STORYLINES

- » Louisville plays its third Friday night game of the season when it hosts Clemson at 7:30 p.m. to close out the home portion of its Atlantic Coast Conference schedule. Louisville is 2-0 on Fridays this season with wins over James Madison and Miami.
- » Louisville dropped its second overtime game of the season, falling 26-23 at home to California to fall to 7-2 overall and 4-2 in the ACC. Quarterback Miller Moss completed 20-of-38 passes for 203 yards and an interception in the loss.
- » Missing the injured Isaac Brown, Keyjuan Brown stepped in and registered his first career 100-yard rushing game with a career best 136 yards on 14 carries. It's the fourth-straight 100-yard rushing performance by a running back.
- » Entering the game allowing just 280.6 yards of total offense, California became the first team this year to record over 400 yards of total offense in a game. The Bears registered 427 of offense and averaged 5.8 yards per play. Cal threw for a season high 350 yards and a pair of touchdown throws.
- » Wide receiver Chris Bell had six receptions for 49 yards to take his team-leading season receiving total to 792 yards. Bell became the 16th Louisville player to reach 2,000 career receiving yards, finishing the game with a career total of 2,041 yards, ranking 13th on the Louisville career list. He leads the team with 62 receptions and has caught at least four passes in all nine games this season.
- » Placekicker Cooper Ranvier made a career-high 4-of-4 field goals, connecting from 30, 49, 39, and 49 yards and tying the school record for field goals made in a game. Ranvier improved his career field goal total to 15-of-17, which moves him into a tie for ninth on the school single-season list. The Lexington, Ky., native made 2-of-2 extra points to remain perfect in his career on 31 attempts.

BY THE NUMBERS

Cooper Ranvier has made five-straight field goals after missing a 52-yarder against Boston College.

108

MEDIA INFORMATION

Weekly News Conference

- » Head coach Jeff Brohm hosts a weekly news conference each Monday at the Howard Schnellenberger Football Complex beginning with lunch at 11 a.m. Brohm will address the media at 11 a.m., followed by a selected assistant available at approximately 11:30 a.m. Selected players will be available at 11:45 a.m.
- » Quotes, video and audio from the news conference are available on www.GoCards.com each Monday afternoon and will be emailed out.

News Conference Video

- » Broadcast-quality video files for television newscasts of weekly news conferences are available for download on Monday afternoons. Contact the Louisville Communications staff for a link.

Interviews

- » Interviews with all Louisville student-athletes and coaches MUST be arranged through the Strategic Communications Office. Contact Rocco Gasparro, Football SID, via email at rocco.gasparro@louisville.edu or by calling 502-852-0102. Please give as much advance notice as possible when requesting interviews.
- » Selected players are available for media interviews on Monday's during coach Brohm's press conference. Locker rooms and the football complex are off limits to members of the media.
- » Personal phone numbers will not be distributed to the media and student-athletes should not be contacted directly by phone, email or social media to arrange interviews or to answer questions.

Working Credentials

- » Credentials for home games are issued to working media only and should be requested as early as possible.
- » Season credential privileges may be granted to daily newspapers, magazines, radio stations and television stations that cover the Louisville football program on a regular basis — i.e., weekly news conferences and all home games. Credentials are granted at the discretion of Louisville Athletics and additional requests and affiliations are considered on an individual basis.
- » Due to space constraints, credentials will be limited to working media only. If media credentials are not picked up in advance, they will be available for pickup at the West Ticket Booth located outside Gate 7 of L&N Stadium. Media should enter through Gate 8 to gain access to elevators for the press box. No credentials will be mailed. Please direct all requests to: rocco@gocards.com, Di-

TEAM INFORMATION

Noting the Louisville-Clemson Series

- » Louisville and Clemson are meeting for the 10th time, with the Tigers owning a commanding 8-1 series advantage that dates back to the 2014 season.
- » Louisville is 0-4 all-time at home against Clemson, with the last visit coming in 2021 - a 30-24 Clemson win at L&N Stadium.
- » The Cardinals picked up their first win over the Tigers last season with a 33-21 victory at Memorial Stadium.
- » The Tigers have limited the Cardinals to 24 points or less in seven of the nine meetings.
- » Clemson made its first appearance in Louisville back in 2015 — 20-17 win for Clemson.
- » Four of the eight losses for the Cardinals have been by six points or less.
- » Head coach Jeff Brohm is 1-0 against Clemson.

