CLEMSON BASKETBALL HEADLINES

• Just the second team in Clemson history to reach Elite 8 of NCAA Tournament, first time in 44 years. Accomplished this as a No. 6 seeded team in West regional, same seed and regional as the 1980 Clemson team. According to research by CBS Sports, the 44 years in between Elite 8 appearances is the fourth longest in the history of the tournament. The longest is a 54-year stretch by Loyola (Chicago).

• Defeated No. 3 seed Baylor and No. 2 seed Arizona in the NCAA Tournament. Win over No. 3 seed Baylor was best seed Clemson has beaten in NCAA Tournament since 1980. Then topped that with win over No. 2 Arizona that was the best seed Clemson has beaten in the NCAA Tournament.

• Had three players (PJ Hall, Chase Hunter, Ian Schieffelin) named to NCAA All-Regional team, most in one year in Clemson history. Had just two selections total previously (Larry Nance, 1980, Gabe Devoe, 2018).

• Clemson won its first three games of the NCAA Tournament as the underdog, the first team to do that since 1985.

• Clemson defeated nine NCAA Tournament teams, six in the regular season and three in the tournament, the most in a season in school history. Seven of the nine wins were recorded away from home, most in a season in school history.

• Recorded 12 wins away from home, an all-time school record for one season. Had six wins on opponent's home court, six wins on neutral sites.

• The 12 wins away from home included seven vs. NCAA Tournament teams, most in one season in Clemson history.

• Had five wins during the regular season against non-conference teams that reached the NCAA Tournament, most in one season in school history.

• Had five road ACC wins, tied for the most in a season in Clemson history.

• Won at North Carolina for just the second time in school history, the first road win over a ranked North Carolina team. Clemson had lost 37 straight in Chapel Hill to Top 25 North Carolina teams.

• The win at No. 3 North Carolina was the second highest ranked road win in Clemson history (beat No. 2 Maryland on road in 1975-76).

• Win at North Carolina was the first win for Clemson (anywhere) against a team that would become a No. 1 seed since 1997 (Kentucky) and just the fourth time ever Clemson has beaten a team that would go on to be a No. 1 seed (also UNC 1979 and UNC 1994).

• Recorded four wins over top 25 teams (beat No. 23 Alabama, No. 3 North Carolina, No. 14 Baylor and No. 9 Arizona). All four wins were away from home, the most wins away from home over Top 25 teams in one season in school history.

• The wins over No. 14 Baylor and No. 9 Arizona in the NCAA Tournament marked the first time Clemson has beaten Top 25 teams in consecutive games since Jan. 13-16, 2016 when the Tigers defeated No. 9 Duke and No. 8 Miami. Both were recorded on Clemson's then home court in Greenville, S.C. (Littlejohn was being renovated that year).

• The wins over No. 14 Baylor and No. 9 Arizona in consecutive games marked the first time Clemson has won consecutive games away from home over Top 25 teams since Jan. 17-21, 1975 when Clemson won at No. 5 Wake Forest in Winston-Salem (86-81) and at No. 2 Maryland (82-77).

• Recorded six wins in the month of February, most February wins in a season since 1990.

• Won 24 games, tied for fourth most in school history and just one off of school record of 25.

• Won 47 games over the last two years, two short of school record of 49 over consecutive years in 2006-07 and 2007-08.

• Won 25 ACC games over the last two years, school record for consecutive years, previous mark was just 20.

• Recorded back-to-back seasons of at least 10 ACC wins, a first in Clemson history.

• Back-to-back winning seasons in ACC for first time since a four-year run, 2007-08 through 2010-11.

• 10 ACC Road wins over the last two seasons, most in consecutive years in school history.

• Had a first-team All-ACC player in consecutive years for the first time ever. Hunter Tyson in 2022-23 and PJ Hall in 2023-24.

• Clemson limited New Mexico to just 29.7 percent shooting - the second lowest for a Clemson team in tournament history (Record is 25.8 percent vs. Auburn on 3/18/18). The 29.7 percent shooting for New Mexico was its lowest of the 2023-24 season — by a considerable margin. Their previous low was 35.4 percent in a three point loss to UNLV on Feb. 10.

• Clemson held New Mexico to 56 points, the Lobos fewest points in a game all year. The previous low was 58 in a game against Boise State.

• Clemson held Jamal Mashburn, Jr. (10th) and Jaelen House (11th), two of the top 11 scorers in New Mexico history, to a combined 18 points in 5-25 shooting from the field and 2-14 on three-point shooting.

• The Tigers were led once again by Chase Hunter who finished with 20 points and six assists. Despite leading by 15 points late in the second half, the No. 14 ranked and No. 3 seeded Bears made a run, but the Tigers never relinquished. Hunter netted his third 20-point game of the year and second in a row after a game-high 21 points on 8-of-16 shooting from the floor against New Mexico and another 20-point outing against Baylor.

• Ian Schieffelin totaled his 10th and 11th double-doubles of the season with 16 points and 12 rebounds against New Mexico and 18 points and 11 rebounds against Alabama. With his 11th double-double, Schieffelin is just the second Clemson player to record double figures in double-doubles in a season since 2008-09. Hunter Tyson did it last year with 16, but that is the only other player to do it since Trevor Booker had 13 double-doubles in 2008-09. Schieffelin also had 17 double-digit rebounding games last season and 19 for his career.

• PJ Hall earned consecutive All-ACC honors, by earning First Team recognition in 2023-24. He was named Third Team in 2022-23. It was the first time in program history that Clemson has had First Team selections in back-to-back years (Hunter Tyson, 2023).

• Ian Schieffelin was named the program's second ACC Most Improved Player of the Year (Jaron Blossomgame, 2016).

NOTES

CLEMSONGRIT

Program Definition: Passion and perseverance toward a long-term goal.

Culture of Commitment: Integrity, Work Ethic, Sacrifice

» Instituted in 2016-17, the program embodies a workman-like culture and blue collar work ethic.

"Grit, passion and perseverance toward a long-term goal and that can be applied to many things. It's not just about a season. It might be a college career. It might be a professional career. It might be graduating from college. It can pertain to just about anything. You need to have tremendous passion for something in your life if you want to be successful." - Head Coach Brad Brownell

CLEMSON HAS 47 WINS OVER LAST TWO YEARS
• Clemson had a 23-11 record last year and finished 24-12 this year. That is a 47-23 record over the last two years. The 47 wins is the most in consecutive years in the Brad Brownell Era, as Clemson had 45 wins over consecutive years in 2017-18 and 2018-19. Prior to that year you have to go back to 2007-08 and 2008-09 when Clemson had 47 wins in a two year period. The record is 49 in back-to-back years in 2006-07 and 2008-08.
• Clemson has already set the school mark for ACC wins over consecutive seasons. Clemson was 14-6 in the ACC last year and 11-9 this year, giving the Tigers a 25-15 mark in the league over the last two years. The previous record for ACC wins over consecutive years was 19.

