CLEMSON SEASON NOTES 2020-2021

Clemson Women's Golf Review 2021

Kelley Hester's women's golf team was a young squad in 2021. Despite the youth, the team posted a 60-33 record in head-to-head competition in stroke play events, had a run of four consecutive fourth-place finishes in national tournaments and reached the NCAA Columbus (Ohio) Regional.

Like the men, the ACC did not allow the women to compete in any fall tournaments. But, that did not stop Hester's team from recording some outstanding performances against a national schedule that included 40 Power Five Conference teams.

Clemson finished fourth at the Palmetto Intercollegiate at Kiawah Island on Feb. 22, the first of four consecutive fourth-place finishes. Ivy Shepherd had a sixth place finish at Turtle Point, while Alexandra Swayne finished ninth.

Annabelle Pancake, a freshman who came to Clemson from the famous Crooked Stick Golf Club in Indiana, recorded her first career top 10 at the Florida State Matchup, leading Clemson to a fourth-place out of 14 teams.

Pancake topped that performance at the Clover Cup by shooting a final round seven-under 65 to tie the Clemson single round record. She had a season team best eight birdies, including four consecutive on holes 6-9, which led to a front nine score of 30 to tie the Clemson nine-hole record. She went on to a ninth-place finish with a 213 score.

Shepherd led the way at the Clover Club, which was played in Mesa, Arizona at Longbow Golf Club. The junior All-ACC performer had a score of seven-under 209 to finish third overall.

The depth of the Clemson team was demonstrated at the Clemson Invitational where Savannah Grewal was Clemson's top player, the third different Clemson player in a row to lead the team at a 54-hole event. Grewal finished in third place, her top finish as Tiger, with a score of five-under-par 211.

Grewal's performance included the first hole-in-one in competition by a Clemson women's golfer. She made the ace in the second round on the fourth hole at The Reserve Golf Club in Sunset, SC. The hole played 166 yards and she used an eight-iron to record Clemson history. That led to a second round 67 for the sophomore, her career best round.

Clemson finished sixth at the ACC Tournament in Greensboro at Sedgefield County Club, the home of the PGA Tour's Wyndham Classic. This year's ACC Championship included a record eight NCAA Tournament teams. Grewal and Shepherd both led Clemson with 16th place finishes at three-over-par.

The season concluded with a 10th place finish at the NCAA Regional at the famed Scarlet Course at The Ohio State University. Shepherd led Clemson with a 22nd place finish, while Swayne also had a top 25 with a 223 score.

Clemson finished the season with a #33 ranking by Golfweek, and #35 by Golfstat. Shepherd had the top individual ranking on the team, #61 by Golfweek and #64 by Golfstat. She led the team in stroke average at 72.95. Grewal was ranked #108 in the nation by Golfweek, and finished with a 73.76 stroke average for the year.

Swayne Finishes Sixth Among Amateurs at U.S. Open

Alexandra Swayne finished sixth among amateurs and fourth among active college players at the 2021 U.S. Women's Open at The Olympic Club. Swayne missed the cut by four shots with a score of 152 for the first 36 holes, but was tied for sixth out of 31 amateurs. Maga Ganne, a high school golfer from New Jersey, was the top amateur after two rounds with a 138 score, just two shots off the lead.

The only college players ahead of Swayne after 36 holes were Maja Stark of Oklahoma State (141), Gurleen Kauer of Baylor (144) and Rachel Heck of Stanford (147).

Not only did Swayne finish tied for sixth among amateurs, she finished ahead of 34 professionals, including LPGA stars Cheyenne Woods, Nelly Korda, Charley Hull, Michelle Wie West, and Sung Hyun Park. Wie West and Park are past Major Champions on the LPGA Tour.

Swayne had seven bogeys and a birdie in her first round on Thursday when she shot a 77. A highlight took place when she chipped in from 10 yards off the green for par on the 18th hole. The highlight was shown on The Golf Channel.

