Coach Charlie Pell: On our tailbacks, we decided to start with Lester Brown and come in early with Warren Hatchford and see which one had the hot hand and go with that one most of the way.

I'd like to say that Duke has a mighty fine football team. They did some things that caused us to change our way of thinking. Duke is capable of doing anything on any given Saturday. They have some fine athletes.

We were picking, hunting and pecking in that first half, and we came out in the second half and decided to do what had been good to us all year. Duke did a good job of closing down on ~~in~~ Fuller to cut his running down, but when they did that, that left somebody else free and we picked up some yards on the sweep.

Duke is a ~~an~~ good comeback team and we weren't breathing easy even when we had a 17-3 lead.

Pell called the interception by Jim Stuckey as the most unusual play he'd ever seen in football. Clemson's strong safety Steve Ryan made a dive for the ball, but his helmet hit the ball and knocked it right back in Jim Stuckey's arms. Pell said the ball did not hit the ground as some thought looking at it from the press box.

Coach Mike McGee: First of all congratulations to Clemson, their team and coaching staff. There an excellent football team.

I knew it would be close going into the game. Our inability to sustain our drives offensively was crucial. The interception at the beginning of the 2nd half was crucial. We had a strong kickoff return and we're in good field position. It looked like the ball bounced on the ground to me but that's not important -- what the official sees is what matters.

That in no way however was the difference in the game. We had other chances to comeback and failed to do so. It was a very frustrating day and game. One we wanted badly and I thought the squad played hard throughout.

Their speed outside prevented us from overshifted which we like to do against many teams. We had too many errors against a good football team.

(Asked about pass defense ) I thought we had a good pass rush in the first half and that helped our pass defense. In the second half we gave them time to throw and they took advantage of it.

Carl McGee has a shoulder injury and missed the entire second half. I'm not sure if it is in the muscles or if it is a separation. Jeff Green has an ankle injury and Derrick Mashore did not play today. They are some of our quickest players on defense.

When you have as many injuries as we have it will begin to take its toll but it will in no way deter us from our chances for victory next week.