CLEMSON IS ONE OF 24 SCHOOLS TO ACHIEVE AT LEAST ONE SWEET 16 AND ONE ELITE EIGHT IN SEPARATE YEARS SINCE 2018
• Clemson's run to the Elite Eight in 2024 moved them into a formidable category of teams that have made a Sweet 16 and Elite Eight in separate years since 2018.
• The Tigers are one of 24 schools to do so and just one of five ACC schools to make the cut. Clemson, Duke, North Carolina, Florida State and Miami (Fla.).

TIGERS ADVANCE TO SWEET 16 FOR FIFTH TIME
• Clemson advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament for the fifth time in its history with the victory over Baylor. Clemson reached the Elite 8 in 1980 under Bill Foster in its first NCAA Tournament appearance, then reached the Sweet 16 in 1990 under Cliff Ellis before losing on a buzzer shot against UConn, 71-70. Clemson also reached the Sweet 16 under Rick Barnes in 1997 with wins over Miami (Oh.) and Tulsa, before losing to Minnesota in double overtime.
• Clemson returned to the Sweet 16 in 2018 under Brad Brownell with wins over New Mexico State and Auburn. With the wins over New Mexico and Baylor, Brownell is the first Clemson coach to take two teams to the Sweet 16.

CLEMSON HAS SIX NCAA TOURNAMENT WINS AS LOWER SEED
• Clemson evened its overall NCAA Tournament record at 14-14 with the victories over New Mexico, Baylor and Arizona. Clemson has won six of those games under Brad Brownell, who is now 6-4 in NCAA Tournament games at Clemson. Brownell and Bill Foster (3-1) are the only Clemson coaches with a winning record in the NCAA Tournament.
• Clemson recorded its sixth NCAA Tournament win as a lower seed than its opponent with its win over No. 2 seed Arizona.
• Clemson recorded its first win as a lower seed in 1980 when No. 6 Clemson defeated No. 3 BYU and star guard Danny Ainge, 71-66.
• Clemson recorded its second victory as a lower seed in 1989 when the No. 9 seed Clemson defeated No. 8 seed St. Mary's, 83-70.
• Clemson gained another win as a lower seed the next year (1990) when the No. 5 Tigers defeated No. 4 seed LaSalle in the second round, 79-75.
• It would be until 2018 before Clemson won as a lower seed when the No. 5 Clemson Tigers defeated the No. 4 Auburn Tigers in the second round, 84-53.
• Clemson's fifth win as a lower seed came when No. 6 Clemson defeated No. 3 Baylor.

CLEMSON HAS 11 WINS AWAY FROM HOME, THREE OVER AP TOP 25 TEAMS
• With the victory over Baylor, Clemson now has 11 wins away from home this year, tied for the most in Clemson history. The 1996-97 Clemson team under Rick Barnes had an 11-7 record away from home that year and recorded its 11th win away from home by winning a second round NCAA Tournament game in Kansas City.
• So far this year Clemson is 6-6 on the opponent's home court and 5-1 at neutral sites for an 11-7 record away from home. Clemson's only neutral site loss this year is against Boston College in the ACC Tournament, so the Tigers are 5-0 away from home against non-conference opponents this year.

CLEMSON'S NCAA HISTORY
• This was Clemson's 14th appearance in the NCAA Tournament. The Tigers now have a 14-14 record in games played on the court, including two victories this season in Memphis over New Mexico and Baylor to advance to the Tigers' fifth Sweet 16. Clemson has advanced to the Elite Eight once (1980) and the Sweet 16 five times (1990, 1997, 2018 and 2024 in addition to 1980). Clemson's appearance in the 1990 tournament was later vacated when freshman Wayne Buckingham was ruled academically ineligible. (Had the NCAA Clearinghouse been in place at the time, it would not have been an issue.) Buckingham later graduated from Clemson. Thus the 2-1 record from 1990 is vacated and the official record is 12-13.
• This was Clemson's first NCAA appearance since 2021 when Head Coach Brad Brownell took the Tigers to the Big Dance during the COVID season of 2020-21.
• Brownell took Clemson to the Sweet 16 in 2018 and is the only coach in program history to go to two.
• In 2018, Clemson won its first two rounds against New Mexico State and Auburn to advance. The Tigers topped NMSU 79-68 in round one and then demolished Auburn 84-53 (largest victory margin by a lower seeded team in NCAA history). The Tigers fell to Kansas in the Sweet 16, 80-76.
• Gabe DeVoe put on a show in 2018, recording one of the best tournament performances by a Tiger in Clemson history.
• DeVoe scored the third-most points (75), which produced the best scoring average in Clemson NCAA Tournament history (25.0 per game).
• He scored a career-high 31 points against Kansas in the Sweet 16 - marking the most by a Tiger in his final game since Larry Nance had 34 vs. Temple in a NIT game on March 12, 1981.
• Prior to that performance, Kansas had not had an opponent score 30+ points in a game since Nov. 22, 2016 when Yante Maten of Georgia scored 30.
• In 2011, Clemson won its first round game in Dayton that year against UAB and then lost to West Virginia in Tampa. Clemson made four consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances between 2008-11, three under Oliver Purnell and one under Brownell. Clemson made three straight appearances under Rick Barnes from 1996-98.
• When Clemson was chosen for the tournament in 2008 it was the first time in 10 years Clemson had been selected.
• Brad Brownell was the first Clemson coach to take the Tigers to the NCAA Tournament in his first year when the Tigers advanced in 2011. When Brownell and the Tigers defeated UAB in 2011 it broke a five-game NCAA Tournament losing streak.
• Prior to 2018, Clemson last advanced to the final 32 of the NCAA Tournament in 1997 when Clemson reached the Sweet 16 with wins over Miami (OH) and Tulsa at a region in Kansas City. Clemson then lost to Minnesota in double overtime in a game in San Antonio in the round of 16.
• Clemson has 14 NCAA Tournament wins and 11 of the 14 have taken place in the Central, Mountain or Pacific time zones. Clemson has just three wins in the Eastern time zone (Hartford in 1990 and Dayton in 2011).

• Clemson's first appearance was in 1980 and the Tigers advanced to the Elite Eight in that first appearance. Clemson defeated Utah State and BYU (and Danny Ainge) at Ogden, UT, then defeated Lamar (coached by Billy Tubbs) in Tucson, AZ before losing to UCLA (coached by Larry Brown) in the Elite Eight by 11 points. That is still the furthest Clemson has gotten in the tournament.

