Landon Bussie

Head Coach

4th Year at Alcorn State

Coach Landon Bussie enters his fourth season at the helm of the Alcorn State University Braves men's basketball team.

He was announced as the head men's basketball coach at Alcorn State University in April 2020 and made an immediate impact on the program. In year two, the first-time head coach took a 6-13 team in his first season to a 17-17 (14-4 in league play) team that garnered the 2021-2022 SWAC Regular-Season Title, the first championship for the program in 20 years. The team then became the No. 1 seed in the SWAC Tournament and appeared in the National Invitation Tournament (NIT). In year three, Coach Bussie and the Braves repeated as the 2022-2023 SWAC Regular-Season Champions and was the No. 1 seed in the SWAC Tournament and appeared in the NIT against the University of North Texas.

Coach Bussie was named 2022-2023 Co-Coach of the year, coaching SWAC All-Conference First team honoree Dominic Brewton and Second team honoree Jeremiah Kendall.

Bussie was named 2021-2022 SWAC Coach of the Year, coaching SWAC All-Conference Second team honoree Justin Thomas and standout forward Lenell Henry, who was named to the 2022 HBCU All-Star Game Watch List.

Prior to coming to Lorman, Bussie spent six seasons at Prairie View A&M serving as an assistant coach, where he was a part of a Panthers squad that won back-to-back SWAC regular-season titles in 2018-19 and 2019-20. PVAMU won the 2018-19 SWAC Championship, advancing to the NCAA Tournament. The Panthers were the top overall seed again in 2019-20, reaching the semifinals before the season was called off due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Known as a superior recruiter, Bussie recruited the 2019-20 SWAC Player of the Year, Devonte Patterson. He also recruited and developed Gary Blackston, the 2018-19 SWAC Tournament MVP. Both Patterson and Blackston were BOXTOROW All-Americans.

Furthermore, Bussie brought in six key contributors to PVAMU's back-to-back reigns. In addition to Patterson and Blackston, he recruited Gerard Andrus (All-Conference First-Team), Chancellor Ellis (New Mexico State transfer, made 61 threes in a season), Tajshaun Johnson (Kent State transfer), and DeWayne Cox (defensive specialist).

Bussie worked alongside head coach Byron Smith, the back-to-back SWAC Coach of the Year winner in 2018-19 and 2019-20. They coached Dennis Jones, the 2018-19 SWAC Defensive Player of the Year.

Bussie aided the Panthers in finishing top-10 in the nation in turnovers forced per game three years in a row from 2018-20. The 2018-19 squad ended second in the country in turnovers forced with 17.9 per game. PVAMU led the conference in steals per game in 2018-19 and 2019-20, and allowed under 67 points per game in both seasons.

Before switching to the men's side, Bussie was an assistant women's coach at PVAMU for one year. He played a vital role in developing guard Jeanette Jackson, the 2014-15 SWAC Player of the Year, scoring and assists leader, and finishing in the SWAC's Top 10 in six statistical categories.

Prior to his time at PVAMU, Bussie spent four seasons at his alma mater, Xavier University of Louisiana. During that span, Xavier won three consecutive GCAC regular-season championships from 2012-14 and four straight appearances at the NAIA Championship Tournament from 2011-14. He coached eight All-Conference honorees.

As a student-athlete, Bussie was a two-year letterman as a forward at Xavier University of Louisiana, graduating with a bachelor's degree in psychology in 2010. He later earned a master's degree in educational leadership in 2014.

Bussie is a graduate of Woodlawn High School and went on to play two seasons for Livingstone College of the CIAA (NCAA Division II) before transferring to Xavier.

Bussie is the son of Loretta Bussie and the late Gerald Bussie and has two siblings, brother, Gerald, and sister Asya. Asya was an All-American standout at West Virginia University before being drafted by the Minnesota Lynx as the 15th-overall pick in the 2014 WNBA Draft.

