WOFFORD VOLLEYBALL NOTES

2000 on a neutral floor, but Wofford grabbed the second meeting in 2018 in straight sets at home.

- Both of those meetings took place on September 15 in their respective years, so this will be the first time the Terriers and Blue Raiders battle on a different calendar date.
- Wofford and Clemson will square off for the seventh time and for the first time since 2019. The Tigers have won all six of the previous meetings.
- Five of the six contests have ended in straight-set sweeps, with the lone exception being a five-set match in 2016.
- This will be Wofford's third time playing in Clemson's Big Orange Bash, with the two previous instances coming in 2016 and 2019.
- Wofford is 1-5 all-time in the event, with the lone win coming in 2016 over William & Mary in five sets.
- Four of the five losses have come in straight sets, with the exception being a five-set loss to Clemson in 2016.
- Each of the previous performances in the Big Orange Bash opened the season, and the trend continues with this year's foray also opening the campaign.

HOME SWEET HOME:

- The Terriers went 9-5 at home in 2022, but they were 7-8 away from home (4-6 away, 3-2 neutral).
- Wofford has posted a winning record at home in eight consecutive seasons, each year since 2015. The last home record below .500 was 2014's 5-8 mark.
- Since the Jerrry Richardson Indoor Stadium opened in 2017, the Terriers are a staggering 47-14 overall in their home facilities. Wofford has never posted a losing home record in Jerry Richarson Indoor Stadium.

NEW KIDS ON THE BLOCK:

- Wofford welcomes six newcomers to the team for 2023, all freshmen. The fresh faces are MB/RS Natalie Arnold, L Laney Klika, OH Bri Mahoney, OH Emily Normand, S Taylor Pecht and RS Ella Schomer.
- Arnold tallied 640 kills in her high school career and hit .350 while leading her team to a state title in 2022.
- Klika owns 1,656 digs over her high school career and more than 220 aces.
- Mahoney was back-to-back region player of the year in 2021 and 2022.
- Normand was named to the AVCA Phenom Watch List in both 2021 and 2022.
- Pecht is a First-Team MaxPreps All-American and has accrued over 4,000 assists.
- Schomer is a four-time AVCA Phenom and has been named an AVCA All-American.

FRESH FACES ON THE COACHING STAFF:

- Head Coach Lynze Roose returns for her ninth season in Spartanburg, but she will be surrounded by a newlook staff this season.
- Former associate head coach Ali Skayhan was hired as the head coach at USC Upstate over the offseason, and Justin Sanders followed Skayhan across town.
- Ladislav Lelkes (Barton '14) will be the Terriers' new associate head coach this season. He joins Wofford after spending a season at Bradley and the prior three years with Alabama.
- Shannah Carter (UW-Stevens Point '19) joins as one of two other new assistant coaches. Carter had been coaching at Lakeville South High School in her home state of Minnesota while also assisting with the prestigious club M1 Volleyball. She forayed into coaching after concluding her playing career at UW-Stevens Point, where she totaled 336 digs in 222 sets as a defensive specialist and libero.

- Allison Whitten (Morehead State '22) is the most recent addition to the staff. She just completed her playing career and her graduate certificate at Creighton after the first leg of her career ended with her graduation from Morehead State. A defensive specialist and libero, Whitten played every match over her five-year career. She owns over 2,000 digs and 120 service aces across her career.
- Whitten will continue her playing career at season's end. The Pro Volleyball Federation, a new professional volleyball league based in the US, begins play in February of 2024, and Whitten is set to play for the yet-to-be-named Atlanta team.

PRESEASON VOTING:

- Wofford was picked third in the SoCon preseason coaches poll. The Terriers earned two first-place votes and tallied 52 total points in the poll, five behind second-place Samford (57). ETSU (58) edged the Bulldogs and tallied five first-place votes to be named the league's favorite.
- The Terriers have been selected in the top three in each of the last three preseason polls, including a first-place pick last season.
- Under head coach Lynze Roos, Wofford has been picked worse than fifth only once, a seventh-place selection in 2015, her first year as coach. In each of the eight years since (including 2023), her squad has been picked no worse than fifth and owns four total top-three predictions.
- Sarah Barham was recognized on the Preseason All-SoCon Team for a second-straight season. She earns this honor after finishing last season as a Second-Team All-SoCon representative.
- Notably absent from the preseason honorees is fellow 2022 All-SoCon Second-Team selection Millie Loehr, who led the league in hitting percentage at .391, a new Wofford single-season program record and the 25th-best mark in the nation.

