Clemson vs. South Carolina— November 27, 2010
Post-Game Quotes

Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney

Overall Thoughts:

"This was a very disappointing game. We didn't play smart. South Carolina is a very good team and you can't give a good team easy points like we did with the interception and penalties. I am just very disappointed in how we played, I can't put it any other way. You have to give credit to USC and how they played."

On inserting Tajh Boyd:

"I'm proud of him. This was great experience for him to draw on. He had some really good throws and ran the ball well. He is a talented young man."

On the play of his defense:

"Last year we allowed USC about 200 rushing yards. Tonight we only gave up 97 rushing yards. I'm proud of how our guys played up front, especially Jenkins and Thompson."

On the disappointment of the season:

"This was a very disappointing season. To lose to USC is very unacceptable. Our future is bright, but it's awful dark right now. Part of being a leader is to look at the positives, and we have a good future ahead. We have a great young football team coming back next year."

Clemson vs. South Carolina
Post-Game Clemson Player Quotes

Quarterback Tajh Boyd

"It was definitely a great experience for me to play tonight. We have a very young team and a lot to look forward to in the future.

"I'm from Virginia and I'm just starting to understand how intense this rivalry is. It's something big and special for the fans. You definitely want to win it for those people out there. We are just going to do whatever we can to get it for them next year.

"I was a little surprised to get the call. I felt like I didn't have a lot of opportunities and a lot of reps this season so this really helped me out a lot. It was really a confidence booster. We have a lot to look forward to with this young team. We have a bowl game coming up and we have to help the seniors go out victorious.

"I always want the best for Kyle (Parker). I wish he could have finished his last game here, but I think everything happens for a reason. Hopefully this will lead to some good things."

Wide Receiver DeAndre Hopkins

"Things just didn't go our way today. We called plays and they just didn't click. South Carolina didn't really do anything different after that touchdown, but we just didn't have guys step up and make plays.

"We have a lot of seniors on this team and it's really quiet in that locker room. Guys know that we could have come out and gotten this win but we didn't.

"We thought we could come back. A couple of their touchdowns came off of luck plays. We gave them the ball and gave them opportunities to score. We tried to keep our attitudes positive on the sidelines. You never want to give up in a rivalry game."

Defensive End Da'Quan Bowers

"They executed when they needed to and they got the job done. You can't take anything away from those guys. I thought we had a decent game. We could have made a few more plays, but overall I thought the defensive effort was great. We will come in on Monday and we'll critique everything and see what we can do better.

"It's always frustrating when teams take you out of the game. I was disappointed with not breaking the sack record, but I had bigger things to worry about. I would have taken the win either way. Hopefully I'll get it during the bowl game."

Clemson vs. South Carolina
Post-Game Coaches' Quotes

South Carolina Head Coach Steve Spurrier

On his team's inability to establish the run:

"Kevin Steele had an excellent plan. We couldn't run the ball on those guys. We tried a little bit of everything. The only way we could move it was throwing it."

On the impact of Spencer Lanning:

"Our kicker/punter, Spencer Lanning, was sensational. If you're going to win any kind of championship, you have to have a good kicker. We've got a super kicker in Spencer Lanning. He got a game ball."

On next week's SEC Championship showdown with Auburn:

"Next week is one of the biggest games that our team has ever played. We're looking forward to it. We've got a bunch of guys that like going on big stages. It was a big stage here tonight, and it was a big stage down in Florida. But the really big stage is down in Atlanta."

On the interception return for a touchdown:

"Our defense was really playing well. Antonio was in position. Sometimes, he drops those, but he caught that one. All of our guys are catching them now. Earlier in the year, we had some opportunities we didn't take advantage of. But Antonio Allen has turned into a really good strong safety."

On recovering from Clemson's opening touchdown drive:

"Well, Florida ran the opening kickoff back, too. It was sort of interesting that we came back and got a field goal (against Florida). Sure enough, tonight, after they scored, we put together a semi-drive and Spencer made a 46-yarder. That got us back in the ball game."

