 points. Since 2014, Clemson has held opponents to 22 or fewer points in 67 games, the most in the nation, recording a perfect 67-0 record in those contests.

MEDIA INFORMATION

DABO SWINNEY PRESS CONFERENCE

Head Coach Dabo Swinney holds his weekly press conference each Tuesday at 11 a.m. Out of an abundance of caution with the continued spread of COVID-19, these will be held in a digital capacity indefinitely. Contact Ross Taylor to request a link to access the availability.

COORDINATOR AVAILABILITY

Coordinator availabilities will also be conducted digitally for the immediate future. Offensive Coordinator Tony Elliott will be available on Mondays at 11:45 a.m. on most standard game weeks. Defensive Coordinator Brent Venables will be available on Mondays following Elliott.

STUDENT-ATHLETE INTERVIEWS

The majority of Clemson student-athlete interviews are held each Monday. Contact Ross Taylor and Brian Hennessy each Sunday by 4 p.m. with special requests for the week. Monday availability will typically start at 11 a.m. A few players may also be made available after Swinney's Tuesday press conference. Student-athlete interviews are expected to be conducted digitally on an indefinite basis.

SWINNEY SUNDAY TELECONFERENCE

Head Coach Dabo Swinney will hold a teleconference each Sunday at 6 p.m. Contact Ross Taylor to request access to the call.

GAME CREDENTIALS

Media wishing to apply for credentials to cover Clemson Football games at Memorial Stadium will be asked to apply at www.sportssystem.com/clemson seven days prior to kickoff. Be advised that media capacity is extremely limited under current COVID-19 protocols. Contact Chandler Simpson at mcsimp2@clemson.edu with any questions or concerns.

MEDIA ACCESS

All credentialing decisions, including prioritization of access, are made in accordance with the Clemson University Athletics Media Credential Policy, available at ClemsonTigers.com/mediapolicy. Presently, Clemson is not furnishing on-site media access during the week. Digital access will be granted to outlets who would have met in-person credentialing criteria.

COLLEGE PRESS BOX.COM

Clemson media information will be uploaded to CollegePressBox.com. Access and download weekly game notes, quotes, statistics, media guides, headshots, logos and more for each conference and its member schools. ## WHAT TO WATCH FOR THIS WEEK

- Clemson attempting to open a season 6-0 for the 16th time in school history, joining the 1900, 1928, 1929, 1930, 1948, 1981, 1987, 2000, 2011, 2013, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018 and 2019 seasons. Clemson's current five-year streak of 6-0 starts is the longest active streak in the country.
- Clemson attempting to improve to 7-2 all-time against Syracuse.
- Clemson attempting to remain undefeated at home against Syracuse. A win would improve Clemson to 4-0 against Syracuse at Memorial Stadium.
- Clemson attempting to win a 26th consecutive home game to extend its school record for the longest home winning streak in school history. Of the 119 players on Clemson's 2020 roster, 110 have never experienced a home loss in their Clemson careers. Nine fifth-year seniors on Clemson's 2020 roster were on the 2016 team that recovered from a home loss to Pitt by winning the national championship that season.
- Clemson (25 straight home wins) attempting to take sole possession of the school record for longest home unbeaten streak. Clemson was unbeaten in 25 straight games at Memorial Stadium from 1980-84, posting 23 wins and two ties under Danny Ford in that span.
- Though 2020 is technically being played sans divisions, Clemson attempting to defeat a traditional ACC Atlantic Division opponent for a 16th straight time and for the 36th time in its last 37 opportunities.
- Clemson entering the game having been ranked in the AP Top 25 in every all-time contest against Syracuse, including a Top 3 ranking in seven of its eight most recent matchups with the Orange since 2013, including this year.
- Clemson attempting to win a 27th consecutive game against an ACC opponent, including postseason play. A 27-game winning streak against conference opponents would pull Clemson within one game of the 2012-15 Florida State Seminoles (28) for the second-longest streak in ACC history.
- Clemson entering the game having won 34 consecutive regular season games, the longest such streak in ACC annals. Clemson's last regular season loss came in October 2017 at Syracuse. A 35th consecutive regular season win would tie the 2008-10 Boise State Broncos (35) for the longest such streak in ESPN Stats & Info data back to 2005.
- Clemson attempting to win a 38th consecutive non-bowl game, which would pass the 1992-96 Nebraska Cornhuskers for sole possession of the third-longest streak in the AP Poll era. Clemson has won 37 straight non-bowl games, including 34 regular season games and three conference championship games.
- Clemson attempting to improve to 25-1 in October games in the College Football Playoff era (since 2014).
- Clemson attempting to push its winning streak in Saturday games to 49 to extend the longest Saturday winning streak in FBS history.
- Clemson playing its 20th game all-time while ranked No. 1 in the AP Poll, the 15th-most since the poll's inception in 1936. It will be Dabo Swinney's 19th game coached at No. 1, tying him with Jim Tressel for 17th all-time.
- Clemson attempting to improve to 18-2 all-time when ranked No. 1 by the Associated Press. Clemson has never lost a regular season game as the nation's top-ranked team.
- Clemson entering the game ranked third in the country in scoring offense (48.4 points per game) and fifth in the country in scoring defense (12.0). Clemson is the only team in the country in the Top 5 in both categories. BYU (seventh and eighth, respectively) is - the only other team in the Top 10 in both categories.

- Clemson, which has scored at least 37 points in each of its first five games, trying to open a season with six consecutive games of 37 points or more for the first time in school history.
- Clemson attempting to score 40 points in a fifth-straight game, which would be the second-longest streak in school history behind a six-game streak last season.
- Clemson attempting to score 50 points in consecutive games for the first time since a four-game streak last season against Boston College, Wofford, NC State and Wake Forest. If Clemson were to reach the 60-point mark, it would give Clemson back-to-back 60-point games for the first time in school history.
- Clemson, which has won each of its first five games by at least 18 points, attempting to win each of its first six games of a season by that margin for the first time in school history. Clemson opened the 1929 and 2000 seasons with five straight wins of 18-plus points before each team won its sixth game by a margin of seven points (21-14 over South Carolina in 1929, 34-27 over NC State in 2000).
- Clemson attempting to post back-to-back 600-yard performances for the second time in school history (2018, vs. Boston College and Wofford).
- Clemson attempting to record back-to-back games with 500 or more passing yards for the first time in school history.
- Clemson attempting to produce 7.5 yards or more per play in consecutive games for the first time since a three-game streak against Louisville, Boston College and Wofford last season. Clemson averaged 7.6 yards per play against Georgia Tech last week.
- Clemson attempting to hold a third straight opponent under 4.0 yards per play for the first time since games against The Citadel, South Carolina and Miami (Fla.) in 2017. Clemson held Miami and Georgia Tech to 3.9 and 3.5 yards per play, respectively, in the last two weeks.
- Clemson attempting to hold consecutive opponents under 100 passing yards for the first time since 2018 vs. Georgia Southern and at Georgia Tech. Clemson limited Georgia Tech to 81 passing yards last week.
- Clemson entering the game having allowed opponents to complete only 50 percent or fewer of their passes in four out of the team's five games this season. Clemson's four games this season allowing a completion percentage of 50 percent or less are the most in the country, leading Appalachian State, Louisiana-Monroe, Navy and UAB (three each).
- Clemson attempting to win the turnover margin in four straight games for the first time this season. Clemson had a nine-game streak winning the margin prior to last year's National Championship Game.
- Clemson attempting to produce at least three takeaways in a third straight game for the first time since a four-game streak across the 2008-09 seasons.
- Clemson entering the game having recorded multiple sacks in 27 of its last 28 games, including each of its last 11.
- Clemson attempting to record at least three sacks in an eighth straight game, dating to last season, for the first time since a nine-game streak in 2014.
- Clemson attempting to hold three consecutive opponents to single-digit first downs for the first time since the 1954 season finale and (vs. The Citadel) and the first two games of 1955 (against Presbyterian and Virginia). Since that three-game stretch from 1954-55, Clemson posted two straight games allowing single-digit first downs one time in each of the 1956, 1960, 1962, 1963, 1987, 1990, 1991 and 2018 seasons in addition to the current two-game streak.
- Clemson, which outgained Miami by 340 yards and Georgia Tech by 467 yards, having an opportunity to outgain three consecutive opponents by 300-plus yards for the first time in the modern era.

- Clemson entering the game having rushed for at least 100 yards in each of its last 28 games, Clemson's longest streak since a 61-game streak across the 1987-93 seasons. Clemson has rushed for at least 100 yards in all but one game since the start of the 2018 season, a 91-yard rushing performance against NC State on Oct. 20, 2018.

- Clemson, which possessed the ball for 38:23 against Miami and 35:53 against Georgia Tech, attempting to possess the ball for at least 35 minutes in three consecutive games for the first time under Dabo Swinney and the first time since 1989 against NC State, Wake Forest and North Carolina.

- Tight end Davis Allen attempting to become the first Clemson tight end with a touchdown catch in three consecutive games since Jordan Leggett against Georgia Tech, Louisville and Boston College in 2016.

- Running back Travis Etienne (at least one rushing or receiving touchdown in 40 of his 48 career games) attempting to score a touchdown of any kind in a 41st career game, matching the FBS record held by San Diego State's Donnel Pumphrey from 2013-16. (*NOTE: Entering the 2020 season, the NCAA FBS Record Book listed Florida's Tim Tebow (38 games from 2006-09) and Louisiana Tech's Kenneth Dixon (38 from 2012-15) as the record-holders for most career games scoring a touchdown. Etienne was believed to have broken that record by scoring in a 39th career game against Miami. However, after additional research by ESPN, the NCAA acknowledged an error in its record book and updated it to reflect Pumphrey scoring a touchdown in 41 games from 2013-16.)

- Etienne attempting to record his 20th career 100-yard rushing game to tie NC State's Joe McIntosh and Boston College's AJ Dillon for seventh-most in ACC history. Etienne's 19 100-yard rushing games are already a Clemson record.

- Etienne (4,474) needing 128 rushing yards to tie or 129 rushing yards to break the ACC career rushing record held by NC State's Ted Brown (4,602 from 1975-78).

- Etienne (61) needing one rushing touchdown to enter the Top 10 in FBS history in career rushing touchdowns according to official NCAA records. Etienne is within striking distance of No. 10 Donnel Pumphrey (62), No. 9 Ron Dayne (63) and Nos. 7 Anthony Thompson and Cedric Benson (64 each).

- Etienne (68) needing two touchdowns of any kind to become only the seventh FBS player since 1956 to record 70 career touchdowns.

- Etienne (408) needing 23 points to surpass Duke's Ross Martin (430 from 2012-15) for second on the ACC's career scoring leaderboard. Etienne is already Clemson's all-time leading scorer and the only non-kicker in ACC history with 400 career points.

- Etienne (5,876) needing 124 all-purpose yards to join C.J. Spiller as the only players in ACC history to record 6,000 career all-purpose yards.

- Etienne (4,497) needing three combined rushing and passing yards to become the 12th player in school history to record 4,500 career yards of total offense. Every player ahead of him in school annals recorded at least 3,300 passing yards to help reach that figure; Etienne has 23 career passing yards.

- Etienne (4,497) needing 118 combined rushing and passing yards to pass Homer Jordan (4,614) for 11th on Clemson's career leaderboard for total offense.

- Etienne (68) needing one touchdown to pass Woodrow Dantzler (68) for sole possession of fourth on Clemson's all-time leaderboard for career touchdown responsibility. He is already tied for fourth on that list despite not having a passing touchdown to his credit in a category that credits both touchdowns scored and touchdowns thrown.

- Etienne (841) needing 159 receiving yards to reach 1,000 career receiving yards. He would become only the 12th player in FBS history to record at least 4,000 rushing yards and at least 1,000 receiving yards in a career.

- Quarterback Trevor Lawrence (30-1 as a starter) attempting to pull within one win of the school record for wins as a starting quarterback. Rodney Williams, Tajh Boyd and Deshaun Watson are all tied for the school record with 32 wins each.

- Lawrence attempting to join Jameis Winston during his 2013 Heisman Trophy-winning season as the only ACC quarterbacks since 2000 to open a season with six consecutive games with a 150 or better pass efficiency rating. There have been 21 times since 2000 that an FBS quarterback from any conference has opened a season with six straight games with a rating of 150 or better; six of those instances involved that season's Heisman Trophy winner (Sam Bradford in 2008, Winston in 2013, Marcus Mariota in 2014, Baker Mayfield in 2017, Kyler Murray in 2018 and Joe Burrow in 2019).

- Lawrence (226.4 last week) attempting to post consecutive games with a 200 or better pass efficiency rating for the second time in his career (vs. Boston College and Wofford last season).

- Lawrence (15) entering the sixth game of the season three touchdowns shy of the mark for the most passing touchdowns through Clemson's first six games, set by Deshaun Watson (18) in the first six games of 2016.

- Lawrence (95) needing two combined rushing and passing touchdowns to pass Marquise Williams (96) for fifth on the ACC's all-time career leaderboard for touchdown responsibility.

