CLEMSON TO HOST FLORIDA STATE AT DEATH VALLEY

After an open date and two road games, Clemson will return to Death Valley for the first time in four weeks when the Tigers host the Florida State Seminoles on Saturday, Oct. 30. Kickoff at Memorial Stadium is scheduled for 3:30 p.m. ET.

Clemson returns to Death Valley riding the nation's longest home winning streak, dating to 2016. Clemson's current 31-game streak is presently tied with 1890-93 Yale, 1990-95 Texas A&M and 2001-05 Boise State (31 each) for the 18th-longest home winning streak in FBS history. That streak includes two home victories against Florida State, a 31-14 win in 2017 and a 45-14 win in 2019.

Clemson's active 31-game winning streak includes 19 wins against ACC opponents, four wins against SEC opponents, one win each against Conference USA, MAC and Sun Belt opponents and five FCS wins. Clemson has outscored opponents 1,316-367 in the streak, an average score of 42.5-11.8.

From 2015-19, Clemson became the first school to defeat Florida State in ACC play in five consecutive games, a streak Clemson will attempt to push to six straight games with a win on Saturday. Miami (Fla.) previously defeated Florida State in six straight games from 2000-04, including a bowl game, but only the final game of that streak came during Miami's ACC membership.

This season, Clemson's defense has been led by James Skalski and Baylon Spector, its pair of veteran linebackers tabbed by Dabo Swinney as the "Bruise Brothers." After postgame review Saturday night, scorers at Pitt officially credited Skalski with a career-high 18 tackles in the

NOTES

WHAT TO WATCH FOR THIS WEEK

- Clemson attempting to win its 32nd consecutive home game to extend its school record for both the longest home winning streak and longest home unbeaten streak in school history (as well as extend the nation's longest active home winning streak). Of the 132 players on Clemson's 2021 roster, 127 have never experienced a home loss in their Clemson careers. Five sixth-year "super seniors" on Clemson's 2021 roster were on the 2016 team that recovered from a home loss to Pitt by winning the national championship that season.

- Clemson (31) attempting to pass 1890-93 Yale, 1990-95 Texas A&M and 2001-05 Boise State (31 each) for sole possession of the 18th-longest home winning streak in FBS history.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 29-7 in games following a loss under Dabo Swinney, including season openers following a loss in the previous season finale. Clemson has not lost back-to-back games in the same season since November 2011.

- Clemson and Florida State meeting in 2021 after having represented the conference in the ACC Championship Game every year since 2009, Dabo Swinney's first full season as the Tigers' head coach. Clemson represented the division (or earned a divisionless berth in 2020) in the championship game eight times in those 12 years, with Florida State doing so in the other four. The winner of this annual game has won the ACC Championship in nine of the last 10 years, with the lone exception in that span coming in 2020 after cancellation of the Clemson/Florida State game.

- Clemson attempting to win six consecutive games against Florida State for the first time in series history.

- Clemson, which was already the first school to defeat Florida State in ACC play in five consecutive games, attempting to push that winning streak to six straight games. (Note: Miami previously defeated Florida State in six straight games from 2000-04, including a bowl game, but only the final game of that streak came during Miami's ACC membership.)

- Clemson attempting to earn its 14th all-time victory against Florida State.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 9-8 against the Seminoles in Death Valley all-time to give Clemson the advantage in its all-time home record against Florida State for the first time in series history.

- Clemson attempting to earn its fourth straight home win against the Seminoles and earn its 10th win in 11 home games against Florida State since 2003.

- Clemson attempting to defeat an ACC Atlantic Division opponent for the 40th time in its last 42 opportunities. Those figures include games against traditional Atlantic opponents in a divisionless season in 2020.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 113-13 against AP-unranked teams under Dabo Swinney. A win would make Clemson 90-3 against unranked teams since the start of the 2012 season.

- Head Coach Dabo Swinney attempting to push his all-time record against Florida State to 8-5. His seven current wins against Florida State exceed all other coaches in Clemson history combined (Tommy Bowden, 4; Danny Ford, 1; Red Parker, 1).

- Swinney attempting to earn his 145th career win in his 14th season (including an interim stint in 2008) to tie Mark Richt (145) for fifth-most wins through the first 15 seasons of a coaching career in FBS history.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 29-2 in October games in the College Football Playoff era (since 2014).

- Clemson attempting to improve to 56-5 against ACC opponents (including postseason play) since the start of the 2015 season.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 72-6 in regular season play since the start of the 2015 season. All six of Clemson's regular season losses in that span have been decided by a final margin of 10 or fewer points.

- Clemson entering the game having surrendered only nine offensive touchdowns this season, tied for the second-fewest in the country. Clemson has surrendered only seven offensive touchdowns in regulation in seven games this season.

- Clemson (three) entering the game as one of two teams in the country not to allow an offensive touchdown in at least three games this season (Georgia, four).

- Clemson attempting to record a takeaway in a ninth consecutive game, dating to last season, for the first time since in 2019.

- Placekicker B.T. Potter (281 career points) needing seven points to tie or eight points to pass Obed Ariri (288 from 1977-80) for the ninth-most career points in Clemson history. Potter could also match or pass Ariri for fifth in kicking points in school history.

- Potter (164 career PATs) passing Aaron Hunt (164 from 2000-03) for third in Clemson history in career PATs with his next PAT.

- Potter entering the game with five career field goals of 50 yards or more. He is presently tied for the school record for career 50-yard field goals with Chris Gardocki (1988-90) and Donald Igwebuike (1981-84).

- Wide receiver Justyn Ross (20) needing one receiving touchdown to tie or two receiving touchdowns to pass Mike Williams (21 from 2013-16) for fourth on Clemson's all-time leaderboard for career receiving touchdowns.

- Ross (2,206) entering the game 12th on Clemson's leaderboard for career receiving yards, behind No. 11 Jerry Butler (2,223) and No. 10 Derrick Hamilton (2,312).

- Ross (145) needing five receptions to tie or six receptions to pass Perry Tuttle (150) for 11th on Clemson's leaderboard for career receptions. Ross is 17 receptions shy of matching Terry Smith (162) for 10th in school history.

- Ross attempting to extend his streak of consecutive games with a reception to 35.

- Punter Will Spiers starting his 64th game to add to his school record for career starts. Wide receiver/holder Will Swinney's career total as Clemson's primary holder parallels Spiers' run as starting punter.

- Spiers, Swinney and linebacker James Skalski each playing in their 64th career games to extend their school record for most career games played.

CLEMSON, DABO SWINNEY REMEMBER THE LIFE & LEGACY OF BOBBY BOWDEN

Clemson and the entire college football community suffered a tremendous loss in August upon the passing of legendary Florida State coach Bobby Bowden.

Though Bowden is inextricably and undeniably linked to Florida State, his influence remains large in Clemson's program in the present day. Head Coach Dabo Swinney came to Clemson as wide receivers coach in 2003 under Bobby's son, Tommy, who was Clemson's head coach at the time. Terry Bowden, another of Bobby's children, would also spend time at Clemson, serving as an unpaid graduate intern for two seasons from 2019-20 before taking the head coaching job at Louisiana-Monroe.

The family atmosphere for which the elder Bowden was famous at Florida State remains a staple at Clemson now. Staff children are routinely present around Clemson's facility and the program hosts family dinners every Wednesday for student-athletes to be able to see coaches and staff not just in a professional capacity but also as models of the importance of being a good husband and good father. Clemson will honor the Bowden family with a video tribute during a first-half timeout this week.

Shortly after hearing news of Bowden's pancreatic cancer, Swinney shared some of his fondest memories of Bowden at ACC Kickoff this past July. Said Swinney:

"For me, he was the model. He was such a great example of not losing sight of the main thing: a man of faith, a great husband, great father. He loved his community. He was loyal. He was committed. He loved his players. And he was funny, he had a grace to him, he's. And the model of consistency, I mean, the absolute model of consistency. But he's a special human being. I sat my office with him — I guess — two seasons ago in 2019 and we probably had about an hour in my office together just the two of us. He came in and he did our chapel. Ninety years old. Just the conversation was fascinating. Everything from letters he's written me to all the way back to being an interim and him calling me when all that went down to let me know, 'Hey, you have the Bowdens' full support,' and then three weeks later he smashed me down there in Tallahassee.

"But to come into my first ACC coaches meetings in Amelia Island in May, I'll never forget my very first meeting, you're talking about Jim Grobe and Groh and Paul Johnson and Cutcliffe and Friedgen and Beamer and all these guys. And here I come, and Bobby Bowden walks in and it's like, 'It's Bobby Bowden!' And I'm just fascinated sitting in the room with him. And, you know, there's some people that you can really think a lot of or like... I know I experienced this as a player, like you have so much respect, but then you get on the other side and you go, 'Oh, that guy's a jerk. That guy is this or that.' So sometimes people can let you down when you maybe get to know them in a different way, and I had this perception of him, and all I can say is when I got to know him kind of 'behind the curtain,' if you will, he was even better than what I could have imagined as far as just his genuineness, his kindness. He's smart, man, he's hilarious, used to crack me up.

"I remember, I've got my notebook, I've got notes, I'm ready. I'm ready to solve all the world's problems and be a part of this coaches fraternity and I'll never forget it. I go there and he's got his feet kicked back, he's got a USA Today, and we're in these deep-depth conversations, and you know, he's only done this 40 years at this point or whatever. He's heard it all. And we're in these deep conversations, whatever the topic of the day was, and he's just [miming motion] flipping through the USA Today, because you've got to be there. But evvvvvery now and then he goes, 'Boys, I don't think you want to do that,' then [resuming miming] flip back through [his newspaper].

"Then eventually he would take it, he just put it on his chest and [mimics napping]... He'd just take a nap. Like, nobody would say a word. Nobody. What are you going to do? And then you're not thinking he's listening and we're in this conversation — I think it was the year we were talking about the Sun Bowl and should we add the Sun Bowl — and he's over there [napping] and all of the sudden, he goes, 'Well, boys, y'all gonna be doing this a lot longer than me, but y'all want the Sun Bowl. That's a great bowl right there. That's a great trip...' He goes through the thing and it's over.

"So, I mean, he was just the best, such a respected guy. And, you know, when he says he's at peace, he means that. I think he told Tommy and Terry, 'Hey, if y'all want to plan a big funeral, you can do that, but I ain't gonna be there.' And that was his message. So he just has an unbelievable perspective. He's just been a great example to me and so many people. And you know, whenever that time comes, when the good Lord calls home with he'll be ready."

After Bowden's passing in August, Swinney also recounted his final conversation with Bowden. The phone conversation took place while Swinney was in Clemson's Memorial Stadium, sitting near the same area of the grounds where Bowden's Florida State squad ran its famous Puntrooskie.

