NEWS AND NOTES

- THANK YOU #12: Starting guard and two-year member of the Charlotte women's basketball family Mikayla Boykin had to announce that her collegiate career has ended abruptly after suffering the fifth ACL tear of her career vs. Illinois in the Daytona Beach Invitational on November 25th.
- GRINDING WIN: Mya McGraw dropped in a layup with 13 seconds left while the suffocating defense did its job as the Niners took a 59-58 victory over Cincinnati to wrap up the Daytona Beach Invitational. Dazia Lawrence scored a game-high 21 with Jada McMillian following up with an even dozen.
- SECOND HALF SHOOTING: Through six games this season, the 49ers are shooting 45% from the field in the second half to compare to a slower start of 32% over the first 20 minutes. So far, the third quarter has been the friendliest 10 minutes as the Niners are shooting at a 46% clip. As a team, Charlotte has shot over 40% in three of the six contests.
- 21 TO START: Charlotte's one-point win over Cincinnati was sparked by a 21-point first quarter on 11/26, their third period this season scoring at least 20. The others? A 20-point third and 26-point fourth to erase the season-opening 21-point deficit vs. App. State on 11/8.
- 200! Charlotte Head Coach Cara Consuegra secured her 200th career win in the 55-47 win over VCU on November 20th. Consuegra became the program's all-time winningest coach last season at #176. Ironically, it was also the team's 200th win under Consuegra when holding the opponent to under 50% shooting in the game.
- NCAA RECORD: The 49ers opened the new season with a bang on Tuesday, November 8th setting the NCAA record for largest fourth-quarter comeback in history by turning a 21-point deficit to App. State with 9:48 to play in the 4th into a 98-94 double OT win.

AYLESHA WADEGUARD • 5-6 • SOPHOMORE
YORK, S.C. / CLOVER HS*Consuegra on Wade's Expanding Role:

"Aylesha is always going to be one of our hardest workers on the court. She's going to play with great effort, high intensity, awesome energy, all those things that are expected from a Charlotte women's basketball player. I think this year is going to be pivotal for her in her development as she continues to learn both under and with J-Mac. She is preparing to take over the reins of this team and with that, her role needs to expand to be a playmaker on this team. Finding minutes for her where she can impact this team with her effort, her defensive intensity, being able to knock down open shots or create for others by getting in the paint, those are all things she can do regardless of whether she's at the point guard or off guard position. My hope is she grows as a sophomore in this program that we can use her in both places but ultimately continue to prepare her to be our next point guard."

MYA MCGRAWFORWARD • 6-2 • SOPHOMORE
GAINESVILLE, FLA. / HAWTHORNE HS*Consuegra on McGraw's Potential Impact:

"Mya is someone that has a huge opportunity to step into a more significant role this year. When you look at the past players we lost from a year ago, there are a lot of minutes available. I believe that she is somebody that can be impactful for us with some of those minutes. When it comes to Mya, she can impact the ball on both sides of the floor. Offensively, when she works to get position she is as good finishing as any post player that we've had here. She really can be that good. Defensively, she's got to be a physical presence down there and someone who can lock down the paint. I'm excited to see the steps that Mya will take with the opportunity that she has in front of her this year."

DAVIS' SEASON NOTES

- Knocked down a big three late in the 59-58 win over Cincinnati on 11/26 while tying multiple season-highs
- Hit another triple in a season-high 12 minutes at #10 NC State on 11/16
- Made season debut with 10 minutes of action in 57-48 win over Coppin State hitting a late three while pulling down two boards and tying a career-high with two steals

Consuegra on Higher Expectations for Davis:

"Anytime a player is entering her senior year, there is always a higher expectation and that's no different for Tamia. Being part of this program for several years now, I think she is someone who can bring a lot of positivity, someone who can encourage her teammates, especially the young ones, and help our team continue to maintain the standard. She's worked really hard this summer on her shot and is shooting the ball really, really well in practice and particularly in live situations. I'm hopeful that will carry over to games and she can be someone to come in, stretch the floor for us and open things up for us by knocking some shots down."

YOUNG'S SEASON NOTES

- Tallied first five career points vs. Illinois on 11/25
- Added another five minutes to the career log at #10 NC State on 11/16
- Made long-awaited debut playing three minutes with a rebound in the Niners 57-38 win over Coppin State on 11/11

Consuegra on Young's Continued Growth:

"She has come a really long way throughout this summer and fall in terms of getting back on the same page with our schemes, how we run things and offensively what we're looking for. So many things that freshmen need to learn. I really see Nia as somebody that maybe early might not stand out because she is learning so much. But, if she can stay the course and keep working, I feel like she can come in and as we get into conference play and later in the season, she can impact us at the guard position. Defensively, she's grown a ton. She's done a great job defending all different types of guards and their personnel. Offensively, she's shown a great ability to knock shots down, she can get to the paint, she can finish very well and I think all of those things add up to a player that has a lot of potential in this program and I'm excited about that."

