CLEMSON BASKETBALL HEADLINES

CLEMSON vs. NEW MEXICO

• Clemson will open the 2024 NCAA Tournament against New Mexico. This will mark the first time that both teams have matched up in program history.

CLEMSON BASKETBALL HEADLINES

• PJ Hall Is An All-American — The senior center earned First Team All-ACC honors after garnering Preseason First Team All-ACC honors.
  • Hall becomes a two-time All-ACC player in his four year career after earning Third Team honors last season.
  • Hall was named to the John R. Wooden Award Preseason Top 50 Watch List, the Midseason Top 25 Watch List and was recently upgraded to the Late Season Top 20 Watch List for his play this season. Named to 2023-24 Lute Olson Midseason Watch List.
  • Hall was named a finalist for the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Award (Nation's best center).
  • Hall is just the fourth Tiger to amass 1,600+ points, 600+ rebounds and 100+ blocks in a career (Trevor Booker, Elden Campbell, Dale Davis). He became the 12th player in Clemson history to reach 1,500 career points at Syracuse (2/10). He moved into the Top 10 of Clemson's all-time scoring list against Pitt (2/27).
  • 29 20-point games and one 30-point game in his career and posted 36-straight double-digit scoring games (ended 2/24 vs. FSU).
  • He is one of four players in America averaging 18.5 points, 6.5 rebounds, 1.5 blocks and 1.5 assists per game.
  • Seventh double-double of the season vs. Pittsburgh with 12 points and 10 rebounds. 14th career double-double.
  • When PJ Hall scored 31 points against Georgia Tech on Jan. 16, he became the first Clemson center to score at least 30 in a game since Jan. 16, 1991 when Dale Davis scored 32 against Western Carolina. Thats right 33 years to the day. Hall's 31 points vs. the Yellow Jackets was the first 30 point game for a Clemson center in an ACC game since Feb. 15, 1987 when Horace Grant scored 30 against Georgia Tech. Thats right, the same school.
  • Hall was named ACC Player of the Week (Dec. 4) for his performances at Alabama and Pittsburgh. The first of his career.
  • Scored 17 points and totaled seven rebounds in the championship game against Davidson. Earned Tournament MVP honors.
  • Followed up season opener 20-point performance with 27 points and nine rebounds in a win vs. UAB.

• Joseph Girard III Is All-ACC Honorable Mention — Third all-time in ACC history for 3-pointers made (393). Reached 2,000 career points at Syracuse (2/10) with an 18-point performance in his return.

  • Tied career-high with nine rebounds at Memphis (12/16) — had nine rebounds against Notre Dame on 1-22-20.
  • Has nine 20-point games this season and made multiple 3-pointers in 11 consecutive games from Nov. 12-Jan 3.
  • He's posted 28 games with multiple 3-pointers, including 13 where he's connected on four or more.

  • Schieffelin's 31 rebounds over a two-game period were the most by a Tiger since the 1998-99 season. Tom Wideman had 17 rebounds in an NIT quarterfinal game against Butler on March 18, 1999, then had 15 against Xavier in the NIT semifinals in Madison Square Garden on March 23, 1999.

• Second Time in 69 Years — For the second time in 69 years Clemson has a 600-point scorer and a 500-point scorer in the same season.
  • PJ Hall (603) and Joseph Girard III (501) have eclipsed both plateaus for the first time in program history since the 1954-55 season.
  • The last and only time this occurred for the Tigers was done by Bill Yarborough (651) and Vince Yockel (547) during that campaign.
  • Yarborough holds the single season record for points (tied with Horace Grant's 1986-87 season) and Yockel's is 17th in history.

CLEMSON'S NCAA HISTORY
• This is Clemson's 14th appearance in the NCAA Tournament. The Tigers have a 11-13 record in games played on the court. Clemson has advanced to the Elite Eight once (1980) and the Sweet 16 four of the previous 13 appearances (1990, 1997 and 2018 in addition to 1980). Clemson's appearance in the 1990 tournament was later vacated when freshman Wayne Buckingham was ruled academically ineligible. (Had the NCAA Clearinghouse been in place at the time, it would not have been an issue.) Buckingham later graduated from Clemson. Thus the 2-1 record from 1990 is vacated and the official record is 9-11.
• This is Clemson's first NCAA appearance since 2021 when Head Coach Brad Brownell took the Tigers to the Big Dance during the COVID season of 2020-21.
• Brownell took Clemson to just its fourth Sweet 16 in program history in 2018.
• Clemson won its first two rounds against New Mexico State and Auburn to advance. The Tigers topped NMSU 79-68 in round one and then demolished Auburn 84-53 (largest victory margin by a lower seeded team in NCAA history). The Tigers fell to Kansas in the Sweet 16, 80-76.