- Lawrence (95) needing five more combined rushing and passing touchdowns to join Tajh Boyd (133), Lamar Jackson (119), Deshaun Watson (116) and Philip Rivers (112) as the only players in ACC history to be responsible for 100 career touchdowns.

- Lawrence, who threw his 17th career touchdown pass of 50 yards or more last week, attempting to record another 50-yard touchdown pass to surpass Tajh Boyd (17) for the most by a Clemson quarterback since 1950.

- Lawrence attempting to become the first player in school history to record back-to-back 400-yard passing games.

- Lawrence attempting to record a second career 400-yard passing game to move into sole possession of third in Clemson history in career 400-yard passing games behind Deshaun Watson (five) and Tajh Boyd (three).

- Lawrence (10) attempting to post his 11th career 300-yard passing game. He, Tajh Boyd (18) and Deshaun Watson (13) are the only players in school history to record double-digit career 300-yard passing games.

- Lawrence attempting to become the second player in Clemson history to record back-to-back games with five passing touchdowns (Tajh Boyd at Wake Forest and at Duke in 2012).

- Lawrence attempting to throw at least three touchdown passes in a fifth straight game for the first time since a school-record eight-game stretch last season.

- Lawrence attempting to record his 19th career game with three or more passing touchdowns. He presently stands at 18 such games, four shy of Tajh Boyd's school record of 22. Clemson is 18-0 when Lawrence throws three touchdown passes.

- Lawrence (9,283) needing 481 combined passing and rushing yards to surpass Charlie Whitehurst (9,763) for third-most career yards of total offense in Clemson history.

- After a 404-yard performance, Lawrence needing 386 yards to break Tajh Boyd's school record for passing yards in a two-game span (789 in 2013).

- Defensive end Myles Murphy (3.5) needing one full sack to pass William Perry (4.0 in 1981), Ricky Sapp (4.0 in 2006) and Shaq Lawson (4.0 in 2013) for third-most sacks by a Clemson true freshman all-time.

- Placekicker B.T. Potter entering the game with four career field goals of 50 yards or more. He is one such field goal one shy of the career school record of five held by Chris Gardocki (1988-90) and Donald Igwebuike (1981-84).

- Potter (115-for-115 for his career) entering the game as Clemson's all-time record-holder for consecutive extra points made.

- Receiver Amari Rodgers attempting to become the first Clemson receiver with back-to-back games with multiple touchdown catches since a three-game streak by Tee Higgins last season against Wake Forest, South eight in regular season play.

The Orange won the first meeting at the 1996 Gator Bowl in Jacksonville following the 1995 season by a 41-0 score. Clemson was ranked 23rd entering the game and was coming off a five-game winning streak to close the season. Syracuse was unranked going into the game, but jumped to 17th in the final USA Today poll with the win quarterbacked by Donovan McNabb.

Clemson has won six of seven meetings since Syracuse joined the ACC in 2013. The Tigers had won four in a row by at least double digits before Syracuse ended the streak with a 27-24 Friday night win over the Tigers at Syracuse in 2017.

Saturday's game will be the ninth consecutive game against Syracuse — every game in the series — in which Clemson has been ranked in the top 25.

LAST GAME VS. SYRACUSE

Clemson 41, Syracuse 6

(Sept. 14, 2019, Syracuse, N.Y.)

SYRACUSE, N.Y. — No. 1 Clemson set a new school record with its 18th consecutive victory, defeating the Syracuse Orange, 41-6, at The Dome in Clemson's first road test of the season. It was a charged atmosphere, representing the third-largest crowd in facility history (50,248) and Syracuse's first home sellout since 1998.

Quarterback Trevor Lawrence completed 22-of-39 passes for a then-career-high 395 yards with three passing touchdowns. His 395 passing yards represented the 11th-highest single game total in school history.

Clemson had two receivers post 100-yard games. Tee Higgins recorded 150 yards on seven receptions, all in the first half, the most by a Tiger in a half since Sammy Watkins' school-record 177-yard first half against Wake Forest in 2012. Amari Rodgers added 121 yards on four catches, including touchdown receptions of 16 and 87 yards.

Clemson led throughout, with Rodgers opening the scoring. Twice, Clemson gifted Syracuse the ball inside Clemson's own 10-yard line following turnovers, but Clemson forced an interception and turnover on downs on the resulting possessions.

Despite the gaudy offensive numbers, the story of the game was Clemson's stout defense, which held Syracuse out of the end zone and helped Clemson outgain Syracuse, 612-187. Clemson finished with 15 tackles for loss, its most in the Dabo Swinney era, including eight sacks, tied for the eighth-most in a game in school history.

Linebacker Isaiah Simmons led Clemson with 11 tackles and a career-high 3.5 tackles for loss including 2.0 sacks, earning ACC Linebacker of the Week, Lott IMPACT Trophy Player of the Week and Walter Camp Defensive Player of the Week.

LAST MEETING IN CLEMSON

Clemson 27, Syracuse 23

(Sept. 29, 2018, Clemson, S.C.)

CLEMSON, S.C. — A Travis Etienne two-yard rushing touchdown with less than a minute left in the game proved to be the difference-maker in the No. 3/2 Clemson Tigers' 27-23 win over the Syracuse Orange at Memorial Stadium. With the win, Clemson remained undefeated at 5-0 on the year en route to a 15-0 national championship season.

Offensively, the ground game powered Clemson and was led by Etienne, who rushed for a then-career-high 203 yards and three touchdowns on 27 carries. Tee Higgins was the Tigers' leading receiver, amassing 53 yards on four catches, including one for 20 yards on a fourth-and-six that kept the game-winning drive alive on a throw from quarterback Chase Brice, who entered in relief of an injured Trevor Lawrence after starting the week as the team's third-string quarterback.

Syracuse converted on two field goal attempts in the first quarter, with the first being from 35 yards to cap the game's first drive, and the second a 51-yarder after the Orange recovered a Tiger fumble just over a minute later. But it was the Tigers who found the end zone first in the last minute of the first quarter on an Etienne one-yard rush, bringing the score to 7-6 at the end of the first 15 minutes.

Eric Dungey scored Syracuse's first touchdown on a one-yard rush midway through the second quarter, and Andre Szmyt made his third field goal of the game, this one from 32 yards, with less than 30 seconds left in the half to bring the score to 16-7 in favor of the Orange at the break.

Greg Huegel then converted on two field goal attempts for Clemson, one from 43 yards and one from 37 yards, to cut the Syracuse lead to three points late in the third quarter.

The Orange regained a 10-point advantage early in the final quarter on another Dungey one-yard run, but Etienne broke free for a 26-yard scoring rush on the ensuing drive to bring the lead back to three points. It was Etienne again who scored the game-winning touchdown on a two-yard run with 41 seconds remaining in the matchup.

-- NOTES FROM LAST GAME --

POSTGAME NOTES VS. GEORGIA TECH

- Clemson's 66-point victory margin is the largest in a game between two ACC teams since the conference's inception in 1953. It is tied for the ninth-largest victory margin by an ACC team against any opponent in conference history.

- The 66-point victory margin ties for Clemson's seventh-largest in school history and its largest since a 66-point win against South Carolina State in 2014. It's Clemson's second-largest win all-time against a school presently in the Football Bowl Subdivision, trailing only a 73-0 victory against Georgia Tech in 1903.

- The 66-point margin represented the largest win by an AP No. 1 team since Oklahoma's 77-0 defeat of Texas A&M in 2003.

NOTES

- Clemson's 73 points tied the 1903 contest for its most against Georgia Tech in a game in series history.
- Clemson's 73 points represent Clemson's third-most against an ACC opponent all-time, trailing its 82-point performance against Wake Forest in 1981 and its 77 points against Louisville in 2018. However, both of those performances came at home, so Saturday's output was the most scored by Clemson in an ACC road game all-time, passing its 63 at Wake Forest in 2018.
- Clemson reached the 70-point mark for the 10th time in school history. The 73 points are tied for the seventh-most in a game in school history.
- Clemson's 73 points tied for Clemson's second-most points in a road game in school history, trailing its 94 against Furman in 1915 and matching its 73 at Georgia Tech in 1903.
- Clemson opened the game with a modern-era school-record 52 points in the first half. Clemson's previous high against an ACC opponent in a first half was 49 in its opening two frames against Wake Forest in its national championship campaign in 1981.
- Clemson produced 473 yards in the first half, only 14 yards shy of the school record for yards in a half (487 vs. Duke in 2012).
- Clemson has now scored at least 37 points in each of its first five games, opening a season with five consecutive games of 37 points or more for the first time in school history.
- Clemson has now won each of its first five games of a season by at least 18 points for the third time in school history, joining the 1929 and 2000 seasons. It is the third time since 2000 that an ACC team has opened a season with five straight wins of 18 points or more, joining the 2000 Tigers and the 2004 Virginia Cavaliers.
- Clemson tied a school record for points in a quarter with 35 in the second quarter, matching its second quarter against Wake Forest in 1981 and its third quarter against North Carolina in 2011.
- Clemson gained 671 total yards, ninth-most in school history and its most since a 702-yard effort against Wofford last season. The 671 yards are Clemson's most against Georgia Tech all-time, surpassing its 632 yards against Georgia Tech last season.
- Clemson threw seven passing touchdowns, breaking the school record of six set previously against Central Michigan in 2007, against Duke in 2012, against North Carolina in 2014 and against South Carolina in 2016.
- Clemson finished with 500 passing yards, its second-most in a single game all-time behind its record 580 passing yards against Pitt in 2016. The total represents Clemson's most passing yards in a victory and its most passing yards in a road game in school history. Clemson completed passes to 17 different receivers in reaching that total.

- Playing roughly 40 miles from his hometown of Cartersville, Ga., quarterback Trevor Lawrence completed 24-of-32 passes with career highs in passing yards (404) and passing touchdowns (five).
- Lawrence improved to 30-1 as a starter, joining Rodney Williams, Tajh Boyd and Deshaun Watson as the only quarterbacks in school history to win at least 30 games as a starting quarterback. Williams, Boyd and Watson are all tied for the school record with 32 wins each.
- The game was Lawrence's first career 400-yard passing game and the 10th by a Clemson quarterback all-time. He is the fourth Clemson quarterback to accomplish the feat, joining Deshaun Watson (five), Tajh Boyd (three) and Charlie Whitehurst (one).
- Lawrence produced the first game with at least five passing touchdowns by a Clemson quarterback since Deshaun Watson's six-touchdown performance against South Carolina in 2016.
- With his fourth touchdown pass of the game, Lawrence (81) passed Chris Weinke (79) for fourth-most career passing touchdowns in ACC history. He joins Tajh Boyd, Philip Rivers and Deshaun Watson as the only players in ACC history with at least 80 career passing touchdowns.
- Lawrence (95) also passed Russell Wilson and Eric Dungey (93 each) for sixth on the ACC's all-time career leaderboard for touchdown responsibility.
- Lawrence has now thrown at least three touchdown passes in four straight games for the first time since a school-record eight-game stretch last season.
- Lawrence recorded his 18th career game with three or more passing touchdowns, four shy of Tajh Boyd's school record of 22. Clemson is now 18-0 when Lawrence throws three touchdown passes.
- Including his 410 combined rushing and passing yards in the game, Lawrence (9,283) became the fourth player in Clemson history to record 9,000 career yards of total offense, joining Tajh Boyd, Deshaun Watson and Charlie Whitehurst.
- Lawrence threw an interception on his 12th pass attempt of the game, ending a streak of 366 consecutive passes without an interception, the second-longest streak in ACC history. The streak concluded 13 pass attempts shy of matching the ACC record held by NC State's Russell Wilson (379 from 2008-09). With 2020 being a leap year, Lawrence went 364 calendar days between interceptions dating to his last pick at Louisville on Oct. 19, 2019.
- Lawrence finished the first half having completed 22-of-27 passes for 391 yards with five touchdowns. It was a Clemson first-half record and the first 300-yard first half by a passer since Deshaun Watson threw for 331 yards in the first two quarters vs. Pitt in 2016. His 391-yard first half alone would have ranked as the 13th-highest total in a full game in school history.