Clemson vs. South Carolina Game Notes

November 27, 2010 – 7:00 PM – ESPN2
South Carolina 29, Clemson 7

- This was the 108th overall meeting between the Tigers and Gamecocks and 102nd consecutive season with a game. Clemson holds a 65-39-4 record in the all-time series.
- Clemson honored the late Gamecock announcer Bob Fulton before the game with a moment of silence.
- Former Clemson All-American DJ Trahan was honored before the game for his induction into the Clemson Athletic Hall of Fame. He was unable to attend Hall of Fame day earlier in the season.
- Brandon Maye wore #44 in honor of teammate Scotty Cooper, who was unable to play the 2010 season due to injury. He was credited with eight tackles, his third highest total of the season.
- Kyle Parker's first-quarter 45-yard touchdown strike to DeAndre Hopkins was the fourth-longest pass play of the season and the longest reception of Hopkins' career.
- Hopkins had two catches for 75 yards on the opening drive, and now has Clemson first-year freshman record in receiving yards with 532, as he crossed Roscoe Crosby's 2001 total of 465 yards on his 45-yard touchdown catch.
- Hopkins finished tonight with seven catches for a career-high 124 yards and a touchdown, his fourth of the season. The 124 yards were the most for any Clemson player this season.
- The four-play, 73-yard drive in 1:50 was the 15th touchdown drive of fewer than two minutes for Clemson in the 2010 season. It was also the 8th time in 12 games the Tigers have scored on the first possession
- South Carolina's field goal marked only the fourth time this season the Tiger defense has allowed a score on the opening drive.
- Brandon Thompson blocked a first-quarter extra point attempt by Spencer Lanning, only the fourth time in 78 career attempts that Lanning has missed an extra point. It was Thompson's first career blocked kick. Thompson also had 2.5 tackles for loss in the game, a career-best.
- Stephen Garcia's 37-yard touchdown pass to Alshon Jeffery on the first play of the second quarter marked the first time in seven games that the Clemson defense has surrendered more than one touchdown since North Carolina scored three on Oct. 9. The six-game streak was the second-longest in Clemson history behind the 1981 team's seven.
- Corico Hawkins had a career-high 13 tackles in the contest. His previous career-best was nine against North Carolina.
- Clemson failed to register a sack for the first time in 2010, but did have six tackles for loss for a total of (-12) yards.
- Tajh Boyd completed 10-of-18 passes, both career highs. Boyd played all but the first drive of the second half.
- Clemson held South Carolina to 95 yards rushing on 36 carries for a 2.6 ypc average. It was the fourth straight game in which Clemson's defense held the opponent below 100 yards in a game, and sixth time in the last eight games. It was the third time this season the gamecocks were held below the century mark.
- Roderick McDowell's 39-yard carry in the fourth quarter was a career-long.
- Marcus Gilchrist had a career-high 165 total all-purpose yards (139 KOR, 26 PR) in the game. The 139 KOR yards were also a personal best.
- Andre Ellington appeared in the game tonight and had one rush for no yards. It was his first appearance since suffering a toe injury in the Boston College game. He will have surgery on his toe injury and will not play in the bowl game.

#17 SOUTH CAROLINA 29 • CLEMSON 7

Post-Game Notes

November 27, 2010 • Memorial Stadium • Clemson, S.C. (Att: 81,500)

- Head Coach Steve Spurrier: Improves to 186-71-2 (.722) as a collegiate head coach, 44-31 in his sixth year at South Carolina. He improves to 4-5 all-time against Clemson, including a 3-3 mark as South Carolina's head coach.
- Records: South Carolina improves to 9-3 overall and remains 5-3 in SEC play. Clemson falls to 6-6 overall, 4-4 in ACC play. The Gamecocks improve to 39-65-4 against Clemson, including a 9-16-1 mark at Memorial Stadium. Carolina is now 35-11 in non-conference games since 2000; the Gamecocks have won 5 of their last 6 against Atlantic Coast Conference foes.
- It's Been a While: With tonight's win, South Carolina has won two in a row against Clemson; the Gamecocks defeated Clemson 34-17 in Columbia last season. This is the first time for Carolina to beat Clemson two straight years since a stretch of three straight victories from 1968-70. The Gamecocks have also won two out of three games in "Death Valley", including a 31-28 win in 2006.
- Road Warriors? Yep: Believe it or not, South Carolina has won three straight road games, defeating Vanderbilt, Florida and Clemson to wrap up the 2010 regular season. The Gamecocks had lost seven straight games away from Williams-Brice Stadium before the win at Vanderbilt on Oct. 23. During that stretch, Carolina has outscored its opposition 86-28. The last time South Carolina won three consecutive road games was the 2006 season when the Gamecocks beat Mississippi State, Kentucky and Vanderbilt to open the season.
- Nine is Just Fine: With tonight's win, South Carolina has won nine games for just the third time in school history, matching a nine-victory season in 2001 and coming within one victory of the school-record 10, which came in the "Black Magic" 1984 season.
- As a Ranked Team: The Gamecocks are 14-12 when ranked in the top 25 under Spurrier, improving to 8-3 this year. Carolina is 4-8 on the road as a ranked team under Spurrier; 3-2 this year.
- Turnover Battle: For the third straight game, South Carolina won the turnover battle, forcing three Clemson turnovers and committing none in the game. The Gamecocks are now plus-six in turnover margin this season, and are 5-0 when winning the turnover battle in 2010 (19-4 in the Spurrier Era).
- Margin of Victory: South Carolina's 29-7 victory (22 points) marked the biggest against Clemson since a 33-7 victory here at Memorial Stadium on Nov. 19, 1994.

