50 As a team, the Panthers have made huge strides shooting the ball as they have connected on 50 three-pointers in seven games this season. The 50 threes are the most in the first seven games of a season for Pitt since 2014-15.

TEAM NOTES

LAST TIME OUT - VS. MIAMI

» The Panthers started the game on fire Thursday as they raced out to a 31-10 first quarter lead, their second highest scoring quarter in program history, but they couldn't hold on as they fell 72-68.

» The second quarter cost Pitt on Thursday as they posted just six points, their lowest scoring quarter of the season.

» Jayla Everett led the Panthers with 13 points on 3-for-7 from deep while Rita Igbokwe netted 12 points, eight rebounds, six blocks and two steals on 6-for-6 shooting in the loss.

» As a team, the Panthers were able to shoot 42.4% from the floor while holding the Hurricanes to just 34.7% shooting.

THE DAY AND JAY SHOW

» Heading into the 2020-21 campaign, the Panthers knew they would be relying on their talented guards to produce at a high level and through six games they haven't disappointed.

» In the loss to Miami, Dayshanette Harris and Jayla Everett combined for a season-low 17 points, nine assists, six rebounds, one block and one steal. It marked the second straight game that both players didn't score in double figures.

» The starting backcourt for Pitt is the second highest scoring guard duo overall in the ACC (31.3 ppg) as well as being the second highest scoring guard duo in conference games (min. 4 GP) netting 30.8 ppg combined through four conference games.

» Everett and Harris have led the Panthers in scoring in all seven games this season, Everett four times and Harris three times. Harris has scored in double digits in six of seven games and in 14 of her last 15 games dating back to last year while Everett has 10+ points in six of the seven games this season.

» Everett has three 20+ scoring games so far this season while Harris has two. For their careers, Everett has 10 games with 20+ points and 38 with 10+ points while Harris has eight games of 20+ and 22 in double figures.

SHOOTING FOR THE STARS

» The Pitt offense is off to its best start to a season since joining the ACC as they have connected on 41.6% from the floor and 34.2% from behind the arc through seven games.

» The Panthers have shot at least 40% from the floor in six of their first seven games this season, the first time they have done so since 2001-02.

» The 41.6 field goal percentage through the first seven games of the season is the best for Pitt since shooting 46.2% through the first seven games in 2010-11.

» The three-point shooting has been the biggest area of improvement as the Panthers went from 13th in the conference last season in three-point field goal percentage (29.1%) to sixth in the ACC this season (34.2%).

» As a team, Pitt has connected on 50 three-pointers through the first seven games, the most through the first seven games since 2014-15 when they netted 53 triples.

» The Panthers have shot a better percentage from the floor than six of their seven opponents this season. Under coach White, Pitt owns a 17-7 record when they shoot a higher percentage than their opponent and just a 2-43 record when being outshot by their opponent.

PANTHERS RACKING UP THE POINTS

» The Panthers have scored 70+ points in five of their seven games this season, marking the first time Pitt has done so to start a season since the 2007-08 campaign when they opened the season with seven straight games with 70+ points scored. The 2007-08 Pitt team advanced to the Sweet 16 for the first time in school history.

» Pitt scored 70+ points in each of their first two ACC games for the first time in program history.

» In the win over Clemson, the Panthers netted 80 points for just the fifth time in an ACC game in program history. The Panthers are 5-0 when they score at least 80 points in a conference game.

» The offense has also put together three of the best scoring quarters since the NCAA switched to the four quarter format in 2015-16. Pitt netted 32 points in the 1st quarter vs. Virginia Tech, 31 points in the first quarter vs. Miami and 31 points in the 4th quarter vs. Clemson.

TEAM NOTES...

» Everett is the first Pitt player in over 20 seasons to net at least 16 points in each of the first five games of the season.

» Her 119 points scored through seven games are the most by a Pitt player since Shavonte Zellous netted 150 points through the first seven games of the 2008-09 season, a season in which Zellous was named AP All-American.

