CLEMS ON POST GAME COMMENTS

Coach Frank Howard, happy for the win, thought it was a "very tough" game and he was "very thankful to win."

"I thought we played pretty good, and there might have times this year when we played better. Frankly, I'm glad they (Carolina) had a good game against us."

When asked about his second unit, Howard said "they've been just as good as the first one all year long."

"We didn't change a thing during halftime. The captain (Tracy Childers) talked to them a little bit, but we didn't change anything in the way of offense or defense. We just started hitting a little harder."

Asked about fumbles, ~~Howard~~ Howard said "In a game like this you're all tense and keyed up and that might have been causing them."

"We've had better games, but I imagine this was their best game of the season."

Howard got off on his boy, Jimmy, and said: "He's been a remarkable boy. I don't think any farther could be any prouder of a son than I am of him. He does his job on the field. He makes good grades and ~~if~~ if every player was like him, this would be an easy game to coach."

Howard was about 15 ^{MINUTES} ~~later~~ getting in the Clemson dressing room talking to reporters. But when he did enter the team gave him 15 rabs.

Captain Tracy Childers, with tears streaming down his face, went around and shook every players' hand.

Howard tooted his whistle and said: "I really appreciate the way you've done this year. At ~~mid~~ ^{mid} seasons, most teams would have folded up. But you are a courageous bunch. I appreciate the way you've played. I've had a lot of fun coaching you. God bless all of you.

Jimmy Bell was happy to win but took the blame for South Carolina scoring the last touchdown. Vic Aliffi said "if the breaks hadn't gone their way, we'd won by three touchdowns. You just don't come from that bad to that good in one week's ~~time~~ time."

BASS POST GAME STATEMENT:

We missed two first downs by inches and that hurt us but we had to gamble and go for the first down. When you're the underdog you've got to gamble.

We didn't win but I think we played as hard as we could. If we'd played that way all year we would be one of the best teams in the Atlantic Coast Conference. Today we played what is considered by many as the top team in the ACC and look how close we came. We've got to dedicate ourselves to playing that way all of next year. We deserved better than we got this year.

Parker had another good day for Clemson, his third straight against us and I'm glad we don't have to play against him again. Crain is a fine fullback and certainly deserving of his All-ACC rating.

This was another great South Carolina-Clemson game, almost as great as last year and the year before.

CLEMS ON POST GAME COMMENTS

Coach Frank Howard, happy for the win, thought it was a "very tough" game and he was "very thankful to win."

"I thought we played pretty good, and there might have times this year when we played better. Frankly, I'm glad they (Carolina) had a good game against us."

When asked about his second unit, Howard said "they've been just as good as the first one all year long."

"We didn't change a thing during halftime. The captain (Tracy Childers) talked to them a little bit, but we didn't change anything in the way of offense or defense. We just started hitting a little harder."

Asked about fumbles, ~~Howard~~ Howard said "In a game like this you're all tense and keyed up and that might have been causing them."

"We've had better games, but I imagine this was their best game of the season."

Howard got off on his boy, Jimmy, and said: "He's been a remarkable boy. I don't think any farther could be any prouder of a son than I am of him. He does his job on the field. He makes good grades and ~~if~~ if every player was like him, this would be an easy game to coach."

Howard was about 15 ^{MINUTES} ~~later~~ getting in the Clemson dressing room talking to reporters. But when he did enter the team gave him 15 rabs.

Captain Tracy Childers, with tears streaming down his face, went around and shook every players' hand.

Howard tooted his whistle and said: "I really appreciate the way you've done this year. At ~~mid~~ ^{mid} seasons, most teams would have folded up. But you are a courageous bunch. I appreciate the way you've played. I've had a lot of fun coaching you. God bless all of you.

Jimmy Bell was happy to win but took the blame for South Carolina scoring the last touchdown. Vic Aliffi said "if the breaks hadn't gone their way, we'd won by three touchdowns. You just don't come from that bad to that good in one week's ~~time~~ time."

BASS POST GAME STATEMENT:

We missed two first downs by inches and that hurt us but we had to gamble and go for the first down. When you're the underdog you've got to gamble.

We didn't win but I think we played as hard as we could. If we'd played that way all year we would be one of the best teams in the Atlantic Coast Conference. Today we played what is considered by many as the top team in the ACC and look how close we came. We've got to dedicate ourselves to playing that way all of next year. We deserved better than we got this year.

Parker had another good day for Clemson, his third straight against us and I'm glad we don't have to play against him again. Crain is a fine fullback and certainly deserving of his All-ACC rating.

This was another great South Carolina-Clemson game, almost as great as last year and the year before.
