CLEMSON FACES FLORIDA STATE IN SATURDAY SHOWDOWN

Two programs accounting for 13 ACC Championship Game appearances (and 11 ACC titles) over the last 14 years will square off on Saturday, Sept. 23, when the RV/23 Clemson Tigers and No. 4/3 Florida State Seminoles meet in Death Valley. Kickoff at Memorial Stadium in Clemson, S.C., is scheduled for noon ET.

Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney enters the game with a 99-20 all-time record in ACC regular season play. With a win on Saturday, he would join — fittingly — Florida State's Bobby Bowden as the only head coaches in conference history to win 100 regular season conference games as ACC head coaches. Bowden won 117 regular season conference games with the Seminoles after Florida State joined the ACC in 1992.

Swinney would also tie the Clemson head coaching record for career conference regular season wins, matching Frank Howard, who compiled a 100-48-5 conference record across both the Southern Conference and ACC. Howard was 66-30-2 in ACC play following the conference's formation in 1953. A win would also bring Swinney (163) within one victory of Howard (165) as Clemson's all-time winningest coach.

In the mid-1960s, Clemson alumnus Sam Jones famously gifted Howard with a rock from Death Valley, Calif., and Saturday will represent 56 years to the day that Clemson began rubbing Howard's Rock upon the Tigers' entry to the playing surface that now bears Howard's name: Frank Howard Field at Memorial Stadium. Though the Rock was first placed on a pedestal atop The Hill on Sept. 24, 1966, the team started the tradition of rubbing Howard's Rock prior to the first game of the 1967 season, a 23-6 win over Wake Forest on Sept. 23, 1967.

Last Saturday, Clemson significantly reversed its fortunes in the turnover category, recording four takeaways against only one giveaway to win the turnover margin for the first time this season.

"We have no chance against Florida State if we can't win the turnover margin," Swinney said following the game. "We can't beat hardly anybody when we lose the turnover margin. That's the greatest equalizer in football."

Clemson enters Saturday having recorded at least one takeaway in 16 consecutive home games, the nation's longest active streak. The last team to exit Death Valley without at least one giveaway was Boston College on Halloween in 2020.

WHAT TO WATCH FOR THIS WEEK

- Clemson facing Florida State 56 years to the date of the birth of Clemson's tradition of rubbing Howard's Rock. The Rock from Death Valley, Calif. was first placed on a pedestal atop The Hill on Sept. 24, 1966, but Clemson did not begin rubbing the Rock until a 23-6 win against Wake Forest on Sept. 23, 1967.

- Clemson and Florida State meeting after having represented the conference in the ACC Championship Game 13 times in 14 years since 2009, Dabo Swinney's first full season as the Tigers' head coach. Clemson represented the Atlantic Division (or earned a divisionless berth in 2020) in the championship game nine times in those 14 years, with Florida State doing so in four and Wake Forest breaking the duo's stranglehold on berths in 2021. The teams have combined for 11 of the last 12 ACC titles.

- Clemson attempting to win eight consecutive games against Florida State for the first time in series history. It would be the second-longest winning streak against the Seminoles by an opponent all-time, trailing Florida's nine-game winning streak against FSU from 1968-76.

- Clemson, which was already the first school to defeat Florida State in ACC play in seven consecutive games, attempting to push that winning streak to eight straight games.

- Clemson attempting to earn its 16th all-time victory against Florida State and improve to 10-8 in home games against the Seminoles.

- Clemson attempting to win a fifth consecutive home game against Florida State to tie the Tigers' longest home winning streak in the series, matching a five-game streak from 2003-11. Clemson is 9-1 in its last 10 games against Florida State at Memorial Stadium.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 68-6 against ACC opponents (including postseason play) since the start of the 2015 season. Clemson's .918 winning percentage against conference opponents in that span leads the nation.

- Clemson playing its 42nd game all-time against a team ranked in the Top 5 of the AP Poll.

- Clemson seeking its 14th all-time win against an AP Top 5 opponent.

- Clemson attempting to defeat a Top 5 opponent at Memorial Stadium for the fifth time in the facility's history, joining wins against No. 4 Georgia in 1981, No. 3 Florida State in 2003, No. 5 Georgia in 2013 and No. 3 Louisville in 2016.

- Clemson attempting to earn its first victory as an unranked team against an AP Top 5 opponent since unranked Clemson defeated No. 3 Florida State, 26-10, in 2003. Clemson has collected 10 wins against AP Top 5 teams since that victory but was ranked in the Top 25 in all 10 of those wins.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 62-2 at Memorial Stadium in the College Football Playoff era (since 2014). Clemson's current .968 home winning percentage in that span is the best in the nation.

- Clemson attempting to win its 26th consecutive conference home game, the nation's longest active streak. Clemson's last home loss in ACC play came in 2016 against Pitt.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 89-9 in regular season play since the start of the 2015 season. Seven of Clemson's nine regular season losses in that span have been decided by a final margin of 10 or fewer points.

- Head Coach Dabo Swinney attempting to earn his 164th career win to pull within one victory of College Football Hall of Famer Frank Howard's career record at Clemson (165).

- Swinney (99-20) attempting to tie Howard's school record for career regular season conference victories

(100). Howard went 100-48-5 in conference play across the Southern Conference and Atlantic Coast Conference.

- Swinney (99-20) attempting to join Bobby Bowden (117) as the only coaches in history to win at least 100 games in ACC regular season competition.

- Swinney attempting to improve to 10-5 all-time against Florida State.

- Swinney attempting to make Florida State the fifth program against which he's earned 10 career victories, joining Wake Forest (14), Boston College (14), NC State (11) and Georgia Tech (11). Swinney can also add Syracuse (9) to that list later this season.

- Head Coach Dabo Swinney coaching his 20th game against AP Top 5 opponents all-time and looking to improve to 11-9 all-time against AP Top 5 teams. Swinney's 10 career wins against AP Top 5 teams are the second-most of any active FBS coach (Nick Saban, 26).

- Clemson (270) attempting to score in a 271st consecutive game to tie the 1981-2004 Washington Huskies for the 18th-longest streak of consecutive games without being shutout in FBS history.

- Clemson attempting to score 45 points in a third consecutive game for the first time since a six-game streak in 2019.

- Clemson attempting to throw at least three touchdown passes in three straight games for the first time since a four-game streak in 2020.

- Clemson entering the game having scored at least one rushing touchdown in a national-best 70 of its 72 games since the start of the 2018 season.

- Clemson attempting to allow no sacks in back-to-back games for the first time since 2021 against Wake Forest and South Carolina. Clemson has won 38 consecutive games in which it doesn't allow a sack, a streak that dates to its last such loss during the 2010 season.

- Clemson entering the game having recorded at least one takeaway in 16 consecutive home games, the nation's longest active streak according to Stats Perform.

- Clemson attempting to win the turnover margin in consecutive games for the first time since 2021 against Boston College and Syracuse.

- Clemson attempting to record multiple interceptions in back-to-back games for the first time this season and first time since last year's games against South Carolina and North Carolina.

- Clemson attempting to record at least three interceptions in back-to-back games for the first time since 2008 against Virginia and South Carolina. Those games also represent the last time Clemson has had four or more takeaways in consecutive games.

- Clemson (497) attempting to record three sacks to become the first program to record 500 sacks since 2012.

- Clemson, which recorded 10 tackles for loss in each of the last two games, attempting to produce double-digit TFLs in three straight games for the first time since Clemson's top-ranked defense accomplished the feat in four straight games in 2014.

- Safety/nickelback Khalil Barnes attempting to become the first Clemson freshman with an interception in back-to-back games since 2013 when Jayron Kearse picked off a pass against both Maryland and Virginia.

- Tight end Jake Briningstool attempting to catch a touchdown pass in back-to-back games for the second time in his career (2022 vs. Wake Forest and NC State).

- Wide receiver Tyler Brown attempting to become the first Clemson player to catch multiple touchdown passes in back-to-back games since Tee Higgins caught multiple touchdowns in three straight games against Wake Forest, South Carolina and Virginia in 2019.

- Brown attempting to become the first Clemson player to record multiple touchdown receptions in multiple games of a freshman season since Artavis Scott (three games) in 2014. Scott is now an offensive graduate assistant on Clemson's staff.

- Brown attempting to become the first Clemson freshman with multiple receiving touchdowns in consecutive games since Sammy Watkins in 2011 against Auburn and Florida State.

- Wide receiver Beaux Collins (977) needing 23 receiving yards to reach 1,000 career receiving yards.

- Defensive tackle Tyler Davis (42) making his 43rd career start to pull within two starts of Christian Wilkins' Clemson record for starts by a defensive tackle (45 from 2015-18).

- Quarterback Cade Klubnik attempting to become the first Clemson quarterback to be responsible for four touchdowns in three consecutive games since 2019 when Trevor Lawrence accounted for four combined passing or rushing touchdowns in each of three games against Wofford, NC State and Wake Forest.

- Klubnik attempting to pass for three touchdowns in three straight games for the first time in his career.

- Klubnik attempting to become the first Clemson quarterback to pass for at least three touchdowns in three straight games since a four-game streak by Trevor Lawrence in 2020.

- Klubnik (two) attempting to tie former teammate DJ Uagalelei (three) for the sixth-most career 300-yard passing games in Clemson history.

- Klubnik attempting to rush for a touchdown in back-to-back games for the second time in his career (vs. North Carolina and Tennessee in 2022).

- Running back Phil Mafah attempting to rush for a touchdown in three consecutive games for the first time in his career.

- Defensive end Justin Mascoll (56) playing his 57th career game to pull within one game of K.J. Henry's Clemson record for career games played by a defensive end (58).

- Running back Will Shipley (nine) attempting to become the 11th player in program history to rush for 100-plus yards in at least 10 career games, joining Travis Etienne (20), Wayne Gallman (17), Raymond Priestner (15), James Davis (14), Andre Ellington (12), C.J. Spiller (12), Woodrow Dantzler (11), Kenny Flowers (11), Buddy Gore (11) and Terry Allen (10). Shipley would move into a tie with Allen for 10th.

- Shipley (2,145) entering the game as one of 21 players in Clemson history to reach 2,000 career rushing yards. He needs 111 rushing yards to enter the Top 15 in rushing yardage in Clemson history (No. 15 Ken Callicutt, 2,256 from 1973-77).

- Shipley (26) sitting one rushing touchdown shy of entering the Top 10 in school history in career rushing touchdowns. Cliff Austin and Woodrow Dantzler are currently tied for 10th with 27 each. He is also within reach of No. 9 Terry Allen (28 from 1978-82) and No. 8 Fred Cone (29 from 1948-50).

- Shipley (27 — 26 via rush and one via reception) attempting to move into the Top 10 in Clemson history in total career touchdowns. He is chasing Ray Matthews, Kenny Flowers and Terry Allen (28 each, tied for 10th) and No. 9 Sammy Watkins (29) on that list.

- Shipley (3,300) needing 200 all-purpose yards to become the 12th player in Clemson history to reach 3,500 career all-purpose yards.

- Cornerback Nate Wiggins attempting to intercept passes in consecutive games for the first time in his career.

- Linebacker Wade Woodaz attempting to record an interception in a third straight game. The last time a Clemson player recorded a pick in three straight contests was 2009, when both DeAndre McDaniel (first three games of the season) and Rashard Hall (four straight contests across games 5-8) accomplished the feat. Both McDaniel (Senior Defensive Assistant) and Hall (Director of Career & Professional Development) are now on the Clemson staff.

- Woodaz, whose interceptions the last two weeks were preceded by a fumble recovery in the season opener, attempting to become the first Clemson player with a takeaway in four consecutive games since Rashard Hall in 2009.

