XX QUOTES FROM GEORGIA TECH COACH PEPPER RODGERS:

Is this the first time that anyone has stopped your offense in the second half?
No, I've been stopped a lot of times in the second half, you don't want me to say this is the first time I have ever lost do you. They did a ~~fantastic~~ fantastic job. I can't pick out any numbers, they all looked orange to me, ~~but~~ but they all did fantastic. Who ever they had did a fantastic job. Myers went out in the second half when someone stepped on his foot. No one will ever know what we would have done with Sanford well, he was limited in practice all week. We didn't stop anybody last week with Sanford so whats the difference. In the second half we didn't have much field position, the first time we got the ball we fumbled it and they got it. The next time they got it at our six and the next time at our four and we got a two yard penalty. What did you say to the officials on that fumble by o'Cain? I didn't say anything to him, the officials are always right. You all don't know what I was saying. Officials are always right thats why they are officials, they're like principals.

QUOTE : FROM CLEMSON COACH RED PARKER

The greatest thing about this game was not the coming from behind after they had intercepted that pitchout for a score and one of our defensive players made a mistake (on that blocked punt) and gave them another chance, was that our kids never backed off.

We put that quarterback sweep in yesterday there in the gym. I had noticed something on the film yesterday morning and put it in. We rehearsed it yesterday afternoon and were pretty successful with it today.

I noticed on the film that South Carolina had gotten outside their defensive ends on several occasions and they never really exploited it.

That Scott is going to be a good one. He scared me one time when he took a handoff and bounced it off his knees, but he's a good outside threat.

Parker had made the statement earlier that he didn't think Georgia Tech made a first down in the second half unless it was by penalty. The stats were brought in and it was brought out that ~~the~~ Georgia Tech made 11 ~~x~~ yards rushing the second half. Noticing that Clemson had 70 rushing plays to 42 for Georgia Tech, Parker said that's people would have said yesterday, except that it would have been guess the other way round.