POSTSEASON HONORS:

- Three Terriers were recognized with postseason SoCon honors in 2022: Sarah Barham and Millie Loehr both on the All-SoCon Second Team and Victoria Hensley on the SoCon All-Freshman Team.
- This was the third-straight season Wofford has had a player on an all-conference team and on the second team specifically.
- This was also the third consecutive season with a Terrier on the all-freshman squad, and Hensley is the fourth Terrier in the last three seasons to earn the honor (Sarah Barham, Emily Hodsdon and Sarah MacLean).

TERRIERS IN GREECE:

The Wofford volleyball team took a 10-day trip to Greece over the summer. The Terriers played three matches during their excursion in June and took multiple sightseeing trips in the nation.

WOFFORD VOLLEYBALL NOTES

- Sightseeing featured trips to Athens, Aegina, Bourtzi Castle, Palamidi Castle, Paros Island and the Temple of Poseidon.
- On the court, the Terriers played three matches against professional competition, going 2-1.
- Sarah Barham shined, tallying the most kills and a team-leading .487 hitting clip. She added 13 blocks.
- Millie Loehr joined her fellow senior middle with 13 swats at the net, and she also hit over .400 with a .464 mark.
- Mary Emily Morgan was also stout with a .289 hitting percentage, and Sarah MacLean added an attacking clip of .286.
- Of the freshmen, Ella Schomer showed out with the second-most kills on the squad while hitting .333.
- The team as a whole tallied eight solo blocks and 65 block assists.

BLOCK PARTY:

- Wofford is stout at the net, tallying 2.23 blocks per set to rank second in the conference in 2022. The 252.5 total team blocks also ranked third in the conference.
- Sarah Barham is the top blocking Terrier, second in the conference with 123 total blocks, just behind the 129 of Western Carolina's Eden Punch. Barham's 1.11 blocks per set topped the league. Those 123 blocks were good for 86th in the nation.

SETTING THE BAR(HAM):

- Sarah Barham has been an exceptional twodimensional player for Wofford, as her offense is just as good as her blocking defense.
- Barham's 251 total kills were second on the squad in 2022 behind Bella Zeman's 314, and her 2.26 kills per set ranked 20th in the SoCon.
- But Barham does not just rack up the kills, she is efficient, too. Her .333 hitting percentage was second on the squad and in the conference, behind Millie Loehr's .391.

TOP DOGS:

- Wofford ranked top six in the Southern Conference in every statistical category. The Terriers were top five in all but four categories, all of which were sixth - aces per set (1.51), team attacks per set (35.67), team digs (1,768) and team total attacks (4.031).
- The squad was best in the league in opponent hitting percentage (.182).
- The Terriers were second in assists per set (11.92), blocks per set (2.23), hitting percentage (.226) and kills per set (13.01).

ON THE RIGHT FOOT:

- Starting a match off well was do or die for the Terriers last season, as the winner of the first set almost always won the match.
- Wofford was 15-4 when claiming set one, but it was only 1-9 when dropping the first set. The five-set win over Coastal Carolina was Wofford's only win after losing the first set.
- The only four Terrier losses when claiming set one were against App State, at ETSU, against Mercer and versus Chattanooga in the SoCon Tournament.

BREAK OUT THE BROOMS:

- Eleven of Wofford's 16 wins in the 2022 season were straight-set sweeps. The lone exceptions were five-set triumphs over Coastal Carolina and Furman (twice) and four-set wins over Presbyterian and Samford.
- The 11 sweeps are the most for the Terriers in a single season since posting 11 straight-setters in 2017.
- Wofford was just two sweeps shy of the Division I program record of 13 straight-set wins in 2009.
- The straight-set loss to Chattanooga in match 14 of the campaign is the latest Wofford has ever been swept in a season in its Division I era, topping the previous mark set in 2008 when The Citadel delivered a sweep in the 12th match of that season.
- The Terriers reached six sweeps just 11 matches into the campaign, surpassing the five of the prior season, which totaled 31 matches.