"His purpose in life was very clear, and that was to know [God] and make Him known. That was it. He won a few games along the way, but he never forgot what his purpose was.

"Even in the very end, he had an unbelievable sense of humor. The thing I told him before I hung up the phone — and it was really hard to hang up the phone — the last thing I told him was I said, 'All right, Coach, if you get to heaven before me, just maybe, every now and then, get one of them balls through the uprights or something like that.' But he goes, 'Boy! You don't want my help. I had a tendency to be wide!'

"I just died laughing. That's classic Bobby Bowden. I am forever grateful to have spent time with him."

RECLAIMING THE VALLEY

With a win on Saturday, Clemson can hold the advantage in its all-time home record against Florida State for the first time in series history.

Despite a number of memorably close contests, Florida State won its first seven games at Death Valley from 1975-2001. Clemson earned its first home win in the series in 2003, when Clemson Head Coach Tommy Bowden defeated his father, Bobby, for the first time and did so on his father's birthday. That win kickstarted a five-game home winning streak for the Tigers against the Seminoles prior to a Florida State victory in 2013.

Clemson has since won the last three meetings in Death Valley and has accrued wins in eight of the teams' last nine meetings in Memorial Stadium to even the series in the facility at 8-8.

Clemson has faced 60 different programs at Death Valley since the facility opened in 1942. With a win Saturday, Florida State would be the 47th opponent against whom Clemson would hold a winning record in Memorial Stadium. Eight programs other than Florida State presently have .500 records against Clemson in Death Valley, and only five programs hold winning records against Clemson at the site (Georgia, Miami (Fla.), Alabama, George Washington and Marshall).

SERIES HISTORY VS. FLORIDA STATE

Florida State holds a 20-13 advantage in the series with Clemson dating back to the schools' first meeting, a 38-13 Florida State win in Tallahassee in 1970. Clemson has an 11-6 advantage over the last 17 games, including a five-game active winning streak.

The home team has won 14 of the last 18 games in the series. Since 2003, Clemson has won at Florida State three times: in 2006, 2016 and 2018. Florida State's only win at Clemson since 2001 was in 2013. The last three road wins in the series (Florida State in 2013, Clemson in 2016 and 2018) all preceded National Championship victories that year.

In an 11-season span from 2009-19, the winner of the Clemson vs. Florida State game went on to win the Atlantic Division title, a streak that ended in 2020 in a divisionless season that ultimately did not feature a Clemson/Florida State matchup. From 2011-19, the winner of the Tigers/Seminoles matchup also won the ACC Championship, including six wins by Clemson in that span.

In 2019, Clemson became the first school to defeat Florida State in ACC play five years in a row, a streak Clemson will attempt to push to six this year. The Seminoles previously lost six in a row to Miami, but five of those games were played prior to Miami joining the ACC.

Twelve times in the series, both teams have entered the game in the Top 25 of the AP Poll. In 2000, both teams were ranked in the Top 10 as Clemson was No. 10 and Florida State No. 4 before Florida State's 54-7 victory. Both teams were in the Top 5 in 2013, the first matchup of Top 5 teams in the history of Death Valley.

Clemson has run out to a hot start in each of the last two meetings, as the Tigers carried a 28-0 lead into halftime against Florida State in both games. In the first halves of Clemson's last two games against Florida State, Clemson holds a 56-0 edge in points, a 614-128 advantage in total yards and a 35-10 advantage in first downs.

This week, Clemson will attempt to record only the eighth winning streak of six or more games against Florida State by any program all-time. Clemson would be the sixth different program to do it, as Florida has accounted for three of the seven previous streaks.

CLEMSON-FLORIDA STATE MEMORIES

1988: Florida State defeated Clemson, 24-21, aided by an intricate fake punt executed by Bobby Bowden's team against the Tigers. The "Puntrooskie" went for 78 yards on a run by LeRoy Butler, and the first down at the Clemson two-yard line led to the winning field goal for Florida State. Clemson's defense stiffened but Richie Andrews kicked a 19-yard field goal with 32 seconds left to give Florida State the victory. Both teams finished that season in the top 10.

1999-2007: These games represented the annual Bowden Bowl, as Clemson was coached by Tommy Bowden and Florida State by Bobby Bowden. Bobby had a 5-4 advantage in those nine games, but Tommy won the last three. They remain the only meetings of father and son head coaches in FBS history. The first Bowden Bowl came in 1999, a 17-14 victory for Florida State. That FSU team went on to win the national championship, and the 17 points and three-point victory margin were season lows for Florida State in that championship season. It was the closest Clemson had come to beating the No. 1 ranked team in the nation until the National Championship Game to end the 2016 season.

2003: Clemson upset a third-ranked Florida State team by a 26-10 score in a nationally televised Saturday night game at Death Valley. Florida State was coming off a 37-0 win at Notre Dame and Clemson was coming off a 45-17 loss at Wake Forest. Florida State had won 11 consecutive games in the series prior to the game.

2005: Clemson defeated eventual ACC champion Florida State, 35-14, in Memorial Stadium behind quarterback Charlie Whitehurst. The two teams were tied, 14-14, at the half before Clemson dominated the second half behind Whitehurst and receiver Chansi Stuckey.

2007: Clemson won on Labor Day night behind the running of James Davis. A year earlier, Davis had scored the winning touchdown at Florida State in 2006, and the 2007 victory gave Clemson three straight wins over the Seminoles, becoming the first ACC team to do that.

2009: C.J. Spiller put on a show for the ages with 312 all-purpose yards, then an all-time Clemson record, in a 40-24 victory. It was a big win on the way to Clemson's first Atlantic Division championship. It was Bobby Bowden's last game against Clemson. He had a 14-7 all-time record against Clemson, but lost his last four appearances at Death Valley. However, his 6-4 record in the facility still represents the most victories at Clemson by an opposing head coach, one ahead of Georgia's Vince Dooley (five).

2014: Florida State overcame a 10-3 halftime deficit without suspended quarterback Jameis Winston to earn a 23-17 overtime victory on Sept. 20. The game, however, represented what ACC Network announcer Anish Shroff called in 2020 "a point of demarcation" for Clemson, as quarterback Deshaun Watson made his first start the following week. It had remained Clemson's last September loss until losing its 2021 season opener against No. 5 Georgia. The 2014 Clemson/FSU game also represented Clemson's last loss when holding an opponent to 23 or fewer points until that 2021 game against Georgia.

NOTES

2016: The third-ranked Tigers won the fourth quarter, 17-6, to defeat No. 12 Florida State, 37-34. Deshaun Watson completed 27-of-43 passes for 378 yards and two scores and gained 52 more yards rushing for the Tigers, as Clemson produced 511 yards of total offense in 81 plays.

2019: Clemson became the 15th FBS program (and first ACC program) ever to reach 750 all-time wins after earning a 45-14 win against the Seminoles at Death Valley (see "Last Meeting" below).

2020: Clemson traveled to Tallahassee but the game was postponed roughly three hours prior to kickoff and later canceled altogether. Previously, the last time Clemson had a game postponed after the team had already traveled to the site was in 1963, when the Tigers were slated to play South Carolina on Saturday, Nov. 23. Clemson returned from that 1963 trip to Columbia after the game was postponed following the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

LAST MEETING

Clemson 45, Florida State 14

(Oct. 12, 2019 at Clemson S.C.)

Behind four takeaways from the Tiger defense, No. 2 Clemson defeated the Florida State Seminoles, 45-14, at Memorial Stadium. With the win, Clemson became just the 15th FBS program to reach 750 all-time wins, and the first Atlantic Coast Conference team to reach the mark. Clemson held Florida State to 253 yards of total offense.

Quarterback Trevor Lawrence threw for a touchdown in a 16th consecutive game, completing 17-of-25 passes for 170 yards and three touchdowns. Lawrence also rushed for his fifth touchdown of the season in the first quarter to put the Tigers up 14-0. Justyn Ross added two touchdown receptions in the second quarter, finishing with 61 receiving yards on five catches.

Clemson outgained the Seminoles, 367-63, in total yards in the first half, with 174 of the Tigers' first half yards coming on the ground. Travis Etienne surpassed 3,000 rushing yards in his Clemson career on the afternoon, finishing with 127 rushing yards and a three-yard touchdown reception in the first quarter, earning ACC Running Back of the Week honors. Amari Rodgers added a 29-yard touchdown on a double reverse to open the scoring in the second half.

The Tiger defense was phenomenal, intercepting the Seminoles three times, including Derion Kendrick's first career interception, which he returned 38 yards for a pick-six. Eventual Butkus Award winner Isaiah Simmons led the way for the defense with eight total tackles, two tackles for loss, a sack and a forced fumble.

Clemson possessed the ball for 39:37, surpassing its 38:56 possession time against North Carolina on Dec. 5, 2015 for the longest in the Swinney era. The 39:37 possession time was Clemson's longest since its school-record 42:58 possession time against North Carolina on Nov. 7, 1992.

LAST MEETING AT FLORIDA STATE

Clemson 59, Florida State 10

(Oct. 27, 2018 at Tallahassee, Fla.)

Freshman Trevor Lawrence totaled four passing touchdowns as No. 2 Clemson rolled to a 59-10 victory over Florida State.

Lawrence finished the game with a then-career-high 314 passing yards, connecting on 20-of-37 passes. The receiving duo of Amari Rodgers and Tee Higgins combined for four touchdowns and 218 yards, including a then-career-high 156 receiving yards by Rodgers. On the other side of the ball, the Clemson defense forced seven three-and-outs by Florida State and totaled 14 tackles for loss, including five sacks.

Clemson took a 14-0 lead on touchdown passes of seven and three yards from Lawrence to Higgins. Linebacker Tre Lamar later returned an interception 43 yards to set up a touchdown run by defensive tackle Christian Wilkins. Tight end Garrett Williams, whose father played at Florida State, also scored on a two-yard touchdown run late in the first half.

It was the Rodgers show in the third quarter as the sophomore recorded receiving touchdowns of 58 and 68 yards, respectively. A field goal by B.T. Potter and a five-yard connection from Chase Brice to T.J. Chase made the score 52-3 in Clemson's favor entering the fourth quarter.

In the fourth quarter, Adam Choice became the third Tiger — but first running back — to rush for a touchdown on the day, punching the ball into the end zone on a 15-yard run. A late Seminole score brought the final to 59-10.

Florida also produced two of Clemson's most explosive stars of its modern era, Lake Butler's C.J. Spiller and Fort Myers' Sammy Watkins. The duo sits second and ninth on Clemson's leaderboard for career touchdowns, respectively. Spiller (21 from 2006-09) and Watkins (10 from 2011-13) combined for 31 career touchdowns of 50 yards or more during their Clemson tenures.