Davey L. Whitney Complex

Davey L. Whitney Complex is a 7,000-seat multi-purpose arena and physical education center in Lorman, Mississippi. It was built in 1975 and is home to the Alcorn State University Braves men's and women's basketball teams and women's volleyball team.

The health and physical education complex was built at a cost of $3.5 million. The new facility added much-needed seating capacity and classroom space, as well as an Olympic-size swimming pool. The first game in the complex was the final game of the 1974–75 men's basketball season.

Nicknamed the "Scalping Grounds", stylized later as the Scalpin' Grounds, it was renamed in 1993 after Davey Whitney, who coached the Braves from 1969 to 1989. Whitney returned to Alcorn for a second stint from 1996 to 2003, making him one of the few Division I coaches to have coached in an arena or stadium named for him.

Braves Fall to Mavericks on Road, 69-82

ARLINGTON, TEXAS – Alcorn State University men's basketball traveled to face the University of Texas-Arlington for a Wednesday night match up. The Braves went toe-to-toe with the Maverick but were defeated down the stretch, 69-82.

Alcorn was able to keep pace with UTA for much of the first half and went into halftime down by only three points. However, the Braves lost the battles in the paint and scoring from the bench. Alcorn bench scored 14 points compared to UTA's 36. In the paint, ASU finished with 26 points while the Mavericks ended with 32.

The Braves had three players finish with double-digit point totals. Byron Joshua led the way with 21 points, four rebounds, and five assists. He was followed by Jeremiah Gambrell with 13 points, two assists, and one rebound. Jeremiah Kendall rounded out the three with 10 points and a team-high five rebounds.

As a team, Alcorn ended the game going 39.7 percent from the field, and 76 percent from the stripe.

UTA was led by Kade Douglas with 20 points, five rebounds, and three assists. He was followed by Shemar Wilson with a double-double of 14 points and a team-high 12 rebounds. Wilson also recorded three blocks. Brandyn Talbot and Dwayne Koroma accounted for 12 points each. DaJuan Gordon contributed eight rebounds and Akili Vining tallied eight assists.

Collectively, the Maverick finished the game going 47.5 percent from the field and 73.3 percent from the stripe.

TIGERS TAME BRONCOS IN 85-68 WIN

CLEMSON, S.C. – Clemson University men's basketball pummeled Boise State on Sunday afternoon, 85-68, inside Littlejohn Coliseum to move to 4-0 this season.

The Tigers (4-0) were led offensively by Joseph Girard III (Glens Falls, N.Y./Glens Falls) who finished with a game-high and season-high 23 points. Girard added four rebounds and three assists, while connecting on nine field goals, including three 3-pointers. Seventeen of Girard's 23 points came in the second half.

Chase Hunter (Atlanta, Ga./Westlake) and PJ Hall (Spartanburg, S.C./Dorman) combined for 28 points in addition to Girard's output, scoring 14 points each. Hunter added six rebounds, four assists and an emphatic blocked shot, while Hall had four rebounds, a block, and an assist. Twelve of Hall's 14 points came in the second half.

The home team raced out to a 7-2 lead before the Broncos (2-1) evened things up midway through the opening stanza. Up 15-14, the Tigers went on a 9-1 run to open a 24-15 advantage, but the Broncos closed the gap quickly back to a two-point lead. The first half finished very back-and-forth, and Clemson took a 41-38 lead into halftime.

Clemson opened a 10-point lead almost midway through the second half and then stretched it to a game-high 22 points with 5:19 left to keep the Broncos at bay.

Clemson's bench outscored Boise State's 27-17 in the contest, finishing 10-for-15 from the field and 3-for-4 from three. RJ Godfrey (Suwanee, Ga./North Gwinnett) contributed six points, seven rebounds and a career-best four blocked shots. Of Godfrey's seven boards, four came on the offensive glass. Chauncey Wiggins (Grayson, Ga./Grayson) tallied nine points on 3-for-4 shooting.
