CLEMSON TO TRAVEL TO PITT FOR FIRST TIME IN PROGRAM HISTORY

Clemson will face Pitt on the road for the first time in series history on Saturday, Oct. 23 when the Tigers and Panthers meet in a cross-division showdown. Kickoff at Heinz Field is scheduled for 3:30 p.m. ET.

While the contest will represent Clemson's first road game against the Panthers in series history, it will be Clemson's second game in Pittsburgh all-time, joining the Tigers' 34-13 win against Duquesne at Forbes Field in 1947 under Head Coach Frank Howard. A mid-November rainstorm dampened the crowd of 5,000 but didn't deter Bobby Gage, who accounted for 179 combined yards of total offense and two touchdowns in that victory over the Dukes.

Despite the ACC's addition of former Big East members Boston College, Pitt and Syracuse in the early 21st century, Clemson's concentrated cluster of conference and geographic foes in the Southeast and Mid-Atlantic has meant limited opportunities to play north of the Mason-Dixon Line. However, with Clemson playing at Syracuse and at Pitt in back-to-back weeks, Saturday's game will represent only the second time in school history the Tigers will play consecutive games north of the Mason-Dixon Line.

In 1952, Clemson defeated Boston College, 13-0, at Braves Field in Boston on touchdown runs by tailback Billy Hair and fullback Red Whitten. A week later, Clemson tied Fordham, 12-12, in a game played at Triborough Stadium in Randalls Island, New York. Archives of The Tiger Newspaper recount "6,000 shivering fans" witnessing Clemson Hall of Famer Don King score on runs of 74 and 66 yards amid his 234

In the present day, Saturday's matchup will feature two of college football's marquee units. Clemson enters the contest ranked second in the nation in scoring defense, allowing an average of only 12.5 points per game and trailing only the nation's top-ranked team — No. 1 Georgia — in that category. Pitt, meanwhile, enters the game ranked third in the nation in scoring offense at 48.3 points per game. The Panthers are one of only four teams in the nation averaging at least 45.0 points per game this season.

NOTES

WHAT TO WATCH FOR THIS WEEK

- Clemson facing Pitt on the road for the first time in school history. Clemson's four previous meetings with the Panthers took place in Clemson (2016 and 2020), Jacksonville (1977 Gator Bowl) and Charlotte (2018 ACC Championship Game).

- Clemson attempting to take a 3-2 lead in its all-time series with Pitt. It would be Clemson's third consecutive victory in the series.

- Clemson and Pitt facing one another in back-to-back years for the first time in history.

- Clemson attempting to win its first road game against an opponent in series history for the 20th time all-time. It would be Clemson's fourth straight victory when facing a team on the road for the first time, joining series road debut wins at Notre Dame in 1979, at Syracuse in 2013 and at Louisville in 2015.

- Clemson playing true road games in back-to-back weeks for the first time since 2015, when Clemson defeated Miami (Fla.) and NC State on the road in consecutive weeks.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 29-3 in true road games since 2015. It would give Clemson victories in 45 of its last 53 games away from home overall.

- Clemson playing consecutive games north of the Mason-Dixon Line for only the second time in school history (1952 at Boston College and at Fordham).

- Clemson playing its 18th game in an NFL stadium since 2015.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 19-9 in NFL stadiums under Head Coach Dabo Swinney and give the Tigers wins in 16 of their last 21 games in NFL stadiums. A win would also push Clemson to 6-2 in AFC venues under Swinney.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 35-8 against opponents historically from the ACC Coastal Division, including postseason play, under Head Coach Dabo Swinney. That figure includes games against traditional Coastal opponents in a divisionless season in 2020. Clemson has won 20 of its last 21 games against the Coastal Division since 2015.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 5-2 overall this year and win at least five of the first seven games of a season for an 11th straight year. Clemson's current 10-year streak of starting 5-2 or better is already the longest streak in school history.

- Clemson potentially playing a fifth consecutive one-possession game for the first time since the last four games of 2006 and the 2007 season opener. It would be Clemson's first time doing so in a single season since the first five games of the 2005 season.

- Clemson potentially winning a third consecutive game with a margin of eight or fewer points for the first time since 2004, when the Tigers defeated Maryland, NC State and Miami (Fla.) by respective margins of 3, 6 and 7 in back-to-back-to-back games.

- Head Coach Dabo Swinney attempting to earn his 145th career win in his 14th season (including an interim stint in 2008) to tie Mark Richt (145) for fifth-most wins through the first 15 seasons of a coaching career in FBS history.

- Clemson attempting to win the turnover margin in three consecutive games for the first time since a four-game stretch in games 3-6 last season.

- Clemson attempting to go three consecutive games without a giveaway for the first time since 2019 against South Carolina, Virginia and Ohio State.

- Clemson attempting to score 40 points in four straight games in its series against Pitt. Pitt would be the fifth opponent against which Clemson has accomplished the feat all time, joining The Citadel (four straight from 2008-20), Louisville (four from 2016-19), Presbyterian (six from 1947-52) and South Carolina State (five from 2008-21).

- Clemson attempting to continue its success against Pitt quarterback Kenny Pickett. In two all-time games against Pickett in the 2018 ACC Championship Game and in the 2020 regular season, Clemson has held Pickett to 26-of-55 passing (47.3 percent) for 217 yards with two touchdowns and five interceptions for a passer rating of 74.2.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 29-1 in October games in the College Football Playoff era (since 2014).

- Clemson attempting to improve to 56-4 against ACC opponents (including postseason play) since the start of the 2015 season.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 72-5 in regular season play since the start of the 2015 season. All five of Clemson's regular season losses in that span have been decided by a final margin of seven or fewer points.

- Clemson, which is No. 23 in the Coaches Poll but unranked in the AP Poll, playing its first game against an AP-ranked opponent as an AP-unranked team since Sept. 17, 2011, when unranked Clemson defeated the defending national champions, No. 21 Auburn, by a 38-24 score at Death Valley.

- Clemson attempting to earn a 33rd victory against an AP-ranked opponent in a game in which Clemson is unranked in the AP Poll. It would be Clemson's fourth such victory under Dabo Swinney, joining wins against No. 8 Miami (Fla.) in 2009, No. 23 NC State in 2010 and No. 21 Auburn in 2011.

- Clemson attempting to defeat No. 23 Pitt to improve to 24-6 against AP Top 25 teams since 2015. Clemson ranks third in AP Top 25 winning percentage and fourth in total AP Top 25 wins in that span.

- Swinney attempting to earn a 33rd victory against an AP-ranked opponent. Nick Saban (83) and Mike Gundy (34) are the only active head coaches with more.

- Clemson entering the game having surrendered only seven offensive touchdowns this season, the second-fewest in the country. Clemson has surrendered only five offensive touchdowns in regulation this season.

- Clemson attempting to record a takeaway in an eighth consecutive game, dating to last season, for the first time since a nine-game streak in 2019.

- Clemson attempting to hold consecutive opponents below 200 yards passing for the second time this season. Clemson held both Georgia and South Carolina State below 200 passing yards in the first two games of the season and held Syracuse to 191 passing yards last week.

- Clemson potentially winning the time of possession margin in back-to-back games for the first time since a four-game stretch against Virginia, Miami (Fla.), Syracuse and Boston College last season.

- Tight end Davis Allen attempting to become the first Clemson player to record at least eight receptions in back-to-back games since Amari Rodgers against Notre Dame and Ohio State last season.

- Potter (162 career PATs) needing three PATs to pass Aaron Hunt (164 from 2000-03) for third in Clemson history in career PATs.

SERIES HISTORY VS. PITT

Saturday's game marks the fifth all-time meeting between Clemson and Pitt but the first between the two programs in Pittsburgh. The Panthers won the first two contests — a 34-3 win in the 1977 Gator Bowl and a 43-42 win at Clemson in 2016 — before Clemson earned its first victory in the series with a 42-10 win in the 2018 ACC Championship Game. Clemson evened the series in 2020 when the Tigers ran out to a 31-0 first-quarter lead in an eventual 52-17 win.

Through the first three games of the series, the total points scored in the series were tied, 87-87. Clemson then took the advantage in that category with a 35-point win in 2020.

Clemson has scored at least 42 points in each of its last three games against Pitt — the first being a one-point loss and the second being a 32-point win. Pittsburgh's 43-42 victory in 2016 remains the highest scoring game decided by one point in Clemson history. With another 40-point performance, Clemson would record its fifth instance of scoring 40 or more in four straight games in a series with an opponent all-time, joining similar outputs against The Citadel, Louisville, Presbyterian and South Carolina State.

LAST MEETING

Clemson 52, Pitt 17

(Nov. 28, 2020, Clemson, S.C.)

CLEMSON, S.C. — No. 3 Clemson handled Pitt by a score of 52-17 on Senior Day and Military Appreciation Day behind a 403-yard passing performance by Trevor Lawrence in his return from a two-game absence. The Tiger defense played stout, forcing five turnovers including four interceptions, two of which were from junior cornerback Mario Goodrich.

The Tigers came out of the gates firing, scoring a school-record 31 first-quarter points. The dominant first frame was highlighted by three interceptions on Pitt's first nine pass attempts and two touchdown passes from Lawrence. With the win, Lawrence moved to 32-1 as a starter and tied the school-record for wins as a starting quarterback set by Rodney Williams, Tajh Boyd and Deshaun Watson.

