Joe Paterno -- Head Coach, Penn State University --

"Clemson played a great football game today and kicked our rears in -- their quarterback did a great job and they played a great football game today. They went to the trips early. They went one on one on our backside -- it was a gret job coaching and we couldn't handle it. They (Clemson) is a one-dimensional football team when they want to be. But, they can throw the ball, too.

"The turnovers were a factor in the game. But that doesn't take anything away from Clemson. They played with intensity, we blew our plays. Clemson played a great game and had great coaching.

About the turnovers (passing) - We waited too long to throw the ball. He (Kinzer) held on to the ball too long. It wasn't well timed."

"If you are good you can overcome those kinds of things. We started up again and then collapsed defefensively..

"Clemson is a really good football team. They were extremely well prepared. They mixed up their defenses and they did well with all of it. In the last quarter and a half, we couldn't handle them.

"I think we have a lot of work to do. The seniors (at Penn State) have done a lot for themselves and for the college. I'm really proud of them.

"~~Danny~~ Ford and his staff prepared better. They executed and won. I t was their day and my hat is off to them.

"I always go into the football game to stop the run and sooner or later stop the passing game. You always have to be ready to stop the passing game. They had a good passing scheme and I knew we'd have to be ready for them.

Danny Ford -- Heead Coach, Clemson University

"Needless to say our football team is proud of what they have accomplished. Our offensive and defensive teams made things happen.

"The Citrus Bowl is as nice a bowl as we have ever been to.

"Today, happened to have the hot hand. We (the coaches) are excited for them (the players). We played extremely well.

"It's only the 4th time that Clemson has won 10 games in a year.

"I think that Rodney (QB Williams) played well -- if he starts off well, he's going to play well.

"Our coaches wanted to throw the ball. They came in to me this morning and said 'we're going to throw the ball on the first play.'"

"We felt like they were going to come with inside-out pursuit, a lot like South Carolina. We knew we would have to throw the ball. I'm happy to give the credit to my assistants and the players. Williams handled the options and combination plays well. That's quite a lot of pressure on him."

Joe Paterno -- Head Coach, Penn State University --

"Clemson played a great football game today and kicked our rears in -- their quarterback did a great job and they played a great football game today. They went to the trips early. They went one on one on our backside -- it was a great job coaching and we couldn't handle it. They (Clemson) is a one-dimensional football team when they want to be. But, they can throw the ball, too.

"The turnovers were a factor in the game. But that doesn't take anything away from Clemson. They played with intensity, we blew our plays. Clemson played a great game and had great coaching.

About the turnovers (passing) - We waited too long to throw the ball. He (Kinzer) held on to the ball too long. It wasn't well timed."

"If you are good you can overcome those kinds of things. We started up again and then collapsed defensively..

"Clemson is a really good football team. They were extremely well prepared. They mixed up their defenses and they did well with all of it. In the last quarter and a half, we couldn't handle them.

"I think we have a lot of work to do. The seniors (at Penn State) have done a lot for themselves and for the college. I'm really proud of them.

"~~Danny~~ Ford and his staff prepared better. They executed and won. It was their day and my hat is off to them.

"I always go into the football game to stop the run and sooner or later stop the passing game. You always have to be ready to stop the passing game. They had a good passing scheme and I knew we'd have to be ready for them.

Danny Ford -- Head Coach, Clemson University

"Needless to say our football team is proud of what they have accomplished. Our offensive and defensive teams made things happen.

"The Citrus Bowl is as nice a bowl as we have ever been to.

"Today, happened to have the hot hand. We (the coaches) are excited for them (the players). We played extremely well.

"It's only the 4th time that Clemson has won 10 games in a year.

"I think that Rodney (QB Williams) played well -- if he starts off well, he's going to play well.

"Our coaches wanted to throw the ball. They came in to me this morning and said 'we're going to throw the ball on the first play.'"

"We felt like they were going to come with inside-out pursuit, a lot like South Carolina. We knew we would have to throw the ball. I'm happy to give the credit to my assistants and the players. Williams handled the options and combination plays well. That's quite a lot of pressure on him."