ON THIS DATE

- Oct. 30, 1902: Col. Charles S. Roller Jr., who was football coach of Furman, was the only referee for the Clemson-South Carolina game. Bronco Armstrong, a famous Yale player and official, was to be the umpire, but was in a railroad wreck on the way to Clemson and it was impossible for him to get to the game in time. Not a single penalty was called in the game. A riot between Tiger and Gamecock fans broke out the night after the game. Officials at both colleges called off the football series between the two schools. Clemson and South Carolina did not meet again in football until 1909.

- Oct. 30, 2000: Legendary Clemson sports figure Bob Bradley passed away at the age of 74. The long-time sports information director had been presented the Order of the Palmetto by the Governor's office two days prior to his passing. The press box at Memorial Stadium now bears his name in the opposite corner of his spot in the Ring of Honor.

- Overall: Clemson is 10-3 all-time in games played on Oct. 30. Clemson and Florida State have met once on Oct. 30, a 15-12 win by Coach Red Parker's Tigers in 1976.

-- NOTES FROM LAST GAME --

POSTGAME NOTES

- Clemson faced Pitt on the road for the first time in school history. Clemson's four previous meetings with the Panthers took place in Clemson (2016 and 2020), Jacksonville (1977 Gator Bowl) and Charlotte (2018 ACC Championship Game).

- Clemson and Pitt faced one another in back-to-back years for the first time in history.

- With back-to-back games at Syracuse and at Pitt, Clemson played consecutive games north of the Mason-

Dixon Line for only the second time in school history (1952 at Boston College and at Fordham).

- The defeat marked the first time Clemson lost by more than seven points in regular season play since 2014. Clemson played 78 regular season games between its two most recent regular season losses of 10 points or more.

- Clemson is now 72-6 in regular season play since 2015.

- Clemson dropped to 4-3 this season. The three teams that defeated Clemson are all currently ranked in the AP Top 25 and are a combined 18-3 this season.

- Clemson rushed for 164 yards on 30 carries, an average of 5.47 yards per carry. It marked Clemson's third game this season averaging at least 5.0 yards per carry.

- Running back Phil Mafah opened the game's scoring on a one-yard touchdown run in the first quarter. It was the first touchdown of Mafah's career. Six of Clemson's 12 rushing touchdowns this season have been scored by true freshmen.

- The game was only Clemson's fourth loss since 2015 when scoring first. Clemson is now 62-4 when scoring first in that span.

- Wide receiver Justyn Ross played in Pittsburgh, the city in which he had the spinal surgery for which he missed the entire 2020 season.

- Ross recorded a team-high-tying five receptions for a team-high 59 receiving yards.

- With the five receptions, Ross pushed his career receptions total to 145, passing Chansi Stuckey (141), Kevin Youngblood (142) and Jacoby Ford (143) to move into 12th in Clemson history in career receptions.

- On a 10-yard reception in the first quarter, Ross extended his streak of consecutive games with a reception to 34.

- Wide receiver Beaux Collins made his first career start and recorded 23 receiving yards on a career-high and team-high-tying five catches.

- Quarterback DJ Uiagalelei rushed for his third touchdown of the season — the seventh of his career — on a six-yard scoring run in the fourth quarter.

- Uiagalelei's interception in the first quarter ended a streak of 80 consecutive pass attempts without an interception, the second-longest streak of his career (128 from 2020-21). His most recent interception prior to Saturday came on his final pass attempt of the first half at NC State on Sept. 25.

- Clemson recorded the game's first takeaway when safety Nolan Turner forced a fumble that was recovered by defensive tackle Etinosa Reuben, the first of the season in each category for both players.

- The fumble recovery was Reuben's first of his career.
 - The forced fumble was the second of Turner's career and his first since the second game of the 2019 season against Texas A&M.

- Clemson has now recorded a takeaway in eight consecutive games, dating to last season, for the first time since a nine-game streak in 2019.

- Linebacker Trenton Simpson recorded his first full sack of the season on a third down on Pitt's opening drive.

- Linebacker Baylon Spector added his first full sack of the season as well on a third down in the second quarter.

- Punter Will Spiers started his 63rd game to add to his school record for career starts. Wide receiver/holder Will Swinney's career total as Clemson's primary holder parallels Spiers' run as starting punter.

- Spiers, Swinney and linebacker James Skalski each played in their 63rd career games to extend their school record for most career games played.

- Running back Will Shipley returned to action and recorded a 32-yard kickoff return in the second quarter, Clemson's longest of the season.

- Shipley also rushed for a team-high 52 yards on 10 carries.

- Kicker B.T. Potter hit a 42-yard field goal in the third quarter. Potter has converted each of his last six field goal attempts and is 7-for-8 on the year, with his lone miss coming from 58 yards.

- On his second PAT of the game, Potter (164 career PATs) tied Aaron Hunt (164 from 2000-03) for third in Clemson history in career PATs.

- Captains for the contest were offensive lineman Matt Bockhorst, offensive tackle Jordan McFadden, linebacker James Skalski and safety Nolan Turner.

- Clemson, which is No. 23 in the Coaches Poll but unranked in the AP Poll, played its first game against an AP-ranked opponent as an AP-unranked team since Sept. 17, 2011, when unranked Clemson defeated the defending national champions, No. 21 Auburn, by a 38-24 score at Death Valley.

- Clemson played its 18th game in an NFL stadium since 2015.

- Clemson played true road games in back-to-back weeks for the first time since 2015, when Clemson defeated Miami (Fla.) and NC State on the road in consecutive weeks.

ONE OF THE ERA'S WINNINGEST PROGRAMS

Clemson's recent success has been particularly pronounced since the start of Clemson's six-year streak of College Football Playoff appearances dating to 2015. Alabama and Clemson rank No. 1 and 2 in the country in wins in that span, with the two teams combining for five out of six national championships in that time frame.

consecutive 10-win season in 2020 made Clemson only the third program in FBS history to produce a "double-double" — double-digit wins in a double-digit number of consecutive seasons.

The record for consecutive 10-win seasons is 14, set by Florida State (1987-2000). Alabama is the only other program with an active streak of at least 10 straight 10-win seasons.

The Tigers have 17 10-win seasons in school history, with 10 coming under Dabo Swinney.

SENIOR SUCCESS

Every January, Head Coach Dabo Swinney conducts his first official meeting with his new team. The first order of business in the meeting is to "reset the room," reorganizing the seating arrangement with seniors in front and all succeeding classes in order behind them in the team auditorium.

Each of Clemson's last four senior classes have placed themselves among select company in college football history. The 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020 Clemson seniors account for four of only 12 four-year classes in FBS history to reach 50 career wins. That includes the 2018 and 2019 groups that are tied with the 2018 Alabama seniors for the most wins in FBS history (55 wins in four years).

"A"NOTHER "C"LEMSON "C"HAMPIONSHIP IN 2020

With its sixth straight conference title last year, Clemson became the first program ever to win 20 ACC Championships, five more than Florida State, which ranks second with 15.

Clemson was the first program in the conference championship game era to win six straight conference championship games. Clemson also became the first ACC program to win six consecutive outright titles, as Florida State had a streak of nine straight ACC titles, but that streak included two co-championships that prevented Bobby Bowden's Seminoles from ever winning more than three straight titles outright.

In 2020, Clemson and Oklahoma's six-year streaks of outright titles made the two programs the first among current Power Five programs to win at least six straight outright titles since Oklahoma (12 from 1948-59) as part of the now-dissolved Big 8 Conference.

Including titles from its days as a member of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association and Southern Conference, Clemson has 26 conference championships overall, also the most of any current ACC school. Duke ranks second among the ACC's current membership with 18 overall conference titles, including 11 Southern Conference titles and seven ACC titles.

The Tigers won the 1900, 1902 and 1903 SIAA Conference championships under John Heisman, then the 1906 SIAA title under Bob Williams. Clemson also won the 1940 and 1948 Southern Conference titles under Frank Howard. Howard won eight total conference titles, including two in the Southern Conference and six in the ACC.

* - active streak

Clemson Football's sixth straight conference title extended a program record and tied for the third-longest ACC championship streak in Clemson Athletics history.

The record is eight in a row by Clemson's men's soccer program between 1972-79. Dr. I.M. Ibrahim was Clemson's coach for all eight of those titles. Ibrahim also led Clemson to national titles in 1984 and 1987 and sits aside Dabo Swinney as the only Clemson coaches in any sport to win two national championships.

Chuck Kriese took the Tigers men's tennis program to seven straight titles from 1983-89. The Clemson women's tennis program won six straight between 1982-87. Mary King won the first title and Andy Johnston won the last five in that run.

POWER OVER THE POWER FIVE

Early in his head coaching tenure, Dabo Swinney laid out his belief to then-Clemson athletic director

Terry Don Phillips that the Tigers needed to add tough non-conference challenges on top of their tests in ACC play to serve as a foundation for the program's growth.

"I had a conversation with Terry Don and said, 'Terry Don, I know we are not very good right now, but we need to play people because that is going to help me teach and help me develop the culture and the mindset that you have to have to win at the highest level,'" recounted Swinney. "I didn't think we had that, and that's what we committed to. That's what we've done."

That scheduling philosophy and culture change has resonated in the Clemson program, and since 2013, no team can claim more wins against Power Five Conference opponents than the Tigers.

That includes 13 wins against Power Five opponents in 2018, the first team ever to reach that figure.

NO. 1 FOR NO. 1 RECRUITS

As Clemson was in the midst of the winningest decade in school history and tied for the third-winningest decade in major college football history, Head Coach Dabo Swinney would frequently point out that Clemson accomplished its goals by finding the right fits for its program in recruiting rather than chasing recruiting rankings.

Swinney often noted that Clemson accomplished its immense success in his tenure despite never signing the No. 1 recruiting class in the country. That changed in 2020, when ESPN ranked Clemson's 2020 group as the nation's top recruiting class. Clemson also recorded its highest rankings in both Rivals (No. 2) and 247 Sports (No. 3) history.

Clemson has signed the nation's consensus top player in two out of the last four recruiting cycles, welcoming quarterback Trevor Lawrence in 2018 and defensive tackle Bryan Bresee in 2020.

Clemson and LSU are the only teams in the country to sign Rivals' No. 1 recruit twice in a three-year span since Dabo Swinney was named head coach at Clemson.

Clemson, LSU and Alabama (two each) are tied for the most No. 1 recruits signed since 2009 per Rivals' rankings. Clemson, Georgia and USC (two each) are tied for the most in that span per the 247 Composite.

