BREY TO STEP DOWN AFTER 23 SEASONS

The University of Notre Dame announced on Jan. 19 that Glenn and Stacey Murphy Head Men's Basketball Coach Mike Brey will step away from the program at the conclusion of the 2022-23 season.

"Mike (Brey) and I have talked often in recent years about a future transition in the program's leadership and during our most recent conversation we reached the mutual conclusion that the end of this season represented the right time," said University Vice President and James E. Rohr Director of Athletics Jack Swarbrick.

"That Mike (Brey) is the winningest coach in the 119-year history of Notre Dame men's basketball speaks to his skill as a teacher of the game. His even greater legacy, however, lies in his achievements as an educator and mentor of the young men who played for him. In that sense, he represents this University as well as any coach I have worked with during my time at Notre Dame. And for that reason, I look forward to working with Mike to define his future role within Notre Dame Athletics."

"For over two decades Mike Brey's program has maintained the highest integrity, graduated its student athletes and achieved tremendous success on the court," said Rev. John I. Jenkins, C.S.C., president of the University of Notre Dame. "Despite the many pressures of his sport, he remained at heart a teacher of young men, helping them play at the highest level while growing into adults and preparing for success beyond basketball."

Brey has compiled 481 victories with the Irish, which ranks sixth among active NCAA coaches at their current Division-I schools. Career wise, Brey has achieved a 580-321 (.644) record spanning 28 years at Notre Dame and Delaware. Both his career wins and career games coached rank among the top-20 in active head coaches in Division-I and he's produced 16 20-win seasons at the helm.

Brey has always loved playing at home in front of the Notre Dame students and Irish faithful, and his record backs up that sentiment. Under Brey's guidance, the Irish have gone 314-76 (.805) inside Purcell Pavilion, which ranks as the 15th-most home wins in the country since 2000.

"It has been a great run for me and our program over the past two decades, but it is time for a new voice to lead this group into the future," said Brey. "I want to thank our student-athletes, assistant coaches and support staff who have played such a key role in the culture we have created."

"From Fr. Malloy hiring me, to Fr. Jenkins' guidance and Jack's (Swarbrick) friendship, I leave this place with immense gratitude to the University and I'm proud of everything we've accomplished together. I look forward to working with Jack in any role that can help the Notre Dame family.”

Brey-led Irish squads have reached the NCAA Tournament 13 times, earning 15 victories along the way which ties for the most in program history. Furthermore, Notre Dame was the only school in the nation to earn back-to-back Elite Eight runs in the 2015 and 2016 season.

Brey has also achieved enormous conference success and recognition over the past two decades. A three-time BIG EAST Coach of the Year (2007, 2008, 2011), he finished his tenure in the BIG EAST as the league’s fourth all-time winningest coach with 146 wins (now tied for fifth).

Most notably he went 27-7 in 2011 with a perfect 17-0 record at home. As a result he was named the 2011 A.P. Coach of the Year, USBWA Henry Iba Coach of the Year and Basketball Times Coach of the Year.

It didn’t take long after joining in the ACC in 2013 for Brey and the Irish to make an impression. In 2015, Notre Dame produced a program record 32-6 and defeated Miami, Duke and North Carolina in Greensboro to claim the 2015 ACC Tournament championship. Since, the Irish made an ACC Tournament semifinal appearance in 2016 and title-game appearance in 2017.

Brey has coached six All-Americans, three conference players of the year, 26 different all-conference selections and two Academic All-Americans. In addition, seven student-athletes fulfilled their dreams of being drafted into the NBA under his watch.

ND VS CLEMSON

A series that didn’t begin until Notre Dame was an ACC member, Notre Dame has found much success against Clemson. The Irish lead the series, 8-2, with a 4-1 mark inside Littlejohn Coliseum. The Irish are on a three-game win streak against the Tigers and last defeated them 76-61 at Clemson on Feb. 12, 2022. Dane Goodwin exploded in that game with 20 points. Cormac Ryan also finished in double figures with 12 points.

