KITLEY ONE OF TOP CENTERS IN AMERICA

• Sophomore Elizabeth Kitley, the reigning ACC Freshman of the Year was tabbed as a candidate for the Lisa Leslie award honoring the nation’s top center in the preseason.

• She earned ACC Co-Player of the Week honors on Jan. 18 following a week where she averaged 18.0 points and 17.5 rebounds in two contests, tallying her seventh and eighth double-doubles of the season.

• Against Wake Forest (1/17) she tied a program mark securing 21 rebounds.

KING A SHARPSHOOTER

• Sophomore Cayla King is fourth in the ACC owning a 41.5% mark from beyond the arc. Forty-nine of her 54 FGs have been 3’s this season.

HOTTEST CLUB IN THE ACC

• The Hokies own the longest winning streak amongst teams in the conference after successive wins over NC State, North Carolina, Pitt, Miami and Syracuse.

• Three of Tech’s wins have come by double digits and the average margin has been 12.6 points per game.

VIRGINIA TECH & CLEMSON TIGERS

• The Hokies and Tigers have met 25 times previously in a series separated by one game, with Clemson holding a 13-12 advantage.

• Last season, the Hokies earned a 71-50 win at home at Cassell Coliseum behind 15 points from Taja Cole and a double-double (10 points, 15 rebounds) from Lydia Rivers.

ACC’S DOUBLE-DUPE LEADER, #33

• Center Elizabeth Kitley owns 12 double-doubles which ranks first in the ACC and that mark is the fifth-best total in the nation.

• Kitley now has 18 for her career, a mark that is the tenth-most by a Hokie in a career, in just 49 games played.

AISHA SHEPHERD SECOND IN USA

• Senior guard Aisha Sheppard not only leads the conference but is second in the nation in 3’s made with 75 thus far in 2020-21.

• She became Tech’s all-time leader in 3’s at NC State (Jan. 24), eclipsing the previous record of 269 set in 2017 by Vanessa Panousis. Her 289 rank eighth all-time in ACC history.

A DYNAMIC DUO IN BLACKSBURG

• Sheppard and Kitley form the highest scoring duo in the conference with Sheppard averaging 19.3 ppg and Kitley 18.8, the second and third best marks in the ACC.

• The duo have each been honored as ACC Player of the Week once this season and have been extremely productive. Sheppard has scored in double figures in each game and Kitley has only failed to do so once this season.

• Kitley ranks inside the top five in the ACC in several categories; points, rebounds, FG%, blocks and made free throws.

• Sheppard, likewise is having a career season, where she is also averaging career bests in assists (3.1) and leads the Hokies in assist to turnover ratio. She is converting 83% of her free throws and is third in the league with 65 made on the season. Kitley, with 77 is first.

UNDEFEATED IN THE NON-CON

• Tech rolled through the abbreviated non-conference portion of the schedule averaging 83.0 points while averaging just 57.0.
• The Hokies also extended their winning streak at Cassell against non-con opposition to 60 games, which dates all the way back to 2014.

CASSELL COLISEUM • BLACKSBURG, VA • JAN. 26, 2020 • ATTENDANCE: 1839

BLACKSBURG—Virginia Tech assisted on 17 of their 29 field goals Sunday afternoon, but it was once again a stellar defensive effort that enabled the Hokies to earn the win—their third consecutive and move to 15-4 (5-3) with a 71-50 victory over the Clemson Tigers.

Clemson fell to 7-13 (6-9).

The Hokies, who are off to their best start since going 16-4 in 2016-17, took a nine-point advantage into the locker room before racing out to 20-point lead in the third quarter as five different players made baskets, indicative of the balanced effort.

Tech was led by Taja Cole, who narrowly missed out a double-double with 15 points and nine assists in the game and she joined in double figures by Aisha Sheppard (12) and Lydia Rivers (10).

Rivers pulled down a game-high 15 rebounds, including eight on the offensive end, to register her first career ACC double-double and third overall on the season. She held Clemson’s Kobi Thornton to just 2 of 8 shooting from the floor and helped the Hokies have an advantage in the paint (30-22) and on the glass (50-38).

