CLEMSON BASKETBALL HEADLINES

CLEMSON vs. GEORGIA TECH

• Clemson and Georgia Tech will meet for the 146th time in program history. Clemson leads 77-68 and the Tigers are 20-9 against the Yellow Jackets under Head Coach Brad Brownell. Clemson has won four out of the last six in the series.

CLEMSON BASKETBALL HEADLINES

• PJ Hall Is An All-American — The senior center garnered Preseason First Team All-ACC honors.
  • Hall was named to the John R. Wooden Award Preseason Top 50 Watch List, the Midseason Top 25 Watch List and was recently upgraded to the Late Season Top 20 Watch List for his play this season. Named to 2023-24 Lute Olson Midseason Watch List.
  • Hall was added to the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Award Top 10 List (Nation's best center).
  • Hall is just the fourth Tiger to amass 1,500+ points, 500+ rebounds and 100+ blocks in a career (Trevor Booker, Elden Campbell, Dale Davis). He became the 12th player in Clemson history to reach 1,500 career points at Syracuse (2/10). He is 23 points away from moving into the Top 10 of Clemson's all-time scoring list. He would pass Bill Yarborough (1952-57)
  • 26 20-point games and one 30-point game in his career and 35-straight double-digit scoring games.
  • He is one of two players in America averaging 19.5 points, 7.0 rebounds, 1.5 blocks and 1.5 assists and 30.0+ PER (Zach Edey, Purdue).
  • Sixth double-double of the season at Syracuse (2/10) with 15 points and 10 rebounds. 13th career double-double.
  • When PJ Hall scored 31 points against Georgia Tech on Jan. 16, he became the first Clemson center to score at least 30 in a game since Jan. 16, 1991 when Dale Davis scored 32 against Western Carolina. Thats right 33 years to the day. Hall's 31 points vs. the Yellow Jackets was the first 30 point game for a Clemson center in an ACC game since Feb. 15, 1987 when Horace Grant scored 30 against Georgia Tech. Thats right, the same school.
  • Hall was named ACC Player of the Week (Dec. 4) for his performances at Alabama and Pittsburgh. The first of his career.
  • Scored 17 points and totaled seven rebounds in the championship game against Davidson. Earned Tournament MVP honors.
  • Followed up season opener 20-point performance with 27 points and nine rebounds in a win vs. UAB.

• Joseph Girard III — Third all-time in ACC history for 3-pointers made (373). Reached 2,000 career points in return at Syracuse (2/10).
  • First ACC Player of the Week honor (2/12) for his performances at North Carolina and at Syracuse.
  • Posted a season-high 25 points on 7-for-10 shooting and 6-for-9 from three at Pittsburgh (12/3).
  • Season-high 26 points (8-16 FG, 5-11 3FG, 5-6 FT) in a win over Boston College (1/13).
  • Tied career-high with nine rebounds at Memphis (12/16) — had nine rebounds against Notre Dame on 1-22-20.
  • Has seven 20-point games this season and made multiple 3-pointers in 11 consecutive games from Nov. 12-Jan 3.
  • He's posted 21 games with multiple 3-pointers, including 11 where he's connected on four or more.
  • Became the sixth player since 1992-93 to achieve 2,000 points, 400 rebounds, 500 assists and 350 threes in a career.

• Ian Schieffelin Is the ACC's Most Improved Player — One of 16 players in America averaging at least 9.0 points, 9.0 rebounds and 2.0 assists per game (One of two players in the ACC).
  • Had 17 rebounds in Clemson's victory at Pittsburgh on December 3, 2023, the most by a Clemson player under Brad Brownell and the most in any game since Trevor Booker had 17 at East Carolina on December 5, 2007.
  • Schieffelin's 31 rebounds over a two-game period were the most by a Tiger since the 1998-99 season. Tom Wideman had 17 rebounds in an NIT quarterfinal game against Butler on March 18, 1999, then had 15 against Xavier in the NIT semifinals in Madison Square Garden on March 23, 1999.
  • Six double-doubles this season. 11 double-digit rebounding games this season and 13 in his career.
  • First player in the country this season and second player in the ACC since 2013 to post a stat line of 16 points, 11 rebounds, 5 steals and 4 blocks in a single game.