A LITTLE IRISH MAGIC LEFT

It was Senior Day for both Notre Dame’s six graduates and Head Coach Mike Brey. And that group of resilient Irish made sure to go out on a high note in their last game inside Purcell Pavilion, knocking off No. 25 Pitt, 88-81, tying their season high in points scored. ND controlled most of the game, jumping out to a 14-point lead at halftime and a lead as large as 20 points in the second half. Pitt made it a little interesting, cutting the lead to five, but the Irish held on as Cormac Ryan put the exclamation point on the game with a slam dunk with 14 seconds left.

And what a moment it was for a senior group that’s had its ups and downs. Ryan and Marcus Hammond co-led the team in scoring with 20 points each, as it marked a season high for the latter. All-in-all, 5 grads finished in double figures and even Robby Carmody provided solid minutes down the stretch.

“We wanted it bad, for a variety of reasons,” Ryan said. “At no point, have we ever given up. I think there was starting to be a little bit of a narrative like, the guys don’t want to win. People are ready for spring break. Nobody wanted it more than the guys in that locker room. To send Coach out with a win means everything to us.”

“Call me crazy, but I feel the same way about this group as I did when I was talking to you guys in June,” said Ryan. “I feel the same exact way. It hasn’t gone our way. I’m telling you, I wouldn’t want to play us in Greensboro.”

THE DIFFERENCE A FEW POSSESSIONS CAN MAKE

How unlucky have the Irish been this season? Just in ACC play alone, they have lost 11 games by single digits. Of those 11, a whopping eight have been by five points or less. Plus, an incredible five has been decided by one possession.

If those eight that were decided by five points or less went a different direction, aka the difference of 2-3 possessions, the Irish could easily be sitting at 11-8 and in the middle of the pack.

Taking a deeper look at six of ND’s last eight losses - excluding both Wake Forest games - the Irish have lost by a combined margin of 21 points over those 6 games, which equates to a 3.5 average margin of defeat.

Team	One-Possession Losses	Single-Digit Losses
Notre Dame	5	11
Louisville	3	5
Georgia Tech	2	4
Florida St	1	6
Virginia Tech	3	8
Boston College	1	3
North Carolina	2	8
Syracuse	1	5
Wake Forest	4	7

UNLUCK OF THE IRISH

The Irish battled Duke, No. 7 Virginia and North Carolina to the final minute. All three - Unluck of the Irish.

At Duke, the Irish Trained by 10 in the 2nd half and rallied to make it a one-point game at 62-63 with 36 seconds left. The comeback was fueled by Dane Goodwin, who scored 17 straight points from 12:35-4:29. Goodwin finished with a season high 25 points on 11-of-13 shooting. ND thought they would have a chance for at least the tie at the end if it wasn’t for the heroics of Duke’s Mark Mitchell, who had one field goal at that point in the game. He then hit a corner three with 12.0 seconds left.

A few days later in Charlottesville, the Irish thought they had a miracle at the buzzer. Down two with three seconds on the clock, Trey Wertz was on the free-throw line with one to shoot. He then shot a ‘perfect miss’ as the ball found its way back to him. Wertz calmly dishd to Dane Goodwin who was wide open for the game-winning three. It hit off the rim as ND fell at the buzzer 57-55.

A few days later at home vs North Carolina, it was 57-56 UNC with one minute remaining. UNC’s Davis took his defender 1-on-1 and converted a tough jumper just beyond the free-throw line, extending the lead to 59-56. The Irish put the ball in Starling’s hands and the freshman beat his defender with a driving layup down the right side of the paint - now 59-58 UNC with 30.3 seconds left. Next, the offensive boards helped the Tar Heels again as they got two shots off but no rim. Notre Dame was a second away from a huge defensive stand and on UNC’s third shot of the possession they hit the front end of the rim as the rebound was knocked out-of-bounds. It stayed with UNC with now just nine seconds on the clock, shot-clock off, which meant ND had to foul. The Tar Heels made both free throws and then fouled Notre Dame so they couldn’t shoot the three. ND ultimately fell 63-59.