Freshman Elizabeth Kitley had eight boards and a career-high five blocks on the defensive end.

Tech’s leading scorer Aisha Sheppard got loose for two 3-pointers in the game as did freshman guard Cayla King as well as Dara Mabrey.

GAME NOTES

With the win, Tech moves to 5-3 in the ACC marking the best B-game start to the league campaign since joining the conference.

The win was the Hokies’ fourth at home in conference play. It marks the first time that Tech has started the ACC season 4-0 at Cassell Coliseum.

Aisha Sheppard scored in double figures for the 18th time in 19 games this season with her 12 points against the Tigers. She continues to lead the team at 16.6 points per game.

Tech used the same starting lineup for the 11th straight game – Cole, Mabrey, Sheppard, Rivers and Kitley.

Forward Lydia Rivers registered her third double-double of the season.

SHEPPARD’S SHOOTING STREAK
• Senior guard Aisha Sheppard holds the program record with 35 consecutive games with a 3-point FG. The streak began on Feb. 28, 2019 and went through Feb. 27, 2020 a stretch of 364 days.
• The Hokies owned a record of 26-9 during that span.
• Her current streak is 19 games, spanning the entire 2020-21 season.
REPEAT 20-WIN CLUB MEMBERS

- The Hokies have won 20 or more games in each of head coach Kenny Brooks’ four seasons at the helm in Blacksburg.
- A fifth consecutive 20-win campaign would mark the first such streak since the program enjoyed seven straight under Bonnie Hindrickson between 1998-2004.

KITLEY IN A CLASS OF HER OWN IN THE ACC

- The 2020 ACC Freshman of the Year had a monster debut season, scoring 27 points in her first game and earning Freshman of the Week honors on three separate occasions.
- Kitley tallied six double-doubles, all in Hokie victories.
- The center averaged 12.5 points and 7.5 rebounds per contest, one of just three freshmen in the nation to do so while recording 63 blocks.

RECEIVING VOTES

- Virginia 0-2 0-5
- Duke 0-1 3-1
- Boston College 2-10 6-10
- Miami 6-10 9-10
- Clemson 5-10 10-10
- Pitt 3-8 5-11
- Virginia 0-2 0-5

SPECIALTY STATS FOR LIZ KITLEY AND THE HOKIES

SPECIALTY STATS ON AISHA SHEPPARD AND THE HOKIES

AP POLL - Feb. 22, 2021

DYNAMIC DUO: SHEPPARD AND KITLEY

- Tech’s two leading scorers from a season ago, Aisha Sheppard (14.8) and Elizabeth Kitley (12.5) represent the second-best scoring duo (27.3 ppg.) to return to the ACC in 2020-21. Only Notre Dame’s combo of Walker and Brunelle (28.4 ppg.) eclipses the Hokies’ mark.
- The Hokies are one of only three ACC schools to return their two highest scorers from a season ago, with the others being Syracuse (Lewis and Engstler 26.6 ppg) and the Fighting Irish.

HOKIES ADD HEIGHT TO THE ROSTER

- This season’s squad has nine players listed at 6 feet tall or above led by the 6-foot-5 Elizabeth Kitley. That total is up from seven a season ago.
- Only Virginia has more 6-footers listed amongst ACC schools with 11. NC State also lists nine players at 6 feet tall or above.

NEW FACES IN THE LOCKER ROOM

- The Hokies’ coaching staff has two new additions this season in Christal Caldwell and Lindsey Hicks. Caldwell made the move to Blacksburg from her alma mater West Virginia while Caldwell spent last season as the associate head coach of the Louisiana Tech Lady Techsters.
- In addition, the Hokies’ roster features a plethora of newcomers, seven.
- The Hokies once again took advantage of the graduate transfer rule as well as the transfer portal welcoming Da’Ja Green from Wofford, D’asia Gregg from Gulf Coast State and Azana Baines from Duke.
- Tech has four true freshmen; G Shelby Calhoun, G, Shemarla King, F Nevaeh Dean and G Georgia Amoore. Amoore, an Australia native enrolled in January of 2020 and practiced with the team, but did not play in any games to preserve her eligibility. A 5-foot-5 guard from Ballarat, she is one of the top prospects in her country and has competed in youth international tournaments and has helped the Aussies win gold at the U-18 FIBA 3x3’s and U-16 Asia Cup.