• Gabe DeVoe put on a show in 2018, recording one of the best tournament performances by a Tiger in Clemson history.
• DeVoe scored the third-most points (75), which produced the best scoring average in Clemson NCAA Tournament history (25.0 per game).
• He scored a career-high 31 points against Kansas in the Sweet 16 - marking the most by a Tiger in his final game since Larry Nance had 34 vs. Temple in a NIT game on March 12, 1981.
• Prior to that performance, Kansas had not had an opponent score 30+ points in a game since Nov. 22, 2016 when Yante Maten of Georgia scored 30.
• In 2011, Clemson won its first round game in Dayton that year against UAB and then lost to West Virginia in Tampa. Clemson made four consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances between 2008-11, three under Oliver Purnell and one under Brownell. Clemson made three straight appearances under Rick Barnes from 1996-98.
• When Clemson was chosen for the tournament in 2008 it was the first time in 10 years Clemson had been selected.
• Brad Brownell was the first Clemson coach to take the Tigers to the NCAA Tournament in his first year when the Tigers advanced in 2011. When Brownell and the Tigers defeated UAB in 2011 it broke a five-game NCAA Tournament losing streak.
• Prior to 2018, Clemson last advanced to the final 32 of the NCAA Tournament in 1997 when Clemson reached the Sweet 16 with wins over Miami (OH) and Tulsa at a region in Kansas City. Clemson then lost to Minnesota in double overtime in a game in San Antonio in the round of 16.
• Clemson has 11 NCAA Tournament wins and eight of the 11 have taken place in the Central, Mountain or Pacific time zones. Clemson has just three wins in the Eastern time zone (Hartford in 1990 and Dayton in 2011).
• Clemson's first appearance was in 1980 and the Tigers advanced to the Elite Eight in that first appearance. Clemson defeated Utah State and BYU (and Danny Ainge) at Ogden, UT, then defeated Lamar (coached by Billy Tubbs) in Tucson, AZ before losing to UCLA (coached by Larry Brown) in the Elite Eight by 11 points. That is still the furthest Clemson has gotten in the tournament.

FOUR TIGERS HAVE NCAA TOURNAMENT EXPERIENCE
• This marks Clemson's second trip to the Big Dance in the last four years and the third in the seven.
• Chase Hunter and PJ Hall were both members of the Tigers' 2021 NCAA Tournament team that finished 16-8 in a COVID shortened season, including 10-6 in ACC play.
• The Tigers played Rutgers in the first round of the tournament in Indianapolis, falling 60-56.
• Hunter played 15 minutes, finishing 1-for-5 from the field with two points and one assist. Hall played just nearly two minutes and collected a rebound.
• Obviously both players were in their infancy in the program and have blossomed into All-Conference caliber players.
• New to the program this season, Joseph Girard III, boasts NCAA Tournament experience from the same postseason as Hunter and Hall.
• Girard, then playing for Syracuse in his sophomore season,

CLEMSON NOT UNFAMILIAR WITH FEDEXFORUM

• Clemson played in FedexForum on Dec. 16, 2023 on the road against Memphis during the regular season.

• Despite the loss to the Tigers in blue, the Tigers in orange shot nearly 50.0 percent from the floor (30-61) and finished with four players scoring in double-figures.

• PJ Hall (21), Chauncey Wiggins (career high 19), Chase Hunter (13) and Ian Schieffelin (11) netted double-figures.

• Schieffelin totaled a double-double in that game with 11 points and 11 rebounds. He also added a team-best six assists.

• Joseph Girard III scored eight points, dished four assists and tied his career high with nine rebounds.

CLEMSON'S SIX WINS IN FEBRUARY ARE MOST SINCE 1990

• Clemson finished the month of February with a 6-2 record, the most wins in the month since the Tigers went 8-0 in 1990.

• The Tigers have won six or more games in the month of February just eight times since joining the ACC in 1953-54.

• The six wins are tied for the fourth-most in program history in the month of February, but the .750 win percentage is tied for third-best.

CLEMSON HAS NINE WINS AWAY FROM HOME

• One of the reasons Clemson had a strong NCAA Tournament resume this year was its performance away from home. Clemson is 6-6 on the opponent home court and 3-1 at neutral sites for a 9-7 record away from home. The road wins include victories at No. 1 seed North Carolina and No. 4 seed Alabama. Clemson also beat TCU and UAB at neutral sites.

• If Clemson wins two NCAA Tournament games it will tie the school record for wins away from home in a season. That record belongs to Clemson's 1996-97 team that was 11-7 away from home, 6-4 away and 5-3 at neutral site. It should be pointed out that the 1996-97 team reached the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament, to record the 10th and 11th wins away from home that year, which this year's team has a chance to also accomplish.

• The win was just Clemson's second in program history on the road against a Top 3 opponent in the AP Poll. The last time was an 82-77 win at Maryland on Jan. 21, 1976.

• Clemson's streak of 19 consecutive games with more assists than turnovers is the longest for a Clemson in history and ended in game #20 against Louisville (13/13). The previous best for a Tiger team was the 1982-83 season when then Head Coach Bill Foster's Tigers had a streak of 13 consecutive games. That streak took place from the Jan. 24, 1983 Georgia Tech game through the March 5, 1983 Illinois-Chicago game.
• There has been just one other streak of seven games over the last 40 years and that came in 1983-84 when Clemson had a seven-game streak. The Tigers led the nation in assists per game that year with 20.39.
• Clemson has 312 assists and 210 turnovers so far this season for a 1.49 ratio. That is ahead of the Clemson single season record of 1.48 set during the 1980-81 season. Clemson is averaging 15.6 assists per game, the most on a per game basis since the 1989-90 Clemson team averaged 17.2 per contest.

