CLEMSON TO MAKE FIRST TRIP TO BOSTON COLLEGE SINCE 2018

After Clemson and Boston College met in Death Valley for three straight seasons from 2019-21, the Tigers will finally return to Chestnut Hill on Saturday, Oct. 8 when the fifth-ranked Tigers face the Eagles in an ACC Atlantic Division contest. Kickoff at Alumni Stadium for ABC's Saturday Night Football is set for 7:30 p.m. ET.

In 2020, the altered schedule amid the COVID-19 pandemic turned a planned Boston College home game into a Clemson home game in what turned out to be current Clemson quarterback DJ Uiagalelei's first career start. Clemson's most recent visit to Boston was in 2018, when true freshman Trevor Lawrence led the Tigers to a 27-7 win that clinched a division title for Clemson in front of a prime-time national audience on ABC.

This week, Clemson is coming off of conference wins against No. 21/16 Wake Forest and consensus No. 10 NC State. The Tigers are one of only four programs this season with two AP Top 25 victories to their credit, alongside Tennessee, Texas A&M and Texas Tech. Clemson, Alabama and Georgia are the only teams in the country with 3-0 records this season against teams presently over .500. Clemson is also the only program in the country with multiple wins against teams presently in the AP Top 15, as NC State and Wake Forest sit this week at No. 14 and No. 15, respectively.

Saturday's contest will be the third installment of a key five-game stretch of ACC Atlantic Division games for Clemson prior to a late October open date. Including wins in each of the last two weeks, Clemson has won 44 of its last 46 games against ACC Atlantic Division teams, including games against typical Atlantic division foes in the division-free season in 2020.

On special teams, Lou Groza Award candidate B.T. Potter — a fifth-year senior in the midst of No. 5 Clemson's 5-0 start — has steadily continued to ascend Clemson and ACC record books. With four points this week, Potter can become the 10th kicker — and 11th player overall including running back Travis Etienne — in ACC history to reach 400 career points. Potter (396) is also nine points shy of surpassing Chandler Catanzaro (404 from 2010-13) to become the highest-scoring kicker in Clemson history.

Potter's 63 career field goals have covered 2,338 yards, 32 yards shy of the Clemson career record for yards on field goals set by Nelson Welch from 1991-94 (2,370).

SERIES HISTORY VS. BOSTON COLLEGE

Clemson holds a 20-9-2 lead in its series with Boston College dating to the programs' first meeting in the 1940 Cotton Bowl.

Early in the series, the two teams played three games at famed Fenway Park in Boston, the home of the Boston Red Sox. Clemson won its first game there in 1941 — just 13 days after Ted Williams finished his .406 season for the Red Sox — by a 26-13 score. The teams met at Fenway again the following year, and Boston College won, 14-7. The two teams played to a 14-14 tie in 1953 at Fenway, evening the series' all-time record at Fenway Park at 1-1-1.

The two teams also played at Braves Field in Boston, then the home of the National League's Boston Braves. Clemson had a 3-1 advantage in games played at Braves Field, all between 1942-52. Clemson has a 9-6-1 lead in the series in games played in Boston or Chestnut Hill.

The Tigers have won 13 of the 14 games played against Boston College since Dabo Swinney became Clemson's head coach on an interim basis on Oct. 13, 2008, including his first win as a head coach on Nov. 1, 2008. Clemson's only loss to the Eagles in the Swinney era as head coach came on the road in 2010.

Clemson has won each of the last 11 games in the series. Boston College's last win in the series took place in 2010, a 16-10 final score. The Eagles have not won at Clemson since 2007, a 20-17 Eagles win that determined the ACC Atlantic Division title.

The Tigers hold a 13-4 advantage in the series since Boston College joined the ACC for the 2005 season. BC won each of the first three, all by seven points or less, with two overtime finishes.

Five of Clemson's victories in the series took place during undefeated Tiger regular seasons. Clemson won, 26-19, in 1948 on the way to a perfect 11-0 season, and won, 35-14, in 1950 on the way to a 9-0-1 season. Clemson won, 34-17, in 2015 during its perfect regular season and posted a 27-7 win in Chestnut Hill in 2018 en route to a 12-0 regular season and eventual 15-0 national championship finish. Clemson also defeated Boston College, 59-7, in 2019 during a second-straight perfect regular season.

MEMORABLE MEETINGS

1939: The teams first met in the Cotton Bowl on Jan. 1, 1940 to conclude the 1939 season. That was a landmark victory for the Clemson program, as it represented the school's first bowl game and the school's first win over a Top 20 team, as Boston College was ranked 11th in the nation entering the game. Clemson won, 6-3, behind 115 yards rushing from Charlie Timmons and four pass deflections in the fourth quarter by Clemson legend Banks McFadden. Boston College was coached by Frank Leahy, who ranks second in career winning percentage in college football history. Leahy lost only 13 games in 13 years as a head coach (two at BC and 11 at Notre Dame), but one was to Clemson.

1982: The two teams tied in a 1982 game in Death Valley. The game was televised by CBS on a regional basis, the first CBS broadcast from Clemson's Memorial Stadium. Clemson had a 14-0 lead at intermission, but sophomore quarterback Doug Flutie led Boston College back to take a 17-14 lead. The Tigers tied the game in the fourth quarter on a field goal by Donald Igwebuikwe, who played soccer and football for the Tigers that fall. He then had another attempt from 43 yards with eight seconds left, but the kick missed and the game ended in a 17-17 tie.

1983: At Chestnut Hill, the Eagles gained a 31-16 win behind Doug Flutie, who would win the Heisman Trophy the following year. Clemson had a 16-3 lead with 25 minutes left in the game, but the Eagles went on a 28-0 run behind Flutie to end the contest. He was 20-of-36 for 223 yards and two touchdowns against a Clemson defense that featured All-American William Perry. The Eagles gained 504 yards of total offense on the night, 281 rushing and 223 passing. It was Clemson's only loss in 1983 (9-1-1) and the most yards against Clemson during its 30-2-2 run between the 1981-83 seasons. Clemson had just two losses and two ties over a three-year period from 1981-83, with one of the losses and one of the ties coming against Boston College in that 1982-83 period.

2005: The 2005 game at Clemson was an overtime meeting, a 16-13 Boston College victory. It was the first between the two schools as an ACC matchup. The game was tied, 10-10, at the end of regulation.

2006: The two teams played a double overtime affair in 2006, a 34-33 Boston College victory as a missed extra point in overtime proved costly for the Tigers.

2008: Dabo Swinney earned his first victory as Clemson's head coach with a 27-21 road win at Boston College. C.J. Spiller totaled 242 all-purpose yards and Clemson scored the game's final 10 points to earn the victory. Clemson jumped out to a 17-0 halftime lead. But Boston College took advantage of several Tiger miscues and scored 21 straight points to take the lead in the fourth quarter. But Spiller's 64-yard kickoff return set up the Tigers' go-ahead touchdown pass to Aaron Kelly and the Clemson defense thwarted Boston College to preserve the win.

2009: Clemson won, 25-7, in Death Valley to collect its first win over the Eagles at Clemson since 1958. Clemson won that 1958 game, 34-12.

2018: Clemson brought home both the O'Rourke-McFadden Trophy and the ACC Atlantic Division Trophy following a 27-7 win in Chestnut Hill, two of many trophies collected by the 2018 national champions.

2020: Clemson was thrown a curveball on the Thursday prior to the game when quarterback Trevor Lawrence tested positive for COVID-19 just two days prior to the game. DJ Uiagalelei then dazzled in his first career start, completing 30-of-41 passes for 342 yards and two touchdowns and added a touchdown on the ground as Clemson scored 24 unanswered points to overcome an 18-point deficit in a 34-28 win. Running back Travis Etienne had a superlative performance, totaling 224 all-purpose yards, as he both became the ACC's all-time leading rusher and set a Clemson single-game record in receiving yards by a running back (140) in the game.

O'ROURKE-McFADDEN TROPHY

This year's matchup represents the 15th time that Clemson and Boston College will play for the O'Rourke-McFadden Trophy, which the Boston College Gridiron Club began sponsoring in 2008. Clemson has won 13 of the 14 years the trophy has been awarded.

The trophy features a leather helmet replica of those used by Charlie O'Rourke of Boston College and Banks McFadden of Clemson when they competed against each other in the 1940 Cotton Bowl in Dallas, Texas. In addition to the trophy presentation, the Boston College Gridiron Club presents a replica leather helmet to the MVP of the winning school in the locker room.

C.J. Spiller won the award for the 2008 game when he had 242 all-purpose yards, and Clemson kicker Richard Jackson won the award for the 2009 game. He kicked six field goals in the Clemson victory, the only kicker at the FBS level to kick six field goals in a game in 2009.

Montel Harris won the award for Boston College in 2010 thanks to his 143 yards rushing and the game's only offensive touchdown. Chandler Catanzaro became the second Clemson kicker to win the honor with his five field goals in the 36-14 Clemson win in 2011. Tajh Boyd won it in 2012 with a 367-yard passing game, and Vic Beasley took the honor in 2013 when he had a fumble return for a touchdown.

Cole Stoudt had 308 yards of total offense in Clemson's 2014 win. Deshaun Watson won it in 2015 and Wayne Gallman in 2016. Travis Etienne made it consecutive Clemson running backs to win the honor in 2017 prior to quarterback Trevor Lawrence securing it in 2018. Wide receiver Diondre Overton won the honor in 2019 after he recorded a career-high 119 yards on three receptions for a school-record-tying three touchdowns against the Eagles.