BEGINNING A NEW JOURNEY

- Following a sensational 2019-20 season that saw the Hokies go 21-9 and in position for their first NCAA invite in 14 seasons, before the COVID-19 pandemic forced the premature close of the season, Virginia Tech is ready to hit the floor again in a competitive setting.

BROOKS’ PUPILS GOING PRO

• Throughout his career, Brooks has sent several players to play in the professional ranks. Among those are Meredith Alexis, Tamera Young, Dawn Evans, Lauren Jimenez, Jasmine Giff, Lauren Okafor, Kirby Burkeholder, Toa Giggetts and Jazmon Gwathmey from JMU.
• Since moving to Blacksburg, Brooks has helped Vanessa Panousis, Sidney Cook, Sami Hill, Regan Magarity, Taylor Emery, Taja Cole and Lydia Rivers find professional basketball success.

MR. FEBRUARY

• Brooks’ career record in the month of February is 108-39 (.734)
• In the 17 seasons of head coaching that he has completed, his teams have gone unbeaten in the month of February once (2015-16 with James Madison).

• Kenny Brooks was named the seventh head women’s basketball coach at Virginia Tech on March 28, 2016. He enters his fifth season at the helm of the Hokies’ program heading into the 2020-21 season.
• Since Brooks’ arrival in Blacksburg, the Hokies have enjoyed four consecutive 20-plus win seasons, all culminating with tournament runs in March. He had the Hokies in position to make the program’s first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2006 in 2020, before COVID-19 led to the cancellation of the event. The Hokies made a WNIT Championship game appearance in 2018 and made it to the WNIT’s Sweet Sixteen in 2017 and 2019.
• The Hokies set numerous program records in 2019-20, most notably winning 11 ACC games for the first time and earning the five seed at the conference’s tournament.
• To begin his tenure, Brooks and the Hokies reeled off 15 straight wins to open the 2016-17 season. Tech’s strongest start to a season in 18 years. Behind that strong start, Tech climbed to as high as No. 15 in the AP Poll.
• Brooks has ushered in a new era of uptempo basketball at Virginia Tech, as his Hokies have reset the program scoring record twice and surpassed the mark for 3-pointers made.
• During his time in Blacksburg, brooks has recruited and developed All-ACC performer Taylor Emery, who set the single season scoring record in 2017-18 at 687 points. She also scored the most field goals in a single campaign with 236. She became the fastest player to 1,000 points (55 games) and was the first Hokie to earn first team All-ACC honors when she did so in 2019.
• Four Hokies have reached 1,000 points since Brooks joined Tech including All-ACC performers Emery, Regan Magarity and senior guard Aisha Sheppard.
• Magarity graduated in 2019 with her name imprinted all throughout the record book, with over 1,600 points and an ACC record 1,299 rebounds.
• Brooks joined the Hokies after an impressive 14-seasons at his alma mater, James Madison. He compiled a record of 337-122 (.756) making him the winningest coach in JMU program history. He guided the Dukes to 11 consecutive postseason appearances that included six NCAA bids and five trips to the WNIT.
• Over an 11-year stretch (2005-16), Brooks’ squads never won fewer than 24 games, averaging 26.3 wins per year. The Dukes won three consecutive CAA championships under Brooks’ tutelage (2014-16) and captured a total of five conference titles.
• During those final three seasons in Harrisonburg, Brooks and the Dukes compiled an impressive 60-3 record in conference play.
• He was named CAA Coach of the Year for a fourth time in 2015-16, while his student-athletes also garnered CAA Player and Rookie of the Year honors.
• Under Brooks, JMU tallied six CAA Players of the Year, three Rookies of the Year and two Defensive Players of the Year. The Duke also recorded 31 All-CAA selection, 11 Defensive Team and 10 All-Rookie Team selections during his tenure.
• The Waynesboro, Virginia native has coached four WNBA Draft picks; Tamera Young, Lauren Okafor and Jazmon Gwathmey from JMU and Regan Magarity from Tech (2019).
• BA 1992 graduate of JMU, Brooks played for three seasons under legendary coach Lefty Driessel and made two NIT appearances while earning a degree in business management. He began his coaching career as a part-time assistant for the 1993-94 JMU men’s squad that won the CAA Tournament and advanced to the NCAA Tournament.
• After four seasons as an assistant for the men’s program at VMI (1994-98), he moved back to his alma mater as a men’s assistant from 1998-2002. He was named interim women’s head coach on Dec. 6, 2002 before taking over those duties on a full-time basis on March 21, 2003.
COMMONWEALTH COMPETITION
• Since taking over in 2016, Kenny Brooks has faced eight different programs from Virginia and owns a 11-7 record against those teams.
• In total games played in Virginia, he has led the Hokies to a 60-21 (.740) mark.