10

DAZIA LAWRENCE

GUARD • 5-8 • REDSHIRT SOPHOMORE
GREENVILLE, N.C. / MALLARD CREEK HS

Consuegra on Lawrence Carrying Momentum:

"I've said many times that the impact Dazia had down the stretch for us last year certainly helped lead us to a championship. We expect Dazia to continue that momentum into this season. She did have a setback this summer with an injury, but she has worked really hard this fall and pre-season to come back and honestly looks like she didn't skip a beat. We really expect Dazia's role to change significantly. She's somebody that can impact both sides of the ball. She can be an elite defender and somebody we can trust to step up and guard the best guard on the other team. Offensively, she has put the work in to improve so many parts of her game. We certainly see her as a three-level scorer for us. She has also really improved her ability to knock down the three, a pull-up jumper, those are two really great shots for her as well. I think Niner fans should be excited to see what she's going to be able to bring this year."

12

MIKAYLA BOYKIN

GUARD • 5-9 • 5TH YEAR
CLINTON, N.C. / DUKE / CLINTON HS

Consuegra on Boykin Poised for Big Season:

"I'm really excited for Mikayla's second year in our program. For as good of a player as she was last year, I think many people don't remember that she had that year, after essentially not really playing coming into that season, based on the situation at Duke and her transfer. She just had a lot of time off. It took her a little bit to get her game legs under her again but she was still a second team all-conference player and at times was the best player on the court for us. I think it's been really fun to watch her in the offseason as she's spent the time on the court getting more reps, getting stronger and a lot more comfortable using her entire skill set. I can't wait to see how that carries over into the season. For as good as she was last year, Kay can continue to grow, keep getting better and can certainly be one of if not the best player in Conference USA."

LAWRENCE'S SEASON NOTES

• C-USA Player of the Week, 11/14

• Shot 47% (8-for-17) from the floor dropping a game-high 18 points in 30 minutes at #10 NC State on 11/16
• In the 11/8 opener vs. App. State, Lawrence sparked the largest fourth quarter comeback in NCAA history as the Niners trailed by 21 with 9:48 to play. After two overtimes, Charlotte pulled out a wild 98-94 victory led by Lawrence's 29 points going with 10 rebounds, two assists, a block and steal. Lawrence scored nine of her 29 in the 4th on 75% shooting sparking the comeback. On Friday, Lawrence dropped 11 more points on 56% shooting during a 19-point, 57-38 win over Coppin State. The redshirt sophomore added eight more rebounds, two assists and another steal. Lawrence led the team with 80 minutes of action out of 90 possible, averaging 20 points/game on 44% shooting with 18 boards averaging nine per game, adding a 3-for-4 stint from behind the arc and 9-of-10 week at the charity stripe.

• Scored 21 points on 47% shooting with five boards and three steals in a 59-58 win over Cincinnati on 11/26
• Dropped 10 more points with five rebounds in a 55-47 win over VCU on 11/20

BOYKIN'S SEASON NOTES

• Boykin's Announcement on 12/1: "I'm here to tell y'all that recently I just tore my ACL for the fifth time. It's kind of a sad day. I'm a little emotional but I'm super excited and proud to say that I achieve a lot of things over my collegiate career. It's also sad to know I'm done playing basketball. Basketball has changed my life. I'm proud of myself for coming this far. I'm super excited to see what my next chapter in life will be. I want to thank Niner Nation for constantly supporting me and being the family that I was always looking for. 12, is out." Full Announcement

• Consuegra on Boykin's Impact/Career: "Mikayla has been an exceptional member of our Niner Nation family. She has represented herself and our team with class. She has worked extremely hard to come back from previous injuries to impact our team and she helped bring a championship to Niner Nation. While my heart hurts for Mikayla today, I know she will continue to serve this team with her leadership and love for each of her teammates. As the next door opens, I have no doubt she will positively impact the world and those around her."

• Scored a game-high 24 points with 10 rebounds for her first double-double of the year, second of her career, during a 55-47 win over VCU on 11/20 ... tied a career-high with four triples made and two blocks
• Tallied nine points, six boards, five assists, two steals and a block in the 57-38 win over Coppin State on 11/11
• Scored a career-high 30 points, 27 in the second half and overtime, sparking Charlotte 98-94 win over App. State on 11/8 ... helped the Niners set a new NCAA Record for largest fourth quarter comeback down 21 with 9:48 to go.
• Named to Conference USA's All-Preseason Team

TRACEY HUESTON

FORWARD • 6-2 • JUNIOR
ROANOKE, VA. / PITT / NORTHSIDE HS

Consuegra on Hueston's Opportunity:

"Tracey has a great opportunity to come into the post position where we need some players to step up and fill some big holes. We certainly have identified her in the recruiting process as somebody who can do that. She has not disappointed. She has come in here and worked extremely hard both physically to improve as a player but mentally to learn the Charlotte way of doing things. She's very coachable and she's really tough on herself because she wants to be really good. Tracey is going to have an impact as soon as the season starts. On the court, she's really going to impact with her rebounding and defensive ability, but I also think she's somebody who can provide some scoring in the post for us. She has versatility in her game and that will help us significantly in our post game this year."