- Lawrence's five passing touchdowns in the first half tied a school record, matching Tajh Boyd, who accomplished the feat against Wake Forest and in 2012 and against The Citadel in 2013.
- Lawrence became the first ACC quarterback to throw for more than 375 yards in a first half since North Carolina's Marquise Williams (404 against Duke in 2015).
- Lawrence posted his 10th career 300-yard passing game to join Tajh Boyd (18) and Deshaun Watson (13) as the only players in school history to record double-digit career 300-yard passing games.
- Lawrence finished the game with a 226.4 passer rating and became only the fifth ACC quarterback since 2000 to open a season with five consecutive games with a 150 or better pass efficiency rating, joining Georgia Tech's Tevin Washington (2011), Florida State's E.J. Manuel (2012) and Jameis Winston (2013), and NC State's Jacoby Brissett (2014).
- Lawrence's 404 yards were the most by a Clemson quarterback against Georgia Tech all-time, passing Tajh Boyd's 397-yard game against the Yellow Jackets in 2012.
- Running back Travis Etienne rushed 11 times for 44 yards with a rushing touchdown and caught two passes for 29 yards.
- On a three-yard second-quarter touchdown, Etienne (408) broke placekicker Chandler Catanzaro's school record of 404 career points from 2010-13 to become the program's all-time leading scorer.
- Etienne (408) passed Michael Badgley (403 from 2014-17) and Joey Slye (403 from 2014-17), Chandler Catanzaro (404 from 2010-13) and Roberto Aguayo (405 from 2013-15) for third on the ACC's career scoring leaderboard. Etienne was already the only non-kicker in ACC history with 400 career points.
- Etienne has now scored a touchdown in 40 of his 48 career games.
- During the game, Etienne (4,474) passed Florida State's Dalvin Cook (4,464 from 2014-16) for the second-most career rushing yards in ACC history.
- With 73 all-purpose yards, Etienne (5,876) passed Leon Johnson of North Carolina (5,828 from 1993-96) for second on the ACC's all-time career all-purpose yardage leaderboard.
- Etienne lost a fumble on his second carry of the game. It was his first lost fumble since Sept. 28, 2019 at North Carolina. He totaled 206 rushing attempts (and 230 total touches) between those two lost fumbles.
- Wide receiver Cornell Powell recorded his fourth career touchdown reception on a five-yard pass from Lawrence in the first quarter. It was his first touchdown of the season and his first since Oct. 19, 2019 at Louisville.
- Wide receiver Amari Rodgers posted his third career 100-yard receiving game, finishing with a career-high 161 yards on six receptions (121 vs. Syracuse in 2019; 156 vs. FSU in 2018).

- Rodgers recorded his 12th career touchdown, his fourth of the season, on an 83-yard touchdown reception from Lawrence in the first quarter. The reception was Clemson's longest of the season and the second-longest between the Lawrence-Rodgers connection all-time, joining an 87-yard touchdown between the two at Syracuse last season.

- Rodgers added his 13th career touchdown in the second quarter, his second multi-touchdown game of the season and the fourth of his career.

- Playing roughly an hour from his hometown of Calhoun, Ga., tight end Davis Allen scored his second career touchdown and his second in as many weeks on a 34-yard touchdown pass from Lawrence in the second quarter.

- Allen became the first Clemson tight end with a touchdown catch in consecutive games since Jordan Leggett against South Carolina and Virginia Tech in 2016.

- Wide receiver Frank Ladson Jr. recorded his third touchdown reception of the season in the second quarter.

- Running back Chez Mellusi scored his second touchdown of the season in the third quarter.

- Running back Kobe Pace, a native of Cedartown, Ga., scored his first career touchdown on a seven-yard pass in the fourth quarter. It came on the first passing career touchdown for quarterback Hunter Helms.

- Helms threw his second passing touchdown of the day on a 35-yard pass to wide receiver Ajou Ajou. It was Ajou's first career touchdown and represented Clemson's record-breaking seventh passing touchdown of the day as a team.

- Between Lawrence (five) and Helms (two), Clemson had multiple quarterbacks throw multiple touchdown passes in a single game for the first time since the 2018 Louisville game (Lawrence and Chase Brice).

- Defensive tackle Nyles Pinckney scored on a one-yard touchdown run in the second quarter. It was Clemson's fourth offensive "big man touchdown" by an offensive or defensive lineman since 2018, joining touchdown runs by defensive linemen Christian Wilkins (at Florida State in 2018) and Dexter Lawrence (vs. Louisville in 2018) and offensive lineman John Simpson (at NC State in 2019).

- Defensive end Myles Murphy, a native of Marietta, Ga., recorded a sack on Georgia Tech's second possession, recording his second career forced fumble on the play.

- Cornerback Andrew Booth Jr., a native of Dacula, Ga., recorded his first career sack in the contest.

- Defensive tackle Tyler Davis recorded his first sack of the season in the second quarter. Linebacker Jake Venables also added a sack in the second half.

- Defensive end K.J. Henry recorded his first fumble recovery of the season in the first quarter. It was his second career fumble recovery, joining one he produced in his collegiate debut vs. Furman in 2018.

- Defensive end Justin Mascoll, a native of Snellville, Ga., recorded his first career fumble recovery in the third quarter.

- Safety Nolan Turner recorded his second interception of the season in the second quarter. It was his fifth career interception.

- On his first PAT of the game, PK B.T. Potter passed Bob Paulling (107 from 1979-83) for fourth on Clemson's leaderboard for career PATs.

- After a stat correction, Clemson finished with four sacks and has now recorded multiple sacks in 27 of its last 28 games, including each of its last 11. Georgia Tech entered the game having allowed only two sacks in four previous games this season.

- Clemson recorded at least three sacks in a seventh straight game, dating to last season, for the first time since a seven-game streak across games 8-14 of the 2018 season.

- Clemson finished plus-one in the turnover margin and has now won the turnover margin in three straight games for the first time this season.

- Clemson's streak of games with only one or fewer giveaways ended at 12 games when Clemson turned the ball over for the second time in the first half. Clemson's 12-game streak with one giveaway or fewer was the program's longest in the last 20 years.

- After holding Miami to nine first downs last week, Clemson held Georgia Tech to seven first downs and has now held consecutive opponents to single-digit first downs for the first time since the Wake Forest and South Carolina games last November.

- Clemson held Georgia Tech to 2-of-14 on third downs. The 14.3 percent average allowed on third downs was Clemson's best performance in the category since last year's Boston College game (13.3 percent).

- Clemson outgained Georgia Tech, 671-204, and after outgaining Miami by 340 yards last week, has now outgained consecutive ACC opponents by 300-plus yards for the first time since the Louisville and Boston College games in 2018.

- Clemson outgained Georgia Tech by 467 yards, tied for the fifth-largest yardage differential in a game since 1953. It is Clemson's second-largest yardage margin against an ACC opponent all-time, trailing only a 497-yard yardage differential against Boston College last season.

- Clemson has outgained Georgia Tech, 1303-498 (plus-805), in its last two meetings.

- Clemson, which possessed the ball for 38:23 against Miami last week, held the ball for 35:53 against Georgia Tech and has now possessed the ball for at least 35 minutes in consecutive games for the first time since back-to-back postseason games against North Carolina (38:56) and Oklahoma (35:15) in 2015.

- Clemson played its 19th game all-time while ranked No. 1 in the AP Poll, the 15th-most since the poll's inception in 1936. It was Dabo Swinney's 18th game coached at No. 1, tying him with Steve Spurrier for 18th all-time.

- Captains for the contest were offensive lineman Matt Bockhorst, running back Darien Rencher, linebacker James Skalski and linebacker Baylon Spector.

WITH THE WIN...

- Clemson earned its 33rd all-time victory against Georgia Tech. Georgia Tech is one of 11 schools against whom Clemson has earned at least 30 all-time victories (South Carolina, Wake Forest, North Carolina State, Furman, Virginia, North Carolina, Duke, Maryland, Presbyterian and The Citadel). It marks the second time this season Clemson has earned its 33rd all-time win against an opponent after having moved to 33-5-1 all-time against The Citadel earlier this year.

- Clemson won its sixth consecutive game against Georgia Tech, dating back to a 43-24 home win in 2015. It extended Clemson's longest winning streak in the all-time series, as the current streak already surpassed four-game winning streaks across the 1898-1903 seasons and the 1993-96 campaigns.

- Clemson won a third straight road game at Georgia Tech for the first time in series history. Clemson had won consecutive games at Georgia Tech five times in school history (1902-03, 1906-07, 1986-88, 2001-03, 2016-18) but had previously never beaten the Yellow Jackets three consecutive times on the road.

- Clemson recorded its 15th all-time road win against Georgia Tech.

- Head Coach Dabo Swinney secured his 135th career win as a head coach to pass Virginia's George Welsh (134) for the second-most career wins by an ACC head coach. At the time of his retirement following the 2000 season, Welsh was the winningest head coach in ACC history prior to being passed by Bobby Bowden.

- Swinney improved to 9-5 all-time against Georgia Tech, including postseason play. He became the first Clemson head coach ever to defeat Georgia Tech in Atlanta three times.

- Swinney improved to 12-6 as a head coach all-time in games against schools from the state of Georgia. He now has a 9-5 mark against Georgia Tech, a 1-1 record against Georgia and a 1-0 mark against both Georgia State and Georgia Southern.

- Clemson earned its 14th consecutive victory in true road games, extending its current school record.

- Though 2020 is technically a divisionless season, Clemson improved to 31-8 against opponents historically from the ACC Coastal Division, including postseason play, under Head Coach Dabo Swinney. Clemson has now won 17 of its last 18 games against the Coastal Division since 2015.

- Clemson pushed its streak of consecutive victories in games that would typically count as ACC interdivisional matchups to 13 games, dating back to the 2016 ACC Championship Game.

- Clemson won its 26th consecutive game against an ACC opponent, including postseason play. The 26-game winning streak against conference opponents pulls Clemson within two games of the 2012-15 Florida State Seminoles for the second-longest streak in ACC history.

- Clemson has now won 34 consecutive regular season games, the longest such streak in ACC annals and the second-longest FBS streak since 2005. Clemson's last regular season loss came in October 2017 at Syracuse.

- Clemson won a 37th consecutive non-bowl game, tying the 1992-96 Nebraska Cornhuskers for the third-longest streak in the AP Poll era. Clemson has won 34 regular season games and three conference championship games in that span.

- Clemson improved to 24-1 in October games in the College Football Playoff era (since 2014).

- Clemson pushed its winning streak in Saturday games to 48 to extend the longest Saturday winning streak in FBS history.

- Clemson improved to 17-2 all-time when ranked No. 1 by the Associated Press. Clemson has never lost a regular season game as the nation's top-ranked team.

ON THIS DATE (OCT. 24)

- Oct. 24, 1940 - Frank Howard won his first game as head coach in the rivalry with South Carolina. The Tigers were victorious, 21-13, thanks to five interceptions by the Tiger defense. Howard coached in 30 Clemson-South Carolina games. Incredible as it may seem, both Clemson and South Carolina scored exactly 411 total points in those 30 games.

- Oct. 24, 1946 - The Clemson vs. South Carolina game was played under unusual circumstances. Counterfeit tickets had been printed and 10,000 more people than the capacity showed up for the game. Fans stormed the gates and stood on the sidelines, even on the field at the opposite end of the field when the game action was taking place. Coach Howard recalled fans standing next to him on the sideline telling him what plays to run. South Carolina won on this bizarre day, 26-14.

- Oct. 24, 2009 - Kyle Parker hit Jacoby Ford on a 26-yard touchdown pass on third-and-11 in overtime to lift Clemson to a 40-37 overtime victory at No. 8 Miami (Fla.). It tied for the highest-ranked team Clemson defeated on the road in school history. C.J. Spiller, playing in front of his father for the first time as a Tiger, gained 310 all-purpose yards to establish a school record. DeAndre McDaniel was named national defensive player of the week for his two interceptions, including one that he returned 23 yards for a score. There were nine lead changes in the game, as neither team scored twice in a row.

- Oct. 24, 2015 - Clemson tied the program's largest margin of victory against an ACC opponent and gave Miami (Fla.) its worst defeat in history with a 58-0 rout in Sun Life Stadium. The Tigers rushed for over 400 yards in the victory.

- Overall - Clemson is 8-7 all-time in games played on Oct. 24, including a 2-0 mark under Dabo Swinney. Those victories under Swinney came in the Miami games listed above.

MOST WINS SINCE 2015, SECOND-MOST SINCE 2011

Clemson's recent success has been particularly pronounced in the midst of Clemson's five-year streak of College Football Playoff appearances since 2015. Clemson leads Alabama for the most wins in the country in that span, while those two teams have each earned two national championships in that time frame.

MOST WINS (2015-20)

Rk	School	W	L	Pct.
1.	Clemson	74	5	0.937
2.	Alabama	70	6	0.921
3.	Ohio State	61	7	0.897
4.	Oklahoma	60	12	0.833
5.	Georgia	57	16	0.780

Clemson won 69 games during the 2015-19 seasons, the most in a five-year period in the AP Poll era (since 1936).

MOST WINS IN A FIVE-YEAR SPAN (AP POLL ERA)

Rk	School	Years	Streak
1.	Clemson	2015-19	69
2.	Alabama	2014-18	67
3.	Alabama	2015-19	66
4.	Clemson	2014-18	65

Clemson has a 116-16 record since starting its current stretch of 10-win seasons in 2011. Only Alabama (118-12) has more wins since 2011. The Tigers also have the second-highest winning percentage (.879) in that time frame.

MOST WINS (SINCE 2011)

14-WIN SEASONS

There have been 15 seasons of 14 or more wins since the NCAA split Division I in 1978. Clemson accounts for four of those 14-win seasons, matching Alabama for the most 14-win seasons in that span.

14-WIN SEASONS SINCE 1978

Note: Since NCAA split Division I in 1978

12-WIN SEASONS

Clemson has won at least 12 games in five consecutive seasons, the longest active streak of 12-win seasons and one of only four such streaks in major college football history, joining Alabama (five from 2014-18), Penn (seven from 1892-98) and Yale (five from 1888-92).

