CAROLINA VS. CLEMSON
 "BIG THURSDAY" OCTOBER 24, 1957
 CAROLINA STADIUM, COLUMBIA, SOUTH CAROLINA

Hoping to maintain a 61-year tradition that there will be no downpour during the game, the weatherman says it will be cloudy throughout the game with continued occasional drizzles but no steady downpour. The temperature is near 70° with the wind blowing from the southwest at 10-12 miles per hour. The crowd for the "Big Thursday" classic will exceed 43,000, the largest gathering ever to see a football game in South Carolina.

South Carolina's co-captains for today's game are Julius Derrick (85) and Nelson Weston (66). Co-captains for Clemson are John Grdijan (63) and Loon Kaltonbach (65).

The co-captains met at mid-field, South Carolina won the toss, electing to receive and Clemson will defend the south goal.

COACH GIESE'S COMMENT

Gamcock football coach, Warren Gieso, shook his head grimly after the game and exclaimed, "We just got licked by a better football team...licked badly."

COACH HOWARD'S COMMENT

It was just a case of good blocking and tackling. I thought that this was probably our best all-round game of the season and the boys played it to the hilt. We had them pretty well defended and I thought our ends especially played an outstanding game. Every end we put in there exceptionally well, but Fow and Masneri were the ones. Masneri was an All-American today.

Actually, I thought this game was one of the easiest ones I've ever hand down here. The boys were ready and that made it easy on us on the sidelines.

White and Barbary called a good game and White brought us out of holes several times with fine runs. If you want to single any one out though, just say all of the boys I played.