The award unofficially changed hands in 2020, as the ABC announcing crew voted running back Travis Etienne as the official recipient following his 224 all-purpose-yard performance in a comeback 34-28 win. However, immediately upon receiving the honor in the locker room, Etienne presented it to true freshman quarterback DJ Uiagalelei, who threw for more than 300 yards and led the largest comeback victory in Death Valley history in his first career start in place of Trevor Lawrence, who missed the game after testing positive for COVID-19 two days earlier.

Safety Nolan Turner won the award in 2021 after recording seven tackles and an interception while Clemson held BC to 13 points.

The Boston College Gridiron Club developed the award to honor the tradition at both schools and to honor the legacies of Charlie O'Rourke and Banks McFadden, who played during the leather helmet era.

O'Rourke led Boston College from the quarterback position to a 26-3-2 record in his three years as the quarterback of the Eagles between 1938-40. One of those three losses was to McFadden and Clemson in the 1940 Cotton Bowl. O'Rourke had his jersey retired at Boston College and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1972.

McFadden led the Tigers to a 9-1 record in 1939 as the starting quarterback. Regarded as the greatest all-around Clemson athlete of the 20th century, he was an All-American in football and basketball at Clemson. The 1939 football team finished 12th in the final AP poll, Clemson's first Top 20 season on record, and the win over Boston College in the Cotton Bowl was Clemson's first bowl appearance. In the spring of 1939, he led Clemson to the Southern Conference basketball championship. McFadden was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1959, Clemson's first inductee.

LAST MEETING

Clemson 19, Boston College 13

(Oct. 2, 2021, Clemson, S.C.)

CLEMSON, S.C. — Placekicker B.T. Potter accounted for 13 points, hitting all four of his field goal attempts and adding an extra point to help No. 25 Clemson (3-2, 2-1 ACC) hold on to a 19-13 win over Boston College (4-1, 0-1 ACC) on homecoming at Memorial Stadium in front of a crowd of 79,159.

Safety Nolan Turner was honored with the Leather Helmet Award, presented by the Boston College Gridiron Club to the game's most valuable player. Turner recorded seven tackles and an interception to earn the honor.

Defensively, the Tigers tallied nine tackles for loss, four sacks and forced three turnovers, including K.J. Henry pouncing on a fumble with 49 seconds remaining deep in Clemson territory to secure the win.

On the other side of the ball, Clemson's running game broke through for 231 yards on 40 carries, an average of 5.8 per rush. Running back Kobe Pace piled up 125 yards on 18 carries on the ground and added 41 yards on a pair of catches for good measure. DJ Uiagalelei threw for a season-high 207 yards and picked up another 50 on the ground. The sophomore quarterback hit Joseph Ngata four times for 111 yards, the second 100-yard receiving game of the season for the junior wide receiver.

Potter, who made field goals of 18, 35, 40 and 42 yards, tied Mark Buchholz for ninth in school history in career field goals made with 37 total.

Pace got the Tigers on the board first with a 59-yard touchdown run in the first quarter. Pace's 59-yard run was the longest of his career and the longest for Clemson since Travis Etienne's 72-yard-yard touchdown run against Miami (Fla.) last season.

Potter made field goals of 18 yards and 40 yards in the first half to give the Tigers a 13-6 halftime lead. Boston College would score six points on two made field goals by Connor Lytton of 22 and 34 yards.

The Eagles would score their lone touchdown of the game on a 3-yard run by Patrick Garwo on their opening drive of the second half to tie up the game. Potter would connect on two more field goals of 35 and 42 yards in the second half, with the final giving Clemson a 19-13 lead with a little more than four minutes to play.

The Tigers stopped Boston College with 2:14 to play on fourth down but went three-and-out on the ensuing possession. The Eagles drove deep into Clemson territory. On 2nd-and-10 from the 11-yard line, BC quarterback Dennis Grosel fumbled the snap, which Henry fell on to give the Tigers the ability to kneel out the clock.

LAST MEETING IN BOSTON

Clemson 27, Boston College 7

(Nov. 10, 2018, Chestnut Hill, Mass.)

No. 2 Clemson clinched the ACC Atlantic Division crown for the fourth consecutive season, defeating No. 17/14 Boston College, 27-7, at Alumni Stadium. With the win, Clemson remained undefeated on the season at 10-0 overall and 7-0 in the ACC, while Boston College moved to 7-3 overall and 4-2 in conference play.

Offensively, Trevor Lawrence quarterbacked a balanced effort, hitting eight different receivers in the first half alone and completing 18-of-25 pass attempts for 216 yards and a touchdown in the first 30 minutes. Hunter Renfrow led the receiving corps with 80 yards on eight catches, both season highs for the graduate wideout. Defensively, the Tigers held the Boston College offense to just 24 yards in the first half and 113 total. Tanner Muse led the way with 10 total tackles, and 10 different players were credited with at least a portion of a tackle for loss.

Clemson opened the scoring on a 30-yard Greg Huegel field goal just under three minutes into the matchup, and it was Boston College that scored next when Michael Walker returned a Tiger punt 74 yards to put the Eagles up 7-3 with six minutes left in the first quarter. However, Lawrence connected with Milan Richard on a fourth-and-goal play to retake the lead for the Tigers before the quarter expired, and they never relinquished it.

The second and third quarters saw Clemson add 10 points to its lead, with Huegel hitting his second field goal of the night, a 23-yarder, just over three minutes into the second quarter, and Lawrence finding the end-zone with his feet on a six-yard touchdown run just over three minutes into the third quarter.

The Tigers took a 27-7 lead on an Amari Rodgers 53-yard punt return score with 11 minutes remaining in the game, which proved to be the final score. The game was the first in Clemson history in which both teams recorded a punt return for touchdown.

ON THIS DATE

- Oct. 8, 1960: Clemson defeated Virginia, 21-7, and used special pants for rain protection in this game. After the contest, Clemson sent the pants to Greenville and allowed Furman to use the pants for a game that night against William & Mary. Furman Head Coach Bob King said, "After those big Clemson boys got out of them some of our guys had a hard time making them stay up and we had to tape the legs of the pants for several players." The pants beat two teams from Virginia on the same day.

- Oct. 8, 2011: Chandler Catanzaro went 5-for-5 on field goals with makes of 38, 42, 18, 20 and 47 yards in a 36-14 win against Boston College in Death Valley. To date, it is the last time a Clemson kicker has kicked five field goals in a game.

- Overall: Clemson is 7-6-2 all-time in games contested on Oct. 8, including a win in its most recent Oct. 8 contest, that 36-14 home win in 2011 that also came against Boston College.

NOTES FROM LAST GAME

- Clemson and NC State played the highest-ranked game in the series' 90-game history. Previously, the highest combined ranking in a game between the two programs came in their 2018 matchup, when No. 3

Clemson defeated No. 16 NC State, 41-7.

- Clemson and NC State met with both teams ranked in the AP Top 25 for the sixth time in series history, joining ranked meetings in 1986, 1991, 1992, 2017 and 2018.

- Clemson did not allow a sack for the first time this season. Since 2011, Clemson is undefeated when it does not allow a sack.

- Clemson reached the 30-point mark for the 10th time in an 11-game span, dating to last season.

- Clemson did not turn the ball over and has now played consecutive games without a giveaway for the first time since last year's Boston College and Syracuse games.

- Clemson won the turnover margin, 2-0, finished even or positive in the turnover margin for a ninth consecutive game, dating to last season. It represented Clemson's first time doing so over nine games since 2019. Clemson's last game in which it lost the turnover margin was on Nov. 6 last season at Louisville.

- Clemson now has a 69-4 record when winning the turnover margin since 2011.

- Clemson converted its two takeaways into 10 points in the 10-point victory.

- Clemson held NC State to 34 rushing yards on 21 carries, a 1.6-yard average. NC State entered the game averaging 157.5 yards per carry this season.

- Clemson records its 31st time holding an opponent under 2.0 yards per carry since 2014, the second-most in the nation.

- Quarterback DJ Uiagalelei completed 21-of-30 passes for 209 yards with a touchdown and no interceptions. He also rushed for a career-high 73 yards on 14 carries and tied his single-game career high with two rushing touchdowns.

- Uiagalelei improved to 16-4 as a starter. He tied Kelly Bryant (16-2 from 2015-18) and Cullen Harper (16-9 from 2005-08) for the 14th-most wins by a Clemson starting quarterback since World War II.

- With the 209-yard performance Saturday, Uiagalelei (4,402) passed Steve Fuller (4,359 from 1975-78) to enter the top 10 in program history in career passing yards.

- Uiagalelei took sole possession of the 10th-most career passing touchdowns in school history.

- Uiagalelei has now rushed for at least 50 yards in three straight games for the first time in his career. He is the first Clemson quarterback to accomplish the feat since Kelly Bryant in 2017.

- Uiagalelei scored his second rushing touchdown of the season — the 10th rushing touchdown of his career — on a one-yard touchdown run with 31 seconds remaining in the second quarter.

- The touchdown run by Uiagalelei came on the first play after running back Will Shipley recorded a career-long 26-yard reception late in the second quarter on a pass from Uiagalelei.

- Clemson started that touchdown drive with 1:51 remaining in the half. The Tigers moved 75 yards in eight plays over 1:20 to take the halftime lead.

- Uiagalelei all but sealed the win with his second rushing touchdown, a nine-yard bootleg in the fourth quarter.

- Tight end Jake Briningstool added to his single-season career high with his third touchdown reception of the season on a seven-yard pass from Uiagalelei.

- Briningstool has now caught a touchdown in consecutive games for the first time in his career.

- Briningstool's touchdown was set up by a career-long 38-yard rush by Uiagalelei that put the Tigers inside the NC State 10-yard line.

