QUICK HITS

- Clemson has outscored opponents this season 27-4.
- Last weekend, Clemson played 23 innings after run-ruling opponents in three games - two during the fifth inning and one in the sixth.
- Sophomores Regan Spencer and Millie Thompson threw Clemson's first combined no-hitter last weekend against Kent State, a five-inning run-rule victory.

THE NATIONALLY RANKED TIGERS

- Clemson is ranked as high as No. 12 in the nation by ESPN/USA Softball.
- The Tigers are ranked No. 15 on the USA Today/NFCA poll for the second week in a row.
- D1Softball.com has the Tigers at No. 13, and Softball America has Clemson ranked No. 14.
- Last season, Clemson climbed as high as No. 10 by ESPN/USA Softball and finished No. 17 last season.

WEEKEND CONNECTIONS

- Clemson faces nationally ranked Washington for the first time in program history.
- This isn't the first time head coach John Rittman has seen the Huskies though, after helping build the program from 1993-1996 while serving as an assistant coach.
- Rittman also faced the Huskies on a yearly basis while being the head coach at Stanford.
- The Clemson program and Washington's head coach Heather Tarr also have USA Softball connections, as Tarr serves as the head coach of the US National Team.
- Rittman served as an assistant with the USWNT from 2001-08 and 2016-18. Associate head coach Kyle Jamieson was on staff with USA Softball in 2017.

NEWCOMERS IN THE LINEUP

- In Clemson's opening weekend, the Tigers had four newcomers appear in the starting lineup, including two that started every game: freshman Maddie Moore and graduate transfer Sam Russ.
- Russ served as Clemson's leadoff batter and left fielder while Moore started at third for three games and shortstop for one.
- Freshmen Brooke McCubbin and Aby Vieira also made appearances in the lineup.
- McCubbin pitched 7.0 innings with six strikeouts over the weekend, and also served as the starting designated player vs. Texas.
- Vieira started behind the plate against Kent State and LIU. She caught Regan Spencer and Millie Thompson's combined no-hitter.

CAGLE CALLS GAME

- Redshirt sophomore Valerie Cagle has been the driving force behind Clemson softball.
- Last season, Cagle became the first softball player in ACC history to be named both the Player and Freshman of the Year.
- She was named a NFCA Second Team All-American, a NFCA National Freshman of the Year Top-3 finalist and a USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Top 10 Finalist last season.
- Prior to 2022, Cagle was named a Preseason First Team All-American by D1Softball and Softball America.
- During opening weekend, Cagle posted a team-high .538 average and 1.077 slugging percentage and .571 on-base percentage.
- Cagle recorded seven hits, including one double and two home runs. She brought in eight RBIs and scored three runs.
- Cagle's most memorable hit from opening weekend was her walk-off two-run homer in the bottom of the sixth inning against LIU to cap the Tiger's eight-run inning.
- To start the 2022 season, Cagle also pitched 7.0 innings with eight strikeouts in two games.

PITCHERS - PLAYER BREAKDOWN

- Clemson returns an all-star pitching staff to the 2022 roster, led by Cagle, Thompson, Spencer and Emma Whitfield.
- Between Cagle, Thompson and Spencer, they accounted for 43 wins from the circle last year and accounted for 14 shutouts.
- The four returners accounted for 365 of Clemson's 369 strikeouts last season.
- The Tigers added additional depth to the pitching staff signing Rachel Gibson, Brooke McCubbin and Haylee Whitesides.
- In 2022, Clemson holds a 1.27 ERA in the circle with McCubbin, Spencer and Thompson all maintaining a 0.00 ERA through a minimum of 3.0 innings.

CATCHERS - PLAYER BREAKDOWN

- Clemson returns four players listed as catchers/utility players from the 2021 roster including JoJo Hyatt, Abi Stuart, Grace Mattimore and Sarah Howell.
- Hyatt served as the primary catcher, starting in 50 games and batted .223. Stuart and Mattimore appeared in a combined 76 games and averaged .259 and .253, respectively.
- The Tigers added an additional catcher in freshman Aby Vieira from Mission Viejo, Calif.
- In 2022, Hyatt and Vieira have split time behind the plate with Hyatt serving as the starting catcher primarily for Cagle. Vieira has been in rotation as the starter for Spencer and Thompson.

INFIELDERS - PLAYER BREAKDOWN

- The Tigers have seven infielders that returned for 2022, led by Alia Logoleo and Cammy Pereira.
- In 2022, Pereira has been the starting second baseman, and Logoleo has started three games at shortstop and one at third base. The two bring a multitude of experience up the middle of the field for the Tigers.
- Last season, Logoleo and Pereira appeared in 45 games each and averaged .265 and .295, respectively.
- Other returners include: Kyah Keller, Bailey Taylor, Madison May, Jaden Cheek, Hannah Goodwin and Ansley Houston.
- This season, Taylor and May have split time at first base with Taylor starting in three games and May in one.
- Clemson added three infielders to the freshman class that include: Grace Hiller, Jadeyn Ruszkowski and Maddie Moore.

