CLEMSON TRAVELS TO VIRGINIA TECH FOR RARE REGULAR SEASON DECEMBER GAME

After wrapping up a perfect 6-0 home slate in 2020 on Senior Day in Death Valley last week, Clemson returns to the road this week for a matchup with the Virginia Tech Hokies on Saturday, Dec. 5. Kickoff at Lane Stadium is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. ET.

Clemson has played 1,218 regular season games in its 125-season history, posting a 734-439-45 record in those contests. However, only six of those 1,218 regular season games have been contested in the month of December.

Clemson is 3-3 all-time in December regular season games, dropping its first three in 1922, 1928 and 1945. Clemson has won its three most recent December regular season games, including wins by Frank Howard's squads in 1948 and 1956 and a win by Tommy Bowden's 2001 team against Duke. Clemson's 59-31 win against Duke on Dec. 1 was played on that date as a function of postponement following the Sept. 11, 2001 attacks.

* - ACC contest; Note: Home games in bold

Last week marked the return of quarterback Trevor Lawrence, who completed 26-of-37 passes for 403 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions in his first game action in five weeks. The Heisman candidate improved to 32-1 as a starter, tying the Clemson record for wins by a starting quarterback and improving his career winning percentage to .970, the best by an FBS quarterback with at least 30 starts since Division I split in 1978.

Lawrence's 403-yard passing performance last week followed true freshman D.J. Uiagalelei's 439-yard performance at Notre Dame, giving Clemson back-to-back games with a 400-yard passer for the first time in school history. Clemson became the first school to have two different players throw for 400 yards in back-to-back games since Seth Russell and Bryce Petty accomplished the feat for the 2014 Baylor Bears.

MEDIA INFORMATION

DABO SWINNEY PRESS CONFERENCE

Head Coach Dabo Swinney holds his weekly press conference each Tuesday at 11 a.m. Out of an abundance of caution with the continued spread of COVID-19, these will be held in a digital capacity indefinitely. Contact Ross Taylor to request a link to access the availability.

COORDINATOR AVAILABILITY

Coordinator availabilities will also be conducted digitally for the immediate future. Offensive Coordinator Tony Elliott will be available on Mondays at 11:45 a.m. on most standard game weeks. Defensive Coordinator Brent Venables will be available on Mondays following Elliott.

STUDENT-ATHLETE INTERVIEWS

The majority of Clemson student-athlete interviews are held each Monday. Contact Ross Taylor and Brian Hennessy each Sunday by 4 p.m. with special requests for the week. Monday availability will typically start at 11 a.m. A few players may also be made available after Swinney's Tuesday press conference. Student-athlete interviews are expected to be conducted digitally on an indefinite basis.

SWINNEY SUNDAY TELECONFERENCE

Head Coach Dabo Swinney will hold a teleconference each Sunday at 6 p.m. Contact Ross Taylor to request access to the call.

GAME CREDENTIALS

Media wishing to apply for credentials to cover Clemson Football games at Memorial Stadium will be asked to apply at www.sportssystem.com/clemson seven days prior to kickoff. Be advised that media capacity is extremely limited under current COVID-19 protocols. Contact Chandler Simpson at mcsimp2@clemson.edu with any questions or concerns.

MEDIA ACCESS

All credentialing decisions, including prioritization of access, are made in accordance with the Clemson University Athletics Media Credential Policy, available at ClemsonTigers.com/mediapolicy. Presently, Clemson is not furnishing on-site media access during the week. Digital access will be granted to outlets who would have met in-person credentialing criteria.

COLLEGEPRESSBOX.COM

Clemson media information will be uploaded to CollegePressBox.com. Access and download weekly game notes, quotes, statistics, media guides, headshots, logos and more for each conference and its member schools. Register for access at collegepressbox.com/register.

WHAT TO WATCH FOR THIS WEEK

- Clemson attempting to earn a ninth win through the first 10 games of a season for the 15th time in school history. Clemson won at least nine games in its first 10 contests in the 1939, 1948, 1950, 1978, 1981, 1987, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018 and 2019 seasons.

- Clemson attempting to win an eighth ACC regular season game for a third straight season for the first time in school history. It would be Clemson's fourth time winning eight ACC regular season games in a single season, joining the 2015, 2018 and 2019 seasons.

- The 2020 Clemson seniors (49-4 since 2017) attempting to become the fourth straight Clemson senior class (and the 11th such class in FBS history) to record 50 wins in four years.

- The 2020 Clemson seniors (30-2 in ACC regular season play from 2017-20) attempting to surpass the 2018 and 2019 seniors (30 wins each) as the winningest class in school history in regular season conference play and tie the four-year conference record of 31, set by multiple Florida State classes from 1995-2000.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 51-3 against conference opponents since the start of the 2015 season, the first year of Clemson's active run of five consecutive ACC titles.

- Clemson attempting to win a sixth consecutive game against Virginia Tech, dating to the 2011 season when the Tigers defeated the Hokies twice. It would be Clemson's longest streak in the series since winning nine consecutive games against the Hokies from 1955-85.

- Clemson attempting to win a third consecutive game in Blacksburg.

- Clemson playing its seventh December regular season game in school history. A win would improve Clemson to 4-3 in those contests, giving the Tigers four December regular season wins in a row, dating to 1948.

- Clemson attempting to win its 13th consecutive December game, dating to Clemson's 2011 ACC Championship Game victory against Virginia Tech. Clemson (12-0) is one of four schools to be undefeated in December since 2011 with a minimum of four games played, a list that also includes Appalachian State (9-0), Alabama (8-0) and Penn State (4-0).

- Barring potential rescheduling, Clemson playing its latest regular season finale since joining the ACC in 1953, including only its second regular season contest in December in that span. Clemson closed the 2001 regular season with a 59-31 win against Duke on Dec. 1, 2001. This game against Virginia Tech is the program's second-latest regular season finale all-time, behind a Dec. 8, 1928 finale against The Citadel.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 24-13 all-time in December games, including postseason play.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 3-0 in December games against Virginia Tech all-time, including wins in the 2011 and 2016 ACC Championship Games.

- Head Coach Dabo Swinney attempting to improve to 6-0 as a head coach vs. Virginia Tech. Virginia Tech is one of five ACC schools against which Swinney is undefeated as head coach, a list that also includes Wake Forest (12-0), Louisville (6-0), Virginia (5-0) and Duke (3-0).

- Clemson entering the game having won 26 of its 28 true road games since the start of the 2015 season.

- Though 2020 is technically a divisionless season, Clemson will attempt to improve to 33-8 against opponents historically from the ACC Coastal Division, including postseason play, under Head Coach Dabo Swinney. Clemson has won 18 of its last 19 games against the Coastal Division since 2015.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 67-3 in regular season play since the start of the 2015 season.

- Clemson entering the game as one of only two teams ranked in the top 10 in the nation in both total offense (ninth, 512.2 yards per game) and total defense (eighth, 298.6), alongside BYU.

- Clemson and BYU entering this week as the only teams in the country with at least 25 rushing touchdowns (25) and at least 25 passing touchdowns (26) this season.

- Clemson attempting to score 50 points in consecutive games for the first time since a four-game span against Boston College, Wofford, NC State and Wake Forest last season.

- Clemson, which has scored at least 34 points in each of its first nine games, attempting to join 2013 Florida State as the only ACC teams ever to score 34 or more points in each of the first 10 games of a season.

- Clemson attempting to post consecutive 500-yard games for the second time this season (vs. Miami and at Georgia Tech).

- Clemson attempting to open a season with 400 yards of offense in each of the first 10 games of a season for the second time in school history (2018).

- Clemson attempting to throw for 400 yards in a third consecutive game for the first time in school history.

- Clemson attempting to throw for 300 yards in a sixth straight game for the first time in school history.

- Clemson entering the game averaging 362.8 passing yards per game, the top average in the ACC and the third-best in the nation. The average is nearly 29 yards better than the school-record mark of 333.9 passing yards per game, set in 2016.

- Clemson entering the game riding a school-record streak of seven consecutive games with at least 25 pass completions.

- Clemson, which rushed for a season-high four rushing touchdowns last week, attempting to rush for at least four touchdowns in consecutive games for the first time since the Wofford and NC State games last year.

- Clemson attempting to record multiple rushing touchdowns in a 26th consecutive game. The last time Clemson was held to a single rushing touchdown was in the 2018 Cotton Bowl.

- Clemson entering the game having recorded multiple sacks in 31 of its last 32 games, including each of its last 15.

- Clemson attempting to record at least two sacks in a 16th straight game to tie a 16-game streak from 2018-19 for the Tigers' third-longest streak since 1980.

- Clemson, which tied a season high with six sacks last week, attempting to record at least six sacks in consecutive games for the first time since 1996 (eight each vs. Maryland and Virginia).

- Clemson, which had a season-high four interceptions last week, attempting to record at least four interceptions in consecutive games for the first time since 1981 (four at Tulane, five vs. Georgia). If Clemson were to record three interceptions, it would be its first time with three or more picks in back-to-back games since 2008 against Virginia and South Carolina, Dabo Swinney's fifth and sixth games as Clemson's head coach.

- Clemson, which was plus-four in turnovers last week, attempting to win the turnover margin by multiple turnovers in back-to-back games for the second time this season (plus-two against both Virginia and Miami (Fla.)).

- Clemson, which has two fumble returns for touchdowns already this season, attempting to record a third scoop-and-score in a season for the first time in school records back to 1951. Clemson's two fumble return touchdowns in 2020 match the totals by the 1996, 1998, 2006 and 2013 squads.

- Clemson (two) attempting to record a third defensive touchdown for a fourth straight season, which would be Clemson's longest streak in records back to 1951.

- Tight end Davis Allen (four) attempting to become the fourth Clemson tight end under Dabo Swinney to catch at least five touchdowns in a season, joining Dwayne Allen (eight in 2011), Brandon Ford (eight in 2012) and Jordan Leggett (eight in 2015 and seven in 2016).

- Cornerback Andrew Booth Jr. attempting to record an interception in consecutive games for the first time in his career.

- Running back Travis Etienne (at least one rushing or receiving touchdown in 44 of his 52 career games) attempting to score a touchdown of any kind to add to his FBS record for most career games scoring a touchdown.

- Etienne attempting to score multiple touchdowns of any kind in a 24th career game. The FBS record for most career games scoring two or more touchdowns is 25, shared by Miami (Ohio)'s Travis Prentice (1996-99) and Wisconsin's Montee Ball (2009-12).

- Etienne attempting to rush for a touchdown in an eighth consecutive game to record his second career streak of eight games or more with a rushing touchdown. It would tie an eight-game streak by Wayne Gallman in 2016 for the fifth-longest in school history.

- Etienne (4,730), the ACC's all-time rushing yardage leader, needing 270 more rushing yards this season to become the first 5,000-yard rusher in ACC history. He would be the 23rd player to accomplish the feat according to official NCAA FBS records.

- Etienne entering the game as the only player in the FBS with 650 rushing yards and 500 receiving yards this season. Etienne's 511 receiving yards this year lead all FBS running backs.

- Etienne (12) needing one more rushing touchdown to join Wisconsin's Ron Dayne as the only players in FBS history to record at least 13 rushing touchdowns in four different seasons.

- Etienne (68) needing two rushing touchdowns to join Keenan Reynolds (88), Montee Ball (77), Travis Prentice (73), Ricky Williams (72) and Kenneth Dixon (72) as the only FBS players ever to rush for 70 career touchdowns.

- Etienne (76) needing two touchdowns of any kind to tie or three touchdowns to pass Miami (Ohio)'s Travis Prentice (78) for the fourth-most career total touchdowns of any FBS player since 1956.

- Etienne (456) needing 10 points to tie or 11 points to break Florida State kicker Dustin Hopkins' ACC record for career points (466 from 2009-12).

- Etienne (456) needing 12 points to tie Travis Prentice (468 from 1996-99) for the seventh-most career points in FBS history.

- Etienne (511) entering the game holding Clemson's single-season record for receiving yards by a running back. He has 40 receptions on the year and is five catches shy of tying and six catches shy of breaking the Clemson running back record held by Travis Zachery (45 in 2001).

- Etienne (two) needing another 100-yard receiving game to become the first running back in school history with three 100-yard receiving games in a single season. Another 100-yard receiving game would also be his third of his career, which would tie C.J. Spiller's career record by a running back in Clemson history.

- Etienne (4,753) needing 150 combined rushing and passing yards to move past Kyle Parker (4,902) to move into the Top 10 in Clemson history in yards of total offense. Etienne is already 11th in school history in a category that includes both yards rushing and yards passing despite having only 23 career passing yards.

- Etienne (4,730 rushing yards and 1,078 receiving yards) needing 270 more rushing yards to join Donnell Pumphrey as the only players in FBS history to record 5,000 career rushing yards and 1,000 career receiving yards.

- Cornerback Mario Goodrich, who last week became the first Clemson player with two interceptions in a game since Cordrea Tankersley in 2016, attempting to become the first Clemson player with multiple games with two interceptions in a single season since DeAndre McDaniel against Georgia Tech and Miami (Fla.) in 2009. McDaniel is now a defensive analyst on Clemson's staff.

- Cornerback Malcolm Greene attempting to become the first Clemson true freshman with an interception in consecutive games since Jayron Kearse in 2013 (at Maryland and at Virginia).

- Quarterback Trevor Lawrence (32-1 as a starter) attempting to break the school record for wins as a starting quarterback. Lawrence is presently tied with Rodney Williams, Tajh Boyd and Deshaun Watson at 32 wins each.

- Lawrence attempting to post his third career 400-yard passing game to tie Tajh Boyd for the second-most in school history.

- Lawrence attempting to become the first player in school history with back-to-back 400-yard passing games.

- Lawrence (11) attempting to post his 12th career 300-yard passing game. He, Tajh Boyd (18) and Deshaun Watson (13) are the only players in school history to record double-digit career 300-yard passing games.

- Lawrence attempting to record back-to-back 300-yard passing games for the first time since the end of the 2018 season in the College Football Playoff against Notre Dame and Alabama.

- Lawrence (9,181) needing 485 passing yards to pass Charlie Whitehurst (9,665) for third-most career passing yards in Clemson history.

- Lawrence (99) needing one touchdown of any kind to join Tajh Boyd (133), Lamar Jackson (119), Deshaun Watson (116) and Philip Rivers (112) as the only players in ACC history to be responsible for 100 career touchdowns (scored and/or thrown).

- Lawrence (85) needing five passing touchdowns to tie Deshaun Watson (90) in career passing touchdowns. Watson currently sits second in Clemson history and third in ACC history.

- Lawrence (17) attempting to record another 50-yard touchdown pass to surpass Tajh Boyd (17) for the most by a Clemson quarterback since 1950.

- Lawrence attempting to record his 19th career game with three or more passing touchdowns. He presently stands at 18 such games, four shy of Tajh Boyd's school record of 22. Clemson is 18-0 when Lawrence throws three touchdown passes.

- Lawrence (688) needing 12 completions to join Tajh Boyd (901), Charlie Whitehurst (817) and Deshaun Watson (814) as the only Clemson players to reach 700 career completions.

- Placekicker B.T. Potter entering the game with five career field goals of 50 yards or more. He is presently tied for the school record for career 50-yard field goals with Chris Gardocki (1988-90) and Donald Igwebuike (1981-84).