- Wiggins and Woodaz (one each) both attempting to join Arlington Nunn (three in 1990) and Dorian O'Daniel (two in 2017) as the only Clemson players since 1950 to record multiple interception returns for touchdowns in a season.

CLEMSON VS. AP TOP 5

Saturday's contest against No. 4 Florida State will be Clemson's 42nd all-time contest against a team ranked in the AP Top 5. Nineteen of Clemson's previous 41 games against AP Top 5 teams have come in Dabo Swinney's head coaching tenure. His squads are 10-9 in those contests.

Clemson's first win against an AP Top 5 team in school history came in the third game of the 1981 season when the then-unranked Tigers knocked off No. 4 Georgia, the defending national champions, to kickstart Clemson toward its first national championship in school history that year.

A win on Saturday would be Clemson's 14th all-time victory against an AP Top 5 opponent. Clemson was also ranked in the AP Top 5 in nine of those victories; the four other games featured wins by unranked Clemson vs. Georgia in 1981, unranked Clemson vs. Florida State in 2003, No. 21 Clemson vs. Virginia Tech in the 2011 ACC Championship Game and No. 8 Clemson vs. Georgia in 2013.

A win Saturday would be Clemson's fifth home win against an AP Top 5 opponent in Death Valley history, joining wins against Georgia in 1981 and 2013, a 2003 win against Florida State and a 2016 victory against Louisville.

HALL OF FAME DAY

Saturday has been designated as Hall of Fame Day, as eleven former Clemson student-athletes and coaches will be inducted into the Clemson Athletic Hall of Fame over the weekend.

Former Clemson football players comprise three of this year's 11 inductees. This year's class also includes track and field athletes Yehzekel Halifa, Miller Moss and April Sinkler, tennis players Lawson Duncan and Ani Mijacika, basketball player Will Solomon, baseball player Gary Burnham and golf coach Larry Penley.

Career highlights for Clemson Football's three honorees are included below:

DeANDRE McDANIEL (2007-10)

- Only player in the nation in 2009 who had at least eight interceptions and 100 tackles, and the only player in Clemson history to do both in one season.

- His eight takeaways on defense in 2009 tied for second-most in Clemson history.

- Two-time All-American, as he was a first-team All-American by CBS Sports and FWAA and third-team All-American by Sporting News. He was then a third-team All-American by Rivals and Phil Steele in 2010.

- Two-time First-Team All-ACC selection.

- Only player in Clemson history with 15 interceptions and 15 tackles for loss in a career.

- His 16 career takeaways are fourth in Clemson history. His 190 takeaway return yards are sixth.

- His 15 career interceptions are tied for second in

SERIES HISTORY VS. FLORIDA STATE

Florida State holds a 20-15 advantage in the series with Clemson dating back to the schools' first meeting, a 38-13 Florida State win in Tallahassee in 1970. Clemson has a 13-6 advantage over the last 19 games, including a seven-game active winning streak.

The home team has won 15 of the last 20 games in the series. Since 2003, Clemson has won at Florida State four times: in 2006, 2016, 2018 and 2022. Florida State's only win at Clemson since 2001 was in 2013. Three of the last four road wins in the series (Florida State in 2013, Clemson in 2016 and 2018) all preceded National Championship victories at the end of the season.

In an 11-season span from 2009-19, the winner of the Clemson vs. Florida State game went on to win the Atlantic Division title, a streak that ended in 2020 in a divisionless season that ultimately did not feature a Clemson/Florida State matchup. From 2011-19, the winner of the Tigers/Seminole matchup also won the ACC Championship, including six wins by Clemson in that span.

Though both teams are ranked in the Coaches Poll this week, only Florida State is ranked in the AP Poll.

Previously, both teams have entered the game in the Top 25 of the AP Poll 12 times in the series. In 2000, both teams were ranked in the Top 10 as Clemson was No. 10 and Florida State No. 4 before Florida State's 54-7 victory. Both teams were in the Top 5 in 2013, the first matchup of Top 5 teams in the history of Death Valley.

This week, Clemson will attempt to record only the second winning streak of eight or more games against Florida State by any program all-time. Clemson and Florida account for four of the eight all-time streaks of six or more wins against Florida State.

CLEMSON-FLORIDA STATE MEMORIES

1988: Florida State defeated Clemson, 24-21, aided by an intricate fake punt executed by Bobby Bowden's team against the Tigers. The "Puntrookie" went for 78 yards on a run by LeRoy Butler, and the first down at the Clemson two-yard line led to the winning field goal for Florida State. Clemson's defense stiffened but Richie Andrews kicked a 19-yard field goal with 32 seconds left to give Florida State the victory. Both teams finished that season in the top 10.

1999-2007: These games represented the annual Bowden Bowl, as Clemson was coached by Tommy Bowden and Florida State by Bobby Bowden. Bobby had a 5-4 advantage in those nine games, but Tommy won the last three. They remain the only meetings of father and son head coaches in FBS history. The first Bowden Bowl came in 1999, a 17-14 victory for Florida State. That FSU team went on to win the national championship, and the 17 points and three-point victory margin were season lows for Florida State in that championship season. It was the closest Clemson had come to beating the No. 1 ranked team in the nation until the National Championship Game to end the 2016 season.

2003: Clemson upset a third-ranked Florida State team by a 26-10 score in a nationally televised Saturday night game at Death Valley. Florida State was coming off a 37-0 win at Notre Dame and Clemson was coming off a 45-17 loss at Wake Forest. Florida State had won 11 consecutive games in the series prior to the game.

2005: Clemson defeated eventual ACC champion Florida State, 35-14, in Memorial Stadium behind quarterback Charlie Whitehurst. The two teams were tied, 14-14, at the half before Clemson dominated the second half behind Whitehurst and receiver Chansi Stuckey.

2007: Clemson won on Labor Day night behind the running of James Davis. A year earlier, Davis had scored the winning touchdown at Florida State in 2006, and the 2007 victory gave Clemson three straight wins over the Seminoles, becoming the first ACC team to do that.

2009: C.J. Spiller put on a show for the ages with 312 all-purpose yards, then an all-time Clemson record, in a 40-24 victory. It was a big win on the way to Clemson's first Atlantic Division championship. It was Bobby Bowden's last game against Clemson. He had a 14-7 all-time record against Clemson but lost his last four appearances at Death Valley. However, his 6-4 record in the facility still represents the most victories at Clemson by an opposing head coach, one ahead of Georgia's Vince Dooley (five).

2014: Florida State overcame a 10-3 halftime deficit without suspended quarterback Jameis Winston to earn a 23-17 overtime victory on Sept. 20. The game, however, represented what ACC Network announcer Anish Shroff called in 2020 "a point of demarcation" for Clemson, as quarterback Deshaun Watson made his first start the following week. It had remained Clemson's last September loss until losing its 2021 season opener against No. 5 Georgia. The 2014 Clemson/FSU game also represented Clemson's last loss when holding an opponent to 23 or fewer points until that 2021 game against Georgia.

2016: The third-ranked Tigers won the fourth quarter, 17-6, to defeat No. 12 Florida State, 37-34. Deshaun Watson completed 27-of-43 passes for 378 yards and two scores and gained 52 more yards rushing for the Tigers, as Clemson produced 511 yards of total offense in 81 plays.

2018: Clemson routed Florida State, 59-10, in Tallahassee, the largest home loss in Florida State history. But the runaway win featured a little bit of historical symmetry. One of Clemson's touchdowns was scored on a two-yard touchdown run by tight end Garrett Williams, who scored his first career touchdown in the stadium in which his father, Dayne, played collegiately for Florida State. In 1988, Dayne was the upback who received the snap and handed the ball to LeRoy Butler on the infamous Puntrooskie against Clemson.

2019: Clemson became the 15th FBS program (and first ACC program) ever to reach 750 all-time wins after earning a 45-14 win against the Seminoles at Death Valley.

2020: Clemson traveled to Tallahassee but the game was postponed roughly three hours prior to kickoff and later canceled altogether. Previously, the last time Clemson had a game postponed after the team had already traveled to the site was in 1963, when the Tigers were slated to play South Carolina on Saturday, Nov. 23. Clemson returned from that 1963 trip to Columbia after the game was postponed following the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

LAST MEETING

Clemson 34, Florida State 28

(Oct. 15, 2022, Tallahassee, Fla.)

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — No. 4/5 Clemson scored 17 points in a two-minute span on either side of halftime to take command of a 34-28 win at Florida State on Saturday night. Quarterback DJ Uiagalelei led Clemson on six consecutive scoring drives as the Tigers (7-0, 5-0 ACC) won their 13th consecutive game overall and seventh in a row in the series against the Seminoles (4-3, 2-3 ACC). Running back Will Shipley tallied a then-career-best 238 all-purpose yards (121 rushing, 48 receiving, 69 kickoff return) in leading the Tiger attack.

Defensively, Clemson allowed touchdowns on two of the first three drives before settling in and holding the Seminoles scoreless for its next six drives, which included three fourth-down stops. The Tigers tallied nine tackles for loss and a key strip-sack just before halftime that led to another score.

Jeremiah Trotter Jr. was credited with a career-best and team-season-high 13 tackles, earning ACC Linebacker of the Week honors. Myles Murphy had six tackles, including 3.5 for loss, and two sacks.

Uiagalelei accounted for four total touchdowns (three passing, one rushing), was 15-of-23 through the air for 203 yards and picked up a five-yard rushing touchdown.

Florida State struck first, taking the ball and going on a nine-play, 75-yard touchdown drive. Clemson's defense responded on its next opportunity, as Myles Murphy forced Florida State to punt after sacking Florida State quarterback Jordan Travis for a 15-yard loss. On the Tigers' next possession, Uiagalelei avoided a sack, stepped up in the pocket, and threw a 59-yard dime to Antonio Williams for the Tigers' first touchdown of the night.

The Seminoles took a 14-7 lead after eating up 6:57 minutes of clock on a 15-play, 93-yard touchdown drive. Uiagalelei led a response, orchestrating a 13-play, 75-yard drive that included two third-down conversions and a fourth-down pickup. A 17-yard reception by Williams set the Tigers up inside the 10-yard line, and Uiagalelei found Jake Briningstool from seven yards out for the score two plays later. On the extra point, which tied the score at 14-14, B.T. Potter passed Chandler Catanzaro (404 from 2010-13) to become the highest-scoring kicker in Clemson history.

On Clemson's next drive, Potter hit a 47-yard field goal to give Clemson a lead with 1:51 to play in the first half, his 30th career field goal of 40 yards or longer. On the ensuing Florida State possession, Murphy again got to Travis, forcing a fumble that Tyler Davis recovered at the FSU 42-yard line.

Shipley took the first play 36 yards inside the 10-yard line, and Uiagalelei scored on a bootleg to the right from five yards out, his fourth touchdown on the ground this season. Clemson went into halftime holding a 24-14 lead.

Clemson came out of halftime strong, as Shipley took the opening kickoff 69 yards to the FSU 31. On the first play from scrimmage, Uiagalelei handed off to Phil Mafah, who tossed to Williams in the backfield. Williams tossed the ball back to Uiagalelei, who hit Davis Allen in stride up the left sideline for a 31-yard touchdown, the 10th touchdown reception of Allen's career. Potter tacked on a 34-yarder at the 7:32 mark of the third quarter to extend Clemson's lead to 34-14.

The Seminoles scored two touchdowns in the fourth quarter to bring the final score to 34-28.

LAST MEETING IN CLEMSON

Clemson 30, Florida State 20

(Oct. 30, 2021, Clemson, S.C.)