THREAT FROM THREE

Notre Dame’s offense may struggle from time to time, but you can’t argue with the team’s three-point shooting ability. The Irish rank 3rd in the ACC in made three-pointers per game and 43rd in the country, converting 8.8 per game. Their 8.8 threes per game would crack the program’s all-time top-10 list- the program record is 9.7 set by the 19-20 squad.

Career Three-Pointers Made

Goodwin - 227
Laszewski - 232
Ryan - 208
Hammond - 248
Trey Wertz - 192

Between those 5 players, a whopping 1,107 career three-pointers made.

MARCH MARCUS

Just something about the month of March. After going thru Senior Day festivities on March 1, Hammond had his best game of the season vs #25 Pitt, co-leading the team in scoring with 20 points. Hammond sunk 4-of-6 from three and drained 8-of-11 overall.

down the final stretch of the season. He's moved into a starting role and has posted five double-digit scoring performances over the last eight games. He's averaging 9.0 points and 5.3 rebounds since returning from injury on Feb. 8.

Lubin recently posted a career high 19 points at Wake Forest (2/25), where he went 9-of-13 from the field. He had a near double-double with 8 boards and tied his career high of 3 blocks.

WERTZ WATCHER

Trey Wertz is 8 threes away from 200 in his career and 17 assists away from 500 -- If he can get to both, he'd become just the 3rd Irish player to achieve 200 made threes + 500 career assists since 1996. The other two: Chris Thomas and Prentiss Hubb.

*Note that not all of Trey's threes and assists happened at Notre Dame

Trey is finishing the season strong. His last 3 games, all in double figures, which ties his season high stretch. He's produced at least five assists in three of the last four games - 18 assists total.

RYAN PEAKING

Cormac Ryan got hot in March in 2022 in the NCAA Tournament. He's starting to peak again down the final stretch this year. He's recorded 9 double-digit scoring games over the last 11 contests. That's included a career best 6 straight games in double figures which ended at Duke on Feb. 14.

He just earned his 3rd 20-point game of the season in ND's upset win over #25 Pitt - 6th of his career.

Lastly, he's averaging 15.3 ppg over the last 3 games.

UNLUCK OF THE IRISH (PART II)

A difference in a few possessions - one in each of the following games - Syracuse x2, Florida State, Boston College, NC State and at Georgia Tech.

1st game vs. Syracuse - Down five, with under 1:20 to play, Cormac Ryan and Marcus Hammond recorded back-to-back three-point plays to go up 61-60, but the Orange answered with 14 seconds on the clock. Notre Dame couldn't connect on the buzzer-beater, falling 62-61.

Florida State - With six seconds remaining on the clock down one, Notre Dame ran a great in-bounds play to Wertz but his next pass to an open and sprinting Cormac Ryan was thrown just a tad too high/long as the Seminoles tracked it down and escaped with a 73-72 win. The Irish were on a 6-0 run with two big defensive stands in the final minute before the final play of the game.

Boston College - The Irish led for the first 37:19 of the game but Boston College closed on a 17-4 run to take it 70-63. Notre Dame led 59-53 with 4 minutes remaining. When BC took its first lead at 1:43, 62-61, Notre Dame went 0-3 on its next three possessions.

2nd game at Syracuse - Irish led for a majority, 26:19 in fact, leading as much as 12 points with 12:54 to play. However, the Orange ultimately closed the game on a 24-10 scoring run, stealing the victory from the Irish in the closing minutes. The Irish, who made a season high 15 three-pointers in the contest, suddenly went cold, missing 8 of their last 9 three-pointer attempts.

At NC State - trailing just 73-76 with 1:51 remaining, the Irish recorded an 0-for-4 stretch from the field to see the gap grow to 7 points before falling 82-85.

At Georgia Tech - With exactly 8 minutes remaining, the Irish were up 60-54 but didn't make another field goal until 2:44. Regardless, the game was tied at 68-all with two minutes left and the Irish missed four shots in that final timeframe. Meanwhile, a missed box-out on the defensive end allowed Georgia Tech to have the put-back tip-in at the buzzer.

