PALADIN POINTS

- Furman begins a challenging week with a single game on Wednesday at No. 4 Clemson before the Paladins host defending Southern Conference regular season champion UNC Greensboro in a three-game series this at Pepsi Stadium.

- This weekend's crucial SoCon series between the Paladins (4-2 SoCon) and Spartans (3-0 SoCon) has been adjusted due to the threat of inclement weather. The series will begin with a 5 p.m. doubleheader on Thursday and conclude with a single game on Friday at 2 p.m.

- The Tigers, who are 12-0 in the ACC and boast a Division I-best 36-1 record, hold a 6-0 lead in the all-time series versus Furman, including a 10-0 victory at Pepsi Stadium on Valentine's Day. In the Paladins last trip to McWhorter Stadium on April 6, 2022, former Paladin Marissa Guimbarda hit a two-run, walk-off homer to down Furman, 3-2, before Millie Thompson hurled a five-inning no hitter in the nightcap to lead Clemson to an 8-0 victory.

- Clemson features a couple of familiar faces in associate head coach Kyle Jamieson and assistant coach Courtney Breault. Jamieson posted a 151-129 record in five seasons as Furman head coach from 2013-17 and garnered 2017 SoCon Coach of the Year honors after guiding the Paladins to a share of the regular season title. Breault served on Jamieson's staff at Furman from 2014-17.

- Furman is in its second season under the leadership of Stacey Johnson-Whitfield (34-54, 2nd Year). In her first season as a head coach, Johnson-Whitfield helped Furman to a 22-33 overall record and fourth place finish in the SoCon with an 8-10 league record. She led the Paladins to victories over Mississippi State and SoCon champion UNC Greensboro and placed three players on All-SoCon teams. A standout pitcher at the University of South Carolina, Johnson-Whitfield led the Gamecocks to a pair of SEC East titles and four NCAA regional appearances from 2001-04. She is married to former Gamecock offensive lineman Travis Whitfield.

- Picked fourth in the preseason SoCon poll, Furman swept a three game series at Western Carolina to open conference play before dropping two of three at ETSU this past weekend. The Paladins are tied with Samford for second place in the SoCon standings at 4-2.

- Furman's improvement on offense has been a key to its play over the last month and its 4-2 start in league play. After batting just .219 as a team last season, Furman has hit a SoCon-leading .272 with a league-best 39 stolen bases. The Paladins are second in the league in runs (151), slugging percentage (.418), and home runs (30).

- The offensive catalyst for Furman has been senior catcher Riley Ludlam, who leads the Southern Conference with a .442 batting average. She has paced the SoCon in RBIs (31) while ranking second in doubles (10) and fifth in home runs (8). The preseason All-SoCon selection has committed just one error behind the plate this season and has struck out just three times in 86 at bats. Riley currently ranks fourth in school history with 40 career doubles and fifth with 23 career home runs.

- Providing protection for Ludlam in the middle of the Paladin order has been freshman Kiley Perry. The first baseman has batted .349 with nine homers and 25 RBIs in her first 33 collegiate games. The Alpharetta, Ga., native hammered a pair of homers and drove in three runs in Furman's 4-3 victory over USC Upstate last Wednesday night at Pepsi Stadium. Her nine home runs are the most ever by a Paladin freshman.

- An unlikely hero emerged in Furman's 12-1 win over ETSU on Sunday. Designated player Lauralee Scott (Greenwood, S.C.), who entered the game with just four career hits, went 3-for-3 with the first two homers over her career to power the Paladins to their fourth SoCon victory.

- Injuries have tested Furman's depth in recent weeks as second baseman Hana Hashioka, left fielder Ainsley Yoshizumi, and third baseman Chloe Fabio have all missed significant time due to injuries.

- Junior Hannah Poole, a transfer from Radford, earned SoCon Player of the Week honors on March 27 after going 5-for-9 with two doubles, three home runs, and 10 RBIs in Furman's series sweep at Western Carolina. Poole moved into an everyday role at second base after the injury to Hashioka.

ORIGIN OF THE PALADIN

Furman University athletic teams were known by different names until the 1961 school year. The baseball team was "Hornets," the football team "Hurricane," and the basketball team "Paladins."

The basketball team was dubbed "Paladins" by a Greenville sportswriter in the 1930s. By vote of the student body, all Furman athletic teams became the "Paladins" on September 15, 1961. A Paladin is a knight on a horse and the recognized mascot of Furman University's athletic teams.

Head Coach

Stacey Johnson-Whitfield

Stacey Johnson-Whitfield was named as Furman's head softball coach in May of 2022 after serving as the interim head coach during the 2022 season.

"Over the past year, Stacey Johnson-Whitfield has demonstrated that she is a strong leader, an excellent coach, an effective recruiter, a builder of team chemistry and culture, and a tremendous role model for our student-athletes, having been a former star player herself," said Paladin athletics director Jason Donnelly. "Throughout the course of a rebuilding year, Stacey laid the foundation for our future success and gave us all reason to be optimistic for Furman softball. We look forward to continuing to support Stacey, her staff, and our student-athletes in the years to come."

Johnson-Whitfield led Furman to a 22-33 overall record, an 8-10 league record, and a fourth place finish in the Southern Conference in 2022. She led Furman to a victory over SEC foe Mississippi State and SoCon champion UNCG, while developing three players that went on to earn All-SoCon honors. Catcher Riley Ludlam garnered first team honors and centerfielder Ashlee Lykins and pitcher Sierra Tufts captured second team accolades.

Johnson-Whitfield joined the Paladin program as an assistant coach for the 2021 season after serving as a private pitching instructor and assistant high school coach since 2005. Despite Furman being picked sixth in preseason polling of the Southern Conference's head coaches, the first-year assistant helped Furman (19-28 overall, 8-9 SoCon) finish just a half game out of third place in the league standings. Her pitching staff, which included two freshmen, improved its ERA by more than a run during SoCon play in the second half of the season, while hitters Mackense Greico and Riley Ludlam earned All-SoCon honors.

"This is a very exciting time for Furman softball," said Johnson-Whitfield, after being named head coach in May. "I am so very grateful to be given the opportunity to lead this program into a new era. The team has helped lay a foundation here that we hope to be upon for years to come."

A four-year standout at the University of South Carolina from 2001-04, the Pennsylvania native helped the Gamecocks to four consecutive NCAA regional appearances and a pair of SEC East titles. She ranks among the school's all-time leaders with 485 strikeouts and 63 career victories, while earning two SEC Pitcher of the Week citations during her career in Columbia, S.C. Through her business, SJWFastpitch, Johnson-Whitfield has mentored pitchers who have gone on successful careers at Arkansas, Penn State, South Carolina, Louisville, Clemson, Rutgers, Tennessee, Furman and many more.

A 2004 graduate of South Carolina, Johnson-Whitfield is married to former Gamecock football standout Travis Whitfield. The couple has two daughters, Vivian and Lilly.