Clemson's recruiting classes have finished in the top 15 of at least one of three primary recruiting services (ESPN, Rivals and 247 Sports) every year since 2011. Clemson is one of only seven schools to produce a Top 15 class in each of the last 11 recruiting cycles, a group that also includes Alabama, Auburn, Georgia, LSU, Notre Dame and Ohio State. After that group, the next longest active streak of Top 15 classes is six (Florida).

SIGN AND DEVELOP

While proud of his incoming classes, Head Coach Dabo Swinney has long stated that a true ranking of a recruiting class cannot and should not be published until four years later when the group can be evaluated on performance rather than potential.

Much to Swinney's delight, The Athletic has annually assumed that role in recent years, re-ranking every recruiting class four years later to account for on-field performance.

For its re-rankings, The Athletic uses the following grading scale: 5 points: All-American, award winner, top-50 NFL Draft pick; 4: Multi-year starter, all-conference honors; 3: One-year starter or key reserve; 2: Career backup; 0: Minor or no contribution, left the program. The outlet also adds a bonus to each program's class average, derived from its total number of wins from 2017 through 2020 (e.g.: For re-ranking the Class of 2017, Clemson won 51 games, so its class average received a bonus of 0.51).

Even in its current stretch of recruiting success, Swinney has often pointed out Clemson drops in rankings for signing smaller recruiting classes as a function of lower attrition than other programs, as well as noting that much of Clemson's on-field success is a function of the program's development, citing All-Americans like former three-star Isaiah Simmons or former two-star Nolan Turner. The re-rankings illustrate Clemson's pristine recent track record of talent identification, culture fit, resource allocation and player development.

CLEMSON RECRUITING RANKINGS AND RE-RANKINGS (VIA THE ATHLETIC)

Average	13.0	3.5	+9.5

Note: Initial rank according to 247 Composite

On average, Clemson finished 13th in the 247 Composite team rankings across the 2014-17 recruiting cycles. Upon re-ranking those groups, Clemson ranked 3.5 on average, a ratings bump of nearly 10 full spots. Each of those Clemson classes won at least 50 games in their four-year window.

-- HEAD COACH DABO SWINNEY --

ESTEEMED COMPANY

Head Coach Dabo Swinney's run of excellence in his tenure at Clemson has placed him in the company of college football legends.

Swinney boasts a career winning percentage of .800, sitting as one of only 13 head coaches in history with at least 10 seasons of FBS head coaching experience to post a mark of .800 or better.

CHASING WIN NO. 150

Head Coach Dabo Swinney is 144-36 in 180 career games and needs six more wins to reach 150 career victories.

Among coaches who qualify for the NCAA FBS record book by virtue of five years or 50 wins as a major college head coach, only 15 have ever reached 150 career wins in 200 games or less. Fourteen of the 15 are College Football Hall of Famers, with the 15th — Urban Meyer — likely to be inducted upon meeting eligibility requirements.

FEWEST GAMES TO REACH 150 WINS (NCAA FBS HISTORY)

14.	Dan McGugin	Vanderbilt	200
	Darrell Royal	Miss. St., Washington, Texas	200

Note: Includes victories at all levels recognized by the NCAA; must record five years or 50 wins as a major college head coach to qualify; Swinney (144-36 in 180 games) and Kansas' Lance Leipold (147-45 in 192 games) can add themselves to the list in 2021.

The fastest Swinney could reach 150 victories would be 186 games if Clemson were to win its next six games. That would make him the sixth-fastest FBS coach to 150 career wins — two games behind Fielding Yost and Joe Paterno — and the fourth-fastest in the modern era.

Four previous Clemson head coaches earned 150+ FBS wins in their careers: John Heisman (186), Jess Neely (207), Frank Howard (165) and Ken Hatfield (168). Howard, a College Football Hall of Famer, is the only coach to reach 150 career wins as Clemson's head coach. He recorded his 150th victory in his 273rd career game, in a 14-10 victory against Maryland in 1966 that clinched a piece of what later became an outright ACC title. Heisman earned win No. 150 in game No. 203, Neely earned it in game No. 268, and Hatfield did it in game 259, though none of those three won more than 43 games in their Clemson tenures.

According to data furnished by Sports Reference, only five active coaches have recorded at least 150 career victories as an FBS coach (excluding wins coaching at other levels). All five needed at least 200 games to reach 150 career wins, led by TCU's Gary Patterson, who recorded win No. 150 in his 204th career game.

FIRST 13+ SEASONS

Dabo Swinney has recorded the sixth-most wins through the first 15 years of a head coaching career in FBS history. With a win against Boston College on Oct. 2, he passed rival-turned-friend Steve Spurrier, who won 142 games in his first 15 seasons at Duke and Florida.

The most impressive part of Swinney's appearance on this list? Swinney is in only his 14th season (and his 13th full season) in 2021.

SIX "FINAL FOURS" FOR SWINNEY

While the term "Final Four" may still be the linguistic property of college basketball, since the advent of the four-team College Football Playoff in 2014, Head Coach Dabo Swinney has had Clemson among the sport's final four teams in each of the last six seasons, becoming the first coach to lead a team to six consecutive College Football Playoffs since the format's institution in 2014.

The NCAA men's college basketball tournament dates to 1939. In the history of that tournament, only John Wooden of UCLA (nine from 1967-75) and Mike Krzyzewski of Duke (five from 1988-92) coached teams to at least five consecutive Final Fours. With his sixth "Final Four" appearance in 2020, Swinney joined basketball's Wooden as the only college football or men's basketball coaches to take teams to six consecutive Final Fours in their respective sports.

During Wooden's streak of nine straight Final Fours, he recorded eight championships and a semifinal loss. Coach K's Blue Devils had two championships, a second-place finish and two semifinal losses in their run. Nick Saban's Final Four history includes three championships, two runner-up finishes and a semifinal loss, while Swinney so far has two championships, two runner-up finishes and two semifinal losses.

Swinney is among only nine coaches in football and men's basketball to record six career Final Four berths. He is one of only six with a winning record in Final Four games.

Swinney's ability to place his team among the nation's elite quartet has also been illustrated by the polls. Clemson finished first in the AP Poll in 2016 and 2018, second in 2015 and 2019, third in 2020 and fourth in 2017. Swinney became just the fourth coach to record at least six consecutive top four finishes since the AP Poll began in 1936, an exclusive list that also includes Florida State's Bobby Bowden (13), USC's Pete Carroll (seven) and Oklahoma's Bud Wilkinson (six).

Clemson's streak represented the fifth time a program has had a run of at least six top four finishes in the AP Poll. Miami (Fla.) had a seven-year run from 1986-92 with two different head coaches leading the program.

STAFF CONTINUITY

Clemson has become a beacon of stability in the increasingly unstable environment of college football. Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney is in his 19th overall season at Clemson in 2021, including his 13th full season as head coach (and his 14th including an interim stint in 2008).

From the start of Swinney's first season as full-time head coach in 2009 through 2020, there have been nearly 400 head coaching tenures in the FBS (excluding those by interims), but only one such tenure at Clemson. Clemson and Duke are the only schools in the ACC with only one head coach since the start of the 2009 season, and among the 11 schools ever to qualify for the College Football Playoff, only Clemson and Alabama have had only one head coach since 2009.

A FAMILIAR NO. 1

A year ago, Clemson opened the 2020 season at

NOTES

No. 1 atop both polls, marking the program's second straight top preseason ranking. With the top selection in the AP Poll, Clemson became the sixth program since the inception of the preseason poll in 1950 ever to open consecutive preseason polls at No. 1, joining Alabama (2016-18), USC (2004-05), Oklahoma (1985-87, 1974-75, 1956-57), Ohio State (1969-70) and Notre Dame (1953-54).

Seeing Clemson at No. 1 had become familiar in recent years, as 2020 represented the sixth straight year in which Clemson appeared at No. 1 in at least one AP Poll. Dabo Swinney joined Nick Saban (13) as the only coach in AP Poll history (since 1936) to lead a team to at least one No. 1 ranking in six consecutive years. Clemson, Alabama (14 from 2008-21) and Miami (seven from 1986-92) are the only programs to appear at No. 1 in at least six consecutive years.

Note: Alabama already extended its streak in 2021. Alabama and Clemson were the only programs with active streaks at No. 1 entering 2021.

Clemson has played 22 games all-time as the nation's No. 1-ranked team in the AP Poll, tied with mid-century powerhouse Army for 14th-most in poll history. Twenty-one of those games have been coached by Dabo Swinney, 17th-most all-time.

A total of 22 coaches have led the AP's top-ranked team into a game at least 15 times. Seventeen of the 22 coaches on the list are College Football Hall of Famers. Swinney holds a total of nine career victories over five coaches on the list, including two each over Bob Stoops, Nick Saban, Urban Meyer and Steve Spurrier and one over Bobby Bowden.

CHAMPIONSHIP HERITAGE

After being named Clemson's full-time coach in December of 2008, Head Coach Dabo Swinney set about securing his first signing class in 2009.

His first class, which he tabbed the "Dandy Dozen," brought home Clemson's first ACC title since 1991 during their junior campaign in 2011. Excluding the incoming freshmen, all of Clemson's signing classes under Swinney have at least one ACC title to their credit in their tenures at Clemson, and every signing class since 2012 has earned at least one College Football Playoff berth.

Clemson's success hasn't been limited to teams ranked at the time of the game. Since 2015, Clemson's 53 wins against teams that finish above .500 are one off the national lead and its .855 winning percentage against teams that finish the season above .500 ranks second.

-- SEASON STORYLINES --

CARDIAC CLEMSON

In rattling off 10 consecutive 10-win seasons from 2011-20, Clemson's dominance resulted in the Tigers playing only 32 games decided by one possession, the 13th-fewest in the FBS in that span (with many of the teams ranked lower having not played at the FBS level throughout that entire timeframe). Despite the few opportunities, no team had a better record in one-score games in that span than Clemson, which was 27-5 in games decided by eight or fewer points from 2011-20.

The Tigers have diverged a bit from their runaway-game reputation in 2021, as cardiac Clemson has seen five of its six games against FBS opponents this year be decided by eight or fewer points (and all six be decided by 10 or fewer points). Clemson's five one-score games in 2021 are tied for second in the nation.

The 2021 Tigers are already within three games of the school record for the most games in a season decided by eight or fewer points. Clemson's five one-score games are also tied for the most through seven games in school history.

DEALING WITH ATTRITION

Clemson's attrition was on display in its 27-17 loss at No. 23 Pitt on Oct. 23. By Head Coach Dabo Swinney's accounting, Clemson finished the game without the services of 18 scholarship players.

"You can't really do anything about injuries," Swinney said after the game. "It's some of the craziest stuff I've ever been a part of since I've been in college football. It's crazy some of the things we've dealt with."