TAKEAWAYS FROM UNC GAME

The major positive, outside of it being a one-possession game in the final minute yet again, was the defensive performance in the first half.

With the score 27-19 at the half, Notre Dame held North Carolina to its lowest first-half score total of the year. UNC's 19 points were the fewest in a half vs an unranked team since Feb. 24, 2015 (against NC State). The Tar Heels shot 5-of-27 from the field (18.5 percent), which was their lowest shooting percentage in a half since 1980. Their five field goals were the fewest in a half in over a decade.

TAKEAWAYS FROM VT GAME

Can't deny that the offense was clicking due to a combined 50-point effort from Laszewski and Ryan. In fact, the 87 points were the second most points the Irish have scored all season, second to their 88 points against Youngstown State.

Laszewski went off for a career high 33 points on 12-of-17 shooting, including a 6-for-9 mark from three-point range. He also grabbed a team best eight rebounds. It marked the first Irish 30-point performance since Matt Farrell dropped 37 points at Boston College on Feb. 17, 2018. The 33 points also lands him in a tie for 15th place in Brey-Era single-game point totals.

Nate entered the year with six 20-point scoring games and he now has 6 on the season.

With that said, the problem continues to be defensive lapses in the second half. Virginia Tech recorded a stretch in which they made 14-of-16 from the field, pounding the ball down low. They finished with 42 points in the paint.

GAMES GETTING AWAY

The Irish have had 4 ACC games in which they've garnered double-digit leads, only to succumb to the opponent's rally.

11 at Florida State (10:41 in 1H), 12/21/22

10 at Boston College (17:53 in 2H), 1/3/23

And what's tough specifically about the Syracuse and Boston College losses was that Notre Dame led for almost the entire game in both. Take this stat - in those two games, Notre Dame led for a combined 63:38 out of the 80 minutes.

Against Wake Forest on Feb. 4 - the Irish held Demon Deacons scoreless for an 8-minute stretch in the first half, only to garner a 16-4 lead out of it. It was a one-point game at the half with ND down 27-26, before giving up 54 points in the 2nd half.

BREY ERA - STILL TOPS IN A/TO RATIO

Since 2000-01 (first year of the Mike Brey era), Notre Dame has led the NCAA in assist/turnover ratio (1.44).

In his now 23 years patrolling the sidelines, Coach Brey's teams have developed certain tenets they can be counted on to display - take care of the ball, defend without fouling, shot making and free throw percentage. Those traits are reflected in Notre Dame's statistical rankings, compared to all NCAA teams and the ACC, since the Brey era began. See the table below.

IRISH CLIMBING 1,000-POINT SCORERS LIST

With the additions of Dane Goodwin and Nate Lasze-wski to Notre Dame's 1,000-point scorers club, the Irish program total bumped to 67. Notre Dame is now in a three-way tie alongside Duke and Villanova for producing the most 1000-point scorers of any program. Louisville sits in second with 69 and UNC the top spot with 79.

Of those 67, 26 of those players having been recruited by Mike Brey and exhausted their eligibility (or turned professional early).

MIKE BREY

GLENN & STACEY MURPHY HEAD COACH

23RD SEASON AT NOTRE DAME

28TH OVERALL AS HEAD COACH

BREY BIO

"He is so normal, he is abnormal," ESPN analyst Seth Greenberg often says about Glenn and Stacey Murphy Head Men's Basketball Coach Mike Brey. Perennially voted as one of the most likeable and easy-to-work-with coaches in college basketball, Brey's accomplishments – both on and off the court – are anything but normal.

Entering his 23rd year on the Notre Dame sidelines for the 2022-23 season, Brey is the all-time winningest men's basketball coach in school history while becoming the only Irish head coach to reach 400 victories under the Golden Dome.

Brey has accumulated 483 wins at Notre Dame and 582 in his career. His 483 ND victories ranks sixth among NCAA active coaches for wins at current Division I school. Overall, his 582 career wins ranks 17th among active Division I head coaches.