• Clemson Is No. 27 In This Week's NET Rankings — Clemson is the third-highest ranked ACC team in the NET. Clemson is 4-3 in Quad 1 games and is third among ACC teams with three Quad 1 wins (North Carolina, 6; Duke, 5). Clemson is No. 24 in RPI and has the No. 29 NET strength of schedule in the country (2nd in the ACC). The Tigers' RPI strength of schedule is No. 9 (No. 302 last year). Clemson is ranked No. 12 in KPI, which also ranks the Tigers' SOS at No. 6.

• Two Players Garner 20-Point, 15-Rebound Peformances — PJ Hall and Ian Schieffelin did something that hasn't been done at Clemson since at least the 1996-97 season.
  • Hall posted 31 points and 17 rebounds, while Schieffelin added 20 points and 15 rebounds in a loss to Georgia Tech.
  • It marked the first time a pair of teammates for Clemson have garnered at least 20 points and 15 rebounds in a game and just the third time in Division I that it has occurred since the 1996-97 season, per Stats Perform.

TIGERS SET RECORD FOR HAVING MORE ASSISTS THAN TURNOVERS IN EVERY GAME THIS SEASON

• Clemson's streak of 19 consecutive games with more assists than turnovers is the longest for a Clemson in history and ended in game #20 against Louisville (13/13). The previous best for a Tiger team was the 1982-83 season when then Head Coach Bill Foster's Tigers had a streak of 13 consecutive games. That streak took place from the Jan. 24, 1983 Georgia Tech game through the March 5, 1983 Illinois-Chicago game.
• There has been just one other streak of seven games over the last 40 years and that came in 1983-84 when Clemson had a seven-game streak. The Tigers led the nation in assists per game that year with 20.39.
• Clemson has 312 assists and 210 turnovers so far this season for a 1.49 ratio. That is ahead of the Clemson single season record of 1.48 set during the 1980-81 season. Clemson is averaging 15.6 assists per game, the most on a per game basis since the 1989-90 Clemson team averaged 17.2 per contest.

CLEMSON HELD RADFORD TO JUST 13 TOTAL REBOUNDS
- In Clemson's victory over Radford, the Tigers held the Highlanders to just 13 total rebounds and outrebounded them overall by 32 (45-13).
- The +32 rebounding was tied for the fourth-best in a single game in program history.
- The 13 rebounds allowed were the lowest by the program since Dec. 29, 2007 when the Tigers allowed 11 to Samford in a 78-45 win.
- Note that the date was exactly 16 years ago to the day and it was a 30-point victory that also moved a Clemson team to 11-1 before the New Year.

OFFENSIVE ONSLAUGHT VS. QUEENS
- Clemson turned it up more than it has in a long time offensively in a 109-79 win over Queens (12/22/23).
- Clemson tied a school record with 69 first half points. The Tigers previously had 69 in the first half against Boston College on 12-28-76.
- It was the third-highest scoring half in Clemson history. The record is 72.
- Clemson's 109 points was the most in the Brownell Era and the most in a game since 118 in a triple OT win vs. Wake Forest on 2-13-02. It was the most in regulation since 120 at Charleston Southern on 12/1/93.
- In the first half, Clemson shot 71.1 percent —a new high mark in the Brownell Era.

CLEMSON GOT OFF TO BEST START SINCE 2008-09
- Clemson won its first nine games before a loss at Memphis, its best start under Brad Brownell and its best start since beginning 16-0 in 2008-09. Clemson had such a strong start and had played just four of the nine games at home. The Tigers were 4-0 at home, 2-0 on the opponent's home court and 3-0 at neutral sites, including the Dec. 9 win over TCU in Toronto during that stretch.
- This marked the 12th start of 9-0 or better in Clemson history, but just the fourth time Clemson has done it by playing just four games or fewer at home. Clemson won its first nine games in 2008-09 and did it by going 4-0 at home, 2-0 on the road and 3-0 at neutral site, the exact same W-L line as this year.
- Clemson went 17-0 to start 2006-07 and had a 4-0 mark at home, 3-0 on the road and 2-0 at neutral site in this first nine games. Back in 1934-35 the Tigers started 9-0 and six of the nine wins were on the road. That Clemson team finished 15-3.