E.J. Williams, wearing number 39 to honor his late father who died at 39 years of age after serving for 18 years in the U.S. Army, opened the scoring with a five-yard reception good for his first career touchdown. Cornell Powell added a touchdown on a 43-yard flea flicker. He finished with 176 yards receiving on six receptions and became the first Tiger with at least 150 receiving yards in back-to-back games since Sammy Watkins in 2013.

The second quarter saw Chez Mellusi add his third touchdown of the season on a two-yard run. The Tigers took a 38-10 lead into halftime, but a Lawrence fumble on the opening play of the second half led to a Panthers touchdown that cut the deficit to 21 points.

After the two teams traded several punts, Travis Etienne cashed in on a 10-play, 89-yard drive with a three-yard touchdown run, his second score of the game. His first-quarter scamper added to his FBS-record 44th game with a touchdown. Etienne totaled 58 yards rushing on the evening.

Clemson opened the fourth quarter scoring when freshman quarterback D.J. Uiagalelei led the Tigers on a 41-yard drive, culminating in a nine-yard pass to Mellusi for his first career receiving touchdown which gave the Tigers their 52-17 advantage. The rest of the fourth quarter marched on with no scoring as the Tigers cruised to the victory in the penultimate game of their regular season.

By virtue of an open date and a cancelled game, the contest was Clemson's first game action in 21 days. Clemson had similar (and longer) layoffs prior to postseason play in many years, but the 21-day layoff was Clemson's longest between regular season games in a single season since 1918, when Clemson went 28 days between games against Georgia Tech and South Carolina.

LAST MEETING AWAY FROM HOME

Clemson 42, Pitt 10

(Dec. 1, 2018, Charlotte, N.C.)

CHARLOTTE – No. 2 Clemson became the first football team in ACC history to win four consecutive conference titles outright on a rainy Saturday night at Bank of America Stadium, defeating the Coastal champion Pittsburgh Panthers by a score of 42-10. With the win, Clemson remained undefeated at 13-0 overall, while Pitt moved to 7-6 on the year.

Trevor Lawrence completed 12-of-24 pass attempts for 118 yards with a pair of touchdown tosses to Tee Higgins, who finished the game with 36 yards and those two scores on three receptions. Travis Etienne added 156 yards with two touchdowns on 12 carries, and Adam Choice and Lyn-J Dixon each ran for a score as well. On the defensive side of the ball, Clemson held the Pitt offense to negative yardage for the first nine minutes of the game and also limited the Panthers to just eight passing yards for the whole game. Tre Lamar topped the stat sheet with nine total tackles, and Dexter Lawrence and Isaiah Simmons each contributed two and a half of the Tigers' nine total tackles for loss.

Clemson found the end zone on the night's first play from scrimmage, as Etienne exploded for a 75-yard scoring run that gave the Tigers a 7-0 lead just 13 seconds into the matchup, good for the fastest score in ACC Championship history. The Tigers doubled that lead five minutes later, as Etienne barreled three yards for a touchdown after Simmons forced a Pitt fumble that Christian Wilkins recovered and returned 18 yards to set up the score. The Panthers got on the board with just under two minutes remaining in the first quarter on a 37-yard Alex Kessman field goal, leaving the score at 14-3 after the first 15 minutes of play.

Pitt scored the second quarter's first touchdown with seven minutes gone in it, with Qadree Ollison cutting the Clemson lead to just four points on a one-yard scoring rush. But a five-yard scoring pass from Lawrence to Higgins put the Tigers' advantage back at 10 points with five minutes left in the half. An A.J. Terrell interception returned 31 yards to the Pitt 10-yard line then set up Higgins' second touchdown reception of the night, and it came on the next play to give the Tigers a 28-10 lead that they took into halftime.

The scoreboard still read 28-10 after the third quarter, but that changed on the second play of the fourth quarter with a Choice one-yard scoring rush set up by a Justyn Ross 38-yard reception two snaps earlier. The final score of the game came in the form of a Dixon four-yard rush with just over three minutes remaining in the matchup, bringing the final score to 42-10.

The win pushed Clemson in the College Football Playoff, where a semifinal game against Notre Dame awaited. Pitt Head Coach Pat Narduzzi, whose team had played both Clemson and Notre Dame, was asked to compare the two teams after the game.

"There's no comparison. Clemson is the best football team we've played so far to this point," Narduzzi said. "They deserve to be where they are. They'll probably win a national championship."

Though the last comment took observers by surprise at the time given No. 1 Alabama's dominance in the regular season and an overwhelming national consensus that the Tide were the title favorites, Narduzzi was right. After the win against Pitt, Clemson outscored No. 3 Notre Dame and No. 1 Alabama by a combined score of 74-19 in two CFP games to earn its third national title in school history.

ON THIS DATE

- Oct. 23, 1941: Booty Payne became the first Clemson player to pass for over 200 yards in an 18-14 loss to South Carolina. He completed 9-of-16 passes for 202 yards in the contest. It was one of just three 200-yard passing games by a Tiger in the 1940s.

- Oct. 23, 1999: In the first meeting of father and son head coaches in Division I college football history, Bobby Bowden and Florida State defeated Tommy Bowden and Clemson by a score of 17-14. The game was played before a record crowd of 86,092. Clemson had a chance to tie the eventual national champs, but Tony Lazzara's 41-yard field goal attempt with 1:57 left was tipped by Tay Cody.

- Oct. 23, 2011: With an 8-0 record, Clemson moved up to No. 5 in the nation in the BCS standings, its first top-five mark in those rankings in school history.

- Overall: Clemson is 8-9 all-time in games contested on Oct. 23.

-- NOTES FROM LAST GAME --

POSTGAME NOTES

- Clemson played a fourth consecutive one-possession game for the first time since 2008, a four-game span that included Clemson's final two games under Tommy Bowden and first two games under Dabo Swinney.

- Clemson has now won back-to-back games by eight or fewer points (one possession) for the first time since its 2016 national championship season against NC State and Florida State.

- Clemson did not have an offensive turnover and has now produced consecutive games without a giveaway for the first time since a three-game streak against South Carolina, Virginia and Ohio State in 2019.

- Clemson won the turnover margin, 1-0, and has now won the turnover margin in consecutive games for the first time since the Pitt and Virginia Tech games last year. Clemson now has a 65-4 record when winning the turnover margin since 2011.

- Clemson scored a touchdown on the drive following the game's lone turnover, winning the points-off-turnover battle, 7-0.

- Tight end Davis Allen recorded a career-high eight receptions, surpassing his previous career high of three receptions at Georgia Tech last season.

- Allen's eight receptions were the most by a Clemson tight end since Brandon Ford's nine receptions against LSU in 2012. That performance by Ford remains tied with John McMakin (nine vs. Florida State in 1970) for the Clemson record for receptions by a tight end in a single game.

- Quarterback DJ Uiagalelei completed 21-of-34 passes for 181 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions. His 21 completions were a season high.

- Wide receiver Joseph Ngata opened the scoring on a 19-yard touchdown pass from Uiagalelei in the second quarter.

- The touchdown reception was Ngata's first of the season and the fourth of his career. It was his first since Nov. 16, 2019 against Wake Forest.

- Running back Kobe Pace led Clemson with 14 carries for 76 rushing yards with a touchdown.

- Pace gave Clemson the lead at halftime on a two-yard touchdown run with nine seconds remaining in the first half.

- With Pace's touchdown, Clemson outscored Syracuse, 7-0, in the "Middle Eight," defined as the final four minutes of the first half and the first four minutes of the second half. This game represented Clemson's first time winning the Middle Eight this season; Clemson is now 53-2 since 2015 when outscoring opponents in the "Middle Eight."

- The rushing touchdown was both Pace's third of the season and third of his career.

- Pace has now rushed for a touchdown in consecutive games for the first time in his career.

- With a catch on Clemson's first offensive play from scrimmage, wide receiver Justyn Ross extended his streak of consecutive games with a reception to 33.

- Ross led Clemson with 51 receiving yards on five receptions.

- With his fifth and final reception of the game, Ross (140) passed Jerry Butler (139 from 1975-78) to enter the Top 15 in Clemson history in career receptions.

- With 51 yards in the game, Ross (2,147) moved past Hunter Renfrow (2,133) and Amari Rodgers (2,144) to move into 12th in school history in career receiving yards.

- Safety Tyler Venables recorded the game's lone takeaway, intercepting Syracuse quarterback Garrett Shrader in the first quarter.

- The interception was the first of Venables' career.

- Venables added his first career sack in the third quarter, chasing down Shrader for a loss.

- Clemson recorded at least one takeaway in a seventh consecutive game, dating to last season, for the first time since a nine-game streak in 2019.

- Cornerback Mario Goodrich recorded a career-high four pass breakups, one shy of the school record of 5 set by Perry Williams against Virginia Tech in 1985.

- Goodrich became the first Clemson player with four pass breakups in a single game since Nov. 6, 2014 (Garry Peters against Wake Forest).

- Clemson's streak of five straight games without allowing a 100-yard rusher concluded when Syracuse running back Sean Tucker eclipsed the century mark on the ground. Tucker recorded only the seventh 100-yard rushing performance against Clemson since the start of the 2018 season.