Brey has led the Irish through the program's most sustained period of excellence since his hiring in July 2000. Under his leadership, Notre Dame has competed in the postseason 18 of 21 seasons with 13 NCAA tournament berths, three Sweet 16 trips, two Elite Eight appearances and a 2015 ACC Championship.

The Irish have sustained a lot of success over the last decade. Notre Dame was the only school in the nation to make back-to-back appearances in the NCAA Championship Elite Eight at the end of the 2015 and 2016 seasons, claimed an Atlantic Coast Conference title in 2015 and has made two ACC title game appearances since joining the league at the start of the 2013-14 season.

Brey is coming off a big year in which the 2021-22 squad put Notre Dame back in the spotlight, finishing 2nd in the ACC with a 15-5 mark and earning an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament. With two victories in the Big Dance, Brey now boasts 15 for his career at Notre Dame, which ties Digger Phelps for the most. Brey also recruited his first one-and-done in Blake Wesley, who was drafted in the first round of the 2022 NBA Draft. The recruiting momentum continued with landing the 15th best class in the country and the program's highest-ranked recruit ever in JJ Starling.

Brey was named head coach at Notre Dame on July 14, 2000. In his first season with the Irish, he led the team to the 2001 BIG EAST West Division championship and quickly established his program as one of the best in the BIG EAST.

Notre Dame finished in the top five of the final BIG EAST conference standings eight times in 13 seasons, advancing to the conference tournament semifinals six times. Brey finished his time in the BIG EAST Conference fourth on the all-time wins list (he is currently tied for fifth).

Notre Dame moved to the Atlantic Coast Conference for the 2013-14 season and after a single season of adjustment, Brey quickly established that the Irish were ready to compete in the best basketball conference in the nation.

The 2014-15 team compiled a program-best 32-6 overall record, eventually advancing to the NCAA Elite Eight. It was on 'Tobacco Road,' however, that the Irish announced their presence to the new league by defeating Miami (FL), Duke and North Carolina in the Greensboro Coliseum to claim the 2015 ACC Championship.

Since that first 2015 ACC crown, Notre Dame appeared in the conference tournament final (2017) and semifinal (2016) to further reinforce its position as a yearly contender.

In 2011, Brey was the recipient of both the Associated Press and the Henry Iba/USBWA National Coach of the Year award after leading the Irish to a 27-7 record, perfect 17-0 record at home and finishing second in the BIG EAST. Brey also was named the BIG EAST Coach of the Year in 2007 and 2008.

Before arriving at Notre Dame, Brey was the head basketball coach at the University of Delaware, where he compiled a 99-52 mark from 1995-2000 and won America East Co-Coach of the Year honors in 1998.

Leading into his time at Delaware, he was an assistant coach at Duke University. During his eight years at Duke, the Blue Devils advanced to the Final Four six times and won back-to-back national championships in 1991 and 1992.

Prior to entering the collegiate ranks, Brey played for and coached with legendary high school coach Morgan Wootten at DeMatha High School. He played two years at DeMatha, helping the Stags to a 55-9 record. After his graduation from George Washington, Brey spent five seasons as an assistant coach at his high school alma mater, helping DeMatha compile a 139-22 record, four league titles and a No. 1 ranking by USA Today in 1984.

Brey serves on the Coaches vs. Cancer National Council and has helped raise over three million dollars for the organization. He also has partnered with the American Heart Association to create the Men of Heart initiative, raising funds and awareness for men's heart health. Brey is on the National Advisory Board of the Positive Coaching Alliance. He has also been inducted into the University of Delaware and the George Washington University Athletics Halls of Fame.

In 2019-20, Brey assumed the presidency of the National Association of Basketball Coaches.