» For her career, Everett has 38 games scoring in double figures including 10 games with 20+ points scored.

» She has made three or more three-pointers in six games this season and in 18 games over her career.

WHAT CAN BROWN DO FOR YOU

» Sophomore forward Amber Brown has started all 38 career games for the Panthers and does a little bit of everything to help Pitt succeed.

» Brown has continued to grow into her role in the starting lineup and she posted eight points, eight rebounds and three assists while going 3-for-5 from the floor and 2-for-3 from the free throw line.

» On the season, Brown is averaging 7.1 points, a team-high 7.0 rebounds and 2.1 assists while shooting a career-best 53.3% from the floor.

» She has 18 career double digit scoring games and 11 career games with 10 or more rebounds.

» Brown has posted 20+ minutes played in all 38 career games while leading the Panthers in rebounding a team-best 18 times over her career.

» Through her first 38 career games, Brown has played 1,186 minutes and grabbed 287 rebounds, the most by a Pitt player in their first 38 career games since Pitt joined the ACC in 2013-14.

POST PLAYERS GAINING CONFIDENCE

» The Panthers are thin down low this season when it comes to depth but Rita Igbokwe and Cynthia Ezeja have begun to gain confidence.

» Last time out against Miami, Igbokwe had her best game of the season as she netted 12 points, eight rebounds and six blocks while going 6-for-6 from the floor. Ezeja missed the game due to Covid protocols but will be back for the Clemson game.

» Her six blocks are tied for the most in a game by a Pitt player since 2014-15.

» Through 38 career games, Igbokwe has a program best 74 blocked shots.

» Igbokwe is averaging 18.9 minutes, 5.7 points, 6.0 rebounds and a team-high 2.0 blocks.

» Ezeja has made one start and is averaging 3.4 points and 6.6 rebounds. The redshirt freshman has two straight games with 10+ rebounds.

» In ACC games, Ezeja ranks second in offensive rebounds (4.7 orpg) and 10th in rebounding (8.3 rpg).

MUCH IMPROVED REBOUNDING

» One of the biggest points of emphasis for the Panthers since Lance White became head coach was rebounding the ball.

» The Panthers have taken that to heart as they are averaging 7.8 rpg more this season (43.3 rpg) than the season before White took over the program (2017-18 - 35.5 rpg).

» So far this season, Pitt has won the rebounding battle five times while grabbing 40+ boards in six of seven games overall.