- After surrendering 132 rushing yards to Tucker in the first half, Clemson limited him to 25 yards in the second half. Syracuse collectively rushed for only 27 yards in the second half.

- Punter Will Spiers started his 62nd game to add to his school record for career starts. Wide receiver/holder Will Swinney's career total as Clemson's primary holder parallels Spiers' run as starting punter.

- Spiers, Swinney and linebacker James Skalski each played in their 62nd career games to extend their school record for most career games played.

- Spiers converted a fourth-and-5 late in the second quarter on a 17-yard pass to Allen.

- It was the second straight season in which Spiers has converted a fourth down on a fake punt against Syracuse. A year earlier, Spiers rushed for six yards and a first down on a fake against the Orange.

- Spiers is now 4-for-6 passing in his career for 35 yards.

- With a 40-yard fourth quarter field goal, Potter (38 from 2018-21) passed Mark Buchholz (37 from 2007-08) for sole possession of ninth place in school history in career field goals made.

- Clemson possessed the ball for a season-high 32:59, winning the time of possession in a game for the first time since last November against Pitt.

NOTES

- Head Coach Dabo Swinney coached his 179th career game to pass Virginia and Wake Forest's Al Groh (178) for sole possession of the fourth-most career games coached as a member of the ACC.

- Clemson played its first game as an AP-unranked team since Nov. 22, 2014, a 28-0 win against Georgia State. Previously, the last time Clemson was unranked in the AP Poll, Clemson responded with an 85-9 run, six ACC titles, six College Football Playoff berths, four national championship game berths, two national championships and a school-record 107 consecutive AP Top 25 rankings across the 2014-21 seasons.

- Clemson played Syracuse while the Tigers were unranked in the AP Top 25 for the first time in series history. Clemson was AP-ranked in each of the nine previous meetings, including a Top 3 ranking in seven of its eight previous matchups with the Orange. Clemson, however, remained ranked in the AFCA Coaches Poll this week and has been ranked in the Top 25 of one of the major polls in every game against Syracuse all-time.

- Captains for the contest were wide receiver Will Brown, defensive end Justin Foster, wide receiver Joseph Ngata and linebacker Baylon Spector.

WITH THE WIN...

- Clemson improved to 8-2 all-time against Syracuse.
- Clemson won its fourth straight game against Syracuse, matching the longest streak in series history (four from 2013-16).

- Clemson improved to 4-1 in road games at Syracuse all-time.

regular season losses in that span have been decided by a final margin of seven or fewer points, including two double overtime games.

- Clemson, which was unranked in the AP Poll this week after being No. 25 in the AP Poll prior to its most recent game, improved to 28-6 under Dabo Swinney in games in which it enters ranked lower in the AP Poll than it did in its previous contest. That record includes season openers in which Clemson opened a season lower than its ranking from the final game of the previous campaign.

- Clemson improved to 112-13 against AP-unranked teams under Dabo Swinney. The win made Clemson 89-3 against unranked teams since the start of the 2012 season.

- Clemson improved to 43-19 in regular season games following an open date since joining the ACC in 1953. The Tigers are 16-2 in regular season play after an open date under Dabo Swinney. ONE OF THE ERA'S WINNINGEST PROGRAMS

Clemson's recent success has been particularly pronounced since the start of Clemson's six-year streak of College Football Playoff appearances dating to 2015. Alabama and Clemson rank No. 1 and 2 in the country in wins in that span, with the two teams combining for five out of six national championships in that time frame.

Clemson won 69 games during the 2015-19 seasons, the most in a five-year period in the AP Poll era (since 1936). Clemson's accounts for three of the six best five-year runs in terms of total wins in the AP Poll era.

There have been 15 seasons of 14 or more wins since the NCAA split Division I in 1978. Clemson accounts for four of those 14-win seasons, matching Alabama for the most 14-win seasons in that span.

12-WIN SEASONS

Prior to a 10-game regular season impacted by COVID-19 in 2020, Clemson had won at least 12 games in five consecutive seasons, one of only four such streaks in major college football history, joining Alabama (five from 2014-18), Penn (seven from 1892-98) and Yale (five from 1888-92).

10-WIN SEASONS

Clemson entered 2021 riding a streak of 10 consecutive seasons with 10+ wins. The program's 10th consecutive 10-win season in 2020 made Clemson only the third program in FBS history to produce a "double-double" — double-digit wins in a double-digit number of consecutive seasons.

The record for consecutive 10-win seasons is 14, set by Florida State (1987-2000). Alabama is the only other program with an active streak of at least 10 straight 10-win seasons.

The Tigers have 17 10-win seasons in school history, with 10 coming under Dabo Swinney.

Of the 130 active FBS schools, only 12 programs have won at least six games every year since 2015. That number dips to six when pushing the win total to eight, and drops all the way to two (Clemson and Alabama) when setting the bar at 10 wins.

SENIORS CHASING HISTORY

Every January, Head Coach Dabo Swinney conducts his first official meeting with his new team. The first order of business in the meeting is to "reset the room," reorganizing the seating arrangement with seniors in front and all succeeding classes in order behind them in the team auditorium.

Each of Clemson's last four senior classes have placed themselves among select company in college football history. The 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020 Clemson seniors account for four of only 12 four-year classes in FBS history to reach 50 career wins. That includes the 2018 and 2019 groups that are tied with the 2018 Alabama seniors for the most wins in FBS history (55 wins in four years).

With its sixth straight conference title last year, Clemson became the first program ever to win 20 ACC Championships, five more than Florida State, which ranks second with 15.

Clemson was the first program in the conference championship game era to win six straight conference championship games. Clemson also became the first ACC program to win six consecutive outright titles, as Florida State had a streak of nine straight ACC titles, but that streak included two co-championships that prevented Bobby Bowden's Seminoles from ever winning more than three straight titles outright.

In 2020, Clemson and Oklahoma's six-year streaks of outright titles made the two programs the first among current Power Five programs to win at least six straight outright titles since Oklahoma (12 from 1948-59) as part of the now-dissolved Big 8 Conference.

Including titles from its days as a member of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association and Southern Conference, Clemson has 26 conference championships overall, also the most of any current ACC school. Duke ranks second among the ACC's current membership with 18 overall conference titles, including 11 Southern Conference titles and seven ACC titles.

The Tigers won the 1900, 1902 and 1903 SIAA Conference championships under John Heisman, then the 1906 SIAA title under Bob Williams. Clemson also won the 1940 and 1948 Southern Conference titles under Frank Howard. Howard won eight total conference titles, including two in the Southern Conference and six in the ACC.

Clemson Football's sixth straight conference title extended a program record and tied for the third-longest ACC championship streak in Clemson Athletics history.

The record is eight in a row by Clemson's men's soccer program between 1972-79. Dr. I.M. Ibrahim was Clemson's coach for all eight of those titles. Ibrahim also led Clemson to national titles in 1984 and 1987 and sits aside Dabo Swinney as the only Clemson coaches in any sport to win two national championships.

Chuck Kriese took the Tigers men's tennis program to seven straight titles from 1983-89. The Clemson women's tennis program won six straight between 1982-87. Mary King won the first title and Andy Johnston won the last five in that run.

POWER OVER THE POWER FIVE

Early in his head coaching tenure, Dabo Swinney laid out his belief to then-Clemson athletic director Terry Don Phillips that the Tigers needed to add tough non-conference challenges on top of their tests in ACC play to serve as a foundation for the program's growth.

"I had a conversation with Terry Don and said, 'Terry Don, I know we are not very good right now, but we need to play people because that is going to help me teach and help me develop the culture and the mindset that you have to have to win at the highest level,'" recounted Swinney. "I didn't think we had that, and that's what we committed to. That's what we've done."

That scheduling philosophy and culture change has resonated in the Clemson program, and since 2013, no team can claim more wins against Power Five Conference opponents than the Tigers.

That includes 13 wins against Power Five opponents in 2018, the first team ever to reach that figure.

NO. 1 FOR NO. 1 RECRUITS

As Clemson was in the midst of the winningest decade in school history and tied for the third-winningest decade in major college football history, Head Coach Dabo Swinney would frequently point out that Clemson accomplished its goals by finding the right fits for its program in recruiting rather than chasing recruiting rankings.

Swinney often noted that Clemson accomplished its immense success in his tenure despite never signing the No. 1 recruiting class in the country. That changed in 2020, when ESPN ranked Clemson's 2020 group as the nation's top recruiting class. Clemson also recorded its highest rankings in both Rivals (No. 2) and 247 Sports (No. 3) history.

NOTES

Clemson has signed the nation's consensus top player in two out of the last four recruiting cycles, welcoming quarterback Trevor Lawrence in 2018 and defensive tackle Bryan Bresee in 2020.

Clemson and LSU are the only teams in the country to sign Rivals' No. 1 recruit twice in a three-year span since Dabo Swinney was named head coach at Clemson.

Clemson, LSU and Alabama (two each) are tied for the most No. 1 recruits signed since 2009 per Rivals' rankings. Clemson, Georgia and USC (two each) are tied for the most in that span per the 247 Composite.