CLEMSON, S.C. – After a defensive touchdown gave Florida State a 20-17 lead late in the fourth quarter, Clemson freshman Will Shipley capped a three-play, 58-yard drive with a 21-yard touchdown run to give the Tigers the lead for good with 2:53 to play as Clemson held on for a 30-20 win. With the win, Clemson improved to 5-3 overall and 4-2 in ACC play. Florida State dropped to 3-5 (2-3 ACC).

Shipley recorded the first 100-yard rushing game of his career as he finished with 128 yards rushing, 24 yards receiving and two touchdown carries. Barrett Carter scored the game's final points after recovering a fumble on a lateral attempt by Jordan Travis at the 3-yard line that he returned to the end zone for the touchdown as time expired.

With 7:39 to play in the game, Florida State's Jermaine Johnson sacked DJ Uigalelei and forced a fumble at the six-yard line that Johnson then recovered and ran in for a touchdown to give Florida State a 20-17 lead.

For the second consecutive game, B.T. Potter got the scoring going for the Tigers in the first quarter with a 47-yard field goal.

Florida State answered with a 10-play, 75-yard drive capped by a one-yard touchdown pass from Jordan Travis to Jashaun Corbin, but Myles Murphy blocked the extra point to hold the Seminoles to a 6-3 lead.

Clemson's Phil Mafah scampered 63 yards down the sideline to set up an 11-yard back corner pass from Uigalelei to Davis Allen to give the Tigers a 10-6 advantage.

On the next play from scrimmage, Florida State's Lawrance Toafili caught a pass on an out route from Travis down the sideline that turned into a 75-yard touchdown after Toafili rolled over a Clemson defender on his way to the end zone to put the FSU back on top 13-10.

The Tigers responded by going 83 yards in 4:38, and Shipley scored from two yards out to give Clemson a 17-13 lead at the half.

The Tigers' defense held Florida State to just 65 yards rushing and 241 yards of total offense. Murphy led the unit with six tackles, a blocked PAT and 2.5 of the Tigers' six sacks.

TIGERS FROM FLORIDA

Clemson has 13 players from the state of Florida on its current roster, the fourth-most of any state. Clemson has signed multiple players from Florida in five straight recruiting classes, its longest streak of multiple Sunshine State signees since a six-year stretch from 1992-97.

ON THIS DATE

- Sept. 23, 1939: Banks McFadden ran 90 yards for a touchdown in Clemson's 18-0 win over Presbyterian. It is still tied for the longest run in Clemson history. McFadden had a career-high 173 yards in 15 attempts on this day.

- Sept. 23, 1967: Clemson started the tradition of rubbing Howard's Rock when running down The Hill. Clemson responded with a 23-6 win over Wake Forest.

- Sept. 23, 2000: Woodrow Dantzler rushed for 220 yards, an ACC record for a quarterback, in Clemson's 31-10 win over Virginia. Dantzler also passed for 154 yards, bringing Clemson to a 4-0 record and a No. 7 AP ranking.

- Overall: Clemson is 8-5-2 all-time in games contested on Sept. 23, including wins in each of their last three Sept. 23 contests in 2000, 2006 and 2017.

NOTES FROM LAST GAME

- Clemson finished +3 in the turnover margin to win the turnover margin for the first time this season and for the first time since a +3 performance in turnovers in the 2022 ACC Championship Game.

- Clemson recorded four takeaways, its most since the third game of last season, a four-takeaway effort against Louisiana Tech.

- Clemson recorded 105 yards on interception returns, tied for ninth-most in a game in program history. It was Clemson's most since the 2011 ACC Championship Game against Virginia Tech (105).

- Clemson has now scored at least 40 points in consecutive games for the first time since last season's games against Louisiana Tech and Wake Forest.

- Prior to Clemson surrendering a fourth-quarter touchdown, Clemson scored 86 consecutive points without surrendering a point to an opponent dating to the second quarter of last week's game against Charleston Southern. It was Clemson's longest such streak since scoring 91 consecutive points against Boston College and Wofford in 2019.

- According to Stats Perform, the 86-point streak was one of three Clemson streaks of 85-plus points without allowing a point since 2000, joining the 91-point streak in 2019 and a 96-point streak in 2000 against Missouri and Wake Forest.

- Clemson recorded 10 tackles for loss and has now produced double-digit tackles for loss in consecutive games for the first time since November 2021 against UConn and Wake Forest.

- Clemson did not allow a sack, its first such game since last year's NC State game. Clemson has now won 38 consecutive games when not allowing a sack; Clemson's last loss in which it did not allow a sack came at Boston College in 2010.

- Quarterback Cade Klubnik completed 16-of-27 passes for 169 yards with three passing touchdowns and no interceptions. He also rushed six times for 35 yards with a touchdown on the ground.

- Klubnik followed a four-touchdown passing performance a week ago by throwing for three touchdowns and rushing for another. He became the first Clemson quarterback to be responsible for four touchdowns in consecutive games since 2020, when Trevor Lawrence threw for three touchdowns and rushed for one against Miami (Fla.) before throwing for five touchdowns against Georgia Tech.

- Clemson has recorded at least one takeaway in 16 consecutive home games, the nation's longest active streak according to Stats Perform. Ole Miss entered the day with a takeaway in 17 consecutive home games but did not record a takeaway in a home win against Georgia Tech on Saturday evening.

- Clemson opened the scoring on a 46-yard interception return for touchdown by cornerback Nate Wiggins.

- The interception was the second of Wiggins' career. It was also his second career pick-six, joining his 98-yard interception return in the 2022 ACC Championship Game.

- Wiggins became the first Clemson player with a pick-six in consecutive seasons since Rex Varn against Maryland in 1977 and NC State in 1978. (Note: Dorian O'Daniel (2017) and Arlington Nunn (1990) had multiple pick-sixes in a single season, but Wiggins became the first since Varn with one in back-to-back years).

- Including an interception return for touchdown by Wade Woodaz a week earlier, Clemson has now recorded a pick-six in back-to-back games for the first time since doing so last season against South Carolina and North Carolina.

- Wide receiver Tyler Brown recorded his first career touchdown reception on a 30-yard pass from Klubnik in the first quarter.

- Clemson did not convert the PAT attempt following

NOTES

Brown's touchdown, snapping a streak of 126 consecutive made PAT attempts for Clemson, dating to Clemson's last miss against Boston College in 2020.

- Nickelback Khalil Barnes recorded his first career interception, picking off quarterback Casey Thompson in the first quarter.

- Barnes' first career interception came in his third career game. It represents the earliest in a career a Clemson player has recorded an interception since freshmen Jonathan Meeks and Rashard Hall each recorded an interception in the third game of the 2009 season against Boston College.

- On the ensuing possession after Barnes' interception, Klubnik hit tight end Jake Briningstool for a seven-yard touchdown.

- The touchdown reception was Briningstool's first of the season and the sixth of his career. It was his first since scoring at Florida State last October.

- Clemson led, 20-0, after the first quarter. Clemson's 20 first-quarter points were its most in an opening frame since 2021 against South Carolina State (28) and its most against an FBS opponent in a first quarter since 2020 (31 vs. Pitt).

- Running back Phil Mafah recorded a 19-yard rushing touchdown in the second quarter. It was his 10th career rushing touchdown.

- Mafah has now rushed for a touchdown in consecutive games for the first time in his career.

- Clemson has scored at least one rushing touchdown in a national-best 70 of its 72 games since the start of the 2018 season.

- Defensive end T.J. Parker recorded his first career sack in the second quarter.

- Klubnik recorded his third career rushing touchdown on a one-yard plunge in the second quarter.

- Safety Jalyn Phillips recorded his first career sack in the second quarter.

- Linebacker Wade Woodaz recorded a fourth-down interception in the third quarter, his second career interception and his second in as many games.

- Woodaz became the first Clemson player with an interception in back-to-back games since cornerback Andrew Booth Jr. against Wake Forest and South Carolina in November 2021.

- Woodaz became the first Clemson linebacker with an interception in consecutive games since Isaiah Simmons in the 2019 ACC Championship Game and 2019 Fiesta Bowl.

- Brown recorded a career-long 44-yard punt return in the third quarter, Clemson's longest punt return since Will Taylor's 51-yard return against South Carolina State in 2021.

- Brown's punt return set up a five-play, 26-yard scoring drive that he capped off himself with a two-yard touchdown pass from Klubnik.

- Brown finished the game with three receptions for 49 yards with two touchdowns. He became the first Clemson freshman wide receiver with two receiving touchdowns in a single game since Justyn Ross against Notre Dame in the 2018 Cotton Bowl.

- Running back Domonique Thomas scored his first NCAA touchdown on a two-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter. Thomas had seven total touchdowns (six rushing) at NAIA Union College in Kentucky before walking on at Clemson.

- Prior to the game, Thomas was featured on ACC Network for his story of perseverance, leaving Union College to pursue his dream at Clemson after his mother and grandparents were tragically killed in a tornado in his hometown of Ohatchee, Ala.

- Linebacker Kobe McCloud recorded his first career forced fumble in the fourth quarter. It was recovered by defensive end Zaire Patterson, his first career fumble recovery.

- With 45 all-purpose yards in the contest, Shipley (3,300) passed Buddy Gore (3,273) for 12th on Clemson's all-time leaderboard for career all-purpose yards.

- Wide receiver Adam Randall recorded two receptions for a career-high 51 yards.

- Captains for the contest were wide receiver Beau Collins, quarterback Hunter Helms, defensive end Justin Mascoll, and defensive end Xavier Thomas.

WITH THE WIN...

- Head Coach Dabo Swinney won his 163rd career game to pull within two victories of College Football Hall of Famer Frank Howard's career record at Clemson (165).

- Clemson improved to 2-0 all-time against Florida Atlantic.

- Clemson kept Florida Atlantic among the 45 opponents against which the Tigers have a perfect all-time record.

- Clemson faced Florida Atlantic Head Coach Tom Herman for the first time and improved to 161-73-3 all-time (and 44-7 since 2011) when facing a coach for the first time.

- Clemson improved to 61-2 at Memorial Stadium in the College Football Playoff era (since 2014). Clemson's .968 home winning percentage in that span is the best in the nation.

- Clemson improved to 38-4 against non-conference opponents at Death Valley under Dabo Swinney.

- Clemson improved to 28-7 in night games since the start of the 2018 season. The win also moved Clemson to 47-10 at night since 2015.

- Clemson won its 19th consecutive night game in Death Valley, a streak that dates to the middle of the 2013 season.

- Clemson improved to 22-3 under Dabo Swinney in night games in Death Valley.

- Clemson improved to 88-9 in regular season play since the start of the 2015 season. Seven of Clemson's nine regular season losses in that span have been decided by a final margin of 10 or fewer points.

- Clemson improved to 34-6 under Swinney in games in which the Tigers enter ranked lower in the AP Poll than they did in its previous contest. Clemson dropped from No. 25 to unranked (receiving votes) in the latest AP Poll.

- Clemson improved to 126-16 against AP-unranked teams under Dabo Swinney and improved to 103-6 in those games since the start of the 2012 season.

- Clemson is now 77-5 when scoring first since 2015.

- Clemson improved to 35-1 since 2015 when intercepting multiple passes in a game.

- Clemson has now won 108 of its last 112 games

ONE OF THE ERA'S WINNINGEST PROGRAMS

Alabama and Clemson rank No. 1 and 2 in the country in wins since 2015, with the two teams combining for five out of eight national championships in that time frame. With a dominating win in the 2022 ACC Championship Game, Clemson became only the second program in the FBS to win 100 games since 2015.