CLEMSON WINS OUTSIDE THE UNITED STATES AGAINST TCU
- Clemson played its first ever game in Canada and beat TCU, 74-66, on December 9 in Toronto. It was Clemson's first regular season game outside the U.S. since November 21, 2018 when the Tigers played the third of three games against Creighton in the championship game of a tournament in the Cayman Islands.
- Overall, Clemson is now 20-9 in games outside the United States. The first took place in the season opener of the 1987-88 season when the Tigers defeated Oregon State, 69-54 in Taiwan. Clemson played just one official game on that trip, but also had two exhibition games against foreign teams.
- Brad Brownell has a 7-3 record in games played outside the United States. He also has taken two Clemson teams to the Virgin Islands.

- Schieffelin had a 14-rebound effort at Alabama the previous game on November 28. Those two individual efforts were big reasons Clemson won at Alabama and at Pittsburgh and allowed the Tigers to stay even on the boards at Alabama and +7 at Pittsburgh. Alabama and Pittsburgh were both among the top 25 teams in the nation in rebounding with margins of at least +10 rebounds per game entering those contests.
- Schieffelin's 31 rebounds over a two-game period were the most by a Tiger since the 1998-99 season. Tom Wideman had 17 rebounds in an NIT quarterfinal game against Bulter on March 18, 1999, then had 15 against Xavier in the NIT semifinals in Madison Square Garden on March 23, 1999.

TIGERS POST CONSECUTIVE ROAD WINS
- Clemson posted consecutive road victories, 85-77 at Alabama (Nov. 28) and 79-70 at Pittsburgh (Dec. 3) in the ACC opener. This marks the first time since November 29-December 2, 2006 that Clemson has recorded road wins over Power 6 Conference schools by at least eight points in the same week.
- The last time it happened the Tigers won at Miami (Fla.) on November 29, 2006 by a 90-68 score, then defeated South Carolina in Columbia on December 2, 2006 by a 74-53 count.
- Last year on Jan 4-7, Clemson defeated Virginia Tech (68-65) and Pittsburgh (75-74) in consecutive road games, but obviously those game were much closer.

CLEMSON SIGNS THREE FOR 2024-25; CLASS RANKS 20TH NATIONALLY

• Head Coach Brad Brownell and his staff added Dallas Thomas (Little Rock, Ark./Parkview Magnet), Del Jones (Largo, Md./AZ Compass Prep) and Ace Buckner (Cleveland, Ohio/La Lumiere School) to the Clemson University men's basketball program on Nov. 8. All three signed letters of intent to play for the Tigers beginning in 2024-25.
• The Clemson recruiting class ranks 20th nationally, according to 247Sports, and is fourth in the Atlantic Coast Conference. Thomas and Jones join PJ Hall (Spartanburg, S.C./Dorman) in the 247Sports' top five rated Clemson recruits of all time.
• "I'm excited about the addition of Dallas, Del and Ace to our basketball family. These are three talented players who help solidify our backcourt and perimeter positions. Their an athletic group whose versatility should allow them to play multiple positions and blend well with our team."
• Thomas is a 6-9, 180-pound four-star forward who ranks as the No. 67 overall prospect and second in Arkansas in the 2024 class. He is the No. 24 small forward in the class, according to On3. As a junior, Thomas nearly averaged a double-double with 16.5 points and 9.4 rebounds along with 2.3 assists and 2.1 blocks. He was named to the SBLive Arkansas All-State Second Team.
• "Dallas is a highly skilled forward with tremendous length that allows him to score at all three levels. I love his size and versatility, which will give me the opportunity to utilize him in a variety of ways in our system. Dallas has a great feel for the game and high IQ, having the benefit of being raised by a father who was a good Division I college player and was coached in high school by Arkansas legend Scottie Thurman."
• Thomas chose Clemson over Arkansas, LSU, Memphis and Missouri.
• Jones is a 6-2, 180-pound four-star point guard and ranks as the No. 66 overall player and No. 14 point guard according to ESPN. He ranks No. 90 overall and No. 7 point guard in the 2024 class, according to 247Sports.
• "Del is a superfast combo guard that has played against a lot of great competition in both high school and on the EYBL circuit. Offensively, he excels in the open court by attacking the paint and creating offense for himself and others. He is an explosive athlete whose competitiveness and toughness impressed our staff. We certainly feel like he has the ability to impact the game on both ends of the floor while at Clemson."
• He played for Team Durant on the EYBL Circuit and averaged 10.8 points, 4.5 assists and 3.5 rebounds per game.
• Jones chose Clemson over Arizona State, Oregon, Seton Hall and West Virginia.
• Buckner is a 6-2, 175-pound combo guard who ranks as a three-star, according to On3. Buckner is the son of former Littlejohn Legend Greg Buckner who played for the Tigers from 1994-98.
• Averaged 8.8 points per game with All Ohio Red on the EYBL Circuit. Buckner boasted nearly a 2:1 assist/turnover ratio through 24 games on the circuit. He exploded for a 29-point performance at Peach Jam in July.
• "Ace is another combo guard who is comfortable playing with or without the basketball in his hands. He's an excellent on-ball defender who, with strength, will excel at that end of the floor. Offensively, he can make threes off the bounce or catch and has a quick first step which helps him play in the paint. As a legacy, he has always had a dream to play at Clemson and we couldn't be more excited about the opportunity to add a player of his caliber."