TIGERS SET RECORD FOR HAVING MORE ASSISTS THAN TURNOVERS

• Clemson's streak of 19 consecutive games with more assists than turnovers is the longest for a Clemson in history and ended in game #20 against Louisville (13/13). The previous best for a Tiger team was the 1982-83 season when then Head Coach Bill Foster's Tigers had a streak of 13 consecutive games. That streak took place from the Jan. 24, 1983 Georgia Tech game through the March 5, 1983 Illinois-Chicago game.

• There has been just one other streak of seven games over the last 40 years and that came in 1983-84 when Clemson had a seven-game streak. The Tigers led the nation in assists per game that year with 20.39.

• Clemson has 312 assists and 210 turnovers so far this season for a 1.49 ratio. That is ahead of the Clemson single season record of 1.48 set during the 1980-81 season. Clemson is averaging 15.6 assists per game, the most on a per game basis since the 1989-90 Clemson team averaged 17.2 per contest.

GAMES CLEMSON HAS POSTED TWO 25+ POINT SCORERS

• Clemson's PJ Hall (26) and Joseph Girard III (26) each posted over 25 points in the Tigers' 89-78 win over Boston College (1/13).

• It was the first time since Jan. 28, 2023 that two players for Clemson have had 25 or more points in a game. Hunter Tyson (27) and Chase Hunter (26).

• Since 1996-97 it has only happened three times in program history, per Stats Peform.

GAMES A PLAYER HAS POSTED AT LEAST 15 POINTS, 10 REBOUNDS, 4 STEALS AND BLOCKS IN A GAME

• Clemson's Ian Schieffelin is the first Tiger to post a stat line of at least 15 points, 10 rebounds, four steals and four blocks in a single game dating back to the 1996-97 season.

• Furthermore, he is just the 10th player in the ACC to do so in that same time span, per Stats Perform.

• The last Tiger player that had at least 16 points, 11 rebounds, four steals and four blocks in a game was Sharone Wright who had 21 points, 13 rebounds, four steals and six blocks on 12-30-92 against Mercer.

CLEMSON HELD RADFORD TO JUST 13 TOTAL REBOUNDS

• In Clemson's victory over Radford, the Tigers held the Highlanders to just 13 total rebounds and outrebounded them overall by 32 (45-13).

• The +32 rebounding was tied for the fourth-best in a single game in program history.

• The 13 rebounds allowed were the lowest by the program since Dec. 29, 2007 when the Tigers allowed 11 to Samford in a 78-45 win.

• Note that the date was exactly 16 years ago to the day and it was a 30-point victory that also moved a Clemson team to 11-1 before the New Year.

OFFENSIVE ONSLAUGHT VS. QUEENS

• Clemson turned it up more than it has in a long time offensively in a 109-79 win over Queens (12/22/23).

• Clemson tied a school record with 69 first half points. The Tigers previously had 69 in the first half against Boston College on 12-28-76.

• It was the third-highest scoring half in Clemson history. The record is 72.

• Clemson's 109 points was the most in the Brownell Era and the most in a game since 118 in a triple OT win vs. Wake Forest on 2-13-02. It was the most in regulation since 120 at Charleston Southern on 12/1/93.

• In the first half, Clemson shot 71.1 percent —a new high mark in the Brownell Era.

CLEMSON GOT OFF TO BEST START SINCE 2008-09

• Clemson won its first nine games before a loss at Memphis, its best start under Brad Brownell and its best start since beginning 16-0 in 2008-09. Clemson had such a strong start and had played just four of the nine games at home. The Tigers were 4-0 at home, 2-0 on the opponent's home court and 3-0 at neutral sites, including the Dec. 9 win over TCU in Toronto during that stretch.

• This marked the 12th start of 9-0 or better in Clemson history, but just the fourth time Clemson has done it by playing just four games or fewer at home. Clemson won its first nine games in 2008-

CLEMSON WINS OUTSIDE THE UNITED STATES AGAINST TCU

• Clemson played its first ever game in Canada and beat TCU, 74-66, on December 9 in Toronto. It was Clemson's first regular season game outside the U.S. since November 21, 2018 when the Tigers played the third of three games against Creighton in the championship game of a tournament in the Cayman Islands.

• Overall, Clemson is now 20-9 in games outside the United States. The first took place in the season opener of the 1987-88 season when the Tigers defeated Oregon State, 69-54 in Taiwan. Clemson played just one official game on that trip, but also had two exhibition games against foreign teams.

• Brad Brownell has a 7-3 record in games played outside the United States. He also has taken two Clemson teams to the Virgin Islands.

SCHIEFFELIN PULLS IN 17 REBOUNDS AT PITTSBURGH - MOST BY A TIGER IN ALMOST 16 YEARS

- Clemson forward Ian Schieffelin had 17 rebounds in Clemson's victory at Pittsburgh on December 3, 2023, the most by a Clemson player under Brad Brownell and the most in any game since Trevor Booker had 17 at East Carolina on December 5, 2007.
- Schieffelin had a 14-rebound effort at Alabama the previous game on November 28. Those two individual efforts were big reasons Clemson won at Alabama and Pittsburgh and allowed the Tigers to stay even on the boards at Alabama and +7 at Pittsburgh. Alabama and Pittsburgh were both among the top 25 teams in the nation in rebounding with margins of at least +10 rebounds per game entering those contests.
- Schieffelin's 31 rebounds over a two-game period were the most by a Tiger since the 1998-99 season. Tom Wideman had 17 rebounds in an NIT quarterfinal game against Bulter on March 18, 1999, then had 15 against Xavier in the NIT semifinals in Madison Square Garden on March 23, 1999.

TIGERS POST CONSECUTIVE ROAD WINS

- Clemson posted consecutive road victories, 85-77 at Alabama (Nov. 28) and 79-70 at Pittsburgh (Dec. 3) in the ACC opener. This marks the first time since November 29-December 2, 2006 that Clemson has recorded road wins over Power 6 Conference schools by at least eight points in the same week.
- The last time it happened the Tigers won at Miami (Fla.) on November 29, 2006 by a 90-68 score, then defeated South Carolina in Columbia on December 2, 2006 by a 74-53 count.
- Last year on Jan 4-7, Clemson defeated Virginia Tech (68-65) and Pittsburgh (75-74) in consecutive road games, but obviously those game were much closer.

SNAPPING STREAKS

- The win over Alabama snapped its 19-game home winning streak and also its 18-game non-conference opponent home winning streak.
- The Tigers improved to 6-0 with the victory —the program's best start since beginning the 2008-09 season 16-0.

CLEMSON'S SECOND NON-CONFERENCE TOP-25 ROAD WIN IN PROGRAM HISTORY

- Clemson's win over No. 23 Alabama (11/28) was the program's second non-conference ranked true road win in program history.
- The Tigers overcame a 53-46 deficit in the second half, thanks to a 13-0 run and beat the Crimson Tide 85-77 to win its first-ever game in the ACC/SEC Challenge.
- Head Coach Brad Brownell has both of Clemson's victories on the road against Top-25 non-conference opponents.