3.	Georgia	94	19	.832
4.	Ohio State	93	12	.886
5.	Oklahoma	87	21	.806

Clemson has a 144-25 record since starting its current stretch of 10-win seasons in 2011. Only Alabama has more wins since 2011.

4.	Georgia	134	32	.807
5.	Oklahoma	126	34	.788

Clemson's lofty perch in that ranking reflects not only its dominance against middle- and lower-tier opponents, but also its success in matchups with other premier programs. From 2011-22, 37 different programs currently in Power Five conferences recorded at least 85 wins in that span. Clemson has played 15 of those 37 programs since 2011 and is 62-19 (.765) in those contests and is .500 or better against 14 of the 15 teams.

10-WIN SEASONS

The FBS record for consecutive 10-win seasons is 15, as Alabama's 15th consecutive 10-win season in 2022 broke Florida State's record of 14 from 1987-2000. With its 12th consecutive 10-win season in 2022, Clemson joined Florida State and Alabama as the only programs ever to reach 10 wins in a dozen straight seasons.

The 2022 season was Clemson's 19th 10-win season in school history. It was Clemson's 12th such season under Dabo Swinney.

SENIOR SUCCESS

Every January, Head Coach Dabo Swinney conducts his first official meeting with his new team. The first order of business in the meeting is to "reset the room," reorganizing the seating arrangement with seniors in front and all succeeding classes in order behind them in the team auditorium.

Several of Swinney's senior classes placed themselves among select company in college football history. The 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020 Clemson seniors account for four of only 13 four-year classes in FBS history to reach 50 career wins. That includes the 2018 and 2019 groups that are tied with the 2018 Alabama seniors for the most wins in FBS history (55 wins in four years).

HISTORIC CONFERENCE REIGN

After a one-year hiccup in 2021, Clemson reclaimed the ACC throne with "A"nother "C"lemson "C"hampionship in 2022. The conference title was Clemson's seventh in eight years, as the Tigers became the first team in an active Power Five conference to win seven outright conference titles in an eight-year span since Alabama won eight SEC titles in nine seasons from 1971-79.

Two years earlier, Clemson became the first program ever to win 20 ACC Championships. That year, Clemson became the first program in the conference championship game era to win six straight conference championship games. Clemson also became the first ACC program to win six consecutive outright titles, as Florida State had a streak of nine straight ACC titles, but that streak included two co-championships that prevented Bobby Bowden's Seminoles from ever winning more than three straight titles outright.

Including titles from its days as a member of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association and Southern Conference, Clemson has 27 conference championships overall, also the most of any current ACC school. Duke ranks second among the ACC's current membership with 18 overall conference titles, including 11 Southern Conference titles and seven ACC titles.

The Tigers won the 1900, 1902 and 1903 SIAA Conference championships under John Heisman, then the 1906 SIAA title under Bob Williams. Clemson also won the 1940 and 1948 Southern Conference titles under Frank Howard. Howard won eight total conference titles, including two in the Southern Conference and six in the ACC. Swinney matched Howard with his eighth conference title in 2022.

POWER OVER THE POWER FIVE

Early in his head coaching tenure, Dabo Swinney laid out his belief to then-Clemson athletic director Terry Don Phillips that the Tigers needed to add tough non-conference challenges on top of their tests in ACC play to serve as a foundation for the program's growth.

"I had a conversation with Terry Don and said, 'Terry Don, I know we are not very good right now, but we need to play people because that is going to help me teach and help me develop the culture and the mindset that you have to have to win at the highest level,'" recounted Swinney. "I didn't think we had that, and that's what we committed to. That's what we've done."

That scheduling philosophy and culture change has resonated in the Clemson program, and since 2013, no team can claim more wins against Power Five Conference opponents than the Tigers. On Nov. 12, 2022, Clemson became the first program to reach 100 victories against Power Five opponents since 2013.

SIGN AND DEVELOP

While proud of his incoming classes, Head Coach Dabo Swinney has long stated that a true ranking of a recruiting class cannot and should not be published until four years later when the group can be evaluated on performance rather than potential.

Much to Swinney's delight, The Athletic has annually assumed that role in recent years, re-ranking every recruiting class four years later to account for on-field performance.

For its re-rankings, The Athletic uses the following grading scale: 5 points: All-American, award winner, top-50 NFL Draft pick; 4: Multi-year starter, all-conference honors; 3: One-year starter or key reserve; 2: Career backup; 0: Minor or no contribution, left the program. The outlet also adds a bonus to each program's class average, derived from its total number of wins from 2017 through 2020 (e.g.: For re-ranking the Class of 2017, Clemson won 51 games, so its class average received a bonus of 0.51).

Even in its current stretch of recruiting success, Swinney has pointed out that Clemson often falls in rankings as its commitment to not oversigning leads to smaller recruiting classes, as well as noting that much of Clemson's on-field success is a function of the program's development, citing All-Americans like former three-star Isaiah Simmons or former two-star Nolan Turner. The re-rankings illustrate Clemson's sterling track record of talent identification, culture fit, resource allocation and player development.

2019	10	5	+5	45-9
Average	11.5	3.5	+8.0

Note: Initial rank according to 247 Composite

On average, Clemson ranked 11.5 in the 247 Composite team rankings across the 2014-19 recruiting cycles. Upon re-ranking those groups, despite having little room for improvement while recruiting at a Top 15 clip in that span, Clemson ranked 3.5 on average in the re-rankings, a ratings bump of eight spots. Each of those Clemson classes averaged at least 11 wins a season during their careers.

CHASING HOWARD'S CLEMSON RECORD

Dabo Swinney's 163 wins rank second by a head coach in Clemson history, trailing the 165 wins compiled in 30 seasons by College Football Hall of Famer Frank Howard. Howard, known as "The Bashful Baron of Barlow Bend," compiled a 165-118-12 record in 30 seasons at Clemson from 1940-69.

Swinney sits two wins shy of Howard's perch as the winningest coach in school history despite having coached 92 fewer games.

THROUGH 200 GAMES

The 2022 Orange Bowl was the 200th game in Dabo Swinney's head coaching career. Among coaches who qualify for the NCAA FBS record book by virtue of five years or 50 wins as a major college head coach, 17 coaches had earned at least 150 victories in their first 200 career games as head coach as of the conclusion of the 2022 season.

At 161-39 through 200 games, Swinney tied Bob Stoops and Robert Neyland (162 each) for the fifth-most wins through 200 career games in major college football history.

Four previous Clemson head coaches earned 150+ FBS wins in their careers: John Heisman (186), Jess Neely (207), Frank Howard (165) and Ken Hatfield (168). Howard, a College Football Hall of Famer, recorded his 150th victory in his 273rd career game, in a 14-10 victory against Maryland in 1966 that clinched a piece of what later became an outright ACC title. Heisman earned win No. 150 in game No. 203, Neely earned it in game No. 268, and Hatfield did it in game 259, though none of those three won more than 43 games in their Clemson tenures.

Included below are the number of games needed for a sample of other notable coaches to reach 150 victories: John Vaught (201), Mark Richt (205), Red Blaik (207), Dan Devine (208), Woody Hayes (209), Bear Bryant (212), Ara Parseghian (212), Pat Dye (212), Bobby Bowden (213), Pop Warner (214), LaVell Edwards (214), Jim Tressel (214), Vince Dooley (214), Amos Alonzo Stagg (225), John Cooper (225), Frank Beamer (230), Lou Holtz (230), Bill Snyder (231), Johnny Majors (255), George Welsh (261), Hayden Fry (277).

FIRST 15 SEASONS

Dabo Swinney completed his 15th season (and his 14th full season) in 2022 with a 161-39 record. Swinney amassed the second-most wins through a coach's first 15 seasons in FBS history despite not having the benefit of a full season in his first year, as he went 4-3 on an interim basis in his first season in 2008 after taking over for Tommy Bowden in October.

HEAD COACH CONTINUITY

Over the last decade, Clemson became a beacon of stability in the increasingly unstable environment of college football. Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney is in his 21st overall season at Clemson in 2023, including his 15th full season as head coach (and his 16th including an interim stint in 2008).

From the start of Swinney's first season as full-time head coach in 2009 through 2022, there were more than 435 head coaching tenures in the FBS (excluding those by interims) but only one such tenure at Clemson.

Clemson is the only school in the ACC with only one head coach since the start of the 2009 season, and among the 14 schools ever to qualify for the College Football Playoff, only Clemson and Alabama have had only one head coach since 2009.

SIX "FINAL FOURS" FOR SWINNEY

While the term "Final Four" may still be the linguistic property of college basketball, since the advent of the four-team College Football Playoff in 2014, Head Coach Dabo Swinney had Clemson among the sport's final four teams six times from 2015-20, becoming the first coach to lead a team to six consecutive College Football Playoffs since the format's institution in 2014.

The NCAA men's college basketball tournament dates to 1939. In the history of that tournament, only John Wooden of UCLA (nine from 1967-75) and Mike Krzyzewski of Duke (five from 1988-92) coached teams to at least five consecutive Final Fours. With his sixth "Final Four" appearance in 2020, Swinney joined basketball's Wooden as the only college football or men's basketball coaches to take teams to six consecutive Final Fours in their respective sports.

Swinney is among only nine coaches in football and men's basketball to record six career Final Four berths. He is one of only six with a winning record in Final Four games.

Swinney's ability to place his team among the nation's elite quartet has also been illustrated by the polls. Clemson finished first in the AP Poll in 2016 and 2018, second in 2015 and 2019, third in 2020 and fourth in 2017. Swinney became just the fourth coach to record at least six consecutive top four finishes since the AP Poll began in 1936, an exclusive list that also includes Florida State's Bobby Bowden (13), USC's Pete Carroll (seven) and Oklahoma's Bud Wilkinson (six).

Clemson's streak represented the fifth time a program has had a run of at least six top four finishes in the AP Poll. Miami (Fla.) had a seven-year run from 1986-92 with two different head coaches leading the program.

CHAMPIONSHIP HERITAGE

After being named Clemson's full-time coach in December of 2008, Head Coach Dabo Swinney set about securing his first signing class in 2009.

His first class, which he tabbed the "Dandy Dozen," brought home Clemson's first ACC title since 1991 during their junior campaign in 2011. Every Clemson signing class under Swinney has at least one ACC title to their credit in their tenures at Clemson, and every signing class from 2012-20 earned at least one College Football Playoff berth.

Fourteen coaches on the list are College Football Hall of Famers. Swinney holds a total of nine career victories over five coaches on the list, including two each over Bob Stoops, Nick Saban, Urban Meyer and Steve Spurrier and one over Bobby Bowden.

Despite not reaching No. 1 until 1981, Clemson has been No. 1 in 25 polls all-time, 16th-most of any program.

Prior to topping out at No. 3 in 2021, Clemson appeared at No. 1 in at least one AP Poll in six consecutive years from 2015-20. Dabo Swinney joined Nick Saban (14) as the only coach in AP Poll history (since 1936) to lead a team to at least one No. 1 ranking in six consecutive years. Clemson, Alabama (15 from 2008-22) and Miami (seven from 1986-92) remain the only programs to appear at No. 1 in at least six consecutive years.

CONFERENCE WINNING STREAKS

From 2017-20, Clemson won 28 consecutive games against ACC opponents, one shy of the conference record. After losing two ACC games in the span of a month in 2021, Clemson responded by rattling off 12 consecutive wins in ACC play across the 2021-22 seasons, the fourth-longest streak in Clemson history. The streak ended in Clemson's 2023 season opener against Duke.

Clemson has produced five conference winning streaks of 10 or more games since the ACC was founded in 1953.