ONE IN A MILLIE:

- Millie Loehr has been the most efficient attacker not just in a Wofford uniform, but in the entire Southern Conference. Her team-leading .391 hitting percentage was best in the league in 2022, ahead of teammate Sarah Barham's second-place .333 clip. Loehr's mark also ranked 25th in the country.
- As a cherry on top, Loehr's hitting clip shattered the Wofford program single-season record, previously held by Arden Anderson, who hit .348 in 2011.
- With 2.37 kills per set, she ranked 18th in the conference and second on the team. With 242 kills, Loehr was one of six Terriers in triple figures and one of four over 200.
- She is the second-best net-minder on the team behind Barham, swatting 79 total blocks, 0.77 per set. Her seven swats at Furman tied her career best.

DOUBLE TROUBLE:

- Four Terriers recorded a double-double in 2022: Victoria Hensley, Emily Hodsdon, Mary Emily Morgan and Kennedy Smith.
- Victoria Hensley paced the team with seven doubledoubles. Smith and Hodsdon each posted six to tie for second, and Morgan contributed three.
- Hodsdon is the returing leader with her six doubledoubles last season.
- With back-to-back double-doubles against Furman and Western Carolina, Smith became the first Terrier on the season to record consecutive double-doubles. She is one of three Terriers to accomplish the feat, with Victoria Hensley and Emily Hodsdon also doing it
- Though posting 22 double-doubles as a team, Wofford has not found consistent success when notching the accomplishment. The Terriers were 6-8 in matches in which at least one player tallied a double-double, and Wofford was 1-5 when multiple Terriers recorded a double-double. The win at Furman was the first for the Terriers with multiple doubledoubles.

DYNAMIC DUO:

- Millie Loehr and Sarah Barham were a terrific tandem in 2022, as each finished top three in the Wofford record book for single-season hitting percentage.
- Loehr shattered the record with her .391 clip, topping Arden Anderson's mark of .348 in 2011.

Double-Doubles (0)

WOFFORD VOLLEYBALL NOTES

- Barham's .333 clip was not far behind, checking in at third all time.
- This marks the best single-season attack duo in program history. Only two other sets of teammates from the same season are in the current top 10. In 2016, Kara Shacklette hit .316, and Colleen Reilly hit .291. They currently rank sixth and 10th on the list. In 2017, the duo did it again, as Reilly hit .312 with Shacklette hitting .297 to clock in at seventh and ninth, respectively.
- But Loehr and Barham have far exceeded those paces to own two of the top three slots in the program's record book. The pair will look to run it back, just as Shacklette and Reilly did, during their senior season.

OPEN THE RECORD BOOKS:

- Sarah Barham is leaving her mark on the Wofford record books. Not only did she set a single-season record with 138 total blocks in 2021, but she's climbing the all-time career leaderboards, too.
- Barham is currently Wofford's career leader in hitting percentage (min. 1,000 attempts) with a .318 mark. Her 1.11 blocks per set rank second, just shy of Currie Gossett's 1.13, and her 3.15 points per set rank eighth. With 106 solo blocks, she is currently third, and her 324 total blocks are good for sixth place.
- With her second block at UNCG on Oct. 29, Barham became just the eighth Terrier all-time to join the 300-block club.
- Barham isn't the only one climbing the leaderboards. Fellow senior Emily Hodsdon has dished 2,193 assists, good for eighth place. Her 8.50 assists per set rank third, and her 0.32 aces per set are seventh.
- Rounding out a stellar senior trio is Millie Loehr, who shattered the program's single-season record for hitting percentage in 2022. Loehr's .391 mark far surpassed the previous record of .348 set by Arden Anderson in 2011.

CAN YOU DIG IT?:

- Abbey Richman stepped up into the libero role beginning with the match against Incarnate Word last season and thrived since, recording double-digit digs in each of the 21 matches. She also paced the squad in digs in each of those contests.
- With 389 digs, Richman led the team (3.81 per set). Of those digs, 287 came in SoCon play to pace the team.
   Dichman finiched cavant in the SoCon with her 300
- Richman finished seventh in the SoCon with her 389 digs.
- Her 22 digs at Mercer set a new single-match high for the Terriers in 2022, which she then topped one week later with 30 more against Chattanooga.

