OHIO IN THE WNIT

Ohio has appeared in the WNIT four times, coming in 2016, 2017, 2019 and this season. The Bobcats are 4-3 in the WNIT, and made it the round of eight in the WNIT in 2019 after beating High Point, MTSU and Western Kentucky before falling Northwestern on the road.

ALL-AMERICA

Senior guard Cece Hooks was named Honorable Mention All-America by the Associated Press. Hooks is the first All-American from Ohio since 1986, when Caroline Mast won the honor.

Hooks produced one of the best individual seasons in Ohio women's basketball history. The Dayton, Ohio native was named MAC Player of the Week a league-high five times this season and is currently ranked third in the nation in points per game at 25.9. Hooks had 19 games of 20 points or more and five with 30 or more. Hooks was the second player in program history to record a triple-double and one of just 12 players in the nation after scoring 31 points, 11 assists and 10 steals against Miami. Her 10 steals were a single-game school record. Hooks became the second 2,000 point scorer in program history when she posted 22 points at Ball State. Only Mast – the three-time Player of the Year – has reached the 2,000-point feat. Hooks – who already owns the all-time single-game scoring record – posted the fourth-highest single-game mark with 38 points against Akron. During the regular season, Hooks averaged 26.3 points 6.3 rebounds, 3.7 steals and 4.1 assists. On the defensive side, Hooks has 84 steals this season and is averaging 3.8 steals per game, her highest game average in her four-year career.

MAC PLAYER AND DEFENSIVE OF THE YEAR

Cece Hooks was named MAC Player and Defensive Player of the Year. Hooks is the first player to win the Player of the Year award for Ohio since Caroline Mast won the honor for three-straight seasons from 1984-86. Hooks has now won the Defensive Player of the Year award for the third-straight season and is one of just two players in league history to have won the award three

Bob Boldon enters his eighth season as head coach of the Ohio women's basketball program in 2020-21.

Boldon is the winningest coach in program history at 149 victories heading into the 2020-21 season at Ohio. Boldon broke the program record in 2018-19 in a win at Miami and reached the 100-win mark faster than any coach in Ohio history. OU has taken down seven Power Five teams in his time at Ohio, including one win over Big Ten teams in each season since 2015.

The 2015 Mid-American Conference Coach of the Year, Boldon has coached two MAC Freshman of the Year winners, three MAC Defensive Player of the Year winners, one MAC Sixth Player of the Year winner and 13 players on the All-MAC first, second or third team.

Boldon's players have rewritten the Ohio and MAC record book. Kiyanna Black (2012-16) holds the MAC and Ohio record for threes made in a season (126) and is second in the MAC and first in Ohio for threes made in a career at 329. Six of Ohio's 10 top three-point field goal makers played under Boldon. Current guard Cece Hooks set the career steals record (316) as a junior and also sits atop the single-season steals list with 110 in 2018-19.

Boldon's teams are some of the highest-scoring teams in program and MAC history. The 2014-15 Bobcats made a program-high 296 three-pointers, the second-most in MAC history. The highest-scoring team in program history (2,746) came under Boldon in 2018-19, while three of the top-five highest-scoring seasons in program history happened under Boldon.

Boldon himself currently holds the fifth-highest all-time coaching winning percentage in MAC history at .668.

The 2019-20 season saw Boldon's Bobcats put three on the All-MAC team in Cece Hooks, Erica Johnson and Amani Burke. Hooks and Johnson were First-Team All-MAC, while Hooks won MAC Defensive Player of the Year for the second-consecutive season after becoming the all-time steals leader in OU history as a junior. Ohio finished the season with a win in the MAC Tournament Semifinals before the tournament and season were canceled due to the COVID-19 crisis. In non-conference play, Ohio took down Ohio State, 74-68, for the first time in program history on the road in Columbus. Ohio's team became the first in program history to have four 1,000-point scorers on one team (Erica Johnson, Cece Hooks, Amani Burke, Gabby Burris) when Erica Johnson scored her 1,000th point in the MAC semifinals win over Western Michigan.