CLEMSON HELD RADFORD TO JUST 13 TOTAL REBOUNDS
• In Clemson's victory over Radford, the Tigers held the Highlanders to just 13 total rebounds and outrebounded them overall by 32 (45-13).
• The +32 rebounding was tied for the fourth-best in a single game in program history.
• The 13 rebounds allowed were the lowest by the program since Dec. 29, 2007 when the Tigers allowed 11 to Samford in a 78-45 win.
• Note that the date was exactly 16 years ago to the day and it was a 30-point victory that also moved a Clemson team to 11-1 before the New Year.

OFFENSIVE ONSLAUGHT VS. QUEENS
• Clemson turned it up more than it has in a long time offensively in a 109-79 win over Queens (12/22/23).
• Clemson tied a school record with 69 first half points. The Tigers previously had 69 in the first half against Boston College on 12-28-76.
• It was the third-highest scoring half in Clemson history. The record is 72.
• Clemson's 109 points was the most in the Brownell Era and the most in a game since 118 in a triple OT win vs. Wake Forest on 2-13-02. It was the most in regulation since 120 at Charleston Southern on 12/1/93.
• In the first half, Clemson shot 71.1 percent —a new high mark in the Brownell Era.

CLEMSON GOT OFF TO BEST START SINCE 2008-09
• Clemson won its first nine games before a loss at Memphis, its best start under Brad Brownell and its best start since beginning 16-0 in 2008-09. Clemson had such a strong start and had played just four of the nine games at home. The Tigers were 4-0 at home, 2-0 on the opponent's home court and 3-0 at neutral sites, including the Dec. 9 win over TCU in Toronto during that stretch.
• This marked the 12th start of 9-0 or better in Clemson history, but just the fourth time Clemson has done it by playing just four games or fewer at home. Clemson won its first nine games in 2008-09 and did it by going 4-0 at home, 2-0 on the road and 3-0 at neutral site, the exact same W-L line as this year.
• Clemson went 17-0 to start 2006-07 and had a 4-0 mark at home, 3-0 on the road and 2-0 at neutral site in this first nine games. Back in 1934-35 the Tigers started 9-0 and six of the nine wins were on the road. That Clemson team finished 15-3.

SCHIEFFELIN PULLS IN 17 REBOUNDS AT PITTSBURGH -
MOST BY A TIGER IN ALMOST 16 YEARS
• Clemson forward Ian Schieffelin had 17 rebounds in Clemson's victory at Pittsburgh on December 3, 2023, the most by a Clemson player under Brad Brownell and the most in any game since Trevor Booker had 17 at East Carolina on December 5, 2009.
• Schieffelin had a 14-rebound effort at Alabama the previous game on November 28. Those two individual efforts were big reasons Clemson won at Alabama and Pittsburgh and allowed the Tigers to stay even on the boards at Alabama and +7 at Pittsburgh. Alabama and Pittsburgh were both among the last 25 teams in the nation in rebounding with margins of at least +10 rebounds per game entering those contests.
• Schieffelin's 31 rebounds over a two-game period were the most by a Tiger since the 1998-99 season. Tom Wideman had 17 rebounds in an NIT quarterfinal game against Butler on March 18, 1999, then had 15 against Xavier in the NIT semifinals in Madison Square Garden on March 23, 1999.

TIGERS POST CONSECUTIVE ROAD WINS
• Clemson posted consecutive road victories, 85-77 at Alabama (Nov. 28) and 79-70 at Pittsburgh (Dec. 3) in the ACC opener. This marks the first time since November 29-December 2, 2006 that Clemson has recorded road wins over Power 6 Conference schools by at least eight points in the same week.
• The last time it happened the Tigers won at Miami (Fla.) on November 29, 2006 by a 90-68 score, then defeated South Carolina in Columbia on December 2, 2006 by a 74-53 count.
• Last year on Jan 4-7, Clemson defeated Virginia Tech (68-65) and Pittsburgh (75-74) in consecutive road games, but obviously those game were much closer.

SNAPPING STREAKS
• The win over Alabama snapped its 19-game home winning streak and also its 18-game non-conference opponent home winning streak.
• The Tigers improved to 6-0 with the victory —the program's best start since beginning the 2008-09 season 16-0.

CLEMSON'S SECOND NON-CONFERENCE TOP-25 ROAD WIN
IN PROGRAM HISTORY
• Clemson's win over No. 23 Alabama (11/28) was the program's second non-conference ranked true road win in program history.
• The Tigers overcame a 53-46 deficit in the second half, thanks to a 13-0 run and beat the Crimson Tide 85-77 to win its first-ever game in the ACC/SEC Challenge.
• Head Coach Brad Brownell has both of Clemson's victories on the road against Top-25 non-conference opponents.