Clemson's recruiting classes have finished in the top 15 of at least one of three primary recruiting services (ESPN, Rivals and 247 Sports) every year since 2011. Clemson is one of only seven schools to produce a Top 15 class in each of the last 11 recruiting cycles, a group that also includes Alabama, Auburn, Georgia, LSU, Notre Dame and Ohio State. After that group, the next longest active streak of Top 15 classes is six (Florida).

SIGN AND DEVELOP

While proud of his incoming classes, Head Coach Dabo Swinney has long stated that a true ranking of a recruiting class cannot and should not be published until four years later when the group can be evaluated on performance rather than potential.

Much to Swinney's delight, The Athletic has annually assumed that role in recent years, re-ranking every recruiting class four years later to account for on-field performance.

For its re-rankings, The Athletic uses the following grading scale: 5 points: All-American, award winner, top-50 NFL Draft pick; 4: Multi-year starter, all-conference honors; 3: One-year starter or key reserve; 2: Career backup; 0: Minor or no contribution, left the program. The outlet also adds a bonus to each program's class average, derived from its total number of wins from 2017 through 2020 (e.g.: For re-ranking the Class of 2017, Clemson won 51 games, so its class average received a bonus of 0.51).

Even in its current stretch of recruiting success,

Swinney has often pointed out Clemson drops in rankings for signing smaller recruiting classes as a function of lower attrition than other programs, as well as noting that much of Clemson's on-field success is a function of the program's development, citing All-Americans like former three-star Isaiah Simmons or former two-star Nolan Turner. The re-rankings illustrate Clemson's pristine recent track record of talent identification, culture fit, resource allocation and player development.

CLEMSON RECRUITING RANKINGS AND RE-RANKINGS (VIA THE ATHLETIC)

2016	11	1	+10	55-4
2017	16	5	+11	51-5

Note: Initial rank according to 247 Composite

On average, Clemson finished 13th in the 247 Composite team rankings across the 2014-17 recruiting cycles. Upon re-ranking those groups, Clemson ranked 3.5 on average, a ratings bump of nearly 10 full spots. Each of those Clemson classes won at least 50 games in their four-year window.

IN SEARCH OF WIN NO. 150

Head Coach Dabo Swinney is 144-35 in 179 career games and needs six more wins to reach 150 career victories.

Among coaches who qualify for the NCAA FBS record book by virtue of five years or 50 wins as a major college head coach, only 15 have ever reached 150 career wins in 200 games or less. Fourteen of the 15 are College Football Hall of Famers, with the 15th — Urban Meyer — likely to be inducted upon meeting eligibility requirements.

Note: Includes victories at all levels recognized by the NCAA; must record five years or 50 wins as a major college head coach to qualify; Swinney (144-35 in 179 games) and Kansas' Lance Leipold (147-44 in 191 games) can add themselves to the list in 2021.

The fastest Swinney could reach 150 victories would be 185 games if Clemson were to win its next six games. That would make him the sixth-fastest FBS coach to 150 career wins — one game behind Fielding Yost and Joe Paterno — and the fourth-fastest in the modern era.

Four previous Clemson head coaches earned 150+ FBS wins in their careers: John Heisman (186), Jess Neely (207), Frank Howard (165) and Ken Hatfield (168). Howard, a College Football Hall of Famer, is the only coach to reach 150 career wins as Clemson's head coach. He recorded his 150th victory in his 273rd career game, in a 14-10 victory against Maryland in 1966 that clinched a piece of what later became an outright ACC title. Heisman earned win No. 150 in game No. 203, Neely earned it in game No. 268, and Hatfield did it in game 259, though none of those three won more than 43 games in their Clemson tenures.

According to data furnished by Sports Reference, only five active coaches have recorded at least 150 career victories as an FBS coach (excluding wins coaching at other levels). All five needed at least 200 games to reach 150 career wins, led by TCU's Gary Patterson, who recorded win No. 150 in his 204th career game.

The most impressive part of Swinney's appearance on this list? Swinney is in only his 14th season (and his 13th full season) in 2021.

SIX "FINAL FOURS" FOR SWINNEY

While the term "Final Four" may still be the linguistic property of college basketball, since the advent of the four-team College Football Playoff in 2014, Head Coach Dabo Swinney has had Clemson among the sport's final four teams in each of the last six seasons, becoming the first coach to lead a team to six consecutive College Football Playoffs since the format's institution in 2014.

The NCAA men's college basketball tournament dates to 1939. In the history of that tournament, only John Wooden of UCLA (nine from 1967-75) and Mike Krzyzewski of Duke (five from 1988-92) coached teams to at least five consecutive Final Fours. With his sixth "Final Four" appearance in 2020, Swinney joined basketball's Wooden as the only college football or men's basketball coaches to take teams to six consecutive Final Fours in their respective sports.

During Wooden's streak of nine straight Final Fours, he recorded eight championships and a semifinal loss. Coach K's Blue Devils had two championships, a second-place finish and two semifinal losses in their run. Nick Saban's Final Four history includes three championships, two runner-up finishes and a semifinal loss, while Swinney so far has two championships, two runner-up finishes and two semifinal losses.

Swinney is among only nine coaches in football and men's basketball to record six career Final Four berths. He is one of only six with a winning record in Final Four games.

Swinney's ability to place his team among the nation's elite quartet has also been illustrated by the polls. Clemson finished first in the AP Poll in 2016 and 2018, second in 2015 and 2019, third in 2020 and fourth in 2017. Swinney became just the fourth coach to record at least six consecutive top four finishes since the AP Poll began in 1936, an exclusive list that also includes Florida State's Bobby Bowden (13), USC's Pete Carroll (seven) and Oklahoma's Bud Wilkinson (six).

Clemson's streak represents the fifth time a program has had a run of at least six top four finishes in the AP Poll. Miami (Fla.) had a seven-year run from 1986-92 with two different head coaches leading the program.

STAFF CONTINUITY

Clemson has become a beacon of stability in the increasingly unstable environment of college football. Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney is in his 19th overall season at Clemson in 2021, including his 13th full season as head coach (and his 14th including an interim stint in 2008).

From the start of Swinney's first season as full-time head coach in 2009 through 2020, there have been nearly 400 head coaching tenures in the FBS (excluding those by interims), but only one such tenure at Clemson. Clemson and Duke are the only schools in the ACC with only one head coach since the start of the 2009 season, and among the 11 schools ever to qualify for the College Football Playoff, only Clemson and Alabama have had only one head coach since 2009.

A FAMILIAR NO. 1

A year ago, Clemson opened the 2020 season at No. 1 atop both polls, marking the program's second straight top preseason ranking. With the top selection in the AP Poll, Clemson became the sixth program since the inception of the preseason poll in 1950 ever to open consecutive preseason polls at No. 1, joining Alabama (2016-18), USC (2004-05), Oklahoma (1985-87, 1974-75, 1956-57), Ohio State (1969-70) and Notre Dame (1953-54).

Seeing Clemson at No. 1 had become familiar in recent years, as 2020 represented the sixth straight year in which Clemson appeared at No. 1 in at least one AP Poll. Dabo Swinney joined Nick Saban (13) as the only coach in AP Poll history (since 1936) to lead a team to at least one No. 1 ranking in six consecutive years. Clemson, Alabama (14 from 2008-21) and Miami (seven from 1986-92) are the only programs to appear at No. 1 in at least six consecutive years.

A total of 22 coaches have led the AP's top-ranked team into a game at least 15 times. Seventeen of the 22 coaches on the list are College Football Hall of Famers. Swinney holds a total of nine career victories over five coaches on the list, including two each over Bob Stoops, Nick Saban, Urban Meyer and Steve Spurrier and one over Bobby Bowden.

CHAMPIONSHIP HERITAGE

After being named Clemson's full-time coach in December of 2008, Head Coach Dabo Swinney set about securing his first signing class in 2009.

His first class, which he tabbed the "Dandy Dozen," brought home Clemson's first ACC title since 1991 during their junior campaign in 2011. Excluding the incoming freshmen, all of Clemson's signing classes under Swinney have at least one ACC title to their credit in their tenures at Clemson, and every signing class since 2012 has earned at least one College Football Playoff berth.

Clemson's success hasn't been limited to teams ranked at the time of the game. Since 2015, Clemson's 53 wins against teams that finish above .500 are tied for the national lead and its .869 winning percentage against teams that finish the season above .500 ranks second.

CARDIAC CLEMSON

In rattling off 10 consecutive 10-win seasons from 2011-20, Clemson's dominance resulted in the Tigers playing only 32 games decided by one possession, the 13th-fewest in the FBS in that span (with many of the teams ranked lower having not played at the FBS level throughout that entire timeframe). Despite the few opportunities, no team had a better record in one-score games in that span than Clemson, which was 32-5 in games decided by eight or fewer points from 2011-20.

The Tigers have diverged a bit from their runaway-game reputation in 2021, as cardiac Clemson has seen all five of its games against FBS opponents this year be decided by eight or fewer points. Clemson's five one-score games in 2021 are tied for the most in the nation.

STRENGTH OF RECORD

One of the metrics used by the College Football Playoff committee to evaluate teams is Strength of Record, described by SportSource Analytics as such: "The Strength of Record (SoR) Rating is a measurement of a team's performance against the average margin of victory of the opponent. For example, if a team plays an opponent that wins by 7 points on average and they beat that team by 10 points, then they would have SoR Rating of +17 for that game. Each game is also adjusted for home and away factors. When viewed as an overall rating, it tells you that a team typically performs better (if positive) or worse (if negative) against opponents than teams typically perform against them."