Included below is a non-comprehensive list of notable injuries and departures for Clemson since the start of fall camp.

Despite having only played seven games this season, Clemson has had 43 different players record at least one start, already three more than its 40 different starters in last year's erratic and unpredictable pandemic-impacted season in 2020. Only 38 Clemson players have played in every game this season, and only nine have started every game.

Of note offensively:

- At running back, Clemson had planned to redshirt Phil Mafah, but an injury to Will Shipley and the departures of Lyn-J Dixon and Michel Dukes pressed him into action. Former walk-on Darien Rencher was Clemson's third running back behind Kobe Pace and Mafah during Shipley's absence.

- At receiver, three of Clemson's four listed co-starters at wide receiver were unavailable at Pitt, leaving Clemson with only five receivers who came to Clemson as scholarship signees. The lone healthy listed co-starter was Justyn Ross, who missed all of 2020 following surgery to correct a career-threatening spinal condition.

- On the offensive line, Clemson has had eight different players start at least one game, including Matt Bockhorst, who started at three different positions in three straight games before being lost for the season to injury. That group includes Mason Trotter, who started at center against Syracuse while returning from a broken hand and learned of his start the morning of the game after presumptive starter Hunter Rayburn entered COVID protocol that morning. Clemson also lost the services of rotational depth linemen John Williams and Tayquon Johnson before the season ever started, and lost highly regarded freshman Dietrick Pennington for the season after Clemson's second game-.

STRENGTH OF RECORD

One of the metrics used by the College Football Playoff committee to evaluate teams is Strength of Record, described by SportSource Analytics as such: "The Strength of Record (SoR) Rating is a measurement of a team's performance against the average margin of victory of the opponent. For example, if a team plays an opponent that wins by 7 points on average and they beat that team by 10 points, then they would have SoR Rating of +17 for that game. Each game is also adjusted for home and away factors. When viewed as an overall rating, it tells you that a team typically performs better (if positive) or worse (if negative) against opponents than teams typically perform against them."

Clemson ranks third in the ACC and 24th in the nation in Strength of Record in 2021.

Clemson has lost only 10 games since 2015 and only six games since 2018. Six of Clemson's 10 losses since 2015 have come against AP Top 5 teams.

Including current records for 2021 and final records for teams in previous seasons, the opponents to whom Clemson has lost in the last six-plus years have a combined final record of 88-21, a winning percentage of .807. Since 2018, opponents responsible for Clemson's defeats have a combined final record of 49-6 (.891).

WHEN IN DOUBT, CLEMSON RESPONDS

In Head Coach Dabo Swinney's tenure, the Tigers have routinely responded well following dips in the AP rankings.

Under Swinney, Clemson is 28-6 in games in which it enters ranked lower in the AP Poll than it did in its previous contest. This includes the 2014, 2016, 2017, 2018 and 2021 season openers in which Clemson opened the season lower than its ranking from the final game of the previous campaign. Before a loss to Georgia to open 2021, Clemson had won its previous 17 games when entering ranked lower in the AP Poll than in its previous game.

Clemson is also 28-7 in games following a loss under Swinney, including season openers following a loss in the previous season finale. Losses to Top 5 opponents Ohio State and Georgia across the 2020 and 2021 seasons ended a streak of 127 games since losing back-to-back contests, which had been the longest active streak in the nation and the longest in ACC history. Previously, Clemson's last time losing back-to-back games had come in 2011.

ACC WINNING STREAKS

Clemson has won 55 of its last 60 games vs. ACC opponents, a time frame that features ACC Championship Game wins against North Carolina (2015), Virginia Tech (2016), Miami (2017), Pitt (2018), Virginia (2019) and Notre Dame (2020). Clemson has an active winning streak against 11 of its 13 ACC counterparts, with at least three games comprising each of those 11 streaks.

ACTIVE WINNING STREAKS VS. ACC TEAMS

Notes: Clemson won its last four games against Maryland prior to the Terrapins' exit from the ACC; the Terps' last win over Clemson came in 2009 at Maryland. Clemson also won its last meeting against Notre Dame in its lone season of ACC membership.

Clemson is responsible for three of the eight-longest winning streaks in ACC conference play all-time.

TAKING CARE OF BUSINESS

Prior to a loss at NC State in late September, Clemson had won 36 consecutive games against teams unranked in the AP Poll, the program's second-longest such winning streak since the inception of the poll in 1936. Prior to the loss to NC State, Clemson's last defeat at the hands of an unranked squad had come in 2017 at Syracuse.

Clemson's longest winning streak against unranked teams came across the 2012-16 seasons, when Clemson won 46 in a row starting with a season-opening win against Auburn in 2012 and ending with an upset loss to Pitt in 2016.

Clemson is 112-13 against AP-unranked teams under Dabo Swinney, including wins in 89 of 92 games against those unranked teams since the start of the 2012 season.

-- NO. 5 QB DJ UIAGALELEI --

"BIG CINCO" ON BIG STAGE

Asked for the proper pronunciation of his name, Clemson quarterback DJ Uiagalelei will walk you through the syllables of his surname of Samoan descent:

"ooh-ee-AHN-guh-luh-lay"

But he'll also offer a helpful tip:

"Or you can just call me 'Big Cinco.'"

In his two starts in 2020, Uiagalelei completed 59-of-85 passes for 390.5 yards per game with four touchdowns and no interceptions. His 162.1 pass efficiency rating in those two starts was nearly 11 points higher than Lawrence's 151.5 mark in his 11 starts as a first-year freshman.

INTERCEPTION AVOIDANCE

Uiagalelei's explosiveness in the vertical passing game and his deft decision-making in the running game made highlight reels from 2020, but his ability to protect the ball was elite in his debut season as well.

In 2020, Uiagalelei became only the second FBS player since 2000 to throw at least 115 passes and record at least five passing touchdowns and no interceptions, joining Georgia Southern's Shai Werts from 2018.

Uiagalelei's first career interception came on his 12th pass of the 2021 season opener, the 129th pass attempt of his career. His interception-free streak of 128 passes concluded only 37 attempts shy of the Clemson record for most pass attempts without an interception to start a career, held by Cullen Harper (first 165 passes of his career that spanned 2005-07).

He ranks second in Clemson records in career interception percentage among qualified passers.

Uiagalelei is one of only 13 quarterbacks in Clemson history to record at least one 300-yard passing game and is one of only seven to record multiple 300-yard passing games. He is two 300-yard games shy of tying his position coach, Brandon Streeter, for fifth in school history.

-- NO. 8 WR JUSTYN ROSS --

WELCOME BACK

Clemson's biggest impact among returning players in 2021 could potentially come from one who didn't play a snap in 2020: wide receiver Justyn Ross.

Ross missed the 2020 season after surgery following the diagnosis of a congenital fusion in his spine. Ross participated in spring ball in a non-contact capacity with an eye toward full participation in fall camp, a plan that was successful in current NFL receiver and former Clemson star Mike Williams' return from a neck injury in 2016 en route to becoming the No. 7 overall pick in the NFL Draft.

Ross played his first game action in exactly 600 days in the season opener against Georgia, recording Clemson's first reception of the season to a standing ovation from Clemson faithful in Charlotte and finishing with four catches for 26 yards.

Even though he missed the entire 2020 campaign, Ross is tied for fifth in school history in career touchdown receptions and has moved into 12th in school history in both career receptions and career receiving yards.

Ross had two of the most productive first two seasons by a Clemson player in school history, recording 1,865 receiving yards and 17 touchdowns from 2018-19. His 17 touchdowns through two seasons were the most through two years in school history, and his 1,865 yards in those years trailed only Sammy Watkins (1,927) and Artavis Scott (1,866) during the first two years of a Clemson career.

Included below is how Ross' first two seasons stack up against the first two seasons of the players that populate Clemson's Top 10 list in career touchdown receptions.

-- NO. 1 RB WILL SHIPLEY --

SHIP'S FAST START

Through the first four weeks of the season, true freshman running back Will Shipley led Clemson in points (30), touchdowns (five), rushing attempts (44) and rushing yards (211) before exiting Clemson's with an injury at NC State.

Those four games alone pushed Shipley into the top 10 in rushing touchdowns by a Clemson true freshman since 1973.

Shipley had two rushing touchdowns in Clemson's Sept. 11 win against South Carolina State and in its Sept. 18 win against Georgia Tech, marking the first time a Clemson true freshman rushed for multiple touchdowns in back-to-back games since Travis Etienne did so in 2017.

Shipley's performance in September was another entry in Clemson's recent history of feature backs declaring their arrival immediately. Clemson was led in rushing yards in each of the previous seven years by either Wayne Gallman (2014-16) or Travis Etienne (2017-20), both of whom led Clemson in rushing in their freshman seasons (Gallman's redshirt freshman season in 2014 and Etienne's true freshman season in 2017). The last time someone other than Etienne or Gallman led Clemson in rushing in a season was 2013 (Rod McDowell), when Shipley was in fifth grade.

-- NO. 84 TE DAVIS ALLEN --

ONE SHY OF SCHOOL RECORD

Davis Allen took ownership of Clemson's starting tight end position heading into Clemson's fourth game this season. In game six, with fellow tight end Braden Galloway sidelined with a concussion, Allen was a focal point of Clemson's offense (and special teams) in a 17-14 win at Syracuse.

Allen recorded eight receptions for 49 yards, including a spectacular highlight-reel grab to convert a fake punt pass from punter Will Spiers and extend an eventual a touchdown drive. His eight receptions were one shy of the Clemson single-game record for a tight end, shared by Brandon Ford (2012) and John McMakin (1970).

-- OFFENSIVE LINE --

ALL-CONFERENCE O-LINEMEN

From 2015-20, the Tigers produced a total of 24 All-ACC selections along the offensive line, including 10 first-team honors. Clemson's 24 all-conference selections by offensive linemen are the most of any Power Five program, and its 10 first-team selections are tied with Alabama for the third-most in that span.

-- DEFENSE --

THE CFP ERA'S DOMINANT DEFENSE

Since the advent of the College Football Playoff in 2014, Clemson has routinely produced one of the nation's elite defenses.

Clemson has ranked in the Top 15 in the country in total defense in each of the last seven seasons and has ranked among the Top 25 in scoring defense in all of those campaigns (including four Top 5 finishes in the category).

immaculate. Teams with Venables on staff posted winning seasons in all 25 of his seasons prior to 2021, including 21 seasons with 10 wins or more. The oldest members of the 2021 Clemson defense — super seniors Nolan Turner and Regan Upshaw — were born in November of 1997. Not only does Venables not have a losing season in their lifetime, teams with him on staff won at least 10 games in 21 of those 24 seasons.