SERVING UP ACES:

- Abbey Richman was not far behind the team service lead with 28 aces at a rate of 0.27 per set. Emily Hodsdon was third on the squad with 20 aces, 0.26 per set.
- In SoCon play only, Richman led with 22 aces.
- Also returning are Mary Emily Morgan (19) and Caroline Prsystup (17), both of whom fell just shy of 20 aces on the campaign.
- With so many key pieces returning, the Terrier service should look to thrive in 2023.

SOCON PLAY:

- Wofford is 4-22 all-time in SoCon openers and 1-7 in them under Head Coach Lynze Roos.
- Wofford is 8-18 all-time in home SoCon openers.
- Despite the tough starts to conference play, Wofford has posted a .500 or better SoCon record in fourstraight seasons, including an 8-8 clip last season.
- Wofford is 149-294 all-time in SoCon action, but the Terriers own a 68-60 SoCon record under Lynze Roos.

IN THE CLASSROOM:

- Nine Terriers were honored on the 2022 Fall Academic All-Southern Conference Team: Sarah Barham, Kaitlyn Brown, Emily Hodsdon, Millie Loehr, Mary Emily Morgan, Chasidy Sharpe, Kennedy Smith, Emory Wyatt and Bella Zeman.
- In total, 18 Terriers were named to the 2022-23 SoCon Academic Honor Roll. All nine of the all-academic honorees were selected to the honor roll, with Alexa Bertsch, Addison Foote, Sarah MacLean, Caroline Przystup, Annemarie Rakoski, Abbey Richman, Elise Schneider, Mad Wilson and Meghan Yaffa also being recognized.
- A program-record four Terriers earned College Sports Communicators (CSC) Academic All-District honors last season: Millie Loehr, Mary Emily Morgan, Kennedy Smith and Bella Zeman.
- With a 3.5 team GPA for the 2022-23 academic year, the Wofford volleyball team once again was recognized with the USMC/AVCA Team Academic Award. The Terriers were one of over 1,332 collegiate and high school volleyball programs to be honored.

HEAD COACH

LYNZE ROOS

SEASON: RECORD AT WOF: CAREER: PERSONAL: 16th overall; eighth at Wofford 127-109 (68-60 SoCon) 291-228 Matt (husband); Loren (son); Lyle (daughter)

Lynze Roos enters her ninth season as head coach of the Wofford volleyball team in 2023. She was named the seventh head coach of the program on July 8, 2015 after spending the previous nine seasons (2006-14) as the head coach at Lynn University.

In the 2022 Season, Wofford finished 16-13 with an 8-8 Southern Conference record. The Terriers entered the SoCon Tournament as the No. 5 seed but fell in the first round. Wofford was again tough at home, going 9-5 in the Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium. Wofford hosted two non-conference tournaments for the first time, the Wofford Invitational and the inaugural Terrier Invite. Roos led her squad to win a pair of non-conference tournaments, the CofC Classic hosted by College of Charleston and Wofford's own Terrier Invite. For a second-straight season, three Terriers garnered All-Southern Conference recognition, with Sarah Barham and Millie Loehr being named to the second team and Victoria Hensley earning an All-Freshman Team nod. Barham led the league in blocks per set (1.11), and Loehr topped the conference in hitting percentage (.391), which set a new single-season Wofford program record. The Terriers led the SoCon in opponent hitting percentage (.182) and finished second in the league in assists per set (1.192), blocks per set (2.23), hitting percentage (.226) and kills per set (13.01).

In the 2021 season, Roos' squad continued to climb. Wofford finished 17-14 overall and 9-7 in Southern Conference play. As the No. 4 seed, the Terriers reached the Southern Conference Championship for the first time since 2017, finishing as the runners-up. The 17 overall wins are the most since that 2017 campaign. The fourth seed tied for the best in program history, and the Terriers finished tied for third in the standings, the highest regular-season finished in program history under Roos. Wofford remained stout at home, posting a 9-2 clip in the Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium. Three Terriers garnered All-Southern Conference recognition, with Sarah Barham and Emily Hods-don being selected to the Second Team and Sarah MacLean earning an All-Freshman nod. MacLean led the league in hitting percentage at .320. Barham set a single-season program record for blocks with 138 in the campaign. Hodsdon was the team's assist leader, finishing with 1,149. As a team, Wofford ranked second in the conference in blocks per set (2.23), hitting percentage (.214), assists (1,313), kills (1,443) and blocks (259).