- Clemson opened the scoring on a 13-play, 72-yard drive that ended with a 20-yard B.T. Potter field goal. Clemson has scored on its opening possession in nine of its last 10 games dating to last season.

- Potter also added a 46-yard field goal in the second quarter and a 44-yard field goal in the fourth quarter. Potter added to his Clemson records for career field goals of 40 yards or more (29).

- Potter has now kicked three field goals in back-to-back games for the first time since the Louisville and UConn games last November.

- On his third field goal of the game, Potter (63) tied Obed Ariri (63 from 1977-80) and Chris Gardocki (63 from 1988-90) for third in Clemson history in career field goals.

- Linebacker Barrett Carter recorded his first career sack on the second half's first play from scrimmage.

- Two plays later, defensive end Myles Murphy recorded his first sack of the game. He split another sack with Tyler Davis in the fourth quarter, pushing his career total to 13.0.

- Defensive end K.J. Henry recorded the fourth fumble recovery of his career on a fourth down in the fourth quarter.

NOTES

- Clemson hosted NC State at Memorial Stadium for the first time since 2018. The teams' scheduled meeting in Clemson in 2020 was canceled when the ACC released its eventual pandemic-adjusted schedule during the COVID-19 pandemic. The 1,077-day gap between Clemson home games in the series was the longest stretch between Clemson/NC State games in Death Valley since a 1,463-day gap between Wolfpack visits in 1967 and 1971.

- Clemson made its 30th appearance on ESPN's College GameDay, Clemson's 22nd appearance since 2015.

- Clemson welcomed College GameDay to its campus for the eighth time in the program's history, including special Thursday editions. Clemson improved to 7-1 at home in College GameDay feature contests.

- Clemson welcomed College GameDay six years to the day of the program's last broadcast at its traditional on-campus location on Bowman Field. That broadcast preceded Clemson's classic 42-36 win against Louisville on Oct. 1, 2016. College GameDay's two most recent visits to Clemson emanated from special in-stadium locations in 2019 (launch of ACC Network) and 2020 (COVID-19 pandemic).

- Death Valley hosted its sixth all-time game between two teams with perfect records of 4-0 or better. It was the first such matchup since 2018 against NC State, a 41-7 Clemson win. Clemson improved to 5-1 all-time in such contests at Memorial Stadium.

- Dabo Swinney tied North Carolina and Wake Forest's Bill Dooley (191) for third-most career games as an ACC head coach. Swinney's 191 career games as an ACC head coach already represent a Clemson record, as only 172 of Frank Howard's 295 career games at Clemson came as a member of the ACC.

- Captains for the contest were tight end Davis Allen, defensive tackle Tyler Davis, offensive lineman Walker Parks and linebacker Trenton Simpson.

WITH THE WIN...

- Clemson won its 11th consecutive game to extend the nation's longest active winning streak.

- Clemson has now posted the eighth winning streak of 11 or more games in program history, its first since a school-record 29-game winning streak across the 2018-19 seasons.

- Clemson won its 37th consecutive home game to extend its school record for both the longest home winning streak and longest home unbeaten streak in school history. It also extended the nation's longest active home winning streak. No member of Clemson's roster has lost a home game at Clemson in their careers.

- With its 37th consecutive home win, Clemson tied the longest home winning streak in ACC history, matching Florida State's 37-game streak from 1992-2001. Note: Miami's FBS-record 58-game home winning streak from 1985-94 predated the Hurricanes' ACC membership.

- Clemson tied 1992-2001 Florida State, 1904-08 Yale and 1900-03 Yale (37 each) for the 11th-longest home winning streak in FBS history.

- Clemson improved its national-best record at home in the College Football Playoff era (since 2014) to 56-1.

- Clemson improved to 15-12 all-time in games between AP Top 10 teams. Clemson is now 13-6 against AP Top 10 teams in the College Football Playoff era, with all six losses coming to College Football Playoff participants (including four national champions).

- Clemson improved to 21-7 against NC State in games in which Clemson is ranked in the AP Top 25. Clemson also moved to 8-5 all-time against ranked NC State squads.

- Clemson improved to 60-29-1 all-time against NC State. NC State became the third program against which Clemson has won 60 games all-time (South Carolina, 72; Wake Forest, 70).

- Clemson earned its 16th win in an 18-game span in its series with NC State.

- Clemson extended the longest home winning streak in series history by winning a ninth straight home game against NC State at Memorial Stadium, dating to 2004. The last time NC State won in Clemson was in 2002 in a game branded by ESPN as "College Football Thursday Night presented by Circuit City."

- Clemson pushed its record at Death Valley against

NC State to 24-11 since the facility opened in 1942. Clemson's 24 wins against the Wolfpack at Death Valley are its second-most against any opponent, trailing only Clemson's 35 wins against Wake Forest in Memorial Stadium.

- Clemson improved to 24-4 in night games since the start of the 2018 season. Clemson is now 43-7 at night since 2015.

- Clemson won its 19th consecutive night game in Death Valley, a streak that dates to the middle of the 2013 season.

- Clemson improved to 19-11 when playing in College GameDay's featured contest. Clemson is now 10-2 in GameDay games in regular season play since 2015.

- Clemson improved to 11-5 all-time at Death Valley against undefeated teams with a 4-0 or better record.

- Clemson improved to 26-7 against AP Top 25 teams since 2015. Clemson's 26 wins against AP Top 25 teams are tied for the third-most in the country in that span.

- Head Coach Dabo Swinney moved to 11-2 all-time against NC State and moved to 6-0 in home games against the Wolfpack.

- Swinney earned his eighth career victory against NC State Head Coach Dave Doeren, Swinney's second-most against any opposing coach (nine vs. Dave Clawson).

- Clemson improved to 19-9 under Swinney in rematches of losses.

- Swinney improved to 34-3 all-time against teams from the state of North Carolina. It was his 27th win against a North Carolina-based team in his last 28 opportunities since 2012.

- Clemson improved to 71-4 when scoring first since 2015. Clemson has scored first in eight straight games, dating to last season.

- Clemson's late second-quarter score gave the Tigers a 13-10 halftime lead. Clemson has now won 101 of its last 103 games, including each of its last 64, when leading at halftime.

- Clemson is now 122-2 since 2011 when leading after three quarters.

- Clemson has won 101 of its last 102 games when holding teams under 23 points (dates to 2010), including

10-WIN SEASONS

Clemson entered 2022 riding a streak of 11 consecutive seasons with 10+ wins. The program's 10th consecutive 10-win season in 2020 made Clemson only the third program in FBS history to produce a "double-double" — double-digit wins in a double-digit number of consecutive seasons. Clemson's gritty 10-win season in 2021 extended the streak to 11.

The record for consecutive 10-win seasons is 14, shared by Florida State (1987-2000) and Alabama (2008-21). This season, Clemson will attempt to join those two as the only programs ever to reach 10 wins in a dozen straight seasons.

The Tigers have 18 10-win seasons in school history, with 11 coming under Dabo Swinney.

CFP STAPLES

Eight full seasons into the College Football Playoff era, Clemson has already cemented itself as one of the tournament's powerhouses of its inaugural decade. Only 13 programs have earned at least one College Football Playoff berth, and Clemson ranks second in CFP berths, CFP title game appearances, total CFP wins and CFP titles.

SENIOR SUCCESS

Every January, Head Coach Dabo Swinney conducts his first official meeting with his new team. The first order of business in the meeting is to "reset the room," reorganizing the seating arrangement with seniors in front and all succeeding classes in order behind them in the team auditorium.

Clemson's recent senior classes have placed themselves among select company in college football history. The 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020 Clemson seniors account for four of only 13 four-year classes in FBS history to reach 50 career wins. That includes the 2018 and 2019 groups that are tied with the 2018 Alabama seniors for the most wins in FBS history (55 wins in four years).

HISTORIC CONFERENCE REIGN

Even though the Tigers entered the final week of the season still alive in the conference title race for "A"nother "C"lemson "C"hampionship, Clemson's six-year reign atop the ACC ended in 2021.

With a sixth straight conference title in 2020, Clemson became the first program ever to win 20 ACC Championships, five more than Florida State, which ranks second with 15. That year, Clemson became the first program in the conference championship game era to win six straight conference championship games. Clemson also became the first ACC program to win six consecutive outright titles, as Florida State had a streak of nine straight ACC titles, but that streak included two co-championships that prevented Bobby Bowden's Seminoles from ever winning more than three straight titles outright.

Including titles from its days as a member of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association and Southern Conference, Clemson has 26 conference championships overall, also the most of any current ACC school. Duke ranks second among the ACC's current membership with 18 overall conference titles, including 11 Southern Conference titles and seven ACC titles.

The Tigers won the 1900, 1902 and 1903 SIAA Conference championships under John Heisman, then the 1906 SIAA title under Bob Williams. Clemson also won the 1940 and 1948 Southern Conference titles under Frank Howard. Howard won eight total conference titles, including two in the Southern Conference and six in the ACC.

POWER OVER THE POWER FIVE

Early in his head coaching tenure, Dabo Swinney laid out his belief to then-Clemson athletic director Terry Don Phillips that the Tigers needed to add tough non-conference challenges on top of their tests in ACC play to serve as a foundation for the program's growth.

"I had a conversation with Terry Don and said, 'Terry Don, I know we are not very good right now, but we need to play people because that is going to help me teach and help me develop the culture and the mindset that you have to have to win at the highest level,'" recounted Swinney. "I didn't think we had that, and that's what we committed to. That's what we've done."

