TOP OF THE LINE

Wake Forest (21-7) and Iowa State (18-9) are on pace to set an NCAA Division I record for the most-improved team from one season to the next. The current record is 17 ½ games by Towson (2012, 1-31; 2013; 18-13). The Deacs have won 15 more games from last season (6-16), while the Cyclones have won 16 more contests than a season ago (2-22).

Wake Forest is fifth in the country in effective 2-point field goal percentage (58.0) and 14th in effective field goal percentage (55.27, according to KenPom).

Jake LaRavia (24 points), Isaiah Mucius (83 points) and Alondes Williams (96 points) are all within reach of joining the 1,000-point club this season. If they do so, Wake Forest would be the first team this season to have four players reach the milestone. Daivien Williamson reached 1,000 points in November.

Wake Forest is in the top 5 in the ACC in multiple statistical categories, both offensively and defensively -

- 1st in field goal percentage (.484)
- 2nd in field goal % defense (.407)
- 2nd in scoring margin (+9.46)
- 2nd in assists (15.07/game)
- 2nd in scoring offense (78.46/game)

KEY STORYLINES

MAN MAN THE MAN

Alondes (Man Man) Williams is proving to be one of the best players in the country and one of, if not the most valuable transfer to come out of the off-season.

As of February 20, he is the only player in the Power 5 to be averaging 19 points, six rebounds and five assists. He has scored in double figures in 27 games this season, reaching 30 three times and 20-plus 14 times.

Heading into Wednesday, Williams leads the ACC in scoring (19.9 ppg) and assists (5.1 apg). If he continues at this rate, he will be the first player in ACC history, since they started tracking assists in 1973, to be the season leader in both categories. He is also fourth in the league, behind LaRavia, in field goal percentage, shooting at a 52.4 percent clip from the field.

With 557 points this season, Williams has scored more points for the Deacs in 28 games than he did in 55 games over two seasons at Oklahoma. He is 96 points away from reaching the 1,000-point milestone in just three seasons.

Most recently, Williams was named to the Midseason Team for 2022 Jersey Mike's Naismith Trophy Player of the Year, along with three other ACC players. He was also one of five ACC players named to the Mid-Season Lute Olson National Player of the Year Award Watch List in January.

Against Syracuse Jan. 8, Williams recorded his first double-double of the season, finishing with 25 points on 9-of-15 from the field and 12 rebounds to go along with four assists. He has since locked in three more double-doubles, all against ACC opponents. He had 15 points and 10 rebounds against Pitt, 17 points and 10 rebounds against NC State and 23 points and 10 boards vs. Notre Dame. He has also scored in double figures in 27 of the Deacs' 28 games this season.

After reeling in back-to-back ACC Player of the Week honors, graduate guard Alondes Williams was named the U.S. Basketball Writers Association Oscar Robertson National Player of the Week on December 21.

Williams is the first Wake Forest player in program history to receive the honor (since it was first awarded in the 2009-10 season) and the first ACC player since January 31, 2021.

Williams set a new career high with 36 points against VMI as he shot 11-of-20 (55 percent) from the field while going 12-of-13 (92.3 percent) from the free throw line. He also added five rebounds and dished three assists against the Keydets.

Williams became the first Wake Forest player over the past 25 seasons to record at least 30 points, 5 rebounds and 5 assists in a game as he followed up his 36-point outing with 34 points on 15 makes, eight rebounds and seven assists against Charlotte.

The performance also helped Williams become the first Wake Forest player to log back-to-back 30-point games since former All-American Jeff Teague had 30 and 34 against BYU and North Carolina in January, 2009.

Prior to his scoring eruptions against VMI and Charlotte, Williams recorded 16 points, 14 rebounds, and 10 assists against USC Upstate Dec. 11 for the Deacs' first triple-double since Tim Duncan (14 points, 15 rebounds, and 10 blocks) against Maryland on January 13, 1996.

Williams also scored 32 points against Western Carolina Nov. 12, becoming the first Demon Deacon to have three 30+ point games in a season since Jeff Teague in 08-09.

MONSANTO'S RETURN

Redshirt sophomore Damari Monsanto tore his achilles at the end of May 2021 and had what was anticipated to be season-ending surgery in early June of 2021. Come November, Monsanto was walking and getting shots up almost daily. In December he was partially cleared for some conditioning. At the end of December, he was cleared for half court non-contact. In January he was cleared for full court non-contact and half court contact, which eventually led to being fully cleared for full-court contact about a week prior to the Deacs' game at Georgia Tech Jan. 19.