Louisville 33, #11 Clemson 21 • Nov. 2, 2024

- » The University of Louisville football team earned its first-ever program win over Clemson, defeating the 11th-ranked Tigers, 33-21 last season in Death Valley. It was the first win in nine tries against the Tigers.
- » The Cardinals took control in the second quarter with a 92-yard drive capped by a 4-yard rushing touchdown from quarterback Tyler Shough. Shortly after, Keyjuan Brown added a 1-yard rushing score, giving Louisville a 17-7 lead at halftime.
- » Isaac Brown led the ground game with 151 yards on 20 carries, including a 45-yard touchdown burst, while Shough added 156 passing yards on 17 completions.
- » On defense, linebacker Stanquan Clark contributed nine solo tackles and 13 total, leading the unit that recorded five tackles for loss to stop Clemson.

Brohm and the ACC

- » Since taking over the program in 2023, head coach Jeff Brohm has enjoyed tremendous success in the Atlantic Coast Conference. Brohm's teams are an impressive 16-6 in league play since he took over the reins of the Louisville program.
- » Brohm's teams have gone 7-1 (2023), 5-3 (2024) and 4-1 (2025). The Cardinals are looking to start 5-2 for the first time. The Cards were 4-3 after seven games a year ago.
- » Five of the six ACC losses have come by seven or fewer points. Louisville's five league losses have come by a combined 23 points — three coming by a total of nine points.
- » Louisville lost 38-25 at Stanford last season and recorded home losses by three points to Virginia this season and California — both in overtime.
- » Over that three-year span, the Cards own the top mark with those 16 wins. Georgia Tech is second at 15-7 and Duke is third at 14-7.
- » SMU is 13-1 in the ACC in its only two seasons in league play.

Extending Scoring Streak

- » The Cardinals have been one of the most consistent offensive teams in the nation over the last 25 seasons. Since 2000, the Cardinals are one of eight programs to score in every game spanning 323 contests.
- » Boise State, Florida, Georgia, Nebraska, USC, TCU and Virginia Tech are the other programs who haven't been shutout since the 2000 season.
- » The Cards were last shutout 32-0 against Florida State during the 2000 campaign.
- » The Cardinals have scored at least 24 points in 23-straight games dating back to the final game of the 2023 season. The Cardinals have scored at least 24 points in all nine games in 2025.
- » Louisville is averaging 32.9 points per game this season — the 35th-best mark nationally. The Cards are averaging 35.0 points per game in their six home contests.

Stay Old

- » Since Jeff Brohm took over as the Louisville head coach, he has made it a priority to acquire players with vast experience and proven levels of production over potential.
- » The Cardinals have 24 players on the roster this year that are in their final year of eligibility in 2025.
- » Louisville has the second most in the ACC. Colorado leads the list with 38 players in their final year.

Year Three Under Brohm

- » Jeff Brohm is in his third season as the head coach of the UofL program since taking over in 2023.
- » In his 12 seasons as a head coach, Brohm has assured himself of recording his ninth winning season at the helm of his third different program. He has enjoyed three winning campaigns at Louisville, Purdue and Western Kentucky.
- » He's guided two different programs to conference title games, taking Louisville to the ACC title game in 2023 and Purdue to the Big Ten Championship tilt in 2022.
- » Brohm's teams have won seven or more games nine times in 12 seasons.

Fourth-Quarter Emphasis

- » Louisville has been solid in the fourth quarter during the three seasons under Jeff Brohm. Over that time, the Cardinals have out-scored the opposition 273-192 in the fourth quarter over the last 36 games since 2023.
- » The 2025 season has seen the Cardinals dominate in the final frame, out-scoring their opponents 78-39 this season. Louisville out-scored James Madison and Pitt 14-0 in the final quarter, and 10-0 against Virginia. The Cavaliers out-last-ed the Cards 30-27 in overtime.

- » The Cardinals have enjoyed nine come-from-behind wins under Brohm, including four this season. James Madison held a 14-6 halftime lead over the Cards before they blanked the Dukes 14-0 in the final quarter.
- » Pitt held a 27-17 lead after the third quarter but Louisville scored 14 unanswered points to win 34-27.
- » Virginia Tech took a 16-7 lead at the half before Louisville scored the next 21 points for a 28-16 win.
- » Overall, Louisville owns six wins when trailing at the half under Brohm. Louisville overcame a 20-point deficit against Boston College in 2024 and a 28-13 disadvantage against Georgia Tech in 2023.