2019-20 HIGHLIGHTS

- The Panthers had a strong close to their 2019-20 campaign as they collected just the second ACC Tournament win in program history as they downed Notre Dame, 67-65, in the first round behind a Dayshanette Harris game-winning runner in the lane.
- One of the brightest spots for the Panthers a season ago was the play of coach White's first recruiting class, Dayshanette Harris, Amber Brown, Rita Igbokwe and Emy Hayford.
- The freshman quartet etched their names in the Pitt record book as they became the highest scoring freshman class in program history (948 points combined). The 948 points combined also ranked third amongst Power 5 conference freshman classes in scoring, trailing only USC (1,308 points) and South Carolina (1,047; #1 recruiting class in the NCAA).
- Pitt was one of two Power 5 conference teams a season ago to have four freshman average at least 19.5 minutes/game (Cal).
- Guard Dayshanette Harris burst onto the scene for the Panthers down the stretch and she finished the year as the only freshman from a Power 5 conference school to lead her team in scoring, assists and steals. Harris was the lone Power 5 conference freshman to average at least 12.5 ppg, 4.5 rpg and 1.8 spg a season ago.
- Harris earned a spot on the All-ACC Freshman Team following her strong first season as a Panther. She is just the second Pitt player in program history (Brenna Wise, 2016) to earn a spot on the All-ACC Freshman Team.
- The dynamic freshman rebounding duo of Amber Brown (7.7 rpg - led all ACC freshman) and Rita Igbokwe (6.8 rpg) were the third best rebounding freshman duo in the NCAA (14.5 rpg combined). Brown and Igbokwe were one of only two freshman duos in the NCAA (Oregon State) to average at least 6.8 rpg each.
- Brown earned ACC Freshman of the Week honors twice during her first season as she is just the second Panther in program history to earn that recognition twice in a season (Jasmine Whitney 2016-17).
- Brown was also the only Power 5 conference freshman to lead her team in minutes played (31.9 mpg) while averaging at least 9.1 ppg and 7.7 rpg.
- Igbokwe burst onto the scene for the Panthers as a presence down low during her first season. The athletically-gifted Igbokwe set a Pitt freshman record for blocks in a season with 60, breaking the previous record that stood for 43 years.
- Igbokwe was one of six Power 5 conference freshman a season ago to shoot at least 46.2% from the floor while averaging 6.8 rpg and notch at least 60 blocked shots.
- Igbokwe had a monster game against Ohio during her freshman season in which she grabbed 18 rebounds which were the most rebounds in a game by a Pitt player since 2010 and the most by a Panther freshman since 2005 when Marcedes Walker snagged 19 boards.
- Junior sharpshooter Gabbie Green exploded onto the scene for Pitt a season ago after transferring in from South Plains College in Texas. Green finished off her first season connecting on 60 three-pointers, the most triples by a junior in program history. The 60 trey's are also the fourth most in a single season in program history.
- At the conclusion of the season, Pitt placed two student-athletes (Aysia Bugg and Dayshanette Harris) on the All-ACC Academic Team. It marked the second straight season with two representatives and the ninth and tenth in program history.

LAST MEETING WITH CLEMSON

PITTSBURGH – Behind a 21-point afternoon from sophomore Dayshanette Harris, the Pitt women's basketball team (3-2, 1-1 ACC) overcame a 14-point second half deficit to collect their first ACC victory of the season, downing the previously unbeaten Clemson Tigers (6-1, 1-1 ACC) 80-71 Sunday afternoon at the Petersen Events Center.

"Well, obviously I'm really excited about an ACC win and I thought the things that we did in the third and fourth quarters were much better," stated third year head coach Lance White. "I was really disappointed in the way we started the game. I thought we were really flat and just got out rebounded and out hustled during every part of it. Then, our kids flipped a switch and that's what we've talked so much to this team about, about being able to do so in those moments and we did it today."

Pitt had four players score in double figures Sunday as Harris had her second straight 20+ point game, netting a game-high 21 points, five assists and three rebounds on an efficient 9-for-16 shooting afternoon while Jayla Everett finished off her game with 16 points, four assists, three rebounds and three blocks while connecting on four triples. Amber Brown had a strong game as she netted 14 points, five rebounds and four steals while freshman Liatu King came off the bench and posted 11 points and two rebounds in the win.

The Panthers entered the fourth quarter trailing by 12, 61-49, but they had some momentum on their side after they closed out the third quarter strong. Everett connected on seven straight points including an old fashion four-point play after draining a deep triple and making the free throw after getting hit to cut the deficit to one, 64-63. After a Clemson bucket, Harris finished off a fast break layup and Gabbie Green had the play of the game as she stole a pass and threw an over the head pass to King who finished off the layup to give Pitt the 67-66 lead with just over four minutes to play.

Out of the final media timeout, the Tigers were able to claim the 71-67 lead after a pair of buckets but the Panthers didn't back down as Emy Hayford netted a second chance layup and Green connected on her lone triple of the day to give the Panthers the lead. Everett sealed the win just over 20 seconds after Green's three with a three of her own as the Pitt defense didn't allow a point over the final 3:41 to claim the 80-71 victory.