STREAKS OF EXCELLENCE

Included below is a sample of historically profound streaks presently being produced by Clemson:

- Has won 105 of its last 119 games overall dating to 2014.
- Has won 67 of its last 73 games against ACC teams.
- Has won 108 of its last 112 games when leading at halftime.
- Is 129-3 since 2011 when leading after three quarters.

ters.

- Is 77-5 when scoring first since 2015.
- Has a 124-5 record when totaling more first downs than its opponent since 2011.
- Has a 72-4 record when winning the turnover margin since 2011.
- Is 77-3 when rushing for 200+ yards under Dabo Swinney.
- Is 59-1 when both passing and rushing for 200+ yards under Dabo Swinney. Overall, Clemson is 109-1 in program history when reaching those marks.
- Is 65-2 since 2015 when outscoring opponents in the "Middle Eight," defined as the final four minutes of the first half and the first four minutes of the second half.
- Has won 38 consecutive games when not allowing a sack since 2011.
- Is 35-1 since 2015 when intercepting multiple passes in a game.
- Has recorded at least one takeaway in 16 consecutive home games, the nation's longest active streak.
- Is 61-4 when having a 100-yard rusher since 2011.
- Has won 35 of its last 40 games away from home against ACC teams.
- Has won 34 of its last 40 road games.
- Has won 52 of its last 64 games away from home.
- Has won 63 of its last 65 games at home, including an ACC-record 40 in a row from 2016-22.
- Has won 32 of its last 35 games in September.
- Has won 34 of its last 36 games in October.
- Has won 21 of its last 24 games in November.
- Has won 16 of its last 17 games in December.
- Has won 29 of its last 37 games against top-25 teams since the start of the 2015 season. That includes a 28-8 mark against AP Top 25 teams.
- Has won 108 of its last 109 games when holding teams under 23 points (dates to 2010).
- Has won 35 of its last 43 one-possession games since 2011, the highest winning percentage in the country in one-score games in that span.

CLEMSON VS. UNRANKED OPPONENTS

Clemson is 126-16 against AP-unranked teams under Dabo Swinney, including wins in 103 of 109 games against those unranked teams since the start of the 2012 season.

Clemson's longest winning streak against unranked teams came across the 2012-16 seasons, when Clemson won 46 in a row starting with a season-opening win against Auburn in 2012 and ending with an upset loss to Pitt in 2016.

-- OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR --

CLEMSON WELCOMES GARRETT RILEY

On Jan. 9, Garrett Riley coached Cinderella TCU in the College Football Playoff National Championship Game. On Jan. 13, he was formally announced as Clemson's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for 2023.

"Garrett has an incredible track record," Head Coach Dabo Swinney said. His body of work — including this past season when his ninth-ranked scoring offense helped TCU transform from a five-win team into a 13-win national championship game finalist in their coaching staff's first season — speaks for itself. As I contemplated this change, Garrett was at the top of my list. I am thankful that he shared my belief in Clemson University and our football program, and I am thankful that he wants to be part of our tradition and family."

After two years as offensive coordinator of SMU's prolific offenses from 2020-21, Riley arrived at TCU following a 2021 campaign in which the Horned Frogs finished 5-7 and produced the nation's 65th-ranked scoring offense. In his lone season in Fort Worth, he transformed the unit into the nation's ninth-ranked scoring offense at 38.8 points per game as the Horned Frogs went 13-2 with a berth in the national championship game.

Riley's tutelage led quarterback Max Duggan to a multitude of honors for his play in 2022, including the Davey O'Brien Award as the nation's top quarterback, a runner-up finish in Heisman Trophy voting, All-America honors from several selectors and Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year.

All three offenses coordinated by Riley prior to his arrival at Clemson finished in the top 15 nationally in scoring offense. His units as coordinator at SMU and TCU from 2020-22 combined would rank third in the nation in points per game in that span.

Though rooted in Air Raid principles learned in his time as a quarterback under Mike Leach at Texas Tech, Riley's offense has assumed the moniker of "Clemson Dirt Raid" or "CDR." The name reflects Riley's run game philosophies and commitment, both of which he partially credits to his experience as running backs coach at Appalachian State in 2019.

NO. 0 WR ANTONIO WILLIAMS

Despite not turning 18 until July 2022 and not enrolling in January like much of his recruiting class, Antonio Williams immediately turned teammates' heads upon his arrival that summer. Clemson coaches and players alike complimented his natural route-running and football instincts, and Clemson's coaching staff has said that he is further along than Clemson legend and NFL Pro Bowler Hunter Renfrow was at the same point in his collegiate career.

Williams caught 56 passes for 604 yards with four touchdowns in 690 offensive snaps over 14 games (10 starts) in 2022, leading the Tigers in both receptions and receiving yards. His 10 starts were the most by a Clemson freshman receiver since Hunter Renfrow's redshirt freshman season (10 in 2015) and the most by a true freshman receiver at Clemson since Sammy Watkins (10 in 2011). He recorded the first 50-catch season by a Clemson freshman since 2014 (76, Artavis Scott) and He joined DeAndre Hopkins (2010), Sammy Watkins (2011) and Scott (2014) as the only four Clemson freshmen since 2010 to catch 50 passes.

After leading Clemson in receiving in the season opener, Williams recorded his first career multi-touchdown game in Week 2 of the 2023 season, hauling in two first-half scores against Charleston Southern.

NO. 0 LB BARRETT CARTER

Head Coach Dabo Swinney has routinely sung the praises of the versatility of linebacker Barrett Carter, a 2023 preseason All-American.

"He's one of the best football players in my 20 years at Clemson," Swinney said. "He's a pure football player. I mean, the guy can play anywhere. He could go play tailback, he could play corner, he can play safety, he can play Nickel/Sam, he can play Mike, he can play Will. He's special... He's so smart and he's got unbelievable instincts for the game."

Close observers of Clemson in 2022 quickly recognized Carter's impact in his first year as a starter, but Carter served notice of his arrival to the country with a signature performance against Louisville last November. In that game, Carter recorded eight tackles (3.5 for loss), two sacks, an interception and a pass breakup, becoming the first player to record 3.5 or more tackles for loss, 2.0 or more sacks and an interception in a game between two Power Five teams since South Carolina's Melvin Ingram against Auburn in 2011.

Carter finished 2022 credited by the coaching staff with 77 tackles (10.5 for loss), tied for third-most on the team, with 5.5 sacks, eight pass breakups, two interceptions and two forced fumbles in a unit-high 832 snaps over 13 games (all starts). His 832 snaps were the sixth-most by a Clemson linebacker on record.

Carter was one of only three players in the Power Five with at least 10 tackles for loss, 5.0 sacks, multiple interceptions and multiple forced fumbles in 2022. Before Carter and two others reached the marks in 2022, the last two Power Five players to reach Carter's numbers in all four categories were both Butkus Award winners: Georgia's Nakobe Dean (2021) and Clemson's Isaiah Simmons (2019).

SHIP HAPPENS

Running back Will Shipley returned to Clemson in 2023 as one of the offense's unquestioned heartbeats and one of the nation's most versatile threats.

Shipley's 26 career rushing touchdowns rank tied for eighth among active FBS players. Shipley presently ranks second in the ACC in that category but first in the conference among running backs.

Shipley, a 2022 Paul Hornung Award finalist, was the only player in the country with at least 1,150 rushing yards, 200 receiving yards and 300 kickoff return yards last season. He joined his position coach, C.J. Spiller, as the only ACC players to reach those figures in a season since 2000. It was only the 10th such season by a Power Five player in the last 20 years.

SHIP'S MAIDEN VOYAGE IN 2021

Despite missing three games of his debut season due to multiple injuries, Shipley led Clemson in rushing touchdowns (11), total touchdowns (11), rushing attempts (149) and rushing yards (738) as a true freshman in 2021.

Shipley's freshman performance in 2021 was another entry in Clemson's recent history of feature backs declaring their arrival immediately. Clemson was led in rushing yards in each of the previous seven years by either Wayne Gallman (2014-16) or Travis Etienne (2017-20), both of whom led Clemson in rushing in their freshman seasons (Gallman's redshirt freshman season in 2014 and Etienne's true freshman season in 2017). Before Shipley, the last time someone other than Etienne or Gallman led Clemson in rushing in a season was 2013 (Rod McDowell), when Shipley was in fifth grade.

Shipley's 2021 performance ranked second in rushing touchdowns by a Clemson true freshman since 1972.

300-YARD GAMES

Klubnik is one of only 14 quarterbacks in Clemson history to record at least one 300-yard passing game and one of only eight to record multiple 300-yard passing games.

His two career 300-yard games are tied with current Clemson support staff member Cole Stoudt, and the two players directly ahead of him on Clemson's all-time leaderboard for 300-yard passing games include one of Klubnik's former teammates (DJ Uiagalelei) and Klubnik's former offensive coordinator (Brandon Streeter).

MATRICULATING THE BALL

One of NFL Films' most famous videos of its early days featured wired-up Kansas City Chiefs Head Coach Hank Stram encouraging his team to "Just keep matriculating the ball down the field, boys!"

In Klubnik's first three collegiate starts, Clemson's offense heeded Stram's words, collecting 100 first downs, Clemson's most in a three-game span on record.

Clemson accrued 484, 422 and 679 yards in Klubnik's first three career starts. Klubnik became only the third quarterback in Clemson history to help the Tigers reach 400 yards of offense in each of their first three starts, joining current Clemson offensive player development assistant Tajh Boyd in 2011 and 2021 No. 1 overall pick Trevor Lawrence in 2018. He is one of four Clemson quarterbacks ever to help the Tigers accrue 1,500-plus yards in their first three career starts.

SPREADING THE BALL AROUND

Offensive Coordinator Garrett Riley's scheme places importance on spreading the ball to various playmakers, and coaches have praised Klubnik's natural penchant for distributing the ball to his various weapons.

In Week 2, Klubnik and his fellow quarterbacks completed passes to 16 different receivers, Clemson's second-most in a single game in Dabo Swinney's tenure.

FROM THE SIDELINE TO THE STAGE

Klubnik's national breakout came in the 2022 ACC Championship Game against North Carolina. He entered the game on Clemson's third possession and completed 20-of-24 passes for 279 yards and a passing touchdown and added seven carries for 30 yards and a rushing touchdown. His 83.3 completion percentage set an ACC Championship Game record and led to his selection as the game's Most Valuable Player in Clemson's 39-10 victory. He became the third freshman (and second true freshman) in the game's history to earn the honor.

300+ IN FIRST CAREER START

In the 2022 Orange Bowl, Cade Klubnik completed 30-of-54 passes for 320 yards and also rushed 20 times for 51 yards with a touchdown. His 74 plays of total offense (combined rush attempts and pass attempts) were the fifth-most by an individual in Clemson history.

Klubnik's 320 yards were the fourth-most by a Clemson quarterback making his first career start since 1953, as he became only the fourth Clemson quarterback to exceed 300 passing yards in their first start.

Klubnik became the first Clemson freshman quarterback on record to make his starting debut in postseason play. He also became the first Clemson quarterback to make his first career start against an AP Top 6 opponent since his former offensive coordinator, Brandon Streeter, did so against No. 5 Florida State in 1997.

Klubnik became only the eighth true freshman to start at quarterback for Clemson since the NCAA instituted permanent freshman eligibility in 1972, joining Steve Fuller (1975), Willie Jordan (1975), Patrick Sapp (1992), Nealon Greene (1994), Deshaun Watson (2014), Trevor Lawrence (2018) and DJ Uiagalelei (2020).

-- NO. 80 WR BEAUX COLLINS --

IT'S BEAUX TIME

As a true freshman in 2021, wide receiver Beaux Collins debuted a touchdown celebration in which he pointed to an invisible watch on his wrist. The message?

"It's Beaux Time."