STREAKS OF 12-WIN SEASONS (MAJOR COLLEGE FOOTBALL HISTORY)

Rk	School	Years	Streak
1.	Penn	1892-98	7
2.	Clemson	2015-19	5*

5.	Ohio State	2012-15	4
	Boise State	2008-11	4

* - active streak

Even at lower thresholds, Clemson's streak of success would remain impressive. Of the 130 active FBS schools, only 30 programs won at least six games in all five seasons from 2015-19. That number dips to 12 when pushing the win total to eight, and drops all the way to four (Clemson, Alabama, Oklahoma and Ohio State) when setting the bar at 10 wins.

SEASON WIN STREAKS SINCE 2015 (ENTERING 2020)

10-WIN SEASONS

Clemson entered 2020 riding a streak of nine consecutive seasons with 10+ wins. The program's ninth consecutive 10-win season in 2019 made Clemson only the fourth program in FBS history to record at least nine consecutive 10-win seasons, tying the 2001-09 Texas Longhorns for the third-longest streak on record. With another 10-win season in 2020, Clemson would become only the third program in FBS history to produce a "double-double" -- double-digit wins in a double-digit number of consecutive seasons.

The record for consecutive 10-win seasons is 14, set by Florida State (1987-2000). Alabama is the only other program with an active streak of at least nine straight 10-win seasons.

The Tigers have 16 10-win seasons in school history, with more than half coming under head coach Dabo Swinney. The 2019 season was Clemson's sixth with at least 12 wins, with Swinney sitting at the helm for five of them.

2010s IN REVIEW

Head Coach Dabo Swinney can vividly recall the looks he received when he said Clemson was on the cusp of the winningest decade in program history following a 2010 campaign in which the Tigers finished 6-7. In 2017, that vision became a reality with two seasons to spare when Clemson collected its 88th win of the decade in the ACC Championship Game against Miami (Fla.) to surpass the Tigers of the 1980s (87) for most wins in any decade in school history.

With a rivalry win against South Carolina to close the 2018 regular season, Clemson reached triple digits in wins in a decade for the first time in program history. Included below are the schools that have accomplished that feat.

100 WINS BY DECADE

"Transformative," Head Coach Dabo Swinney called the 2010s prior to the 2020 College Football Playoff National Championship Game to conclude the 2019 season. "We've transformed Clemson, and the next decade is the Roaring Twenties. I heard those were great. Hopefully we can relive those."

THE 750 CLUB

With a 45-14 victory against Florida State in October 2019, Clemson recorded its 750th all-time victory, becoming the 15th FBS program (and first ACC program) at the time to reach 750 all-time wins.

SENIORS CHASING HISTORY

Every January, Head Coach Dabo Swinney conducts his first official meeting with his new team. The first order of business in the meeting is to "reset the room," reorganizing the seating arrangement with seniors in front and all succeeding classes in order behind them in the team auditorium.

The 2020 Clemson seniors reached the front of the room having watched each of the two classes in front of them depart as the winningest senior classes in FBS history, tied with the 2018 Alabama seniors at 55 wins in four years. This year's group needs 14 wins in 2020 to follow in that lineage and match that mark.

The 2019 seniors were the second Clemson class and one of only three classes all-time to reach 55 career wins in a four-year span. Clemson's 2019 group reached 55 wins in 58 games, tying the 2018 Alabama seniors as the quickest to that mark.

Clemson's seniors can tie the 2018 and 2019 seniors for the best four-year mark in school, conference and Football Bowl Subdivision history with 14 wins in 2020.

FIVE LEAGUE TITLES IN A ROW

Clemson won its fifth straight ACC championship in 2019, as the Tigers and the Oklahoma Sooners both became the first programs in an active FBS conference since the 1971-75 Alabama Crimson Tide to win five consecutive outright titles.

POWER FIVE CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS (2015-19)

Clemson had already been the first ACC school to win four outright titles in a row prior to extending the streak to five in 2019. Florida State was a champion or co-champion nine years in a row from 1992-2000, but never won more than three outright in a row.

Clemson's success in the conference championship game era is unprecedented, as in 2019, Clemson became the first school since the formation of conference championship games in 1992 to win five consecutive conference title games.

POWER OVER THE POWER FIVE

Early in his head coaching tenure, Dabo Swinney laid out his belief to then-Clemson athletic director Terry Don Phillips that the Tigers needed to add tough non-conference challenges on top of their tests in ACC play to serve as a foundation for the program's growth.

"I had a conversation with Terry Don and said, 'Terry Don, I know we are not very good right now, but we need to play people because that is going to help me teach and help me develop the culture and the mindset that you have to have to win at the highest level,'" recounted Swinney. "I didn't think we had that, and that's what we committed to. That's what we've done."

That scheduling philosophy and culture change has resonated in the Clemson program, and since 2013, no team can claim more wins against Power Five Conference opponents than the Tigers.

NO. 1 FOR NO. 1 RECRUITS

As Clemson was in the midst of the winningest decade in school history and tied for the third-winningest decade in major college football history, Head Coach Dabo Swinney would frequently point out that Clemson accomplished its goals by finding the right fits for its program in recruiting rather than chasing recruiting rankings.

Swinney often noted that Clemson accomplished its immense success in his tenure despite never signing the No. 1 recruiting class in the country. That changed in 2020, when ESPN ranked Clemson's 2020 group as the nation's top recruiting class. Clemson also recorded its highest rankings in both Rivals (No. 2) and 247 Sports (No. 3) history.

Clemson has signed the nation's consensus top player in two out of the last three recruiting cycles, welcoming quarterback Trevor Lawrence in 2018 and defensive tackle Bryan Bresee in 2020.

Clemson is the only team in the country to sign Rivals' No. 1 recruit twice in a three-year span since Dabo Swinney was named head coach at Clemson. Clemson and Alabama (two each) are tied for the most No. 1 recruits signed since 2009 per Rivals' rankings. Clemson and Georgia (two each) are tied for the most in that span per the 247 Composite.

Clemson's recruiting classes have finished in the top 15 of at least one of three primary recruiting services (ESPN, Rivals and 247 Sports) every year since 2011. Clemson is one of only seven schools to produce a Top 15 class in each of the last 10 years, a group that also includes Alabama, Auburn, Georgia, LSU, Notre Dame and Ohio State. After that group, the next longest active streak of Top 15 classes is five (Florida).

ESTEEMED COMPANY

Head Coach Dabo Swinney's run of excellence in his decade-plus at Clemson has placed him in the company of college football legends.

Swinney boasts a career winning percentage of .813, sitting as one of only 13 head coaches in history with at least 10 seasons of FBS head coaching experience to post a mark of .800 or better.

FIVE "FINAL FOURS" FOR SWINNEY

While the term "Final Four" may still be the linguistic property of the men's basketball tournament, since the advent of the four-team College Football Playoff in 2014, Head Coach Dabo Swinney has had Clemson among the sport's final four teams in each of the last five seasons, joining Alabama Head Coach Nick Saban (2014-18 seasons) as the only coaches to make the College Football Playoff five consecutive years. Oklahoma has qualified for four College Football Playoffs in the last five years, one under Bob Stoops and three in a row under current coach Lincoln Riley.

The men's college basketball tournament dates to 1939. In the history of that tournament, only John Wooden of UCLA (nine from 1967-75) and Mike Krzyzewski of Duke (five from 1988-92) coached teams to five consecutive Final Fours.

During Wooden's streak of nine straight Final Fours, he recorded eight championships and a semifinal loss. Coach K's Blue Devils had two championships, a second-place finish and two semifinal losses in their run. Saban's run produced two championships, two runner-up finishes and a semifinal loss in his run from 2014-18, while Swinney so far has two championships, two runner-up finishes and a semifinal loss from 2015-19.

Swinney is 6-3 in College Football Playoff games and that .667 percentage is tied for the best among football coaches who have been in at least three games. When compared to basketball coaches who have been in the Final Four, only three have a better winning percentage than Swinney with a minimum of eight games coached: John Wooden (21-3, .875), Adolph Rupp (9-2, .818) and Bob Knight (7-2, .778).

* - Men's Basketball Final Four or College Football Playoff games

With another "Final Four" appearance by virtue of a College Football Playoff selection in 2020, Swinney would join basketball's John Wooden (nine straight at UCLA from 1968-75) as the only college football or men's basketball coaches to take teams to six consecutive Final Fours in their respective sports.

STAFF CONTINUITY

Clemson has become a beacon of stability in the increasingly unstable environment of college football. Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney is in his 18th overall season at Clemson in 2020, including his 12th full season as head coach (and his 13th including an interim stint in 2008).

Since the start of Swinney's first season as full-time head coach in 2009 through 2019, there had been 392 head coaching tenures in the FBS, but only one such tenure at Clemson. Clemson and Duke are the only schools in the ACC with only one head coach since the start of the 2009 season, and among the 11 schools ever to qualify for the College Football Playoff, only Clemson and Alabama have had only one head coach since 2009.

150+ GAMES COACHED

Head Coach Dabo Swinney coached his 150th game as leader of the Clemson program in the 150-year anniversary season of college football in 2019. He became just the second coach to coach 150 career games at Clemson, joining Hall of Famer Frank Howard, who coached 295 games as Clemson's head coach from 1940-69.

Entering 2020, only eight coaches had coached at least 150 games at schools presently in the Football Bowl Subdivision while achieving an .800 or better mark. Interestingly, Clemson holds a 4-0 combined all-time record against the top three coaches on the list.

On a non-percentage basis, Swinney entered 2020 ranked third in ACC history in career victories leading an ACC program. With his fifth victory of the season against Georgia Tech, Swinney passed Virginia's George Welsh for second all-time. He is also one bowl victory shy of tying Bobby Bowden's record for bowl wins as head coach of an ACC team.

ALL-TIME ACC LEADERS

Since the conference's founding in 1953, no program has won more regular season games in Atlantic Coast Conference play than Clemson. Against Virginia on Oct. 3 this year, Clemson earned its 300th official regular season victory over an ACC opponent, becoming the first program to accomplish the feat.

A FAMILIAR NO. 1

Clemson opened the season at No. 1 atop both polls, marking the program's second straight top preseason ranking. With the top selection in the AP Poll, Clemson became the sixth program since the inception of the preseason poll in 1950 ever to open consecutive preseason polls at No. 1, joining Alabama (2016-18), USC (2004-05), Oklahoma (1985-87, 1974-75, 1956-57), Ohio State (1969-70) and Notre Dame (1953-54).

Seeing Clemson at No. 1 has started to feel familiar in recent years, as 2020 is now the sixth straight year in which Clemson has appeared at No. 1 in at least one AP Poll. Dabo Swinney joined Nick Saban (12) as the only coach in AP Poll history (since 1936) to lead a team to at least one No. 1 ranking in six consecutive years. Clemson joins Alabama (12 from 2008-19) and Miami (seven from 1986-92) as the only programs to appear at No. 1 in at least six consecutive years.

Records reflect results as the AP No. 1, not total games coached

A total of 22 coaches have led the AP's top-ranked team into a game at least 15 times. Sixteen of the 22 coaches on the list are College Football Hall of Famers, and a 17th (Bob Stoops) is on the ballot for 2021. Swinney holds a total of nine career victories over five coaches on the list, including two each over Stoops, Nick Saban, Urban Meyer and Steve Spurrier and one over Bobby Bowden.

CHAMPIONSHIP HERITAGE

After being named Clemson's full-time coach in December of 2008, Head Coach Dabo Swinney set about securing his first signing class in 2009.

His first class, which he tabbed the "Dandy Dozen," brought home Clemson's first ACC title since 1991 during their junior campaign in 2011. All of Clemson's first 11 signing classes under Swinney have at least one ACC title to their credit in their four years at Clemson. Every signing class since 2012 has played for at least one national title, and every class since 2013 has won a national championship with exception of Clemson's 2019 class, which fell just shy in the College Football Playoff National Championship Game last season.

EXCEEDING EXPECTATIONS

Prior to 2019, Clemson equaled or exceeded its postseason AP and USA Today rankings in comparison to its preseason rankings in eight straight seasons. That included quite an accomplishment in both 2016 and 2018, as it finished No. 1 by winning the national championship to exceed the school's No. 2 preseason ranking both times.

Clemson exceeded its USA Today coaches poll preseason ranking eight straight years from 2011-18, the longest such streak in poll history. With regard to Associated Press voting, Clemson exceeded its preseason ranking in the AP poll in seven of the last nine years. The lone exceptions came in 2013, when Clemson was picked No. 8 in the AP preseason poll and finished No. 8, and 2019, when Clemson finished second in the country after opening the season at No. 1.

PLAYOFF STREAK

With five consecutive College Football Playoff appearances, entering 2020, Clemson's active playoff streak is as long or longer than:

- 31 of 32 NFL teams
- 29 of 30 MLB teams
- 28 of 31 NHL teams
- 27 of 30 NBA teams

So, despite only four teams making the College Football Playoff each year, Clemson's playoff streak is as long or longer than 115 of the 123 teams in the four major professional sports.

Included below is a look at the only eight teams in the four major professional leagues with active playoff streaks exceeding Clemson's five:

ROAD WARRIORS

Clemson has won 26 of its last 27 true road games. The Tigers have also earned victories in 41 of their last 45 games away from home overall.