School) to the Clemson University men's basketball program on Nov. 8. All three signed letters of intent to play for the Tigers beginning in 2024-25.
• The Clemson recruiting class ranks 20th nationally, according to 247Sports, and is fourth in the Atlantic Coast Conference. Thomas and Jones join PJ Hall (Spartanburg, S.C./Dorman) in the 247Sports' top five rated Clemson recruits of all time.
• "I'm excited about the addition of Dallas, Del and Ace to our basketball family. These are three talented players who help solidify our backcourt and perimeter positions. Their an athletic group whose versatility should allow them to play multiple positions and blend well with our team."
• Thomas is a 6-9, 180-pound four-star forward who ranks as the No. 67 overall prospect and second in Arkansas in the 2024 class. He is the No. 24 small forward in the class, according to On3. As a junior, Thomas nearly averaged a double-double with 16.5 points and 9.4 rebounds along with 2.3 assists and 2.1 blocks. He was named to the SBLive Arkansas All-State Second Team.
• "Dallas is a highly skilled forward with tremendous length that allows him to score at all three levels. I love his size and versatility, which will give him the opportunity to utilize him in a variety of matchups in our system. Dallas has a great feel for the game and high IQ, having the benefit of being raised by a father who was a good Division I college player and was coached in high school by Arkansas legend Scottie Thurman."
• Thomas chose Clemson over Arkansas, LSU, Memphis and Missouri.
• Jones is a 6-2, 180-pound four-star point guard and ranks as the No. 66 overall player and No. 14 point guard according to ESPN. He ranks No. 90 overall and No. 7 point guard in the 2024 class, according to 247Sports.

• "Ace is another combo guard who is comfortable playing with or without the basketball in his hands. He's an excellent on-ball defender who, with strength, will excel at that end of the floor. Offensively, he can make threes off the bounce or catch and has a quick first step which helps him play in the paint. As a legacy, he has always had a dream to play at Clemson and we couldn't be more excited about the opportunity to add a player of his caliber."

• Clemson forward Ian Schieffelin produced his fifth career double-double in a monster game against North Carolina (1/6). He posted 16 points and 11 rebounds, in addition to five steals and four blocks. He was the first player in the country to accomplish that feat this season and just the eighth since 2010 to do so.
• Ian Schieffelin secured his fourth career double-double at Miami (Fla.) (1/3) and the third of his current campaign with 11 points and 11 rebounds.
• He posted his third career double-double and second of the season at Memphis (12/16). He had 11 points and 11 rebounds.
• He posted his second career double-double in a 72-67 win over South Carolina on Dec. 6, 2023. He had 12 points and 12 rebounds.
• He had 17 rebounds in Clemson's victory at Pittsburgh on December 3, 2023, the most by a Clemson player under Brad Brownell and the most in any game since Trevor Booker had 17 at East Carolina on December 5, 2007.
• Schieffelin had a 14-rebound effort at Alabama the previous game on November 28. Those two individual efforts were big reasons Clemson won at Alabama and Pittsburgh and allowed the Tigers to stay even on the boards at Alabama and +7 at Pittsburgh.

Alabama and Pittsburgh were both among the top 25 teams in the nation in rebounding with margins of at least +10 rebounds per game entering those contests.
• Schieffelin's 31 rebounds over a two-game period were the most by a Tiger since the 1998-99 season. Tom Wideman had 17 rebounds in an NIT quarterfinal game against Butler on March 18, 1999, then had 15 against Xavier in the NIT semifinals in Madison Square Garden on March 23, 1999.
• Ian Schieffelin tied his career high with 14 rebounds in an 85-77 win at Alabama (11/28). He's the 12th Clemson player since 2010-11 to post at least 14 rebounds in a game and just the fifth to do it in a true road game.

SCHIEFFELIN IN 2022-23
• Schieffelin demolished his previous career high with a 20 point performance on 9-of-13 shooting from the floor in the season opener against The Citadel in 2022 (11/6/22)
• The nine made field goals also served as a career high.
• Schieffelin had a monster night on the boards, tallying a career-best 14 rebounds. He secured a career-best nine on the offensive glass.
• The nine offensive rebounds were the most for a Tiger since James Mays had 10 at Maryland on Jan. 13, 2007.
• It was the most by a Tiger in Littlejohn since Sharrod Ford had 10 vs. Georgia Tech on Feb. 28, 2004.

-- NO. 11 GUARD JOSEPH GIRARD III --

JOSEPH GIRARD III SHINES IN RETURN TO SYRACUSE
• Joseph Girard III made his return to Syracuse on Feb. 10 as a member of the visiting team.

• He finished with a game-high 18 points in the 77-68 win and eclipsed exactly 2,000 points.
• Girard was no stranger to the visiting locker room at the JMA Wireless Dome. He's been in it only twice in his lifetime, but as a high school football player. Both times he won a New York State Championship in football, his teams used the visiting locker room.
• Girard spent four seasons playing at Syracuse for Head Coach Jim Boeheim before transferring to Clemson prior to the 2023-24 season.

GIRARD III ECLIPSES 2,000 POINTS
• Joseph Girard III reached exactly 2,000 career points with an 18-point performance at Syracuse on Feb. 10. Of his 2,000, he's scored 544 as a Clemson Tiger. In four years at Syracuse Girard scored 1,652.
• He became the 17th player in college basketball since 2019-20 to amass 2,000 career points.

GIRARD III RARE CAREER STATISTICAL MARK
• Joseph Girard III has amassed 2,000 points, 400 rebounds, 500 assists, 375 3-pointers. He is just the fourth player since at least the 1992-93 season to achieve this feat.
• He is the lone ACC player on the list.
• Since appearing in his first game as a freshman at Syracuse, Girard III is the second player since 2019-20 to accumulate 2,000 points, 400 rebounds, 500 assists and 375 threes in a career (Max Abmas, Texas).
• With a 23-point performance in an 85-68 win over Boise State, Joseph Girard III went over 1,700 points for his career.
• Girard notched his 300th career 3-pointer in a win over Davidson (11/12) in the 2023 Asheville Championship.

I look forward to working with them to meet the challenges ahead."