OUTFIELDERS - PLAYER BREAKDOWN

- Five outfielders return to the 2022 roster from last season, led by 2021 NFCA All-Region selection, McKenzie Clark.
- Clark led the team in 2021 with six triples and 23 stolen bases while posting a .355 average.
- Graduate Marissa Guimbarda returns for her final season with the Tigers after averaging .309 last year after hitting 13 home runs and 42 RBI.
- Other returners from last season include: Carlee Shannon, Arielle Oda and Morgan Johnson.
- During the offseason, Clemson signed graduate transfer Sam Russ from NC State.

RUSS' RECORDS

- Graduate transfer Sam Russ comes to Clemson to use her final year of eligibility that was awarded due to COVID-19 cutting the 2020 season short.
- Russ decided to use her extra year at Clemson after her father played baseball for the Tigers 1980-83.
- Russ spent her first four years at NC State where she was a three-time ACC selection and holds the Wolfpack's record for both career (103) and single season (32) stolen bases.

ACC PRESEASON HONORS

- The Tigers have been picked to finish second in the ACC
- Clemson pitcher Valerie Cagle and outfielder McKenzie Clark were named to the 2022 Preseason All-ACC Team based on vote by the league's head coaches.
- Cagle returns after being named the ACC Player and Freshman of the Year in 2021. She batted .404 with a .821 slugging percentage and 17 home runs. She also led the Tigers with a 1.16 ERA and 267 strikeouts.
- Clark had a breakout freshman season posting a .355 average and .639 slugging percentage. She stole a team-high 23 bases in 2021 and was an NFCA All-Region Selection.

WRAPPING UP 2021

- Clemson softball took giant steps forward in its first full season of competition in 2021.
- The Tigers finished with an overall record of 44-8 last year, pushing the program's record since 2020 to 63-16.

NOTES

- Clemson finished as ACC Regular Season Champions after going 29-5 in ACC action.
- The Tigers won seven ACC series, sweeping six. The team received their rings to commemorate the success prior to the team's open scrimmage on Feb. 5.
- The team finished second at the ACC Tournament, dropping the championship game, 1-0, to Duke.
- The Tigers shutout Georgia Tech (2-0) and No. 20 Virginia Tech (2-0) in the first two rounds of play to reach the championship.
- Clemson made their first postseason appearance last season making the Tuscaloosa Regional.
- The Tigers run-ruled Troy in the opening round before dropping game two to No. 3 Alabama.
- Clemson once again defeated Troy to advance to the Regional finals, but dropped the final game to Alabama, 5-0.
- At the end of last season, Clemson held 13 spots in the top-25 among NCAA categories, including six single-digit ranks.
- The top-10 marks that were included are: No. 4 - Victories (Valerie Cagle), No. 5 - ERA (Team), No. 6 - WL Percentage (Team), No. 7 - Saves (Cagle), No. 8 - Shutouts (Cagle) and No. 8 - Triples (McKenzie Clark).

HISTORICAL TIMELINE

- March 14, 2022 marks the five-year anniversary since former Clemson Director of Athletics Dan Radakovich announced the addition of the softball program.
- View the full timeline of events in the provided table.

CLEMSON+

- Clemson Athletics and IPTAY have launched Clemson+, a streaming service dedicated to showing what it's like to be a Tiger.
- Clemson+ showcases the best video content, and is now available on all major streaming platforms, via the ClemsonTigers app and web browser.
- The subscription will be included as an exclusive benefit to more than 26,000 IPTAY and Collegiate Club members.
- Clemson softball will be apart of the initial launch of Clemson+ with a Clemson Softball All-Access feature.
- Get an inside look at the day-to-day aspects of the Clemson softball program and exclusive interviews with the coaching staff and student-athletes.

POWER: WOMEN'S LEADERSHIP ACADEMY

- Director of Athletics Graham Neff and Senior Associate AD/Senior Woman Administrator Stephanie Ellison-Johnson announced the formation of the POWER: Women's Leadership Academy in early February.
- The women's leadership academy is a three-pronged women's leadership program with curriculum developed by Assistant AD for Student-Athlete Development Tori Niemann and Dr. Janna Magette Butler, Clemson Athletic Leadership Graduate Program Lecturer.
- The year-long program focuses on identity, professional presence, self-leadership and community, along with an annual experiential trip.
- The leadership summit is an opportunity for POWER participants to design, organize and execute a transformational leadership experience for their Clemson female student-athlete peers.
- Softball has two current student-athletes in Power's inaugural class: Morgan Johnson and Alia Logoleo.

LEGACY - BLACK HISTORY MONTH

- February allows us to shine a spotlight on the many contributions, successes and challenges of African Americans at Clemson.
- Last summer, the Voices and Letters video series gave student-athletes, staff and coaches a platform to talk

HEAD COACH JOHN RITTMAN

John Rittman, a longtime head coach and member of the USA Softball Women's National Team coaching pool, was named the first Head Coach of Clemson Softball on Nov. 3, 2017. Rittman came to Clemson after serving as the Associate Head Coach at the University of Kansas from 2015-17. Rittman joined the Jayhawks after 18 seasons as the Head Coach at Stanford University and 10 years on the United States National Team coaching staff (2001-08, 2016-18).

