PREVIOUS GAME RECAP

CLEMSON, S.C. — Behind two second-half goals, No. 7 Clemson women's soccer downed Radford, 2-0, to advance to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Seniors Makenna Morris and Caroline Conti netted both goals for the Tigers, who earned their 14th shutout of the season in front of 1,755 fans at Historic Riggs Fleld.

"We wanted to come out and dominate the game, Radford came in with a defensive plan and they were trying to keep the game close. The hardest thing to do in a game is score and then it's even harder when they put numbers back there," Head Coach Eddie Radwanski said. "We got two goals and the name of the game is to win so we got the win, we got the shutout and played well."

The Tigers came out strong in the first half with the defensive line allowing zero scoring opportunities for the Highlanders as Radford wrapped up the first 45 with no shots. Clemson tabbed 11 total shots, with five on target. The Tigers were also awarded six corner-kicks in comparison to Highlanders two corners.

In the second half, Morris helped the Tigers secure the 1-0 lead as she was able to knock one in at the '55 mark. Dani Davis found possession of the ball and was able to pass it to Conti, who was able to find Morris in scoring position. Conti crossed the ball to Morris who was able to sneak it past the Radford keeper.

In the '76, Conti showed her skills on the pitch as she was able to use her speed to maneuver past four Radford players and knock one into the net. The goal marked Conti's seventh of the season.

"There is a little bit of nervousness that comes with it but my teammates were all there for me and we stepped up and we got the donut which is all that matters," Holgorsen said. "We are moving on, next round"

Up next, the Tigers will face the winner of Sunday's Columbia/Rutgers game as the Tigers advance to the second round and will host their next opponent at Historic Riggs Field next weekend.

2023 SEASON PREVIEW

CLEMSON, S.C. — As the 2023 roster blends together a group of nationally regarded returners, highly skilled reserves and some talented new faces, a new era will begin for Clemson Women's Soccer. Coming off a successful preseason run, these Tigers are ready to prove themselves at the national level.

"Our group is very much looking forward to the 2023 fall season. We have been working for this moment ever since the start of the spring semester of last year," Head Coach Eddie Radwanski said. "Our group is dialed in, intense and looking forward to getting after it and competing in the ACC and NCAA. I think we have a little bit of something to prove this year, a little bit of a chip on our shoulder and I think we just need to continue our theme of 'were just going to worry about us, were going to be the best version of us we can be and we will trust that our results will carry themselves'."

Ranked No. 25 in the nation, the Tigers bring back a unique force of returners with Hal Hershfelt, Megan Bornkamp and Caroline Conti leading this team in the orange and purple. Both Bornkamp and Hershfelt were named to the Preseason All-ACC Team and were named players to watch by the United Soccer Coaches. Conti led the team in points in the 2022 season as she tallied 13 total points with five assists and four goals on the year.

"I'm excited to be back playing with the team I love and to play another season at Riggs. The atmosphere we have at home games is unreal," Hershfelt said. "We have a lot of goals this season, and it being my last year it really is all or nothing. We have to do all we can to leave our mark."

The Tigers wrapped up the 2022 season with an 8-5-5 overall record and a 4-3-3 record in conference play. For the ninth-straight season, the Tigers continued their run in the postseason as they earned a No. 5 seed and a bid to the NCAA tournament where they took on Vanderbilt in the first round to end the season.

Wearing the gloves for the Tigers this season will be Halle Mackiewicz, who was a key component for this team in the 2022 campaign. Mackiewicz started all 18 matches last season and ended the campaign with 59 saves and .759 save percentage.

Also returning to the roster for Clemson is senior Makenna Morris and junior Renee Lyles. Both players were in the top three for total points at the end of the 2022 season as they followed Conti with 11 (Lyles) and 10 (Morris) points.

Putting on the Tiger threads for the first time this season is Dani Davis, Jenna Tobia, Tatum Short, Eleanor Hays and Dani Lynch. Tobia and Short impressed all with their preseason performances and will look to continue that success in their freshman campaigns.

The coaching staff of 13 seasons is made up of Head Coach, Eddie Radwanski who will look to lead this team to the top. Radwanski is supported by Associate Head Coach Jeff Robbins and Assistant Coach Siri Mullinix. The trio also added Allison Wetherington to their staff as she takes on the role of an assistant coach and will add a professional perspective with her experience in the NWSL as a guiding light.