Clemson posted a 5-0 record on the road last season, with four road wins in ACC play plus a road victory against an SEC opponent. Last season, Clemson earned its 12th consecutive road victory in its regular season finale at South Carolina, tying for the longest road winning streak in school history. A win at Wake Forest in the 2020 season opener allowed the current streak to stand alone in the record books.

SATURDAYS ARE FOR THE TIGERS

Clemson has won each of its last 48 Saturday games. Clemson went 12-2 during the 2017 campaign, with its only losses coming on a Friday at Syracuse and a Monday on New Year's Day in the Sugar Bowl, followed by a 15-0 campaign in 2018 and a 14-1 season in 2019 in which its only loss was on a Monday in the College Football Playoff National Championship Game.

You have to travel back to Nov. 12, 2016, a total of 1,442 days prior to this Saturday's contest for Clemson's most recent loss on a Saturday. The Tigers' current streak started following a 2016 loss to Pitt that was preceded by a 21-game Saturday winning streak across the 2014-16 seasons, previously the longest such streak in program history.

Clemson's 48-game Saturday winning streak is the longest winning streak in Saturday games in FBS history, surpassing the 45 straight Saturday tilts Oklahoma won in the midst of its FBS-record 47-game winning streak in the 1950s.

A LOOK BACK: 29 IN A ROW

Clemson's remarkable 29-game winning streak across the 2018-19 seasons represented not only a highwater mark in the history of the program but also one of the most impressive streaks in the history of the sport's highest levels.

Clemson's streak was only the 28th winning streak of 25 or more games in major college football history. It finished tied for the 12th-longest streak all-time and tied for the second-longest since the turn of the century.

Not only was Clemson's 29-game winning streak the longest in the history of Clemson Football, it was the longest in the history of Clemson Athletics in general. Previously, the longest streaks had been a 26-game winning streak by the Tigers' baseball team to open the 1977 season and a 26-match winning streak by the Tigers' men's tennis team from 1968-70. Clemson won its last four men's tennis matches of 1968, all 16 matches in 1969 and the first six matches of 1970.

ALL-ACC HONORS

Clemson's 16 All-ACC selections in 2019 led the conference and double the next-closest program (Wake Forest and Pitt, eight each). Clemson tied for the third-most selections in school history, trailing the program's 18 selections in 2018 and 17 selections in 2015.

Seven of Clemson's 16 All-ACC selections (not counting honorable mentions) returned in 2020, the most in the conference as of the start of spring practice.

ESTABLISHED FIREPOWER

In the past two seasons, the 2018 and 2019 Clemson squads became two of only 21 teams since 2010 to produce a 3,000-yard passer, 1,500-yard rusher and 1,000-yard receiver. By virtue of Trevor Lawrence, Travis Etienne and Tee Higgins each reaching their respective thresholds in 2019, Clemson became the first program this decade to produce a player in all three categories in back-to-back seasons.

Clemson was the only school to produce a 3,000/1,500/1,000-yard passing/rushing/receiving trio in 2019.

CHASING FBS IMMORTALITY

Etienne has scored at least one touchdown rushing or receiving in 40 of his 48 career games.

Entering the season, the NCAA FBS Record Book listed Florida's Tim Tebow (38 games from 2006-09) and Louisiana Tech's Kenneth Dixon (38 from 2012-15) as the record-holders for most career games scoring a touchdown.

Etienne was believed to have broken that record by scoring in a 39th career game against Miami. However, after additional research by ESPN, the NCAA updated its record book to reflect the 41 games in which San Diego State's Donnell Pumphrey scored a touchdown from 2013-16, so Etienne is once again chasing that FBS record, which he can tie with a touchdown this week.

MOST CAREER GAMES SCORING A TOUCHDOWN (FBS HISTORY)

ACC RECORD-HOLDER

With a multitude of Clemson career records in hand, Etienne began his assault of conference records, where he is the all-time ACC leader in rushing touchdowns and total touchdowns and ranks in the Top 5 in yards per carry.

4.	C.J. Spiller	2006-09	Clemson	51
	Ted Brown	1975-78	NC State	51

Presently, Etienne ranks fifth in yards per carry according to conference thresholds in which players qualify by reaching 1,000 career rushing yards. Etienne's average is the best in conference history by any player with at least 200 career carries.

SEASONS WITH 7.0+ PER CARRY

Through his first three seasons, Etienne earned the distinction as the only FBS running back to average at least 7.0 yards per carry on at least 100 carries in three different seasons since 2000. The only other FBS player to accomplish the feat since the turn of the century was Nevada quarterback Colin Kaepernick, who did so from 2008-10.

This season, Etienne will attempt to become the first FBS player since 2000 to reach that average in four different seasons. He opened his career with a 7.2-yard average on 107 carries in 2017, a career-best 8.1-yard average on 204 carries in 2018 and an ACC-leading 7.8-yard average on 207 carries in 2019.

GAMES WITH 10.0+ PER CARRY

Etienne's explosive 2019 season opener resulted in an average of 17.1 yards per carry against Georgia Tech, which at the time was the second-best single-game average of his career (19.1 vs. Louisville in 2018). Against Louisville in mid-October, he ripped off 192 yards on 14 carries for a 13.7-yard average, and in early November, he posted a career-best 23.6-yard average on nine carries for 212 yards against Wofford.

Etienne's 12 career games averaging double-digit yards per carry on at least five attempts exceed Colin Kaepernick's 11 for the most by any FBS player since 2000.

Etienne averaged at least 7.0 yards per carry in each of his first three seasons. Etienne is the only FBS back since 2000 to average 7.0 yards in three different seasons and joins Kaepernick (three years) as the only two FBS players at any position to accomplish the feat.

200-YARD RUSHING GAMES

Etienne recorded a then-career-high 205 yards in Clemson's 2019 season opener against Georgia Tech, the 17th 200-yard rushing game in Clemson history. It was Etienne's second career 200-yard day, tying him with Ray Auger, Terrence Flagler, Raymond Priester and Andre Ellington for the most in school history.

Etienne then went on a record-grabbing spree in November 2019 against Wofford. He posted a career-high 212 yards on only nine carries, becoming the first Clemson player to post three career 200-yard games and joining Terrence Flagler as the only players with multiple 200-yard games in a single season. Etienne set those marks in the same contest in which he rushed for his 48th career touchdown to break James Davis' career record at Clemson.

Etienne's 12 carries against Georgia Tech had been the fewest by any Clemson player in the midst of a 200-yard performance. He undercut that mark with his nine-carry performance against Wofford, becoming only the third FBS player since 2000 to rush for 200 yards on single-digit carries.

HISTORY OF EXPLOSIVENESS

Ten of Etienne's 61 career rushing touchdowns have covered at least 50 yards. His 10 rushing touchdowns of 50-plus yards are the most by a Clemson player in records back to 1950, and his 11 total touchdowns covering that length (including a 53-yard touchdown reception in the Fiesta Bowl) are the second-most in that time frame.

Etienne has three runs of 80 or more yards in his career, surpassing the previous school record held by Derrick Witherspoon and C.J. Spiller (two each).

YARDS AFTER CONTACT

Etienne's breakaway speed tends to dominate highlight reels, but to those who watch him closest including Clemson's coaches, it's his ability to power through contact and maintain his balance that stands as his most remarkable trait.

Since Etienne became Clemson's starter in 2018, Pro Football Focus credits him with 2,235 rushing yards after contact, second-most in that time frame behind Wisconsin's Jonathan Taylor, who averaged 36.9 carries per game in that span to Etienne's 13.7.

AIR ETIENNE

Etienne had a then-career-high 98 receiving yards on three receptions with two touchdowns in Clemson's Fiesta Bowl win in last year's College Football Playoff. The 98 receiving yards were the most by a Clemson running back since C.J. Spiller recorded 104 receiving yards at Miami in 2009 in a 40-37 overtime win. It marked the first time a Clemson running back had two receiving touchdowns in a game since 2010 when Jamie Harper scored two at Auburn.

Then against Virginia in Clemson's third game of 2020, Etienne set a Clemson receiving yardage record for a running back with 114 receiving yards on five receptions. His performance broke Spiller's Clemson running back record of 108 receiving yards, set against Duke in 2008. It was only the fourth 100-yard receiving game by a running back in Clemson history, with all three previous instances recorded by Spiller.

4.	C.J. Spiller	10/24/09	Miami (Fla.)	6-104

After finishing his first two seasons with 17 career receptions for 135 yards and two touchdowns, Etienne was much more involved in the passing game in 2019, recording 37 receptions for 432 yards and four touchdowns. His 432 receiving yards in 2019 ranked as the third-most in a season for a running back in Clemson history, trailing only the 2008 and 2009 production of Spiller, a College Football Hall of Fame nominee. His 37 receptions that season ranked second among Clemson running backs all-time.

A similar performance in the passing game in 2020 could help Etienne join elite company in college football history. Only 11 players in FBS history have finished their careers with at least 4,000 rushing yards and at least 1,000 receiving yards. Etienne has already exceeded the 4,000-yard mark on the ground for his career and entered 2020 with 567 career receiving yards. With 433 receiving yards in 2020, Etienne would become the 12th FBS player all-time to join the 4,000/1,000 club.

TREAD ON THE TIRES

While some observers were surprised by Etienne's decision to return to Clemson in 2020, a projected second-round grade and a desire to complete his degree program made Etienne's call an easy one.

"I just felt like I could come back and improve that grade," Etienne said. "I don't have my degree. Coming back and going second round (in 2021), at least I'd have my degree. Leaving for the second round has never been a dream of mine. I feel like I can do so much better than that. The NFL is going to be there."

Detractors cited the "wear and tear" of another collegiate season as reasons why Etienne would have benefited from turning pro, but the story of Etienne's career usage has been one of immense production in very measured opportunities. In his first three seasons from 2017-19, Etienne averaged only 12.0 carries per game. Even accounting for only his two seasons as a full-time starter, he averaged only 13.7 carries per game from 2018-19.

The difference in the amount of tread left on Etienne's tires, figuratively speaking, to some of the NFL's most recent draft picks at running back is stark. All six running backs selected in the first two rounds of the 2020 NFL Draft were early entrants, and Etienne entered his senior season with fewer career carries than all but two of the six.

Etienne's single-season career high in carries is 207, set in 2019. Even if Etienne were to add another 207 carries in 2020 to his career total from 2017-19, despite using all four years of his eligibility, he would still enter the NFL with 201 fewer carries than Jonathan Taylor's three-year career, 120 fewer carries than AJ Dillon's three-year run and the exact same number as J.K. Dobbins' three-year tenure.

-- NO. 16 QB TREVOR LAWRENCE --

QB WIN STREAKS

After entering his first four career games at Clemson as a reserve, Trevor Lawrence was named Clemson's starting quarterback heading into its game against Syracuse on Sept. 29, 2018. Clemson's victory in that contest was its first with Lawrence as a starter.

Lawrence would go on to guide Clemson to another 24 straight wins as the starting quarterback prior to suffering his first defeat in the College Football Playoff National Championship game to conclude the 2019 season. Per ESPN Stats & Info, Lawrence's 25-game winning streak tied for the sixth-longest by a starting quarterback in major college football history and finished one shy of being the longest such streak to open a career.

RETURNING 4,000-YARD CAREER RUSHERS (FBS HISTORY)

Clemson returned one of the most prolific career passer-rusher duos in college football history in 2020. Trevor Lawrence entered his junior campaign with 6,945 career passing yards, while Travis Etienne entered his senior season with 4,038 career rushing yards. The 2020 Clemson Tigers became only the third team in FBS history to return a 6,000-yard career passer and 4,000-yard career rusher, joining the 2001 Oregon State Beavers and 2018 Washington Huskies.

Per data available via Sports Reference, of the 139 players who have rushed for 4,000 yards all-time prior to 2020, Etienne was one of only 14 to enter his final collegiate season with 4,000 career yards.

INTERCEPTION AVOIDANCE

While mild panic emerged from national observers about Lawrence's eight interceptions early in 2019, Lawrence finished the 2019 season with a school record for consecutive pass attempts without an interception and still in possession of Clemson's career interception rate record. He remains the only qualified passer in school history to throw an interception on fewer than two percent of pass attempts.

Lawrence went 12 straight games without throwing an interception before throwing his first interception in Clemson's fifth game of the 2020 season. His last interception had been on Oct. 19, 2019, 364 calendar days prior to the streak ending at Georgia Tech.

Note: Minimum 100 passing attempts.

As a freshman, Lawrence set a then-single-season Clemson record by closing the 2018 season with 169 consecutive pass attempts without an interception. Lawrence threw an interception on his 13th pass attempt of the 2019 season opener against Georgia Tech, ending a streak of 182 consecutive pass attempts without an interception.

As a sophomore, Lawrence shattered school single-season and multi-season records in that category in 2019. Across the 2019 and 2020 campaigns, he threw a school-record 366 pass attempts without an interception, the second-longest streak in ACC history. In all, he went 364 calendar days between an interception at Louisville on Oct. 19, 2019 and his next interception on Oct. 17, 2020 at Georgia Tech.