That scheduling philosophy and culture change has resonated in the Clemson program, and since 2013, no team can claim more wins against Power Five

SIGN AND DEVELOP

While proud of his incoming classes, Head Coach Dabo Swinney has long stated that a true ranking of a recruiting class cannot and should not be published until four years later when the group can be evaluated on performance rather than potential.

Much to Swinney's delight, The Athletic has annually assumed that role in recent years, re-ranking every recruiting class four years later to account for on-field performance.

For its re-rankings, The Athletic uses the following grading scale: 5 points: All-American, award winner, top-50 NFL Draft pick; 4: Multi-year starter, all-conference honors; 3: One-year starter or key reserve; 2: Career backup; 0: Minor or no contribution, left the program. The outlet also adds a bonus to each program's class average, derived from its total number of wins from 2017 through 2020 (e.g.: For re-ranking the Class of 2017, Clemson won 51 games, so its class average received a bonus of 0.51).

Even in its current stretch of recruiting success, Swinney has often pointed out Clemson drops in rankings as its commitment to not oversigning leads to smaller recruiting classes, as well as noting that much of Clemson's on-field success is a function of the program's development, citing All-Americans like former three-star Isaiah Simmons or former two-star Nolan Turner. The re-rankings illustrate Clemson's pristine recent track record of talent identification, culture fit, resource allocation and player development.

CLEMSON RECRUITING RANKINGS AND RE-RANKINGS (VIA THE ATHLETIC)

2014	16	6	+10	50-7
2015	9	2	+7	55-4
2016	11	1	+10	55-4
2017	16	5	+11	51-5
2018	7	2	+5	49-6
Average	11.8	3.2	+8.6

Note: Initial rank according to 247 Composite

On average, Clemson finished roughly 12th in the 247 Composite team rankings across the 2014-18 recruiting cycles. Upon re-ranking those groups, despite having little room for improvement while recruiting at a Top 15 clip in that span, Clemson ranked 3.2 on average in the re-rankings, a ratings bump of about eight-and-a-half spots. Each of those Clemson classes averaged at least 12 wins a season during their careers.

ONE OF THE FASTEST TO 150 WINS

With a win against Iowa State in the 2021 Cheez-It Bowl, Head Coach Dabo Swinney earned his 150th career head coaching win in only his 186th career game.

Among coaches who qualify for the NCAA FBS record book by virtue of five years or 50 wins as a major college head coach, only 16 entered 2022 having reached 150 career wins in 200 games or less. Fourteen of the 16 are College Football Hall of Famers, with the 15th and 16th — Swinney and Urban Meyer — likely to be inducted upon meeting eligibility requirements.

Swinney became the sixth-fastest FBS coach to 150 career wins — two games behind Fielding Yost and Joe Paterno — and the fourth-fastest in the modern era.

Four previous Clemson head coaches earned 150+ FBS wins in their careers: John Heisman (186), Jess Neely (207), Frank Howard (165) and Ken Hatfield (168). Howard, a College Football Hall of Famer, is the only coach to reach 150 career wins as Clemson's head coach. He recorded his 150th victory in his 273rd career game, in a 14-10 victory against Maryland in 1966 that clinched a piece of what later became an outright ACC title. Heisman earned win No. 150 in game No. 203, Neely earned it in game No. 268, and Hatfield did it in game 259, though none of those three won more than 43 games in their Clemson tenures.

Included below are the number of games needed for a sample of other notable coaches to reach 150 victories: John Vaught (201), Mark Richt (205), Red Blaik (207), Dan Devine (208), Woody Hayes (209), Bear Bryant (212), Ara Parseghian (212), Pat Dye (212), Bobby Bowden (213), Pop Warner (214), LaVell Edwards (214), Jim Tressel (214), Vince Dooley (214), Amos Alonzo Stagg (225), John Cooper (225), Frank Beamer (230), Lou Holtz (230), Bill Snyder (231), Johnny Majors (255), George Welsh (261), Hayden Fry (277).

FIRST 15 SEASONS

With his 150th career win in the 2021 Cheez-It Bowl, Dabo Swinney moved into third on the all-time leaderboard for the most wins through the first 15 years of a head coaching career in FBS history, moving past College Football Hall of Famer Barry Switzer.

Impressively, Swinney has amassed his total despite not having the benefit of a full season in his first year. Swinney went 4-3 on an interim basis in his first season in 2008 after taking over for Tommy Bowden in October.

Swinney can continue to add to his total in his 15th season in 2022.

HEAD COACH CONTINUITY

Over the last decade, Clemson became a beacon of stability in the increasingly unstable environment of college football. Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney is in his 20th overall season at Clemson in 2022, including his 14th full season as head coach (and his 15th including an interim stint in 2008).

From the start of Swinney's first season as full-time head coach in 2009 through 2021, there were more than 400 head coaching tenures in the FBS (excluding those by interims), but only one such tenure at Clemson.

Clemson is the only school in the ACC with only one head coach since the start of the 2009 season, and among the 13 schools ever to qualify for the College Football Playoff, only Clemson and Alabama have had only one head coach since 2009.

SIX "FINAL FOURS" FOR SWINNEY

While the term "Final Four" may still be the linguistic property of college basketball, since the advent of the four-team College Football Playoff in 2014, Head Coach Dabo Swinney had Clemson among the sport's final four teams six times from 2015-20, becoming the first coach to lead a team to six consecutive College Football Playoffs since the format's institution in 2014.

The NCAA men's college basketball tournament dates to 1939. In the history of that tournament, only John Wooden of UCLA (nine from 1967-75) and Mike Krzyzewski of Duke (five from 1988-92) coached teams to at least five consecutive Final Fours. With his sixth "Final Four" appearance in 2020, Swinney joined basketball's Wooden as the only college football or men's basketball coaches to take teams to six consecutive Final Fours in their respective sports.

During Wooden's streak of nine straight Final Fours, he recorded eight championships and a semifinal loss. Coach K's Blue Devils recorded two championships, a second-place finish and three semifinal losses. Nick Saban's Final Four history includes three championships, three runner-up finishes and a semifinal loss, while Swinney so far has two championships, two runner-up finishes and two semifinal losses.

Swinney is among only nine coaches in football and men's basketball to record six career Final Four berths. He is one of only six with a winning record in Final Four games.

Swinney's ability to place his team among the nation's elite quartet has also been illustrated by the polls. Clemson finished first in the AP Poll in 2016 and 2018, second in 2015 and 2019, third in 2020 and fourth in 2017. Swinney became just the fourth coach to record at least six consecutive top four finishes since the AP Poll began in 1936, an exclusive list that also includes Florida State's Bobby Bowden (13), USC's Pete Carroll (seven) and Oklahoma's Bud Wilkinson (six).

Clemson's streak represented the fifth time a program has had a run of at least six top four finishes in the AP Poll. Miami (Fla.) had a seven-year run from 1986-92 with two different head coaches leading the program.

Every Clemson signing class under Swinney except for the classes of 2021 and 2022 has at least one ACC title to their credit in their tenures at Clemson, and every signing class from 2012-20 earned at least one College Football Playoff berth.

HISTORY AT NO. 1

In the 2019 and 2020 preseason polls, Clemson became the sixth program since the inception of the preseason poll in 1950 ever to open consecutive preseason polls at No. 1, joining Alabama (2016-18), USC (2004-05), Oklahoma (1985-87, 1974-75, 1956-57), Ohio State (1969-70) and Notre Dame (1953-54).

Prior to topping out at No. 3 in 2021, Clemson appeared at No. 1 in at least one AP Poll in six consecutive years from 2015-20. Dabo Swinney joined Nick Saban (14) as the only coach in AP Poll history (since 1936) to lead a team to at least one No. 1 ranking in six consecutive years. Clemson, Alabama (14 from 2008-21) and Miami (seven from 1986-92) are the only programs to appear at No. 1 in at least six consecutive years.

NATION'S LONGEST WIN STREAK

With Clemson having been eulogized and all but left for dead after a 4-3 start in 2021, there wasn't much national optimism for a rebound or for Clemson to carry much momentum into 2022.

Instead, Clemson won its final six games of the 2021 season and has since won its first five games of 2022, giving the Tigers the nation's longest active winning streak.

WHEN IN DOUBT, CLEMSON RESPONDS

In Head Coach Dabo Swinney's tenure, the Tigers have routinely responded well following dips in the AP rankings.

Under Swinney, Clemson is 29-6 in games in which it enters ranked lower in the AP Poll than it did in its previous contest. This includes the 2014, 2016, 2017, 2018 and 2021 season openers in which Clemson opened the season lower than its ranking from the final game of the previous campaign. Before a loss to Georgia to open 2021, Clemson had won its previous 17 games when entering ranked lower in the AP Poll than in its previous game.

Clemson is also 29-7 in games following a loss under Swinney, including season openers following a loss in the previous season finale. Losses to Top 5 opponents Ohio State and Georgia across the 2020 and 2021 seasons ended a streak of 127 games since losing back-to-back contests, which had been the longest active streak in the nation and the longest in ACC history.

Previously, Clemson's last time losing back-to-back games had come in 2011. That also represents the last time Clemson has lost consecutive games in a single season.

ACC WINNING STREAKS

Clemson has won 61 of its last 66 games vs. ACC opponents, a time frame that includes ACC Championship Game wins against North Carolina (2015), Virginia Tech (2016), Miami (2017), Pitt (2018), Virginia (2019) and Notre Dame (2020). Clemson has an active winning streak against 12 of its 13 ACC counterparts, with at least three games comprising 11 of those 12 streaks.

Clemson is responsible for three of the eight-longest winning streaks in ACC conference play all-time.