OFFENSIVE NOTES

- WR Alshon Jeffery became the eighth Carolina receiver to top the 2,000-yard mark for his career in tonight's game, passing the milestone with his 37-yard reception in the first quarter. His next catch would also go for 37 yards and a touchdown. On the night, he passed Phillip Logan (2,063 yards) for seventh on the all-time career receiving list at South Carolina; Jeffery now has 2,114 yards for his career.
- Jeffery topped the 100-yard mark for the seventh time in 12 games this season, finishing with 141 yards on five catches. He now has 10 games of more than 100 receiving yards in his career, and is one 100-yard game short of tying the school record in that category; Sidney Rice had 11 games of 100+ yards in his Carolina career.
- TE Patrick DiMarco scored for the second time in his career against Clemson and hauled in his second touchdown pass of the season (also last week vs. Troy). DiMarco scored one of Carolina's only two touchdowns in the 2008 contest at Clemson (Brian Maddox had the other).

- QB Stephen Garcia improved to 2-0 as a starter vs. Clemson and 17-11 overall as Carolina's starting quarterback. It was Garcia's fourth road win in 10 tries as the starting signal-caller for South Carolina. He finished the night 14-of-30 for 227 yards and a pair of touchdowns, and had his third-straight interception-free game.
- RB Marcus Lattimore racked up 89 all-purpose yards, rushing for 48 (23 carries) and catching a career-high five passes for 41 yards.

DEFENSIVE NOTES
- Clemson was held to 61 rushing yards, the ninth time in 12 games for Carolina opponents to be held under the century mark. South Carolina is 8-1 this year when keeping an opponent under 100 yards on the ground; they·are 21-3 under Steve Spurrier when shutting down the opponents' ground game.
- The Tigers had only 251 total yards, the third-lowest total by a Carolina opponent this season (Florida 226, Vanderbilt 250). Carolina is 5-0 this year and 22-4 under Spurrier when holding opponents under 300 total yards.
- SPUR Antonio Allen picked off his first career pass and returned it 37 yards for a touchdown midway through the third quarter. Carolina has now scored six defensive touchdowns this season (five interception returns, one fumble return), and six different players have scored – Stephon Gilmore, Devin Taylor, D.J. Swearinger, Chaz Sutton and Allen have recorded pick-six plays, and Byron McKnight returned a fumble for a score against Arkansas.
- CB Stephon Gilmore led the Gamecock defense with seven tackles on the night, the fourth time this year he has held or shared the team lead in that category.
- Travian Robertson, Cliff Matthews and Byron Jerideau all recorded sacks, running Carolina's school-record total to 39 this season. Matthews now stands at 14.5 career sacks and passed Phil Ellis for eighth all-time in Gamecock history with his sack tonight. Robertson recorded the 10th sack of his career, and Jerideau now has 2.0 on the season. Robertson also recovered a fumble after Matthews' sack.

SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES
- Spencer Lanning made his first two field goals of the night to run his streak to nine made field goals in a row, but missed a 49-yarder as the first half expired to snap the skein. It was the second-longest streak of consecutive successful field goal tries of his career; he hit 12 in a row during the 2009 season. Lanning finished the night 3-of-4, his fourth career game with three or more made field goals (5 vs. Georgia '09; 3 vs. Ole Miss '09, Florida '10)
- Lanning also had a stellar night punting the ball, averaging 42.7 yards on 7 kicks. Four of those were downed inside the Clemson 20, including a stellar attempt in the third quarter that rolled out of bounds inside the Tiger 1-yard-line.
- Brian Maddox had his first career fumble recovery to set up the Gamecocks' first touchdown after Clemson fumbled the snap on a punt attempt in the first quarter. He returned it for four yards to the Clemson 5; Carolina scored one play later. It was the 14th fumble recovered by the Gamecocks this season.
- DS Charles Turner, after sitting out last week, returned as the starting deep snapper for the Gamecocks tonight. He made the most of it, recording his third tackle of the season on a punt return in the first quarter. PK Jay Wooten also posted the first tackle of his career.

UP NEXT
The Gamecocks will play for their first Southeastern Conference championship next Saturday, Dec. 4, as they face the No. 2-ranked Auburn Tigers in the SEC Championship Game. Kickoff is set for 4 p.m. at the Georgia Dome in Atlanta with a national broadcast on CBS.