ALL-AMERICAN DOUBLE?

If Trevor Lawrence and running back Travis Etienne were to both earn consensus All-American status (first-team honors from three or more of the five NCAA-recognized selectors) following the season, it would mark only the sixth such occurrence in FBS history. Clemson will attempt to become only the third school to produce such a duo, joining Notre Dame (four) and Penn State (one).

air sometimes limits opportunities for Lawrence to accrue some of the passing numbers put up around the country. But even playing in an offense that values balance and for a coach who values spreading playing time throughout the roster, Lawrence has still been able to light up defenses in his career, ranking third on Clemson's all-time leaderboard in 300-yard passing games.

LAWRENCE'S LEGS

Lawrence had a Clemson team-high and career-best 107 rushing yards on 16 carries and scored on a career-long 67-yard run in Clemson's 29-23 win against Ohio State in last year's PlayStation Fiesta Bowl. The 67-yard run was the longest by a Clemson quarterback since Woody Dantzler had a 75-yard scoring run at Virginia in 2000.

Lawrence finished 2019 with 563 rushing yards on 103 carries, an average of 5.47 yards per rush. That rushing average was the best in a season for a Clemson quarterback since transitioning away from single-wing formations in 1953.

KILLER T'S STRIKE IN OPENER

The prolific duo of Trevor and Travis shot out of the starting gate quickly in 2020, with Lawrence producing 351 passing yards and Etienne producing 102 rushing yards in Clemson's season opener at Wake Forest.

The performance represented the 15th time in history that Clemson has produced both a 300-yard passer and a 100-yard rusher in a single game. All 15 instances at Clemson have come since the turn of the century. Twelve have come under Dabo Swinney, including four by the Lawrence/Etienne duo.

It was the seventh time Clemson had a 350-yard passer and a 100-yard rusher in a game.

WELCOME TO THE SHOW

Clemson entered its 2020 season opener against Wake Forest missing two presumptive preseason starters at defensive end in Justin Foster and Xavier Thomas, perhaps leaving the uninitiated to wonder from where Clemson's pass rush might come.

America, meet true freshmen Myles Murphy and Bryan Bresee.

Bresee joined Clemson as the consensus No. 1 player in America for the class of 2020. Murphy joined the Tigers as ESPN.com's third-ranked player in the class. Both made an immediate impact in their collegiate debuts.

It had been five years since a Clemson true freshman had recorded a sack in a season opener, when Dexter Lawrence and Tre Lamar each did so in the 2016 season opener at Auburn. Both Murphy and Bresee got on the stat sheet in the opener against Wake, with Murphy compiling two sacks among a team-high seven tackles and Bresee adding half a sack and the Tigers' first blocked field goal since Week 2 of 2018.

With two sacks in the opener, Murphy was already halfway toward entering the Top 5 in Clemson history in sacks by a first-year freshman. He and Bresee have combined for 5.0 sacks through five games.

THE BRUISE BROTHERS

Behind Clemson's precocious defensive line is a pair of veteran linebackers that are leaving their mark on opponents this year and led Head Coach Dabo Swinney to coin one of college football's top new nicknames: "The Bruise Brothers."

Middle linebacker James Skalski is in his fifth year in the Clemson program. He took a mid-career redshirt in 2018, playing four games including the ACC Championship Game, Cotton Bowl and National Championship Game in what he and others have called "the sweetest gig on the team" that year before becoming a full-time starter in 2019. The physical presence of No. 47 has led Swinney referring to him as "a war daddy" and calling his participation in practices and scrimmages "just unfair."

But Skalski has had a new running mate at the second level of the defense this year, as redshirt junior Baylon Spector has produced superlative performances so far in 2020 including an ACC Linebacker of the Week selection for his play against Virginia on Oct. 3. The first-year starter announced his presence in a reserve role in last year's College Football Playoff when he had two sacks against Ohio State in the Fiesta Bowl.

"[Spector] and Skalski, it's a reflection of how they practice. I'm telling you, every single rep at practice is a game rep to those two guys. They put a ton of work in every week to get themselves ready to play," Swinney said. "I know how hard they've worked. It's the unseen grind. That's a ton of work that they've put in."

"I call them The Bruise Brothers. Those two right there, it's something to watch and it's fun to see."

The duo's success is not merely a function of their physicality and hard work. Defensive Coordinator Brent Venables praised the cerebral nature of their play as well.

"They've developed some really good chemistry together. They're always having side chat conversations when I'm trying to talk with the whole defense and I'm having to correct at practice, and I look over and they're coaching each other. Sometimes that bothers me, I'll be honest, [smiling] but I absolutely love it because it's always about the details of what we're talking about," Venables said. "They're like two coaches, really, out on the field."

300 OR FEWER YARDS

Clemson opened the 2019 season by keeping each of their first 12 opponents to fewer than 300 yards, marking the first time in ESPN Stats & Info searchable data going back to 1996 that a team had held the first 12 opponents of a season under that mark. ACC Coastal Division champion Virginia became the first team to hit the 300-yard plateau on Clemson, accounting for 387 in the ACC Championship Game.

Included below is a look at the most games holding opponents under 300 yards to open a season since 2000.

MOST CONSECUTIVE GAMES HOLDING TEAMS UNDER 300 YARDS TO OPEN A SEASON

Rk	School	Season	Games
1.	Clemson	2019	12
2.	Ohio State	2019	11
3.	Alabama	2011	10

5.	Alabama	2012	8

Note: FBS teams since 2000

Clemson has held opponents under 300 yards of offense 25 times since the start of the 2018 season, the most in the country.

20 OR FEWER POINTS

Prior to surrendering 23 points in the 2019 Fiesta Bowl, Clemson had not surrendered more than 20 points since the 2018 regular season finale and had held 16 consecutive opponents to 20 or fewer points. A defensive streak of that length had not occurred at Clemson in 79 years, when Hall of Fame coaches Jess Neely and Frank Howard combined for a 31-game streak across the 1937-40 seasons.

Prior to the 16-game streak in 2018-19, there had been only four streaks of 15 or more such games in Clemson history. All four came in a vastly different era not just for college football, but for Clemson University as well. At the time of all four previous streaks, Clemson was an all-male, military institution still operating as Clemson Agricultural College before becoming known as Clemson University in 1964.

2.	1937-40	31
3.	1905-08	18
4.	2018-19	16
5.	1933-34	15

Just above the 20-point threshold, Clemson has won 85 consecutive games when holding opponents under 23 points, a streak that dates to the 2010 season. Since 2014, Clemson has held opponents to 22 or fewer points in 67 games, the most in the nation. Clemson is 67-0 in those contests.

STOPPING THE RUN

Clemson has held opponents to 2.0 or fewer yards per carry in 22 games in the College Football Playoff era (since 2014), the second-most in the country. Clemson is 21-1 in those contests.

Clemson opened 2020 with two such performances. Clemson allowed only 1.1 yards per carry in its season opener against Wake Forest and then held The Citadel to 1.8 yards per carry, representing the team's first time holding consecutive opponents to 2.0 yards per carry or fewer since games 2-3 last season against Texas A&M and Syracuse.

POINTS ALLOWED PER POSSESSION

Since Brent Venables joined Clemson as defensive coordinator prior to the 2012 season, Clemson has allowed only 1.13 points per possession against FBS opponents, the second-fewest in the country in that span. No program has given up fewer points per possession against FBS opponents since 2018, as Clemson's 0.85 points allowed per possession since the start of the 2018 season makes Clemson the only program in the country to allow fewer than a full point per drive to opponents.

-- SPECIAL TEAMS --

SPOTLIGHT ON THE SPECIALISTS

- B.T. Potter, PK: Clemson's cannon-legged junior has been remarkably consistent on both his shortest kicks and his longest kicks throughout his career. He is 115-for-115 on PATs, and his 115 consecutive PATs broke Clemson's school record (88 by Mark Buchholz from 2007-08). Potter, who has been one of the nation's foremost touchback specialists throughout his career, is also 4-for-5 on field goal attempts of 50 yards or more during his Clemson tenure, one 50-yarder away from tying Clemson's career record.

- Will Spiers, P: A four-year starter at punter, Spiers made his 47th career start on Oct. 3, breaking Cole Chason's Clemson record for a punter (46 from 2003-06). His experience has been evident in his finish to the 2019 season and his hot start in 2020. In 2019, he finished with a career-high 41.7-yard net average, the second-best single-season mark in school history behind Dale Hatcher's 1984 performance (42.4), and he saved his best performances for the biggest games, dropping 10 of his 16 punts in last year's College Football Playoff inside the 20.

- Will Swinney, H: Spiers is not the only four-year starter among Clemson's special teams corps. Swinney is in his fourth season as Clemson's primary holder and has held for more placekicks than any player in Clemson history. Since 2017, Clemson has scored 395 points on placekicks, including field goals and PATs. Swinney, a 2020 William V. Campbell Trophy semifinalist, has held for 390 of those 395 points, and including his receiving touchdown vs. Louisville in 2018, he's touched the ball for 396 total points for Clemson in his career. Clemson's only three kicking points not held by Will Swinney in his career were instead held by his brother, Drew. Clemson's last hold by any player outside the Swinney family was on the final point of Clemson's 2016 national championship following Hunter Renfrow's touchdown with one second remaining.

- Jack Maddox, LS: Maddox is in his first-year as Clemson's starting long snapper. A native of Acton, Mass., his attention first turned to Clemson after visiting his uncle, who is a professor at the university. He walked on at Clemson, and this past August, the redshirt junior was en route to Clemson's Applied Science Lab to take a nap when Head Coach Dabo Swinney approached him and asked him if he'd already paid his fall tuition. Upon Maddox confirming that he had, Swinney told him he'd have a little extra money in his pocket this semester, as Maddox was being placed on scholarship for the 2020 season.

- Quinn Castner, PK: Castner joined Clemson's program in August. At 140 pounds, the 5-foot-5 walk-on became the 15th player below 150 pounds to appear on Clemson's roster since 1944. He became a viral sensation for his debut against The Citadel once Dabo Swinney, after exaggerating Castner's vitals as "5-foot-3 and 80 pounds... maybe," told the following anecdote about Castner and Clemson's current culture: "I put him out there and gave him a chance to kick one off, and listen, he ain't kicked one deep in the end zone yet since he's been here... So I put the first [team] kickoff out there and said, 'All right, boys, we've got a little wind, I'm putting my man Quinn out there. Y'all know this is coming out and y'all need some dadgum practice...' Potter booms 'em out of the end zone and I wanted them to get a little work, so I got my man Quinn out there, and what does he do? He kicks that sucker four yards deep in the end zone, and the whole team went crazy. They just loved it, and, I mean, that's special."

- Returns: Four different players (WR Amari Rodgers, CB Derion Kendrick, RB Travis Etienne and WR Will Swinney) have accounted for Clemson's seven punt returns this season. Clemson is averaging 14.0 yards per punt return this year, tied for 13th-best in the nation. Meanwhile, on kickoff return, Clemson jumpstarted its 41-23 win against Virginia when RB Lyn-J Dixon returned the opening kickoff a career-long 52 yards on his first return of the season.

-- NOTES & NUGGETS --

PLAYERS PER GAME

One year after leading all AP Top 25 finishers with an average of 72.5 players per game in 2018, Clemson once again lapped the field in average players per game in 2019.

Clemson played an average of 76.0 players per game in 2019, an average that far exceeded all Power Five programs by more than 11 players — a full unit — per game.

AVERAGE PLAYERS PER GAME (POWER FIVE TEAMS, 2019)

Rk	Team	Players Per Game
1.	Clemson	76.0

The approach to creating functional depth and rewarding players ready to play has been a key philosophy for Head Coach Dabo Swinney, whose own collegiate playing career was hatched as a walk-on fighting for playing time in Alabama's receiving corps.

"We're fully committed to playing guys who deserve to play," Swinney said. "You commit to a guy early in the season, and even if a guy's only played 10 percent of the snaps, when you get to game eight or nine, they've got some good experience."

That philosophy was on display in record fashion against Charlotte in September 2019, when Clemson played a school-record 111 players. Clemson later played 105 players against Wofford and 93 players against Wake Forest that season as well.

Clemson's high-water mark for player participation this season is 96 against The Citadel in the team's home opener.

Clemson opened the season by playing 78 of 80 available players in the season opener at Wake Forest. The only two available Tigers who did not appear in the contest were reserve running back Lyn-J Dixon, who was being held for emergency situations, and reserve placekicker Jonathan Weitz. A week later, 96 of Clemson's 105 dressed players saw action against The Citadel. Clemson has recorded 389 combined man-games out of a possible 481 from available players this season, meaning Clemson has played an average of 80.9 percent of its available players in each game this season.

YOUTH + EXPERIENCE

One year after Clemson returned a school-record 61 lettermen for the 2018 season, Clemson entered the 2019 campaign with a roster that included 80 freshmen and sophomores. Clemson's 2020 squad is a mixture of youth and experience, as Clemson has 60 returning lettermen yet still features a roster that includes 81 players classified as freshmen or sophomores.