15

JADA McMILLIAN

GUARD • 5-7 • 5TH YEAR
RALEIGH, N.C. / SOUTHEAST RALEIGH HS

Consuegra on Jada's 5th Season Impact:

"I'm really excited for Jada coming into this season. I think throughout her career she has played different roles for us depending on whatever our team needed from her. I think this year being a senior and knowing we need to replace some powerful, offensive weapons she can really step into that role and take some of that load off in terms of scoring. Fans can expect to see a J-Mac more similar to her junior year when she was our second-leading scorer and had the ball in her hands a lot. We certainly would like to utilize her in that way because she's more than capable of that. Defensively, she's going to have to continue to step up for us. She has consistently been one of the best defenders in this league and we're going to need that from her now more than ever. She's going to affect this team on both ends of the court and as a result, she'll be one of the best guards in Conference USA."

JACEE BUSICK

GUARD • 6-1 • JUNIOR
KERNERSVILLE, N.C. / GLENN HS

Consuegra on Busick's Work Ethic, Reliability:

"Jacee has had an outstanding offseason. I'm not sure any player on our roster has put in more work than Jacee has.

She's improved her game in every single area but most notably on the defensive end. I've really been impressed with her ability to guard lots of different positions and guard it well. One of the things I'm most excited about is to see the confidence that she has from all of that work. She has a different bounce about her, she knows who she is, knows how she can help us and confident in the work she has done. She's going to be an elite communicator on the court for us because she knows our schemes, what needs to be done and how it needs to be done. She's confident in her ability to communicate that to her teammates which is going to make her another huge asset. I expect Jacee to take a significant jump this year. We're going to need her to take that jump in order to be successful and I'm excited to see her do it."

23

KAMERON ROACH

GUARD • 5-6 • 5TH YEAR
HOPKINS, S.C. / KENTUCKY / LOWER RICHLAND HS

Consuegra on Kam's Experience:

"I'm looking forward to Kam's second and final season in the program. I think anytime a player comes in new and last year she missed some significant time early, which means she was always playing catch up. With that being said, she still did a really great job for us and impact us significantly as one of our first guards off the bench. I'm excited going into her second year that she's had more time throughout the summer to get more comfortable with what we do and how we do things. Kam, with all the experience she's had throughout her career and being one of the most mature players on our team, she's going to be able to impact our team with her knowledge and leadership. On the court, she can really shoot the ball. We're going to need her to help us stretch the floor. I'm certainly looking forward to those ways she can contribute and help this team."

KEANNA REMBERT

FORWARD • 6-2 • REDSHIRT FRESHMAN
RALEIGH, N.C. / ILLINOIS / MILLBROOK HS

Consuegra on Rembert's Versatility:

"I'm looking forward to seeing Keanna in a Niners uniform. She's a player that can affect the game in so many ways because of her versatility. While she's tall and wiry, fans would be impressed with how strong she is. She can guard many different positions on the court. First and foremost, she has the ability to be a really, really significant defender for us. She rebounds well, learns quick and has done a great job adapting to our style of play. Offensively, she also brings versatility which is going to be important in the post position. She has that ability to stretch the floor. She's continuing to improve her finishing around the rim and anytime we have versatile players in our program, it certainly helps us be more dangerous on both ends of the court."

REMBERT'S SEASON NOTES

• C-USA Freshman of the Week, 11/14

• Rembert made an immediate impact in her first two games in a 49ers uniform averaging 10 points/game, six rebounds/game shooting 50% from the floor in nearly 58 minutes of action. Starting in the Niners historic comeback vs. App State where they trailed by 21 points at the 9:48 mark of the fourth, Rembert scored 13 points with nine rebounds on 63% shooting in that come-from-behind win against the Mountaineers. On Friday, Rembert added seven more points and three boards in only 19 minutes of action after playing 38 on Tuesday in a 19-point win over Coppin State.

• Hit all three free throw and pulled down five rebounds against her former teammates at Illinois on 11/25 ... followed that with her first career start and 32 minutes of action with six points and four boards in a 59-58 win over Cincinnati on 11/26

• Scored 12 points, all in the second half, on 6-of-7 shooting with four rebounds, to help secure the Niners 55-47 win over VCU on 11/20