The Clemson golfer with dual citizenship in the Virgin Islands and the United States (Ohio), had a four-over-par 75 on Friday with six bogeys and two birdies. She made birdie on the first and second holes in that round. For the 36 holes she hit 13-28 fairways and 19 of 36 greens.

It was an amazing week for the Tiger golfer with dual citizenship in The Virgin Islands and the United States (Ohio). First, during a practice round when she was paired with LPGA star Lexi Thompson, Swayne made a hole-in-one, the fourth of her life. But, none have come on a bigger stage.

Swayne had qualified for the US Open with scores of 69-72 for a 141 total at the qualifier at Druid Hills Country Club in Atlanta. She was second in the qualifying at that site.

Swayne and Schuster Compete in US Amateur

Clemson women's golfers Alexandra Swayne and Katherine Schuster competed in the United States Women's Amateur at West Chester Country Club in Rye, NY over the last two days. Both did not qualify for the 64-player match play tournament that will determine the champion.

Swayne finished in a tie for 63rd in the 36-hole stroke play qualifier, which entered her into a 12-player playoff for the last two spots in the match play field. She made a bogey on the first playoff hole and was eliminated.

Swayne had a four-over-par 76 on Monday, then improved to a two-over-par 74 on Tuesday. She had an even-par 36 on the front nine, then scored a 38 on the back nine.

Swayne is the first Clemson women's golfer to compete in the US Woman's Open and the United States Amateur in the same year.

Schuster, who comes to Clemson from Outer Banks, NC, will begin her Clemson career this fall. She had an opening round 80, then improved to a 74 on Tuesday to finish with a 154 total score, good enough for 100th place in the 156-player field.

Hester Adds Two South Carolina State Champions

South Carolina State Champions Isabella Rawl and

Sydney Roberts signed national letters of intent with the Clemson women's golf program in November of 2021.

Rawl won the 5A State Championship and was the Region Player of the Year for Lexington High School, while Roberts took the 3A State Championship, one of her seven individual victories this year.

Rawl is a two-time 5A State Champion, as she also won the tournament as a freshman. She posted 11 tournament wins in her career and finished with a 70.8 career scoring average. She also had a top 5 finish at the Beth Daniel Junior Azalea and a third place at the High School Golf National Invitational this year.

As a junior, Rawl won the Beth Daniel Junior Azalea, finished second at the CGA Vicki Disantis Championship and third at the WSCGA State Amateur. Nationally, she had a top 10 at the AJGA Girls Championship and finished sixth at the AJGA Junior at Oldfield. Rawl sat out her sophomore year due to injury. As a freshman she was the 5A Player of the Year.

Her Lexington High School team won the 5A State Championship in her freshman and junior seasons and finished fourth her senior year.

Roberts's Chesnee High School team won the 3A State Championship this past season and was the state runner-up her junior and sophomore seasons.

She was named the 3A Player of the Year and the Region Player of the Year this past season. A first-team all-state selection, Roberts won seven high school tournaments her senior year and 17 tournaments in her career. She posted a stroke average of 69.1 as a senior and had a low round of 62, also a school record. This past summer she finished tied for 29th in stroke play at the US Junior Girls Championship and advanced to match play.

As a high school junior Roberts won five tournaments and finished second at the 3A State Championship. She was named the Upstate Golfer of the Year and the South Carolina 2A Player of the Year. Overall, she finished in the top four at the State 3A Tournament all four years of her high school career.

Grewal and Pancake Named to Academic All-ACC Team

Savannah Grewal and Annabelle Pancake were both been named to the 2021 ACC Academic All-ACC Women's Golf team. Both were named to the team for the first time.

Grewal ranked second on the Clemson team in stroke average this year with a 73.76 figure. She had a strong finish to her season with a third place at the Clemson Invitational and a 16th place at the ACC Championship. She was Clemson's top player at the Clemson Invitational and tied for the best among Tigers at the league tournament.

