Need to Know

Clemson Tigers Take Down Furman 4-1 at Riggs Field

• In their first game back at Historic Riggs Field after traveling for two games, the Clemson Tigers run past Furman 4-1. Scoring all four goals in the first half, the Tigers set the tone for the rest of the match as they dominated the pitch against the Paladins. Megan Bornkamp, Tatum Short, Mackenzie Duff and Hal Hershfelt all scored on Thursday as three of the four earned their first goals of the 2023 season.

Tigers Move Up to No. 11 in United Soccer Coaches Rankings

• Following two wins over Utah Valley and Utah, the previously ranked No. 19 Clemson Tigers move into the No. 11 spot in the United Soccer Coaches Rankings at the conclusion of week two. Before the start of the season, the Tigers were ranked 25th in the preseason poll but then after successfully opening the season against South Carolina and Gardner-Webb, the Tigers moved up six spots to earn the No. 19 ranking at the end of week one. Now, the Tigers move an incredible eight slots upwards to secure the 11th spot.

Meredith Leads the Tigers in Goals, Tobia Leads the Team in Points

• Graduate, Sami Meredith currently leads this Tigers squad in goals as she has netted three so far this season. All three of Meredith's goal were scored against Gardner-Webb in the second game of the season as the upperclassman recorded a hat-trick against the Runnin' Bulldogs. Freshman Jenna Tobia has set the nation by storm in her first season in the orange and purple, as the newest Tiger currently leads the team in points with eight so far on the season. In five games, Tobia has recorded four assists and two goals as she solidifies her value on this Tigers roster.

Tigers Are Set to Play at Historic Riggs for Next Two Matches

• The Clemson Tigers are back at home for three matches as they hosted Furman on Thursday and will prepare to host Western Carolina on Sunday and No. 8 Arkansas on Thursday, September 7th.

PREVIOUS GAME RECAP

Clemson, S.C. – Behind four first-half goals, No. 11 Clemson downed Upstate-rival Furman, 4-1 on Thursday night at Historic Riggs Field. Three Tigers netted their first goal of the season and 19 Tigers saw action on the field.

“We got off to a great start scoring four goals, some of them were really spectacular. You can’t take winning for granted, winning is hard, you have to pursue it,” Head Coach Eddie Radwanski said. “We played very well, we got the result, beat a good team so now we will get ready and fired up for Sunday’s game.”

Megan Bornkamp opened the scoring for the Tigers, with a header off the foot of Jenna Tobia in the 6’. Tatum Short netted her first goal of her career in the 18’, launching a shot into the top right corner of the net just out of reach of the Furman keeper to give the Tigers the early 2-0 advantage.

“It feels awesome, I feel like I haven’t scored in a couple of games so it feels good to be back,” Bornkamp said. “And to be able to play with these girls, it’s just so fun being out here and being back at Riggs.”

Clemson continued the first-half scoring barrage, as Mackenzie Duff netted a goal in the 33’ on an assist from Dani Davis, while Hal Hershfeldt launched her first goal of the season into the net to give the Tigers a 4-0 lead at halftime.

Furman’s Norah Roller netted a goal for Furman in the 72’, marking the first time all season anyone had scored a goal against the Tigers.

Up next, Furman welcomes Western Carolina to Historic Riggs Field for a 6:00 p.m. matchup on Sunday, September 3.

2023 SEASON PREVIEW

CLEMSON, S.C. – As the 2023 roster blends together a group of nationally regarded returners, highly skilled reserves and some talented new faces, a new era will begin for Clemson Women's Soccer. Coming off a successful preseason run, these Tigers are ready to prove themselves at the national level.

“Our group is very much looking forward to the 2023 fall season. We have been working for this moment ever since the start of the spring semester of last year,” Head Coach Eddie Radwanski said. “Our group is dialed in, intense and looking forward to getting after it and competing in the ACC and NCAA. I think we have a little bit of something to prove this year, a little bit of a chip on our shoulder and I think we just need to continue our theme of ‘were just going to worry about us, were going to be the best version of us we can be and we will trust that our results will carry themselves.’”

Ranked No. 25 in the nation, the Tigers bring back a unique force of returners with Hal Hershfelt, Megan Bornkamp and Caroline Conti leading this team in the orange and purple. Both Bornkamp and Hershfelt were named to the Preseason All-ACC Team and were named players to watch by the United Soccer Coaches. Conti led the team in points in the 2022 season as she tallied 13 total points with five assists and four goals on the year.

“I’m excited to be back playing with the team I love and to play another season at Riggs. The atmosphere we have at home games is unreal,” Hershfelt said. “We have a lot of goals this season, and it being my last year it really is all or nothing. We have to do all we can to leave our mark.”

The Tigers wrapped up the 2022 season with an 8-5-5 overall record and a 4-3-3 record in conference play. For the ninth-straight season, the Tigers continued their run in the postseason as they earned a No. 5 seed and a bid to the NCAA tournament where they took on Vanderbilt in the first round to end the season.

Wearing the gloves for the Tigers this season will be Halle Mackiewicz, who was a key component for this team in the 2022 campaign. Mackiewicz started all 18 matches last season and ended the campaign with 59 saves and .759 save percentage.

Also returning to the roster for Clemson is senior Makenna Morris and junior Renee Lyles. Both players were in the top three for total points at the end of the 2022 season as they followed Conti with 11 (Lyles) and 10 (Morris) points.

Putting on the Tiger threads for the first time this season is Jenna Tobia, Tatum Short, Eleanor Hays and Dani Lynch. Tobia and Short impressed all with their preseason performances and will look to continue that success in their freshman campaigns.

The coaching staff of 13 seasons is made up of Head Coach, Eddie Radwanski who will look to lead this team to the top. Radwanski is supported by Associate Head Coach Jeff Robbins and Assistant Coach Siri Mullinix. The trio also added Allison Wetherington to their staff as she takes on the role of an assistant coach and will add a professional perspective with her experience in the NWSL as a guiding light.