CONDENSED NON-CON IN 2020
• The Hokies have just four non-conference contests on their schedule in 2020-21, in part due to the expanded 20-game ACC schedule and in part because of the start of the season was pushed back three weeks later than usual to November 25.
• After competing against Richmond (11/25), the Hokies are slated to play vs. Liberty (11/28), George Washington (12/1), Appalachian State (12/4) and the Runnin’ Bulldogs of Gardner-Webb (12/6) all at Cassell Coliseum.

GREEN AMONGST D1’S BEST
• G Da’Ja Green ranks 10th amongst active D1 players in career assists with 472.
• She recorded 435 at Wofford in her threee seasons there, where she graduated with the

FAMILY ATMOSPHERE IN BLACKSBURG
• Coach Brooks’ second daughter Chloe is a r-So. G on the team. The Hokies are one of at least two programs in D1 in which the head coach has their daughter on the roster in 2020-21 (Southern Utah).

THREE HOKIES HAVE EARNED WEEKLY ACC INDIVIDUAL HONORS
• Senior guard Aisha Sheppard was recognized by the conference’s Blue Ribbon Panel as the Player of the Week, on Feb. 1, the first for her career.
• Sheppard averaged 22.0 points per game to lift Virginia Tech to a pair of wins, including its best victory in program history last Thursday, as the Hokies upset second-ranked NC State in overtime, 83-71. The senior guard led all players with 28 points against the Wolfpack, scoring all of her points after halftime.
• She scored 18 of her points in overtime, as Virginia Tech set an NCAA Division I record with 36 points in the extra period. Sheppard was 12-for-14 from the free-throw line in overtime to lead the Hokies to the 12-point victory.
• Teammate Elizabeth Kitley was previously the Co-Player of the Week on Jan. 18, giving the Hokies two in the same year for the first time in program history. Tech is one of three schools to have two ACC Players of the Week this season.
• Point guard Georgia Amoore was recognized as the conference’s Freshman of the Week on Feb. 15 following her efforts in the win at Miami. Amoore scored 17 points including five 3-pointers and also recorded five assists and four steals in the game.

BLACKSBURG - Aisha Sheppard scored a season-best 29 points and the Hokies battled back from a 21-point second half deficit to cut the lead to two before the Notre Dame Fighting Irish closed the game at the free throw line. For the Hokies, it was the second consecutive loss and the result was the second loss to Notre Dame this season, dropping the squad to 7-6 (2-6).

Tech jumped out to a lead in the opening frame behind solid defense, holding a 16-9 advantage at the end of the opening 10 minutes. But it would be the Irish who would find their footing in the second quarter, outscoring the Hokies 27-9 and taking the lead for good.

Notre Dame scored the first 13 points of the second half before D’Aira Gregg had a field goal, the Hokies’ first in seven minutes of game time, during which the Irish held their largest lead, 21 with 6:54 in the third quarter.

Down the stretch, Tech found its way back into the game behind Sheppard, who was just 5 for 20 from 3-point range but the Alexandria, Virginia native attacked the paint as well, getting to the free throw line 11 times. A Cayla King 3-pointer with 1:34 left in the fourth cut the Irish advantage to just two, and that would be the closest that the Hokies would come.