TAKING CARE OF BUSINESS

Prior to a loss at NC State in late September of 2021, Clemson had won 36 consecutive games against teams unranked in the AP Poll, the program's second-longest such winning streak since the inception of the poll in 1936. Prior to the loss to NC State, Clemson's last defeat at the hands of an unranked squad had come in 2017 at Syracuse.

Clemson's longest winning streak against unranked teams came across the 2012-16 seasons, when Clemson won 46 in a row starting with a season-opening win against Auburn in 2012 and ending with an upset loss to Pitt in 2016.

Clemson is 120-13 against AP-unranked teams under Dabo Swinney, including wins in 97 of 100 games against those unranked teams since the start of the 2012 season.

-- NO. 1 RB WILL SHIPLEY --

SHIP HAPPENS

Despite Clemson's roster featuring a backfield group that players and coaches have described as a trio of NFL-caliber running backs, sophomore Will Shipley has emerged as a difference maker early in his career and early in the 2022 season.

Shipley recorded multiple touchdowns on the ground in each of Clemson's first three games and now has multiple rushing touchdowns in almost half (seven) of his 15 career games played. This year, he became the first Clemson player in single-game records back to 1950 to score multiple rushing touchdowns in each of the first three games of a season.

Shipley is already one of six Clemson players since 2000 to record at least seven career games with multiple rushing touchdowns.

SHIP'S MAIDEN VOYAGE IN 2021

Despite missing three games of his debut season due to multiple injuries, Shipley led Clemson in rushing touchdowns (11), total touchdowns (11), rushing attempts (149) and rushing yards (738) as a true freshman in 2021.

Shipley's freshman performance in 2021 was another entry in Clemson's recent history of feature backs declaring their arrival immediately. Clemson was led in rushing yards in each of the previous seven years by either Wayne Gallman (2014-16) or Travis Etienne (2017-20), both of whom led Clemson in rushing in their freshman seasons (Gallman's redshirt freshman season in 2014 and Etienne's true freshman season in 2017). Before Shipley, the last time someone other than Etienne or Gallman led Clemson in rushing in a season was 2013 (Rod McDowell), when Shipley was in fifth grade.

Shipley's 2021 performance ranked second in rushing touchdowns by a Clemson true freshman since 1972.

INTERCEPTION AVOIDANCE

In his debut season in 2020, Uiagalelei became only the second FBS player since 2000 to throw at least 115 passes and record at least five passing touchdowns and no interceptions, joining Georgia Southern's Shai Werts from 2018.

Uiagalelei's first career interception came on his 12th pass of the 2021 season opener, the 129th pass attempt of his career. His interception-free streak of 128 passes concluded only 37 attempts shy of the Clemson record for most pass attempts without an interception to start a career, held by Cullen Harper (first 165 passes of his career that spanned 2005-07).

He ranks second in Clemson records in career interception percentage among qualified passers.

"BIG CINCO'S" BIG COMEBACKS

In Uiagalelei's first career start in October of 2020, Clemson trailed Boston College at home, 28-10, with 1:02 remaining in the first half. With no timeouts, Uiagalelei led a 10-play, 42-yard drive in 55 seconds to get a B.T. Potter 50-yard field goal before half. The drive jumpstarted Clemson's comeback 34-28 victory, as the Tigers scored 24 unanswered for the win. Of note:

- Clemson trailed by 18 points in the first half, making the win Clemson's largest home comeback victory in school history.

- The win tied for the second-largest comeback win in school history at any location, matching an 18-point comeback at Maryland in 2011, which had also stood as Clemson's largest comeback win under Dabo Swinney.

In 2021, Uiagalelei helped engineer fourth-quarter comeback wins in back-to-back games against Florida State on Oct. 30 and at Louisville on Nov. 6. Against Florida State, Clemson led going into the fourth quarter but fell behind on a strip-sack recovered for a touchdown with fewer than eight minutes to play. Uiagalelei and Clemson engineered a three-play, 58-yard touchdown drive to reclaim the lead with fewer than three minutes to play in the win.

A week later, Clemson trailed 24-17 entering the fourth quarter but outscored the Cardinals 13-0 in the final frame to earn the victory. The wins gave Clemson fourth-quarter comeback victories in back-to-back games for the first time in the Dabo Swinney era.

Uiagalelei is one of seven Clemson quarterbacks since 2000 to engineer multiple fourth-quarter wins (tied or trailing) and one of three to do so at least four times. He engineered his fourth career fourth-quarter comeback win in Clemson's dramatic double-overtime win at Wake Forest on Sept. 24.

-- NO. 16 WR WILL TAYLOR --

MAVERICK CLEARED FOR TAKEOFF

In the summer of 2021, a pair of Clemson enrollees faced a difficult decision. Though both had signed as dual-sport scholarship athletes to play football and baseball at Clemson, incoming freshman quarterback Bubba Chandler and wide receiver Will Taylor were both slated as presumptive early-round picks in the 2021 MLB Draft.

When the draft came, Chandler made known his services would be available to MLB teams and opted for pro baseball after being selected in the third round by the Pittsburgh Pirates. However, despite first-round feedback, Taylor told MLB teams he wanted to pursue his dream of playing both sports at Clemson and told Clemson coaches Dabo Swinney (football) and Monte Lee (former baseball coach) of his intent to play collegiately.

"I've heard the term 'life-changing' [money] and that's true, but also it was going to have to be the perfect situation for me to leave this place," Taylor said of his options. "We kind of knew what the college experience was going to be like. We didn't really know what the professional life was like."

The Texas Rangers took a flyer on Taylor in the 19th round, but Taylor was already mentally on his way to carving out a role on Clemson's football team. He won the starting punt return job in Clemson's season opener against Georgia and a week later recorded a 51-yard punt return against SC State.

Taylor's attitude garnered him the nickname "Maverick" from former offensive coordinator Tony Elliott.

"I called him Maverick first [because] he reminds me of a young Tom Cruise from Top Gun. He's got that feistiness to him, that edge to him. I think he likes it too," Elliott said in 2021. "He provides a spark around here. What I think he's done, too, he has garnered the respect of everybody in that locker room. It's obviously tough for him, coming in as a baseball and football guy, so he came in with some challenges. But he came in here and right away showed the guys in the locker room that 'Hey, I'm a football guy. I'll do whatever it takes,' and kind of dispelled all of that."

The electrifying slot receiver who trained as an emergency quarterback in his first year had his freshman football season end prematurely — and his freshman baseball season start late — as the result of an ACL tear in Clemson's fifth football game.

Beyond his multi-sport skillset that has Swinney and his baseball counterparts debating whether his future is as an NFL slot receiver or as an MLB outfielder, Taylor's demeanor, mindset and drive continue to impress them most.

"This kid turned down millions of dollars to play football and baseball and chase his dream," Swinney said. "He's just a natural. He's a gamer. He's got incredible moxie and poise."

-- NO. 80 WR BEAUX COLLINS --

IT'S BEAUX TIME

As a true freshman last season, wide receiver Beaux Collins debuted a touchdown celebration in which he pointed to an invisible watch on his wrist. The message? "It's Beaux Time."

The clever play on the "It's Bo Time" motto of fast food giant Bojangles has been on display every game this season, as Collins has caught a touchdown pass in each of the Tigers' first four games, becoming the first Clemson player to record a receiving touchdown in each of the first four games of a season since freshman phenom Sammy Watkins in 2011.

Collins is one of 22 players this season to catch a touchdown in at least four different games.

-- NO. 84 TE DAVIS ALLEN --

ALLEN ASCENDING

With two touchdowns, including the eventual game-winner, at Wake Forest, tight end Davis Allen pushed his career touchdown reception total to nine, one shy of becoming the sixth tight end in Clemson history to reach double-digit career touchdown receptions.

Allen caught two touchdown passes among his 36 yards on four receptions while Briningstool posted career highs with six catches for 72 yards and another score. A week later, Allen and Briningstool combined for eight catches for 75 yards and a touchdown in a win vs. No. 10 NC State.

The duo gives Clemson as significant a 1-2 punch as it has had at tight end under Dabo Swinney.

-- DEFENSE --

THE CFP ERA'S DOMINANT DEFENSE

Since the advent of the College Football Playoff in 2014, Clemson has routinely produced one of the nation's elite defenses.

Clemson has ranked in the Top 15 in the country in total defense in each of the last eight seasons and has ranked among the Top 25 in scoring defense in each of those campaigns (including four Top 5 finishes in the category). The 2021 season was Clemson's sixth time finishing in the Top 10 in both categories in the last eight years.

WELCOME BACK, POTTER

Head Coach Dabo Swinney joked on Signing Day in February that Clemson's biggest signee of its 2022 recruiting class wasn't a freshman or a transfer, it was placekicker B.T. Potter, who opted to use his extra year of eligibility and return for his super senior fifth season. Potter was a Groza Award semifinalist in 2019 and enters 2022 as a prime candidate for that award, as he is Clemson's school record holder in career field goals of both 40-plus and 50-plus yards and ranks among the leaders in Clemson history in career PATs, career points by a kicker, career points and field goals.

Potter is the only player in Clemson history to score 100 points in three different seasons, has been one of the nation's foremost kickoff specialists and holds the Clemson record for consecutive PATs made (122 from 2018-20).

THE OTHER SWINNEY DYNASTY

Like Colquitts punting at Tennessee, Swinneys holding at Clemson are becoming a dynasty of their own.

Head Coach Dabo Swinney's oldest son, Will, arrived at Clemson in 2017 and immediately earned Clemson's starting holder position on placekicks. He played five seasons and a record-tying 69 games at Clemson through 2021. In those five seasons, Clemson scored 565 points on placekicks, including field goals and PATs, and he held for 558 of those 565 points.

