Coach Ray Graves said following the game:

With the exception of our game with Georgia Tech last season, I feel this was the most important victory the Gators have had since I became the coach. This is a fine Clemson team that will certainly be a factor in the outcome of the Atlantic Coast Conference. Our players said that Clemson is the toughest team they have played against in the past two seasons.

The play of our experienced boys was exceptional, I felt, and I feel like the lack of a great many mistakes by either the sophomores or the older players was the main difference in the ball game.

As you know, I prefer not to single out individual players until I have had time to study the game films and evaluate them individually in their overall performance. Naturally, everyone who saw the game knows that our great little quarterback was marvelous. You will remember I remarked at the end of spring training that his passing was much improved. Ringgold's kicking was a big factor; in fact the kicking by both teams was outstanding. Werntz could easily be among the national leaders this year.

The poise of the Florida players pleased me. They were very cool in some difficult situations.

You saw the homerun plays work for us today, and you will see this kind of play tried by us all this year. I was proud of our offense and our ability to score the big ones.

Statement by Coach Frank Howard of Clemson

I don't think they are any better than we are and I wouldn't mind playing them every week, be it here, Valdosta, Jacksonville, or any place.

I thought our boys did a good job and with the exception of about five mistakes, we could have won. Three of the mistakes were fumbles and the other two was our safety man being outrun by Florida pass receivers. Course, everybody knew they had more speed than we did. Those fumbles will kill you.

Someone asked Howard what he thought was his biggest break of the game and he said he didn't think Clemson was overburdened with breaks today.

When asked to comment about Liberatore, Howard said he thought he was a good little quarterback, but if you fellas are trying to get me to say he's the best I've ever seen, you're not going to do it because I've seen better ones than him. He's a fine boy though, a good competitor, he's good for the team by being able to give it a lift when he's in there. I'd give him a scholarship at Clemson next week year if he'll come up there.

I think we're going to be all right. There're certain changes we'll make next week, but I was pretty well pleased with my ball club. But fumbles, fumbles, fumbles...

Coach Ray Graves said following the game:

With the exception of our game with Georgia Tech last season, I feel this was the most important victory the Gators have had since I became the coach. This is a fine Clemson team that will certainly be a factor in the outcome of the Atlantic Coast Conference. Our players said that Clemson is the toughest team they have played against in the past two seasons.

The play of our experienced boys was exceptional, I felt, and I feel like the lack of a great many mistakes by either the sophomores or the older players was the main difference in the ball game.

As you know, I prefer not to single out individual players until I have had time to study the game films and evaluate them individually in their overall performance. Naturally, everyone who saw the game knows that our great little quarterback was marvelous. You will remember I remarked at the end of spring training that his passing was much improved. Ringgold's kicking was a big factor; in fact the kicking by both teams was outstanding. Werntz could easily be among the national leaders this year.

The poise of the Florida players pleased me. They were very cool in some difficult situations.

You saw the homerun plays work for us today, and you will see this kind of play tried by us all this year. I was proud of our offense and our ability to score the big ones.

Statement by Coach Frank Howard of Clemson

I don't think they are any better than we are and I wouldn't mind playing them every week, be it here, Valdosta, Jacksonville, or any place.

I thought our boys did a good job and with the exception of about five mistakes, we could have won. Three of the mistakes were fumbles and the other two was our safety man being outrun by Florida pass receivers. Course, everybody knew they had more speed than we did. Those fumbles will kill you.

Someone asked Howard what he thought was his biggest break of the game and he said he didn't think Clemson was overburdened with breaks today.

When asked to comment about Liberatore, Howard said he thought he was a good little quarterback, but if you fellas are trying to get me to say he's the best I've ever seen, you're not going to do it because I've seen better ones than him. He's a fine boy though, a good competitor, he's good for the team by being able to give it a lift when he's in there. I'd give him a scholarship at Clemson next week year if he'll come up there.

I think we're going to be all right. There're certain changes we'll make next week, but I was pretty well pleased with my ball club. But fumbles, fumbles, fumbles...