Grewal's five-under par 211 at the Clemson Invitational included the first hole-in-one in Clemson women's golf history. The native of Ontario, Canada had the best score of the round among Tiger golfers eight times and her score counted in 20-21 team rounds.

Pancake was third on the Clemson team on stroke average this year with a 75.19 figure. The native of Zionsville, Indiana had a pair of top 10 finishes this year to tie for the team lead and led the team in birdies with 68.

A highlight of Pancake's freshman year took place at the Clover Cup in Mesa, Arizona where she finished ninth thanks to a final round 65, a score that tied for the best in Clemson women's golf history.

Pancake Wins Indiana Women's Amateur Championship

Annabelle Pancake, who will be a sophomore on the Clemson women's golf team in the fall, won the 2021 Indiana Women's Amateur Championship at Prairie View Golf Club in Carmel, Ind.

The native of Zionsville, Ind. had rounds of 65-66-69 for a 200 total for the 54 holes and set numerous tournament records in the process. She won by 14 shots over Haylin Harris of Carmel, Ind. and that victory margin is a tournament record. Pancake also established records for 54-hole score, low score for the first 36 holes of the tournament and for score vs. par for 54 holes.

Pancake had 21 birdies and an eagle, 11 more under-par holes than anyone else in the field. She won the 2019 tournament held at Kokomo Country Club. Her mother, Libby, won the Indiana Women's Amateur in 1985.

Pancake was a starter in every tournament for Clemson as a freshman this past year and helped Kelley Hester's team to the NCAA Tournament. Among her freshman highlights was a round of 65 in the final round of the Clover Cup in Mesa, Arizona on March 14. She finished ninth at that national tournament and the 65 tied the Clemson record for low score in a round.

Grewal Finishes Third at The Spirit International

Clemson junior Savannah Grewal fired a final round 71 and finished in third place individually at The Spirit, an international amateur tournament at Whispering Pines Golf Club in Trinity, Texas.

The one-of-a-kind amateur event features four person teams from 20 different countries. Each team had two men and two women. Grewal, a native of Ontario, Canada, competed for the Canadian team.

Grewal had rounds of 71-69-71 for a five-under-par score of 211. Her consistency was a big part of her success as she had just three bogeys in her 54 holes and at one time had a streak of 36 consecutive holes without a bogey. Grewal had 42 pars among her 54 holes to lead the field of 40 players, ranked second in par three scoring average at 2.83 and third in par four scoring average at 3.93.

Rose Zhang of the USA, the 2020 US Women's Amateur Champion who is a senior in high school, won the tournament with a 206 score. Isabella Fierro of Mexico and Oklahoma State, finished second at 209. Grewal and Zhang were the only golfers in the tournament to score under par in all three rounds.

Grewal helped the Canadian team to a second-place finish in the team competition with a 641 score. The United States won the team aspect with a 620 score.

Former Clemson All-American Alice Hewson finished fifth at the 2020 qualifying tournament for the Ladies European Tour (LET), and earned her tour card for the 2020 season. Hewson shot a final round 69 at the tournament held in Spain and finished fifth out of 120 players. Her fifth-place finish placed her in the highest category of classification for the tour that will began in February in New South Wales Australia.

It didn't take Hewson long to establish herself on the LET as she won the first event of her career at the South African Women's Open. She finished 11th on tour in the points race with the win and a pair of top 25 finishes. She then finished 10th on tour in 2021 with five top 10 finishes and nine top 25s in 21 events.

Hewson played for the Tigers from 2015-19 and is regarded as the top player in the program's short history. She is the owner of over 40 Clemson records, including career stroke average (72.58), birdies (378), rounds in the 60s (21) and under-par rounds (46). Hewson was a third team All-American in 2017, an honorable mention All-American in 2018 and four-time All-ACC selection was a twotime All-ACC and Academic All-ACC player. She led Clemson to its first NCAA National Tournament appearance and top 20 final ranking in 2017.

She was also the first Clemson golfer to play in the Augusta National Women's Amateur in April of 2019.