Clemson ranks third in the ACC and 27th in the nation in Strength of Record in 2021.

WHEN IN DOUBT, CLEMSON RESPONDS

In Head Coach Dabo Swinney's tenure, though opportunities have been limited, the Tigers have routinely responded well following dips in the AP rankings.

Under Swinney, Clemson is 28-6 in games in which it enters ranked lower in the AP Poll than it did in its previous contest. This includes the 2014, 2016, 2017, 2018 and 2021 season openers in which Clemson opened the season lower than its ranking from the final game of the previous campaign. Before a loss to Georgia to open 2021, Clemson had won its previous 17 games when entering ranked lower in the AP Poll than in its previous game.

Clemson is also 28-7 in games following a loss under Swinney, including season openers following a loss in the previous season finale. Losses to Top 5 opponents Ohio State and Georgia across the 2020 and 2021 seasons ended a streak of 127 games since losing back-to-back contests, which had been the longest active streak in the nation and the longest in ACC history. Previously, Clemson's last time losing back-to-back games had come in 2011.

ACC WINNING STREAKS

Clemson has won 55 of its last 59 games vs. ACC opponents, a time frame that features ACC Championship Game wins against North Carolina (2015), Virginia Tech (2016), Miami (2017), Pitt (2018), Virginia (2019) and Notre Dame (2020). Clemson has an active winning streak against 12 of its 13 ACC counterparts.

Notes: Clemson won its last four games against Maryland prior to the Terrapins' exit from the ACC; the Terps' last win over Clemson came in 2009 at Maryland. Clemson also won its last meeting against Notre Dame in its lone season of ACC membership.

Clemson is responsible for three of the eight-longest winning streaks in ACC conference play all-time.

TAKING CARE OF BUSINESS

Prior to a loss at NC State in late September, Clemson had won 36 consecutive games against teams unranked in the AP Poll, the program's second-longest such winning streak since the inception of the poll in 1936. Prior to the loss to NC State, Clemson's last defeat at the hands of an unranked squad had come in 2017 at Syracuse.

Clemson's longest winning streak against unranked teams came across the 2012-16 seasons, when Clemson won 46 in a row starting with a season-opening

-- NO. 5 QB DJ UIAGALELEI --

"BIG CINCO" ON BIG STAGE

Asked for the proper pronunciation of his name, Clemson quarterback DJ Uiagalelei will walk you through the syllables of his surname of Samoan descent:

"ooh-ee-AHN-guh-luh-lay"

But he'll also offer a helpful tip:

"Or you can just call me 'Big Cinco.'"

Big Cinco is the 250-pound quarterback wearing No. 5 who assumed Clemson's starting role in 2021 after starting two games as a true freshman in the absence of Trevor Lawrence in 2020.

Uiagalelei was thrust into the starting lineup vs. Boston College in 2020 after Lawrence was diagnosed with COVID-19. With the win in his first start, Clemson improved to 20-13 all-time in games started by true freshman quarterbacks. He joined Steve Fuller, Willie Jordan, Patrick Sapp, Nealon Greene, Deshaun Watson and Lawrence as one of only seven true freshmen ever to start for Clemson at quarterback, and he joined Watson and Lawrence as the only true freshmen to win their starting debuts.

Uiagalelei impressed against Boston College as Clemson overcame an 18-point deficit to record the largest comeback win in the history of Death Valley. He completed 30-of-41 passes for 342 yards with two passing touchdowns and no interceptions, and also rushed six times for 25 yards with a rushing touchdown. His 342 passing yards were the third-most by a Clemson freshman (true or redshirt) in his starting debut, trailing Deshaun Watson's 435 yards against North Carolina in 2014 and Charlie Whitehurst's 420 yards against Duke in 2002.

* Denotes season opener

A week later, Uiagalelei completed 29-of-44 passes for a career-high 439 yards with two passing touchdowns in a double-overtime contest against No. 4 Notre Dame. His 439 passing yards were the third-most in a game in school history and broke Watson's school freshman record of 435. The 439 passing yards were the most ever thrown against Notre Dame by an opposing quarterback, breaking the mark of 425 held by USC's Carson Palmer in 2002.

In his two starts in 2020, Uiagalelei completed 59-of-85 passes for 390.5 yards per game with four touchdowns and no interceptions. His 162.1 pass efficiency rating in those two starts was nearly 11 points higher than Lawrence's 151.5 mark in his 11 starts as a first-year freshman.

INTERCEPTION AVOIDANCE

Uiagalelei's explosiveness in the vertical passing game and his deft decision-making in the running game made highlight reels from 2020, but his ability to protect the ball was elite in his debut season as well.

In 2020, Uiagalelei became only the second FBS player since 2000 to throw at least 115 passes and record at least five passing touchdowns and no interceptions, joining Georgia Southern's Shai Werts from 2018.

Uiagalelei's first career interception came on his 12th pass of the 2021 season opener, the 129th pass attempt of his career. His interception-free streak of 128 passes concluded only 37 attempts shy of the Clemson record for most pass attempts without an interception to start a career, held by Cullen Harper (first 165 passes of his career that spanned 2005-07).

He remains Clemson's career leader in interception percentage among qualified passers.

-- NO. 8 WR JUSTYN ROSS --

WELCOME BACK

Clemson's biggest impact among returning players in 2021 could potentially come from one who didn't play a snap in 2020: wide receiver Justyn Ross.

Ross missed the 2020 season after surgery following the diagnosis of a congenital fusion in his spine. Ross participated in spring ball in a non-contact capacity with an eye toward full participation in fall camp, a plan that was successful in current NFL receiver and former Clemson star Mike Williams' return from a neck injury in 2016 en route to becoming the No. 7 overall pick in the NFL Draft.

Ross played his first game action in exactly 600 days in the season opener against Georgia, recording Clemson's first reception of the season to a standing ovation from Clemson faithful in Charlotte and finishing with four

Even though he missed the entire 2020 campaign, Ross is tied for fifth in school history in career touchdown receptions and has moved into the Top 15 in school history in both career receptions and career receiving yards.

Ross had two of the most productive first two seasons by a Clemson player in school history, recording 1,865 receiving yards and 17 touchdowns from 2018-19. His 17 touchdowns through two seasons were the most through two years in school history, and his 1,865 yards in those years trailed only Sammy Watkins (1,927) and Artavis Scott (1,866) during the first two years of a Clemson career.

Included below is how Ross' first two seasons stack up against the first two seasons of the players that populate Clemson's Top 10 list in career touchdown receptions.

SHIP'S FAST START

Through the first four weeks of the season, true freshman running back Will Shipley led Clemson in points (30), touchdowns (five), rushing attempts (44) and rushing yards (211) before exiting Clemson's with an injury at NC State.

Those four games alone pushed Shipley into the top 10 in rushing touchdowns by a Clemson true freshman since 1973.

Shipley had two rushing touchdowns in Clemson's Sept. 11 win against South Carolina State and in its Sept. 18 win against Georgia Tech, marking the first time a Clemson true freshman rushed for multiple touchdowns in back-to-back games since Travis Etienne did so in 2017.

Shipley's performance in September was another entry in Clemson's recent history of feature backs declaring their arrival immediately. Clemson was led in rushing yards in each of the previous seven years by either Wayne Gallman (2014-16) or Travis Etienne (2017-20), both of whom led Clemson in rushing in their freshman seasons (Gallman's redshirt freshman season in 2014 and Etienne's true freshman season in 2017). The last time someone other than Etienne or Gallman led Clemson in rushing in a season was 2013 (Rod McDowell), when Shipley was in fifth grade.

-- NO. 84 TE DAVIS ALLEN --

ONE SHY OF SCHOOL RECORD

Davis Allen took ownership of Clemson's starting tight end position heading into Clemson's fourth game this season. In game six, with fellow tight end Braden Galloway sidelined with a concussion, Allen was a focal point of Clemson's offense (and special teams) in a 17-14 win at Syracuse.

Allen recorded eight receptions for 49 yards, including a spectacular highlight-reel grab to convert a fake punt pass from punter Will Spiers and extend an eventual a touchdown drive. His eight receptions were one shy of the Clemson single-game record for a tight end, shared by Brandon Ford (2012) and John McMakin (1970).

ALL-CONFERENCE O-LINEMEN

From 2015-20, the Tigers produced a total of 24 All-ACC selections along the offensive line, including 10 first-team honors. Clemson's 24 all-conference selections by offensive linemen are the most of any Power Five program, and its 10 first-team selections are tied with Alabama for the third-most in that span.

THE CFP ERA'S DOMINANT DEFENSE

Since the advent of the College Football Playoff in 2014, Clemson has routinely produced one of the nation's elite defenses.

Clemson has ranked in the Top 15 in the country in total defense in each of the last seven seasons and has ranked among the Top 25 in scoring defense in all of those campaigns (including four Top 5 finishes in the category).

The defense is led by Defensive Coordinator Brent Venables, whose track record as an assistant is nearly immaculate. Teams with Venables on staff posted winning seasons in all 25 of his seasons prior to 2021, including 21 seasons with 10 wins or more. The oldest members of the 2021 Clemson defense — super seniors Nolan Turner and Regan Upshaw — were born in November of 1997. Not only does Venables not have a losing season in their lifetime, teams with him on staff won at least 10 games in 21 of those 24 seasons.