The clever play on the "It's Bo Time" motto of fast food giant Bojangles was on display early in the 2022 season, as Collins caught a touchdown pass in each of the Tigers' first four games that year. In doing so, he became the first Clemson player to record a receiving touchdown in each of the first four games of a season since freshman phenom Sammy Watkins in 2011.

After being held out of the end zone for the first time in Clemson's fifth game of the season, Collins scored his fifth touchdown of the season in Clemson's sixth game of 2022, a prime-time win at Boston College. With the score, Collins became the first Clemson player to catch a touchdown in five of the first six games of a season since 2012 when DeAndre Hopkins accomplished the feat as part of his ACC-record 18-touchdown campaign.

Collins' first signature performance of 2023 came in Week 2, when he recorded a career-high seven receptions for a career-high-tying 137 yards, including a 69-yard touchdown catch-and-run that was Clemson's longest pass since 2020.

-- TIGHT ENDS --

TIGHT END PRODUCTION

Clemson enjoyed a renaissance from its tight ends in 2022, when the unit produced 67 catches (most by a tight end unit under Dabo Swinney) and 10 touchdowns (tied for its most under Swinney). Jake Briningstool, a junior on Clemson's 2023 squad, joined current Los Angeles Ram Davis Allen to mark the first time in Clemson history that two tight ends caught at least four touchdown passes in a single season.

ALL-CONFERENCE O-LINEMEN

Since 2015, Clemson has produced a total of 27 All-ACC selections along the offensive line, including 11 first-team honors. Clemson's 27 all-conference selections by offensive linemen are the second-most of any Power Five program, and its 11 first-team selections are tied with Washington for the fourth-most in that span.

SportSource Analytics produces an Offensive Line Efficiency metric that takes into account tackle for loss percentages, sack percentages, percentages of rushes gaining 4+ yards and success on third-or-fourth-and-short. Clemson ranks second in the nation in that total metric since 2015.

OFFENSIVE LINE EFFICIENCY SINCE 2015

Rk	Team	TFL%	Sack%	4+ Rush%	3rd/S%	4th/S%	OL Eff.
1.	Ohio State	8.3	5.1	49.8	75.5	74.6	88.4

5.	Air Force	8.2	7.4	51.4	78.0	77.1	80.8

Note: Per SportSource Analytics; 4+ Rush% is the number of rushes gaining four or more yards; 3rd/S% and 4th/S% track conversion rates of rushes on third and 1-2 and fourth and 1-2.

In 2022, Clemson largely avoided the rotating cast of characters and musical chairs along the offensive line it faced in 2021, when Clemson had seven different starting offensive line combinations in 13 games. Clemson's offensive line started the same five players at the same position in each of its first nine games in 2022 before a concussion to Walker Parks resulted in Clemson's first starting lineup change at the position in Clemson's 10th game of the season.

TRENCH WARFARE

Clemson's success in its 62-10 run since 2018 has been powered in part at the line of scrimmage, where Clemson holds a 237-107 edge over opponents in sacks in that time frame. Clemson's +130 margin in sacks since 2018 is by far the highest differential in the country.

AXE MAN JR. COMIN'

For 12 seasons, NFL offenses attempted in vain to limit opportunities for four-time Pro Bowler Jeremiah "Axe Man" Trotter to trot out his signature axe chopping celebration after big stops. With the next generation of the Trotter middle linebacker bloodline — Jeremiah Trotter Jr. — now patrolling the box at Clemson, the college football world shared in their pain in 2022.

Jeremiah Jr., about whom both Head Coach Dabo Swinney and Defensive Coordinator Wes Goodwin joked "has been a middle linebacker since he was in diapers," elevated his game in the second half of Clemson's 2022 season. After producing 18 tackles (3.0 for loss) in Clemson's first six games, the coaches credited Axe Man Jr. with 74 stops (10.5 for loss), including six games with nine or more tackles, in Clemson's final eight contests, including with a team-high-tying nine tackles in the ACC Championship Game.

Though he was snubbed in official conference balloting, Trotter collected second-team All-America honors from the Associated Press, third-team All-America status from Pro Football Focus and collected All-ACC honors from select individual outlets.

In the 2022 regular season finale, Trotter recorded 2.0 sacks against South Carolina (in addition to scoring on a 35-yard interception return), and a week later, he set an ACC Championship Game record with 3.0 sacks against North Carolina. He became the first Clemson player with at least 2.0 sacks in consecutive games since former No. 4 overall pick Clelin Ferrell early in the 2018 season. He joined a bevy of Clemson legends (and early round NFL Draft picks), nearly all of whom were primarily pass rushers rather than middle linebackers, to record multiple games in a season since 2000 with 2.0 or more sacks.

OPENING A CAN OF WOODAZ

As conference and national acclaim began to accrue for Clemson's young linebacking duo of Barrett Carter and Jeremiah Trotter Jr. in late 2022, Dabo Swinney was quick to advise observers not to sleep on Wade Woodaz, now a true sophomore.

"He's a baller," Swinney said in September. "The kid is tough, physical, he can really run. He really understands the game at high level. He played most of his [prep] career as a quarterback and as a safety, so he has a great understanding of the game. He plays really, really hard; he's a great effort guy, he's a great preparer and he loves it. He's a fun guy to coach and a fun guy to watch play because he plays the way you want everybody to play."

The versatile hybrid linebacker from Tampa actually started his first career game as a safety in the 2022 ACC Championship Game. He then served as Clemson's primary Sam linebacker in the 2022 Orange Bowl.

Woodaz opened the 2023 season with a takeaway in three straight games. He recovered a muffed punt in the season opener at Duke, his second straight season opener with an impact special teams play after blocking a punt in his collegiate debut a year earlier. In Clemson's second game against Charleston Southern, he recorded his first career interception and returned it 35 yards for a touchdown to help Clemson blow the game open.

A week later against Florida Atlantic, he returned another interception 59 yards. In doing so, he became the first Clemson linebacker with an interception in consecutive games since Isaiah Simmons accomplished the feat in the ACC Championship Game and Fiesta Bowl of his Butkus Award-winning 2019 campaign.

The only Clemson player since 1996 other than Woodaz to have a takeaway in each of the team's first three games of a season was DeAndre McDaniel, Clemson's current Senior Defensive Assistant, who posted a takeaway in each of Clemson's first three games in 2009 en route to All-America honors that season.

SURPRISE RETURNS ALONG D-LINE

Clemson's defensive line got a boost when defensive tackles Tyler Davis and Ruke Orhoro and defensive end Xavier Thomas all elected to return to Clemson for 2023 despite receiving draftable grades and feedback from NFL talent evaluators prior to the 2023 NFL Draft.

The returns of Davis (15.5 sacks from 2019-22) and Thomas (14.5 from 2018-22) made Clemson the only Power Five program to return multiple players with at least 14.0 career sacks for 2023. The addition of Orhoro's 7.0 sacks from 2019-22 gave the Tigers 37.0 returning career sacks from a trio that was previously presumed NFL-bound.

Injury limited Thomas to only three games in 2022. After missing the first five games of the season, he returned to action at Boston College, where despite playing only six snaps, he earned ACC Defensive Lineman of the Week after posting two sacks, a forced fumble and an additional quarterback hit, collecting the Leather Helmet Award from the Boston College Gridiron Club as the game's MVP.

Davis was a 2022 FWAA and Phil Steele All-American and is already a three-time All-ACC selection (2019, 2021 and 2022). Davis' three career All-ACC selections are tied with Christian Wilkins (2016-18), Dexter Lawrence (2016-18) and William "Refrigerator" Perry (1982-84) for the most by a defensive tackle in Clemson history, company befitting a player nicknamed "Baby Dex" by Dabo Swinney and "Mini Fridge" by former teammate K.J. Henry.

Defensive end Justin Mascoll, a veteran of 53 career games from 2018-22, also elected to return for his sixth season.

THE CFP ERA'S DOMINANT DEFENSE

Since the advent of the College Football Playoff in 2014, Clemson has routinely produced one of the nation's elite defenses.

Clemson has ranked in the Top 30 in the country in total defense in each of the last nine seasons and has ranked among the Top 25 in scoring defense in each of those campaigns (including five Top 5 finishes in the category).

THE OTHER SWINNEY DYNASTY

Like Colquitts punting at Tennessee, Swinneys holding at Clemson are becoming a dynasty of their own.

Head Coach Dabo Swinney's oldest son, Will, arrived at Clemson in 2017 and immediately earned Clemson's starting holder position on placekicks. He played five seasons and a record-tying 69 games at Clemson through 2021. In those five seasons, Clemson scored 565 points on placekicks, including field goals and PATs, and he held for 555 of those 565 points. The only 10 Clemson kicking points not held by Will in his career were instead held by his brother, Drew, who was Clemson's starter at the position in 2022.

Will and Drew are succeeded by the youngest of the three Swinney boys, Clay, a redshirt freshman who is Clemson's starting holder for 2023. Clay's presence creates a plausible scenario in which every Clemson placekick in a full 10-year span from 2017-26 could be held by a Swinney.

Clemson's last hold by any player outside the Swinney family was on the final point of Clemson's 2016 national championship, as Seth Ryan, coincidentally also the son of a famous long-time coach (Rex Ryan), held the PAT following Hunter Renfrow's game-winning touchdown with one second remaining.

ACCEPTING THE CHALLENGE

Dabo Swinney was crystal clear both publicly and privately in saying that for Clemson to reach its goals in 2023, it would need to improve both its pass offense and its pass defense from 2022.

"If we're a better pass defense and a better pass offense then we'll have a chance," Swinney said at ACC Football Kickoff in July. "If we keep everything else the same... I mean we were one point away last year — one point — from being in the playoff. So we've just got to improve in some of the areas that we weren't quite as good as we needed to be last year."

How has Clemson's passing game on both sides of the ball responded to Swinney's challenge?

RETURNING EXPERIENCE

According to traditional accounting, Clemson entered the 2023 season returning 15 of its 22 primary offensive and defensive starters from 2022. However, Clemson has 32 different players (including K/P/LS) who have started at least one game during their Clemson careers.

Clemson's 32 players with at least one career start prior to this season combined for 893 career game appearances and 403 career starts through 2022.

WHEN IN DOUBT, CLEMSON RESPONDS

In Head Coach Dabo Swinney's tenure, the Tigers have routinely responded well in the face of recent adversity.

Clemson is 32-8 in games following a loss under Swinney, including season openers following a loss in the previous season finale.

Losses to Top 5 opponents Ohio State and Georgia across the 2020 and 2021 seasons ended a streak of 127 games since losing back-to-back contests, which had been the longest active streak in the nation and the longest in ACC history.

Previously, Clemson's last time losing back-to-back games had come in 2011. That also represents the last time Clemson has lost consecutive games in a single season, the longest active streak in the nation.

According to research assistance provided by Stats Perform, Clemson's 157 games since losing back-to-back games in a single season is the nation's longest active streak.

Under Swinney, Clemson is also 34-6 in games in which it enters ranked lower in the AP Poll than it did in its previous contest. This includes the 2014, 2016, 2017, 2018 and 2021 season openers in which Clemson opened the season lower than its ranking from the final game of the previous campaign.

STRENGTH OF RECORD

Clemson has lost only 14 games since 2015. Six of Clemson's 14 losses since 2015 have come against AP Top 5 teams, and those six were all College Football Playoff participants that season.

The opponents to whom Clemson has lost since 2015 have a combined final record of 135-36, a winning percentage of .789. Clemson has not lost to a team that finished with a losing record since 2017 and has not lost to a team with a losing record at the time of the game since losing to 2-5 Boston College in 2010, Dabo Swinney's second full season as head coach.