CLEMSON SIGNS THREE FOR 2024-25; CLASS RANKS 20TH NATIONALLY

- Head Coach Brad Brownell and his staff added Dallas Thomas (Little Rock, Ark./Parkview Magnet), Del Jones (Largo, Md./AZ Compass Prep) and Ace Buckner (Cleveland, Ohio/La Lumiere School) to the Clemson University men's basketball program on Nov. 8. All three signed letters of intent to play for the Tigers beginning in 2024-25.
- The Clemson recruiting class ranks 20th nationally, according to 247Sports, and is fourth in the Atlantic Coast Conference. Thomas and Jones join PJ Hall (Spartanburg, S.C./Dorman) in the 247Sports' top five rated Clemson recruits of all time.
- "I'm excited about the addition of Dallas, Del and Ace to our basketball family. These are three talented players who help solidify our backcourt and perimeter positions. Their an athletic group whose versatility should allow them to play multiple positions and blend well with our team."
- Thomas is a 6-9, 180-pound four-star forward who ranks as the No. 67 overall prospect and second in Arkansas in the 2024 class. He is the No. 24 small forward in the class, according to On3. As a junior, Thomas nearly averaged a double-double with 16.5 points and 9.4 rebounds along with 2.3 assists and 2.1 blocks. He was named to the SBLive Arkansas All-State Second Team.
- "Dallas is a highly skilled forward with tremendous length that allows him to score at all three levels. I love his size and versatility, which will give me the opportunity to utilize him in a variety of ways in our system. Dallas has a great feel for the game and high IQ, having the benefit of being raised by a father who was a good Division I college player and was coached in high school by Arkansas legend Scottie Thurman."
- Thomas chose Clemson over Arkansas, LSU, Memphis and Missouri.
- Jones is a 6-2, 180-pound four-star point guard and ranks as the No. 66 overall player and No. 14 point guard according to ESPN. He ranks No. 90 overall and No. 7 point guard in the 2024 class, according to 247Sports.

Offensively, he excels in the open court by attacking the paint and creating offense for himself and others. He is an explosive athlete whose competitiveness and toughness impressed our staff. We certainly feel like he has the ability to impact the game on both ends of the floor while at Clemson."
- He played for Team Durant on the EYBL Circuit and averaged 10.8 points, 4.5 assists and 3.5 rebounds per game.
- Jones chose Clemson over Arizona State, Oregon, Seton Hall and West Virginia.
- Buckner is a 6-2, 175-pound combo guard who ranks as a three-star, according to On3. Buckner is the son of former Littlejohn Legend Greg Buckner who played for the Tigers from 1994-98.
- Averaged 8.8 points per game with All Ohio Red on the EYBL Circuit. Buckner boasted nearly a 2:1 assist/turnover ratio through 24 games on the circuit. He exploded for a 29-point performance at Peach Jam in July.
- "Ace is another combo guard who is comfortable playing with or without the basketball in his hands. He's an excellent on-ball defender who, with strength, will excel at that end of the floor. Offensively, he can make threes off the bounce or catch and has a quick first step which helps him play in the paint. As a legacy, he has always had a dream to play at Clemson and we couldn't be more excited about the opportunity to add a player of his caliber."

CONSECUTIVE 20-POINT GAMES TO OPEN A SEASON

• PJ Hall scored 20 points in a season-opening win over Winthrop on Nov. 6 and then followed it up with a 27-point performance in a 77-76 win over UAB in the first round of the 2023 Asheville Championship.

• Hall became the first player since 1999-00 to accomplish the feat, which was done by Will Solomon. Before that, it had been since 1986-87 when the Tigers' lone ACC Player of the Year, Horace Grant, netted 20+ in games against Georgia State and Boston University.

• In total, Clemson has had six players accomplish this with just one that has advanced the streak past two games.

• The record is held by Bill Yarborough during the 1954-55 season. He scored 20+ points in the first 16 games of the season from Dec. 1 to Feb. 5.

HALL SCORES CAREER HIGH 31 VS. GEORGIA TECH

• PJ Hall scored 31 points in the Tigers 93-90 double-overtime loss to Georgia Tech (1/16). It set a new career high and was just the seventh game of at least 28 points by a Clemson center in the last 30 years.

• The game also marked Hall's 11th career double-double.

• The only other Clemson centers to score at least 28 points in a game since 1992 are Trevor Booker and Chris Hobbs. Booker did it twice in 2007-08, in consecutive games against Charlotte (32) and Florida State (29). Booker also had a 31-point game as a senior against Western Carolina, but he was a power forward that year. Raymond Sykes was the center in 2009-10.

-- BOBBY CONRAD (1976-80) --

FORMER TIGER ROBERT (BOBBY) CONRAD APPOINTED DIRECTOR OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE OF U.S. COURTS

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Chief Justice John G. Roberts Jr., today announced the appointment of Judge Robert J. Conrad Jr., as the Director of the Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts, effective March 1, 2024. He will succeed Judge Roslynn R. Mauskopf who has served as Director since February 1, 2021, and who will retire from the Federal Judiciary on January 31, 2024.