HISTORIC STREAK

Through the first three weeks of the season, Clemson did not allow a touchdown on defense, the nation's only team able to make that claim.

Clemson surrendered its first offensive touchdown of the season with five seconds remaining in the first quarter at NC State, ending a streak of 194:55 to open the season in which Clemson did not allow an offensive touchdown. The touchdown came on the 38th drive faced by Clemson's defense this season and was Clemson's longest season-opening streak without allowing an offensive touchdown since 1950, a year in which Clemson similarly did not allow an offensive touchdown until the first quarter of the season's fourth game.

Clemson's streak in the first three games was the first time it held three consecutive offenses without a touchdown at any point in a season since midseason 1990 (Appalachian State, Duke and Georgia). It represented the first time Clemson had not allowed an offensive touchdown in any of its first three games of a season since 1950, when Clemson shut out Presbyterian, Missouri and NC State in the season's first three contests.

Per data available through Sports Reference, Clemson joined 2007 Iowa, 2008 Iowa and 2012 Florida State as the fourth team since 2000 to open the first three games of a season without allowing an offensive touchdown.

Entering this week, Clemson ranks second in the country in touchdowns allowed on defense. Of the seven offensive touchdowns surrendered by Clemson this year, only five have been allowed in regulation.

THE BRUISE BROTHERS

Behind Clemson's headline defensive line is a pair of hard-hitting veteran linebackers that led Head Coach Dabo Swinney to coin the duo as "The Bruise Brothers."

Middle linebacker James Skalski, the only player ever to play in (and win) five ACC Championship Games, returned for his sixth season at Clemson in 2021 following an all-conference performance in 2020. He took a mid-career redshirt in 2018, playing four games including the ACC Championship Game, Cotton Bowl and National Championship Game in what he and others called "the sweetest gig on the team" before becoming a full-time starter in 2019. The physical presence of No. 47 led Swinney to call him "a war daddy" and call his participation in practices and scrimmages "just unfair."

Skalski's running mate at the second level of the defense continues to be fifth-year linebacker Baylon Spector, whose strong performances in 2020 included an ACC Linebacker of the Week selection for his play against Virginia.

"[Spector] and Skalski, it's a reflection of how they practice. I'm telling you, every single rep at practice is a game rep to those two guys. They put a ton of work in every week to get themselves ready to play," Swinney said. "I know how hard they've worked. It's the unseen grind. That's a ton of work that they've put in."

"I call them The Bruise Brothers. Those two right there, it's something to watch and it's fun to see."

The duo's success is not merely a function of their physicality and hard work. Defensive Coordinator Brent Venables praised the cerebral nature of their play as well.

"They've developed some really good chemistry together. They're always having side chat conversations when I'm trying to talk with the whole defense and I'm having to correct at practice, and I look over and they're coaching each other. Sometimes that bothers me, I'll be honest, [smiling] but I absolutely love it because it's always about the details of what we're talking about," Venables said. "They're like two coaches, really, out on the field."

SPECTOR SHOWS OUT

When his running mate James Skalski exited Clemson's late-September game at NC State early with an injury, linebacker Baylon Spector stepped up.

Spector recorded a team-high 19 tackles, the most by a Clemson player in a single game under Dabo Swinney, one ahead of Spencer Shuey's 18 tackles against Georgia in 2013.

SPOTLIGHT ON THE SPECIALISTS

- B.T. Potter, PK: Clemson's cannon-legged 2020 Lou Groza Award semifinalist has been remarkably consistent on both his shortest kicks and his longest kicks throughout his career. He is 162-for-163 on PATs, and his 122 consecutive PATs prior to his first miss shattered Clemson's school record (88 by Mark Buchholz from 2007-08). Potter, who has been one of the nation's foremost touchback specialists throughout his career, is also 5-for-7 on field goal attempts of 50 yards or more during his Clemson tenure, tying Clemson's record for career field goals of 50 yards or more. His lone misses in that range came on attempts of 61 and 58 yards.

- Will Spiers, P: Already a four-year starter at punter entering his "Super Senior" campaign in 2021, Spiers already holds school records for starts by a punter, career punts, punts downed inside the 20 and total punting yards. His 2020 season was his best to date, as his 44.0-yards-per-punt average in 2020 represented the second-best single-season mark in school history. He averaged at least 50.0 yards per punt in three-straight games against Miami, Georgia Tech and Syracuse in 2020, a career-long streak and a Clemson record with a minimum of three punts per game.

- Will Swinney, H: Spiers is not the only four-year starter "Super Senior" among Clemson's special teams corps. The 2021 season will be Swinney's fifth as Clemson's primary holder, as he has held for more placekicks than any player in Clemson history. Since 2017, Clemson has scored 496 points on placekicks, including field goals and PATs. Swinney, a 2020 William V. Campbell Trophy semifinalist, has held for 489 of those 496 points, and including his receiving touchdown vs. Louisville in 2018, he's touched the ball for 495 total points for Clemson in his career. Clemson's only seven kicking points not held by Will Swinney in his career were instead held by his brother, Drew. Clemson's last hold by any player outside the Swinney family was on the final point of Clemson's 2016 national championship following Hunter Renfrow's game-winning touchdown with one second remaining.

- Jack Maddox, LS: Maddox is in his second year as Clemson's starting long snapper after earning the job in the spring of 2020. A native of Acton, Mass., his attention first turned to Clemson after visiting his uncle, who is a professor at the university. He walked on at Clemson, and in August 2020, he was en route to Clemson's Applied Science Lab when Head Coach Dabo Swinney approached him and asked him if he'd already paid his fall tuition. Upon Maddox confirming that he had, Swinney told him he'd have a little extra money in his pocket that semester, as Maddox was being placed on scholarship.

- Quinn Castner, PK: Castner joined Clemson's program in August 2020. At 140 pounds, the 5-foot-5 walk-on became the 15th player below 150 pounds to appear on Clemson's roster since 1944. He became a viral sensation for his 2020 debut against The Citadel once Dabo Swinney, after exaggerating Castner's vitals as "5-foot-3 and 80 pounds... maybe," told the following anecdote about Castner and Clemson's current culture: "I put him out there and gave him a chance to kick one off, and listen, he ain't kicked one deep in the end zone yet since he's been here... So I put the first [team] kickoff out there and said, 'All right, boys, we've got a little wind, I'm putting my man Quinn out there. Y'all know this is coming out and y'all need some dadgum practice...' Potter booms 'em out of the end zone and I wanted them to get a little work, so I got my man Quinn out there, and what does he do? He kicks that sucker four yards deep in the end zone, and the whole team went crazy. They just loved it, and, I mean, that's special."

PLAYERS PER GAME

Announcers, you're going to need a bigger board. In each of the last four seasons, Clemson led all Power Five conference teams in average players per game. The last time Clemson did not lead Power Five teams in that category was in 2016, when Clemson finished second in that category.

ANNUAL POWER FIVE CONFERENCE LEADER, AVERAGE PLAYERS PER GAME

2016	Ole Miss	63.6
2017	Clemson	68.4
2018	Clemson	72.5
2019	Clemson	76.0
2020	Clemson	72.0

Note: includes independent Notre Dame, which has College Football Playoff access equivalent with Power Five conferences

Clemson has not only led the nation in that category, but has often lapped the field. In 2019, Clemson played an average of 76.0 players per game, an average that far exceeded all Power Five programs by more than 11 players — a full unit — per game. Clemson's lead in that category in 2020 was more than seven players per game.

The approach to creating functional depth and rewarding players ready to play has been a key philosophy for Head Coach Dabo Swinney, whose own collegiate playing career was hatched as a walk-on fighting for playing time in Alabama's receiving corps.

"We're fully committed to playing guys who deserve to play," Swinney said. "You commit to a guy early in the season, and even if a guy has only played 10 percent of the snaps, when you get to game eight or nine, they've got some good experience."

Clemson played 102 players against South Carolina State in the second game of the 2021 season, its third-most in a game under Dabo Swinney.

YOUTH IS SERVED

In the first year of new redshirt regulations in 2018, Clemson played a then-school-record 20 true freshmen. Clemson immediately shattered that record in its 2019 season opener, with 27 true freshmen making their collegiate debuts in that contest. An additional eight true freshmen made their debuts to push that 2019 total to a school-record 36.

In 2020, Clemson played 27 true freshmen, tied for the most in the country at the end of the regular season. Eighteen first-year freshman have already made their debut for Clemson this season. Coinciding with redshirt rule changes, Clemson's three most recent seasons have resulted in the most game action for first-year freshmen since 1982.

Clemson's previous average under Brent Venables had been 16.5, and Clemson's two national title teams of that era in 2016 and 2018 started 16 and 15 different players, respectively.

In the season opener against Georgia, Clemson started two true freshmen in the first game of a season for the first time under Dabo Swinney. Marcus Tate earned the nod at left guard, becoming only the third true freshman offensive lineman to start a season opener at Clemson since 1973, joining center James Farr (1980) and tackle Mitch Hyatt (2015). Meanwhile, safety Andrew Mukuba became the first Clemson true freshman to start at defensive back in records back to 1973. It marked only the second time in that span Clemson started two first-year freshmen in a season opener, joining the 1980 opener against Rice.