Upcoming Milestones

- » Wide receiver Chris Bell is eight yards short of 2,000 career receiving yards. Bell has caught 135 passes for 1,992 yards in 44 career contests. He would become the 16th player in school history with 2,000 receiving yards.
- » Running back Isaac Brown is 45 yards away from becoming the 19th player in program history to register 2,000 career rushing yards.
- » Wide receiver Caullin Lacy is 26 receptions short of totaling 300 catches in his career.
- » Linebacker TJ Quinn is 39 tackles short of totaling 300 stops during his UofL career.
- » Tight end Nate Kurisky is four catches short of reaching 50 for his career.
- » Running back Keyjuan Brown needs 235 yards to reach 1,000 for his career.
- » Cooper Ranvier, who has made 15 field goals this season, needs one more to move into seventh place on the school's single-season list and two to jump into fifth place.
- » Caullin Lacy needs 87 yards to break the school record for punt return yards in a season.

Remember November

- » The month of November is when teams begin to separate themselves with big wins or big losses. Head coach Jeff Brohm has been successful throughout his career during this month. In 12 teams as a head coach, Brohm's team are a solid 30-14 during the calendar's 11th month.
- » Since taking over the Louisville program, Brohm's teams have compiled a 7-3 mark, including a 1-1 record this season.

Scoring 30 or 40 Points

- » The Cardinals are 304-38 all-time when scoring 30 or more points in a game and are 91-2 prior to 1980.
- » Since 2000, Louisville is an impressive 154-27, including a 36-7 record during the 1990s.
- » Louisville is 143-4 all-time when tallying 40 or more points in a game, including a 39-0 mark prior to 1980.
- » The Cards are 83-3 since 2000 when they score 40 or more points in a game, including a 13-1 mark in the 1990s.

Brohm Versus the Top 5

- » There is a reason why not many teams ranked in the Top Five want to face current Louisville head coach Jeff Brohm. The 12th-year head coach improved his record to 4-4 against teams ranked in the Top Five after his team defeated No. 2 Miami 24-21 on Oct. 17. He owns a 3-2 record against teams ranked as high as No. 2 in the nation.
- » Brohm's teams are now 1-1 after the win over Miami, which also included a 16-6 loss to No. 4 Florida State in the 2023 ACC title game.
- » While at Purdue, he lost to No. 2 Michigan in the 2022 Big Ten Championship. During the 2022 campaign, his Boilermaker team went on the road to defeat No. 2 Iowa and lost at No. 4 Ohio State. Purdue defeated Michigan State at home.
- » His biggest win came in 2018 when Purdue hammered No. 2 Ohio State 40-29 at home.
- » Brohm's Western Kentucky squad lost to No. 1 Alabama in 2016.

Two Overtime Games

- » The Cardinals played their second overtime game last Saturday night, falling to California 29-26 at L&N Stadium. Louisville fell 30-27 to Virginia in one overtime period on Oct. 4 and lost 29-26 on Nov. 8.
- » Louisville dropped its second overtime game of the season, playing an extra period in multiple games for the first time since splitting a pair of overtime games in 2012.
- » When the Cards dropped a 30-27 decision to Virginia on Oct. 4 at L&N Stadium, it was Louisville's first overtime contest since a 31-24 win over Cincinnati at Nippert Stadium on Dec. 5, 2013

- » It was the first extra session game at L&N Stadium since 2012 when the Cards hosted a pair of overtime games in 2012 — a 34-31 win over Cincinnati and a 23-20 triple overtime loss against Connecticut.
- » Louisville is 5-7 all-time in overtime games after the 29-26 loss to California.

Brohm Own Solid Home Mark

- » Louisville dropped to 4-2 at home this season after the 29-26 overtime loss
- » Louisville opened the season with three-straight wins over Eastern Kentucky, James Madison and Bowling Green.
- » The Cardinals are 14-5 under head coach Jeff Brohm at L&N Stadium, which includes a 7-4 record in Atlantic Coast Conference action.
- » Louisville opened 2024 with three-straight home wins and it's two losses came by a total of 14 points — seven-point losses to both Miami and SMU.
- » Brohm's first season in 2023 saw the Cards post a terrific 6-1 home record, which included nationally ranked wins over No. 10 Notre Dame 33-20 and a 23-0 shutout win over No. 20 Duke.
- » Louisville has scored at least 30 or more points in 14 of the 18 home games under Brohm.

