» Terrier Tales

- Wofford has won back-to-back games for the first time this season after defeating Appalachian State 78-65. It was also Wofford's first road victory of the season and snapped a streak of 16-straight losses to App State, last winning in 2007.
- Jackie Carman has at least tied for the team lead in scoring in four-straight contests: 19 points vs. High Point, 13 points at Coastal Carolina, 18 points vs. Brevard and 26 points at App State. She earned SoCon player of the week (Dec. 7-13) honors.
- Carman became the first Terrier to score 20+ points this season with her career-best 26-point performance against the Mountaineers.
- Wofford is 3-2 when Carman leads in scoring, 1-4 when she doesn't. The Terriers are scoring 71.2 PPG and shooting 38.1% overall, 38.3% from three when she leads, but are only scoring 62.6 PPG and shooting 36.3% overall, 29.0% from three when she doesn't.
- A few Terriers are among SoCon leaders: Alexis Tomlin sits at fourth in rebounding (8.1 RPG); Reagan Rapert is first in free throw percentage (92.9%) and eighth in assists (2.3 APG); Jackie Carman is ninth in scoring (11.9 PPG).
- Wofford is thriving beyond the arc, leading the SoCon shooting 33.8% from three. The Terriers lead the league with 7.5 triples per game. Jackie Carman is third in the league with 2.0 threes per game.
- Wofford ranks first in the SoCon in multiple categories: scoring offense (66.9 PPG), scoring margin (+3.7), assist/turnover ratio (0.8) and defensive rebounds (11.9 DRPG). The Terriers also rank second in a few marks: free throw percentage (75.2%), rebounding (39.0 RPG) and assists (tied, 12.8 APG).
- It has been a tale of two halves for Wofford this season. Though holding a scoring advantage in the first half, 351-296 (35.1 PPG-29.6 PPG), the Terriers are being outscored 336-318 (33.6 PPG-31.8 PPG) in the second half.
- The Terriers are 0-24 all-time against the ACC, 0-8 versus Clemson. Wofford is 1-44 against Power Five opponents, the lone win coming on Dec. 17, 2012 at Alabama (58-52). The Tigers will be Wofford's second ACC foe (at # 5 NC State - L, 57-90) and third Power Five tilt (vs. Florida - L, 47-61) this season.

Jimmy Garrity enters his sixth season as the head coach of the Wofford women's basketball program in 2021-22. Garrity was named head coach on April 25, 2016. In his five seasons at the helm, he has seen players earn eight All-Southern Conference honors, five All-Freshman Team honors, a pair of All-Defensive Team selections and a SoCon Freshman of the Year. Last season he led the team to the first-ever Southern Conference Tournament Championship game in school history while putting together the third straight season with a .500 or better record.

During the 2020-21 season, the team was 13-11 overall and 7-7 in Southern Conference play. Highlights included a home win over Furman and a series sweep of East Tennessee State. Following the regular season, Lilly Hatton was named to the All-SoCon Second Team by both the coaches and media, while Jamari McDavid was named to the All-SoCon Third Team by the media and was the recipient of the Ann Lashley Inspiration Award. Among SoCon teams, the Terriers were ranked first in rebounding margin (+3.8), fourth in scoring offense (62.5 ppg) and third in scoring defense (61.3 ppg).

In the Southern Conference Tournament, the team entered as the No. 4 seed. After a 78-66 win over No. 5 seed UNCG, the Terriers earned a 75-64 victory against No. 8 seed East Tennessee State in the semifinals. With the Terriers in the championship game for the first time in school history, Wofford was defeated by No. 2 seed Mercer. Lilly Hatton and Helen Matthews were named to the All-Tournament Team.

The 2019-2020 season saw the team finish with its best conference record in program history (8-6). They started the season with a last second loss against Auburn, but that showed promise for the year. The Terriers won convincingly against Mercer on 1/11/20 for the first time since 1997. Wofford recorded their first road conference win against ETSU, which started a four-game win streak. Another history marker was when the squad won its first ever game at Samford, defeating them 69-63. By the end of the year, Lilly Hatton was honored as Freshman of the Year, along with Chloe Wanink, Da'Ja Green, and Cairo Booker receiving All-Conference accolades as well.