AN ATHLETIC FAMILY

Brey was a standout guard in his collegiate playing days, competing for three seasons at Northwestern Louisiana State (now Northwestern State) from 1977-80. He led the team in assists and steals all three years and still ranks among the top 10 in career assists at Northwestern State. He played his final collegiate season at George Washington in 1980-81 after sitting out the 1979-80 season as a transfer. He averaged 5.0 points and 4.8 rebounds per game for the Colonials, serving as team captain and eventually earning the team's Most Valuable Player Award.

Brey comes from an athletic family of educators. His late father, Paul, was a high school athletics director in Maryland while his mother, the late Betty Mullen, was the women's swimming coach at George Washington.

Betty was perhaps the family's most accomplished athlete, as she attended Purdue University and swam for the AAU team in West Lafayette, Indiana. For a time, she held a world record in the butterfly events and competed for the United States at the 1956 Olympics in Melbourne, Australia. Betty's brother, Jack Mullen, played guard at Duke University and was a member of the school's first ACC championship team in 1950.

Brey's mother passed away on March 21, 2015, hours before Notre Dame defeated Butler 67-64 in overtime of the NCAA Tournament in Pittsburgh. He coached the game that night as a tribute to his mother and the inspiration she provided to him throughout his career, with the Irish team only learning of his mother's passing after the conclusion of the game. Brey's father, Paul, passed away on Dec. 20, 2015.

Brey's younger sister, Brenda, swam competitively at LSU and is a physical education teacher in the Rockville, Maryland, area. His younger brother, Shane, was a high school standout at Walter Johnson High School in Bethesda, Maryland.

Born March 22, 1959, Brey is a 1982 graduate of George Washington with a degree in physical education. He has two children – Kyle and Callie – a granddaughter, Olivia Marie, and two grandsons, Jude and Wes. Kyle was a tight end and fullback for the University of Buffalo from 2006-09, then moved into the coaching ranks as a quality control coach at Kansas, Youngstown State and Ohio State. He is currently the head football coach of the Varsity Team at IMG Academy in Bradenton, Florida.

2022-23 UPDATE

- Played in 28 games, with 25 starts, averaging 29.7 minutes for the Irish.
- Missed the last 2 games due to a left knee injury that continues to be assessed.
- He's the first McDonald's All-American at Notre Dame since Demetrius Jackson arrived in 2013. In addition, he was the first McDonald's All-American to start right away for Notre Dame since Torin Francis in 2002.
- Ranked 18th by ESPN and was the highest ranked ND recruit since at least 2007 (when ESPN recruiting database began). That spot was previously held by Demetrius Jackson, who was ranked No. 24 in 2013.
- 4th on the team in scoring with his 11.2 ppg. That number ranks 3rd amongst ACC freshmen, with the top two spots belonging to Duke's Kyle Filipowski and Syracuse's Judah Mintz. They are the only 3 ACC freshmen in double figures.
- Scored 9 of the team's final 12 points of the first half vs Louisville (Jan. 28), finishing with 16 in the first. JJ totaled 22 points in the game - his 3rd 20-point effort on the year.
- Another strong 2nd half outing, this time at NC State on Jan. 24 - Scored 12 of his 18 points in the 2nd. Rounded out the stat sheet with 7 boards and 3 assists. Had the best plus/minus at +7.
- With 5 minutes left vs Georgia Tech on Jan. 10, Starling scored 6 of the team's final 11 points to help force overtime and the eventual win. Starling finished with 16 points.
- Scored all 11 of his points in the 2nd half vs. Jacksonville on Jan. 27. Also grabbed a season high 8 rebounds.
- Did what he could in Florida State matchup on Dec. 21 - recording his 2nd 20-point performance of the season. Starling went on a 6-0 run to end the game to pull the Irish within one and give them an opportunity to win the game with 6 seconds left.
- Brought home the Michigan State win on Nov. 30, scoring 9 of his 14 points in the 2nd half.
- Took over the Bowling Green game on Nov. 22 - pouring in 23 points on a near-perfect 10-for-11 shooting night. He joins Torin Francis (10-11 vs Arizona on 3/27/2003) as the only other freshman in ND history to make at least 10 field goals while only missing one from the floor.
- 17-point breakout performance vs Youngstown State on Nov. 13. Starling went clutch mode, making back-to-back treys under the two-minute mark to help clinch the win.