In accordance with 28 U.S.C. §133(b), Judge Conrad will assume full-time responsibility for the management of the Administrative Office, which has over 1,000 employees, and for providing administrative support to 2,400 judicial officers, and over 28,000 court employees and Federal Defender employees. -- CLEMSON'S NCAA TOURNAMENT HISTORY --

-- 1980 --

• 1980: The first time the Clemson Tigers entered the NCAA tournament turned out to be the deepest run in program history. Bill Foster's Tigers advanced to the Regional Final (Final Eight) before falling to UCLA, who went on finish as the national runner-up to Louisville.
• Clemson opened the tournament with a 76-73 win over Utah State in Ogden, UT. Billy Williams, first-team All-ACC that year, led Clemson with 22 points, while Larry Nance chipped in with 13 points and nine rebounds. Bobby Conrad, who drew 24 charges that season, drew yet another from Rich McElrath with nine seconds left and Clemson ahead by a 75-73 margin. Conrad hit one free throw to ice the game (no three-point shot then). The Tigers won despite shooting 12-24 from the free throw line.
• Clemson's second round victory over BYU was also close. The Cougars, led by future NBA stars Danny Ainge, Fred Roberts, and Greg Kite, held a 24-11 lead early in the first half and led 42-38 at halftime. BYU led 58-54 with 9:04 remaining before the Tigers made a comeback. Clemson went on an 8-2 run to grab the lead at 62-60 with 4:20 remaining on a jumper by Williams. Clemson was able to hold on down the stretch, running the "Tiger Paws" offense. The Tigers missed three one-and-ones in the last minute and shot 9-17 in the game, but won thanks to a strong defense. The Tigers won by a final score of 71-66, as Williams led the Tigers with 24 points and eight assists, while Larry Nance added 16 points and 11 rebounds.
• The Tigers took on Lamar and coach Billy Tubbs in the Sweet Sixteen at the University of Arizona and won by a score of 74-66. Clemson trailed by eight with 10 minutes remaining, but again came back, as a Chris Dodds layup with 7:48 left put the Tigers ahead for good. Nance led the Tigers with his second consecutive 16-point, 11-rebound game, while Moose Campbell added 15 points and 12 rebounds. Williams chipped in with 12 and Fred Gilliam added 10 off the bench. The Tigers made all six free throws attempted in the final 1:21, despite shooting 10-19 prior. It set up the first meeting between Clemson and UCLA, who was coached by former North Carolina player Larry Brown.

• The Bruins and Tigers squared off in a nationally televised contest on NBC for the right to play in the Final Four. Clemson and UCLA were even for much of the first half, but the Bruins closed the first half on a 17-5 run over the final 5:07 to take a 46-35 lead at intermission. The two teams scored 39 points apiece in the second half and Bruins held on to win, 85-74. Williams led the Tigers with 18 points, while Nance and Gilliam poured in 13 each. Nance was named to the All-West Regional after averaging 14.4 points over four contests. Nance remains the only player in Clemson history named to an NCAA All-Regional Team.

• 1987: The Tigers entered the 1987 tournament as a #4 seed with a 25-5 record against Charlie Spoonhour's Southwest Missouri State Bears. The 13th-seeded Bears knocked out the Tigers 65-60 by holding second-team All-American Horace Grant to 16 points on only 11 field goal attempts. Michael Brown was 6-7 from the field for 14 points, but it wasn't enough. The Tigers shot 54 percent from the field, 83.3 percent from the line, and 45.5 percent from behind the arc and still lost. Winston Garland led the Bears with 24 points. Clemson point guard Grayson Marshall was limited by a sprained ankle, an injury that was a contributing factor to Clemson losing four of its last five games that year after a 24-2 start.

• 1989: Clemson traveled to Boise, ID to play St. Mary's of California in the first round. Dale Davis and Elden Campbell had a coming out party, as the "Duo of Doom" combined to shoot 17-23 for 38 points and rack up 16 rebounds in the Tigers' 83-70 win. David Young was 5-7 behind the arc and scored 19 points for Clemson, who shot 60 percent from the field and 60 percent from three-point range.
• The Tigers were then charged with taking on #1 Arizona. The Wildcats, led by Sean Elliot and future long time major-leaguer Kenny Lofton, defeated Clemson 94-68, the Tigers worst loss in NCAA Tournament history in terms of margin. Campbell had 24 points and Derrick Forrest added 21, but Arizona held Davis to just two points and five rebounds. Arizona forced 22 Clemson turnovers while only committing nine themselves. Elliot paced Arizona with 25 points, while Lofton added eight points and four assists.

• 1990: The Tigers earned a #5 seed in the East Regional after winning the ACC regular-season championship for the first time in history. The Tigers found themselves in a game with the BYU Cougars in Hartford, the same school Clemson played and defeated in the 1980 Tournament. Clemson again emerged victorious by a close 49-47 margin. Elden Campbell led the Tigers with 15 points. Both teams shot 33.3 percent from the field and the Tigers made only 14-30 from the free throw stripe. BYU had a last shot at the basket, but it missed as time expired and the Tigers advanced.
• In the second round, the Tigers took on a LaSalle team that entered the game with only one loss and featured All-American Lionel Simmons. Simmons lived up to his billing, pouring in 28 points, including 15 in the first half, as the Explorers jumped out to a 43-27 lead, which swelled to as large as 19 in the second half. The Tigers still trailed by 11 with 12 minutes remaining, but the Tigers went on an 11-0 run to knot the game at 55. LaSalle jumped back up by five, but the Tigers responded with a 15-3 run to take a 70-62 with 2:08 left, highlighted by a Marion Cash layup off a Davis steal. Davis, who had given his team a tongue-lashing at halftime before the coaches entered the room, led Clemson with 26 points and 17 rebounds. Sean Tyson added 17 points and 11 rebounds as the Tigers advanced to take on UCONN in the Sweet Sixteen.
• Clemson met Connecticut, the third-ranked team in the nation and a number-one seed, at the Meadowlands in East Rutherford, NJ. Once again, Clemson trailed 38-29 at the half. The Huskies had the lead as high as 19 points at 59-40 at the 12:36 mark. With five minutes remaining, the Tigers had chipped the deficit to 10. Clemson then went on a 13-2 run culminated by a David Young three-point shot with 12 seconds left, putting the Tigers ahead, 70-69. The Tigers forced a UCONN miss and Sean Tyson got the rebound and was fouled with two seconds remaining. However, he missed the front end of the one-and-one and UCONN gathered the miss and called its final timeout with one second left. Scott Burrell then inbounded the ball with a 75 foot pass to Tate George, who caught the ball, turned, and shot in one second. The ball went through the hoop at the buzzer for a 71-70 Connecticut win. Dale Davis led the Tigers with 15 points and 17 rebounds, while Clemson shot just 16-25 from the foul line.
• Davis averaged 14.7 rebounds per game in the three games of the tournament and led all rebounders for the entire event on a per game basis. His 14.7 rebound average is still the highest rebound average for any player in the NCAA Tournament since 1977.

-- 1996 --

• 1996: Behind four freshman starters, Rick Barnes' team was chosen as the nine seed in the West Regional. The Tigers took on a Georgia team that started five seniors, a matchup of the oldest team in the field against the youngest. The first half was close throughout with the Bulldogs taking a 26-25 advantage. The first half saw only 51 total points, while in the second half, the two teams combined for 104 points. The Bulldogs were able to outscore the Tigers 55-49 in the half en route to an 81-74 victory. The Tigers led by three with just under six minutes remaining, but an 11-0 run put Georgia on top for good. Greg Buckner led the Tigers with 20 points and seven assists, while freshman Andrius Jurkunas added 19 points and seven boards in the loss.