Monsanto has since played in every game for the Deacs, recording a season-high 23 minutes at Duke last week. He went a season-best 4-for-6 from three in 20 minutes at Syracuse. He reached 19 minutes in the win against North Carolina at home and made three triples in a row in the second half. He ended with a season-high 13 points against the Tar Heels.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS AND PARKING

Credentials pickup / Media entrance will be at the West Lobby. Credentials allow access only to assigned media seating -- or specific sections designated for photographers and videographers -- and do not provide access to the floor, suites or other areas. Parking will be provided digitally via email roughly 24 hours prior to each game.

Throughout the season, media interested in covering the Demon Deacons at LJVM Coliseum and on the road will need to make a credential request through Wake Forest, not through the opposing ACC school staff.

Lucy Berres (berresl@wfu.edu) will accept all credential requests and will work to determine availability for a specific site.

NBA Scouts that wish to attend a game at LJVM may apply for a credential in the media seating or purchase a ticket for a different seat. All NBA Scouts must fill out the Google Form on the 2021-22 Men's Basketball Media Center page. Parking will be provided digitally via email roughly 24 hours prior to each game.

COVID-19 REGULATIONS

Metal detection and bag check will take place upon entry into the concourse. Once in the arena, members of the media will remain in Section 113 seating or their assigned shooting location for the safety of others. A mask must be worn at all times in Joel Coliseum.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

All postgame interviews will be conducted online through Zoom.

Coach Steve Forbes and select Demon Deacon student-athletes will be available as soon as possible following games for both home and away events. Links for the video conference, or phone numbers to dial into the conference, will be provided to the media prior to tipoff.

Wake Forest Athletics staff will have the Zoom press conference recorded and student-athletes and Steve Forbes will also appear on the Wake Forest Sports Properties radio broadcast postgame show.

Opposing team's head coach and select student-athletes will be made available via Zoom. Please contact a member of their communications staff for additional information.

For individual interview requests throughout the season, please contact Lucy Berres (berresl@wfu.edu) or Ryan Sosic (Sosicr@wfu.edu).

Before UTC, Savage entered the D1 Assistant ranks in the Big South conference by helping lead Presbyterian College through the Division 1 transition during the 2012-13 season. This followed a championship year in 2011-12 as an Assistant at Northwest Florida State College where the Raiders 32 wins set a school record, won the Panhandle Conference title and finished as the National Runner-Up.

Over Savage's nine years as an assistant coach his teams have amassed a record of 210-92 overall while finishing first or second in conference play in seven of those nine seasons. He was also named one of "50 Impactful Mid-Major Assistants" by Silver Waves Media in 2020.

A 2008 graduate of Tennessee, Savage holds both bachelor's and master's degrees in sports management/business. The two-year captain played in 123 consecutive games at guard for the Gamecocks, scoring in double figures in 111 games and collecting 38 games with 20 or more points. McKie was third in the SEC in scoring as a senior in 1999 with a 17.3 average. He helped the Gamecocks to the NCAA Tournament in 1997 and 1998 and represented South Carolina as an SEC Legend in 2011. McKie is one of just five Gamecock players to have his jersey retired after having scored 2,119 points at USC, the most of any Gamecock in school history.

Following his playing career, the Norfolk, Va. native played professionally both in the U.S. and overseas. McKie was a 2001 CBA All-Star while playing with the Connecticut Pride and spent time playing in France, Cyprus, Italy, and Israel while being named a Player of the Year in Germany.

He started his coaching career at Charleston Southern in 2011 and spent six years alongside head coach Barclay Radebaugh. McKie was a part of two CSU Big South regular season championship teams and helped the Bucs to a pair of NIT berths. He helped guide CSU to its winningest season in school history in 2015 and was promoted to associate head coach following the season.

McKie and his wife, the former Brittany Brooks, have a son Justin who played basketball at South Carolina and was a member of USC's 2017 Final Four team. BJ and Brittany also welcomed their daughter, Brielle Tonya McKie, in August of 2020.

ASSISTANT COACH
JASON SHAY

Jason Shay joined the Demon Deacons coaching staff on June 1, 2021. Shay spent last season as East Tennessee State's head coach, coached now Wake Forest redshirt freshman Damari Monsanto to Southern Conference Freshman of the Year and third team All-Conference honors in 2020-21. After redshirting under Forbes in his true freshman season two years ago, Monsanto played in all 25 games with 20 starts for the Buccaneers during last year, averaging 11.8 points and 7.3 rebounds in 27.4 minutes.