The only seven Clemson kicking points not held by Will in his career were instead held by his brother, Drew, now Clemson's starter at the position in 2022. Drew is joined on the roster this season by the youngest of the three Swinney boys, Clay, who could claim the role in future seasons. Clay's arrival creates a plausible scenario in which every Clemson placekick in a full 10-year span from 2017-26 could be held by a Swinney.

Clemson's last hold by any player outside the Swinney family was on the final point of Clemson's 2016 national championship, as Seth Ryan, coincidentally also the son of a famous long-time coach (Rex Ryan), held the PAT following Hunter Renfrow's game-winning touchdown with one second remaining.

SUCCEEDING DESPITE ATTRITION

Attrition unlike any Clemson had faced in the Dabo Swinney era reared its head in 2021. By the time Clemson wrapped up its 2021 Cheez-It Bowl win, for various reasons, the Tigers were without the services of 30 scholarship players from the start of the season.

Clemson had 48 different players record at least one start in 2021, eight more than its 40 different starters in 2020's erratic and unpredictable pandemic-impacted season. Only 23 Clemson players played in every game, and only six started every game (including kicker and punter).

RETURNING EXPERIENCE

The 2021 Tigers faced a perfect storm of injuries, attrition, adversity and inexperience in key positions but battled to finish 10-3 in what Head Coach Dabo Swinney called a victory for the team's culture. Clemson continued its historic 10-win-season streak despite only four offensive or defensive players starting every game and despite the Tigers ending the season with an incredible 30 scholarship players unavailable.

But for all the strife those injuries created in 2021, Clemson stands to benefit from them greatly in 2022. Entering fall camp, Clemson returned 53 lettermen among its 81 returning players that have appeared in at least one game at Clemson, and while Clemson returned 15 of its 22 primary offensive and defensive starters from 2021, a total of 36 different returning players entered 2022 having started at least one career game for the Tigers.

STRENGTH OF RECORD

Clemson's only losses in 2021 came in one-score games against No. 1 Georgia and No. 20 North Carolina State and a 10-point loss to No. 13 Pitt, three teams that finished 2021 with a combined 34-7 record (all AP rankings from final poll).

Clemson has lost only 10 games since 2015 and only six games since 2018. Six of Clemson's 10 losses since 2015 have come against AP Top 5 teams, and those six were all College Football Playoff participants that season.

The opponents to whom Clemson has lost since 2015 have a combined final record of 104-25, a winning percentage of .806. Since 2018, opponents responsible for Clemson's defeats have a combined final record of 65-10 (.867).

CARDIAC CLEMSON

In rattling off 10 consecutive 10-win seasons from 2011-20, Clemson's dominance resulted in the Tigers playing only 32 games decided by one possession, the 13th-fewest in the FBS in that span (with many of the teams ranked lower having not played at the FBS level throughout that entire timeframe).

The Tigers diverged a bit from their runaway-game reputation in 2021, as cardiac Clemson had seven of its 12 games against FBS opponents in 2021 be decided by eight or fewer points (and nine of the 12 be decided by 10 or fewer points). Clemson nearly played another one-possession game against Florida State on Oct. 30 until a defensive touchdown on a desperation lateral play on the final play of the game gave Clemson a 10-point victory margin over the Seminoles.

Clemson's nine games with a margin of 10 or fewer points tied for second nationally.

In that span, Clemson is outrushing opponents by an average yardage margin of 192-52 per game. This week, Clemson can record its eighth streak of 10 or more games outrushing opponents since 1954.

Clemson is a perfect 28-for-28 in red zone scoring in 2022, one of only six FBS programs to convert every red zone drive into points this season. Clemson's 28 red zone drives have featured 21 touchdowns and seven field goals.

According to research assistance furnished by Stats Perform, Clemson's streak of scoring in 28 consecutive red zone drives is the program's longest of the last 12 seasons.

PLAYERS PER GAME

Announcers, you're going to need a bigger board. In four of the last five seasons, Clemson led all Power Five conference teams in average players per game. Prior to the 2021 season in which Clemson's playing rotations were limited by significant attrition, the last time Clemson did not lead Power Five teams in that category was in 2016, when Clemson finished second in that category.

2019	Clemson	76.0
2020	Clemson	72.0
2021	Duke	65.2

Note: includes independent Notre Dame, which has College Football Playoff access equivalent with Power Five conferences

Clemson has not only often led the nation in that category but has typically lapped the field. In 2019, Clemson played an average of 76.0 players per game, an average that far exceeded all Power Five programs by more than 11 players — a full unit — per game.

Clemson finished fourth in the Power Five with 63.9 players per game in 2021 but tied for the Power Five lead in total players played.

The approach to creating functional depth and rewarding players ready to play has been a key philosophy for Head Coach Dabo Swinney, whose own collegiate playing career was hatched as a walk-on fighting for playing time in Alabama's receiving corps.

"We're fully committed to playing guys who deserve to play," Swinney said. "You commit to a guy early in the season, and even if a guy has only played 10 percent of the snaps, when you get to game eight or nine, they've got some good experience."

Clemson played 90 players in its 48-20 win against Louisiana Tech, one shy of cracking the Top 10 under Swinney.

YOUTH IS SERVED

In the first year of new redshirt regulations in 2018, Clemson played a then-school-record 20 true freshmen. Clemson immediately shattered that record in its 2019 season opener, with 27 true freshmen making their collegiate debuts in that contest. An additional eight true freshmen made their debuts to push that 2019 total to a school-record 36.

In 2020, Clemson played 27 true freshmen, tied for the most in the country at the end of the regular season. Twenty-two first-year freshmen made their debut for Clemson in 2021 and another 20 have debuted for Clemson already in 2022.

Coinciding with redshirt rule changes, Clemson's four most recent seasons have resulted in the most game action for first-year freshmen since 1982.

Clemson's 20 true freshmen to make their Clemson debuts in 2022 include: WR Antonio Williams, CB Jeadyn Lukus, S Sherrod Covil Jr., LB Wade Woodaz, S Kylon Griffin, RB Keith Adams Jr., CB Toriano Pride Jr., LB T.J. Dudley, LB Fletcher Cothran, LB Kobe McCloud, TE Griffin Batt, K Robert Gunn III, S/P Brodey Conn, S Caleb Nix, S Boston Miller, OL Collin Sadler, OL Blake Miller, TE Josh Sapp, WR Clay Swinney and DT Caden Story.

In the 2021 season opener against Georgia, Clemson started two true freshmen in the first game of a season for the first time under Dabo Swinney. Safety Andrew Mukuba became the first Clemson true freshman to start at defensive back in records back to 1973, and guard Marcus Tate became only the third true freshman offensive lineman to start a season opener at Clemson since 1973, joining center James Farr (1980) and tackle Mitch Hyatt (2015).

In 2022, true freshman Blake Miller added himself to the list, as his physical and mental preparedness impressed Clemson's veterans, including fellow offensive lineman Walker Parks.

"Blake came in in January, and we had to check his birth certificate because we thought he was 25 years old," Parks said. "That might be the most developed freshman we've ever seen, out-lifting dudes and out-running dudes... He's a great player, he's smart, picks things up fast and he's physical."

By starting the season opener against Georgia Tech, Miller became only the third true freshman offensive tackle to start a season opener for Clemson since 1944 (Hyatt in 2015, Phil Prince in 1944).

THIRD-DOWN SUCCESS

Clemson reliably produced a Top 30 national ranking in third-down conversion percentage every year from 2015-20, including three Top 15 rankings and two Top 10 finishes in that category. Then in 2021 with its offensive line and corps of playmakers besieged by injuries, Clemson plummeted to No. 87 in third-down conversion percentage.

This season, Clemson is back to its old ways on the money down, ranking ninth in the nation at 52.6 percent.

That includes a historic 16-for-23 third-down performance at Wake Forest on Sept. 24. Clemson's 16 third-down conversions were a school single-game record, surpassing its 15 against Western Carolina in 1983. It marked only the 12th time since 2000 that an FBS team converted at least 16 third downs in a single game.

reflected in the statistical growth of quarterback DJ Uiagalelei. After not even ranking among the Top 100 quarterbacks in the nation in passer rating on third down a season ago, he now ranks 12th in the nation among qualified passers in pass efficiency on third down in 2022.

Clemson's recent track record of prolific offense and stingy defense has helped Clemson produce nine of its 11 best single-game yardage differentials in school history since 2014. Only Clemson's plus-467-yard margin in total yards against The Citadel in 1954 and its plus-464-yard margin against Wake Forest in 2000 predate the 2014 season among the Top 10 yardage margins in Clemson annals.

OFFENSIVE BALANCE

Clemson's distribution of talent throughout its offense and its willingness to adapt to how defenses are game planning has resulted in the Tigers fielding one of the nation's more balanced offenses in recent years. In 2018, Clemson set a school record with 3,723 rushing yards. In 2020, Clemson set a school record with 348.5 passing yards per game.

Clemson has exceeded both 200 passing yards and 200 rushing yards in 57 games under Dabo Swinney, posting a perfect record in those contests. Clemson's 23 such games since the start of the 2018 season are among the most in the country.

yards and pass for at least 15,000 passing yards. Clemson was also the only program in the country to rush for 150+ rushing touchdowns and throw 120+ passing touchdowns from 2018-21.

School	Rush Yds.	Pass Yds.	Total Yds
Clemson	11,359	15,177	26,536
Oklahoma	11,234	15,578	26,812

Clemson has averaged at least 200 rushing yards and 200 passing yards per game four times in school history, with two of those seasons occurring in the 2018 and 2019 campaigns. Clemson broke the 3,000-yard mark both rushing and passing in both 2018 and 2019, two of three 3,000/3,000 seasons in school history (2015).

