COACHES' QUOTES:

PAUL DIETZEL, SOUTH CAROLINA "You've got to give Clemson a lot of credit, all the credit in the world. They never quit and kept coming back at us. They were well prepared for today's game.

"Tommy Suggs had a great day. He had a couple of passes intercepted early but he stuck right in there and kept throwing and found our receivers open. He's had a great career for us and we're certainly going to miss him as we will miss all our seniors who played their final game today.

"I was real proud of our team and I know Coach Ingram was proud of his. It was a wild game and a great one for the spectators. It was a typical Carolina-Clemson game as I knew it would be; close and hard fought.

"Our group of seniors have had a very frustrating year and not too much went right for them. However, it was a good ending and it was good for them to win the last one after so much disappointment.

"We had some of our better defensive players, particularly ends and linebackers, missing the past few weeks and this weakened our defense a great deal. Greg Crabb wasn't able to play today and, although Al Usher played some -- a miraculous recovery from a knee operation three weeks ago -- he hadn't been able to practice at all.

"We have been playing so well offensively the past few weeks, however, I knew we had to finally win one.

"The winter will be a lot easier to live with after today."

     We had a very dedicated/today. I just wish we could have got ahold of it earlier in the season. I think we played a great game and we laid it on the line to them. About the only thing we didn't do we wanted to do was to stop the big play.

     We got another notch up on the ladder today. We're building and we're going after some of the top young athletes. We've got a lot to sell here at Clemson and we plan to bring in a group of championship caliber.

     We got hurt in certain areas, but our players dedicated themselves to give the greatest fans in the world--the Clemson fans--an effort they would be proud of. They stood with us through a losing season. And our fans will have as much to do with us building a winning program as anyone.

     Our seniors this year were put in a tough situation. We changed a lot of things, but I think we laid a foundation.

     I want to say something about B. B. Elvington. He is the most consistent football player in the ACC. He's been playing tackle for us all year, but when we knew last week end that (Ben) Watson probably wouldn't be able to play, we changed B. B. to linebacker. He had one day of practice (Monday), then was injured in practice Tuesday. I didn't see him again until the game today. He played as fine a game at linebacker today as anyone could ask.

And Jim Sursavage has had a tremendous year. He has the most character of any boy I've ever coached. I just sorry that Yauger had his problems all year long. There's no doubt he would have broken the school rushing record. (He was shy 132 yards)

COACHES' QUOTES:

PAUL DIETZEL, SOUTH CAROLINA "You've got to give Clemson a lot of credit, all the credit in the world. They never quit and kept coming back at us. They were well prepared for today's game.

"Tommy Suggs had a great day. He had a couple of passes intercepted early but he stuck right in there and kept throwing and found our receivers open. He's had a great career for us and we're certainly going to miss him as we will miss all our seniors who played their final game today.

"I was real proud of our team and I know Coach Ingram was proud of his. It was a wild game and a great one for the spectators. It was a typical Carolina-Clemson game as I knew it would be; close and hard fought.

"Our group of seniors have had a very frustrating year and not too much went right for them. However, it was a good ending and it was good for them to win the last one after so much disappointment.

"We had some of our better defensive players, particularly ends and linebackers, missing the past few weeks and this weakened ourxxx defense a great deal. Greg Crabb wasn't able to play today and, although Al Usher played some -- a miraculous recovery from a knee operation three weeks ago -- he hadn't been able to practice at all.

"We have been playing so well offensively the past few weeks, however, I knew we had to finally win one.※

"The winter will be a lot easier to live with after today."

We had a very dedicated/today. I just wish we could have got ahold ot it earlier in the season. I think we played a great game and we laid it on the line to them. About the only thing we didn't do we wanted to do was to stop the big play.

We got another notch up on the ladder today. We're building and we're going after some of the top young athletes. We've got a lot to sell here at Clemson and we plan to bring in a group of championship caliber.

We got hurt in certain areas, but our players dedicated themselves to give give the greatest fans in the world--the Clemson fans--an effort they would be proud of. They stood there with us through a losing season. And our fans will have as much to do with us building a winning program as anyone.

Our seniors this year were put in a tough situation. We changed a lot of things, but I think we laid a foundation.

I want to say something about B. B. Elvington. He is the most consistent football player in the ACC. He's been playing tackle for us all year, but when we knew last week end that (Ben) Watson probably wouldn't be able to play, we changed B. B. to linebacker. He had one day of practice (Monday), then was injured in practice Tuesday. I didn't see him at again until the game today. He played as fine a game at linebacker today as anyone could ask.

And Jim Sursavage has had a tremendous year. He has the most character of any boy I've ever coached. I just sorry that Yauger had his problems all year long. There's no doubt he would have broken the school rushing record. (He was shy 132 yards)