- Wide receiver Cornell Powell attempting to take sole possession of a school record with a fourth consecutive 100-yard receiving game. His current three-game streak tied a school record shared with Charlie Waters (1969), Tony Horne (1997), Rod Gardner (2000), DeAndre Hopkins (2012) and Sammy Watkins (2013).

- Powell attempting to become the first Clemson player ever to record three consecutive 150-yard receiving games. His two-game stretch of 150-yard games is tied with DeAndre Hopkins (2012) and Sammy Watkins (2013) for the longest streak of back-to-back 150-yard receiving performances in school history.

- Powell attempting to catch a touchdown in three straight games for the first time in his career. He would be the second Clemson player to accomplish the feat this year, joining tight end Davis Allen, who scored against Virginia, Miami (Fla.) and Georgia Tech in three straight weeks.

- Wide receiver Amari Rodgers entering the game with career highs in receptions (58), receiving yards (813) and receiving touchdowns (six).

- Rodgers attempting to become the first player in Clemson history to catch at least six passes in eight straight games.

- Rodgers attempting to become the first Clemson player to catch 10 receptions in back-to-back games since Artavis Scott against Louisville and Boston College in 2014.

- Rodgers (813) needing 187 receiving yards to record the 12th 1,000-yard season in Clemson history.

- Rodgers (1,937) needing 63 yards to become the 15th player in Clemson history to reach 2,000 career

Clemson's most recent game against Virginia Tech was also a prime-time contest on ABC in 2017. Clemson earned a 31-17 win in Blacksburg that night.

-- ON THE OPPONENT --

SERIES HISTORY VS. VIRGINIA TECH

Clemson has a 22-12-1 lead in its all-time series with Virginia Tech. Clemson's 23-3 victory on Oct. 1, 2011 in Blacksburg ended a five-game Virginia Tech winning streak in the series, as Clemson is now in the midst of its own five-game winning streak against the Hokies.

Clemson's five consecutive wins against Virginia Tech include a pair of ACC Championship Games, one in 2011 and one in 2016. The Tigers defeated Virginia Tech twice in 2011, 23-3 at Blacksburg and 38-10 in the ACC Championship Game in Charlotte. It remains the only time Clemson has beaten the same school twice in the same year.

Clemson defeated Virginia Tech, 38-17, in the regular season at Clemson in 2012 and in the 2016 ACC Championship Game, 42-35. Clemson won the teams' last meeting, a 31-17 prime-time win in a game that was ESPN College GameDay's featured contest.

The series is one of the oldest in Clemson history. The two teams first met in 1900 when the Tigers won, 17-5, in Charlotte during John Heisman's first year as head coach. That was Clemson's fifth straight win in a 6-0 season.

Virginia Tech legend Frank Beamer was 5-6 against Clemson, including a 2-2 record against Clemson in Memorial Stadium and an 0-2 mark against Dabo Swinney. Swinney is 5-0 all-time vs. Virginia Tech, one of five ACC programs against which he is undefeated, a list that also includes Wake Forest (12-0), Louisville (6-0), Virginia (5-0) and Duke (3-0).

MEMORABLE SERIES MOMENTS

- Nov. 3, 1956 - Clemson and Virginia Tech waged the first battle of Top 20 teams in the history of Memorial Stadium. A Death Valley crowd of roughly 23,000 witnessed No. 13 Clemson's 21-6 defeat of No. 15 Virginia Tech.

- Oct. 1, 1960 - Clemson beat Virginia Tech, 13-7, but Clemson's new-look venue was the story of the day. The game represented Clemson's first time utilizing the 5,658 new seats added to the west end zone of Memorial Stadium that year.

- Nov. 10, 1984 - Clemson defeated Virginia Tech, 17-10, in arguably the greatest matchup of defensive linemen in Death Valley history. Clemson featured All-American William Perry, and Virginia Tech featured Outland Trophy winner and future All-Pro Bruce Smith. Clemson also had freshman Michael Dean Perry, who went on to earn six Pro Bowl selections.

- Sept. 14, 1985 - David Treadwell foreshadowed things to come with a 36-yard field goal on the last play of the game to give Clemson a 20-17 victory at Virginia Tech in the season opener. Perry Williams had a Clemson-record five pass deflections in this game and Clemson overcame five turnovers in the win. Clemson wouldn't win another five-turnover game until 2016 against Louisville.

- Sept. 13, 1986 - Virginia Tech upset Clemson in the season opener at Clemson in 1986 by a 20-14 score behind coach Bill Dooley. It was one of just two season-opening losses in Danny Ford's Clemson career, and the Tigers lost just two games that season and went on to win the ACC. A blocked punt by Virginia Tech's Mitch Dove was a key play in the game. Clemson's punter that day was Bill Spiers, who went on to a 13-year major league baseball career and is now on Dabo Swinney's staff as Senior Assistant for Offense & Special Teams. His son, Will, is now in his fourth season as Clemson's starting punter.

- Sept. 23, 1999 - Virginia Tech won in Blacksburg, a 31-11 victory in a Thursday night game on ESPN. Clemson trailed just 17-11 late in the game, but Virginia Tech scored two touchdowns in the last four minutes. Michael Vick went 7-for-16 passing for 88 yards with three interceptions, the most effective pass defense against Vick that season as Virginia Tech went on to play Florida State for the National Championship.

- Oct. 1, 2011 - Clemson defeated Virginia Tech for the first time in 22 years with a 23-3 victory in Blacksburg. Clemson held Virginia Tech to 258 yards of total offense. Virginia Tech was ranked No. 10 entering the game and the victory gave Clemson three straight wins over AP Top 20 teams, a first for an ACC team.

- Dec. 3, 2011 - Clemson won its first ACC title in 20 years with a 38-10 win over Virginia Tech in Charlotte. Virginia Tech was ranked No. 3 in the nation in the coaches poll, and, at the time, the win tied for the highest-ranked team Clemson had beaten in its history. Tajh Boyd was named MVP, as he completed 20-of-29 passes for 240 yards and three scores. The win clinched Clemson's first Orange Bowl berth in 30 years.

LAST MEETING

Clemson 31, Virginia Tech 17

(Sept. 30, 2017 at Blacksburg, Va.)

Capped off by fourth-quarter interceptions by Dorian O'Daniel and Austin Bryant, No. 2 Clemson defeated No. 12 Virginia Tech, 31-17, at Lane Stadium.

Offensively, the Tigers were led by Kelly Bryant, who threw for 186 yards and a touchdown on 12 completions. Bryant also rushed for 94 yards on 19 carries. O'Daniel piloted the Tiger defense, recovering a fumble, returning an interception 22 yards for his second pick-six of the season and totaling 10 tackles and a sack.

Clemson struck first, holding Virginia Tech to a three-and-out on its first drive before taking a 3-0 lead on an Alex Spence 23-yard field goal just over five minutes into the first quarter. After the Tiger defense forced another three-and-out on the ensuing Hokie drive, Clemson took a 10-0 lead on a Tavien Feaster 60-yard touchdown reception, the running back's first career receiving score.

The Hokies put their first points on the board with three minutes left in the second quarter on a Joey Slye 43-yard field goal that cut Clemson's lead to 10-3. The Tigers scored the last points before halftime, finishing a drive in which Deon Cain mustered 55 receiving yards with a C.J. Fuller one-yard touchdown run.

The Tigers also opened the second half scoring, as Feaster gave the Tigers a 24-3 lead on a one-yard rushing score after O'Daniel recovered a Hokie fumble. The Tigers maintained that lead entering the final quarter, as the defense stopped a Virginia Tech fake field goal attempt in the final seconds of the third quarter.

Virginia Tech narrowed Clemson's lead to 24-10 a minute into the fourth quarter when it scored its first touchdown. O'Daniel's pick-six came on the Hokies' next drive, putting the Tigers up 31-10.

NOTES

-- FROM THE ARCHIVES --

ON THIS DATE

- Dec. 5, 1972 - Red Parker was named as Clemson's head coach following the resignation of Hootie Ingram.

- Dec. 5, 1978 - Danny Ford, offensive line coach for the Tigers, was named as Charley Pell's replacement as Clemson's head coach. He became the head coach at age 30, the youngest Division I head coach in the nation, and would go on to lead the Tigers to the 1981 national championship.

- Dec. 5, 1989 - Frank Howard joined an elite group in the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame. The ceremonies took place in the Waldorf-Astoria in New York City. He joined former Clemson mentors John Heisman and Jess Neely in the Hall of Fame.

- Dec. 5, 2000 - Kyle Young and Chad Carson were both named first-team Academic All-Americans, the only year in history Clemson has had two first-team Academic All-Americans.

- Dec. 5, 2009 - C.J. Spiller rushed for 233 yards and four touchdowns, but it was not enough as No. 12 Georgia Tech defeated Clemson 39-34 in the ACC Championship game at Tampa, Fla. Clemson averaged 9.5 yards per carry and 8.1 yards per play in the contest in which neither team punted. Both teams gained at least 300 rushing yards, the only college game in 2009 in which both teams had at least 300 yards on the ground.

- Dec. 5, 2015 - The running tandem of Deshaun Watson and Wayne Gallman led Clemson to a thrilling 45-37 win over North Carolina in the ACC Championship Game, cementing Clemson's place as the No. 1 seed for the College Football Playoff.

-- NOTES FROM LAST GAME --

POSTGAME NOTES VS. PITT

- Clemson joined 2013 Florida State as the only ACC teams ever to score 34 or more points in each of the first nine games of a season.

- Clemson reached the 40-point mark for the seventh time in its last eight games.

- Clemson scored 31 points in the first quarter, tying the highest-scoring first quarter against an FBS opponent in Clemson history. Clemson had previously scored 28 first-quarter points against Duke in 2012 and against NC State in 2019. Clemson scored 31 first-quarter points against FCS South Carolina State in 2016.

- The 31 first-quarter points were four points shy of the school record for any quarter (35), set in the second quarter against Wake Forest in 1981, the third quarter against North Carolina in 2011 and the second quarter against Georgia Tech earlier this season.

- Clemson gained 581 total yards, its second-most this season. Clemson has now opened a season with 400 yards of offense in each of the first nine games of a season for the second time in school history (2018).

- Clemson threw for 436 yards. In two all-time games against Pitt at Memorial Stadium, Clemson has thrown for 1,016 passing yards (508.0 per game) against the Panthers at Death Valley.

- Clemson threw for 300 yards in a fifth straight game for the first time in school history.

- Clemson added to its school-record streak of consecutive games with at least 25 pass completions, reaching 25 completions in a seventh straight contest.

- Clemson recorded multiple rushing touchdowns in a 25th consecutive game. The last time Clemson was held to a single rushing touchdown was in the 2018 Cotton Bowl.

- Clemson recorded a season-high four rushing touchdowns, its most since the 2019 ACC Championship Game vs. Virginia (four).

- Clemson recorded four interceptions. Pitt quarterback Kenny Pickett had entered the game with four interceptions in 259 pass attempts this year.

- Clemson won the turnover margin, 5-1. The plus-four performance in the turnover margin surpassed Clemson's best performance of the year (plus-three vs. Syracuse) and was its best since a plus-four effort at NC State last year.

- Clemson's four interceptions were its most since a four-interception game against NC State last year.

- Clemson's three-interception first quarter was its first time recording three interceptions in a single quarter since 2016, when Clemson picked off Troy three times in the second quarter.

- Clemson outscored Pitt off turnovers, 28-7, and has now outscored opponents off turnovers by a 265-59 mark since the start of the 2018 postseason.

- Quarterback Trevor Lawrence completed 26-of-37 passes for 403 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions.

- Lawrence improved to 32-1 as a starter, tying the school record for wins as a starting quarterback. He matches the career win totals of Rodney Williams, Tajh Boyd and Deshaun Watson, who finished with 32 wins each.

- Lawrence's 403 passing yards were one shy of his career high of 404, set earlier this season at Georgia Tech.

- The game was Lawrence's second career 400-yard passing game and the 12th by a Clemson quarterback all-time. He joined Deshaun Watson (five) and Tajh Boyd (three) as the only Clemson quarterbacks to record multiple 400-yard passing games in a career.

- With Lawrence's performance, Clemson has now had a 400-yard passer in consecutive games, including the 439-yard performance by D.J. Uiagalelei at Notre Dame in Clemson's most recent game prior to Saturday.

It's the first time in school history Clemson has had a 400-yard passer in back-to-back games.

- With his fifth pass attempt of the game, Lawrence (1,032) became the fourth Clemson player to attempt 1,000 career passes, joining Tajh Boyd (1,402), Charlie Whitehurst (1,368) and Deshaun Watson (1,207). His first touchdown pass of the game came on his 999th career pass attempt.

- Lawrence posted his 11th career 300-yard passing game. He, Tajh Boyd (18) and Deshaun Watson (13) are the only players in school history to record double-digit career 300-yard passing games.

- With 412 yards of total offense, Lawrence (10,001) passed Charlie Whitehurst (9,763) for third-most career yards of total offense in Clemson history.

- Lawrence (10,001) joined Tajh Boyd (13,069) and Deshaun Watson (12,094) as the only players in Clemson history to record 10,000 yards of total offense in a career.

- Running back Travis Etienne rushed 11 times for 58 yards with two rushing touchdowns and caught three passes for 20 receiving yards.

- With 20 receiving yards in the contest, Etienne (511) broke the Clemson record for receiving yards by a running back in a single season, held previously by C.J. Spiller (503 in 2009).

- Etienne scored a two-yard rushing touchdown in the first quarter, adding to his FBS record for most career games scoring a touchdown. He now has a touchdown of any kind in 44 of his 52 career games.

- Etienne rushed for a touchdown in a seventh consecutive game to record his third career streak of seven games or more with a rushing touchdown. It ties a seven-game streak of his own from 2018 and a seven-game streak by Kenny Flowers in 1985 for the sixth-longest streak in school history.

- During the game, Etienne (76) joined Tajh Boyd (133), Deshaun Watson (116) and Trevor Lawrence (99) as the only players in school history to be responsible for 75 career touchdowns (scored and/or thrown).

- Etienne (68) passed Florida Atlantic's Devin Singletary (66) for sole possession of the sixth-most career rushing touchdowns according to official NCAA FBS records.

- Etienne scored multiple touchdowns for the 23rd time in his career. The FBS record for most career games scoring two or more touchdowns is 25, shared by Miami (Ohio)'s Travis Prentice (1996-99) and Wisconsin's Montee Ball (2009-12).

- Etienne (76) passed Texas' Ricky Williams (75) for the fifth-most career total touchdowns of any FBS player since 1956.

- With 12 points in the game, Etienne (456) became the 14th player (and sixth non-kicker) in FBS history to reach 450 career points. He joined Florida State kicker

NOTES

Dustin Hopkins (466 from 2009-12) as the only ACC players to accomplish the feat.

- Wide receiver Cornell Powell recorded six receptions for a career-high 176 receiving yards, surpassing his 161-yard effort against Notre Dame in Clemson's most recent game.

- Powell's 176 receiving yards tied for the 10th-most in a game in Clemson history.

- Powell recorded his third consecutive 100-yard receiving game to tie a school record shared by Charlie Waters (1969), Tony Horne (1997), Rod Gardner (2000), DeAndre Hopkins (2012) and Sammy Watkins (2013).