• 1997: The Tigers got back to their winning ways in the Tournament, downing the Miami (OH) Redskins 68-56 in Kemper Arena in Kansas City, Mo. The win marked Rick Barnes' first-ever victory in the Big Dance. Greg Buckner scored a game-high 22 points on 9-17 shooting and grabbed nine boards. Terrell McIntyre also scored in double figures 10 points. The Tigers only turned the ball over eight times and led by 14 at halftime, 39-25. Tony Christie sparked the Tigers off the bench, adding eight points . The win set up a matchup with Tulsa two days later.
• Tom Wideman pulled down 11 rebounds (eight offensive), while Iker Iturbe added 10 as the Tigers advanced to the Sweet Sixteen with a 65-59 win over Tulsa. Wideman's eight offensive rebounds tied for the most in the Rick Barnes era at Clemson. The team grabbed 23 offensive rebounds, and out-rebounded Tulsa, 49-35. The Tiger defense limited All-America senior Shea Seals to five points, including 0-7 behind the arc. Seals was in foul trouble for much of the game, picking up three fouls before intermission and notching his fourth early in the second half. Clemson was able to overcome a 31.6% clip from the field for the game, including a 22.6% mark in the first half. Remarkably, the Tigers only trailed by three at the break and a second half rally, led by Terrell McIntyre's 16 points and two steals, pushed the Tigers to another Sweet Sixteen berth.
• With the win over Tulsa, the Tigers advanced to San Antonio for their first Sweet 16 since 1990, where they would square off with Minnesota, who had won the same matchup earlier in the season in Puerto Rico. The result was a classic double-overtime thriller in which the Tigers came up short, 90-84. Bobby Jackson (36) and Sam Jacobson (29) combined for 65 points for the third-ranked Gophers. Greg Buckner paced the Tigers with 22 points, while McIntyre added 17. Mohammed Woni played his best game of the season and had a career-high 12 points, including 10-10 from the line, while Tom Wideman added 10 points and 10 boards in the loss. Tony Christie gave the Tigers new life sending the game to overtime on a buzzer-beater, his only field goal of the game. Clemson took a six-point lead in the first overtime, only to see Minnesota come back to tie. Jackson missed a shot as time expired in the first overtime to extend the game. The Gophers then outscored the Tigers 10-4 in the second overtime to advance to the Final Eight, 90-84.

• 1998: The Tigers entered the 1998 Tournament as the sixth seed in the Midwest Regional after a semifinal loss to #1 ranked Duke in the ACC Tournament by two points. The Tigers drew Western Michigan in Chicago, IL. WMU's Saddi Washington (24) and Rashod Johnson (32) led the Broncos to a 75-72 win over the Tigers. Five Tigers scored in double figures, led by Harold Jamison's 14 points and 10 rebounds. WMU led by 12 at halftime. The Tigers made a strong comeback, but couldn't overcome the Broncos' 11-24 (.458) shooting from behind the arc. Johnson hit 8-15 on his own. Terrell McIntyre put together a solid all-around game, notching 10 points, seven assists, six rebounds, and four steals. Ultimately, Western Michigan was able to pull out a three-point victory, shocking the 21,711 in attendance in Chicago.

• 2008: Villanova outscored Clemson 48-30 in the second half and went on to a 75-69 win over the Tigers in the first round of the 2008 NCAA Tournament in Tampa, Fla. Clemson was seeded fifth and Villanova was seeded 12th, as the Tigers were coming off a run to the championship game of the ACC tournament and were ranked 22nd in the final AP poll. Clemson jumped out to a 36-18 lead with five minutes left in the first half, then Villanova cut the margin to 39-27 at halftime. By the first media timeout of the second half the Wildcats had cut the lead to three and had the lead at 50-49 with 11:58 left on a long three-point goal by Scottie Reynolds. The game was close the rest on the contest and the Tigers trailed by just 67-66 with 1:37 left. But Villanova went on an 8-3 run to close the game and won by six. K.C. Rivers led Clemson with 15 points, while Demontez Stitt made 4-4 three-point goals and scored 14. Reynolds led Villanova with 21 points, while Corey Fisher added 17. Clemson made just 9-33 three-point shots and 14-23 free throws. Villanova made 11-17 shots in the second half and hit 22-27 from the foul line. Villanova did a good job defending on the inside as the Clemson combination of Trevor Booker and James Mays got just five combined field goal attempts.

• 2009: Trevor Booker scored 18 points, but the Tigers shot just 32 percent from the field overall, including just 5-22 three-point shots in a 62-59 loss to Michigan in the first round of the 2009 NCAA Tournament at Kansas City, MO. The loss ended Clemson's season with a record of 23-9. Michigan played a zone defense most of the game, the first time Clemson had seen a zone in quite some time. Manny Harris led Michigan with 21 points.

• Sparked by consecutive 3-pointers by Andre Young and another by K.C. Rivers, the Tigers used a 14-0 run to make it 58-57 with just over a minute left. Clemson still had a chance after Michigan's Zack Novak hit just 1 of 2 free throws with 13 seconds left, but K.C. Rivers' contested 3-pointer at the buzzer was well short.

• The Tigers missed 17 of their first 21 shots and shot 9-of-33 in the first half, missing all but two of their 12 3-pointers, yet trailed by just 27-24 at intermission.

• Clemson won the rebound margin 44-33 behind 11 rebounds by Booker, but still lost. Michigan made 10-26 three-point goals and that 15-point margin in points off three-point goals had a lot to do with the final margin.

-- 2010 --

• 2010: Clemson lost to Missouri, 86-78 in a matchup of teams with similar styles. The game was played in Buffalo, NY on March 19, 2010. Demontez Stitt scored 21 points and Andre Young added 19 to lead the Tigers. The two guards combined to make 9-14 three-point shots in the contest. Jerai Grant added 12 points and six rebounds, while Trevor Booker scored 11 points, had 11 rebounds and five assists.

• Clemson lost the battle of the presses, as Missouri forced Clemson into 20 turnovers and committed just nine turnovers on offense. Kim English and Keith Ramsey each scored 20 points for Missouri, who had 15 steals on defense, five by guard J.T. Tiller.

• The two teams were tied at 39-39 at halftime, but Missouri won the second half, 47-39. Clemson won the rebound margin 41-30 and made 12-24 three-point shots, but still lost the game.

• The difference was Missouri's ability to turn the Tigers over, and break Clemson's press to score easy baskets. Missouri shot 52 percent from the field for the game. Missouri won the points off turnover stat 20-5. Clemson cut the lead to 82-78 with 41 seconds left, but could get no closer.