During the second season and first complete year, Rittman propelled Clemson to even higher heights by becoming the ACC Regular Season Champions after posting a 29-5 ACC record and winning seven ACC series, including six series sweeps. The Tigers were ACC Tournament Runner-Ups after shutting out both Georgia Tech and then-No. 20 Virginia Tech in the first two rounds before dropping the championship game, 1-0, to then-No. 21 Duke. Rittman was named ACC Coach of the Year and guided Valerie Cagle to being the first student-athlete in league history to be named both the ACC Freshman and Player of the Year in the same season. Clemson finished with six individuals earning nine All-ACC team selections following the regular season, including three on the first team. Cagle and freshman McKenzie Clark were named to the NFCA All-Region team. The honors continued to roll in for Cagle as she became the first Clemson softball All-American garnering second team honors from the NFCA, was a JWOS First Team All-American, a Top-Three Finalist for the NFCA's National Freshman of the Year and a Top-10 Finalist for USA Softball's Collegiate Player of the Year. Behind Rittman's efforts, Clemson climbed as high as No. 13 in the NFCA national rankings and No. 10 in the ESPN/USA Softball rankings before finishing the season at No. 18 in the NFCA poll. Rittman led the Tigers to their first postseason appearance traveling to the Tuscaloosa Regional to defeat Troy twice, including a five-inning run-rule victory in the opening game that capped off a historic second season.

In its inaugural season, Rittman transcended Clemson into a nationally-respected program. Rittman guided Clemson, which was predicted to finish in 10th in the conference, according to the 2020 ACC preseason poll, to a 19-8 overall record, including 5-1 in ACC play. The Tigers, who won both of their ACC series against Virginia and Pitt, won 11 of their final 12 games before the 2020 season was cut short due to the coronavirus pandemic (COVID-19). Additionally, Clemson went 14-2 at Clemson Softball Stadium (now McWhorter Stadium), which included a 13-game home win streak that spanned 25 days. Rittman and the Tigers generated plenty of enthusiasm among the Clemson faithful as the first-year program ranked fourth nationally in attendance (24,860) and fifth in average attendance (1,544/game) in 2020. On March 3, the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) announced the first-year program received votes (10) in the fifth edition of the 2020 USA Today/NFCA D1 Top 25 Coaches Poll. The announcement came after Clemson defeated then-No. 14 Georgia, 4-1, on Feb. 26 at Clemson Softball Stadium before sweeping the Cavaliers to win its first-ever ACC series. Under the direction of Rittman, three Tigers in Valerie Cagle (twice), Marissa Guimbarda and Logan Caymol earned

ACC weekly honors on four occasions, the most by any ACC program in 2020. Cagle, a true freshman in 2020, was second in the nation in RBIs (36), while Guimbarda finished the season fourth nationally in home runs (11). Both Cagle and Guimbarda led the ACC in RBIs and home runs, respectively.

At Stanford, Rittman and the Cardinals recorded 18-consecutive winning seasons, made 16-straight NCAA appearances, notched 13 40-win seasons and produced at least one All-American in 15 of his last 17 seasons. As head coach, Rittman accumulated a 750-351-3 overall mark, coached a national player of the year, 16 All-Americans, earned five Super Regional appearances, two Women's College World Series appearances and maintained a spot in every regular-season NFCA top-25 poll for more than a decade.

Rittman served on the staff of the USA Softball team which won gold at both the 2016 Women's Softball World Championship and the 2017 Pan Am Qualifier. He also worked with Team USA from 2001-08, coaching the 2004 Olympic gold medal winners in Athens and the 2008 silver medalists in Beijing. Team USA also won gold medals at the 2002 and 2006 World Championship and the 2003 and 2007 Pan Am Games.

Prior to being named head coach at Stanford, Rittman spent four seasons as an assistant coach at the University of Washington, focusing on hitting and defense. Rittman helped start the program and, within just four seasons, the Huskies had earned a No. 1 national ranking, won the 1996 Pac-10 Championship, made three NCAA Tournament appearances and notched a runner-up finish in their first trip to the Women's College World Series. Washington became the first team since Texas A&M (1983) to advance to the championship game in its first appearance at the WCWS.

Before his appointment at Washington, Rittman spent two seasons as an assistant at the University of Minnesota. During his second year, the Golden Gophers won the Big Ten Conference with a 20-4 league record. The Gophers set team and individual records in almost every offensive category. The Minnesota squad led the nation in hits and total bases en route to a No. 15 national ranking. Rittman also helped produce two Golden Gopher All-Americans.

From 1988-90, Rittman was an assistant coach at the University of Oregon. During his stay, the Ducks played in the 1989 Women's College World Series, set several team and individual offensive records and produced an All-American.

Rittman graduated from New Mexico State with a degree in journalism in 1986. He was a three-year letterwinner in baseball as an outfielder at NMSU after transferring from Yavapai Junior College in Prescott, Arizona.

Rittman and his wife, Lorie, a former softball player at the University of Oklahoma, are the parents of Justin, a UCLA graduate and former fullback for the Bruins, and Jake, a senior punter at Notre Dame.