- Powell became the first Clemson player to record back-to-back 150-yard receiving games since Sammy Watkins against Maryland and Virginia in 2013. It's the third such instance in Clemson history, joining Watkins in 2013 and DeAndre Hopkins against Georgia Tech and Boston College in 2012.

- Powell scored on a 43-yard flea flicker from Lawrence in the first quarter. It's now the second time this season he's scored a touchdown in consecutive games.

- Wide receiver E.J. Williams made his first career start. Instead of his usual No. 6, Williams wore No. 39 during the Military Appreciation Day game in honor of his father, Sgt. 1st Class Eddie Williams Sr., who died at 39 years of age in 2010 after serving 18 years in the U.S. Army.

- Williams gained 38 yards on three receptions with one receiving touchdown.

- Williams recorded his first career touchdown reception on a five-yard touchdown pass from Lawrence in the first quarter. The touchdown opened the scoring, and with the win, Clemson is now 57-1 when scoring first since 2015.

- Running back Lyn-J Dixon scored his first rushing touchdown of the season on a one-yard first quarter run.

- Running back Chez Mellusi scored his third rushing touchdown of the season on a two-yard touchdown run in the second quarter.

- Mellusi scored his first career receiving touchdown on a nine-yard touchdown pass from quarterback D.J. Uiagalelei in the fourth quarter. Saturday marked Mellusi's first career game with multiple touchdowns.

- Wide receiver Amari Rodgers recorded a career-high 10 receptions for 93 yards.

- Rodgers became the first player in Clemson history to catch at least six passes in seven straight games.

- Rodgers, who entered the game already holding single-season career highs in receiving yards and receiving touchdowns, now has a single-season career-high 58 receptions this season, surpassing his 55 receptions in 2018.

- With the 10 receptions on Saturday, Rodgers tied Terry Smith (162) for ninth in school history in career receptions.

- Cornerback Malcolm Greene ended Pitt's second possession with his first career interception.

- Cornerback Andrew Booth Jr. recorded his second interception of the season, picking off Kenny Pickett in the first quarter.

- Cornerback Mario Goodrich recorded his first interception of the season on Clemson's third pick of the first quarter. It was his second career interception and his first since the third game of the 2019 season at Syracuse.

- Goodrich added his second interception of the game in the fourth quarter, the first multi-interception game of his career. It was the first multi-interception game by a Clemson player since Cordrea Tankersley's two-interception game against Virginia Tech in the 2016 ACC Championship Game.

- Clemson registered six sacks and has now recorded multiple sacks in 31 of its last 32 games, including each of its last 15. Clemson's 15-game streak with multiple sacks ties a streak across the 2012-13 seasons for the Tigers' fourth-longest streak since 1980.

- Clemson's six sacks tied a season-high set in the season opener at Wake Forest.

- Linebacker Trenton Simpson recorded his third sack of the season on Pitt's opening drive.

- Defensive tackle Tyler Davis returned to action and recorded a sack in the second quarter.

- Linebacker Baylon Spector added to his single-season career high in sacks, pushing his season total to 3.5 with a sack in the second quarter.

- Defensive end Xavier Thomas added his first forced fumble of the season in the second quarter, coming on his third sack of 2020.

- Defensive end Regan Upshaw added a sack to push his season and career total to 2.5.

- Linebacker LaVonta Bentley added his second sack of the season — the second of his career — in the fourth quarter.

- Bentley later added the first forced fumble of his career in the fourth quarter. It was recovered by linebacker Kane Patterson, his first career fumble recovery.

- Captains for the contest were quarterback Trevor Lawrence, wide receiver Cornell Powell, linebacker James Skalski and safety Nolan Turner.

WITH THE WIN...

- Clemson has now earned eight wins through the first nine games of a season for the 16th time in school history. Clemson previously won at least eight games in its first nine contests in the 1939, 1948, 1950, 1978, 1981, 1987, 2000, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018 and 2019 seasons.

- Clemson won a seventh ACC regular season game for a sixth-straight season, adding to the longest streak in school history. It gives Clemson at least seven regular season conference wins in eight of the last nine seasons, dating to 2012.

- The 2020 Clemson seniors improved to 27-0 at home from 2017-20 and tied the school record for most home wins by a senior class held by the 2017, 2018 and 2019 seniors (27 each). The group became the first Clemson class in the modern era to post a perfect four-year record at home and the first to do so since Memorial Stadium opened in 1942. (Note: Clemson was undefeated at home in a four-year span from 1900-03 but only played a total of five home games in that four-year window).

- Clemson's seniors became the first FBS senior class to post a perfect career record at home since the 2010 Boise State (26-0) and Oklahoma (25-0) seniors.

- Clemson finished undefeated at home for the sixth time in seven years. It marks the school's first time accomplishing the feat (including ties) since 1935-41, when the team was 15-1-1 in its final seven seasons at Riggs Field prior to the opening of Memorial Stadium in 1942.

- Clemson has now won all its home games in four consecutive seasons for the first time under Head Coach Dabo Swinney.

- Clemson won its sixth home game this season to give the Tigers a 10-year streak of winning at least six games at Memorial Stadium. Clemson has posted a winning record at home in 19 consecutive seasons.

- Clemson is now a national-best 47-1 at home in the College Football Playoff era (since 2014) and defeated the Pitt program that was responsible for Clemson's lone home loss in that span (43-42 in 2016).

- Clemson won a 28th consecutive home game to extend its school record for the longest home winning streak and longest home unbeaten streak in school history. Of the 119 players on Clemson's 2020 roster, 110 have never experienced a home loss in their Clemson careers. Nine fifth-year seniors on Clemson's 2020 roster were on the 2016 team that recovered from a home loss to Pitt by winning the national championship that season.

- At 30-2, the Clemson seniors tied the 2018 and 2019 seniors (30 wins each) as the winningest class in school history in regular season conference play and pulled within one game of the four-year conference record of 31, set by multiple Florida State classes from 1995-2000.

- Clemson improved to 26-6 in games following a loss under Dabo Swinney, including season openers following a loss in the previous season finale.

- Clemson has played 124 games since losing back-to-back games, the longest active streak in the nation and the longest in ACC history, per ESPN. Clemson's last time losing back-to-back games came in 2011.

- Clemson, which entered the game fourth in the AP Poll after being ranked No. 1 prior to its last game, won its 17th consecutive game when ranked lower in the AP Poll than in its previous contest. Clemson is now 25-4 under Dabo Swinney when playing a game at a lower AP ranking than in its previous contest, including season openers in which Clemson opened lower than it finished the prior season.

- Clemson improved to 66-3 in regular season play since the start of the 2015 season.

- Clemson improved to 50-3 against conference opponents since the start of the 2015 season, the first year of Clemson's active run of five consecutive ACC titles.

- Clemson evened its all-time series with Pitt at 2-2 and leveled its all-time home record in the series at 1-1.

- Though 2020 is technically a divisionless season, Clemson improved to 32-8 against opponents historically from the ACC Coastal Division, including postseason play, under Head Coach Dabo Swinney. Clemson has now won 18 of its last 19 games against the Coastal Division since 2015.

- Clemson has now won 85 of its last 87 games, including each of its last 48, when leading at halftime.

- Clemson improved to 107-2 since 2011 when leading after three quarters.

- Clemson now has a 63-3 record when winning the turnover margin since 2011.

- Clemson now has a 106-2 record when totaling more first downs than its opponent since 2011.

- Clemson has now won 87 straight games when holding teams under 23 points, dating to 2010.

MOST WINS SINCE 2015, SECOND-MOST SINCE 2011

Clemson's recent success has been particularly pronounced in the midst of Clemson's five-year streak of College Football Playoff appearances since 2015. Clemson leads Alabama for the most wins in the country in that span, while those two teams have each earned two national championships in that time frame.

14-WIN SEASONS

There have been 15 seasons of 14 or more wins since the NCAA split Division I in 1978. Clemson accounts for four of those 14-win seasons, matching Alabama for the most 14-win seasons in that span.

12-WIN SEASONS

Clemson has won at least 12 games in five consecutive seasons, the longest active streak of 12-win seasons and one of only four such streaks in major college football history, joining Alabama (five from 2014-18), Penn (seven from 1892-98) and Yale (five from 1888-92).

* - active streak

Even at lower thresholds, Clemson's streak of success would remain impressive. Of the 130 active FBS schools, only 30 programs won at least six games in all five seasons from 2015-19. That number dips to 12 when pushing the win total to eight, and drops all the way to four (Clemson, Alabama, Oklahoma and Ohio State) when setting the bar at 10 wins.

10-WIN SEASONS

Clemson entered 2020 riding a streak of nine consecutive seasons with 10+ wins. The program's ninth consecutive 10-win season in 2019 made Clemson only the fourth program in FBS history to record at least nine consecutive 10-win seasons, tying the 2001-09 Texas Longhorns for the third-longest streak on record. With another 10-win season in 2020, Clemson would become only the third program in FBS history to produce a "double-double" — double-digit wins in a double-digit number of consecutive seasons.

The record for consecutive 10-win seasons is 14, set by Florida State (1987-2000). Alabama is the only other program with an active streak of at least nine straight 10-win seasons.

The Tigers have 16 10-win seasons in school history, with more than half coming under head coach Dabo Swinney. The 2019 season was Clemson's sixth with at least 12 wins, with Swinney sitting at the helm for five of them.

THE 750 CLUB

In October 2019, Clemson recorded its 750th all-time victory, becoming the 15th FBS program (and first ACC program) at the time to reach 750 all-time wins.

SENIORS CHASING HISTORY

Every January, Head Coach Dabo Swinney conducts his first official meeting with his new team. The first order of business in the meeting is to "reset the room," reorganizing the seating arrangement with seniors in front and all succeeding classes in order behind them in the team auditorium.

The 2020 Clemson seniors reached the front of the room having watched each of the two classes in front of them depart as the winningest senior classes in FBS history, tied with the 2018 Alabama seniors at 55 wins in four years.

The 2019 seniors were the second Clemson class and one of only three classes all-time to reach 55 career wins in a four-year span. Clemson's 2019 group reached 55 wins in 58 games, tying the 2018 Alabama seniors as the quickest to that mark.

FIVE LEAGUE TITLES IN A ROW

Clemson won its fifth straight ACC championship in 2019, as the Tigers and the Oklahoma Sooners both became the first programs in an active FBS conference since the 1971-75 Alabama Crimson Tide to win five consecutive outright titles.

Clemson had already been the first ACC school to win four outright titles in a row prior to extending the streak to five in 2019. Florida State was a champion or co-champion nine years in a row from 1992-2000, but never won more than three outright in a row.

Clemson's success in the conference championship game era is unprecedented, as in 2019, Clemson became the first school since the formation of conference championship games in 1992 to win five consecutive conference title games.

POWER OVER THE POWER FIVE

Early in his head coaching tenure, Dabo Swinney laid out his belief to then-Clemson athletic director Terry Don Phillips that the Tigers needed to add tough non-conference challenges on top of their tests in ACC play to serve as a foundation for the program's growth.

"I had a conversation with Terry Don and said, 'Terry Don, I know we are not very good right now, but we need to play people because that is going to help me teach and help me develop the culture and the mindset that you have to have to win at the highest level,'" recounted Swinney. "I didn't think we had that, and that's what we committed to. That's what we've done."

That scheduling philosophy and culture change has resonated in the Clemson program, and since 2013, no team can claim more wins against Power Five Conference opponents than the Tigers.

NO. 1 FOR NO. 1 RECRUITS

As Clemson was in the midst of the winningest decade in school history and tied for the third-winningest decade in major college football history in the 2010s, Head Coach Dabo Swinney would frequently point out that Clemson accomplished its goals by finding the right fits for its program in recruiting rather than chasing recruiting rankings.

Swinney often noted that Clemson accomplished its immense success in his tenure despite never signing the No. 1 recruiting class in the country. That changed in 2020, when ESPN ranked Clemson's 2020 group as the nation's top recruiting class. Clemson also recorded its highest rankings in both Rivals (No. 2) and 247 Sports (No. 3) history.

Clemson has signed the nation's consensus top player in two out of the last three recruiting cycles, welcoming quarterback Trevor Lawrence in 2018 and defensive tackle Bryan Bresee in 2020.

Clemson is the only team in the country to sign Rivals' No. 1 recruit twice in a three-year span since Dabo Swinney was named head coach at Clemson. Clemson and Alabama (two each) are tied for the most No. 1 recruits signed since 2009 per Rivals' rankings. Clemson and Georgia (two each) are tied for the most in that span per the 247 Composite.

Clemson's recruiting classes have finished in the top 15 of at least one of three primary recruiting services (ESPN, Rivals and 247 Sports) every year since 2011. Clemson is one of only seven schools to produce a Top 15 class in each of the last 10 years, a group that also includes Alabama, Auburn, Georgia, LSU, Notre Dame and Ohio State. After that group, the next longest active streak of Top 15 classes is five (Florida).

ESTEEMED COMPANY

Head Coach Dabo Swinney's run of excellence in his decade-plus at Clemson has placed him in the company of college football legends.

Swinney boasts a career winning percentage of .812, sitting as one of only 13 head coaches in history with at least 10 seasons of FBS head coaching experience to post a mark of .800 or better.

FIVE "FINAL FOURS" FOR SWINNEY

While the term "Final Four" may still be the linguistic property of the men's basketball tournament, since the advent of the four-team College Football Playoff in 2014, Head Coach Dabo Swinney has had Clemson among the sport's final four teams in each of the last five seasons, joining Alabama Head Coach Nick Saban (2014-18 seasons) as the only coaches to make the College Football Playoff five consecutive years. Oklahoma has qualified for four College Football Playoffs in the last five years, one under Bob Stoops and three in a row under current coach Lincoln Riley.

The men's college basketball tournament dates to 1939. In the history of that tournament, only John Wooden of UCLA (nine from 1967-75) and Mike Krzyzewski of Duke (five from 1988-92) coached teams to five consecutive Final Fours.

During Wooden's streak of nine straight Final Fours, he recorded eight championships and a semifinal loss. Coach K's Blue Devils had two championships, a second-place finish and two semifinal losses in their run. Saban's run produced two championships, two runner-up finishes and a semifinal loss in his run from 2014-18, while Swinney so far has two championships, two runner-up finishes and a semifinal loss from 2015-19.

Swinney is 6-3 in College Football Playoff games and that .667 percentage is tied for the best among football coaches who have been in at least three games. When compared to basketball coaches who have been in the Final Four, only three have a better winning percentage than Swinney with a minimum of eight games coached: John Wooden (21-3, .875), Adolph Rupp (9-2, .818) and Bob Knight (7-2, .778).

* - Men's Basketball Final Four or College Football Playoff games

With another "Final Four" appearance by virtue of a College Football Playoff selection in 2020, Swinney would join basketball's John Wooden (nine straight at UCLA from 1968-75) as the only college football or men's basketball coaches to take teams to six consecutive Final Fours in their respective sports.

STAFF CONTINUITY

Clemson has become a beacon of stability in the increasingly unstable environment of college football. Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney is in his 18th overall season at Clemson in 2020, including his 12th full season as head coach (and his 13th including an interim stint in 2008).

From the start of Swinney's first season as full-time head coach in 2009 through 2019, there had been 392 head coaching tenures in the FBS, but only one such tenure at Clemson. Clemson and Duke are the only schools in the ACC with only one head coach since the start of the 2009 season, and among the 11 schools ever to qualify for the College Football Playoff, only Clemson and Alabama have had only one head coach since 2009.