Conrad was a letterman on the Clemson basketball team between 1976-77 and 1979-80. His senior year he was the starting point guard on the only Clemson men's basketball team in history to reach the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament.

The native of Glen Ellyn, Ill. was an Academic All-American and was named the ACC's James Weaver Award Winner as the league's top student-athlete over all sports. Additionally, he won Clemson University's Norris Medal as the school's Outstanding Student.

Judge Conrad graduated magna cum laude from Clemson University in 1980, and earned his law degree from the University of Virginia School of Law.

Conrad was inducted into the Clemson Athletic Hall of Fame in 1993 and received a Distinguished Service Award from the Clemson Alumni Association in 2015.

The Director of the Administrative Office is the chief administrative officer of the federal courts.

The Director serves under the direction of the Judicial Conference of the United States, the principal policy-making body for the federal court system. The Chief Justice is the presiding officer of the Conference, which is composed of the chief judges of the 13 courts of appeals, a district judge from each of the 12 geographic circuits, and the chief judge of the Court of International Trade. The Chief Justice selects the Director.

"I welcome Judge Conrad to his new position. His long service to our branch in many important capacities makes him well-suited to lead the AO in tackling the issues that the Judiciary faces now and in the years ahead."

Judge Conrad currently serves as a Senior Judge of the United States District Court for the Western District of North Carolina. Appointed to the bench in June 2005, Judge Conrad served as Chief Judge from 2006 to 2013. Prior to taking the bench, Judge Conrad served for fifteen years in the United States Attorney's Office for the Western District of North Carolina including as the United States Attorney from 2001 to 2004.

In accepting this appointment, Judge Conrad said, "I am grateful and humbled by Chief Justice Roberts' selection of me to serve as Director of the Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts. I will strive for excellence in the performance of this role. Over my nearly 20 years of service as a judge, I have witnessed the devotion to the rule of law and the sacrificial commitment to serve the judiciary extended by the men and women of the Judicial Branch. I look forward to working with them to meet the challenges ahead."

In accordance with 28 U.S.C. §133(b), Judge Conrad will assume full-time responsibility for the management of the Administrative Office, which has over 1,000 employees, and for providing administrative support to 2,400 judicial officers, and over 28,000 court employees and Federal Defender employees. He will serve as liaison for the Judicial Branch in its relations with Congress, including working with congressional committees to secure the Judiciary's annual appropriation and executing the Judiciary's budget.

-- CLEMSON'S NCAA TOURNAMENT HISTORY --

-- 1980 --

• 1980: The first time the Clemson Tigers entered the NCAA tournament turned out to be the deepest run in program history. Bill Foster's Tigers advanced to the Regional Final (Final Eight) before falling to UCLA, who went on finish as the national runner-up to Louisville.

• Clemson opened the tournament with a 76-73 win over Utah State in Ogden, UT. Billy Williams, first-team All-ACC that year, led Clemson with 22 points, while Larry Nance chipped in with 13 points and nine rebounds. Bobby Conrad, who drew 24 charges that season, drew yet another from Rich McElrath with nine seconds left and Clemson ahead by a 75-73 margin. Conrad hit one free throw to ice the game (no three-point shot then). The Tigers won despite shooting 12-24 from the free throw line.

• Clemson's second round victory over BYU was also close. The Cougars, led by future NBA stars Danny Ainge, Fred Roberts, and Greg Kite, held a 24-11 lead early in the first half and led 42-38 at halftime. BYU led 58-54 with 9:04 remaining before the Tigers made a comeback. Clemson went on an 8-2 run to grab the lead at 62-60 with 4:20 remaining on a jumper by Williams. Clemson was able to hold on down the stretch, running the "Tiger Paws" offense. The Tigers missed three one-and-ones in the last minute and shot 9-17 in the game, but won thanks to a strong defense. The Tigers won by a final score of 71-66, as Williams led the Tigers with 24 points and eight assists, while Larry Nance added 16 points and 11 rebounds.

• The Tigers took on Lamar and coach Billy Tubbs in the Sweet Sixteen at the University of Arizona and won by a score of 74-66. Clemson trailed by eight with 10 minutes remaining, but again came back, as a Chris Dodds layup with 7:48 left put the Tigers ahead for good. Nance led the Tigers with his second consecutive 16-point, 11-rebound game, while Moose Campbell added 15 points and 12 rebounds. Williams chipped in with 12 and Fred Gilliam added 10 off the bench. The Tigers made all six free throws attempted in the final 1:21, despite shooting 10-19 prior. It set up the first meeting between Clemson and UCLA, who was coached by former North Carolina player Larry Brown.

• The Bruins and Tigers squared off in a nationally televised contest on NBC for the right to play in the Final Four. Clemson and UCLA were even for much of the first half, but the Bruins closed the first half on a 17-5 run over the final 5:07 to take a 46-35 lead at intermission. The two teams scored 39 points apiece in the second half and Bruins held on to win, 85-74. Williams led the Tigers with 18 points, while Nance and Gilliam poured in 13 each. Nance was named to the All-West Regional after averaging 14.4 points over four contests. Nance remains the only player in Clemson history named to an NCAA All-Regional Team.