The 2018-19 season marked the turning point for Wofford women's basketball, as Garrity led the team to their first winning season since the 2001-02 campaign with a 16-15 overall record and 7-7 SoCon mark in his third year at the helm. They earned their highest SoCon tournament seed since 2002 as a No. 5 seed, while Garrity earned his first SoCon tournament win in the quarterfinals with a upset victory over No. 4 seed ETSU, 75-66. The win marked the first playoff win since the 2011-12 season and first semifinals appearance since 2002. Garrity led the team to the program's second best home record (12-1) while also landing a program-best five Terriers on all-conference teams: Chloe Wanink (First Team), Da'Ja Green (Second/Third Team), Cairo Booker (Third/All-Defensive Team), Niyah Lutz and Jackie Carman (All-Freshman Team). Additionally, the team led the SoCon in scoring offense (72.8 ppg), 3-point field goal percentage (.350), and turnover margin (+4.48), while becoming the highest scoring team (2,258 pts - 857 made field goals) and best 3-point shooting team (35.0% - 180 made threes) in program history.

Garrity led the Terriers to a 10-20 record in 2017-18. After losing star guard Chloe Wanink to a season-ending knee injury seven games into the season, Garrity lead a group of young players through the transition from high school to college ball. Despite a record of 10-20 and 3-11 in the conference, the Terriers played numerous close games and picked up just the program's eighth win all-time against Furman in a dominant 79-48 victory over the Paladins. Freshman guard Da'Ja Green was named Second-Team All Conference and joined her teammate and fellow freshman Jamari McDavid on the All-Freshman team.

In Garrity's first season at the helm he led the Terriers to a 13-17 record overall and helped Wofford win six games away from Spartanburg, a vast improvement from the 2015-16 season when the Terriers won just one game on the road. Chloe Wanink was named All-Southern Conference Second Team as she averaged 16 points and 5.8 rebounds per game.

In the three years prior to his arrival at Wofford, Garrity served as head coach at Anderson University. From 2013-15, Anderson reached the NCAA Division II Tournament twice as an at-large selection and in 2015 advanced to the Sweet Sixteen. At Anderson, Garrity coached two South Atlantic Conference Players of the Year.

In 2015-16, the Trojans were 23-7 overall, including a 79-55 win over Clemson to open the year. They were the South Atlantic Conference regular season champions with an 18-4 record and were nationally ranked in the top 25. The squad was an at-large selection to the NCAA Tournament. As the No. 5 seed, they advanced to the second round after a win over No. 4 seed Clayton State. Senior forward Jennifer Monroe was named the SAC Player of the Year and first team All-Southeast Region. Junior guard Heather Jankowy earned SAC second team honors.

Stringing together one of the program's best seasons in 2014-15, Garrity was tabbed South Atlantic Conference Coach of the Year. Garrity led the Trojans to a 27-5 overall record and a berth into the NCAA Tournament Sweet 16. Prior to the postseason run, Garrity became the first coach in conference history to win 20 league games, finishing the season with a 20-2 SAC record and a regular-season championship. Garrity also saw point guard Sierra Simpson earn SAC Player of the Year and SAC first team honors.

In his first season at Anderson in 2013-14, Garrity led the Trojans to a 16-14 overall record and an 11-11 mark in SAC play. Anderson placed three players on all-conference teams, including Simpson's All-SAC second team honor and Alexis Dillard's all-freshman team spot.

Garrity spent the 2012-13 season at Clemson University as the women's basketball assistant coach. With the Tigers, Garrity was in charge of scouting, practice planning, game scheduling, coordinating of the guards, community service and alumni relations. Garrity also monitored the academic success of the student-athletes.

Before his time at Clemson, Garrity spent a decade in various capacities with the UNC Wilmington basketball program. He was hired as the Director of Basketball Operations in 2002 for both the men's and women's basketball teams. Once the position split into two different roles, Garrity took over just the women's side while also becoming an assistant coach in 2007. Continuing his tenure with UNCW, Garrity was promoted to the associate head coach role in 2011 and coached his team to the second round of the WNIT.

Garrity graduated from Elon in 1989 with a degree in business administration and marketing and later earned a Master's in sports administration from St. Thomas University in Miami, Fla. in 1990.

Garrity is married to Jenny Garrity, who served as UNCW's women's tennis coach for 13 seasons. The couple have two daughters Kacey and Carly, and a son Corey.