Head Coach Dabo Swinney coached his 150th game as leader of the Clemson program in the 150-year anniversary season of college football in 2019. He became just the second coach to coach 150 career games at Clemson, joining Hall of Famer Frank Howard, who coached 295 games as Clemson's head coach from 1940-69.

Entering 2020, only eight coaches had coached at least 150 games at schools presently in the Football Bowl Subdivision while achieving an .800 or better mark. Interestingly, Clemson holds a 4-0 combined all-time record against the top three coaches on the list.

A FAMILIAR NO. 1

Clemson opened the season at No. 1 atop both polls, marking the program's second straight top preseason ranking. With the top selection in the AP Poll, Clemson became the sixth program since the inception of the preseason poll in 1950 ever to open consecutive preseason polls at No. 1, joining Alabama (2016-18), USC (2004-05), Oklahoma (1985-87, 1974-75, 1956-57), Ohio State (1969-70) and Notre Dame (1953-54).

Seeing Clemson at No. 1 has started to feel familiar in recent years, as 2020 is now the sixth straight year in which Clemson has appeared at No. 1 in at least one AP Poll. Dabo Swinney joined Nick Saban (13) as the only coach in AP Poll history (since 1936) to lead a team to at least one No. 1 ranking in six consecutive years. Clemson, Alabama (13 from 2008-20) and Miami (seven from 1986-92) are the only programs to appear at No. 1 in at least six consecutive years.

Records reflect results as the AP No. 1, not total games coached

A total of 22 coaches have led the AP's top-ranked team into a game at least 15 times. Sixteen of the 22 coaches on the list are College Football Hall of Famers, and a 17th (Bob Stoops) is on the ballot for 2021. Swinney holds a total of nine career victories over five coaches on the list, including two each over Stoops, Nick Saban, Urban Meyer and Steve Spurrier and one over Bobby Bowden.

CHAMPIONSHIP HERITAGE

After being named Clemson's full-time coach in December of 2008, Head Coach Dabo Swinney set about securing his first signing class in 2009.

His first class, which he tabbed the "Dandy Dozen," brought home Clemson's first ACC title since 1991 during their junior campaign in 2011. All of Clemson's first 11 signing classes under Swinney have at least one ACC title to their credit in their four years at Clemson. Every signing class since 2012 has played for at least one national title, and every class since 2013 has won a national championship with exception of Clemson's 2019 class, which fell just shy in the College Football Playoff National Championship Game last season.

EXCEEDING EXPECTATIONS

Prior to 2019, Clemson equaled or exceeded its postseason AP and USA Today rankings in comparison to its preseason rankings in eight straight seasons. That included quite an accomplishment in both 2016 and 2018, as it finished No. 1 by winning the national championship to exceed the school's No. 2 preseason ranking both times.

Clemson exceeded its USA Today coaches poll preseason ranking eight straight years from 2011-18, the longest such streak in poll history. With regard to Associated Press voting, Clemson exceeded its preseason ranking in the AP poll in seven of the last nine years. The lone exceptions came in 2013, when Clemson was picked No. 8 in the AP preseason poll and finished No. 8, and 2019, when Clemson finished second in the country after opening the season at No. 1.

PLAYOFF STREAK

With five consecutive College Football Playoff appearances, entering 2020, Clemson's active playoff streak is as long or longer than:

- 31 of 32 NFL teams
- 29 of 30 MLB teams
- 28 of 31 NHL teams
- 27 of 30 NBA teams

So, despite only four teams making the College Football Playoff each year, Clemson's playoff streak is as long or longer than 115 of the 123 teams in the four major professional sports.

Included below is a look at the only eight teams in the four major professional leagues with active playoff streaks exceeding Clemson's five:

WHEN IN DOUBT, CLEMSON RESPONDS

After opening the season as the preseason No. 1, Clemson held firm as the nation's No. 1 team in the AP Poll until Nov. 8, when the Tigers dropped to No. 4 following a double-overtime loss at Notre Dame. In Head Coach Dabo Swinney's tenure, the Tigers have routinely responded well following dips in the AP rankings.

Under Swinney, Clemson is 25-4 in games in which it enters ranked lower in the AP Poll than it did in its previous contest. This includes the 2014, 2016, 2017 and 2018 season openers in which Clemson opened the season lower than its ranking from the final game of the previous campaign. Including a win against Pitt following a rankings drop after its previous contest at Notre Dame, Clemson has won its last 17 games when entering ranked lower in the AP Poll than in its previous game.

STREAKS OF EXCELLENCE

Included below are a number of additional historically profound streaks presently being produced by Clemson:

- Has won 80 of its last 86 games overall dating to 2014.
- Has won 50 of its last 53 games against ACC teams.
- Has won 85 of its last 87 games, including each of its last 48, when leading at halftime.
- Is 107-2 since 2011 when leading after three quarters.
- Is 57-1 when scoring first since 2015.
- Has a 106-2 record when totaling more first downs than its opponent since 2011.
- Has a 63-3 record when winning the turnover margin since 2011.
- Is 66-1 when rushing for 200+ yards under Dabo Swinney.
- Is 52-0 when both passing and rushing for 200+ yards under Dabo Swinney.
- Is 50-2 since 2015 when outscoring opponents in the "Middle Eight," defined as the final four minutes of the first half and the first four minutes of the second half.
- Is 51-2 when having a 100-yard rusher since 2011.
- Has won 26 of its last 28 games away from home against ACC teams.
- Has won 26 of its last 28 road games.
- Has won 41 of its last 46 games away from home.
- Has won 49 of its last 50 games at home, including a school-record 28 in a row.
- Has won 37 of its last 38 games against ACC Atlantic Division teams, including games against typical Atlantic division foes in a division-free season in 2020.
- Has won 24 games in a row in September.
- Has won 27 of its last 28 games in October.
- Has won 15 of its last 16 games in November.
- Has won 12 games in a row in December.
- Has won 72 of its last 74 consecutive games played on Saturdays, including a 50-game streak that surpassed the 1953-57 Oklahoma Sooners (45) for the longest streak in the FBS in the AP Poll era (since 1936).
- Has won 23 of its last 27 games against top-25 teams since the start of the 2015 season. That includes a 22-4 mark against AP Top 25 teams, the highest winning percentage in ranked games in the country.
- Enters 2020 having won 48 of its last 51 games against teams that ended their season in a bowl game (including 2018 Boston College, whose bowl game was cancelled as the result of inclement weather).
- Has won 87 straight games when holding teams under 23 points (dates to 2010).
- Has won 27 of its last 32 one-possession games

since 2011, the highest winning percentage in the country in one-score games in that span.

ACC WINNING STREAKS

Prior to a loss to single-year ACC member Notre Dame, Clemson had won 28 consecutive games against ACC opponents, tied for the second-longest such streak in conference history. Clemson accounts for three of the eight longest winning streaks in conference play in ACC history.

ROAD WARRIORS

Clemson has won 26 of its last 28 true road games. The Tigers have also earned victories in 41 of their last 46 games away from home overall.

Clemson posted a 5-0 record on the road last season, with four road wins in ACC play plus a road victory against an SEC opponent. Last season, Clemson earned its 12th consecutive road victory in its regular season finale at South Carolina, tying for the longest road winning streak in school history. A win at Wake Forest in the 2020 season opener allowed the current streak to stand alone in the record books, a streak that concluded at Notre Dame in November.

SATURDAYS ARE FOR THE TIGERS

Clemson has won 72 of its last 74 Saturday games. Clemson went 12-2 during the 2017 campaign, with its only losses coming on a Friday at Syracuse and a Monday on New Year's Day in the Sugar Bowl, followed by a 15-0 campaign in 2018 and a 14-1 season in 2019 in which its only loss was on a Monday in the College Football Playoff National Championship Game.

Before a loss to Notre Dame on Saturday, Nov. 7, 2020, you had to travel back to Nov. 12, 2016, a total of 1,456 days prior to that Notre Dame game for Clemson's most recent loss on a Saturday. Clemson's 50-game Saturday winning streak was the longest winning streak in Saturday games in FBS history, surpassing the 45 straight Saturday tilts Oklahoma won in the midst of its FBS-record 47-game winning streak in the 1950s.

The Tigers' record streak started following a 2016 loss to Pitt that was preceded by a 21-game Saturday winning streak across the 2014-16 seasons, previously the longest such streak in program history.

A LOOK BACK: 29 IN A ROW

Clemson's remarkable 29-game winning streak across the 2018-19 seasons represented not only a highwater mark in the history of the program but also one of the most impressive streaks in the history of the sport's highest levels.

Clemson's streak was only the 28th winning streak of 25 or more games in major college football history. It finished tied for the 12th-longest streak all-time and tied for the second-longest since the turn of the century.

Not only was Clemson's 29-game winning streak the longest in the history of Clemson Football, it was the longest in the history of Clemson Athletics in general. Previously, the longest streaks had been a 26-game winning streak by the Tigers' baseball team to open the 1977 season and a 26-match winning streak by the Tigers' men's tennis team from 1968-70. Clemson won its last four men's tennis matches of 1968, all 16 matches in 1969 and the first six matches of 1970.

ALL-ACC HONORS

Clemson's 16 All-ACC selections in 2019 led the conference and double the next-closest program (Wake Forest and Pitt, eight each). Clemson tied for the third-most selections in school history, trailing the program's 18 selections in 2018 and 17 selections in 2015.

Seven of Clemson's 16 All-ACC selections (not counting honorable mentions) returned in 2020, the most in the conference as of the start of spring practice.

ESTABLISHED FIREPOWER

In the past two seasons, the 2018 and 2019 Clemson squads became two of only 21 teams since 2010 to produce a 3,000-yard passer, 1,500-yard rusher and 1,000-yard receiver. By virtue of Trevor Lawrence, Travis Etienne and Tee Higgins each reaching their respective thresholds in 2019, Clemson became the first program this decade to produce a player in all three categories in back-to-back seasons.

Clemson was the only school to produce a 3,000/1,500/1,000-yard passing/rushing/receiving trio in 2019.

SECURING FBS IMMORTALITY

Etienne has scored at least one touchdown rushing or receiving in 44 of his 52 career games.

Entering the season, the NCAA FBS Record Book listed Florida's Tim Tebow (38 games from 2006-09) and Louisiana Tech's Kenneth Dixon (38 from 2012-15) as the record-holders for most career games scoring a touchdown.

Etienne was believed to have broken that record by scoring in a 39th career game against Miami. However, after additional research by ESPN, the NCAA updated its record book to reflect the 41 games in which San Diego State's Donnell Pumphrey scored a touchdown from 2013-16, so Etienne officially claimed the record by scoring against Boston College on Oct. 31.

ACC RUSHING KING

"Think about the great backs that have come through Clemson and come through the ACC since the 1970s, and none of them did what this young man did. I'm so proud to congratulate Travis Etienne, the ACC's all-time leading rusher."

Those were Head Coach Dabo Swinney's postgame sentiments to a roar of approval in the locker room following Clemson's Oct. 31 win against Boston College. In that game, a 15-yard pitch to Etienne changed the record books, as the senior from Jennings, La. became the ACC's all-time leading rusher, breaking the mark of NC State's Ted Brown held since 1978.

Presently, Etienne also ranks in the Top 10 in yards per carry according to conference thresholds in which players qualify by reaching 1,000 career rushing yards. Etienne's average is the best in conference history by any player with at least 250 career carries.

SEASONS WITH 7.0+ PER CARRY

Through his first three seasons, Etienne earned the distinction as the only FBS running back to average at least 7.0 yards per carry on at least 100 carries in three different seasons since 2000. The only other FBS player to accomplish the feat since the turn of the century was Nevada quarterback Colin Kaepernick, who did so from 2008-10.

This season, Etienne will attempt to become the first FBS player since 2000 to reach that average in four different seasons. He opened his career with a 7.2-yard average on 107 carries in 2017, a career-best 8.1-yard average on 204 carries in 2018 and an ACC-leading 7.8-yard average on 207 carries in 2019.

GAMES WITH 10.0+ PER CARRY

Etienne's explosive 2019 season opener resulted in an average of 17.1 yards per carry against Georgia Tech, which at the time was the second-best single-game average of his career (19.1 vs. Louisville in 2018). Against Louisville in mid-October, he ripped off 192 yards on 14 carries for a 13.7-yard average, and in early November, he posted a career-best 23.6-yard average on nine carries for 212 yards against Wofford.

Etienne's 12 career games averaging double-digit yards per carry on at least five attempts exceed Colin Kaepernick's 11 for the most by any FBS player since 2000.

200-YARD RUSHING GAMES

Etienne recorded a then-career-high 205 yards in Clemson's 2019 season opener against Georgia Tech, the 17th 200-yard rushing game in Clemson history. It was Etienne's second career 200-yard day, tying him with Ray Auger, Terrence Flagler, Raymond Priester and Andre Ellington for the most in school history.

Etienne then went on a record-grabbing spree in November 2019 against Wofford. He posted a career-high 212 yards on only nine carries, becoming the first Clemson player to post three career 200-yard games and joining Terrence Flagler as the only players with multiple 200-yard games in a single season. Etienne set those marks in the same contest in which he rushed for his 48th career touchdown to break James Davis' career record at Clemson.

Etienne's 12 carries against Georgia Tech had been the fewest by any Clemson player in the midst of a 200-yard performance. He undercut that mark with his nine-carry performance against Wofford, becoming only the third FBS player since 2000 to rush for 200 yards on single-digit carries.

100-YARD RUSHING GAMES

With 19 career 100-yard rushing performances, Etienne has broken Wayne Gallman's school career record of 17 from 2014-16.

HISTORY OF EXPLOSIVENESS

Ten of Etienne's 68 career rushing touchdowns have covered at least 50 yards. His 10 rushing touchdowns of 50-plus yards are the most by a Clemson player in records back to 1950, and his 11 total touchdowns covering that length (including a 53-yard touchdown reception in the Fiesta Bowl) are the second-most in that time frame.

YARDS AFTER CONTACT

Etienne's breakaway speed tends to dominate highlight reels, but to those who watch him closest including Clemson's coaches, it's his ability to power through contact and maintain his balance that stands as his most remarkable trait.

Since Etienne became Clemson's starter in 2018, Pro Football Focus credits him with 2,432 rushing yards after contact, second-most in that time frame behind Wisconsin's Jonathan Taylor, who averaged 36.9 carries per game in that span to Etienne's 13.9.

TOUCHDOWN STREAKS

Etienne accounts for four of the 10 longest streaks of consecutive games with a rushing touchdown in school history. Prior to being held scoreless against The Citadel in Clemson's second game, Etienne rushed for a touchdown in 10 straight games across the 2019-20 seasons, the longest streak of consecutive games with a rushing touchdown in school history.

With another rushing touchdown this week, Etienne can record his second career streak of eight games or more with a rushing touchdown. It would tie an eight-game streak by Wayne Gallman in 2016 for the fifth-longest in school history.

AIR ETIENNE

Etienne had a then-career-high 98 receiving yards on three receptions with two touchdowns in Clemson's Fiesta Bowl win in last year's College Football Playoff. The 98 receiving yards were the most by a Clemson running back since C.J. Spiller recorded 104 receiving yards at Miami in 2009 in a 40-37 overtime win. It marked the first time a Clemson running back had two receiving touchdowns in a game since 2010 when Jamie Harper scored two at Auburn.