Maddy Westbeld (13 points, 12 rebounds) and Destinee Walker (16 points) paced the Irish on the night.

The only other Hokie in double figures was center Elizabeth Kitley who notched a third successive double-double of the season with 15 points and 12 rebounds.

Tech shot just 30.3% from the field and was 9 for 39 from beyond the arc.

GAME NOTES
• Virginia Tech is now 2-13 against the Fighting Irish.

RALEGH - Center Elizabeth Kitley scored 30 points for the second time this season, and Aisha Sheppard added 24 but the Hokies were unable to hang on to a fourth quarter lead Sunday afternoon, ultimately falling 89-87 to the second-ranked NC State Wolfpack.

The loss drops the Hokies to 7-7 (2-7) ahead of a second clash with the Wolfpack this Thursday at Cassell Coliseum.

In a game where the momentum seemed to shift after each quarter, the Hokies to the lead early through Cayla King who hit three triples in the first quarter and Sheppard, who’s first three of the game gave her 270th, cementing her as the all-time leader in program history.

The Wolfpack fought back in the second quarter and went into the locker room holding a 47-41 advantage at the half thanks to a 10-3 run in the closing minutes.

It was the Hokies who took control in the third frame, building a 10-point lead by the end of it thanks to scoring runs led by Kitley who operated freely much of the afternoon and capitalized with 30 points.

NC State (11-0, 6-0) erased a 14-point deficit in the closing quarter utilizing a 16-0 run and key shots from Kai Crutchfield who finished with 20 points, Kayla Jones (22) and Jakia Brown-Turner (23).

King finished with 12 points, Georgia Amoore added eight points and seven assists and Azana Baines scored seven points and pulled down eight rebounds.

GAME NOTES
• Virginia Tech is now 1-22 against the Wolfpack.
• Kenny Brooks’ record moves to 93-56 at Virginia Tech and 430-177 in his career.
• Tech is 6-6 all-time on January 24.
• The starting lineup of Georgia Amoore, Aisha Sheppard, Cayla King, Azana Baines and Elizabeth Kitley accounted for 81 points. It was the first game of the season that this combination had been utilized from the opening tip.
• Kitley registered her 10th double-double of the season with 30 points and 13 rebounds. She leads the conference in that category after securing her third consecutive one.
• Aisha Sheppard scored five 3-pointers, taking her career total to 269, matching the program record which has stood since 2017, set by Vanessa Panousis.

GAME 15

CASSELL COLISEUM • BLACKSBURG, VA • JAN. 31, 2021 • ATTENDANCE: 250

BLACKSBURG - Aisha Sheppard scored 26 points after halftime and the Virginia Tech women’s basketball team earned the program’s first win over a team ranked inside the top four of the AP Poll with an 83-71 overtime victory on Carilion Clinic Court Thursday night.

For the Hokies with the win, Tech’s first over a ranked program since 2019, their record takes to 8-7 (3-7) and the Wolfpack falter for the first time this season and stand at 11-1 (6-1).

A tightly contested first half ended with the Pack leading by four points, 30-26, despite the Hokies’ top scorers, the most dynamic tandem in the conference, Sheppard and center Elizabetnets being held to just two points combined on 1 for 12 shooting.

But the second half was a different affair as Sheppard saw shots fall and her aggressive play led to a career-high 14 free throw attempts, of which the senior made 12. Sheppard, the program’s leader in 3’s was honored pregame with a commemorative basketball, added four more to her tally, including the dagger in overtime.

After a 7-0 spurt late in the game, Tech led by three points and NC State forward Camille Hobby was forced to shoot a deep 3-point basket, which went in just as time expired.

In the third, the Hokies struggled shooting starting 1-11 as Carolina built its largest advantage at 45-37. But 3-pointers from Sheppard, D’asia Gregg and Cayla King closed the gap to just three.

Tech scored the first eight points of the fourth quarter to take the lead on a Sheppard
3-pointer, her fifth of the afternoon and the Hokies would never relinquish the edge.