• 2011: Jerai Grant scored a career-best 22 points and the fast-starting Tigers built a double-figure Tuesday night lead and never backed off in beating Alabama-Birmingham 70-52 in a First Four game at the University of Dayton. There was little time to celebrate. The Tigers hurried to catch a flight to their second-round game against fifth-seeded West Virginia (20-11) on Thursday afternoon in Tampa, Fla. The Tigers had to play their next game in Tampa less than 36 hours later. Clemson did not arrive in Tampa until 5 a.m. Wednesday, then had the first game on Thursday at noon.

• Grant, who hit 10 of 15 shots from the field and also grabbed seven rebounds to lead Clemson. Tanner Smith and Devin Booker each had 10 for Clemson.. The win was its first in the NCAA tournament since the 1997 team advanced to the round of 16. Ahead 39-27 at the break, Clemson never let the Blazers draw closer than eight points in the second half.

• Clemson' season ended that Thursday afternoon with an eight point loss to fifth seed West Virginia, who had eight days of rest before playing the Tigers. Andre Young led Clemson with 22 points, while Demontez Still, playing in his last game for Clemson, had 16. Clemson had a 12 point lead in the first half, but obviously ran out of energy due to the quick turnaround.

-- 2018 --

• 2018: Clemson got back to their winning ways in the Tournament, downing New Mexico State 79-68 in San Diego, Calif. The win marked Head Coach Brad Brownell's second win in the NCAA Tournament. Shelton Mitchell scored a team-high 23 points, while teammate Gabe DeVoe was right behind him with 22. DeVoe made a team-best 10 field goals. Marcquise Reed chipped in 15 in the victory. Elijah Thomas led the team in rebounding with 10 boards. The Tigers shot 55.9 percent from the floor, including 60.0 percent on two-point goals and 42.9 percent from three. The win set up a contest with the fourth-seeded Auburn Tigers.

• Clemson's dominant performance against Auburn in the second round was one for the record books. The Tigers boatraced the other Tiger squad in the first half, leading to a 43-19 lead. At one point, the game was 70-29 in favor of Clemson. The 84-53 victory proved to be the largest victory margin for a lower seed over a higher seed in NCAA Tournament history. Gabe DeVoe turned in another 20-point effort finishing with 22, while Elijah Thomas posted 18 points and 11 rebounds, Marcquise Reed scored 16 and grabbed seven boards and Shelton Mitchell tallied 10 with six assists. Clemson shot 47.5 percent from the floor and 38.5 percent from three (10-for-26). Clemson limited Auburn to just 25.8 percent shooting, including 21.9 percent from three. With the win, Clemson would advance to the Sweet 16 round for the first time since 1997.

• In the Sweet 16, Clemson faced the No. 1 seed Kansas Jayhawks. The pod of teams in the Midwest Regional by chance happed to be three-of-four ACC teams: Clemson, Duke and Syracuse. In his final game as a Tiger, Gabe DeVoe turned in the best performance of his career. The senior scored a career-high 31 points on 10-for-17 shooting and added nine rebounds and three assists. He came the first 30-point scorer against the Jayhawks since the 2015-16 season. Clemson found themselves down by as many 20 points in the second half, but a 49-point second period provided a furious rally by the Tigers. A 26-12 run to help the Tigers pull to within four would not be enough and the Tigers' season would end in Omaha, Neb. to Kansas, 80-76.

• 2021: Aamir Simms scored 15 points, while Clyde Trapp added 14 and Hunter Tyson totaled 10 in a 60-56 loss to Rutgers in the first round of the 2021 NCAA Tournament in Indianpolis, Ind. The loss ended Clemson's season with a record of 16-8.

• Clemson led for 15:23 of the contest and led at halftime 26-23, but couldn't find enough baskets down the stretch.

-- 2024 --

• 2024: Just the second team in Clemson history to reach Elite 8 of NCAA tournament, first time in 44 years. Accomplished this as a No. 6 seeded team in West regional, same seed and regional as the 1980 Clemson team. According to research by CBS Sports, the 44 years in between Elite 8 appearances is the fourth longest in the history of the tournament. The longest is a 54-year stretch by Loyola (Chicago).

• Defeated No. 3 seed Baylor and No. 2 seed Arizona in the NCAA Tournament. Win over No. 3 seed Baylor was best seed Clemson has beaten in NCAA Tournament since 1980. Then topped that with win over No. 2 Arizona that was the best seed Clemson has beaten in the NCAA Tournament.

• Had three players (PJ Hall, Chase Hunter, Ian Schieffelin) named to NCAA All-Regional team, most in one year in Clemson history. Had just two selections total previously (Larry Nance, 1980, Gabe Devoe, 2018).

• Clemson won its first three games of the NCAA Tournament as the underdog, the first team to do that since 1985.

• Basketball posted the second largest victory margin in the NCAA Tournament in program history to advance to the second round with a decisive 77-56 win over No. 11 seed New Mexico on Friday afternoon.

The Tigers (22-11) were powered by Chase Hunter's (Atlanta, Ga./Westlake) 21 points on 8-of-16 shooting. Hunter added a team-high six assists and collected three rebounds and two steals.

Ian Schieffelin (Loganville, Ga./Grayson) totaled his 10th double-double of the season with 16 points and 12 rebounds. PJ Hall (Spartanburg, S.C./Dorman) added 14 points, three rebounds and a steal.

Jack Clark (Cheltenham, Pa./Cheltenham) was more than solid with six points, eight rebounds and four assists, in addition to suffocating defense.

Clemson's bench outscored New Mexico's 13-12, which was led by RJ Godfrey (Suwanee, Ga./North Gwinnett) with six and Chauncey Wiggins (Grayson, Ga./Grayson) with five.

The Tigers went back and forth with the Lobos in the early going, but Clemson would race out to a 30-11 advantage in the opening stanza thanks to a 19-2 run. Clemson coasted to a 14-point lead at the break 42-28.

A 9-2 run coming out of halftime extended the Tigers' advantage to 21. A Hunter jumper with 2:04 left gave Clemson its largest lead of the game at 75-52 and the Tigers would coast to the 21-point victory.

The Tigers held the Lobos to just 29.7 percent shooting from the floor — its lowest field goal percentage of the season by nearly 6.0 percent. It's the second-best field goal percentage difference in an NCAA Tournament game for the Tigers (25.8 percent vs. Auburn — 3/18/18).

• Basketball program never trailed, leading by as many as 15 points and holding on late, advancing to the fifth NCAA Sweet Sixteen in program history after a 72-64 victory over No. 3 Baylor (24-11) at FedEx Forum in the West Region. The Tigers (23-11) had a ten-point lead at halftime in the first meeting between the programs since 1983.

A 16-2 Baylor lead in a late four-minute span narrowed the margin to two, but Clemson went 8-for-8 from the line in the final two minutes to ice the win.