Particularly on defense, Clemson's youth from 2020 has turned into experience for 2021. Though Clemson officially returned nine primary starters from 2020, the Tigers welcomed back 20 different defenders with at least one career start, including seven defensive linemen, four linebackers, five safeties and four cornerbacks.

OFFENSIVE BALANCE

Clemson's distribution of talent throughout its offense and its willingness to adapt to how defenses are game planning has resulted in the Tigers fielding one of the nation's more balanced offenses in recent years. In 2018, Clemson set a school record with 3,723 rushing yards. In 2020, Clemson set a school record with 348.5 passing yards per game.

Clemson has exceeded both 200 passing yards and 200 rushing yards in 55 games under Dabo Swinney, posting a perfect record in those contests. Clemson's 21 such games since the start of the 2018 season are among the five most in the country.

A LEGEND RETURNS

Among the lengthy list of moments that have led to Clemson's recent seat among college football's oligarchy, one came at Union County High School in Lake Butler, Fla. on Feb. 1, 2006. It was that day that a five-star running back named C.J. Spiller publicly supported the vision of his recruiter, a young wide receivers coach named Dabo Swinney, by committing to Clemson on National Signing Day.

Spiller spent four years building a sparkling on-field and off-field legacy at Clemson, and now, Clemson has welcomed Spiller back as one of its 10 full-time assistant coaches.

In February, 33-year-old Spiller officially assumed leadership of Clemson's running backs, a role previously held by Tony Elliott, who assumed the title of Assistant Head Coach/Offensive Coordinator/Tight Ends Coach.

"(Spiller) is one of the greatest ambassadors that we've had for our program for a long time and now for him to be able to come back and be able to sow seeds into these young men and teach all the things he's learned throughout his career, there's not a guy on this staff that's more committed and more ALL IN for Clemson than C.J. Spiller, that's for sure," Swinney said.

Spiller joined Clemson's staff on a full-time basis after joining the program as an unpaid coaching intern in 2020 while pursuing his Master's degree in athletic leadership. Prior to entering the coaching ranks, Spiller was one of the most decorated players in Clemson history, earning selection last month for induction in the College Football Hall of Fame Class of 2021.

"It doesn't happen very often that you're able to coach at your alma mater, especially in your first gig, and for me to have that opportunity, I don't take it lightly," Spiller said.

Spiller's historic Clemson playing career covered 2006-09, including a senior campaign in which won ACC Player of the Year and was a unanimous first-team All-American en route to finishing sixth in Heisman Trophy voting. That year, he joined Reggie Bush as the only players in college football history with 3,000 rushing yards, 1,500 yards in kickoff returns, 1,000 receiving yards and 500 yards in punt returns. He became the fourth Clemson graduate among the Tigers' 10 full-time assistant coaches, joining Brandon Streeter (1999), Tony Elliott (2002) and Tyler Grisham (2009).

YARDS PER PLAY

Clemson shattered its school record for yards per play in 2018 at 7.35, the program's first time exceeding seven yards per play in a season. That record stood for barely 12 months until Clemson broke it again in 2019 by averaging 7.38 yards per play. Clemson then averaged 6.69 yards per play in 2020, giving Clemson its top three yards-per-play averages in school history all within the last three years.

2.	2018	7.35
3.	2020	6.69
4.	2006	6.50
5.	2015	6.39

In 2018-19, Clemson became only the third school since 2000 to average 7.35 or better yards per play in back-to-back seasons, joining Alabama, which did it across 2018-19, and Oklahoma, which was in the midst of a four-year streak across the 2016-19 seasons.

Collectively, Clemson averaged 7.2 yards per play across the 2018-20 seasons, joining Oklahoma (7.9) and Alabama (7.8) as the only programs to average at least seven yards per play across those three seasons.

Clemson remains responsible for two of the 22 650-point seasons in major college football history and two of only 16 since Division I split in 1978. Clemson was the first school with back-to-back 650-point seasons since Yale in 1888-89, predating the start of official NCAA recordkeeping in 1937 and the second year of which was coincidentally the year Clemson was founded.

POINTS OFF TURNOVERS

Clemson's offense and defense have both been dominant in possessions following turnovers since the 2018 ACC Championship Game. Since that time, the Tigers hold a 299-69 advantage against opponents in points off turnovers.

Clemson outscored opponents off turnovers, 134-21, in 2019, and its +7.53-point-per-game differential off turnovers ranked third in the country. In 2020, Clemson outscored opponents 114-31 off turnovers, with 21 of the 31 points allowed surrendered directly by the Clemson offense on defensive touchdowns.

Points off turnovers have accounted for the difference in each of Clemson's last two games. Clemson won the points-off-turnovers battle, 6-0, in a six-point win against Boston College and then won that margin, 7-0, in a three-point win at Syracuse.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

Clemson has matched its on-field success in recent years with national acclaim for its success in the classroom. Of note:

- Clemson set a program record in APR in the NCAA's most recent national figures released in May 2020, recording a multi-year APR score of 993 for the 2018-19 academic year. The performance marked the third straight year Clemson broke its program record in the metric after breaking its 992 from 2017-18, which had broken its 987 mark from 2016-17.

- Clemson's 993 multi-year APR ranked fourth in the Power Five and fifth among FBS programs, trailing only Washington (999), Ole Miss (997), Northwestern (995) and Air Force (995). That metric covered a four-year span in which Clemson matched its off-field success with on-field accolades that included a 55-4 record, four College Football Playoff appearances and two national championships.

- The NCAA recognized Clemson with its annual APR Public Recognition Award, which is bestowed upon programs ranking in the Top 10 percent of their respective sports. From 2009-10 through 2018-19, only 37 of the 130 FBS programs earned at least one APR recognition since the 2009-10 academic year. Only 30 of them earned it multiple times. Clemson, Duke and Northwestern programs were the only ones to earn the award nine or more times in that 10-year span. Clemson would have earned a 10th APR Public Recognition Award for 2019-20 after recording a perfect 1000 for the term, but the NCAA suspended national APR reporting as a function of the COVID-19 pandemic.

- Prior to the NCAA suspending APR reporting, Clemson was one of only six FBS programs with an active streak of having earned an APR Public Recognition Award in each of the last three academic years, a group that also included Air Force, Boston College, Navy, Northwestern and Washington.

- With its most recent award for the 2018-19 academic year, Clemson was the only FBS program since the NCAA created the APR metric in 2003 to win a national championship and an APR Public Recognition Award in the same year multiple times. Alabama is the only other school to accomplish the title/APR double in a single year once (2011-12 academic year).

In addition to the APR honors, in November 2019, the AFCA announced that Clemson had repeated as Academic Achievement Award winners, making Clemson the only school in the country to earn the award across both of the 2018-19 seasons. Clemson had earned the award a year earlier as well in the midst of major college football's first 15-0 season since 1897.

TIGERS DOMINATE FALL 2020 SEMESTER

In the face of one of the most abnormal learning environments in the history of the university, Clemson's student-athletes responded to academic adversity impressively last fall. Among Clemson's academic achievements for the Fall 2020 semester were:

- A program-record 74 individuals earned a 3.0 GPA or better, including 11 perfect 4.0s. Among the freshmen, seven of Clemson's eight summer enrollees earned a 3.0 or better in their initial semester on campus, as did three of the four summer preferred walk-ons.

- Seventeen current football student-athletes graduated in December, including Elijah Turner, who earned a second degree by securing a Master's in athletic leadership and graduating with a perfect 4.0 GPA. Twelve different majors were represented by this year's graduates.

- Three players completed their undergraduate degrees in three years (K.J. Henry, Trevor Lawrence and Xavier Thomas) after all enrolled in January 2018. In recent history, the only other scholarship players to graduate from Clemson in this time frame were Christian Wilkins (2.5 years), Deshaun Watson and Artavis Scott (three years).

- Eight of the 17 fall graduates did so with honors, completing their degrees with a cumulative GPA over a 3.0: Matt Bockhorst, Peter Cote, Justin Foster, K.J. Henry, Trevor Lawrence, Darien Rencher, Will Spiers and Elijah Turner.

- Clemson entered 2020 bowl season with 23 graduates on the roster. Included in this number were double graduates Nyles Pinckney (Sociology and Criminal Justice) and Elijah Turner (Communication and Athletic Leadership).

ALL EYES ON CLEMSON

"Where the Blue Ridge yawns its greatness, where the Tigers play..."

Those are the opening words to Clemson's alma mater. In recent years, "where the Tigers play" has also been where eyes and television sets inevitably turn.

Over the previous three seasons, Clemson games accounted for the four most-watched college football games and five of the 10 most-watched games since 2018.

Clemson once again drew the nation's attention in its 2021 season opener. Via ESPN PR: "The top-five faceoff between Georgia and Clemson averaged 8,863,000 viewers, making the matchup the second-most-viewed Kickoff Saturday game in the past 20 years (Florida State vs. Alabama, 2017). The contest ranked in the top five regular season college football games on ABC the past five years."

The interest in watching Clemson play hasn't been limited to television broadcasts. Clemson continues to provide one of the marquee in-venue experiences in all of sports, as Clemson entered 2021 having been ranked in the Top 20 in the nation average home attendance at Memorial Stadium for 40 straight seasons. Clemson finished third nationally in cumulative total attendance in 2020.