SEASON OPENING DOMINANCE
• With a win Winthrop on Nov. 6, 2023, Clemson has won 38-out-of-39 games (38-1) to open a season, which dates back to the 1985-86 season.

• The only other Clemson centers to score at least 28 points in a game since 1992 are Trevor Booker and Chris Hobbs. Booker did it twice in 2007-08, in consecutive games against Charlotte (32) and Florida State (29). Booker also had a 31-point game as a senior against Western Carolina, but he was a power forward that year. Raymond Sykes was the center in 2009-10.

-- BOBBY CONRAD (1976-80) --

FORMER TIGER ROBERT (BOBBY) CONRAD APPOINTED DIRECTOR OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE OF U.S. COURTS
WASHINGTON, D.C. — Chief Justice John G. Roberts Jr., today announced the appointment of Judge Robert J. Conrad Jr., as the Director of the Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts, effective March 1, 2024. He will succeed Judge Roslynn R. Mauskopf who has served as Director since February 1, 2021, and who will retire from the Federal Judiciary on January 31, 2024.

Conrad was a letterman on the Clemson basketball team between 1976-77 and 1979-80. His senior year he was the starting point guard on the only Clemson men's basketball team in history to reach the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament.

The native of Glen Ellyn, Ill. was an Academic All-American and was named the ACC's James Weaver Award Winner as the league's top student-athlete over all sports. Additionally, he won Clemson University's Norris Medal as the school's Outstanding Student.

Judge Conrad graduated magna cum laude from Clemson University in 1980, and earned his law degree from the University of Virginia School of Law.

Conrad was inducted into the Clemson Athletic Hall of Fame in 1993 and received a Distinguished Service Award from the Clemson Alumni Association in 2015.

The Director of the Administrative Office is the chief administrative officer of the federal courts.

The Director serves under the direction of the Judicial Conference of the United States, the principal policy-making body for the federal court system. The Chief Justice is the presiding officer of the Conference, which is composed of the chief judges of the 13 courts of appeals, a district judge from each of the 12 geographic circuits, and the chief judge of the Court of International Trade. The Chief Justice selects the Director.

"I welcome Judge Conrad to his new position. His long service to our branch in many important capacities makes him well-suited to lead the AO in tackling the issues that the Judiciary faces now and in the years ahead."

Judge Conrad currently serves as a Senior Judge of the United States District Court for the Western District of North Carolina. Appointed to the bench in June 2005, Judge Conrad served as Chief Judge from 2006 to 2013. Prior to taking the bench, Judge Conrad served for fifteen years in the United States Attorney's Office for the Western District of North Carolina including as the United States Attorney from 2001 to 2004.

In accepting this appointment, Judge Conrad said, "I am grateful and humbled by Chief Justice Roberts' selection of me to serve as Director of the Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts. I will strive for excellence in the performance of this role. Over my nearly 20 years of service as a judge, I have witnessed the devotion to the rule of law and the sacrificial commitment to serve the judiciary extended by the men and women of the Judicial Branch. I look forward to working with them to meet the challenges ahead."

In accordance with 28 U.S.C. §133(b), Judge Conrad will assume full-time responsibility for the management of the Administrative Office, which has over 1,000 employees, and for providing administrative support to 2,400 judicial officers, and over 28,000 court employees and Federal Defender employees. He will serve as liaison for the Judicial Branch in its relations with Congress, including working with congressional committees to secure the Judiciary's annual appropriation and executing the Judiciary's budget.