WINNING ONE-SCORE GAMES

Since 2011, the Tigers have played 43 games with a final margin of eight points or less, and Clemson's .814 winning percentage in those one-possession contests is the best in the country in that time frame.

OFFENSIVE BALANCE

Clemson has fielded one of the nation's most balanced offenses since 2018. In 2018, Clemson set a school record with 3,723 rushing yards. Just two years later, Clemson set a school record with 348.5 passing yards per game in 2020.

Clemson has exceeded both 200 passing yards and 200 rushing yards in 60 games under Dabo Swinney. Clemson was perfect in those contests — 58-0 under Swinney and 108-0 all-time — until a defeat at Duke to open the 2023 season in which the Tigers reached the double-century mark in both categories. The defeat was also a statistical anomaly nationally, as from 2014 through the 2023 season opener, there had been 1,789 instances in which an FBS team had passed for 200-plus yards, rushed for 200-plus yards and given up 28 or fewer points in a single game. Teams who accomplished all three metrics were a combined 1748-41 (97.7 percent).

Clemson's 26 games reaching both 200 passing yards and 200 rushing yards since the start of the 2018 season are among the most in the country.

Clemson was also the only program in the country to rush for 175+ rushing touchdowns (184) and throw 140+ passing touchdowns (144) in that span.

Clemson has scored at least one rushing touchdown in 70 of its 72 games since the start of the 2018 season. Before Duke accomplished the feat in the 2023 season opener, the only team to hold Clemson without a rushing touchdown in that span previously was national champion Georgia in 2021.

Clemson's 70 games with a rushing touchdown in that span are the most in the nation. Clemson has scored multiple rushing touchdowns in 58 of those games, also the nation's best.

OWNING THE "MIDDLE EIGHT"

Since 2015, Clemson has frequently won one of the hidden "games within the game" on each side of halftime. SportSource Analytics tracks the "Middle Eight," the section of the game defined as the final four minutes of the first half and the first four minutes of the second half. Clemson has outscored opponents in that time window 67 times since 2015, posting a 65-2 record in those contests.

After finishing -30 in that category in 2021, Clemson posted a +35 margin in 2022.

* - Record in games when outscoring teams in the Middle Eight

Clemson's Middle Eight performance was critical in its most complete performances in 2022. Clemson surged to a 30-20 victory against No. 10 NC State on Oct. 1 thanks to a 14-7 advantage in the Middle Eight that turned a four-point deficit (after a late second-quarter Wolfpack touchdown) into a 10-point Clemson lead. A week later, Clemson outscored Boston College, 14-0, in the Middle Eight. On Oct. 15, Clemson outscored 17-0 in that window to seize control of a tight game at Florida State.

Clemson was +49 in the Middle Eight in its 11 wins in 2022 and -14 in that time frame in its three losses.

PLAYERS PER GAME

In four of the last six seasons, Clemson led all Power Five conference teams in average players per game. Prior to the 2021 season in which Clemson's playing rotations were limited by significant attrition, the last time Clemson did not lead Power Five teams in that category was in 2016, when Clemson finished second in that category.

Clemson has not only often led the nation in that category but has typically lapped the field. In 2019, Clemson played an average of 76.0 players per game, an average that far exceeded all Power Five programs by more than 11 players — a full unit — per game.

Clemson ranked among the top 20 in the Power Five in average players per game in 2022 but ranked fifth in the Power Five in total players played.

The approach to creating functional depth and rewarding players ready to play has been a key philosophy for Head Coach Dabo Swinney, whose own collegiate playing career was hatched as a walk-on fighting for playing time in Alabama's receiving corps.

"We're fully committed to playing guys who deserve to play," Swinney said. "You commit to a guy early in the season, and even if a guy has only played 10 percent of the snaps, when you get to game eight or nine, they've got some good experience."

Plenty of experience was accrued in Clemson's home opener against Charleston Southern when Clemson played a school-record 117 players in a 66-17 win. A week later, Clemson played 93 players in a 48-14 victory against Florida Atlantic.

YOUTH IS SERVED

In the first year of new redshirt regulations in 2018, Clemson played a then-school-record 20 true freshmen. Clemson immediately shattered that record in its 2019 season opener, with 27 true freshmen making their collegiate debuts in that contest. An additional eight true freshmen made their debuts to push that 2019 total to a school-record 36.

Clemson had 27 true freshmen appear in Clemson's Week 2 win against Charleston Southern. That game alone pushed Clemson's number of true freshmen played this season into second in a year since 1982. The number moved to 28 a week later when Misun "Tink" Kelley made his collegiate debut.

Coinciding with redshirt rule changes in 2018, Clemson's five most recent seasons have resulted in the most game action for first-year freshmen since 1982.

In the 2021 season opener against Georgia, Clemson started two true freshmen in the first game of a season for the first time under Dabo Swinney. Safety Andrew Mukuba became the first Clemson true freshman to start at defensive back in records back to 1973, and guard Marcus Tate became only the third true freshman offensive lineman to start a season opener at Clemson since 1973, joining center James Farr (1980) and tackle Mitch Hyatt (2015). In 2022, true freshman Blake Miller added himself to the list, as his physical and mental preparedness impressed Clemson's veterans, including fellow offensive lineman Walker Parks.

650-POINT SEASONS

Clemson remains responsible for two of the 22 650-point seasons in major college football history and two of only 16 since Division I split in 1978. Clemson was the first school with back-to-back 650-point seasons since Yale in 1888-89, predating the start of official NCAA recordkeeping in 1937 and the second year of which was coincidentally the year Clemson was founded.

TAKEAWAYS, NO GIVEAWAYS

Clemson emphasizes the importance of turnover margin every week on what it dubs "TANOGA Tuesday," standing for "TakeAways, NO GiveAways."

Here is a breakdown of Clemson's turnover history in games coached by Dabo Swinney:

CLEMSON TURNOVER HISTORY UNDER DABO SWINNEY

Games with...	Games	Record (Win Pct.)

FINISH

In 2018, Clemson debuted a new version of its "This is Why We Work" fourth quarter video at Death Valley, a hype video imploring the team to finish and featuring Director of Strength and Conditioning Joey Batson bellowing:

"Let me tell you something right now: they don't put championship rings on smooth hands! You gotta go earn it! You gotta go earn it six seconds at a time! You win championships when the stadium is empty, when the band ain't playing, when the cheerleaders ain't cheering, when it's just you and your brothers right beside you. That's when you win championships! In the fourth quarter, that is when we shine!"

The video and the speech became a part of Clemson lore, buoyed by its playing during Clemson's comeback win against Syracuse that year en route to a 15-0 national championship season. Over the years, the video has changed but the speech remains the same, with many Clemson fans yelling it in unison as it plays.

Clemson's fixation on finishing has led to the Tigers owning the fourth quarter, with Clemson holding a 129-3 record since 2011 when leading after three quarters.

And though Head Coach Dabo Swinney frequently reiterates the phrase, "There is nothing less important than the score at halftime," Clemson has the best winning percentage in the nation among Power Five teams since 2017 in games in which it leads at halftime.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

- Through the summer of 2023, of the 357 eligible players who completed their athletic eligibility at Clemson and/or graduated early in Dabo Swinney's 14+ full years as head coach, 351 (98 percent) have earned a degree during their time at Clemson.

- Clemson broke program multi-year APR records in three straight years from 2017-19 (987 in 2016-17, 992 in 2017-18 and 993 in 2018-19) before the NCAA suspended APR reporting during the COVID-19 pandemic. Upon reinstatement of APR reporting in June 2022, Clemson shattered its multi-year APR record with a 999 covering the 2017-18 through 2020-21 academic years.

- Most recently, Clemson posted a 995 multi-year APR covering 2018-19 through 2021-22, tied for third in the FBS and trailing only Northwestern and Wisconsin (996). Clemson's lofty academic success in that period coincided with on-field excellence that included three ACC titles, three College Football Playoff berths, two national championship game berths and the 2018 national championship.

4.	2017-18	992
5.	2016-17	987

- Clemson, Air Force and Northwestern are the only FBS programs to produce a 990+ multi-year APR in each of the last four reported cycles.

- Clemson is the only program in the country to finish among the Top 25 in APR rate among FBS schools and the AP Top 25 in each of the last 12 years.

- Prior to the suspension of APR Public Recognition Awards during the COVID-19 pandemic, the NCAA recognized Clemson with its annual honor, which is bestowed upon programs ranking in the Top 10 percent of their respective sports, for nine of the award's last 10 reported academic cycles. Only 37 of the 130 FBS programs earned at least one APR recognition across the 2009-10 through 2018-19 academic years. Only 30 programs earned it multiple times. Clemson, Duke and Northwestern were the only ones to earn the award 9+ times in that 10-year span.

- With its award for the 2018-19 academic year, Clemson became the only FBS program since the NCAA created the APR metric in 2003 to win a national championship and an APR Public Recognition Award in the same year multiple times. Alabama is the only other school to accomplish the title/APR double in a single year once (2011-12 academic year).

Clemson's national academic success has understandably resulted in the shattering of its own internal metrics. Clemson posted a program-record 90 players with a 3.0 GPA or better during the Fall 2022 term. Of the 90 players, 30 earned a 3.5 GPA or better and 17 earned a 4.0. Clemson's team GPA of 3.04 was a program record for a fall semester and its second-highest on record across all semesters behind its 3.11 GPA for the spring of 2022.

ALL EYES ON CLEMSON

"Where the Blue Ridge yawns its greatness, where the Tigers play..."

Those are the opening words to Clemson's alma mater. In recent years, "where the Tigers play" has also been where eyes and television sets inevitably turn.

From 2018-22, Clemson games accounted for four of the seven most-watched college football games and five of the 16 most-watched games in that span.

The interest in watching Clemson play hasn't been limited to television broadcasts. Clemson continues to provide one of the marquee in-venue experiences in all of sports, as Clemson enters 2023 having been ranked in the Top 20 in the nation average home attendance at Memorial Stadium for 42 straight seasons.

DEATH VALLEY RENOVATIONS

Clemson embarked on a two-year improvement cycle for Memorial Stadium during the 2022 and 2023 offseasons.

New in 2023 is an expanded gameday locker room behind Memorial Stadium's west end zone. In addition to a visual facelift, the expansion increased the space's footprint from roughly 6,400 square feet to approximately 8,100 square feet. The space connects to a new tunnel directly behind the west goalposts for the team to use for field ingress and egress at all times other than the team's famous pregame run down the Hill.

Outside the stadium, Clemson turned Lot 5 — the parking lot immediately to the west of the stadium — into a 365-day Tiger Walk destination honoring the team's history. Upon being promoted to interim head coach on Oct. 13, 2008, one of Dabo Swinney's first actions was to create Tiger Walk, which has since become a staple of the Clemson gameday experience. Rather than the previous procedure of buses dropping the team directly at the stadium's entrance, Swinney sought the support of Clemson officials to instead drop them amid throngs of fans at the entrance to the parking lot, allowing the team to further immerse itself in Clemson's legendary gameday atmosphere. That pregame tradition will now take place in the updated plaza lined with the names of every captain in Clemson football history, including era-specific jersey graphics.

In 2022, Clemson's videoboard got its first major upgrade since 2005, with nearly five times the surface area of the previous board, which was last updated before the 2012 season. The new video system, affectionately and unofficially nicknamed "DaboTron," measures 126 feet wide by 56.5 feet tall, eighth-largest in the NCAA. It also sits 20 feet off the ground, giving fans a 365-day open view into the stadium. The new board also features color LED fixtures on the inside and custom portal LED lights for the team entrance. Ribbon boards on the north, south, and west, along with new corner video boards in the west were also upgraded to be higher quality, easier to read, and more immersive.

