- ▶ A win over NC State on Sept. 26, 2020 was the 200th of head coach John Kerr's career. He is the 51st active coach to reach the benchmark and the second Blue Devil men's soccer coach to reach it.
- ▶ Kerr earned his 100th win as the Blue Devil leader in 2017 with a 2-1 victory over FIU. Now in his 15th season, Kerr is one of two Duke coaches in program history to win 100 career games from the Duke sideline.
- ▶ Kerr's current .585 winning percentage at Duke (153-103-38) is fourth among Duke coaches with John Rennie leading the way at .706. Roy Skinner (71-45-5) is second at .607 while inaugural head coach K.C. Gerard (41-27-10) finished with a .589 winning percentage

DUKE'S INTERNATIONAL FLAVOR

- ▶ The Blue Devils feature a diverse roster with four foreign countries, one British territory and 15 different states represented.
- ▶ Duke added several international players via freshman signings and the transfer portal, including striker transfer Forster Ajago (Dayton), forward Ulfur Bjornsson (Iceland) and midfielder Bull Jorgensen (Norway).

Bermuda	Jai Bean (Hamilton, Bermuda)
Ghana	Forster Ajago (Navrongo, Ghana)
Iceland	Axel Gudbjornsson (Reykjavik, Iceland) Ulfur Bjornsson (Hafnafjardur, Iceland)
Northern Ireland	Lewis McGarvey (Belfast, Northern Ireland)

ALL IN THE KERR FAMILY

- ▶ Head coach John Kerr has now had the unique opportunity to share his time at Duke with both of his sons - Cameron and Drew
- ▶ John describes the opportunity to coach both of his sons as "the time of his life" and that he's "living the dream". Cameron is a graduate student in his fifth season and Drew is a sophomore in his second season with the Blue Devils
- ▶ Cameron played his club soccer with NC Fusion Academy and helped lead Chapel Hill High School to the state finals as a sophomore
- ▶ Drew enters his second season after competing with USL League One side North Carolina FC and appearing in 10 games last season
- ▶ While both Kerr brothers compete for the Blue Devils, Cameron's twin sister Alex is playing for Texas Tech as a graduate transfer after playing her first four years at Vanderbilt. Alex has started strong for the Red Raiders, with 6 goals and an assist so far this season

DEFENDING KOSKINEN

- ▶ The Blue Devils went 7-0-3 in the regular season at home in 2022 and have started 2023 undefeated, with 3 wins and 1 draw

JOHN KERR

Head Coach • 16th Season • Duke '87

Record at Duke: 153-103-38 • Career Record: 234-162-51

John Kerr was hired as head coach of the Blue Devils in the spring of 2007 after starting his coaching career in 1999 as the men's soccer coach at Harvard. He enters his 16th season on the sidelines for Duke, but is no stranger to the Blue Devils' program. As a player, he took the Duke program to new heights - including its first NCAA Championship in 1986. Over the course of his four seasons as a player in Durham, Kerr racked up nearly every award possible and etched his name all over the Duke men's soccer records book before being inducted in the Duke Sports Hall of Fame in 2004.

Head coach John Kerr has mentored exceptional players during his time in Durham. Under Kerr's direction, the Blue Devils have collected 14 major ACC awards and landed 49 All-ACC awards. Andrew Wenger highlights the list of Blue Devil stars, earning the ACC Rookie of the Year, ACC Defensive Player of the Year and ACC Offensive Player of the Year honors during his career before ultimately winning the MAC Hermann Award as the nation's best player in 2011. Kerr is no stranger to the MAC Hermann Award, having won it himself in 1986.

On the professional level, Kerr made history as the first American player to play in the English Premier League, when he signed on with Portsmouth, and has seen action in 17 matches for the U.S. Men's National Team. As Duke's coach, Kerr has helped mentor several future MLS players, including most recently back-to-back top-5 MLS Superdraft picks in Thorleifur Ulfarsson (2022) and Shakur Mohammed (2023).