-- 1987 --

• 1987: The Tigers entered the 1987 tournament as a #4 seed with a 25-5 record against Charlie Spoonhour's Southwest Missouri State Bears. The 13th-seeded Bears knocked out the Tigers 65-60 by holding second-team All-American Horace Grant to 16 points on only 11 field goal attempts. Michael Brown was 6-7 from the field for 14 points, but it wasn't enough. The Tigers shot 54 percent from the field, 83.3 percent from the line, and 45.5 percent from behind the arc and still lost. Winston Garland led the Bears with 24 points. Clemson point guard Grayson Marshall was limited by a sprained ankle, an injury that was a contributing factor to Clemson losing four of its last five games that year after a 24-2 start.

• 1989: Clemson traveled to Boise, ID to play St. Mary's of California in the first round. Dale Davis and Elden Campbell had a coming out party, as the "Duo of Doom" combined to shoot 17-23 for 38 points and rack up 16 rebounds in the Tigers' 83-70 win. David Young was 5-7 behind the arc and scored 19 points for Clemson, who shot 60 percent from the field and 60 percent from three-point range.

• The Tigers were then charged with taking on #1 Arizona. The Wildcats, led by Sean Elliot and future long time major-leaguer Kenny Lofton, defeated Clemson 94-68, the Tigers worst loss in NCAA Tournament history in terms of margin. Campbell had 24 points and Derrick Forrest added 21, but Arizona held Davis to just two points and five rebounds. Arizona forced 22 Clemson turnovers while only committing nine themselves. Elliot paced Arizona with 25 points, while Lofton added eight points and four assists.

• 1990: The Tigers earned a #5 seed in the East Regional after winning the ACC regular-season championship for the first time in history. The Tigers found themselves in a game with the BYU Cougars in Hartford, the same school Clemson played and defeated in the 1980 Tournament. Clemson again emerged victorious by a close 49-47 margin. Elden Campbell led the Tigers with 15 points. Both teams shot 33.3 percent from the field and the Tigers made only 14-30 from the free throw stripe. BYU had a last shot at the basket, but it missed as time expired and the Tigers advanced.

• In the second round, the Tigers took on a LaSalle team that entered the game with only one loss and featured All-American Lionel Simmons. Simmons lived up to his billing, pouring in 28 points, including 15 in the first half, as the Explorers jumped out to a 43-27 lead, which swelled to as large as 19 in the second half. The Tigers still trailed by 11 with 12 minutes remaining, but the Tigers went on an 11-0 run to knot the game at 55. LaSalle jumped back up by five, but the Tigers responded with a 15-3 run to take a 70-62 with 2:08 left, highlighted by a Marion Cash layup off a Davis steal. Davis, who had given his team a tongue-lashing at halftime before the coaches entered the room, led Clemson with 26 points and 17 rebounds. Sean Tyson added 17 points and 11 rebounds as the Tigers advanced to take on UCONN in the Sweet Sixteen.

• Clemson met Connecticut, the third-ranked team in the nation and a number-one seed, at the Meadowlands in East Rutherford, NJ. Once again, Clemson trailed 38-29 at the half. The Huskies had the lead as high as 19 points at 59-40 at the 12:36 mark. With five minutes remaining, the Tigers had chipped the deficit to 10. Clemson then went on a 13-2 run culminated by a David Young three-point shot with 12 seconds left, putting the Tigers ahead, 70-69. The Tigers forced a UCONN miss and Sean Tyson got the rebound and was fouled with two seconds remaining. However, he missed the front end of the one-and-one and UCONN gathered the miss and called its final timeout with one second left. Scott Burrell then inbounded the ball with a 75 foot pass to Tate George, who caught the ball, turned, and shot in one second. The ball went through the hoop at the buzzer for a 71-70 Connecticut win. Dale Davis led the Tigers with 15 points and 17 rebounds, while Clemson shot just 16-25 from the foul line.

• Davis averaged 14.7 rebounds per game in the three games of the tournament and led all rebounders for the entire event on a per game basis. His 14.7 rebound average is still the highest rebound average for any player in the NCAA Tournament since 1977.

-- 1996 --

• 1996: Behind four freshman starters, Rick Barnes' team was chosen as the nine seed in the West Regional. The Tigers took on a Georgia team that started five seniors, a matchup of the oldest team in the field against the youngest. The first half was close throughout with the Bulldogs taking a 26-25 advantage. The first half saw only 51 total points, while in the second half, the two teams combined for 104 points. The Bulldogs were able to outscore the Tigers 55-49 in the half en route to an 81-74 victory. The Tigers led by three with just under six minutes remaining, but an 11-0 run put Georgia on top for good. Greg Buckner led the Tigers with 20 points and seven assists, while freshman Andrius Jurkunas added 19 points and seven boards in the loss.