That year, the eight main stadium light poles were updated to an LED system, which allows for individual light fixture control, spotlighting of Howard's Rock, and higher-quality field lighting. As part of stadium facade updates, Clemson also installed new signage honoring the all-time greats, championship years, and backlighting the traditional "Clemson Welcomes You To Death Valley" signage.

Renovations in 2022 also included the addition of IPTAY's Masters Club, a 688-seat premium area on the concourse level of the stadium's west side. Concessions and restrooms in the west were also relocated and expanded to the terraces, allowing easier pedestrian flow and access.

ALL-ACC SELECTIONS IN 2022

Clemson once again led the ACC in all-conference selections in 2022, as 10 different players recorded a total of 12 All-ACC selections. Will Shipley earned first-team honors as a running back, return specialist and all-purpose selection, becoming the first player in ACC history to earn first-team honors at three different positions in a single season.

Clemson's 2023 roster has many connections to college and professional athletics. Below is a list of notable connections:

- Keith Adams Jr., RB: Son of Keith Adams, a Clemson Athletic Hall of Famer at linebacker for the Tigers from 1998-2000.
- Jamal Anderson, LB: Son of Jamal Anderson, an eight-year NFL running back who earned first-team All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors in 1998 in helping the Falcons to a berth in Super Bowl XXXIII.
- Jake Briningstool, TE: Son of Tony Briningstool, a linebacker who played at Michigan State from 1987-92.
- Vic Burley, DL: Cousin of Clemson Defensive Run Game Coordinator/Defensive Tackles Coach (and 10-year NFL veteran) Nick Eason.
- Brodey Conn, S/P: Son of Clemson Co-Defensive Coordinator/Safeties Coach Mickey Conn.
- Joseph Flesch, WR: Son of Jeb Flesch, a former Clemson offensive lineman from 1988-91 who was a consensus All-American in his final season with the Tigers.
- Hamp Greene, WR: Son of Hamp Greene, who was a kicker on Alabama's 1992 national championship squad with Dabo Swinney.
- Ronan Hanafin, WR: Son of Dan Hanafin, who played quarterback at Boston University and was the program's starting quarterback in its final year in 1997.
- Trent Howard, OL: Father, Johnny Howard, played at Alabama with Dabo Swinney.
- Charlie Johnson, WR: Father, Ellis, is a long-time college football coach who served as Clemson's defensive coordinator from 1994-96.
- Sheridan Jones, CB: Brother of former UNC Greensboro baseball player Kennedy Jones, who was the 2022 SoCon tournament MVP prior to transferring after the 2023 season.
- Jaheim Lawson, DE: Brother of Shaq Lawson, a 2015 consensus All-American at Clemson and 2016 first-round pick.
- Tristan Leigh, OL: Father, Stan, played running back at Virginia from 1990-94.
- Cade Klubnik, QB: Brother, Reed, played wide receiver at Yale from 2016-19.
- Armon Mason, DE: Father, Anthony, played 13 years in the NBA, earning an All-Star selection and an NBA Sixth Man of the Year Award; also a cousin of Atlanta Falcons All-Pro Grady Jarrett.
- Kobe McCloud, LB: Brother of former Clemson wide receiver Ray-Ray McCloud (2015-17); also brother of former Arizona quarterback Jordan McCloud.
- R.J. Mickens, S: Son of former Texas A&M All-American defensive back and 11-year NFL veteran Ray Mickens.

- Caleb Nix, S: Son of former Auburn quarterback Patrick Nix; brother of Oregon quarterback (and former Auburn quarterback) Bo Nix.
- Ruke Orhoro, DE: Cousin of three family members who played or are still playing college football — Michael Ojemudia (Iowa), Mario Ojemudia (Michigan) and Ovie Oghoufo (Notre Dame).
- Walker Parks, OL: Son of former Kentucky offensive lineman David Parks.
- Trent Pearman, QB: Son of former Clemson tight end and current Director of Football Scouting Danny Pearman.
- Will Putnam, OL: Grandson of Neil Putnam, former Lafayette head coach from 1971-80.
- Adam Randall, WR: Brother of Austin Randall, a former Coastal Carolina defensive back who transferred to walk-on at Clemson in 2023.
- Ian Reed, OL: Son of Eric Reed, a former member of the US Men's National Rugby Team.
- Josh Sapp, TE: Son of former Clemson quarterback/defensive end Patrick Sapp (1992-95).
- Will Shipley, RB: Brother of Penn lacrosse player James Shipley.
- Clay Swinney, WR: Son of Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney and brother of former Clemson wide receivers/holders Will Swinney and Drew Swinney.
- Brannon Spector, WR: Son of former Clemson receiver Robbie Spector and brother of former Clemson linebacker Baylon Spector.
- Caden Story, DT: Son of former Jacksonville State football and baseball player Clifford Story, and nephew of 14-year NFL tight end Marcus Pollard.
- Avieon Terrell, CB: Brother of A.J. Terrell, current NFL All-Pro cornerback who was an All-ACC performer at Clemson.
- Jeremiah Trotter Jr., LB: Son of Jeremiah Trotter Sr., a four-time Pro Bowler who played 12 NFL seasons for the Eagles, Redskins and Buccaneers from 1998-2009.
- Cole Turner, WR: Son of former Alabama player Kevin Turner, who played eight years in the NFL with New England Patriots and Philadelphia Eagles, and brother of former Clemson All-America safety Nolan Turner.
- Paul Tyson, QB: Great grandson of College Football Hall of Famer Paul "Bear" Bryant.
- Tyler Venables, S: Son of Oklahoma head coach and former Clemson defensive coordinator Brent Venables; brother of former Clemson linebacker Jake Venables.

CHURNING OUT NFL TALENT

Since assuming the head role midseason in 2008, Head Coach Dabo Swinney has produced 77 NFL draft picks during his head coaching tenure. His 77 draft picks produced are the second-most by any coach in the nation since the 2009 NFL Draft, and his 17 first-rounders are the third-most overall and second-most of any active coach in that span.

Additional nuggets on Clemson's recent success in the NFL Draft are included below:

- Clemson has had at least one first-round draft choice in nine of the last 11 years. Clemson is one of only five schools with at least one first-round pick in at least eight of the last 11 drafts, alongside Alabama, Florida, Georgia and Ohio State.
- Clemson is one of only seven schools to have produced multiple draft picks in each of the last 21 NFL Drafts (Florida, LSU, Michigan, Oklahoma, Ohio State and USC).
- Clemson is one of six schools to have produced five or more selections in at least eight of the last 10 drafts.
- Since 2013, Clemson has produced first-round picks from the QB, RB, WR, DE, DT, LB and DB position groups. The only other school with at least one first-rounder at all those positions in that span is Alabama.

*Note: For listing purposes, Clemson chose to progress classes as though 2020 was a normal year of eligibility. For example, players listed as redshirt juniors in 2023 following a "redshirt year" in 2020 may not have officially redshirted in 2020, but would have qualified for one in a normal year. Clemson will denote extra years of eligibility on the back end of players' careers (i.e.: "Super Seniors" in 2023 are listed with the "+Sr." designation).

2023 GAME RECAPS

GAME 1	CLEMSON	7
	DUKE	28
	SEPT. 4, 2023 WALLACE WADE STADIUM • DURHAM, N.C.

DURHAM, N.C. — Duke took advantage of three second-half turnovers to pull away from No. 9 Clemson, 28-7, at Wallace Wade Stadium.

The game marked the first time in Clemson history that the Tigers both rushed and passed for 200 yards and lost. Entering the game, Clemson had been 108-0 — including a 58-0 mark under Dabo Swinney — when reaching 200 yards in both categories. Clemson out-gained Duke, 422-374, and led the Blue Devils in first downs, 29-17, in the defeat.

After two Duke field goals, Wade Woodaz recovered a muffed punt on Duke's 18-yard line, setting up Will Shipley's first career receiving touchdown on a pass from Klubnik for a 7-6 lead the Tigers would carry into halftime.

On the first possession of the second half, Duke quarterback Riley Leonard escaped from the pocket and scored on a 44-yard touchdown run, giving Duke a 13-7 lead. Clemson drove the ensuing possession deep into Duke territory but suffered its second blocked field goal attempt of the evening.

The Tigers again drove deep into Duke's end late in the third quarter and appeared poised to take the lead, but a Mahaf fumble on the one-yard line ended the scoring threat. Klubnik saved a touchdown, running nearly 60 yards to track down Jaylen Stinson, but the Blue Devils added a touchdown on the ensuing six-play scoring drive.

Clemson got the ball back on their own 20-yard line with 5:43 left on the clock in search of 14 points. However, a fumble interception on the fourth play of the drive gave the Blue Devils the ball back with a two-possession lead. A 30-yard touchdown run from Jordan Waters sealed a 28-7 Duke victory.

GAME 2	CHARLESTON SOUTHERN	17
	CLEMSON	66
	SEPT. 9, 2023 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. — No. 25/21 Clemson scored 45 unanswered points over the final three quarters to defeat Charleston Southern, 66-17, in Clemson's home opener at Memorial Stadium. The Tigers played a school-record 117 players in the contest.

Clemson overcame a couple of critical early mistakes. A Clemson fumble on fourth down in its own territory set up a one-yard Charleston Southern touchdown, and a 67-yard pick six gave the Buccaneers a 14-7 lead late in the first quarter. The game was tied 14-14 after the first quarter despite a 198-6 Clemson advantage in offensive yardage and 12-0 Clemson edge in first downs at the quarter break.

Clemson outscored Charleston Southern, 52-3, over the remaining three quarters. Phil Mahaf (two rushing), Antonio Williams (two receiving) and Jay Haynes (one rushing, one receiving) all found the end zone twice during the contest, and Beaux Collins led the Tigers with seven receptions and 137 receiving yards, including a 69-yard catch-and-run for a score. Clemson's 37 third downs were the third-most in school history.

Defensively, Clemson held the Bucs to only 73 total yards and four first downs. Linebacker Wade Woodaz returned his first career interception 35 yards for a score.

The game was Dabo Swinney's 100th home game as head coach, improving him to 92-8 in Death Valley.

GAME 3	FLORIDA ATLANTIC	14
	CLEMSON	48
	SEPT. 16, 2023 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. — Twenty first-quarter points sparked RV/22 Clemson to a 48-14 prime-time win against Florida Atlantic at Memorial Stadium.

Quarterback Cade Klubnik was responsible for four total touchdowns — three passing and one passing. Wide receiver Tyler Brown caught two touchdowns, becoming the first Clemson freshman with two receiving touchdowns in a game since Justyn Ross in the 2018 Cotton Bowl.

Clemson forced four turnovers in the victory. Cornerback Nate Wiggins jumpstarted Clemson and opened the scoring with a 46-yard interception return for touchdown, become the first Tiger with a pick-six in consecutive season since Rex Varn in 1977-78. Khalil Barnes recorded his first career interception later in the quarter, and Wade Woodaz notched his second interception in as many weeks later in the contest, becoming the first Clemson linebacker with a pick in back-to-back games since Isaiah Simmons in 2019.

After Wiggins' opening salvo, the Tigers added four more touchdowns in the first half, including scoring passes from Klubnik to Brown and Jake Briningstool as well as rushing touchdowns by Phil Mahaf and Klubnik, giving Clemson a 34-0 lead at halftime.

Both teams added 14 points in the second half. Clemson's 14 second-half points included Brown adding his second touchdown of the game from Klubnik and running back Domonique Thomas rushing for his first touchdown of his NCAA career after walking on from NAIA Union College in Kentucky in 2022.