The Panthers got off to another quick start offensively Sunday as they scored seven straight after the Tigers opened the scoring with two free throws. Rita Igbokwe started the scoring with an offensive rebound and layup before Harris hit a jumper and Everett finished off three free throws to make it 7-2 early on for Pitt. Over the next three minutes, the Tigers were able to connect on three triples as they took the 16-11 lead into the media timeout. Harris came out of the timeout with back-to-back buckets but the Tigers finished the first quarter on a 6-0 run to take the 22-15 lead into the second.

The Panthers cut into the lead to start the second quarter as Cynthia Ezeja finished off a layup and Destiny Strother came off the bench and connected on a triple to make the score 24-20 in favor of the visitors. The Tigers responded quickly with a 7-2 run to push their lead back to nine, 31-22. Everett netted her first triple of the game with just over three minutes to go in the half to make it a six-point game but Clemson scored seven straight to send the game to half with Pitt trailing 40-29.

The two teams exchanged some buckets early in the third quarter before a triple by the Tigers gave them their biggest lead of the game, 14, with seven minutes to go in the third. Pitt responded right away after the triple as King finished off a layup after a great feed from Harris and then Harris connected on a jumper to cut the deficit to 10. The Tigers scored six straight points to push their lead to 61-47 in the final minute But King was able to draw a foul and sink both free throws to send the game to the fourth with Pitt trailing 61-49.

Ezeja was massive off the Panthers bench on Sunday as she brought loads of energy and rebounded the ball better than anyone on the floor. The redshirt freshman finished the game with four points and a career-high 11 rebounds in 21 minutes of work. Hayford made a strong impact for Pitt in the second half as her defense and energy helped Pitt secure the comeback win as she finished with four points, three rebounds, an assist and a steal in 18 minutes.

As a team, the Panthers won the rebounding battle 43-39 while also racking up 18 offensive boards that they turned into 18 second chance points. The Panthers also won the fast break scoring category 20-14 while Clemson held the 30-26 edge in scoring in the paint.

LANCE WHITE

HEAD COACH | 3RD SEASON | TEXAS TECH '96

Lance White enters his third season at the helm of the Panthers in 2020-21 after being named as the ninth head coach in Pitt women's basketball history on April 19, 2018.

In White's second season in charge, the Panthers showed growth in every part of the program and it was capped with an ACC Tournament victory over the defending ACC Champions, Notre Dame. The win over the Irish marked just the Panthers second ACC Tournament win in program history as freshman sensation Dayshanette Harris knocked down the game-winning jumper with just 2.7 seconds left in the game. With the win, Pitt handed Notre Dame just their second loss in ACC Tournament history.

The foundation for the Pitt program was laid in season two as White's "First Class" of seven student-athletes made huge impacts that will shape the program for years to come. The Pitt freshman class of Harris, Amber Brown, Emy Hayford and Rita Igbokwe was not only the best freshman class in the ACC but they were one of the best in the NCAA. The quartet averaged 31.0 points/game combined, the most ever by a Pitt freshman class.

The youthful Panthers roster during the 2019-20 campaign was able to get loads of experience that will help down the road as Pitt was the only team in the ACC to start five newcomers, doing so in the final seven games of the season.

White signed his highest ranking recruiting class for the 2020-21 campaign as he will have five newcomers to the lineup, three freshman and two transfer student-athletes. The three freshman joining the program are Tracey Hueston, the 73rd ranked recruit in the 2020 class, Liatu King and Taisha Exanor. Hueston is the highest rated recruit for the Panthers since joining the ACC while King and Exanor are both three-star prospects with winning pedigrees.

Also joining the 2020 class will be New Mexico transfer Jayla Everett who earned the Mountain West Freshman of the Year accolades in 2018-19 after coming out of Kirkwood High School ranked as the 94th best player in the 2018 class. Sophomore Destiny Strother also transferred to Pitt after one year at Marquette, helping the Eagles to a 24-8 record while coming off the bench.

Off the court, the 2019-20 Panthers posted their best semester in the classroom since joining the ACC as they posted a team cumulative GPA of 3.481. Pitt also saw two student-athletes, Aysia Bugg and Harris, earn ACC All-Academic Team honors for the second straight season.