HISTORIC STREAK

Through the first three weeks of the season, Clemson did not allow a touchdown on defense, the nation's only team able to make that claim.

Clemson surrendered its first offensive touchdown of the season with five seconds remaining in the first quarter at NC State, ending a streak of 194:55 to open the season in which Clemson did not allow an offensive touchdown. The touchdown came on the 38th drive faced by Clemson's defense this season and was Clemson's longest season-opening streak without allowing an offensive touchdown since 1950, a year in which Clemson similarly did not allow an offensive touchdown until the first quarter of the season's fourth game.

Clemson's streak in the first three games was the first time it held three consecutive offenses without a touchdown at any point in a season since midseason 1990 (Appalachian State, Duke and Georgia). It represented the first time Clemson had not allowed an offensive touchdown in any of its first three games of a season since 1950, when Clemson shut out Presbyterian, Missouri and NC State in the season's first three contests.

Per data available through Sports Reference, Clemson joined 2007 Iowa, 2008 Iowa and 2012 Florida State as the fourth team since 2000 to open the first three games of a season without allowing an offensive touchdown.

Entering this week, Clemson ranks tied for second in the country in touchdowns allowed on defense. Of the nine offensive touchdowns surrendered by Clemson this year, only seven have been allowed in regulation.

No program has given up fewer points per possession against FBS opponents since 2018, as Clemson's 0.98 points allowed per possession since the start of the 2018 season makes Clemson the only program in the country to allow fewer than a full point per drive to FBS opponents.

Clemson's success sacking quarterbacks has not been limited to a handful of high-production players but is instead indicative of team-wide success. In the College Football Playoff era (since 2014), 77 different Clemson players have recorded at least half a sack, including a nation-high 21 different players in 2020.

MULTI-SACK GAMES

Clemson has posted 44 multiple-sack games since 2018, the most in the FBS. Clemson has recorded at least two sacks in 39 of its last 42 games.

GETTING OFF THE FIELD

Clemson's defense under Brent Venables finished in the Top 12 in the nation in third down defense in eight of his nine full seasons at Clemson, including each of the last eight. Clemson's lowest third down defense came in Venables' first season in the Upstate, when the Tigers still finished No. 24 (33.99 percent) in 2012.

THE BRUISE BROTHERS

Behind Clemson's headline defensive line is a pair of hard-hitting veteran linebackers that led Head Coach Dabo Swinney to coin the duo as "The Bruise Brothers." Middle linebacker James Skalski, the only player ever to play in (and win) five ACC Championship Games, returned for his sixth season at Clemson in 2021 following an all-conference performance in 2020. He took a mid-career redshirt in 2018, playing four games including the ACC Championship Game, Cotton Bowl and National Championship Game in what he and others called "the sweetest gig on the team" before becoming a full-time starter in 2019. The physical presence of No. 47 led Swinney to call him "a war daddy" and call his participation in practices and scrimmages "just unfair."

Skalski's running mate at the second level of the defense continues to be fifth-year linebacker Baylon Spector, whose strong performances in 2020 included an ACC Linebacker of the Week selection for his play against Virginia.

"[Spector] and Skalski, it's a reflection of how they practice. I'm telling you, every single rep at practice is a game rep to those two guys. They put a ton of work in every week to get themselves ready to play," Swinney said. "I know how hard they've worked. It's the unseen grind. That's a ton of work that they've put in."

"I call them The Bruise Brothers. Those two right there, it's something to watch and it's fun to see."

The duo's success is not merely a function of their physicality and hard work. Defensive Coordinator Brent Venables praised the cerebral nature of their play as well.

"They've developed some really good chemistry together. They're always having side chat conversations when I'm trying to talk with the whole defense and I'm having to correct at practice, and I look over and they're coaching each other. Sometimes that bothers me, I'll be honest, [smiling] but I absolutely love it because it's always about the details of what we're talking about," Venables said. "They're like two coaches, really, out on the field."

SPECTOR AND SKALSKI SHOW OUT

When his running mate James Skalski exited Clemson's late-September game at NC State early with an injury, linebacker Baylon Spector stepped up.

Spector recorded a team-high 19 tackles, the most by a Clemson player in a single game under Dabo Swinney, one ahead of Spencer Shuey's 18 tackles against Georgia in 2013. Spector's career high in tackles prior to the 19-tackle performance was 13 against Virginia in 2020. Spector's 19 tackles against NC State were the most by a Clemson player since 2002, when John Leake recorded 21 stops against Maryland.

In late October, Skalski nearly matched Spector's feat, putting up a career-high 18 tackles at Pitt.

-- SPECIAL TEAMS --

SPOTLIGHT ON THE SPECIALISTS

- B.T. Potter, PK: Clemson's cannon-legged 2020 Lou Groza Award semifinalist has been remarkably consistent on both his shortest kicks and his longest kicks throughout his career. He is 164-for-165 on PATs, and his 122 consecutive PATs prior to his first miss shattered Clemson's school record (88 by Mark Buchholz from 2007-08). Potter, who has been one of the nation's foremost touchback specialists throughout his career, is also 5-for-7 on field goal attempts of 50 yards or more during his Clemson tenure, tying Clemson's record for career field goals of 50 yards or more. His lone misses in that range came on attempts of 61 and 58 yards.

- Will Spiers, P: Already a four-year starter at punter entering his "Super Senior" campaign in 2021, Spiers already holds school records for starts by a punter, career punts, punts downed inside the 20 and total punting yards. His 2020 season was his best to date, as his 44.0-yards-per-punt average in 2020 represented the second-best single-season mark in school history. He averaged at least 50.0 yards per punt in three-straight games against Miami, Georgia Tech and Syracuse in 2020, a career-long streak and a Clemson record with a minimum of three punts per game.

- Will Swinney, H: Spiers is not the only four-year starter "Super Senior" among Clemson's special teams corps. The 2021 season will be Swinney's fifth as Clemson's primary holder, as he has held for more placekicks than any player in Clemson history. Since 2017, Clemson has scored 501 points on placekicks, including field goals and PATs. Swinney, a 2020 William V. Campbell Trophy semifinalist, has held for 494 of those 501 points, and including his receiving touchdown vs. Louisville in 2018, he's touched the ball for 500 total points for Clemson in his career. Clemson's only seven kicking points not held by Will Swinney in his career were instead held by his brother, Drew. Clemson's last hold by any player outside the Swinney family was on the final point of Clemson's 2016 national championship following Hunter Renfrow's game-winning touchdown with one second remaining.

- Jack Maddox, LS: Maddox is in his second year as Clemson's starting long snapper after earning the job in the spring of 2020. A native of Acton, Mass., his attention first turned to Clemson after visiting his uncle, who is a professor at the university. He walked on at Clemson, and in August 2020, he was en route to

He became a viral sensation for his 2020 debut against The Citadel once Dabo Swinney, after exaggerating Castner's vitals as "5-foot-3 and 80 pounds... maybe," told the following anecdote about Castner and Clemson's current culture: "I put him out there and gave him a chance to kick one off, and listen, he ain't kicked one deep in the end zone yet since he's been here... So I put the first [team] kickoff out there and said, 'All right, boys, we've got a little wind, I'm putting my man Quinn out there. Y'all know this is coming out and y'all need some dadgum practice...' Potter booms 'em out of the end zone and I wanted them to get a little work, so I got my man Quinn out there, and what does he do? He kicks that sucker four yards deep in the end zone, and the whole team went crazy. They just loved it, and, I mean, that's special."

PLAYERS PER GAME

Announcers, you're going to need a bigger board. In each of the last four seasons, Clemson led all Power Five conference teams in average players per game. The last time Clemson did not lead Power Five teams in that category was in 2016, when Clemson finished second in that category.

2019	Clemson	76.0
2020	Clemson	72.0

Clemson has not only led the nation in that category, but has often lapped the field. In 2019, Clemson played an average of 76.0 players per game, an average that far exceeded all Power Five programs by more than 11 players — a full unit — per game. Clemson's lead in that category in 2020 was more than seven players per game.

The approach to creating functional depth and rewarding players ready to play has been a key philosophy for Head Coach Dabo Swinney, whose own collegiate playing career was hatched as a walk-on fighting for playing time in Alabama's receiving corps.

"We're fully committed to playing guys who deserve to play," Swinney said. "You commit to a guy early in the season, and even if a guy has only played 10 percent of the snaps, when you get to game eight or nine, they've got some good experience."

Clemson played 102 players against South Carolina State in the second game of the 2021 season, its third-most in a game under Dabo Swinney.

YOUTH IS SERVED

In the first year of new redshirt regulations in 2018, Clemson played a then-school-record 20 true freshmen. Clemson immediately shattered that record in its 2019 season opener, with 27 true freshmen making their collegiate debuts in that contest. An additional eight true freshmen made their debuts to push that 2019 total to a school-record 36.

In 2020, Clemson played 27 true freshmen, tied for the most in the country at the end of the regular season. Eighteen first-year freshman have already made their debut for Clemson this season. Coinciding with redshirt rule changes, Clemson's three most recent seasons have resulted in the most game action for first-year freshmen since 1982.

In the season opener against Georgia, Clemson started two true freshmen in the first game of a season for the first time under Dabo Swinney. Marcus Tate earned the nod at left guard, becoming only the third true freshman offensive lineman to start a season opener at Clemson since 1973, joining center James Farr (1980) and tackle Mitch Hyatt (2015). Meanwhile, safety Andrew Mukuba became the first Clemson true freshman to start at defensive back in records back to 1973. It marked only the second time in that span Clemson started two first-year freshmen in a season opener, joining the 1980 opener against Rice.

Only Clemson's plus-467-yard margin in total yards against The Citadel in 1954 and its plus-464-yard margin against Wake Forest in 2000 predate the 2014 season among the Top 10 yardage margins in Clemson annals.

OFFENSIVE BALANCE

Clemson's distribution of talent throughout its offense and its willingness to adapt to how defenses are game planning has resulted in the Tigers fielding one of the nation's more balanced offenses in recent years. In 2018, Clemson set a school record with 3,723 rushing yards. In 2020, Clemson set a school record with 348.5 passing yards per game.

Clemson has exceeded both 200 passing yards and 200 rushing yards in 55 games under Dabo Swinney, posting a perfect record in those contests. Clemson's 21 such games since the start of the 2018 season are among the five most in the country.

Clemson has averaged at least 200 rushing yards and 200 passing yards per game four times in school history, with two of those seasons occurring in the 2018 and 2019 campaigns. Clemson broke the 3,000-yard mark both rushing and passing in both 2018 and 2019, two of three 3,000/3,000 seasons in school history (2015).