Then against Virginia in Clemson's third game of 2020, Etienne set a Clemson receiving yardage record for a running back with 114 receiving yards on five receptions. His performance broke Spiller's Clemson running back record of 108 receiving yards, set against Duke in 2008. It was only the fourth 100-yard receiving game by a running back in Clemson history, with all three previous instances recorded by Spiller.

The record set against Virginia didn't withstand Etienne's own assault later that month. He broke the record again on Oct. 31 against Boston College, recording 140 receiving yards to join Spiller (two in 2008) as the only running backs in Clemson history with multiple 100-yard receiving games in a single season.

5.	C.J. Spiller	10/24/09	Miami (Fla.)	6-104

After finishing his first two seasons with 17 career receptions for 135 yards and two touchdowns, Etienne was much more involved in the passing game in 2019, recording 37 receptions for 432 yards and four touchdowns. At the time, his 432 receiving yards in 2019 ranked as the third-most in a season for a running back in Clemson history, trailing only the 2008 and 2009 production of Spiller, a College Football Hall of Fame nominee.

Etienne is in the midst of another career year through the air, setting the Clemson single-season record with 511 receiving yards and sitting within striking distance of the school record for receptions by a running back in a single season.

Etienne's development in this part of his game late in his career allowed him to join elite company in college football history. Entering 2020, only 11 players in FBS history had finished their careers with at least 4,000 rushing yards and at least 1,000 receiving yards. By exceeding 1,000 career receiving yards in Clemson's Oct.

31 game against Boston College, Etienne became the 12th FBS player all-time to join the 4,000/1,000 club.

Entering Saturday's game against Virginia Tech, Etienne has 692 rushing yards and 511 receiving yards on the year. Only six FBS players have 650 rushing yards and 200 receiving yards this season. Etienne's 511 receiving yards this season nearly double the next closest back (UNC's Javonte Williams, 257).

Since 2000, Etienne is one of only five FBS players to amass at least 650 rushing yards and at least 500 receiving yards through the first nine games of a season, the first since Penn State's Saquon Barkley in 2017.

Despite being ninth in the ACC in rushing yards per game this season, Etienne's 133.7 yards from scrimmage per game lead the ACC in 2020.

TREAD ON THE TIRES

While some observers were surprised by Etienne's decision to return to Clemson in 2020, a projected second-round grade and a desire to complete his degree program made Etienne's call an easy one.

"I just felt like I could come back and improve that grade," Etienne said. "I don't have my degree. Coming back and going second round (in 2021), at least I'd have my degree. Leaving for the second round has never been a dream of mine. I feel like I can do so much better than that. The NFL is going to be there."

Detractors cited the "wear and tear" of another collegiate season as reasons why Etienne would have benefited from turning pro, but the story of Etienne's career usage has been one of immense production in very measured opportunities. In his first three seasons from 2017-19, Etienne averaged only 12.0 carries per game. Even accounting for only his two seasons as a full-time starter, he averaged only 13.7 carries per game from 2018-19.

The difference in the amount of tread left on Etienne's tires, figuratively speaking, to some of the NFL's most recent draft picks at running back is stark. All six running backs selected in the first two rounds of the 2020 NFL Draft were early entrants, and Etienne entered his senior season with fewer career carries than all but two of the six.

^ - Etienne's statistics as of the conclusion of the 2019 season

Etienne's single-season career high in carries is 207, set in 2019. Even if Etienne were to add another 207 carries in 2020 to his career total from 2017-19, despite using all four years of his eligibility, he would still enter the NFL with 201 fewer carries than Jonathan Taylor's three-year career, 120 fewer carries than AJ Dillon's three-year run and the exact same number as J.K. Dobbins' three-year tenure.

QB WIN STREAKS

After entering his first four career games at Clemson as a reserve, Trevor Lawrence was named Clemson's starting quarterback heading into its game against Syracuse on Sept. 29, 2018. Clemson's victory in that contest was its first with Lawrence as a starter.

Lawrence would go on to guide Clemson to another 24 straight wins as the starting quarterback prior to suffering his first defeat in the College Football Playoff National Championship game to conclude the 2019 season. Per ESPN Stats & Info, Lawrence's 25-game winning streak tied for the sixth-longest by a starting quarterback in major college football history and finished one shy of being the longest such streak to open a career.

ALL-AMERICAN DOUBLE?

If Trevor Lawrence and running back Travis Etienne were to both earn consensus All-American status (first-team honors from three or more of the five NCAA-recognized selectors) following the season, it would mark only the sixth such occurrence in FBS history. Clemson will attempt to become only the third school to produce such a duo, joining Notre Dame (four) and Penn State (one).

INTERCEPTION AVOIDANCE

While mild panic emerged from national observers about Lawrence's eight interceptions early in 2019, Lawrence finished the 2019 season with a school record for consecutive pass attempts without an interception. Across 2019-20, Lawrence went 12 straight games without throwing an interception before throwing his first interception in Clemson's fifth game of the 2020 season.

Lawrence's 1.37 percent interception rate is the best among Clemson quarterbacks all-time with at least 150 career pass attempts, and is second among those with at least 100 attempts behind only his protégé, D.J. Uiagalelei.

As a freshman, Lawrence set a then-single-season Clemson record by closing the 2018 season with 169 consecutive pass attempts without an interception. Lawrence threw an interception on his 13th pass attempt of the 2019 season opener against Georgia Tech, ending a streak of 182 consecutive pass attempts without an interception.

As a sophomore, Lawrence shattered school single-season and multi-season records in that category in 2019. Across the 2019 and 2020 campaigns, he threw a school-record 366 pass attempts without an interception, the second-longest streak in ACC history. In all, he went 364 calendar days between an interception at Louisville on Oct. 19, 2019 and his next interception on Oct. 17, 2020 at Georgia Tech.

Last season, Lawrence set a school record for consecutive completions in a single game, completing 18 consecutive passes at South Carolina to break the mark held by Cullen Harper (15 vs. Central Michigan in 2007) and Kelly Bryant (15 vs. Miami in 2017). His 18 consecutive completions tied ACC single-game records held by Virginia's Michael Rocco (vs. Miami in 2012) and North Carolina's Mitch Trubisky (vs. James Madison in 2016).

300-YARD GAMES

Clemson's balance and its willingness to take what defenses offer on the ground or through the air sometimes limits opportunities for Lawrence to accrue some of the passing numbers put up around the country. But even playing in an offense that values balance and for a coach who values spreading playing time throughout the roster, Lawrence has still been able to light up defenses in his career, ranking third on Clemson's all-time leaderboard in 300-yard passing games.

RETURNING 4,000-YARD CAREER RUSHERS (FBS HISTORY)

Clemson returned one of the most prolific career passer-rusher duos in college football history in 2020. Trevor Lawrence entered his junior campaign with 6,945 career passing yards, while Travis Etienne entered his senior season with 4,038 career rushing yards. The 2020 Clemson Tigers became only the third team in FBS history to return a 6,000-yard career passer and 4,000-yard career rusher, joining the 2001 Oregon State Beavers and 2018 Washington Huskies.

Per data available via Sports Reference, of the 139 players who have rushed for 4,000 yards all-time prior to 2020, Etienne was one of only 14 to enter his final collegiate season with 4,000 career yards.

LAWRENCE'S LEGS

Lawrence had a Clemson team-high and career-best 107 rushing yards on 16 carries and scored on a career-long 67-yard run in Clemson's 29-23 win against Ohio State in last year's PlayStation Fiesta Bowl. The 67-yard run was the longest by a Clemson quarterback since Woody Dantzler had a 75-yard scoring run at Virginia in 2000.

Lawrence finished 2019 with 563 rushing yards on 103 carries, an average of 5.47 yards per rush. That rushing average was the best in a season for a Clemson quarterback since transitioning away from single-wing formations in 1953.

KILLER T'S STRIKE IN OPENER

The prolific duo of Trevor and Travis shot out of the starting gate quickly in 2020, with Lawrence producing 351 passing yards and Etienne producing 102 rushing yards in Clemson's season opener at Wake Forest.

The performance represented the 15th time in history that Clemson has produced both a 300-yard passer and a 100-yard rusher in a single game. All 15 instances at Clemson have come since the turn of the century. Twelve have come under Dabo Swinney, including four by the Lawrence/Etienne duo.

It was the seventh time Clemson had a 350-yard passer and a 100-yard rusher in a game.

-- NO. 5 QB D.J. UIAGALELEI --

"BIG CINCO" ON BIG STAGE

Asked for the proper pronunciation of his name, true freshman Clemson quarterback D.J. Uiagalelei will walk you through the syllables of his surname of Samoan descent:

"ooh-ee-AHN-guh-luh-lay"

But he'll also offer a helpful tip:

"Or you can just call me 'Big Cinco.'"

Big Cinco is the 250-pound first-year quarterback wearing No. 5 who earned Clemson's backup quarterback job behind Trevor Lawrence early in the 2020 season.

On Oct. 31 against Boston College, Uiagalelei was thrust into the starting lineup after Lawrence was diagnosed with COVID-19. With the win in his first start, Clemson improved to 20-13 all-time in games started by true freshman quarterbacks. He joined Steve Fuller, Willie Jordan, Patrick Sapp, Nealon Greene, Deshaun Watson and Lawrence as one of only seven true freshmen ever to start for Clemson at quarterback, and he joined Watson and Lawrence as the only true freshmen to win their starting debuts.

Uiagalelei impressed against Boston College as Clemson overcame an 18-point deficit to record the largest comeback win in the history of Death Valley. He completed 30-of-41 passes for 342 yards with two passing touchdowns and no interceptions, and also rushed six times for 25 yards with a rushing touchdown. His 342 passing yards were the third-most by a Clemson freshman (true or redshirt) in his starting debut, trailing Deshaun Watson's 435 yards against North Carolina in 2014 and Charlie Whitehurst's 420 yards against Duke in 2002.

A week later, Uiagalelei completed 29-of-44 passes for a career-high 439 yards with two passing touchdowns in a double-overtime contest against No. 4 Notre Dame. His 439 passing yards were the third-most in a game in school history and broke Watson's school freshman record of 435. The 439 passing yards were the most ever thrown against Notre Dame by an opposing quarterback, breaking the mark of 425 held by USC's Carson Palmer in 2002.

-- NO. 3 WR AMARI RODGERS --

COMEBACK KID

Since his arrival at Clemson in 2017, Amari Rodgers has been hailed by coaches and teammates as one of the program's hardest workers. The work ahead of Rodgers was substantial on March 25, 2019, when the wide receiver from Knoxville, Tenn., tore his ACL during spring practice.

Rodgers attacked his rehab with his trademark work ethic, returning to action 166 days later in Clemson's second game of the 2019 season, receiving a thunderous roar from Death Valley following his first reception. Rodgers completed his comeback 2019 campaign with 30 catches for 426 yards and four touchdowns.

With the national spotlight no longer being split with Tee Higgins and Justyn Ross, Rodgers is shining in 2020. After playing with a knee brace last season, Rodgers is playing without a brace this year in his "All Gas, No Brace" season, and the production has followed, as he set a new single-season career high for receiving yardage in only his seventh game of the season. He enters this week second in the ACC (and 11th in the nation) in receiving yards and tied for fourth in the ACC with six receiving touchdowns.

-- NO. 17 WR CORNELL POWELL --

HIS TIME

In an era of instant gratification, Clemson's 2020 offense features a story of patience and perseverance in fifth-year senior wide receiver Cornell Powell.

Powell, a former four-star recruit from Greenville, N.C., entered his fifth year in the Clemson program with 40 career receptions for 329 yards and two touchdowns. But he was one of the standouts of Clemson's abbreviated spring practices and quickly claimed a starting role for 2020.

"I am just proud of him because he hung in there. He battled in camp. He had a sense of desperation to him because he knew there are some talented guys in the receivers room, but he stepped up and he got better," Head Coach Dabo Swinney said. "He stepped up and made some big plays. He has been awesome. He has been a really good leader for us. He has put the work in. I am really proud of him."

Instead of transferring in search of greener pastures, Powell has put together a career year in 2020 with 37 receptions for 594 yards and four receiving touchdowns.

"Nothing easy is worth having," Powell said. "Everybody has to wait their turn."

While waiting wasn't easy for Powell, he took comfort in knowing the pedigree of his Wide Receiver U brethren in front of him during his career.

"I came in and had Mike Williams, Artavis Scott, Hunter Renfrow. We had Deon Cain, then we had Ray-Ray McCloud, and then we had Diondre Overton, Tee [Higgins] and J-Ross," Powell said. "Those guys are no slouches."

Powell reached the 100-yard mark against Boston College, Notre Dame and Pitt, tying Charlie Waters (1969), Tony Horne (1997), Rod Gardner (2000), DeAndre Hopkins (2012) and Sammy Watkins (2013) for the school record for consecutive 100-yard receiving games. With 161 yards at Notre Dame and 176 yards vs. Pitt, he joined rather select company as only the third Clemson player ever to post consecutive 150-yard receiving games.

WELCOME TO THE SHOW

Clemson entered its 2020 season opener against Wake Forest missing two presumptive preseason starters at defensive end in Justin Foster and Xavier Thomas, perhaps leaving the uninitiated to wonder from where Clemson's pass rush might come.

America, meet true freshmen Myles Murphy and Bryan Bresee.

Bresee joined Clemson as the consensus No. 1 player in America for the class of 2020. Murphy joined the Tigers as ESPN.com's third-ranked player in the class. Both made an immediate impact in their collegiate debuts.

It had been five years since a Clemson true freshman had recorded a sack in a season opener, when Dexter Lawrence and Tre Lamar each did so in the 2016 season opener at Auburn. Both Murphy and Bresee got on the stat sheet in the opener against Wake, with Murphy compiling two sacks among a team-high seven tackles and Bresee adding half a sack and the Tigers' first blocked field goal since Week 2 of 2018.

The duo has been joined by a midseason surge by fellow true freshman linebacker Trenton Simpson, a former high school running back with a presence of an edge rusher who is still learning the linebacker position. Murphy, Bresee and Simpson are all within a sack of entering the Top 5 in Clemson history in sacks by a true freshman.

THE BRUISE BROTHERS

Behind Clemson's precocious defensive line is a pair of veteran linebackers that are leaving their mark on opponents this year and led Head Coach Dabo Swinney to coin one of college football's top new nicknames: "The Bruise Brothers."

Though he missed three games while recovering from a groin injury this year, middle linebacker James Skalski is in his fifth year in the Clemson program. He took a mid-career redshirt in 2018, playing four games including the ACC Championship Game, Cotton Bowl and National Championship Game in what he and others have called "the sweetest gig on the team" that year before becoming a full-time starter in 2019. The physical presence of No. 47 has led Swinney referring to him as "a war daddy" and calling his participation in practices and scrimmages "just unfair."

But Skalski has had a new running mate at the second level of the defense this year, as redshirt junior Baylon Spector has produced superlative performances so far in 2020 including an ACC Linebacker of the Week selection for his play against Virginia on Oct. 3. The first-year starter announced his presence in a reserve role in last year's College Football Playoff when he had two sacks against Ohio State in the Fiesta Bowl.