In the 2020-21 adjusted season, due to result of the COVID-19 pandemic, Wofford finished 10-7 overall and 10-6 in the Southern Conference, matching a program record for conference wins (10) set by Roos' 2017 squad. Despite the challenges of COVID-19 postponing and/or canceling matches around the league and country, the Terriers continued its dominance in Jerry Richardson indoor Stadium, compiling a 7-1 mark at home in competing a conference-only schedule. Additionally, the Terriers matched its highest seeding for the Southern Conference Championships, slotted as the No. 4 seed, though, coming up just short to top-seeded Samford in the semifinals at the Pete Hanna Center in Birmingham, Ala. - the site of the 2020-21 SoCon Championships. Under Roos' guidance, Wofford tallied four All-SoCon honors for the first time since 2016, as Riley Coonan (First Team), Sarah Barham (Second Team, All-Freshman) and Emily Hodsdon (All-Freshman) nabbed all-conference recognition for the 2020-21 season. Barham led the league with a .357 hitting percentage, as Coonan finished third in the conference for the category (.313) while Hodsdon also finished third in the SoCon for assists (9.88/s). Additionally, Coonan, who finished her Wofford career fifth all-time in program history for blocks (314) and led the team in kills (181), marked the first Terrier to garner AVCA East Coast All-Region Honorable Mention accolades, in addition to being named to the All-SoCon Tournament Team. As a team, Roos led the Terriers to lead the SoCon in blocks (2.42/s), while finishing second in the conference for opponent hitting percentage (.173).

In 2019, Wofford was 15-16 overall, going 8-8 in a competitive Southern Conference. The Terriers were dominant at home, going 10-2 at Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium,

Were dominant at nome, going 10–2 at Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium, the site of the 2019 SoCon Championship. Wofford earned the No. 4 seed for the SoCon Championship, falling in the quarterfinals. Roos and her staff coached three all-conference players in Riley Coonan, Catie Cronister and Megan Yaffa. Cronister, the program's all-time leader in kills with 1,735, sent home 390 to go with a career-high 49 assists en route to All-SoCon Second Team Honors. Coonan, also a member of the All-SoCon Second Team, led the league in hitting percentage (.360) and blocks per set (1.18) while sending home 269 kills. Yaffa, a redshirt freshman, ranked third on the team with 250 kills, 39.0 blocks and 37 aces, being named to the All-Freshman squad.

In 2018, the Terriers grabbed the No. 5 seed in the Southern Conference tournament, finishing the regular season 14-16 overall, going 7-9 in conference play. Wofford was extremely tough at home, posting a record of 8-2 overall, going 6-2 in conference play. Roos' fourth season marked the inaugural Wofford Invitational on the main court in Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium in which the Terriers defeated Gardner-Webb and Middle Tennessee State. Wofford ranked second in the SoCon in blocks (216) and service aces per set (1.34), ranking in the top five in digs, kills, assists and hitting percentage. Roos guided a pair of players to milestones in 2018, as Catie Cronister became the program's all-time kills leader (1,345) and Taylor Gill surpassed 1,000 digs in just two seasons at Wofford, totaling 1,176.

In 2017, Roos' third season, Wofford reached unprecedented heights. Roos guided the Terriers, who entered the season having never advanced out of the quarterfinals, to the Southern Conference championship. The team finished the season with a 22-11 record, Wofford's most win in the Division I era, and a 10-6 conference record, also a best in Wofford's DI era. Roos also saw outside hitter Catie Cronister named Co-Player of the Year, while Colleen Reilly joined her on the First-Team for the second straight year and Riley Coonan was honored as an All-Freshman selection.

In her second season, Roos led the Terriers to a 17-15 mark and a 9-7 ledger in Southern Conference play. The nine conference wins were the most by a Wofford team in program history and the 9-7 mark was the first time the Terriers finished conference play with a winning record. Wofford earned a 3-0 sweep over Furman, handing the Paladins their first loss in Alley Gym in two years.

Roos' players also earned many individual accomplishments. For the first time in program history, Wofford had a player named First-Team All-SoCon (Colleen Reilly) and a player named Freshman of the Year (Catie Cronister). Cronister was also a Second Team selection while Kara Shacklette was chosen to the All-Freshman Team, giving Wofford three conference honors for the first time.