A LEGEND RETURNS

Among the lengthy list of moments that have led to Clemson's recent seat among college football's oligarchy, one came at Union County High School in Lake Butler, Fla. on Feb. 1, 2006. It was that day that a five-star running back named C.J. Spiller publicly supported the vision of his recruiter, a young wide receivers coach named Dabo Swinney, by committing to Clemson on National Signing Day.

Spiller spent four years building a sparkling on-field and off-field legacy at Clemson, and now, Clemson has welcomed Spiller back as one of its 10 full-time assistant coaches.

In February, 33-year-old Spiller officially assumed leadership of Clemson's running backs, a role previously held by Tony Elliott, who assumed the title of Assistant Head Coach/Offensive Coordinator/Tight Ends Coach.

"[Spiller] is one of the greatest ambassadors that we've had for our program for a long time and now for him to be able to come back and be able to sow seeds into these young men and teach all the things he's learned throughout his career, there's not a guy on this staff that's more committed and more ALL IN for Clemson than C.J. Spiller, that's for sure," Swinney said.

Spiller joined Clemson's staff on a full-time basis after joining the program as an unpaid coaching intern in 2020 while pursuing his Master's degree in athletic leadership. Prior to entering the coaching ranks, Spiller was one of the most decorated players in Clemson history, earning selection last month for induction in the College Football Hall of Fame Class of 2021.

"It doesn't happen very often that you're able to coach at your alma mater, especially in your first gig, and for me to have that opportunity, I don't take it lightly," Spiller said.

Spiller's historic Clemson playing career covered 2006-09, including a senior campaign in which won ACC Player of the Year and was a unanimous first-team All-American en route to finishing sixth in Heisman Trophy voting. That year, he joined Reggie Bush as the only players in college football history with 3,000 rushing yards, 1,500 yards in kickoff returns, 1,000 receiving yards and 500 yards in punt returns. He became the fourth Clemson graduate among the Tigers' 10 full-time assistant coaches, joining Brandon Streeter (1999), Tony Elliott (2002) and Tyler Grisham (2009).

YARDS PER PLAY

Clemson shattered its school record for yards per play in 2018 at 7.35, the program's first time exceeding seven yards per play in a season. That record stood for barely 12 months until Clemson broke it again in 2019 by averaging 7.38 yards per play. Clemson then averaged 6.69 yards per play in 2020, giving Clemson its top three yards-per-play averages in school history all within the last three years.

MOST YARDS PER PLAY (CLEMSON HISTORY)

Rk	Year	No.
1.	2019	7.38
2.	2018	7.35
3.	2020	6.69
4.	2006	6.50
5.	2015	6.39

In 2018-19, Clemson became only the third school since 2000 to average 7.35 or better yards per play in back-to-back seasons, joining Alabama, which did it across 2018-19, and Oklahoma, which was in the midst of a four-year streak across the 2016-19 seasons.

Collectively, Clemson averaged 7.2 yards per play across the 2018-20 seasons, joining Oklahoma (7.9) and Alabama (7.8) as the only programs to average at least seven yards per play across those three seasons.

650-POINT SEASONS

Before scoring 522 points (tied for second-most in the country) in a pandemic-truncated 2020 season, Clemson scored 659 points in 2019, concluding the season only five points shy of tying the school record of 664 set in 2018.

Clemson remains responsible for two of the 22 650-point seasons in major college football history and two of only 16 since Division I split in 1978. Clemson was the first school with back-to-back 650-point seasons since Yale in 1888-89, predating the start of official NCAA recordkeeping in 1937 and the second year of which was coincidentally the year Clemson was founded.

Clemson emphasizes the importance of turnover margin every week on what it dubs "TANOGA Tuesday," starting for "TakeAways, NO GiveAways."

Here is a breakdown of Clemson's turnover history in games coaches by Dabo Swinney:

CLEMSON TURNOVER HISTORY UNDER DABO SWINNEY

POINTS OFF TURNOVERS

Clemson's offense and defense have both been dominant in possessions following turnovers since the 2018 ACC Championship Game. Since that time, the Tigers hold a 299-76 advantage against opponents in points off turnovers.

Clemson outscored opponents off turnovers, 134-21, in 2019, and its +7.53-point-per-game differential off turnovers ranked third in the country. In 2020, Clemson outscored opponents 114-31 off turnovers, with 21 of the 31 points allowed surrendered directly by the Clemson offense on defensive touchdowns.

Points off turnovers accounted for the difference in each of Clemson's two most recent wins. Clemson won the points-off-turnovers battle, 6-0, in a six-point win against Boston College and then won that margin, 7-0, in a three-point win at Syracuse.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

Clemson has matched its on-field success in recent years with national acclaim for its success in the classroom. Of note:

- Clemson set a program record in APR in the NCAA's most recent national figures released in May 2020, recording a multi-year APR score of 993 for the 2018-19 academic year. The performance marked the third straight year Clemson broke its program record in the metric after breaking its 992 from 2017-18, which had broken its 987 mark from 2016-17.

- Clemson's 993 multi-year APR ranked fourth in the Power Five and fifth among FBS programs, trailing only Washington (999), Ole Miss (997), Northwestern (995) and Air Force (995). That metric covered a four-year span in which Clemson matched its off-field success with on-field accolades that included a 55-4 record, four College Football Playoff appearances and two national championships.

- The NCAA recognized Clemson with its annual APR Public Recognition Award, which is bestowed upon programs ranking in the Top 10 percent of their respective sports. From 2009-10 through 2018-19, only 37 of the 130 FBS programs earned at least one APR recognition since the 2009-10 academic year. Only 30 of them earned it multiple times. Clemson, Duke and Northwestern programs were the only ones to earn the award nine or more times in that 10-year span. Clemson would have earned a 10th APR Public Recognition Award for 2019-20 after recording a perfect 1000 for the term, but the NCAA suspended national APR reporting as a function of the COVID-19 pandemic.

- Prior to the NCAA suspending APR reporting, Clemson was one of only six FBS programs with an active streak of having earned an APR Public Recognition Award in each of the last three academic years, a group that also included Air Force, Boston College, Navy, Northwestern and Washington.

- With its most recent award for the 2018-19 academic year, Clemson was the only FBS program since the NCAA created the APR metric in 2003 to win a national championship and an APR Public Recognition Award in the same year multiple times. Alabama is the only other school to accomplish the title/APR double in a single year once (2011-12 academic year).

Note: The NCAA suspended APR reporting for the most recent academic year during the COVID-19 pandemic, but Clemson internally recorded a perfect 1000 for the 2019-20 year.

5.	2013-14	984

In addition to the APR honors, in November 2019, the AFCA announced that Clemson had repeated as Academic Achievement Award winners, making Clemson the only school in the country to earn the award across both of the 2018-19 seasons. Clemson had earned the award a year earlier as well in the midst of major college football's first 15-0 season since 1897.

TIGERS DOMINATE FALL 2020 SEMESTER

In the face of one of the most abnormal learning environments in the history of the university, Clemson's student-athletes responded to academic adversity impressively last fall. Among Clemson's academic achievements for the Fall 2020 semester were:

- A program-record 74 individuals earned a 3.0 GPA or better, including 11 perfect 4.0s. Among the freshmen, seven of Clemson's eight summer enrollees earned a 3.0 or better in their initial semester on campus, as did three of the four summer preferred walk-ons.

- Seventeen current football student-athletes graduated in December, including Elijah Turner, who earned a second degree by securing a Master's in athletic leadership and graduating with a perfect 4.0 GPA. Twelve different majors were represented by this year's graduates.

- Three players completed their undergraduate degrees in three years (K.J. Henry, Trevor Lawrence and Xavier Thomas) after all enrolled in January 2018. In recent history, the only other scholarship players to graduate from Clemson in this time frame were Christian Wilkins (2.5 years), Deshaun Watson and Artavis Scott (three years).

- Eight of the 17 fall graduates did so with honors, completing their degrees with a cumulative GPA over a 3.0: Matt Bockhorst, Peter Cote, Justin Foster, K.J. Henry, Trevor Lawrence, Darien Rencher, Will Spiers and Elijah Turner.

- Clemson entered 2020 bowl season with 23 graduates on the roster. Included in this number were double graduates Nyles Pinckney (Sociology and Criminal Justice) and Elijah Turner (Communication and Athletic Leadership).

ALL EYES ON CLEMSON

"Where the Blue Ridge yawns its greatness, where the Tigers play..."

Those are the opening words to Clemson's alma mater. In recent years, "where the Tigers play" has also been where eyes and television sets inevitably turn.

Over the previous three seasons, Clemson games accounted for the four most-watched college football games and five of the 10 most-watched games since 2018.

Clemson once again drew the nation's attention in its 2021 season opener. Via ESPN PR: "The top-five faceoff between Georgia and Clemson averaged 8,863,000 viewers, making the matchup the second-most-viewed Kickoff Saturday game in the past 20 years (Florida State vs. Alabama, 2017). The contest ranked in the top five regular season college football games on ABC the past five years."

The interest in watching Clemson play hasn't been limited to television broadcasts. Clemson continues to provide one of the marquee in-venue experiences in all of sports, as Clemson entered 2021 having been ranked in the Top 20 in the nation average home attendance at Memorial Stadium for 40 straight seasons. Clemson finished third nationally in cumulative total attendance in 2020.

LOUD AND PROUD DEATH VALLEY CROWD

Clemson played its first home prime-time game of the season on Oct. 2, hosting Boston College for a 7:30 p.m. game at Death Valley. Clemson's announced crowd of 79,159 people made its impact in a 19-13 win, helping force five false starts by the Eagles.

It marked the fifth time since 2014 that opponents have false started five or more times in Death Valley. It was the most by an FBS opponent in Memorial Stadium since NC State was called for six false starts in a memorable overtime thriller in 2016.

**Note: For listing purposes, Clemson chose to progress classes as though 2020 was a normal year of eligibility. For example, players listed as redshirt freshmen in 2021 did not officially redshirt in 2020, but would have qualified for one in a normal year. Clemson will denote extra years of eligibility on the back end of players' careers (i.e.: "Super Seniors" in 2021 are listed with the "+Sr." designation).

GAME RECAPS

GAME 1	GEORGIA	10
	CLEMSON	3
	SEPT. 4, 2021 BANK OF AMERICA STADIUM • CHARLOTTE, N.C.

CHARLOTTE, N.C. – No. 3 Clemson and No. 5 Georgia played only the fourth season opener between two AP Top 5 teams since 2000, as Georgia won a defensive slugfest with the Tigers, 10-3, at Bank of America Stadium in Charlotte.