In the first year of new redshirt regulations in 2018, Clemson played a then-school-record 20 true freshmen. Clemson immediately shattered that record in its 2019 season opener, with 27 true freshmen making their collegiate debuts in that contest. An additional eight true freshmen made their debuts to push that total to a school-record 36. The only true freshmen not to see game action for Clemson in 2019 were injured linebackers Bryton Constantin and Matthew Maloney.

Clemson's 78-player participation in its 2020 season opener included 22 true freshmen from Clemson's most recent 23-player recruiting class who made their collegiate debuts in the contest. The only Clemson true freshman signee who did not play in the game was DeMonte Capehart, who did not travel with the team.

Capehart made his debut a week later against The Citadel, as did true freshmen walk-ons Hunter Helms, Quinn Castner and Bubba McAtee.

600-YARD GAMES

After setting a school record with five 600-yard games in 2019, Clemson produced its first 600-yard game of 2020 on Oct. 17 at Georgia Tech when the Tigers accumulated 671 yards in a resounding 73-7 win. Clemson threw for exactly 500 yards in the contest, the second-most in a game in school history but its most in a victory and its most in a road game in school annals.

Clemson outgained Georgia Tech, 671-204, after outgaining Miami by 340 yards a week earlier, helping Clemson outgain consecutive ACC opponents by 300-plus yards for the first time since the Louisville and Boston College games in 2018.

By outgaining Georgia Tech by 467 yards, Clemson tied for its fourth-largest yardage differential in a game since 1953. It was Clemson's second-largest yardage margin against an ACC opponent all-time, trailing only a 497-yard yardage differential against Boston College last season.

MEMORABLE DAY IN "THE A"

Clemson's 73-7 win at Georgia Tech on Oct. 17 resonated historically. Among the superlatives from that contest:

- Clemson's 66-point victory margin was the largest in a game between two ACC teams since the conference's inception in 1953.

- The 66-point victory margin tied for Clemson's seventh-largest in school history and its largest since a 66-point win against South Carolina State in 2014. It was Clemson's second-largest win all-time against a school presently in the Football Bowl Subdivision, trailing only a 73-0 victory against Georgia Tech in 1903.

VICTORY MARGIN BY CLEMSON

- Clemson's 73 points represented Clemson's third-most against an ACC opponent all-time, trailing its 82-point performance against Wake Forest in 1981 and its 77 points against Louisville in 2018. However, both of those performances came at home, so Saturday's output was the most scored by Clemson in an ACC road game all-time, passing its 63 at Wake Forest in 2018.

- Clemson's 73 points tied for Clemson's second-most points in a road game in school history, trailing its 94 against Furman in 1915 and matching its 73 at Georgia Tech in 1903.

- Clemson opened the game with a modern-era school-record 52 points in the first half. Clemson's previous high against an ACC opponent in a first half was 49 in its opening two frames against Wake Forest in its national championship campaign in 1981.

- Clemson produced 473 yards in the first half, only 14 yards shy of the school record for yards in a half (487 vs. Duke in 2012).

- Clemson tied a school record for points in a quarter with 35 in the second quarter, matching its second quarter against Wake Forest in 1981 and its third quarter against North Carolina in 2011.

- Clemson threw seven passing touchdowns, breaking the school record of six set previously against Central Michigan in 2007, against Duke in 2012, against North Carolina in 2014 and against South Carolina in 2016.

WALK-ON QB MAKES CLEMSON HISTORY

Clemson had four different players complete at least two passes in its 73-7 rout of Georgia Tech on Oct. 17. That included 24 completions by starting quarterback Trevor Lawrence, two by reserve quarterback Taisun Phommachanh and two by starting punter/emergency quarterback Will Spiers, but it also featured a 5-for-7 passing performance by true freshman walk-on quarterback Hunter Helms.

Helms' five completions went for 74 yards and two touchdowns, including touchdown passes to running back Kobe Pace and wide receiver Ajou Ajou. Helms became only the third quarterback who joined Clemson as an original walk-on since 1954 to throw a touchdown pass, joining Nick Schuessler (three touchdown passes in 2016) and Donny McElveen (one in 2010).

Helms and Schuessler are the only original walk-on quarterbacks to throw multiple touchdown passes in a game for Clemson, as Helms' two-touchdown game at Georgia Tech joined Schuessler's two-touchdown performance against Syracuse in 2016. However, Schuessler had been placed on scholarship by that point of his career, making Helms the first Clemson quarterback to throw two touchdown passes in a game while still on walk-on status.

RAIN, RAIN, GO AWAY YOU CAN STAY

Clemson played its first rain game of the 2020 season on Oct. 10, when the Tigers faced two sets of Hurricanes: one a football team from Miami, and the other remnants of Hurricane Delta.

Clemson defeated Miami, 42-17, in the rain that evening while winning the turnover margin, 3-1. With the victory, Clemson improved to 10-1 in rain games under Dabo Swinney and pushed its turnover margin in those games to 28-13 (+15).

OFFENSIVE BALANCE

Clemson has featured remarkable offensive balance while qualifying for the College Football Playoff National Championship Game in each of the last two years. Clemson has averaged at least 200 rushing yards and 200 passing yards per game four times in school history, with two of those seasons occurring in the 2018 and 2019 campaigns.

Clemson exceeded the 200/200 mark rushing and passing in 2019 by averaging 240.4 rushing yards per game and 288.3 passing yards per game. Clemson was one of only three teams in 2019 to average at least 240 yards per game in each category, along with fellow CFP participants Ohio State and Oklahoma. Clemson broke the 3,000-yard mark both rushing and passing in 2019, making the campaign only the third 3,000/3,000 season in school history (2015 and 2018).

Clemson has exceeded both 200 passing yards and 200 rushing yards in 52 games under Dabo Swinney, posting a perfect record in those contests. Clemson's 18 such games since the start of the 2018 season are the most in the country.

Clemson got back on pace with 200/200 performances at South Carolina in the regular season finale and against Virginia in the ACC Championship Game to give the Tigers seven 200/200 games in an eight-game span.

TIGHT END RENAISSANCE

Last year, Clemson tight ends combined for 26 receptions for 239 yards and no scores in 2019. A year earlier, the Tigers recorded 17 catches for 161 yards and two scores by tight ends in 2018.

With junior tight end Braden Galloway returning in 2020 after playing only in the College Football Playoff a year ago to join a group that included talented sophomore Davis Allen and veteran J.C. Chalk, observers anticipated more influence from the tight ends in the Clemson offense in 2020.

That anticipation became reality in the season opener against Wake Forest when Galloway, Allen and Chalk combined for seven catches for 114 yards and a touchdown.

"When you have a great tight end in there that's a threat down the field, it just creates more matchup problems," Head Coach Dabo Swinney said following the game.

The group's 114 yards at Wake Forest ranked as the third-most receiving yards for the tight end position in a single game under Swinney, eight yards shy of the top mark of 122 against Florida State in 2016. It was the sixth game of at least 100 receiving yards by Clemson tight ends in the Swinney era.

The unit put together another superlative performance on Oct. 10 against Miami, as Braden Galloway (four receptions for 114 yards with two touchdowns) and Davis Allen (22-yard receiving touchdown) combined for five catches for 96 yards and three touchdowns. It was the first time that Clemson tight ends combined for three scores in a game.

Note: Clemson's most receptions by tight ends in a single game under Swinney is 10 for 74 yards vs. LSU in 2012 Peach Bowl.

This season could be the most productive season for Clemson tight ends since the 2016 National Championship team featured the play of All-American Jordan Leggett. Clemson tight ends had 797 receiving yards that year, most in the Swinney era, on 52 catches.

The record for receptions for the tight end position under Swinney is 65, in 2011 when the Tigers featured John Mackey Award winner Dwayne Allen.

STRONG OUT OF THE GATES

"Some start fast, some start slow, but the thoroughbred is great at the final pole."

Dabo Swinney used that horse-racing analogy with his team to encourage his team to "run its own race" in 2019. Clemson was strong out of the gates in 2019, outscoring opponents by a 177-34 margin (+143) in the first quarter. Only 26 teams in the country (including Clemson) recorded a plus-143 or better point differential in entire games in 2019.

Clemson's 9.53-point average scoring differential in the first quarter was the second-largest in the country in 2019, contributing significantly to Clemson's second-place finish in overall scoring differential. Clemson defeated the team with the nation's top scoring differential (Ohio State) and suffered its only loss of the season at the hand of the No. 3 team in that category (LSU).

Clemson picked up where it left off in the 2020 season opener, outscoring Wake Forest, 14-0, in the opening frame en route to a 27-0 halftime advantage. Clemson then tied a school-record with a 28-point first quarter against The Citadel a week later en route to a 49-0 halftime lead. Clemson later set a modern-era first-half record with 52 points in securing a 52-7 lead after the first two quarters at Georgia Tech.

YARDS PER PLAY

Clemson shattered its school record for yards per play in 2018 at 7.35, the program's first time exceeding seven yards per play in a season. That record stood for barely 12 months until Clemson broke it again in 2019 by averaging 7.38 yards per play.

Clemson became only the third school since 2000 to average 7.35 or better yards per play in back-to-back seasons, joining Alabama, which did it across 2018-19, and Oklahoma, which was in the midst of a four-year streak across the 2016-19 seasons.

The Tigers' explosiveness includes the running game, as Clemson's six games with an 8.0 or better yards per carry average since 2018 are the most in the FBS.

650-POINT SEASONS

Clemson scored 659 points in 2019, concluding the season only five points shy of tying the school record of 664 set in 2018. Clemson is responsible for two of the 22 650-point seasons in major college football history and two of only 16 since Division I split in 1978. Clemson was the first school with back-to-back 650-point seasons since Yale in 1888-89, predating the start of official NCAA recordkeeping in 1937 and the second year of which was coincidentally the year Clemson was founded.

THE CFP ERA'S DOMINANT DEFENSE

Since the advent of the College Football Playoff in 2014, Clemson has routinely produced one of the nation's elite defenses.

Clemson has ranked in the Top 10 in the country in total defense in each of the last six seasons and has ranked among the Top 10 in scoring defense in four of those campaigns.

CLEMSON DEFENSE SINCE 2014

Clemson's defense calls Death Valley home but might as well file for dual residency in opponents' backfields. Since Brent Venables took over as Clemson's defensive coordinator in 2012, Clemson leads the nation in both sacks and tackles for loss, and has led the country in tackles for loss in five of the previous eight seasons.

Clemson's success sacking quarterbacks has not been limited to a handful of high-production players but is instead indicative of team-wide success. In the College Football Playoff era (since 2014), 71 different Clemson players have recorded at least half a sack. Nine of those players reached double-digit sacks in that time frame (Clelin Ferrell, 27.0; Austin Bryant, 20.5; Shaq Lawson, 16.0; Christian Wilkins, 16.0; Carlos Watkins, 14.0; Kevin Dodd, 12.0; Vic Beasley, 12.0; Isaiah Simmons, 10.5; Dexter Lawrence, 10.5).

Clemson's 22 sacks this season rank second in the country, trailing Pitt, who has played one more game than Clemson to date.

TAKEAWAYS, NO GIVEAWAYS

Clemson emphasizes the importance of turnover margin every week on what it dubs "TANOGA Tuesday," standing for "TakeAways, NO GiveAways."

Clemson was treading water in that respect early in 2019, creating 12 takeaways but turning the ball over 11 times in the first half of the regular season. But Clemson's ball security improved drastically in the season's second half and in the postseason, as the Tigers finished the season turning the ball over only twice in its final eight games. Clemson had six games with zero giveaways in 2019, a school record, surpassing the five turnover-free games in 1988, 1994, 2007 and 2018.

Clemson finished the year with 15 giveaways on the season, tied for the eighth-fewest in school history. Clemson's 1.0 per-game average in giveaways ranked third in school history, behind only the 1940 and 2007 seasons.

FEWEST TURNOVERS PER GAME (CLEMSON HISTORY)

Defensively, Clemson's 30 takeaways tied with the 2009 and 2013 squads for the school's most under Head Coach Dabo Swinney. The 2019 Tigers won the turnover margin 11 times, the most under Swinney. Clemson plus-15 margin in turnovers tied with the 1989 team for the ninth-best mark in school history, and at +1.00 per game, Clemson finished eighth in the country in turnover margin per game, the program's first time ranking in the Top 10 in the category since 2007 (+1.00, ninth).

Clemson won the turnover margin for the first time in 2020 in its third game against Virginia. Clemson finished plus-two in turnovers that game, then finished plus-two the following week as well against Miami, moving to 28-1 under Dabo Swinney when finishing plus-two in that category.

POINTS OFF TURNOVERS

Clemson's offense and defense have both been dominant in possessions following turnovers since the 2018 ACC Championship game. Since that time, the Tigers hold a 220-28 advantage against opponents in points off turnovers.

Clemson outscored opponents off turnovers, 134-21, in 2019, and its +7.53-point-per-game differential off turnovers ranked third in the country. This season, Clemson is outscoring opponents, 48-0, off turnovers.

CLOSE-GAME SUCCESS

Though Clemson has not played a large number of one-possession games in recent years, the Tigers have proven very adept at winning such contests since 2011. In that span, the Tigers have played 30 games with a final margin of eight points or less, and Clemson's .867 winning percentage in those one-possession contests is the best in the country in that time frame.