LOUD AND PROUD DEATH VALLEY CROWD

Clemson played its first home prime-time game of the season on Oct. 2, hosting Boston College for a 7:30 p.m. game at Death Valley. Clemson's announced crowd of 79,159 people made its impact in a 19-13 win, helping force five false starts by the Eagles.

It marked the fifth time since 2014 that opponents have false started five or more times in Death Valley. It was the most by an FBS opponent in Memorial Stadium since NC State was called for six false starts in a memorable overtime thriller in 2016.

Note: For listing purposes, Clemson chose to progress classes as though 2020 was a normal year of eligibility. For example, players listed as redshirt freshmen in 2021 did not officially redshirt in 2020, but would have qualified for one in a normal year. Clemson will denote extra years of eligibility on the back end of players' careers (i.e.: "Super Seniors" in 2021 are listed with the "+Sr." designation).

GAME 1	GEORGIA	10
	CLEMSON	3
	SEPT. 4, 2021 BANK OF AMERICA STADIUM • CHARLOTTE, N.C.

CHARLOTTE, N.C. – No. 3 Clemson and No. 5 Georgia played only the fourth season opener between two AP Top 5 teams since 2000, as Georgia won a defensive slugfest with the Tigers, 10-3, at Bank of America Stadium in Charlotte.

James Skalski finished with a game-high 14 tackles as the Clemson held Georgia's offense to just three points. The lone touchdown of the contest came in the second quarter, when quarterback DJ Uiagalelei threw his first career interception to snap his interception-free streak of 128 consecutive passes, which Georgia's Christopher Smith returned 74 yards for a touchdown.

Clemson's stout defense allowed only 256 total yards. The 10 points surrendered also marked the eighth time in history that Clemson held an AP Top 5 opponent to 10 or fewer points. It was Clemson's first loss when holding an opponent fewer than 23 points since 2010.

Clemson was led offensively by wide receiver Joseph Ngata, who finished the game with six catches for 110 yards, and quarterback DJ Uiagalelei, who was 19-for-37 with 178 yards passing. Ngata recorded his first career 100-yard game.

Clemson was hampered offensively by a 7-1 deficit in sacks. The Tigers ultimately got the board with 9:08 left in the fourth quarter on a 22-yard field goal from B.T. Potter.

True freshman guard Marcus Tate and true freshman safety Andrew Mukuba both started, marking only the second time since 1973 that Clemson has had two true freshmen start a season opener (tight end Jeff Wells and center James Farr in 1980).

The loss concluded Clemson's streak of 127 consecutive games since losing back-to-back contests, the longest such streak in ACC history.

GAME 3	GEORGIA TECH	8
	CLEMSON	14
	SEPT. 18, 2021 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. – Clemson freshman running back Will Shipley scored two touchdowns as No. 6 Clemson Tigers used a late defensive stand to hold on for a 14-8 victory over Georgia Tech. The victory was the Tigers' 30th consecutive home victory, the 24th home winning streak of 30 or more games in FBS history.

The game saw a one hour and 52 minute lightning delay with 0:32 to play in the first half, spanning 5:03 p.m. to 6:55 p.m., including an observed halftime.

After Shipley's first touchdown in the first quarter, Georgia Tech kept the Tigers close throughout, getting on the board first with a field goal after the lightning delay. The Jackets scored all eight of their points after the delay, and recovered an onside kick with 1:19 to play in the game and the Tigers ahead by eight. However, the Clemson defense held as the Yellow Jackets were stopped on fourth-and-goal at the two-yard line, marking a third straight game for Clemson without surrendering a touchdown on defense.

The Yellow Jackets added two final points on a safety with 0:07 seconds to play in the contest.

Shipley scored the lone touchdown in the first half on a three-yard run that capped an eight-play 39-yard drive, and his second touchdown came in the fourth quarter on another three-yard run that capped a 14-play 66-yard drive.

Brent Cimaglia would make two field goals of 22 yards for Georgia Tech.

With his two rushing touchdowns in the game, Shipley became the first Clemson player to rush for multiple touchdowns in consecutive games as a true freshman since Travis Etienne in 2017. He finished the night with 21 carries for 88 yards and two touchdowns.

GAME 4	CLEMSON	21
	NC STATE	(2OT) 27
	SEPT. 25, 2021 CARTER-FINLEY STADIUM • RALEIGH, N.C.

RALEIGH, N.C. – No. 9 Clemson fell, 27-21, to NC State in double overtime. Clemson mounted a late touchdown drive to force overtime and led briefly in the extra session before NC State halted the Tigers on 4th-and-5 in double overtime after a touchdown.

DJ Uiagalelei started the scoring for the Tigers with a 32-yard strike to Justyn Ross, who leaped and toe-tapped in the back of the end zone. The Wolfpack answered two drives later when Devin Leary hit Emeka Emezie on a 17-yard score. Both teams remained scoreless until midway through the third quarter, when Leary hit Devin Carter to give the Wolfpack a 14-7 lead with 9:19 to play.

The Tigers answered with 10:52 to play in the fourth quarter, when Will Shipley took a handoff five yards on tie the game at 14-14. NC State kicker Christopher Dunn missed a potential game-winning 39-yard field goal wide left as time expired in regulation.

Clemson scored first in the extra session when Uiagalelei connected with Ross on a 9-yard post route. The Wolfpack answered on the ensuing possession when Leary connected with Thayer Thomas for a 2-yard touchdown.

NC State then notched the eventual game-winner when Leary and Carter connected for a 22-yard strike in the back corner of the end zone before an NC State stop on the ensuing Clemson possession.

Baylon Spector led the Tigers defense with 19 tackles, surpassing Spencer Shuey's 18 tackles against Georgia in 2013 for the most by a Clemson player in a single game under Dabo Swinney. Andrew Mukuba and R.J. Mickens also had double-digit tackles; both players had 10 stops.

GAME 5	BOSTON COLLEGE	13
	CLEMSON	19
	OCT. 2, 2021 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. – Placekicker B.T. Potter accounted for 13 points, hitting all four of his field goal attempts and adding an extra point to help No. 25 Clemson hold on to a 19-13 win over Boston College.

Defensively, the Tigers tallied nine tackles for loss, four sacks and forced three turnovers, including K.J. Henry pouncing on a fumble with 49 seconds remaining deep in Clemson territory to secure the win.

Running back Kobe Pace got the Tigers on the board first with a 59-yard touchdown run in the first quarter, part of his career-high 125 rushing yards and 210 all-purpose yards.

The rest of Clemson's scoring came from Potter, who made field goals of 18, 35, 40 and 42 yards to tie his career high of four field goals set in 2020 at Notre Dame.

The Tigers held a 13-6 halftime lead after Boston College scored on two field goals by Connor Lytton. The Eagles would score their lone touchdown of the game on a 3-yard run by Patrick Garwo on their opening drive of the second half to tie up the game, the first rushing touchdown surrendered by Clemson in 2021.

The last two of Potter's four field goals gave Clemson a 19-13 lead with a little more than four minutes to play. The Tigers stopped Boston College with 2:14 to play on fourth down, but went three-and-out on the ensuing possession. The Eagles then drove deep into Clemson territory. On 2nd-and-10 from the 11-yard line, a wild snap got past Boston College quarterback Dennis Grosel. Henry fell on the loose ball to give possession back to Clemson and all but end the contest and give Clemson the homecoming victory.

	SYRACUSE	14
	OCT. 15, 2021 CARRIER DOME • SYRACUSE, N.Y.

SYRACUSE, N.Y. – B.T. Potter's 40-yard field goal with 9:22 remaining proved to be the difference, as Clemson held on to defeat Syracuse, 17-14. Syracuse placekicker Andre Szmyt's 47-yard game-tying field goal attempt sailed left with 38 seconds to play, allowing the Tigers to seal the victory.

Clemson controlled the clock offensively, tallying 32:59 of possession. Kobe Pace tallied 76 yards and a touchdown on 14 carries, and quarterback DJ Uiagalelei was 21-of-34 for 181 yards and a score through the air, and added 26 yards on the ground.

Defensively, Clemson forced four three-and-outs, piled up six tackles for loss, broke up eight passes and tallied two sacks. Cornerback Mario Goodrich recorded four pass breakups, one shy of the school record.

Joseph Ngata capped a 12-play 87-yard drive with 1:03 to play in the first quarter, as he hauled in an acrobatic catch in the end zone. Syracuse answered on the next drive with a 91-yard drive to tie the score at 7-7.

After trading punts, Clemson took over with 2:06 to play in the half on its own 32-yard line. The Clemson drive appeared to stall out before punter Will Spiers hit Davis Allen for 17 yards on 4th-and-5. Uiagalelei hit Justyn Ross over the middle to bring the Tigers to the two-yard line, when Pace punched it in with just nine seconds to play in the half.

Following Potter's 40-yard fourth-quarter field goal, the Orange's Trebor Pena scored with 7:18 to play in the game on a 62-yard pass from Garrett Shrader to cut the Tigers' lead to 17-14. After a Syracuse stop, the Orange went on a 14-play, 63-yard drive to get into field goal range, but Szmyt's attempt missed left and gave the Tigers the ball to run out the final 38 seconds.