James Skalski finished with a game-high 14 tackles as the Clemson held Georgia's offense to just three points. The lone touchdown of the contest came in the second quarter, when quarterback DJ Uiagalelei threw his first career interception to snap his interception-free streak of 128 consecutive passes, which Georgia's Christopher Smith returned 74 yards for a touchdown.

Clemson's stout defense allowed only 256 total yards. The 10 points surrendered also marked the eighth time in history that Clemson held an AP Top 5 opponent to 10 or fewer points. It was Clemson's first loss when holding an opponent fewer than 23 points since 2010.

Clemson was led offensively by wide receiver Joseph Ngata, who finished the game with six catches for 110 yards, and quarterback DJ Uiagalelei, who was 19-for-37 with 178 yards passing. Ngata recorded his first career 100-yard game.

Clemson was hampered offensively by a 7-1 deficit in sacks. The Tigers ultimately got the board with 9:08 left in the fourth quarter on a 22-yard field goal from B.T. Potter.

True freshman guard Marcus Tate and true freshman safety Andrew Mukuba both started, marking only the second time since 1973 that Clemson has had two true freshmen start a season opener (tight end Jeff Wells and center James Farr in 1980).

The loss concluded Clemson's streak of 127 consecutive games since losing back-to-back contests, the longest such streak in ACC history.

CLEMSON, S.C. – Five different Tigers found the end zone and Clemson amassed 262 passing and 242 rushing yards, as the sixth-ranked Tigers downed SC State, 49-3. A stadium full of 78,609 fans gathered to celebrate Clemson's first home contest of the season, as well as tributes to 9/11 first responders and C.J. Spiller's College Football Hall of Fame induction.

DJ Uiagalelei finished the day 14-for-24 for 171 yards and a touchdown while also scampering for 23 yards and two touchdowns on five carries. Will Shipley led the Tigers' ground game, carrying the ball 80 yards on eight carries for two touchdowns. Thirteen different players caught a pass, led by Justyn Ross, who scored his first touchdown since the 2019 ACC Championship Game vs. Virginia prior to missing the 2020 season.

Clemson's defense held SC State to 235 total yards of offense and held an opponent without an offensive touchdown for the second-straight game. Ruke Orhoro and Jeremiah Trotter, Jr. tied for the team lead in tackles with five each, while Trotter led the team in solo tackles with four. Clemson tallied one sack on the day but combined for 10 tackles for loss.

The bulk of the Tigers' offense came in the first quarter, when Clemson put up 28 consecutive points in the opening frame. The Tigers jumped out to a 35-0 lead with just under 7:00 left in the second quarter, before the Bulldogs got on the board just before half with a 27-yard field goal.

GAME 3	GEORGIA TECH	8
	CLEMSON	14
	SEPT. 18, 2021 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. – Clemson freshman running back Will Shipley scored two touchdowns as No. 6 Clemson Tigers used a late defensive stand to hold on for a 14-8 victory over Georgia Tech. The victory was the Tigers' 30th consecutive home victory, the 24th home winning streak of 30 or more games in FBS history.

The game saw a one hour and 52 minute lightning delay with 0:32 to play in the first half, spanning 5:03 p.m. to 6:55 p.m., including an observed halftime.

After Shipley's first touchdown in the first quarter, Georgia Tech kept the Tigers close throughout, getting on the board first with a field goal after the lightning delay. The Jackets scored all eight of their points after the delay, and recovered an onside kick with 1:19 to play in the game and the Tigers ahead by eight. However, the Clemson defense held as the Yellow Jackets were stopped on fourth-and-goal at the two-yard line, marking a third straight game for Clemson without surrendering a touchdown on defense.

The Yellow Jackets added two final points on a safety with 0:07 seconds to play in the contest.

Shipley scored the lone touchdown in the first half on a three-yard run that capped an eight-play 39-yard drive, and his second touchdown came in the fourth quarter on another three-yard run that capped a 14-play 66-yard drive.

Brent Cimaglia would make two field goals of 22 yards for Georgia Tech.

With his two rushing touchdowns in the game, Shipley became the first Clemson player to rush for multiple touchdowns in consecutive games as a true freshman since Travis Etienne in 2017. He finished the night with 21 carries for 88 yards and two touchdowns.

GAME 4	CLEMSON	21
	NC STATE	(2OT) 27
	SEPT. 25, 2021 CARTER-FINLEY STADIUM • RALEIGH, N.C.

RALEIGH, N.C. – No. 9 Clemson fell, 27-21, to NC State in double overtime. Clemson mounted a late touchdown drive to force overtime and led briefly in the extra session before NC State halted the Tigers on 4th-and-5 in double overtime after a touchdown.

DJ Uiagalelei started the scoring for the Tigers with a 32-yard strike to Justyn Ross, who leaped and toe-tapped in the back of the end zone. The Wolfpack answered two drives later when Devin Leary hit Emeka Emezie on a 17-yard score. Both teams remained scoreless until midway through the third quarter, when Leary hit Devin Carter to give the Wolfpack a 14-7 lead with 9:19 to play.

The Tigers answered with 10:52 to play in the fourth quarter, when Will Shipley took a handoff five yards on tie the game at 14-14. NC State kicker Christopher Dunn missed a potential game-winning 39-yard field goal wide left as time expired in regulation.

Clemson scored first in the extra session when Uiagalelei connected with Ross on a 9-yard post route. The Wolfpack answered on the ensuing possession when Leary connected with Thayer Thomas for a 2-yard touchdown.

NC State then notched the eventual game-winner when Leary and Carter connected for a 22-yard strike in the back corner of the end zone before an NC State stop on the ensuing Clemson possession.

Baylon Spector led the Tigers defense with 19 tackles, surpassing Spencer Shuey's 18 tackles against Georgia in 2013 for the most by a Clemson player in a single game under Dabo Swinney. Andrew Mukuba and R.J. Mickens also had double-digit tackles; both players had 10 stops.

GAME 5	BOSTON COLLEGE	13
	CLEMSON	19
	OCT. 2, 2021 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. – Placekicker B.T. Potter accounted for 13 points, hitting all four of his field goal attempts and adding an extra point to help No. 25 Clemson hold on to a 19-13 win over Boston College.

Defensively, the Tigers tallied nine tackles for loss, four sacks and forced three turnovers, including K.J. Henry pouncing on a fumble with 49 seconds remaining deep in Clemson territory to secure the win.

Running back Kobe Pace got the Tigers on the board first with a 59-yard touchdown run in the first quarter, part of his career-high 125 rushing yards and 210 all-purpose yards.

The rest of Clemson's scoring came from Potter, who made field goals of 18, 35, 40 and 42 yards to tie his career high of four field goals set in 2020 at Notre Dame.

The Tigers held a 13-6 halftime lead after Boston College scored on two field goals by Connor Lytton. The Eagles would score their lone touchdown of the game on a 3-yard run by Patrick Garwo on their opening drive of the second half to tie up the game, the first rushing touchdown surrendered by Clemson in 2021.

The last two of Potter's four field goals gave Clemson a 19-13 lead with a little more than four minutes to play. The Tigers stopped Boston College with 2:14 to play on fourth down, but went three-and-out on the ensuing possession. The Eagles then drove deep into Clemson territory. On 2nd-and-10 from the 11-yard line, a wild snap got past Boston College quarterback Dennis Grosel. Henry fell on the loose ball to give possession back to Clemson and all but end the contest and give Clemson the homecoming victory.

GAME 6	CLEMSON	17
	SYRACUSE	14
	OCT. 15, 2021 CARRIER DOME • SYRACUSE, N.Y.

SYRACUSE, N.Y. – B.T. Potter's 40-yard field goal with 9:22 remaining proved to be the difference, as Clemson held on to defeat Syracuse, 17-14. Syracuse placekicker Andre Szmyt's 47-yard game-tying field goal attempt sailed left with 38 seconds to play, allowing the Tigers to seal the victory.

Clemson controlled the clock offensively, tallying 32:59 of possession. Kobe Pace tallied 76 yards and a touchdown on 14 carries, and quarterback DJ Uiagalelei was 21-of-34 for 181 yards and a score through the air, and added 26 yards on the ground.

Defensively, Clemson forced four three-and-outs, piled up six tackles for loss, broke up eight passes and tallied two sacks. Cornerback Mario Goodrich recorded four pass breakups, one shy of the school record.

Joseph Ngata capped a 12-play 87-yard drive with 1:03 to play in the first quarter, as he hauled in an acrobatic catch in the end zone. Syracuse answered on the next drive with a 91-yard drive to tie the score at 7-7.

After trading punts, Clemson took over with 2:06 to play in the half on its own 32-yard line. The Clemson drive appeared to stall out before punter Will Spiers hit Davis Allen for 17 yards on 4th-and-5. Uiagalelei hit Justyn Ross over the middle to bring the Tigers to the two-yard line, when Pace punched it in with just nine seconds to play in the half.

Following Potter's 40-yard fourth-quarter field goal, the Orange's Trebor Pena scored with 7:18 to play in the game on a 62-yard pass from Garrett Shrader to cut the Tigers' lead to 17-14. After a Syracuse stop, the Orange went on a 14-play, 63-yard drive to get into field goal range, but Szmyt's attempt missed left and gave the Tigers the ball to run out the final 38 seconds.

CLEMSON 17

PITTSBURGH 27

OCT. 23, 2021
HEINZ FIELD • PITTSBURGH, PA.

PITTSBURGH – The Tiger defense held No. 23 Pitt 21 points below its season scoring average, but Clemson fell on the road at No. 23 Pittsburgh, 27-17. The game marked Clemson's first road game at Pitt in series history and represented Clemson's first set of back-to-back games north of the Mason-Dixon Line since 1952.

The Tigers started quickly, with Phil Mafah capping an eight-play, 80-yard drive with a touchdown in the first quarter. Kenny Pickett threw two touchdowns in the final 3:18 of the first half — one each to Jordan Addison and Taysir Mack — to give Pitt a 14-7 halftime lead.

The Panthers added to the lead early in the second half when SirVocea Dennis picked off a DJ Uiagalelei shovel pass and took it back 50 yards to put the Panthers ahead, 21-7.

In the third quarter, B.T. Potter added three points for Clemson on a drive led by quarterback Taisun Phommachanh, as Potter hit a 42-yard field goal to cut the Panthers' lead to 21-10. Pitt would add field goals of 44 and 34 yards to extend the lead to 27-10.

Upon reentering the game for Phommachanh, Uiagalelei recorded his third rushing touchdown of the season on a six-yard run that capped a five-play, 72-yard drive. However, upon receiving the ensuing kickoff, Pitt ran off the remaining 7:56 with a 15-play, 49-yard clock-killing drive to end the game and give the Panthers the win.

Linebacker James Skalski led the Tigers defensively with a career-high 18 tackles.