In her first season, Roos guided the Terriers to 16 wins – the team's most since 2009 – and a sixth-place finish in the Southern Conference standings – the team's best in its 18 years in the conference. Wofford rolled off five consecutive victories for the first time since 2012, which included a perfect 4-0 record to win the JSU Gamecock Invitational. The Terriers earned 3-0 sweeps over defending Southern Conference Tournament champion Samford and defending regular season champion Furman. The 2015 campaign also witnessed Wofford come back from two sets down to win twice, something the Terriers had not accomplished once since 2009. Wofford put together an 8-2 record through a 10-game stretch in October and finished the season with a 6-3 (.667) record at home, its highest home winning percentage since going 10-4 (.714) in 1992.

Roos' first season also saw some great individual accomplishments. Setter Molly Mayo broke the program's single-season assists record with 1,334, surpassing Rhea DeJesus's previous mark of 1,332 from 2004. Senior libero Jessica Graham posted 605 digs – second-most in program history – and broke the school record for career digs by nearly 300, finishing with 1,921. Freshman Colleen Reilly etched her name in the record books in total blocks (123), block assists (107) and blocks per set (1.05), taking the No. 3 spot in both total blocks and blocks per set, while claiming a new single-season record in block assists. Outside hitter Bella Santoro posted 364 kills to enter Wofford's top-10 for a single season and middle Danni Densford hit .320 to record the second-highest attack percentage in program history. Densford's season also included a match in which she hit .846 (11-0-13) against Alcorn State, which went down as the highest single-match attack percentage in team history (min. 10 kills).

Roos left Lynn University as the most accomplished and winningest coach in program history. Prior to her arrival, Lynn's volleyball program had won only 89 games in 10 years with only one winning season. Roos transformed the program and left with a 164-119 overall mark, 66-78 record in Sunshine State Conference play, eight winning seasons and four NCAA Tournament appearances in nine years.

Lynn had its breakout season in 2007, Roos' second year on the job. The Fighting Knights reached the postseason for the first time in program history, tying what was then the program record with 22 wins. Lynn advanced to the semifinals of the NCAA South Region Tournament with a 3-1 victory over Eckerd before falling 3-2 to top-seeded and second-ranked defending national champions, Tampa, in five sets.

The Blue & White would go on to claim 20 wins in each of the next three seasons while making trips to the NCAA Tournament along the way. Roos' 2008 squad set a record for wins in a season with 24 while the 2010 team, the last to qualify for the postseason, tallied a program-best 11 victories in SSC competition. Roos also owns 66 of the school's 81 conference wins.

Roos has also demonstrated a commitment to academic excellence. For eight straight seasons, the Lynn volleyball team earned American Volleyball Coaches Association Team Academic Award. In 2013-14, the volleyball team posted the highest team GPA out of Lynn's 14 athletic teams with a 3.81 cumulative grade point average.

Prior to Lynn, Roos served as the assistant volleyball coach on the staff of fellow Southern Conference member Samford University for two years. She arrived at Samford after a three-year tenure with Pike High School in Indianapolis, Indiana. At Pike, she was the head volleyball coach and led her team to three top-four finishes in the conference, as well as a sectional final. She also worked with the Pike Youth League, the Pike Fire Volleyball Club, and the Indy Select Volleyball Club from 2001-04 and started the Central Indiana Summer Volleyball League for high school programs.

As a collegian, Roos was an exemplary student-athlete. While an undergraduate student at Butler University, she was named to the dean's list for eight consecutive semesters, was a four-time NCAA District 12 All-Academic Team member and was a member of the Student-Athlete Advisory Board. Roos was named the 2001 Future Educator of the Year by the Butler Secondary Education Department and was selected as one of Butler's Top 100 Seniors.

On the court, Roos was equally impressive. As a freshman, Roos was named to the Midwestern Collegiate Conference All-Newcomer Team. She was also named a second-team all-conference performer in 1998 and 2000 and was picked to the MCC All-Tournament Team in 2000. She ended her playing career in Butler's top 10 in five categories and was named to Butler's Top 25 players in the first 25 years of the program.

Roos graduated from Butler University in 2001 as a double-major in English and education. She married Matt Roos on December 18, 2004. The couple has two children - a son, Loren, and a daughter, Lyle.