2022-23 UPDATE

- Played in 26 games, with 6 starts, averaging 17.9 minutes.
 - Suffered a left ankle sprain at Boston College on Jan. 3 and missed the next 2 games. Returned at Syracuse on Jan. 14. Reinjured the same ankle at a practice and missed 2 more games because of it.
 - With that said, after returning from injury at Georgia Tech on Feb. 8, Lubin started his first collegiate game and had one his best games, a then season best 13 points. He was nearly perfect from the field at 6-for-7. Also grabbed 7 rebounds. Could have had bigger numbers but was limited to just 10 min per half due to foul trouble.
 - One-upped that performance with a career high 19 points at Wake Forest (2/25), where he went 9-of-13 from the field. Had a near double-double with 8 boards and tied his career high of 3 blocks.
 - Averaging 9.0 points and 5.3 rebounds since returning from injury on Feb. 8.
 - Recorded a season best 4 straight double-digit scoring performances from Jan. 24-Feb 14. Also has notched 5 games in double figures over the past 8 games.
 - Filled in admirably at NC State (Jan. 26) for a foul-riddled Laszewski, posting 10 points, 5 boards, 2 blocks.
 - ND's best offensive rebound option - team best 1.7 per game.
 - Knocking down 59.5 percent from the floor overall, which leads the team. That would rank in top-10 all-time for a ND freshman if the season ended today. Top spot is Harold Swanagan's .645 in 98-99.
 - If you look at the stat Points+Rebounds+Assists per 40 minutes - Lubin's numbers would be comparable to Laszewski's and rank 2nd on team -- 25.9 to Nate's 26.4.
 - In 15 minutes of action vs BC on Jan. 21, Lubin grabbed 4 of the team's 7 offensive boards. Also supplied 7 points.
 - Was subbed in for his defense with under a minute left in the Boston U game and it paid off, earning a pivotal block and rebound, then converting a free throw on the other end. He finished with nine points, 5 rebounds and a career best 3 blocks.
 - First career double-double on Nov. 25 vs St. Bonaventure, posting 10 points and 13 rebounds.
 - First double-digit performance against Bowling Green on Nov. 22. Lubin had 10 points at the half and finished with a career high of 12 on 6-of-9 shooting. Also dished out a career high 2 assists.
 - Flashed his athletic prowess in game two vs Youngstown St on Nov. 13. Whether it was running down a Penguin player to record a big block, draining his first career three, or simply going 4-for-4 from the field
- Rivals 4 Star – 63rd overall, 8th power forward // 24/7 4 Star – 114th overall, 22nd power forward, 18th state // ESPN 4 star – 75th overall, 12th power forward, 14th state
- Helped lead Orlando Christian Prep to the 2020 Class 2A State Championship and was a first-team all-state selection by SourceHoops.com/Florida Association of Basketball Coaches
- Ranked by Florida Hoops Report as the 10th-rated prospect in the state
- Father, Lubenique and Mother, Carmee Francois, emigrated from Haiti to the United States when they were 17 years old

- 2020 ACC Academic Honor Roll

- Played in 4 games this season.

- Played the final minute of the Southern Indiana win on Nov. 16. Then saw action in the final 2 minutes of both the Jacksonville win on Dec. 27 and the UNC game on Jan. 7.

- Hasn't scored since Dec. 4, 2019 and was oh so close on two occasions against #25 Pitt on March 1. Carmody missed twice from the line and then had a layup at the final buzzer that was waved off.

Carmody has battled back from numerous injuries over his Irish career. Below is a timeline:

2018-19

An MRI conducted on December 14, 2018, revealed a partial labrum tear in his left shoulder that required season-ending surgery.

2019-20

2020-21

Had a set back in his recovery from ACL surgery, suffering a broken knee cap in his surgically repaired knee in September. Underwent surgery to repair the fracture on September 23, 2020. Did not compete during the 2020-21 season.

2021-22