"[Spector] and Skalski, it's a reflection of how they practice. I'm telling you, every single rep at practice is a game rep to those two guys. They put a ton of work in every week to get themselves ready to play," Swinney said. "I know how hard they've worked. It's the unseen grind. That's a ton of work that they've put in."

"I call them The Bruise Brothers. Those two right there, it's something to watch and it's fun to see."

The duo's success is not merely a function of their physicality and hard work. Defensive Coordinator Brent Venables praised the cerebral nature of their play as well.

"They've developed some really good chemistry together. They're always having side chat conversations when I'm trying to talk with the whole defense and I'm having to correct at practice, and I look over and they're coaching each other. Sometimes that bothers me, I'll be honest, [smiling] but I absolutely love it because it's always about the details of what we're talking about," Venables said. "They're like two coaches, really, out on the field."

300 OR FEWER YARDS

Clemson opened the 2019 season by keeping each of their first 12 opponents to fewer than 300 yards, marking the first time in ESPN Stats & Info searchable data going back to 1996 that a team had held the first 12 opponents of a season under that mark. ACC Coastal Division champion Virginia became the first team to hit the 300-yard plateau on Clemson, accounting for 387 in the ACC Championship Game.

Included below is a look at the most games holding opponents under 300 yards to open a season since 2000.

DEFENSIVE POINT THRESHOLDS

Prior to surrendering 23 points in the 2019 Fiesta Bowl, Clemson had not surrendered more than 20 points since the 2018 regular season finale and had held 16 consecutive opponents to 20 or fewer points. A defensive streak of that length had not occurred at Clemson in 79 years, when Hall of Fame coaches Jess Neely and Frank Howard combined for a 31-game streak across the 1937-40 seasons.

Prior to the 16-game streak in 2018-19, there had been only four streaks of 15 or more such games in Clemson history. All four came in a vastly different era not just for college football, but for Clemson University as well. At the time of all four previous streaks, Clemson was an all-male, military institution still operating as Clemson Agricultural College before becoming known as Clemson University in 1964.

Just above the 20-point threshold, Clemson has won 87 consecutive games when holding opponents under 23 points, a streak that dates to the 2010 season. Since 2014, Clemson has held opponents to 22 or fewer points in 69 games, the most in the nation. Clemson is 69-0 in those contests.

STOPPING THE RUN

Clemson has held opponents to 2.0 or fewer yards per carry in 24 games in the College Football Playoff era (since 2014), the second-most in the country. Clemson is 23-1 in those contests.

Clemson opened 2020 with two such performances. Clemson allowed only 1.1 yards per carry in its season opener against Wake Forest and then held The Citadel to 1.8 yards per carry, representing the team's first time holding consecutive opponents to 2.0 yards per carry or fewer since games 2-3 last season against Texas A&M and Syracuse.

POINTS ALLOWED PER POSSESSION

Since Brent Venables joined Clemson as defensive coordinator prior to the 2012 season, Clemson has allowed only 1.14 points per possession against FBS opponents, the second-fewest in the country in that span. No program has given up fewer points per possession against FBS opponents since 2018, as Clemson's 0.92 points allowed per possession since the start of the 2018 season makes Clemson the only program in the country to allow fewer than a full point per drive to opponents.

THE CFP ERA'S DOMINANT DEFENSE

Since the advent of the College Football Playoff in 2014, Clemson has routinely produced one of the nation's elite defenses.

Clemson has ranked in the Top 10 in the country in total defense in each of the last six seasons and has ranked among the Top 10 in scoring defense in four of those campaigns.

TAKEAWAYS, NO GIVEAWAYS

Clemson emphasizes the importance of turnover margin every week on what it dubs "TANOGA Tuesday," standing for "TakeAways, NO GiveAways."

Clemson has 11 giveaways in nine games this season, a 1.22 turnovers-per-game mark that would rank 10th in school history. Clemson finished 2019 with 15 giveaways on the season, as its 1.0 per-game average in giveaways ranked third in school history, behind only the 1940 and 2007 seasons.

The 2019 Tigers won the turnover margin 11 times, Clemson's most in a season under Dabo Swinney. Clemson won the turnover margin for the first time in 2020 in its third game against Virginia. Clemson finished plus-two in turnovers that game, then finished plus-two the following week as well against Miami. Clemson's top performance in the turnover margin this season came in a plus-four effort against Pitt.

By total margin rather than by per-game margin, Clemson finished tied for sixth in the country in 2019.

Clemson enters this week ranked tied for fifth in the nation in turnover margin, aided in part by 19 takeaways (fourth-most in the country), including 13 interceptions (second-most in the country).

POINTS OFF TURNOVERS

Clemson's offense and defense have both been dominant in possessions following turnovers since the 2018 ACC Championship Game. Since that time, the Tigers hold a 265-59 advantage against opponents in points off turnovers.

Clemson outscored opponents off turnovers, 134-21, in 2019, and its +7.53-point-per-game differential off turnovers ranked third in the country. This season, Clemson is outscoring opponents 93-31 off turnovers, with 21 of the 31 points surrendered directly by the Clemson offense.

Prior to giving up seven points on a pick-six against Syracuse on Oct. 24, Clemson had not surrendered points off a turnover in 15 full games. The streak lasted more than a calendar year, dating to Sept. 28, 2019, when North Carolina converted a lost fumble into a touchdown and won the points-off-turnover battle, 7-0.

On Nov. 7, Notre Dame scored on a 45-yard field goal following a Clemson fumble. Clemson had entered the game having played its last 17 complete games without having surrendered a point off of a turnover defensively prior to that possession, as its only points surrendered off turnovers in that span had come on behalf of the Clemson offense.

SPOTLIGHT ON THE SPECIALISTS

- B.T. Potter, PK: Clemson's cannon-legged junior has been remarkably consistent on both his shortest kicks and his longest kicks throughout his career. He is 133-for-134 on PATs, and his 122 consecutive PATs prior to his first miss shattered Clemson's school record (88 by Mark Buchholz from 2007-08). Potter, who has been one of the nation's foremost touchback specialists throughout his career, is also 5-for-6 on field goal attempts of 50 yards or more during his Clemson tenure, tying Clemson's record for career field goals of 50 yards or more.

- Will Spiers, P: A four-year starter at punter, Spiers made his 47th career start on Oct. 3, breaking Cole Chason's Clemson record for a punter (46 from 2003-06). His experience has been evident in his finish to the 2019 season and his hot start in 2020. In 2019, he finished with a career-high 41.7-yard net average, the second-best single-season mark in school history behind Dale Hatcher's 1984 performance (42.4), and he saved his best performances for the biggest games, dropping 10 of his 16 punts in last year's College Football Playoff inside the 20. He averaged at least 50.0 yards per punt in three-straight games against Miami, Georgia Tech and Syracuse this year, a career-long streak.

- Will Swinney, H: Spiers is not the only four-year starter among Clemson's special teams corps. Swinney is in his fourth season as Clemson's primary holder and has held for more placekicks than any player in Clemson history. Since 2017, Clemson has scored 440 points on placekicks, including field goals and PATs. Swinney, a 2020 William V. Campbell Trophy semifinalist, has held for 435 of those 440 points, and including his receiving touchdown vs. Louisville in 2018, he's touched the ball for 441 total points for Clemson in his career. Clemson's only five kicking points not held by Will Swinney in his career were instead held by his brother, Drew. Clemson's last hold by any player outside the Swinney family was on the final point of Clemson's 2016 national championship following Hunter Renfrow's touchdown with one second remaining.

- Jack Maddox, LS: Maddox is in his first-year as Clemson's starting long snapper. A native of Acton, Mass., his attention first turned to Clemson after visiting his uncle, who is a professor at the university. He walked on at Clemson, and this past August, the redshirt junior was en route to Clemson's Applied Science Lab to take a nap when Head Coach Dabo Swinney approached him and asked him if he'd already paid his fall tuition. Upon Maddox confirming that he had, Swinney told him he'd have a little extra money in his pocket this semester, as Maddox was being placed on scholarship for the 2020 season.

- Quinn Castner, PK: Castner joined Clemson's program in August. At 140 pounds, the 5-foot-5 walk-on became the 15th player below 150 pounds to appear on Clemson's roster since 1944. He became a viral sensation for his debut against The Citadel once Dabo Swinney, after exaggerating Castner's vitals as "5-foot-3 and 80 pounds... maybe," told the following anecdote about Castner and Clemson's current culture: "I put him out there and gave him a chance to kick one off, and listen, he ain't kicked one deep in the end zone yet since he's been here... So I put the first [team] kickoff out there and said, 'All right, boys, we've got a little wind, I'm putting my man Quinn out there. Y'all know this is coming out and y'all need some dadgum practice...' Potter booms 'em out of the end zone and I wanted them to get a little work, so I got my man Quinn out there, and what does he do? He kicks that sucker four yards deep in the end zone, and the whole team went crazy. They just loved it, and, I mean, that's special."

PLAYERS PER GAME

One year after leading all AP Top 25 finishers with an average of 72.5 players per game in 2018, Clemson once again lapped the field in average players per game in 2019.

Clemson played an average of 76.0 players per game in 2019, an average that far exceeded all Power Five programs by more than 11 players — a full unit — per game.

The approach to creating functional depth and rewarding players ready to play has been a key philosophy for Head Coach Dabo Swinney, whose own collegiate playing career was hatched as a walk-on fighting for playing time in Alabama's receiving corps.

"We're fully committed to playing guys who deserve to play," Swinney said. "You commit to a guy early in the season, and even if a guy has only played 10 percent of the snaps, when you get to game eight or nine, they've got some good experience."

That philosophy was on display in record fashion against Charlotte in September 2019, when Clemson played a school-record 111 players. Clemson later played 105 players against Wofford and 93 players against Wake Forest that season as well.

Clemson's high-water mark for player participation this season is 96 against The Citadel in the team's home opener. Clemson approached that mark with 94 against Pitt in November.

Clemson opened the season by playing 78 of 80 available players in the season opener at Wake Forest. The only two available Tigers who did not appear in the contest were reserve running back Lyn-J Dixon, who was being held for emergency situations, and reserve placekicker Jonathan Weitz. A week later, 96 of Clemson's 105 dressed players saw action against The Citadel. Clemson has recorded 660 combined man-games out of a possible 872 from available players this season, meaning Clemson has played an average of 75.7 percent of its available players in each game this season.

YOUTH + EXPERIENCE

One year after Clemson returned a school-record 61 lettermen for the 2018 season, Clemson entered the 2019 campaign with a roster that included 80 freshmen and sophomores. Clemson's 2020 squad is a mixture of youth and experience, as Clemson has 60 returning lettermen yet still features a roster that entered the year with 81 players classified as freshmen or sophomores.

In the first year of new redshirt regulations in 2018, Clemson played a then-school-record 20 true freshmen. Clemson immediately shattered that record in its 2019 season opener, with 27 true freshmen making their collegiate debuts in that contest. An additional eight true freshmen made their debuts to push that total to a school-record 36. The only true freshmen not to see game action for Clemson in 2019 were injured linebackers Bryton Constantin and Matthew Maloney.

Clemson's 78-player participation in its 2020 season opener included 22 true freshmen from Clemson's most recent 23-player recruiting class who made their collegiate debuts in the contest. The only Clemson true freshman signee who did not play in the game was DeMonte Capehart, who did not travel with the team.

Capehart made his debut a week later against The Citadel, as did true freshmen walk-ons Hunter Helms, Quinn Castner and Bubba McAtee. Walk-on Will Blackston made his debut in November vs. Pitt.

MEETING (AND BEATING) THE BEST

Clemson's first Top 25 matchup of the season came in a 42-17 win against No. 7 Miami on Oct. 10. Since 2015, Clemson is 22-4 (.846) against AP Top 25 teams, the second-best winning percentage in the country.

TAKING CARE OF BUSINESS

Clemson has won 33 consecutive games against teams unranked in the AP Poll, the program's second-longest such winning streak since the inception of the poll in 1936. Clemson's last defeat at the hands of an unranked squad came in 2017 at Syracuse.

Clemson's longest winning streak against unranked teams came across the 2012-16 seasons, when Clemson won 46 in a row starting with a season-opening win against Auburn in 2012 and ending with an upset loss to Pitt in 2016.

Clemson is 107-12 against AP-unranked teams under Dabo Swinney, including wins in 84 of 86 games against those unranked teams since the start of the 2012 season.

600-YARD GAMES

After setting a school record with five 600-yard games in 2019, Clemson produced its first 600-yard game of 2020 on Oct. 17 at Georgia Tech when the Tigers accumulated 671 yards in a resounding 73-7 win. Clemson threw for exactly 500 yards in the contest, the second-most in a game in school history but its most in a victory and its most in a road game in school annals.

Clemson outgained Georgia Tech, 671-204, after outgaining Miami by 340 yards a week earlier, helping Clemson outgain consecutive ACC opponents by 300-plus yards for the first time since the Louisville and Boston College games in 2018.

By outgaining Georgia Tech by 467 yards, Clemson tied for its fourth-largest yardage differential in a game since 1953. It was Clemson's second-largest yardage margin against an ACC opponent all-time, trailing only a 497-yard yardage differential against Boston College last season.

COMEBACK FOR THE AGES

On Oct. 31, Clemson trailed Boston College at home, 28-10, with 1:02 remaining in the first half with no remaining timeouts. Quarterback D.J. Uiagalelei then led a 10-play, 42-yard drive in 55 seconds to get a B.T. Potter 50-yard field goal before half. The drive jumpstarted Clemson's comeback 34-28 victory, as the Tigers scored 24 unanswered for the win. Of note:

- Clemson trailed by 18 points in the first half, making the win Clemson's largest home comeback victory in school history. Clemson's largest comeback victory in Death Valley prior to Saturday had come in 1966, when Clemson turned a 17-point 35-18 deficit into a 40-35 win against Virginia.

- The win tied for the second-largest comeback win in school history at any location, matching an 18-point comeback at Maryland in 2011, which had also stood as Clemson's largest comeback win under Dabo Swinney.

- The game was Clemson's 15th victory all-time when trailing by 14 or more points at any point of the game. It was Clemson's sixth such comeback win under Dabo Swinney and its first since the 2019 Fiesta Bowl, when Clemson overcame a 16-point deficit for a win.

- Clemson overcame a 15-point halftime deficit, its largest halftime deficit overcome by Clemson in a victory since overcoming a 21-point halftime deficit in a 29-28 win at Virginia in 1992.

- Clemson trailed by two points entering the fourth quarter. It was Clemson's 10th win under Dabo Swinney when trailing after three quarters and its first since 2018 against Syracuse.

MEMORABLE DAY IN "THE A"

Clemson's 73-7 win at Georgia Tech on Oct. 17 resonated historically. Among the superlatives from that contest:

- Clemson's 66-point victory margin was the largest in a game between two ACC teams since the conference's inception in 1953.

- The 66-point victory margin tied for Clemson's seventh-largest in school history and its largest since a 66-point win against South Carolina State in 2014. It was Clemson's second-largest win all-time against a school presently in the Football Bowl Subdivision, trailing only a 73-0 victory against Georgia Tech in 1903.

- Clemson's 73 points represented Clemson's third-most against an ACC opponent all-time, trailing its 82-point performance against Wake Forest in 1981 and its 77 points against Louisville in 2018. However, both of those performances came at home, so Saturday's output was the most scored by Clemson in an ACC road game all-time, passing its 63 at Wake Forest in 2018.