Kiley once again collected a double-double in the game and Azana Baines. Scored a career-high 16 points and pulled down five rebounds in the effort.

BLACKSBURG - The Virginia Tech women’s basketball team utilized an 11-2 spurt to open the fourth quarter to seize control and wouldn’t relent, closing out the game from the free throw line, en route to a second consecutive victory, 73-69 over the North Carolina Tar Heels.

The Hokies (8-7, 4-7), who own now back-to-back ACC wins for the first time this season, scored 12 3-point baskets in the contest but did their damage down the stretch at the foul line where they were 14 of 16 in the final 10 minutes.

“Really good win,” head coach Kenny Brooks said. “At times in the game we looked exceptionally well. Executed, good energy, we played well during stretches and we’ve got to continue to build.”

North Carolina falls to 8-7 (3-7) with the result.

The game started promisingly for Tech, who scored the first nine points of the game with buckets from Azana Baines, Elizabeth Kiley and Aisha Sheppard before Carolina got their bearings in the game. A back and forth second frame led to the Heels owning a two-point advantage at half.

In the third, the Hokies struggled shooting starting 1-11 as Carolina built its largest advantage at 45-37. But 3-pointers from Sheppard, D’asia Gregg and Cayla King closed the gap to just three.

Tech scored the first eight points of the fourth quarter to take the lead on a Sheppard
3-pointer, her fifth of the afternoon and the Hokies would never relinquish the edge.

Kiley lead all scorers with 27 points and grabbed five rebounds and was complimented by Sheppard’s 18 points and nine each from Baines and King.

Guard Petra Holeinska scored 21 for the Tar Heels.

GAME NOTES

•Virginia Tech is now 2-2 against the Wolfpack.

•Kenny Brooks’ record moves to 95-56 at Virginia Tech and 432-178 in his career.

•North Carolina is now 2-22 against the Wolfpack.

The tone of the team’s last game was set when the Hokies lost to NC State nearly three weeks ago. After a 36-30 halftime lead, the Wolfpack scored 51 points in the second half to lose the game for the Hokies, who shot 38.1 percent from the floor in the loss and made only 9 of 33 3-point tries.

Against NC State on Jan. 28, the Hokies (8-7, 4-7) scored 11 three-pointers and put up 29 assists. The Hokies trailed by four points at the half and outscored the Wolfpack 24-9 in the second half to secure the win.

“First and foremost, we needed that,” Head Coach Kenny Brooks stated with a smile. “Very happy for the kids, very proud of their performance and very proud of them period. The way they’ve handled everything that’s been happening and just very proud. To finally be able to get over the hump and get one of this magnitude feels really good.”

Hobby once again collected a double-double in the game and Azana Baines. Scored a career-high 16 points and pulled down five rebounds in the effort.

BLACKSBURG - The Virginia Tech women’s basketball team connected on four of their first five 3-pointers and got out to an 18-6 lead and hit clutch shots late in the game to secure its fifth consecutive ACC victory, 76-68 over Syracuse, a program record. The Hokies now stand at 12-7 (7-7) with two regular season games to play and the Orange fell to 11-6 (8-6).

“Really big win for us in so many different ways,” Kenny Brooks stated postgame. “The first half I thought they were phenomenal. We executed, we got the ball where we wanted to and we controlled the narrative of how the game is going to be. All-in-all a great game, I think our kids did a tremendous job and we had a lot of people step up. Aisha Sheppard was great, 23 points, I thought Georgia Amoore was phenomenal. She controlled the tempo, she did everything for us.”

Tech began the game with hot shooting, something that continued through halftime where the team held a 22-point advantage, the largest lead in any game this season.

Syracuse would tighten the game in the second half, utilizing a trap on defense and scoring a total of 15 points in transition. The Orange were led by Tiana Mangakahia who scored 18 points and got out to an 18-6 lead and hit clutch shots late in the game to secure its fifth consecutive ACC victory, 76-68 over Syracuse, a program record. The Hokies now stand at 12-7 (7-7) with two regular season games to play and the Orange fell to 11-6 (8-6).