• 1997: The Tigers got back to their winning ways in the Tournament, downing the Miami (OH) Redskins 68-56 in Kemper Arena in Kansas City, Mo. The win marked Rick Barnes' first-ever victory in the Big Dance. Greg Buckner scored a game-high 22 points on 9-17 shooting and grabbed nine boards. Terrell McIntyre also scored in double figures 10 points. The Tigers only turned the ball over eight times and led by 14 at halftime, 39-25. Tony Christie sparked the Tigers off the bench, adding eight points. The win set up a matchup with Tulsa two days later.

• Tom Wideman pulled down 11 rebounds (eight offensive), while Iker Iturbe added 10 as the Tigers advanced to the Sweet Sixteen with a 65-59 win over Tulsa. Wideman's eight offensive rebounds tied for the most in the Rick Barnes era at Clemson. The team grabbed 23 offensive rebounds, and out-rebounded Tulsa, 49-35. The Tiger defense limited All-America senior Shea Seals to five points, including 0-7 behind the arc. Seals was in foul trouble for much of the game, picking up three fouls before intermission and notching his fourth early in the second half. Clemson was able to overcome a 31.6% clip from the field for the game, including a 22.6% mark in the first half. Remarkably, the Tigers only trailed by three at the break and a second half rally, led by Terrell McIntyre's 16 points and two steals, pushed the Tigers to another Sweet Sixteen berth.

• With the win over Tulsa, the Tigers advanced to San Antonio for their first Sweet 16 since 1990, where they would square off with Minnesota, who had won the same matchup earlier in the season in Puerto Rico. The result was a classic double-overtime thriller in which the Tigers came up short, 90-84. Bobby Jackson (36) and Sam Jacobson (29) combined for 65 points for the third-ranked Gophers. Greg Buckner paced the Tigers with 22 points, while McIntyre added 17. Mohammed Woni played his best game of the season and had a career-high 12 points, including 10-10 from the line, while Tom Wideman added 10 points and 10 boards in the loss. Tony Christie gave the Tigers new life sending the game to overtime on a buzzer-beater, his only field goal of the game. Clemson took a six-point lead in the first overtime, only to see Minnesota come back to tie. Jackson missed a shot as time expired in the first overtime to extend the game. The Gophers then outscored the Tigers 10-4 in the second overtime to advance to the Final Eight, 90-84.

• 1998: The Tigers entered the 1998 Tournament as the sixth seed in the Midwest Regional after a semifinal loss to #1 ranked Duke in the ACC Tournament by two points. The Tigers drew Western Michigan in Chicago, IL. WMU's Saddi Washington (24) and Rashod Johnson (32) led the Broncos to a 75-72 win over the Tigers. Five Tigers scored in double figures, led by Harold Jamison's 14 points and 10 rebounds. WMU led by 12 at halftime. The Tigers made a strong comeback, but couldn't overcome the Broncos' 11-24 (.458) shooting from behind the arc. Johnson hit 8-15 on his own. Terrell McIntyre put together a solid all-around game, notching 10 points, seven assists, six rebounds, and four steals. Ultimately, Western Michigan was able to pull out a three-point victory, shocking the 21,711 in attendance in Chicago.

-- 2008 --

• 2008: Villanova outscored Clemson 48-30 in the second half and went on to a 75-69 win over the Tigers in the first round of the 2008 NCAA Tournament in Tampa, Fla. Clemson was seeded fifth and Villanova was seeded 12th, as the Tigers were coming off a run to the championship game of the ACC tournament and were ranked 22nd in the final AP poll. Clemson jumped out to a 36-18 lead with five minutes left in the first half, then Villanova cut the margin to 39-27 at halftime. By the first media timeout of the second half the Wildcats had cut the lead to three and had the lead at 50-49 with 11:58 left on a long three-point goal by Scottie Reynolds. The game was close the rest on the contest and the Tigers trailed by just 67-66 with 1:37 left. But Villanova went on an 8-3 run to close the game and won by six. K.C. Rivers led Clemson with 15 points, while Demontez Stitt made 4-4 three-point goals and scored 14. Reynolds led Villanova with 21 points, while Corey Fisher added 17. Clemson made just 9-33 three-point shots and 14-23 free throws. Villanova made 11-17 shots in the second half and hit 22-27 from the foul line. Villanova did a good job defending on the inside as the Clemson combination of Trevor Booker and James Mays got just five combined field goal attempts.

• 2009: Trevor Booker scored 18 points, but the Tigers shot just 32 percent from the field overall, including just 5-22 three-point shots in a 62-59 loss to Michigan in the first round of the 2009 NCAA Tournament at Kansas City, MO. The loss ended Clemson's season with a record of 23-9. Michigan played a zone defense most of the game, the first time Clemson had seen a zone in quite some time. Manny Harris led Michigan with 21 points.

• Sparked by consecutive 3-pointers by Andre Young and another by K.C. Rivers, the Tigers used a 14-0 run to make it 58-57 with just over a minute left. Clemson still had a chance after Michigan's Zack Novak hit just 1 of 2 free throws with 13 seconds left, but K.C. Rivers' contested 3-pointer at the buzzer was well short.

• The Tigers missed 17 of their first 21 shots and shot 9-of-33 in the first half, missing all but two of their 12 3-pointers, yet trailed by just 27-24 at intermission.