In his lone season as the Bucs head coach Coach Shay was named a finalist for the 2020-21 Joe B. Hall Award, which is presented annually to the top first-year coach in Division I college basketball. Shay led the Blue and Gold to a 13-win campaign, including eight in Southern Conference play. ETSU sat atop the league standings through the first seven games of the season as they won six of its first seven SoCon games. The Bucs defeated every team they played in conference at least once, including a 71-61 road win at regular season champion UNC Greensboro. As a team, the Bucs led the SoCon in scoring defense (66.2), ranked second in field goal percentage defense (.418) and steals per game (7.4) and third in rebound margin (+3.0).

Prior to 2020-21, Shay spent five seasons as the Buccaneers' assistant coach under Steve Forbes where ETSU compiled an overall record of 130-42. In 2019-20, the Buccaneers set a program-record with 30 wins, becoming just the fourth team in SoCon history to accomplish the feat. In 2017-18, the Blue and Gold tied the school record by winning 16 straight games – a streak that was the longest in the country at one point that season.

Prior to coming to Johnson City, Shay held assistant coaching stints at North Dakota (2013-15), Northwest Florida State College (2011-13), Tennessee (2005-11), Wisconsin-Milwaukee (2003-05) and Mercyhurst (Pa.) College (1999-2001). Throughout those stops, Shay had a streak of helping lead teams to nine-consecutive postseason berths at the Division I level, including Tennessee's first-ever trip to the Elite Eight in 2010 and a Sweet 16 run at Wisconsin-Milwaukee in 2005.

During his time at Northwest Florida on Coach Forbes' staff, the Raiders went 62-6, while winning consecutive Panhandle Conference Championships and back-to-back appearances in the NJCAA Division I National Championship game. Additionally, Coach Forbes and Shay led NW Florida to its most wins in a single season in school history with 32.

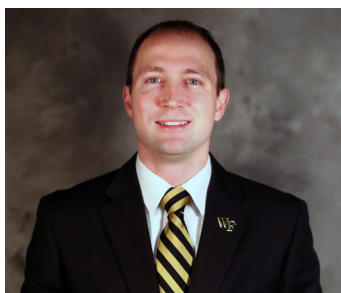

His two seasons at the junior college in Niceville, Fla., followed a six-year stint as an assistant coach at the University of Tennessee. During his tenure in Knoxville, the Volunteers advanced to six-consecutive NCAA Tournaments and UT averaged more than 25 wins per season during his time on the staff, including grabbing the No. 1 ranking for the first time in program history in 2008 and a school-record 31 wins that season.

Shay's first Division I assistant coaching job came at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee where he was first the director of basketball operations for two seasons (2001-03) before being elevated to a full-time assistant prior to the 2003-04 season. The Panthers advanced to the NCAA Tournament in both of his seasons as an assistant coach before the staff moved on to Tennessee for the 2005-06 season.

Shay began his coaching career at Mercyhurst (Pa.) College where he spent two years as an assistant coach and also assisted in the sports information office.

Shay, a native of Galesburg, Ill., was a walk-on at the University of Iowa for Dr. Tom Davis where he earned his bachelor's degree in health promotion in 1995. Shay then graduated with a master's degree from Western Illinois in 1998.

Shay and his wife, Jana, have a daughter, Peija, and a son Joah.

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS
FRANK DAVIS

Frank Davis joined the Wake Forest basketball staff in May 2020 as the Director of Basketball Operations. Davis spent the last three seasons as the director of operations on Steve Forbes' staff at East Tennessee State after having started his career as an assistant coach at Tennessee Tech.

Davis is Tennessee Tech's all-time three-point shooting leader with 251 triples during his playing career from 2006-10. He finished his career by appearing in 125 games, the second-most in school history, and scoring 1,118 career points. Davis excelled in the classroom as well, being named to the Ohio Valley Conference Commissioner's Honor Roll four times.

As a coach, Davis was instrumental in Tennessee Tech's 2015-16 season in which the Golden Eagles went 19-12 and returned to the postseason for the first time in four seasons. Following that season, Davis was named one of 30 assistant coaches to be recognized by the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) on its 30-Under-30 team.

Davis is a native of Gainesville, Ga. and a 2010 graduate of Tennessee Tech with a bachelor's degree in exercise science and physical wellness and a Master of Arts in elementary and secondary physical education in 2013.

He is married to the former Allison Price who was a three-year starter at guard for the Tennessee Tech women's basketball team, and they are the proud parents of their son Cameron.