YARDS PER PLAY

Clemson shattered its school record for yards per play in 2018 at 7.35, the program's first time exceeding seven yards per play in a season. That record stood for barely 12 months until Clemson broke it again in 2019 by averaging 7.38 yards per play. Including Clemson averaging 6.69 yards per play in 2020, Clemson's top three yards-per-play averages in school history have all come within the four previous seasons.

2.	2018	7.35
3.	2020	6.69
4.	2006	6.50
5.	2015	6.39

In 2018-19, Clemson became only the third school since 2000 to average 7.35 or better yards per play in back-to-back seasons, joining Alabama, which did it across 2018-19, and Oklahoma, which was in the midst of a four-year streak across the 2016-19 seasons.

Collectively, Clemson averaged 7.2 yards per play across the 2018-20 seasons, joining Oklahoma (7.9) and Alabama (7.8) as the only programs to average at least seven yards per play across those three seasons.

650-POINT SEASONS

Clemson remains responsible for two of the 22 650-point seasons in major college football history and two of only 16 since Division I split in 1978. Clemson was the first school with back-to-back 650-point seasons since Yale in 1888-89, predating the start of official NCAA recordkeeping in 1937 and the second year of which was coincidentally the year Clemson was founded.

POINTS OFF TURNOVERS

Clemson's offense and defense have both been dominant in possessions following turnovers since the 2018 ACC Championship Game. Since that time, the Tigers hold a 370-96 advantage against opponents in points off turnovers.

In 2021, Clemson allowed only 27 points off turnovers. However, 21 of those points came off of two pick-sixes and a strip-sack fumble return, so the Clemson defense surrendered only an incredible six points on possessions following Clemson turnovers last year. The only offenses to score following a Clemson turnover in 2021 were South Carolina State, which turned a fumble at the Clemson 36 into a field goal, and Iowa State, which turned an interception at the Clemson 28 into three points.

Clemson is outscoring teams 38-3 off of turnovers in 2022. The Tigers won the points-off-turnover battle, 21-3, in the game and also added a touchdown after a turnover on downs, accounting for 28 points in Clemson's 28-point win. Clemson also won the points-off-turnovers margin by a 10-0 mark against No. 10 NC State in a 10-point win.

FINISH

In 2018, Clemson debuted a new version of its "This is Why We Work" fourth quarter video at Death Valley, a hype video imploring the team to finish and featuring Director of Strength and Conditioning Joey Batson bellowing:

"Let me tell you something right now: they don't put championship rings on smooth hands! You gotta go earn it! You gotta go earn it six seconds at a time! You win championships when the stadium is empty, when the band ain't playing, when the cheerleaders ain't cheering, when it's just you and your brothers right beside you. That's when you win championships! In the fourth quarter, that is when we shine!"

The video and the speech became a part of Clemson lore, buoyed by its playing during Clemson's comeback win against Syracuse that year en route to a 15-0 national championship season. Over the years, the video has changed but the speech remains the same, with many Clemson fans yelling it in unison as it plays.

Clemson's fixation on finishing has led to the Tigers owning the fourth quarter, with Clemson holding a 122-2 record since 2011 when leading after three quarters. Clemson is also the only Power Five school to be undefeated since 2017 in games in which it holds a lead at halftime.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

- Through the summer of 2022, of 328 eligible players who completed their athletic eligibility at Clemson and/or graduated early in Dabo Swinney's 13+ full years as head coach, 322 (98 percent) have earned a degree during their time at Clemson.

- Clemson broke program multi-year APR records in three straight years from 2017-19 (987 in 2016-17, 992 in 2017-18 and 993 in 2018-19) before the NCAA suspended APR reporting during the COVID-19 pandemic. Upon reinstatement of APR reporting in June 2022, Clemson shattered its multi-year APR record with a 999 covering the 2017-18 through 2020-21 academic years.

- Clemson's 999 APR in that span tied Ole Miss for the FBS lead and finished tied for second nationally across all of Division I, trailing only Columbia University of the Ivy League. Clemson lofty academic success in that period coincided with on-field excellence that included four ACC titles, four College Football Playoff berths, two national championship game berths and the 2018 national championship.

3.	2017-18	992
4.	2016-17	987
5.	2011-12	985

- Clemson, Air Force, Navy, Northwestern and Washington are the only FBS programs to produce a 985+ multi-year APR in each of the last four reported cycles.

- Clemson is the only program in the country to have finished in both the Top 10 percent of NCAA APR data AND the AP Top 25 in 10 of the last 11 academic cycles.

- Clemson is the only FBS program since the NCAA created the APR metric in 2003 to win a national championship and an APR Public Recognition Award in the same year multiple times. Alabama is the only other school to accomplish the title/APR double in a single year once (2011-12 academic year).

Clemson's national academic success has understandably resulted in the shattering of its own internal metrics:

- Clemson posted a program-record 3.11 cumulative GPA in Spring 2022, including a record 81 of 109 players earning a 3.0 or better, far exceeding the previous spring record of 63. Of the 81 with a 3.0 or better, 14 earned a perfect 4.0.

- According to current projections by Clemson's academic staff, 31 different players on Clemson's current roster are expected to have completed their degree program prior to bowl season. Entering the bowl season of its 2018 national championship campaign, Clemson's roster featured 26 graduates, the most of any bowl team that year.

The interest in watching Clemson play hasn't been limited to television broadcasts. Clemson continues to provide one of the marquee in-venue experiences in all of sports, as Clemson enters 2022 having been ranked in the Top 20 in the nation average home attendance at Memorial Stadium for 41 straight seasons.

DEATH VALLEY RENOVATIONS

Clemson's home opener against Furman on Sept. 10 also represented the debut of a substantial number of enhancements to Memorial Stadium and the gameday experience at Death Valley. Among the most recent updates:

- Clemson's videoboard got its first major upgrade since 2005, with nearly five times the surface area of the previous board, which was last updated before the 2012 season. The new video system, affectionately and unofficially nicknamed "DaboTron," measures 127 feet wide by 57 feet tall, eighth-largest in the NCAA. It also sits 20 feet off the ground, giving fans a 365-day open view into the stadium. The new board also features color LED fixtures on the inside and custom portal LED lights for the team entrance. Ribbon boards on the north, south, and west, along with new corner video boards in the west were also upgraded to be higher quality, easier to read, and more immersive.

- The eight main stadium light poles were updated to an LED system, which allows for individual light fixture control, spotlighting of Howard's Rock, and higher-quality field lighting.

- A Tiger has sat atop the video board since the 1970s, and a new Tiger will debut this season, measuring nearly 17 feet wide, with eyes that light up and a tail that wags. The Tiger will also be able to be raised and lowered out of the board as needed. Later this season, the previous Tiger is expected to be available as an interactive element at Tigertown Tailgate. Fans will be able to take a photo with the Tiger and have the tail wag and eyes light up.

- The west side of the stadium received a facelift with the addition of IPTAY's Masters Club, a 688-seat premium area on the concourse level. As part of this renovation, concessions and restrooms in the west were relocated and expanded to the terraces, allowing easier pedestrian flow and access.

- Clemson Athletics partnered with Kulture City to make all its venues and all the programs and events that those venues host sensory inclusive. This new initiative promotes an accommodating and positive experience for all guests and fans with a sensory issue that visits athletic events at Clemson University. Clemson is the first school in the country to be Sensory Certified at every venue. Memorial Stadium, Historic Riggs Field, Littlejohn Coliseum, Jervey Gym, Doug Kingsmore Stadium, and McWhorter Stadium will all carry the Certification and will have available sensory bags, noise canceling headphones, fidget tools, verbal cue cards, and strobe reduction glasses to guests, at Guest Services Stands while attending Events in Clemson Athletic Venues.

- As part of the stadium facade updates, Clemson installed new signage honoring the all-time greats, championship years, and backlighting the traditional "Clemson Welcomes You To Death Valley" signage.

Clemson will begin Phase II of renovations following the 2022 season, including a new gameday locker room and a complete reimagining of Lot 5 and the Tiger Walk experience as a 365-day destination for Clemson fans.

NEW CONTRACT FOR SWINNEY

Clemson Director of Athletics Graham Neff announced on Sept. 8 that Clemson and Dabo Swinney had agreed to a new, enhanced contract. The terms of the agreement, approved by the Clemson University Board of Trustees Compensation Committee that day, extended Swinney's contract through the 2031 football season.

The contract reflects both Swinney's status as one of the nation's elite coaches and Clemson's continued commitment to its storied football program. Swinney, who has led Clemson to two of its three national titles in school history, is one of only two active head coaches with multiple FBS national championships.

Clemson's football success has mirrored Clemson University's continued ascent as one of the nation's premier public universities. As Clemson has made six College Football Playoff appearances in the last seven years, the University set records in applications, fundraising and numerous academic benchmarks while being named in August as one of the nation's three most-trusted public universities.

Quotes from key figures are included below:

Director of Athletics Graham Neff: "I am appreciative of the support from the Board of Trustees to President Clements to ensure we can continue to build on a firm foundation, as Clemson football and Coach Swinney's leadership are a key driver for our university. Coach Swinney and his family's impact on our community and department cannot be understated, and his success and stability nationally is truly uncommon. It is critical that Clemson continue to invest in our football program, and ensure our head coach is at Clemson for a long, long time. The best is yet to come."

