Clemson vs. Maryland
September 27, 2008
Post-Game Coaches' Quotes

Clemson Head Coach Tommy Bowden

"We self-imploded today. We had critical points in the game where we made mistakes, especially with penalties and fumbles. We didn't play sharp today and that was the reason we lost."

"They made plays when they needed to in the second half, and we didn't. They came out of the locker room with defensive adjustments and they capitalized on that."

"C.J. and James played extremely well today; however, our mistakes outweighed the positives in today's game."

Maryland Head Coach Ralph Friedgen

"It was a credit to our players that they could hang in with them. We weren't playing well and Clemson was playing very well. We were 11 points down at half and I told them at halftime 'we were fortunate to be in the situation we are in.' We took advantage of it and maintained our composure. We started focusing in. We were able to put some drives together and I thought our defense made some good adjustments at halftime. Coach (Chris) Kosh and his staff did a good job. It was really the two keys to the game."

On stopping C.J. Spiller and James Davis

"In the first half we were slanting a lot. We were playing more of a shade. We came back after halftime and played more of straight up defense. We tried to disguise our coverages because they were doing a good job of reading them. We took blocks one-on-one. Davis and Spiller are really good backs. All they need is a crease and they gain yardage."

On Darrius Heyward-Bey's 76-yard rush

"Coach (James) Franklin wanted to call that play earlier. It was one of those days. We should have had 14 points. Edwin (Williams) was having trouble with the snaps. We screwed that up a few times. They were bringing the backside linebackers and their defensive end. So, then we started running reverses."

Post-Game Clemson Player Quotes

Running Back James Davis

"We had a lot of penalties this game and they held us at the end. We still have some things to work on. We've got a bye week right now and we've got to regain momentum any kind of way. I'm disappointed in the loss, but we've got to move on to Wake Forest. We've got to be two-dimensional; we just couldn't get our offense together in the second half."

Quarterback Cullen Harper

"We moved the ball well, but when we moved the ball, we had penalties, and that killed us. I felt like the offensive line made a good push all day. Coming into the bye week with a loss is always tough, but we've got to use it as motivation. We've got to get better this next week in practice and prepare for a good Wake Forest team."

Running Back C.J. Spiller

"They started bringing guys down that we couldn't block. We had a bust on one of our reverses that could have been a touchdown. We just have to correct our mistakes and get ready for Wake Forest. We had a bump in the road that we've got to get corrected before we go up to Wake Forest."

Defensive End Ricky Sapp

"The biggest thing we did was we self-destructed. We played well in the first two quarters, but we couldn't finish the job. We knew they had some trick plays coming into the game; they just converted. We're going to come back together on Monday and just rebuild and refocus and get ready for our next game."

Defensive End Da'Quan Bowers

"I'm upset that we lost, upset that we couldn't get ourselves off the field and put ourselves in a better situation. I feel like I'm getting better every game, but there's still a lot of improvement to go. I'm still learning the system bit by bit."

Post Game Notes

- The visiting team has now won each of the last four games in the series between Clemson and Maryland. The Tigers' 10-7 win at Clemson in 2004 is the last time the home team was victorious.
- Mark Buchholz improved to 6-for-6 on field goals in 2008 with a 26-yard conversion on the Tigers' opening drive of the game. With the field goal, he is also now 4-for-4 on attempts within 30 yards.
- Buchholz extended his successful point after streak to 67 in a row and is now six shy of breaking Chris Gardocki's record of 72.
- C.J. Spiller's 17-yard rush in the second quarter put the junior tailback over the 2,000-yard mark for his career. Clemson now has two 2,000-yard rushers on the same team for the first time since 2001 when Travis Zachery and Woody Dantzler were both over 2,000 at the same time. He had 98 rushing yards for the day to total 2,010 for his career.
- Spiller also reached 1,000 yards in career kickoff returns on Saturday. With his 16-yard return in the second quarter, he hit the milestone and finished the day with 41 yards to total 1,010 for his career. He is the first player in Clemson history with at least 1000 yards on kickoff returns and 2000 yards rushing.
- James Davis' 38-yard touchdown run that put the Tigers on top 17-3 was the 41st rushing touchdown of his career, tying him with Travis Zachery for the Clemson career record.
- Davis rushed for at least 100 yards for the second time this season, reaching the century mark in the second quarter of Saturday's game. It is the 14th time in his career he has reached the 100 yard mark.
- Aaron Kelly moved into the ACC Top 10 list for career receptions and currently ranks eighth with 190. Kelly entered the game with 183 receptions and had seven on Saturday.
- With 151 passing yards, quarterback Cullen Harper surpassed 4,000 for his career. He now has 4,105 career passing yards.
- Prior to Maryland's touchdown in the third quarter the Tiger defense had not allowed a touchdown in 10 straight quarters. The last touchdown the Clemson defense had given up was in the fourth quarter against The Citadel on Sept. 6.
- The 76-yard end around by Maryland's Darrius Heyward-Bey in the third quarter was the longest recorded rush against the Clemson defense since the 2000 season when Davy Ford, brother of current Tiger receiver Jacoby Ford, had an 82-yard gain for Florida State in Tallahassee.
- Saturday's game was the first time the Tigers had been held scoreless in the second half since the Georgia Tech game of the 2007 season on Sept. 29.
- Offensive lineman Bobby Hutchinson earned his first career start on Saturday. Joining him on the line were Landon Walker, Mason Cloy, Thomas Austin and Corey Lambert to give the Tigers their fourth different starting line in five games this season.
