COACHES' QUOTES

DICK CRUM, NORTH CAROLINA:

"We weren't going for the tie at the end. We were there and we thought we could win. If we had gone for the tie, I'd have regretted it the rest of my life ~~and~~ and I think our kids would, too.

"This was the kind o- game that ~~ma~~ makes coaching fun. There was a lot of hard hitting. I thought we ~~x~~ played well, well enough to win. But we ~~we~~ had a dropped pass here and a dropped p there and penalties which kept drives alive after we had them stopped.

"We had to play two freshmen, Carl Carr and Tim Morrison, because of injuries to Greg Poole, Bill ~~Sheppard~~ Sheppard and Walter Black and I thought they played fairly well.

"On the last play we were just trying to get the first down. Tyrone was not the primary receiver. That was the flanker coming across. But you can't really point to one play. We had a ~~we~~ couple of balls dropped in the end zone which could have won it for us."

NOTES:

North Carolina's 280 yards passing is a new school single-game record. The old record of 273 was set against Virginia in 1935. Rod Elkins sprained his knee and has been ruled out for the Virginia game next week, but has not been ruled out for the entire season.

DANNY FORD, CLEMSON:

This was a ^{Big}~~big~~ win for our players, but North Carolina never gave up. All~~x~~ we asked our players before the game was~~x~~ to go~~x~~ out~~x~~ and try to win.

We dropped way too many passes and we're not consistent on the field, but it seems consistently winning. that we're ~~consistently winning~~ We have a big one coming up. Maryland stands between us and another championship and I'm sure they're thinking about the same thing with both of us being undefeated in the conference.

I thought the interception right before the half was a big play. Johnny (Rembert) has been playing great for us. I don't know what his~~x~~ tackles are today, but that interception and knocking the ball loose on that blitz were two big plays.

We're not a dominate team team like I thought we would be and we gotta be ~~x~~ the worst tackling team in the nation or Bryant has to be one of the greatest runners out, and I'm inclined to believe it's the latter. UNC has great talent.

Ford ~~x~~ said that the doctors gave them the okay to play Homer Jordan before the game but ~~xxx~~ because he hasn't worked any. we decided to hold him out.