Head Coach Dabo Swinney: "It is hard for me to believe I am in my 14th full season as your head coach, and I remain eternally grateful and honored for the opportunity to continue coaching and developing young people of excellence at Clemson." Swinney said. "This agreement is representative of what has been collectively built here and the success we've had both academically and athletically. It is a reflection of the ALL IN commitment of so many people, including our players, our staff, our fans, our administration and our University leadership. While I am certainly proud of our accomplishments on the field, the most rewarding part remains the relationships forged within this program and the ability to positively impact those around us. I am appreciative of the leadership of President Jim Clements, our Board of Trustees and Director of Athletics Graham Neff, and I am thankful for their continued faith in me as well as their steadfast commitment to the future of Clemson Football. Our core mission remains unchanged: Graduate our players, equip them with the tools they need for life, give them a great college experience, and win championships. I do not take for granted the Clemson Family's unwavering love and support and its faith in our program to carry out that mission every day. It is a blessing to be your head coach and to call Clemson our home."

Clemson University President Jim Clements: "Over the past 20 years, Coach Swinney has impacted our football program, our university and the entire Clemson area community, in profound ways. The culture of success and achievement he has instilled in our student-athletes, through both on-field victories and academic accomplishments, is truly remarkable," said Clemson President Jim Clements. "I'm excited Dabo, Kathleen, and their family will remain part of the Clemson Family for years to come."

ALL-ACC SELECTIONS IN 2021

Clemson's 10 selections to the 2021 All-ACC Team were second-most in the conference. Clemson has now produced double-digit All-ACC selections in each of the last seven seasons.

Clemson collected four first-team selections, all from the defense, as defensive tackle Tyler Davis, linebacker James Skalski and cornerbacks Andrew Booth Jr. and Mario Goodrich all earned first-team nods. Three Clemson players were selected to the second team, including offensive tackle Jordan McFadden, defensive end Myles Murphy and placekicker B.T. Potter. Defensive end Xavier Thomas, defensive tackle Bryan Bresee and safety Andrew Mukuba rounded out the selections with third-team honors.

*Note: For listing purposes, Clemson chose to progress classes as though 2020 was a normal year of eligibility. For example, players listed as redshirt sophomores in 2022 following a "redshirt year" in 2020 did not officially redshirt in 2020, but would have qualified for one in a normal year. Clemson will denote extra years of eligibility on the back end of players' careers (i.e.: "Super Seniors" in 2022 are listed with the "+Sr." designation).

2022 GAME RECAPS

GAME 1	CLEMSON	41
	GEORGIA TECH	10
	SEPT. 5, 2022 MERCEDES-BENZ STADIUM • ATLANTA, GA.

ATLANTA — No. 4 Clemson defeated Georgia Tech, 41-10, at Mercedes-Benz Stadium on Labor Day night. Clemson's special teams had a superlative performance, as Carson Donnelly and Wade Woodaz both blocked punts to give Clemson multiple punt blocks in a single game for the first time since 2007.

Clemson's defense made an impact on the game's first play from scrimmage, as pressure from defensive end K.J. Henry resulted in safety Andrew Mukuba's first career interception.

In the second quarter, after its first punt block, Clemson opened the scoring on a one-yard touchdown run by running back Will Shipley. Clemson then drove 67 yards in eight plays and extended the lead on a six-yard touchdown pass from quarterback DJ Uiagalelei to wide receiver Beaux Collins. Clemson would carry a 14-3 lead into halftime.

Georgia Tech drew to within four on a 13-yard touchdown pass early in the third quarter. The Tiger offense provided a quick answer to take a 17-10 lead, as B.T. Potter hit a 29-yard field goal with 5:41 to play in the third quarter, capping a 12-play, 63-yard drive.

The field goal started Clemson's run of 27 unanswered points down the stretch to earn the win. Potter converted field goal attempts of 29 and 32 yards, and the first-team offense added rushing touchdowns by Uiagalelei and Shipley before ceding to the second unit, when true freshman quarterback Cade Klubnik led Clemson 66 yards and found Will Taylor in the end zone for a three-yard touchdown pass, pushing the final margin to 41-10.

GAME 2	FURMAN	12
	CLEMSON	35
	SEPT. 10, 2022 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. — No. 5/4 Clemson scored touchdowns on five of its first six drives in a 35-12 win against Furman. Clemson debuted new renovations to Memorial Stadium, including its 7,100-plus-square-foot videoboard, on a cool, overcast afternoon.

The win was Clemson's 35th consecutive victory at home, only the 15th home winning streak of 35 games or more in FBS history.

Quarterback DJ Uiagalelei completed 21-for-27 passes for 231 yards for a career-high 166.7 passer rating. Clemson rushed for 147 yards on 28 carries, led by Will Shipley, who scored two touchdowns.

Clemson's defense held Furman to 12 points, forced two turnovers and recorded two fourth-down stops. The unit registered nine tackles for loss. Five different Clemson players registered at least seven tackles, including LaVonta Bentley, who had three tackles for loss.

Clemson scored touchdowns on each of its first three possessions with two touchdown runs by Shipley bookending a two-yard touchdown pass from Uiagalelei to Jake Briningstool, giving the Tigers a 21-3 lead early in the second quarter. The teams traded touchdowns in the final two minutes of the first half to enter halftime with a 28-9 Clemson advantage.

Clemson opened the second half with a stop on Barrett Carter's first career interception. On the ensuing drive, Beaux Collins toe-tapped a nine-yard pass from Uiagalelei in the right side of the end zone to give Clemson a 35-9 lead. Furman added a field goal with 48 seconds to play in the third quarter, and a scoreless fourth quarter resulted in the 35-12 final score.

GAME 3	LOUISIANA TECH	20
	CLEMSON	48
	SEPT. 17, 2022 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. — Sophomore running back Will Shipley rushed 12 times for a career-high 139 yards and two touchdowns as Clemson used a 35-point second half in a 48-20 victory over Louisiana Tech. Clemson gained 521 total yards, including 280 on the ground, and forced four turnovers, leading to 21 Tiger points.

The Tigers' defense kept the Bulldogs out of the end zone for the first three quarters and held Louisiana Tech to only six total rushing yards. Quarterback DJ Uiagalelei was 17-of-29 for 221 yards and two scores through the air and picked up 62 yards on the ground on nine carries.

Clemson scored on eight of its 13 drives, not including running out the clock on its final possession. With the game set at 13-6 entering the second half, Clemson exploded for three touchdowns, including a twice scoring 32-yard touchdowns on one-play drives.

Shipley's performance made him the first Clemson player on record back to 1950 to score multiple rushing touchdowns in each of the first three games of a season. He averaged 11.6 yards per carry and became the first Clemson player to average at least 10 yards per carry on at least 10 attempts since Travis Etienne in the 2020 ACC Championship Game against Notre Dame.

R.J. Mickens, Jeremiah Trotter Jr. and Malcolm Greene all recorded interceptions in the contest, while Kevin Swint recorded his first career fumble recovery on a wild snap.

2022 GAME RECAPS

GAME 4	CLEMSON	51
	WAKE FOREST (2OT)	45
	SEPT. 24, 2022 TRUIST FIELD • WINSTON-SALEM, N.C.

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. – No. 5 Clemson earned a dramatic double-overtime win at No. 21/16 Wake Forest, 51-45. Quarterback DJ Uiagalelei completed 26-of-41 passes for a season-high 371 passing yards and a career-high five touchdown passes in the win.

Clemson accumulated 559 total yards. The Tigers converted 16-of-23 third downs, breaking the school record of 15 third down conversions set against Western Carolina in 1983.

Clemson ran out to an early 14-0 lead on touchdown passes from Uiagalelei in the first quarter. Two Wake Forest touchdowns and two B.T. Potter field goals brought the halftime score to 20-14.

A prolific third quarter by Wake Forest with three touchdown passes gave the Demon Deacons a 35-28 lead entering the fourth quarter. Down 38-35, Potter nailed a 52-yarder with 4:01 remaining in regulation and the Clemson defense then held to force overtime.

The teams traded touchdowns and two-point conversions in the first overtime. Uiagalelei then hit Davis Allen for Allen's second touchdown of the game in the second overtime. A beleaguered Clemson secondary then sealed the win with a fourth-down pass breakup on Wake Forest's possession to give the Tigers their first road overtime win since 2009.

GAME 5	NC STATE	20
	CLEMSON	30
	OCT. 1, 2022 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. – In the first Top 10 matchup in the 90-game history of the Clemson-NC State rivalry, No. 5 Clemson defeated No. 10 NC State at an electric, sold-out Memorial Stadium. Clemson recorded its 37th consecutive home win, tying the longest home winning streak in ACC history.

Clemson's defense recorded three sacks and two turnovers while holding NC State to only 34 rushing yards on 21 carries, the Wolfpack's worst yards-per-carry average (1.6) in ACC play since 2016. Offensively, quarterback DJ Uiagalelei passed for 209 yards and a score and ran for a career-high 73 yards and two touchdowns in the victory.

The teams traded long drives and 20-yard field goals on their opening possessions. NC State took a 10-6 lead in the second quarter, but Uiagalelei drove Clemson 75 yards in 1:20 in a two-minute situation to give Clemson a 13-10 halftime lead.

Coming out of halftime, Clemson forced an NC State three-and-out as Barrett Carter and Myles Murphy both registered sacks. On Clemson's ensuing possession, Uiagalelei rushed 39 yards inside the NC State 10-yard line. Uiagalelei then completed a seven-yard touchdown pass to Jake Briningstool, increasing Clemson's lead to 20-10 early in the third quarter.

Toriano Pride Jr. later recorded his first career interception, setting up B.T. Potter's third field goal of the night to increase Clemson's lead to 23-13. A sneaky playaction bootleg by Uiagalelei for his second rushing touchdown of the night extended the lead to 30-13 until a late NC State touchdown brought the final score to 30-20.