Boldon led the Bobcats to a historic season in 2018-19, becoming the first head coach to win 30 games in one season at Ohio University in either the women's or men's program. The 30 win total has only been reached four times by a MAC team. Boldon guided his team to the Round of Eight in the Women's National Invitation Tournament, the farthest Ohio has ever reached in a postseason tournament. Ohio rewrote the record book in 2018-19, scoring more points (2,746), making more field goals (980) and making more threes (341) than any other team in program history. Ohio's Erica Johnson won Mid-American Conference Sixth Player and Freshman of the Year, while Cece Hooks - who broke the single-season steals record (112) - won MAC Defensive Player of the Year. Hooks ended up making first-team All-MAC, while Johnson and Amani Burke were placed on the third team.

In 2017-18, Cece Hooks won MAC Freshman of the Year as Ohio advanced to the MAC Quarterfinals. The Bobcats placed four on the Academic All-MAC team and picked up a road win against Purdue on the road in West Lafayette.

Ohio followed their 26-win season in 2015-16 with a 22-10 season and a trip to the WNIT in 2016-17. Ohio had a Big Ten win over Illinois, 80-68 in non-conference play. Boldon placed one player - Quiera Lampkins - on the All-MAC Second Team while Jasmine Weatherspoon made the All-MAC Defensive Team. Four players landed on the Academic All-MAC team.

Boldon and the Bobcats had their third 26-win season in program history in 2015-16 and their second MAC regular-season title. The team saw its fourth postseason appearance in program history, where the Bobcats took down Marshall and Virginia Tech to advance to the third round of the WNIT. In the 2015-16 season, junior guard Quiera Lampkins was named the 2016 Mid-American Conference Defensive Player of the Year and earned a spot on the All-MAC Second Team and the All-Defensive Team. Senior guard Kiyanna Black was named to the All-MAC First Team for the second-consecutive season. Senior forward Lexie Baldwin was named All-MAC Honorable Mention and junior forward Jasmine Weatherspoon was also named to the All-Defensive Team.

Boldon and the Bobcats set a then-program record for most wins (27) in a season in 2014-15. Boldon led the Cats to a MAC Regular Season and Tournament Championship and a berth in the NCAA Tournament, Ohio's first since 1995. Boldon was named MAC Coach of the Year after winning both the regular season and MAC Tournament title, when they defeated Eastern Michigan, 60-44. Ohio's 2014-15 team had the second-highest winning percentage in program history and was the fourth-highest scoring team in program history (2,233). Kiyanna Black earned First-team All-MAC honors after averaging 16 points per game and four rebounds per game. Quiera Lampkins also found herself on the All-MAC squad earning third-team honors averaging 12.5 points per game along with 6.7 rebounds per contest. Mariah Byard was also earned All-MAC honorable mention posting 9.7 points per game. Byard and Sophomore guard Yamonie Jenkins garnered Academic All-MAC honors as well.

The 2013-14 season brought the implementation of Boldon's motion offense, and Boldon grabbed his first win of his Ohio Career with a 94-88 win in over Xavier inside the Convocation Center.

Ohio University Director of Athletics Jim Schaus named Boldon as the 10th head coach in program history on March 28, 2013.

Boldon came to Athens after spending the previous three years of his head coaching career at Youngstown State. The Northeast Ohio native inherited a program that had posted an 0-30 record during the 2009-10 season and turned it into a Women's National Invitational Tournament (WNIT) participant at the end of the 2012-13 season, posting two double-digit win seasons and one 23-win campaign along the way.

Boldon, a native of Louisville, Ohio, graduated from Walsh in 1997 with a bachelor's degree in elementary education. As a student-athlete, he was a two-time All-America selection as a point guard and helped lead the Cavaliers to the Final Four of the NAIA Tournament. A four-year starter, he remains the school record holder in assists (775) while also ranking fourth in scoring with 1,694 points. Boldon was a 2008 inductee to Walsh's Wall of Fame, and his accomplishments were celebrated as one of the program's top 50 players in its 50-year history in 2012. He earned his master's degree in liberal studies from Indiana in 2003.

Boldon resides in Athens with his wife, Rebecca.