- Clemson's 73 points tied for Clemson's second-most points in a road game in school history, trailing its 94 against Furman in 1915 and matching its 73 at Georgia Tech in 1903.

- Clemson opened the game with a modern-era school-record 52 points in the first half. Clemson's previous high against an ACC opponent in a first half was 49 in its opening two frames against Wake Forest in its national championship campaign in 1981.

- Clemson produced 473 yards in the first half, only 14 yards shy of the school record for yards in a half (487 vs. Duke in 2012).

- Clemson tied a school record for points in a quarter with 35 in the second quarter, matching its second quarter against Wake Forest in 1981 and its third quarter against North Carolina in 2011.

- Clemson threw seven passing touchdowns, breaking the school record of six set previously against Central Michigan in 2007, against Duke in 2012, against North Carolina in 2014 and against South Carolina in 2016.

- Four different players (including starting punter and emergency quarterback Will Spiers) completed at least two passes and 17 different players caught a pass to contribute to the Tigers' second 500-yard passing day in school history. Clemson's 17 different players recording a reception were its most in a single-game under Dabo Swinney.

WALK-ON QB MAKES CLEMSON HISTORY

Clemson had four different players complete at least two passes in its 73-7 rout of Georgia Tech on Oct. 17. That included 24 completions by starting quarterback Trevor Lawrence, two by reserve quarterback Taisun Phommachanh and two by starting punter/emergency quarterback Will Spiers, but it also featured a 5-for-7 passing performance by true freshman walk-on quarterback Hunter Helms.

Helms' five completions went for 74 yards and two touchdowns, including touchdown passes to running back Kobe Pace and wide receiver Ajou Ajou. Helms became only the third quarterback who joined Clemson as an original walk-on since 1954 to throw a touchdown pass, joining Nick Schuessler (three touchdown passes in 2016) and Donny McElveen (one in 2010).

Helms and Schuessler are the only original walk-on quarterbacks to throw multiple touchdown passes in a game for Clemson, as Helms' two-touchdown game at Georgia Tech joined Schuessler's two-touchdown performance against Syracuse in 2016. However, Schuessler had been placed on scholarship by that point of his career, making Helms the first Clemson quarterback to throw two touchdown passes in a game while still on walk-on status.

RAIN, RAIN, GO-AWAY YOU CAN STAY

Clemson played its first rain game of the 2020 season on Oct. 10, when the Tigers faced two sets of Hurricanes: one a football team from Miami, and the other remnants of Hurricane Delta.

Clemson defeated Miami, 42-17, in the rain that evening while winning the turnover margin, 3-1. With the victory, Clemson improved to 10-1 in rain games under Dabo Swinney and pushed its turnover margin in those games to 28-13 (+15).

HISTORIC PARALLELS IN 2020

By virtue of an open date on Nov. 14 and a postponed game initially scheduled for Nov. 21, Clemson's game against Pitt was its first game action in 21 days. Clemson has had similar (and longer) layoffs prior to postseason play in many years, but the 21-day layoff this year was Clemson's longest between regular season games in a single season since 1918, when Clemson went 28 days between games against Georgia Tech and South Carolina.

That year also marked the last major pandemic in American history, as the Spanish Flu and — of greater impact — World War I combined to affect the 1918 college football season. That year, Clemson played its second game of the season on Oct. 5 at Georgia Tech, but did not play games against Auburn (Oct. 19) and South Carolina (Oct. 31) as scheduled. Clemson finally returned to action against South Carolina on Nov. 2, a 39-0 Clemson win.

The United States War Department ruled that Student Army Training Corps schools, of which Clemson was one, could not have its students away for more than 24 hours on football trips for portions of that year.

That rule created some invention by necessity on Nov. 16, when Clemson and The Citadel agreed to play their annual game at a neutral site at South Carolina's stadium. With the game at that location, both schools' cadets and football teams were able to make the trip to Columbia and return to duty on time. Clemson's John O'Dell scored the game's only touchdown, as the Tigers won 7-0, and both teams made it back to their campuses before their passes expired.

Clemson had also hoped to play an in-state contest against Wofford on Oct. 26, 1918. A story from The Tiger Newspaper archived by Clemson University Special Collections and featured by WYFF indicated that Clemson awaited the Wofford team at the train station, but Wofford's delegation did not arrive. The story reported that a telegram was sent from Wofford saying the team was on the way, but a second indicated "military authorities would not grant their permission to come over and play the game."

On Nov. 21 this year, Clemson traveled to Tallahassee and was prepared to play against Florida State until the game was postponed roughly three hours prior to kickoff. The last time Clemson had a game postponed after the team had already traveled to the site was in 1963, when the Tigers were slated to play South Carolina on Saturday, Nov. 23. That game was postponed following the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. The teams would play on Thanksgiving Day, with Clemson earning a 24-20 win.

In 2001, Clemson's scheduled Sept. 15 game against Duke was postponed midweek following the Sept. 11 attacks. That game was moved to Dec. 1, 2001. Clemson's game against Virginia Tech on Dec. 5 this year is Clemson's first December regular season game since that postponed Duke game in 2001.

OFFENSIVE BALANCE

Clemson has featured remarkable offensive balance while qualifying for the College Football Playoff National Championship Game in each of the last two years. Clemson has averaged at least 200 rushing yards and 200 passing yards per game four times in school history, with two of those seasons occurring in the 2018 and 2019 campaigns.

Clemson exceeded the 200/200 mark rushing and passing in 2019 by averaging 240.4 rushing yards per game and 288.3 passing yards per game. Clemson was one of only three teams in 2019 to average at least 240 yards per game in each category, along with fellow CFP participants Ohio State and Oklahoma. Clemson broke the 3,000-yard mark both rushing and passing in 2019, making the campaign only the third 3,000/3,000 season in school history (2015 and 2018).

Clemson has exceeded both 200 passing yards and 200 rushing yards in 52 games under Dabo Swinney, posting a perfect record in those contests. Clemson's 18 such games since the start of the 2018 season are fourth-most in the country.

TIGHT END RENAISSANCE

Last year, Clemson tight ends combined for 26 receptions for 239 yards and no scores in 2019. A year earlier, the Tigers recorded 17 catches for 161 yards and two scores by tight ends in 2018.

With junior tight end Braden Galloway returning in 2020 after playing only in the College Football Playoff a year ago to join a group that included talented sophomore Davis Allen and veteran J.C. Chalk, observers anticipated more influence from the tight ends in the Clemson offense in 2020.

That anticipation became reality in the season opener against Wake Forest when Galloway, Allen and Chalk combined for seven catches for 114 yards and a touchdown.

"When you have a great tight end in there that's a threat down the field, it just creates more matchup problems," Head Coach Dabo Swinney said following the game.

The group's 114 yards at Wake Forest ranked as the third-most receiving yards for the tight end position in a single game under Swinney, eight yards shy of the top mark of 122 against Florida State in 2016. It was the sixth game of at least 100 receiving yards by Clemson tight ends in the Swinney era.

The unit put together another superlative performance on Oct. 10 against Miami, as Braden Galloway (four receptions for 114 yards with two touchdowns) and Davis Allen (22-yard receiving touchdown) combined for five catches for 96 yards and three touchdowns. It was the first time that Clemson tight ends combined for three scores in a game.

Note: Clemson's most receptions by tight ends in a single game under Swinney is 10 for 74 yards vs. LSU in 2012 Peach Bowl.

This season has been the most productive for Clemson tight ends since the 2016 National Championship team featured the play of All-American Jordan Leggett. Clemson tight ends had 797 receiving yards that year, most in the Swinney era, on 52 catches.

The record for receptions for the tight end position under Swinney is 65, in 2011 when the Tigers featured John Mackey Award winner Dwayne Allen.

YARDS PER PLAY

Clemson shattered its school record for yards per play in 2018 at 7.35, the program's first time exceeding seven yards per play in a season. That record stood for barely 12 months until Clemson broke it again in 2019 by averaging 7.38 yards per play. Clemson is averaging 6.47 yards per play in 2020, which would be the fourth-best mark in school history over the course of a full season.

2.	2018	7.35
3.	2006	6.50
4.	2020	6.47

In 2018-19, Clemson became only the third school since 2000 to average 7.35 or better yards per play in back-to-back seasons, joining Alabama, which did it across 2018-19, and Oklahoma, which was in the midst of a four-year streak across the 2016-19 seasons.

650-POINT SEASONS

Clemson scored 659 points in 2019, concluding the season only five points shy of tying the school record of 664 set in 2018. Clemson is responsible for two of the 22 650-point seasons in major college football history and two of only 16 since Division I split in 1978. Clemson was the first school with back-to-back 650-point seasons since Yale in 1888-89, predating the start of official NCAA recordkeeping in 1937 and the second year of which was coincidentally the year Clemson was founded.

CLOSE-GAME SUCCESS

Though Clemson has not played a large number of one-possession games in recent years, the Tigers have proven very adept at winning such contests since 2011. In that span, the Tigers have played 32 games with a final margin of eight points or less, and Clemson's .844 winning percentage in those one-possession contests is the best in the country in that time frame.

Clemson's win against Ohio State in the Fiesta Bowl last season pitted the nation's top two teams in one-score games since 2011 against one another in a win-or-go-home one-possession game. With the six-point win, Clemson improved to 26-4 in one-score games in that span, reaching the mark against a Buckeye squad that entered the game with a .735 winning percentage since 2011 in one-score games.

Clemson is 1-1 in one-score games this season, including a win vs. Boston College and a double-overtime loss at Notre Dame.

OWNING THE "MIDDLE EIGHT"

During its current run of five consecutive College Football Playoff appearances dating to 2015, Clemson has frequently won one of the hidden "games within the game."

SportSource Analytics tracks the "Middle Eight," the section of the game defined as the final four minutes of the first half and the first four minutes of the second half. Clemson has outscored opponents in that time window 52 times since 2015, posting a 50-2 record in those contests.

Clemson was historically strong in that category in 2018, outscoring opponents 132-10 in the middle eight, an average margin of +8.1 points per game. That per-game differential was the largest by any program in the country since 2013. Clemson outscored opponents in the Middle Eight 10 times in 2019, posting a 108-24 advantage in that time window.

Clemson recorded a critical middle eight performance in its 2019 Fiesta Bowl win against Ohio State. Trailing 16-0 prior to the final four minutes of the first half, Clemson scored 14 points in the half's waning minutes to pull the halftime deficit to two. The 14-point momentum swing in that span helped Clemson to victory in the fifth-largest comeback in school history.

Clemson's top performance in the Middle Eight so far in 2020 came in its 73-3 win against Georgia Tech on Oct. 17. Clemson finished +21 in the category by virtue of three touchdowns in the final four minutes of the first half.

ALL-CONFERENCE O-LINEMEN

As Clemson climbed into the elite echelon of college football programs during the last decade, observers posited that Clemson's rise coincided with the rapid ascent of its offensive line play.

During Clemson's five-year run of College Football Playoff appearances from 2015-19, the Tigers produced a total of 22 All-ACC selections along the offensive line, including 10 first-team honors. Clemson's 22 all-conference selections by offensive linemen are the most of any Power Five program, and its 10 first-team selections are tied with Oklahoma for the most in that span.

PASS PROTECTION

Clemson's protection for quarterback Trevor Lawrence has taken on an almost-mythical quality in recent years, according to Syracuse Head Coach Dino Babers, whose own prolific 2019 defensive line was held without a sack against Clemson last year.

"[It's like] Game of Thrones. He's got a castle, he's got a moat, he's got some dragons. That dude's protected," Babers said.

The standard remains high for Clemson's 2020 unit, which features four new starters. Last year, led by four seniors, Clemson's 2019 offensive line was named as a Joe Moore Award semifinalist, and its metrics compared favorably to the four lines that went on to be named as finalists, including the LSU squad that earned the award and helped lead the Bayou Bengals to a national championship. The unit has also been selected as a Joe Moore Award "Unit of Interest" in 2020.

Though Clemson's 2020 offensive line features four new starters from 2019, the unit does not lack experience among its starting five. Clemson's four new starters — Matt Bockhorst, Cade Stewart, Will Putnam and Jordan McFadden — entered the 2020 season with 1,821 combined offensive snaps in their careers as a function of Clemson's philosophy of developing its depth by furnishing playing time for reserves whenever possible.

Swinney was effusive in his praise of his starting offensive line's performance in Week 1, describing it to his team as "poetry in motion" and "as good of an offensive line performance as we've had in my time here."

"Our offensive line, I'm telling you, that first group — I don't think I've ever had so much fun watching and grading the tape," Swinney said of the line's performance against Wake Forest. "It was just awesome to watch those guys play... They do a lot of moving, and we just handled it so well. That set the tone for everything."

TRENCH WARFARE

Clemson's success in its 37-2 run since 2018 has been powered in part at the line of scrimmage, where Clemson holds a 137-51 edge over opponents in sacks in that time frame, including a 36-16 edge this season. Clemson's +86 margin in sacks since 2018 is by far the top differential in the country, as no other program can boast a sack differential greater than +63 since 2018.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

Clemson has matched its on-field success in recent years with national acclaim for its success in the classroom. Of note:

- Clemson set a program record in APR in the NCAA's most recent figures released in May 2020, recording a multi-year APR score of 993 for the 2018-19 academic year. The performance marked the third straight year Clemson broke its program record in the metric after breaking its 992 from 2017-18, which had broken its 987 mark from 2016-17.

- Clemson's 993 multi-year APR ranked fourth in the Power Five and fifth among FBS programs, trailing only Washington (999), Ole Miss (997), Northwestern (995) and Air Force (995). That metric covered a four-year span in which Clemson matched its off-field success with on-field accolades that included a 55-4 record, four College Football Playoff appearances and two national championships.

- The NCAA recognized Clemson with its annual APR Public Recognition Award, which is bestowed upon programs ranking in the Top 10 percent of their respective sports. Only 37 of the 130 FBS programs have earned at least one APR recognition since the 2009-10 academic year. Only 30 of them have earned it multiple times. Clemson, Duke and Northwestern programs are the only ones to earn the award nine or more times in that 10-year span.

- Clemson is one of only six FBS programs with an active streak of having earned an APR Public Recognition Award in each of the last three academic years, a group that also includes Air Force, Boston College, Navy, Northwestern and Washington.

- With its most recent award for the 2018-19 academic year, Clemson is now the only FBS program since the NCAA created the APR metric in 2003 to win a national championship and an APR Public Recognition Award in the same year multiple times. Alabama is the only other school to accomplish the title/APR double in a single year once (2011-12 academic year).

In addition to the APR honors, in November 2019, the AFCA announced that Clemson had repeated as Academic Achievement Award winners, making Clemson the only school in the country to earn the award across both of the 2018-19 seasons. Clemson had earned the award a year earlier as well in the midst of major college football's first 15-0 season since 1897.

ACC: WE DO THIS

Entering the 2020 season, the ACC was tied for the most football national titles of any conference since 2013 (three of the last seven). The conference has had a team in either the College Football Playoff or the BCS National Championship Game in each of the past seven years.

No conference produced more bowl teams in 2019 than the ACC, which placed 10 of its 14 members in bowl games. With the selection of 10 teams in 2019, the ACC has had 42 bowl teams in the previous four years, including double-digit selections all four years (11 in 2016, 10 in 2017, 11 in 2018 and 10 in 2019).