White notched his first career head coaching victory in the Panthers second game of the season on Nov. 9, 2018 as he led Pitt to the dominant 90-38 victory over New Orleans, their seventh largest defeat in program history and their largest in over a decade.

White collected his first ACC victory on Feb. 14, 2019 when the Panthers knocked off the North Carolina Tar Heels inside the Petersen Events Center, 91-78. The 91 points scored for the Panthers were their most scored in a game since 2014 and their most ever in an ACC contest. Another historic win for the Panthers during White's first season was the road victory over Duquesne in the City Game as they downed the Dukes by the score of 66-58.

With White at the helm, Pitt upped its offensive efficiency as they had four players average over 9.5 points/game including leading scorer Danielle Garven who finished off her impressive senior campaign averaging a career-high 11.8 points and 4.3 rebounds. Fellow senior Cassidy Walsh also had a great season under White's watchful eye as she quadrupled her scoring production from her junior season, averaging a career-high 9.7 points/game for the Panthers. Pitt also posted the fourth best season in school history from behind the arc as they connected on 32.7% from behind the arc while also bumping up their rebounding average to 35.5 rebounds/game.

Off the court, White had a pair of student-athletes, Jasmine Whitney and Cassidy Walsh, named to the All-ACC Academic Team, the most for Pitt since 2015 when they placed three on the team.

White came to Pitt after spending 15 years at Florida State, where he helped the Seminoles to a 350-145 (.707) record, including 12 seasons of 20+ wins.

During his final season at Florida State (2017-18), the Seminoles posted 25 or more wins for the fourth consecutive season, finishing with a 26-7 overall record and averaged the second-most points in a season in program history with 81.0 points per game. It was just the second time FSU averaged 80 or more points per game in a season. The team ranked in the Top 20 nationally in field goal percentage (20th), offensive rebounds per game (16th), rebound margin (sixth), rebounds per game (11th), scoring margin (10th) and scoring offense (13th). The Seminoles led the ACC in rebounding offense (42.8), rebounding margin (+10.0) and offensive rebounding percentage (41.4 percent).

During his time at FSU, 10 players were selected in the WNBA Draft, eight earned ACC All-Defensive team honors and 37 earned all-conference awards. He helped the Seminoles reach the NCAA Tournament in 13 of the past 14 years, while the team won at least one NCAA Tournament game in each of its past 15 appearances.

For his standout coaching efforts during the 2016-17 season, White was named the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) National Assistant Coach of the Year.

White helped FSU reach new levels of success and brought an infectious energy to the program. He directed the Seminole defense and offense during his tenure in addition to being one of the country's top recruiters.
Florida State captured back-to-back regular season ACC co-titles in 2010 and 2011, and advanced to the 2010 NCAA Tournament Elite Eight. After serving as assistant coach for the first nine seasons in Tallahassee, White was promoted to associate head coach in advance of the 2012-13 campaign.

Prior to FSU, White spent 11 seasons at Texas Tech, including five years as an assistant coach with the Lady Raiders' top-10 program under legendary head coach Marsha Sharp. With White on staff, Texas Tech won three Big 12 championships and advanced to seven consecutive NCAA Tournaments, including five Sweet 16 and two Elite Eight appearances. He was a student assistant on Tech's 1993 national championship team and a graduate assistant coach for two seasons before being elevated to a full-time coach in 1998.

While in Lubbock, White worked with some of the best players the game has ever seen, including National Player of the Year and three-time WNBA MVP Sheryl Swoopes as well as Plenette Pierson, who was named 2007 WNBA Sixth Woman of the Year.

A 1996 graduate of Texas Tech, White earned his bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science. He went on to receive a master's degree in sports administration in August 1998. He attended Lubbock Christian University for three semesters before transferring to Texas Tech in January 1993.