• Clemson won the rebound margin 44-33 behind 11 rebounds by Booker, but still lost. Michigan made 10-26 three-point goals and that 15-point margin in points off three-point goals had a lot to do with the final margin.

-- 2010 --

• 2010: Clemson lost to Missouri, 86-78 in a matchup of teams with similar styles. The game was played in Buffalo, NY on March 19, 2010. Demontez Stitt scored 21 points and Andre Young added 19 to lead the Tigers. The two guards combined to make 9-14 three-point shots in the contest. Jerai Grant added 12 points and six rebounds, while Trevor Booker scored 11 points, had 11 rebounds and five assists.

• Clemson lost the battle of the presses, as Missouri forced Clemson into 20 turnovers and committed just nine turnovers on offense. Kim English and Keith Ramsey each scored 20 points for Missouri, who had 15 steals on defense, five by guard J.T. Tiller.

• The two teams were tied at 39-39 at halftime, but Missouri won the second half, 47-39. Clemson won the rebound margin 41-30 and made 12-24 three-point shots, but still lost the game.

• The difference was Missouri's ability to turn the Tigers over, and break Clemson's press to score easy baskets. Missouri shot 52 percent from the field for the game. Missouri won the points off turnover stat 20-5. Clemson cut the lead to 82-78 with 41 seconds left, but could get no closer.

-- 2011 --

• 2011: Jerai Grant scored a career-best 22 points and the fast-starting Tigers built a double-figure Tuesday night lead and never backed off in beating Alabama-Birmingham 70-52 in a First Four game at the University of Dayton. There was little time to celebrate. The Tigers hurried to catch a flight to their second-round game against fifth-seeded West Virginia (20-11) on Thursday afternoon in Tampa, Fla. The Tigers had to play their next game in Tampa less than 36 hours later. Clemson did not arrive in Tampa until 5 a.m. Wednesday, then had the first game on Thursday at noon.

• Grant, who hit 10 of 15 shots from the field and also grabbed seven rebounds to lead Clemson. Tanner Smith and Devin Booker each had 10 for Clemson.. The win was its first in the NCAA tournament since the 1997 team advanced to the round of 16.Ahead 39-27 at the break, Clemson never let the Blazers draw closer than eight points in the second half.

• Clemson' season ended that Thursday afternoon with an eight point loss to fifth seed West Virginia, who had eight days of rest before playing the Tigers. Andre Young led Clemson with 22 points, while Demontez Still, playing in his last game for Clemson, had 16. Clemson had a 12 point lead in the first half, but obviously ran out of energy due to the quick turnaround.

-- 2018 --

• 2018: Clemson got back to their winning ways in the Tournament, downing New Mexico State 79-68 in San Diego, Calif. The win marked Head Coach Brad Brownell's second win in the NCAA Tournament. Shelton Mitchell scored a team-high 23 points, while teammate Gabe DeVoe was right behind him with 22. DeVoe made a team-best 10 field goals. Marcquise Reed chipped in 15 in the victory. Elijah Thomas led the team in rebounding with 10 boards. The Tigers shot 55.9 percent from the floor, including 60.0 percent on two-point goals and 42.9 percent from three. The win set up a contest with the fourth-seeded Auburn Tigers.

• Clemson's dominant performance against Auburn in the second round was one for the record books. The Tigers boatraced the other Tiger squad in the first half, leading to a 43-19 lead. At one point, the game was 70-29 in favor of Clemson. The 84-53 victory proved to be the largest victory margin for a lower seed over a higher seed in NCAA Tournament history. Gabe DeVoe turned in another 20-point effort finishing with 22, while Elijah Thomas posted 18 points and 11 rebounds, Marcquise Reed scored 16 and grabbed seven boards and Shelton Mitchell tallied 10 with six rebounds and six assists. Clemson shot 47.5 percent from the floor and 38.5 percent from three (10-for-26). Clemson limited Auburn to just 25.8 percent shooting, including 21.9 percent from three. With the win, Clemson would advance to the Sweet 16 round for the first time since 1997.

• In the Sweet 16, Clemson faced the No. 1 seed Kansas Jayhawks. The pod of teams in the Midwest Regional by chance happed to be three-of-four ACC teams: Clemson, Duke and Syracuse. In his final game as a Tiger, Gabe DeVoe turned in the best performance of his career. The senior scored a career-high 31 points on 10-for-17 shooting and added nine rebounds and three assists. He came the first 30-point scorer against the Jayhawks since the 2015-16 season. Clemson found themselves down by as many 20 points in the second half, but a 49-point second period provided a furious rally by the Tigers. A 26-12 run to help the Tigers pull to within four would not be enough and the Tigers' season would end in Omaha, Neb. to Kansas, 80-76.

• 2021: Aamir Simms scored 15 points, while Clyde Trapp added 14 and Hunter Tyson totaled 10 in a 60-56 loss to Rutgers in the first round of the 2021 NCAA Tournament in Indianpolis, Ind. The loss ended Clemson's season with a record of 16-8.

• Clemson led for 15:23 of the contest and led at halftime 26-23, but couldn't find enough baskets down the stretch.