Clemson's win against Ohio State in the Fiesta Bowl last season pitted the nation's top two teams in one-score games since 2011 against one another in a win-or-go-home one-possession game. With the six-point win, Clemson improved to 26-4 in one-score games in that span, reaching the mark against a Buckeye squad that entered the game with a .735 winning percentage since 2011 in one-score games.

OWNING THE "MIDDLE EIGHT"

During its current run of five consecutive College Football Playoff appearances dating to 2015, Clemson has frequently won one of the hidden "games within the game."

SportSource Analytics tracks the "Middle Eight," the section of the game defined as the final four minutes of the first half and the first four minutes of the second half. Clemson has outscored opponents in that time window 49 times since 2015, posting a 48-1 record in those contests.

Clemson was historically strong in that category in 2018, outscoring opponents 132-10 in the middle eight, an average margin of +8.1 points per game. That per-game differential was the largest by any program in the country since 2013. Clemson outscored opponents in the Middle Eight 10 times in 2019, posting a 108-24 advantage in that time window.

Clemson recorded a critical middle eight performance in its 2019 Fiesta Bowl win against Ohio State. Trailing 16-0 prior to the final four minutes of the first half, Clemson scored 14 points in the half's waning minutes to pull the halftime deficit to two. The 14-point momentum swing in that span helped Clemson to victory in the fifth-largest comeback in school history.

Clemson's top performance in the Middle Eight so far in 2020 came in its 73-3 win against Georgia Tech on Oct. 17. Clemson finished +21 in the category by virtue of three touchdowns in the final four minutes of the first half.

ALL-CONFERENCE O-LINEMEN

As Clemson climbed into the elite echelon of college football programs during the last decade, observers posited that Clemson's rise coincided with the rapid ascent of its offensive line play.

During Clemson's five-year run of College Football

Playoff appearances from 2015-19, the Tigers produced a total of 22 All-ACC selections along the offensive line, including 10 first-team honors. Clemson's 22 all-conference selections by offensive linemen are the most of any Power Five program, and its 10 first-team selections are tied with Oklahoma for the most in that span.

PASS PROTECTION

Clemson's protection for quarterback Trevor Lawrence has taken on an almost-mythical quality in recent years, according to Syracuse Head Coach Dino Babers, whose own prolific defensive line was held without a sack against Clemson in 2019.

"[It's like] Game of Thrones. He's got a castle, he's got a moat, he's got some dragons. That dude's protected," Babers said.

The standard remains high for Clemson's 2020 unit, which features four new starters. Last year, led by four seniors, Clemson's 2019 offensive line was named as a Joe Moore Award semifinalist, and its metrics compared favorably to the four lines that went on to be named as finalists, including the LSU squad that earned the award and helped lead the Bayou Bengals to a national championship.

Though Clemson's 2020 offensive line features four new starters from 2019, the unit does not lack experience among its starting five. Clemson's four new starters — Matt Bockhorst, Cade Stewart, Will Putnam and Jordan McFadden — entered the 2020 season with 1,821 combined offensive snaps in their careers as a function of Clemson's philosophy of developing its depth by furnishing playing time for reserves whenever possible.

Swinney was effusive in his praise of his starting offensive line's performance in Week 1, describing it to his team as "poetry in motion" and "as good of an offensive line performance as we've had in my time here."

"Our offensive line, I'm telling you, that first group — I don't think I've ever had so much fun watching and grading the tape," Swinney said of the line's performance against Wake Forest. "It was just awesome to watch those guys play... They do a lot of moving, and we just handled it so well. That set the tone for everything."

TRENCH WARFARE

Clemson's success in its 34-1 run since 2018 has been powered in part at the line of scrimmage, where Clemson holds a 123-44 edge over opponents in sacks in that time frame, including a 22-9 edge this season. Clemson's +79 margin in sacks since 2018 is by far the top differential in the country, as no other program can boast a sack differential greater than +56 since 2018.

SACK DIFFERENTIAL (SINCE 2018)

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

Clemson has matched its on-field success in recent years with national acclaim for its success in the classroom. Of note:

- Clemson set a program record in APR in the NCAA's most recent figures released in May 2020, recording a multi-year APR score of 993 for the 2018-19 academic year. The performance marked the third straight year Clemson broke its program record in the metric after breaking its 992 from 2017-18, which had broken its 987 mark from 2016-17.

- Clemson's 993 multi-year APR ranked fourth in the Power Five and fifth among FBS programs, trailing only Washington (999), Ole Miss (997), Northwestern (995) and Air Force (995). That metric covered a four-year span in which Clemson matched its off-field success with on-field accolades that included a 55-4 record, four College Football Playoff appearances and two national championships.

- The NCAA recognized Clemson with its annual APR Public Recognition Award, which is bestowed upon programs ranking in the Top 10 percent of their respective sports. Only 37 of the 130 FBS programs have earned at least one APR recognition since the 2009-10 academic year. Only 30 of them have earned it multiple times. Clemson, Duke and Northwestern programs are the only ones to earn the award nine or more times in that 10-year span.

- Clemson is one of only six FBS programs with an active streak of having earned an APR Public Recognition Award in each of the last three academic years, a group that also includes Air Force, Boston College, Navy, Northwestern and Washington.

- With its most recent award for the 2018-19 academic year, Clemson is now the only FBS program since the NCAA created the APR metric in 2003 to win a national championship and an APR Public Recognition Award in the same year multiple times. Alabama is the only other school to accomplish the title/APR double in a single year once (2011-12 academic year).

In addition to the APR honors, in November 2019, the AFCA announced that Clemson had repeated as Academic Achievement Award winners, making Clemson the only school in the country to earn the award across both of the 2018-19 seasons. Clemson had earned the award a year earlier as well in the midst of major college football's first 15-0 season since 1897.

ACC: WE DO THIS

Entering the 2020 season, the ACC was tied for the most football national titles of any conference since 2013 (three of the last seven). The conference has had a team in either the College Football Playoff or the BCS National Championship Game in each of the past seven years.

No conference produced more bowl teams in 2019 than the ACC, which placed 10 of its 14 members in bowl games. With the selection of 10 teams in 2019, the ACC has had 42 bowl teams in the previous four years, including double-digit selections all four years (11 in 2016, 10 in 2017, 11 in 2018 and 10 in 2019).

RELATIVELY SPEAKING

Clemson's 2020 roster has many connections to college and professional athletics. Below is a list of the connections:

- J.C. Chalk, TE: Grandson of former Alabama coach Gene Stallings, who was Dabo Swinney's head coach at Alabama when Swinney was a player.

- Peter Cote, S, and David Cote, LB: Brother, Kyle, was a safety on Clemson's 2016 and 2018 national championship teams.

- Carson Donnelly, DB: Father, Chris, played at Alabama with Dabo Swinney.

- Hamp Greene, WR: Son of Hamp Greene, who was a kicker on Alabama's 1992 national championship squad with Dabo Swinney.

- K.J. Henry, DE: Son of Keith Henry, current nickelbacks coach and special teams coordinator at Western Carolina.

- Jake Herbstreit, CB, and Tye Herbstreit, WR: Sons of former Ohio State quarterback Kirk Herbstreit.

- Trent Howard, OL: Father, Johnny Howard, played at Alabama with Dabo Swinney.

- Mike Jones Jr., LB: Son of Mike Jones Sr., who played at NC State prior to a nine-year NFL career with the Cardinals, Patriots, Rams and Titans.

- Myles Murphy, DE: Father, Willard, played at Tennessee-Chattanooga.

- Joseph Ngata, WR: Brother of Washington linebacker Ariel Ngata.

- Ruke Orhoro, DE: Cousin of three family members who played or are still playing college football — Michael Ojemudia (Iowa), Mario Ojemudia (Michigan) and Ovie Oghoufo (Notre Dame).

- Luke Price, TE: Brother of former Clemson offensive lineman Phillip Price.

- Amari Rodgers, WR: Son of former Tennessee quarterback Tee Martin.

- Will Swinney, WR, and Drew Swinney, WR: Sons of Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney.

- Nolan Turner, SS: Son of former Alabama player Kevin Turner, who also played eight years in the NFL with New England Patriots.

- James Skalski, LB: Father, John, played football at Oklahoma.

- Baylon Spector, LB, and Brannon Spector, WR: Sons of former Clemson receiver Robbie Spector.

- Will Spiers, P: Son of former Clemson punter and baseball All-American Bill Spiers.

- Regan Upshaw, DE: Son of nine-year NFL defensive tackle Regan Upshaw; brother of Michigan defensive lineman Taylor Upshaw

- Jake Venables, LB, and Tyler Venables, S: Sons of Clemson defensive coordinator Brent Venables.

GAME RECAPS

GAME 1	CLEMSON	37
	WAKE FOREST	13
	SEPT. 12, 2020 TRUIST FIELD • WINSTON-SALEM, N.C.

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. – A stellar outing by quarterback Trevor Lawrence and a Clemson-record 18th career 100-yard rushing performance by running back Travis Etienne led No. 1 Clemson to a 37-13 victory over Wake Forest in front of only 68 people in the first game under COVID-19 protocols.

Lawrence went 22-of-28 for 351 yards and a touchdown along with two touchdown runs. With 102 yards, Etienne passed Wayne Gallman (17 from 2014-16) for Clemson's career 100-yard rushing games record.

Defensively, Winston-Salem native K.J. Henry recorded the first of Clemson's six sacks on the night. Myles Murphy (2.0) and Bryan Bresee (0.5) each contributed sacks, become Clemson's first true freshmen with sacks in a season-opener since 2016.

Lawrence's two rushing touchdowns gave the Tigers a 14-0 first quarter lead, marking his first career game with multiple rushing touchdowns. His first passing touchdown of the season was a 12-yard strike to tight end J.C. Chalk in the second quarter.

A career-long-tying 52-yard B.T. Potter field goal as the first half expired gave Clemson a 27-0 halftime lead. During the game, Potter broke Mark Buchholz's Clemson record for consecutive PATs (88 from 2007-08).

Clemson carried a 37-3 lead into the fourth quarter before surrendering the final 10 points. The Tigers played 78 of their 80 available players in the contest.

GAME 2	THE CITADEL	0
	CLEMSON	49
	SEPT. 19, 2020 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. – No. 1 Clemson won its home opener in front of a socially distanced crowd of 18,609 fans at Memorial Stadium, defeating The Citadel by a score of 49-0. The victory marked Clemson's 31st consecutive regular season win, passing the 2013-15 Florida State Seminoles for the longest such streak in ACC history.

Quarterback Trevor Lawrence went 8-of-9 passing for 168 yards with three passing touchdowns and a rushing touchdown. Freshman quarterback D.J. Uigalelei added his first two career scores on the ground.

All of Clemson's points came in a 49-point first half, Clemson's most points in the first two quarters of play since scoring 49 against Temple in a 63-9 victory on Oct. 12, 2006.

Clemson's defense held the Bulldogs to just 162 total yards and added a score of its own when linebacker James Skalski returned a fumble 17 yards for the first touchdown of his career. Freshman Myles Murphy added two tackles for loss and forced the fumble that led to the Skalski scoop-and-score.

Wide receiver Frank Ladson Jr. recorded career highs in receptions (three), receiving yards (87) and receiving touchdowns (two).

Clemson produced its first shutout since the 2016 Fiesta Bowl, a 31-0 win against Ohio State. It was Clemson's first regular season shutout since a 54-0 win against Syracuse in 2016. The shutout was Clemson's seventh under Head Coach Dabo Swinney, and its fifth home shutout in his tenure.

GAME 3	VIRGINIA	23
	CLEMSON	41
	OCT. 3, 2020 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. – Clemson improved to 3-0 with a 41-23 win against Virginia at Memorial Stadium. The win extended Clemson's winning streak on Saturdays to 46, passing the 1953-57 Oklahoma Sooners for the longest such streak in FBS history.

Trevor Lawrence was 25-for-38 passing for 329 yards and three touchdowns, including two to Amari Rodgers. Travis Etienne totaled 187 yards from scrimmage, including 73 on the ground and a career-high and Clemson running back record 114 through the air.

Clemson's defense picked off Virginia quarterback Brennan Armstrong twice. Nolan Turner recorded the Tigers' first interception of the season in the second quarter, and on the first drive of the second half, Andrew Booth Jr. made a spectacular one-handed interception, the first of his career, in the corner of the end zone.

Lyn-J Dixon returned the opening kickoff of the game for a career-long 52 yards, setting the tone for Clemson to run out to a 24-3 lead before a late second-quarter Virginia touchdown made it 24-10 Clemson at the half.

The Tigers opened the second half scoring off the Booth interception with a 42-yard Potter field goal. The Cavaliers answered with a touchdown before Etienne recorded his second score of the game to give Clemson a 34-17 lead. Chez Mellusi added a fourth quarter two-yard rushing touchdown, his first of the season and first since the 2019 ACC Championship against the Cavaliers, to extend the Tiger lead to 41-17 before a late Virginia touchdown brought the final score to 41-23.