RELATIVELY SPEAKING

Clemson's 2020 roster has many connections to college and professional athletics. Below is a list of the connections:

- J.C. Chalk, TE: Grandson of former Alabama coach Gene Stallings, who was Dabo Swinney's head coach at Alabama when Swinney was a player.

- Peter Cote, S, and David Cote, LB: Brother, Kyle, was a safety on Clemson's 2016 and 2018 national championship teams.

- Carson Donnelly, DB: Father, Chris, played at Alabama with Dabo Swinney.

- Hamp Greene, WR: Son of Hamp Greene, who was a kicker on Alabama's 1992 national championship squad with Dabo Swinney.

- K.J. Henry, DE: Son of Keith Henry, current nickelbacks coach and special teams coordinator at Western Carolina.

- Jake Herbstreit, CB, and Tye Herbstreit, WR: Sons of former Ohio State quarterback Kirk Herbstreit.

- Trent Howard, OL: Father, Johnny Howard, played at Alabama with Dabo Swinney.

- Mike Jones Jr., LB: Son of Mike Jones Sr., who played at NC State prior to a nine-year NFL career with the Cardinals, Patriots, Rams and Titans.

- Myles Murphy, DE: Father, Willard, played at Tennessee-Chattanooga.

- Joseph Ngata, WR: Brother of Washington linebacker Ariel Ngata.

- Ruke Orhorhoro, DE: Cousin of three family members who played or are still playing college football — Michael Ojemudia (Iowa), Mario Ojemudia (Michigan) and Ovie Oghoufo (Notre Dame).

- Luke Price, TE: Brother of former Clemson offensive lineman Phillip Price.

- Amari Rodgers, WR: Son of former Tennessee quarterback Tee Martin.

- Will Swinney, WR, and Drew Swinney, WR: Sons of Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney.

- James Skalski, LB: Father, John, played football at Oklahoma.

- Baylon Spector, LB, and Brannon Spector, WR: Sons of former Clemson receiver Robbie Spector.

- Will Spiers, P: Son of former Clemson punter and baseball All-American Bill Spiers.

- Nolan Turner, SS: Son of former Alabama player Kevin Turner, who also played eight years in the NFL with New England Patriots and Philadelphia Eagles.

- Regan Upshaw, DE: Son of nine-year NFL defensive tackle Regan Upshaw; brother of Michigan defensive lineman Taylor Upshaw.

- Jake Venables, LB, and Tyler Venables, S: Sons of Clemson defensive coordinator Brent Venables.

GAME RECAPS

GAME 1	CLEMSON	37
	WAKE FOREST	13
	SEPT. 12, 2020 TRUIST FIELD • WINSTON-SALEM, N.C.

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. – A stellar outing by quarterback Trevor Lawrence and a Clemson-record 18th career 100-yard rushing performance by running back Travis Etienne led No. 1 Clemson to a 37-13 victory over Wake Forest in front of only 68 people in the first game under COVID-19 protocols.

Lawrence went 22-of-28 for 351 yards and a touchdown along with two touchdown runs. With 102 yards, Etienne passed Wayne Gallman (17 from 2014-16) for Clemson's career 100-yard rushing games record.

Defensively, Winston-Salem native K.J. Henry recorded the first of Clemson's six sacks on the night. Myles Murphy (2.0) and Bryan Bresee (0.5) each contributed sacks, become Clemson's first true freshmen with sacks in a season-opener since 2016.

Lawrence's two rushing touchdowns gave the Tigers a 14-0 first quarter lead, marking his first career game with multiple rushing touchdowns. His first passing touchdown of the season was a 12-yard strike to tight end J.C. Chalk in the second quarter.

A career-long-tying 52-yard B.T. Potter field goal as the first half expired gave Clemson a 27-0 halftime lead. During the game, Potter broke Mark Buchholz's Clemson record for consecutive PATs (88 from 2007-08).

Clemson carried a 37-3 lead into the fourth quarter before surrendering the final 10 points. The Tigers played 78 of their 80 available players in the contest.

GAME 2	THE CITADEL	0
	CLEMSON	49
	SEPT. 19, 2020 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. – No. 1 Clemson won its home opener in front of a socially distanced crowd of 18,609 fans at Memorial Stadium, defeating The Citadel by a score of 49-0. The victory marked Clemson's 31st consecutive regular season win, passing the 2013-15 Florida State Seminoles for the longest such streak in ACC history.

Quarterback Trevor Lawrence went 8-of-9 passing for 168 yards with three passing touchdowns and a rushing touchdown. Freshman quarterback D.J. Uiagalelei added his first two career scores on the ground.

All of Clemson's points came in a 49-point first half, Clemson's most points in the first two quarters of play since scoring 49 against Temple in a 63-9 victory on Oct. 12, 2006.

Clemson's defense held the Bulldogs to just 162 total yards and added a score of its own when linebacker James Skalski returned a fumble 17 yards for the first touchdown of his career. Freshman Myles Murphy added two tackles for loss and forced the fumble that led to the Skalski scoop-and-score.

Wide receiver Frank Ladson Jr. recorded career highs in receptions (three), receiving yards (87) and receiving touchdowns (two).

Clemson produced its first shutout since the 2016 Fiesta Bowl, a 31-0 win against Ohio State. It was Clemson's first regular season shutout since a 54-0 win against Syracuse in 2016. The shutout was Clemson's seventh under Head Coach Dabo Swinney, and its fifth home shutout in his tenure.

GAME 3	VIRGINIA	23
	CLEMSON	41
	OCT. 3, 2020 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. – Clemson improved to 3-0 with a 41-23 win against Virginia at Memorial Stadium. The win extended Clemson's winning streak on Saturdays to 46, passing the 1953-57 Oklahoma Sooners for the longest such streak in FBS history.

Trevor Lawrence was 25-for-38 passing for 329 yards and three touchdowns, including two to Amari Rodgers. Travis Etienne totaled 187 yards from scrimmage, including 73 on the ground and a career-high and Clemson running back record 114 through the air.

Clemson's defense picked off Virginia quarterback Brennan Armstrong twice. Nolan Turner recorded the Tigers' first interception of the season in the second quarter, and on the first drive of the second half, Andrew Booth Jr. made a spectacular one-handed interception, the first of his career, in the corner of the end zone.

Lyn-J Dixon returned the opening kickoff of the game for a career-long 52 yards, setting the tone for Clemson to run out to a 24-3 lead before a late second-quarter Virginia touchdown made it 24-10 Clemson at the half.

The Tigers opened the second half scoring off the Booth interception with a 42-yard Potter field goal. The Cavaliers answered with a touchdown before Etienne recorded his second score of the game to give Clemson a 34-17 lead. Chez Mellusi added a fourth quarter two-yard rushing touchdown, his first of the season and first since the 2019 ACC Championship against the Cavaliers, to extend the Tiger lead to 41-17 before a late Virginia touchdown brought the final score to 41-23.

GAME 4	MIAMI (FLA.)	17
	CLEMSON	42
	OCT. 10, 2020 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. — No. 1 Clemson earned a 42-17 victory over No. 7 Miami (Fla.) in Clemson's first regular season matchup of Top 10 teams since 2016.

Clemson's defense kept the Hurricanes offense in check all night, allowing only 210 yards, while the offense piled up 550. Sheridan Jones, Derion Kendrick and Kane Patterson all had interceptions while the Clemson pass rush totaled five sacks.

Trevor Lawrence completed 29-of-41 passes for 292 yards and three touchdowns and Travis Etienne ran for 149 yards and two scores and caught a game-high eight passes for 73 yards. Etienne's second rushing touchdown was the 60th of his career, making him only the 12th player in official FBS records to score 60 career rushing touchdowns.

Braden Galloway produced the first multi-touchdown game by a Clemson tight end since 2016, catching touchdown passes of 24 and 11 yards. Davis Allen added his first career touchdown as well to give Clemson tight end three touchdowns in the contest.

Clemson controlled the ball for 12:31 of the first quarter and ran 25 plays to Miami's six. At halftime, Clemson held a 21-3 advantage in first downs.

Miami scored its first touchdown of the game on the final play of the first half, blocking a 61-yard field goal attempt by B.T. Potter and returning it 48 yards for a touchdown. It was one of three Miami field goal blocks.

Clemson's 25-point win represented its sixth victory of 25 points or more against an AP Top 10 opponent all-time.

GAME 5	CLEMSON	73
	GEORGIA TECH	7
	OCT. 17, 2020 BOBBY DODD STADIUM • ATLANTA, GA.

ATLANTA — No. 1 Clemson cruised to the largest conference win in ACC history, defeating Georgia Tech, 73-7, at Bobby Dodd Stadium.

Clemson scored a modern-era school-record 52 first-half points, as Trevor Lawrence was 22-for-27 passing for 391 yards and five touchdowns in the first half alone. Lawrence finished with a career-high 404 passing yards. Wide receiver Amari Rodgers found the end zone twice in a career-high 161 yard performance as 17 different Tigers caught a pass, the most in the Dabo Swinney era.

Among those with a touchdown was defensive tackle Nyles Pinckney, who scored on a one-yard touchdown run in the second quarter. Travis Etienne scored a three-yard rushing touchdown in the second quarter as well, giving him 408 career points to break Chandler Catanzaro's school record of 404.

The Tiger defense forced three turnovers and totaled four sacks. Clemson held Georgia Tech to seven first downs, its second straight game holding its opponent to single-digit first downs.

Chef Mellusi, Kobe Pace and Ajou Ajou added second half touchdowns. Pace's came on Hunter Helms's first career touchdown pass. Ajou's touchdown, also from Helms, marked the first of his career as well.

GAME 6	SYRACUSE	21
	CLEMSON	47
	OCT. 24, 2020 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. — Top-ranked Clemson improved to 6-0 with a 47-21 victory over Syracuse. After Clemson raced out to a 17-0 lead, Syracuse pulled to within six points at 27-21 before Clemson rattled off 20 unanswered points to seal the game.

The Tigers' defense forced a momentum-swinging strip-sack in the third quarter that was returned for a touchdown by Andrew Booth Jr. Clemson also had three interceptions, one each by Nolan Turner, Mike Jones Jr. and JalyN Phillips.

Travis Etienne scored three rushing touchdowns on 16 carries and totaled 86 yards on the ground. Trevor Lawrence was 27-of-43 passing for 289 yards and two touchdowns.

Syracuse returned a Lawrence interception 39 yards for a touchdown and the Tigers responded with another Potter field goal to give them a 27-14 lead as the first half expired. With Clemson's fumble return touchdown and Syracuse's interception return touchdown, the game was Clemson's first in which both teams recorded a defensive touchdown since 2014 when Clemson's Jadar Johnson and South Carolina State's Dominique Mitchell each scored via fumble return.

The win gave Clemson a school-record 26-game home unbeaten streak. Clemson went unbeaten in 25 straight games at Memorial Stadium from 1980-84 with 23 wins and two ties in that span.

GAME 7	BOSTON COLLEGE	28
	CLEMSON	34
	OCT. 31, 2020 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. — No. 1 Clemson scored 24 unanswered points to overcome an 18-point deficit to defeat Boston College, 34-28 at Death Valley. The comeback tied for the second-largest in school history and was Clemson's largest at Memorial Stadium all-time.

Running Travis Etienne totaled 224 all-purpose yards, including 84 rushing on 20 carries, becoming the ACC's all-time leading rusher by breaking the record held by NC State's Ted Brown (4,602) since 1978. His 140 receiving yards also broke his own school running back record set earlier this season against Virginia (114).

Making his first career start, quarterback D.J. Uiagalelei dazzled, going 30-for-41 passing for 342 yards and two touchdowns. He also added 25 yards and a touchdown on the ground after learning on Thursday he would start in place of Trevor Lawrence, who missed the game after testing positive for COVID-19.

The Eagles scored on their opening two possessions, and Clemson was one yard away from tying the game at 14 when Boston College picked up a fumbled exchange and returned it 97 yards for a touchdown for a 21-7 lead. Boston College extended the lead to 28-10 with 1:02 remaining in the second quarter, but a B.T. Potter 50-yard field goal cut Clemson's halftime deficit to 15.

Clemson outscored Boston College in the third quarter, 13-0, to cut the lead to two on a touchdown run and touchdown pass by Uiagalelei. Clemson took its first lead early in the fourth quarter on a 17-yard touchdown run by Etienne. The Eagles had the ball at their four-yard line with 1:24 remaining, but on the drive's first play, freshman Bryan Bresee forced an intentional grounding penalty in the endzone for a safety to seal the win.

	NOTRE DAME	(2OT) 47
	NOV. 7, 2020 NOTRE DAME STADIUM • NOTRE DAME, IND.

NOTRE DAME, Ind. — No. 1 Clemson fell to No. 4 Notre Dame, 47-40, in double overtime in the highest-ranked matchup of ACC squads in conference history.

The Irish jumped out to an early 10-0 lead. The Tigers responded with a 53-yard bomb from D.J. Uiagalelei to Cornell Powell. Powell finished with a career-high 161 yards on six receptions. Uiagalelei finished with 439 passing yards, the most ever surrendered by Notre Dame.

The second quarter saw the two teams exchange field goals before an Etienne fumble was recovered by Notre Dame and returned for a touchdown to give the Irish a 20-10 advantage before ultimately going into halftime at 23-13 in favor of Notre Dame.

The Tigers scored 10 consecutive points to open the third, tying the game at 23. Another Notre Dame field goal gave the Irish a 26-23 lead, which was quickly erased by B.T. Potter's career-high fourth field goal of the game. With 9:14 remaining and the score locked at 26-26, Uiagalelei led the Tigers on a 12-play, 74-yard touchdown drive lasting 5:41 capped by a Travis Etienne three-yard touchdown run to give Clemson the lead.

In their last possession of regulation, Notre Dame cashed in on a 91-yard touchdown drive that sent the game into overtime. Both teams scored touchdowns in the first frame, but when Notre Dame opened the second overtime period with a score, the Tigers allowed two sacks to thwart the comeback bid.

GAME 9	PITTSBURGH	17
	CLEMSON	52
	NOV. 28, 2020 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. — No. 4 Clemson defeated Pitt, 52-17, on Senior Day behind a 403-yard passing performance by Trevor Lawrence in his return from a two-game absence. Clemson forced five turnovers, including four interceptions, two from cornerback Mario Goodrich. The game was Clemson's first in 21 days, its longest regular season layoff since 1918.

The Tigers raced out to a 31-0 lead behind 31 first-quarter points, a school record against an FBS opponent. E.J. Williams, wearing No. 39 to honor his father on Military Appreciation Day, opened the scoring with his first career touchdown catch. Cornell Powell added a first-quarter score amid a career-high 176 receiving yards and became only the third Tiger ever to post at least 150 receiving yards in back-to-back games.

The Tigers took a 38-10 lead into halftime, but a Lawrence fumble on the opening play of the second half led to a Panthers touchdown that cut the deficit to 21 points. After the two teams traded several punts, Travis Etienne cashed in his second score on a three-yard touchdown run. A late Chez Mellusi receiving touchdown from D.J. Uiagalelei brought the final score to 52-17.

With the victory on Senior Day, Clemson's 2020 seniors finished 27-0 at home, the first Clemson class to go undefeated at Death Valley and the first FBS class to go undefeated at home since Boise State and Oklahoma in 2010.