Clemson advances to play No. 2 Arizona (27-8) at Crypto.com Arena in Los Angeles on Thursday, March 28. The Tigers joined NC State, North Carolina and Duke as ACC teams in the Sweet 16.

Sophomore RJ Godfrey (Suwanee, Ga./North Gwinnett) hit a pair of clutch free throws with 29 seconds to play to give Clemson a 68-64 lead, and added two more with 8.3 seconds left to ice the game.

Chase Hunter (Atlanta, Ga./Westlake) paced the Tigers offensively for a second straight game, netting 20 points on 5-for-10 shooting, and hit seven of his eight free throw attempts while handing out a team-high six assists. Hunter had scored 20 or more points once in the 2023-24 regular season before doing so in both NCAA Tournament games this week.

"We were hanging on for dear life at the end, but I thought our defense for 38 minutes was unbelievable," said Head Coach Brad Brownell in his postgame interview on TNT.

The Tigers held Baylor to 64 points, their third-lowest offensive output of the season, and a 6-of-24 (.250) mark from behind the arc. Clemson hit 20-of-24 (.833) of its free throw attempts, while Baylor was unable to capitalize, hitting 16-of-26 and missing three one-and-one front-ends in the second half.

Ian Schieffelin (Loganville, Ga./Grayson) added 11 points and six rebounds, while Joe Girard III (Glens Falls, N.Y./Glens Falls) added 13 points, including a pair of free throws with 19 seconds left to give the Tigers a six-point advantage.

PJ Hall (Spartanburg, S.C./Dorman) finished with 11 points in just 19 minutes as he battled foul trouble throughout before fouling out with 36.2 seconds to play.

After the teams traded three-pointers and were tied 5-5 in the first four minutes, Jack Clark's (Cheltenham, Pa./Cheltenham) layup with 16:34 remaining in the first half gave the Tigers the lead for good. Hunter's double-pump buzzer-beater from 25 feet just before halftime gave Clemson the 35-25 lead heading into the half.

Clemson stretched its lead to 14 six minutes into the second half, and led by 15 minutes after Schieffelin made a jumper with 6:44 to play. The Bears roared back with a 16-2 run to pull within two points at 64-62 with 2:18 to play. But Clemson went 8-for-8 as a team from the free throw stripe in the final two minutes to seal the win.

• Chase Hunter's (Atlanta, Ga./Westlake) three-point play with 25 seconds remaining put the Tigers up five and helped hold off a late run by No. 2 seed Arizona (27-10), as No. 6 seed Clemson prevailed 77-72 inside the Crypto.com Arena to advance to the second NCAA Elite Eight in program history. The Tigers (24-11) are the first to advance to the West Regional final. Clemson led for 37:02 in the game and trailed for just 20 seconds, while the game was tied twice.

Arizona cut the lead to two with under a minute remaining, but the Tigers used the three-point play from Hunter to push the lead back to five. The Wildcats got a layup with 15 seconds to go to cut it back to three, but Dillon Hunter (Atlanta, Ga./Westlake) snuck behind everyone and made a layup with nine seconds remaining to clinch the victory for Clemson.

PJ Hall (Spartanburg, S.C./Dorman) and the elder Hunter combined for 20 of Clemson's 38 second-half points, finishing the game with 17 and 18 points, respectively. Hall was also the Tigers' leading rebounder, pulling down eight boards with Hunter adding seven. Ian Schieffelin (Loganville, Ga./Grayson) recorded his third-straight tournament game in double figures with 14 points to go along with seven rebounds.

Chauncey Wiggins (Grayson, Ga./Grayson) and RJ Godfrey (Suwanee, Ga./North Gwinnett) were big for the Tigers in the first half, finishing a combined 5-for-6 from the floor with three 3-pointers, including Godfrey's third of the season.

Every Tiger that saw the court scored, as Clemson shot 49.2% from the floor as a team and recorded 17 assists on 29 made field goals. The 17 assists are the most for the Tigers in this year's tournament. Clemson held Arizona to 37.3% shooting, just 17.9% from beyond the arc, their lowest three-point percentage of the year. The Bears' 72 points were 15 below their season average, and Clemson held Arizona to just one field goal over an 11-minute stretch in the second half, including 12 straight misses at one point.

After a free throw tied the game at 43 with 16:33 to go, Clemson held the Wildcats without a field goal for two minutes, but couldn't stretch the lead, as Arizona grabbed a one-point advantage with 14:32 to go. Jack Clark (Cheltenham, Pa./Cheltenham) drained his only field goal of the second half, a three-pointer just 20 seconds later, to put the Tigers' back in front and Clemson would never trail again.

The Wildcats tied the game one final time with 9:55 to go, but a layup by Hall sparked a 9-2 run to put Clemson back in front with 7:46 remaining. Both teams went without scoring for 2:30, but six points from Hall held off a furious Arizona run to help keep the Tigers in front.

NOTES

The Tigers led by as many as 13 in the first half, as Wiggins' third basket of the first 20 minutes gave Clemson the 27-14 advantage with 7:19 to go. Arizona cut it to six with 56 seconds remaining, but a pair of Schieffelin FTs gave the Tigers an eight-point lead heading into the break.

The win, Clemson's first over Arizona in history, puts the Tigers into the Elite Eight for the first time since the 1980 NCAA Tournament.

•   Basketball's historic NCAA Tournament run came to an end on Saturday night, as the No. 6 Tigers fell to the No. 4 Alabama Crimson Tide 89-82 in the Elite Eight inside the Crypto.com Arena in Los Angeles.

Clemson was led offensively by Joseph Girard III (Glens Falls, N.Y./Glens Falls), who finished the game with 19 points, including 17 in the second half, highlighted by five second-half threes. Ian Schieffelin (Loganville, Ga./Grayson) finished with 18 points and 11 rebounds, good for his 11th double-double of the season. PJ Hall (Spartanburg, S.C./Dorman) tallied 14 points before fouling out, while Chase Hunter (Atlanta, Ga./Westlake) added 12 and a team-high five assists. RJ Godfrey (Suwanee, Ga./North Gwinnett) also finished with 12 points.

The Tigers led by as many as 13 in the first half, as a jumper by Jack Clark (Cheltenham, Pa./Cheltenham) put the Tigers ahead 26-13 with 7:54 remaining. The Crimson Tide closed the half on a 22-6 run, however, to take a 35-32 lead into the half.

Clemson hung around for the majority of the second half, not allowing Alabama to lead by more than six until back-to-back threes put the Crimson Tide up nine with 6:22 to go. A three-point-play from Schiefflin followed by a three from Girard cut the lead to three with just over 2:00 to go, but Alabama responded to take a seven-point advantage with 1:15 remaining. The teams traded baskets and free throws the remainder of game time, with Alabama taking the 89-82 win.