Friday Night Games

- » The Cardinals will play the third of three Friday night games of the season this week when facing Clemson on ESPN. Louisville defeated No. 2 Miami 24-21 on Oct. 17 and James Madison 28-14 on Sept. 5.
- » Louisville is 19-13 all-time on Friday night, which includes a 10-9 mark at home.
- » The Cardinals have won five games in a row on Friday night, with the last loss being a 35-31 decision at Florida State during the 2022 campaign.

Four Straight

- » The Cardinals have found their stride in the running game the last four weeks, which is evident by backs equaling the 100-yard plateau in all four of the those contests. Keyjuan Brown was the latest to reach the 100-yard mark with 136 yards on 14 carries in the loss to California. It was Brown's first career game of over 100 yards.
- » Before getting injured late in the win over Virginia Tech, Isaac Brown rushed over the century mark in three-straight games. He ran for 113 yards versus Miami, 205 against Boston College and 130 versus Virginia Tech.
- » It's the first time since the end of the 2017 season that the Cards have had a runner go over the 100-yard mark.

Pretty Simple

- » Sometimes the game of football is simple. Just don't turn the ball over or force the opposition into turnover over the football. That is the case at Louisville under Jeff Brohm. Louisville is 16-0 when winning the turnover battle and 10-10 when it doesn't.
- » The turnover numbers tell a story in 2025, as the Cards are +5 in their seven wins and -3 in their two losses. The Cards were forced into three miscues in the overtime loss to Virginia and were -1 in the extra period defeat against California.
- » The Cardinals are +21 in the team's 26 wins over the three-year span and -12 in the team's 10 defeats.
- » The Cardinals are +9 overall in turnover margin in the first three years of the Brohm era.

Non-Conference Success

- » The Cardinals are 10-3 in non-conference games under third-year head coach Jeff Brohm after the 40-17 win over Bowling Green.
- » The Cardinals played three-straight non-conference games at home to open the season and went 3-0 in those contests after the 40-17 win over Bowling Green.
- » The Cards have gone 7-1 at home in non-conference games under Brohm in his first two seasons.
- » Louisville will host Kentucky on Nov. 29 to close out the non-conference regular season slate.

On the Road

- » The Cardinals are 3-0 on the road this season and improved to 8-3 away from home since 2023. Louisville is a solid 7-2 on the road in the ACC after win over Miami.
- » Louisville has won five of the last six encounters on the road dating back to last season, which included the 34-27 win over Pittsburgh and the 24-21 win over No. 2 Miami on Oct. 17.

25 of 29 Years

- » The Cardinals are bowl eligible for their 25th bowl appearance in the last 29 seasons dating back to 1996. Louisville clinched its fifth consecutive postseason appearance, with the only missing season coming in 2020 — the year of the CoVID-19 pandemic.
- » Louisville has advanced to a bowl game in 25 of the last 29 seasons, which spans four different conferences (Conference USA, BIG EAST, American Athletic Conference, Atlantic Coast Conference).

- » The Cardinals missed the postseason in 2007-09 and 2020.

Big Chunks in the Running Game

- » The running game has accumulated big chunks of yardage over the last three games. After averaging, 3.7 yards per carry in the first five games, the Cardinals have nearly doubled that over the last four contests.
- » Louisville is picking an average of 6.5 yards per carry over the last four contests, including 10.3 yards per attempt against Boston College and 7.0 versus Virginia Tech.
- » The Cardinals are averaging a solid 5.05 yards per carry this season, which ranks 22nd nationally.
- » The Cardinals rank 15th with nine runs of 30 or more yards and tied for the team lead with six rushes of 60 or more yards.
- » The Cardinals rank sixth nationally with six plays from scrimmage of over 60+ yards.

Ranvier on the Mark

- » The Cardinals went into the season searching for a kicker after the graduation of Brock Travelstead, and have now found their kicker for the next couple of seasons in Cooper Ranvier. The Lexington native is 15-of-17 on the season and has connected on his last five field goals attempts, including his last three of over 40 or more yards.
- » Ranvier made a career-high 4-of-4 field goals, connecting from 30, 49, 39, and 49 yards and tying the school record for field goals made in a game. He connected on a pair of 49-yarders in the loss to Cal to improve to 6-of-7 from 40 or more yards.
- » The redshirt freshman moved into the top 10 for field goals made in a season with 15 — the ninth-best total in school history. He is second among freshmen in school history among field goals made by a freshmen. Blanton Creque (2016) and John Wallace (2012) hold the school's freshmen mark.
- » One of the top young kickers in the country, Ranvier is one of seven freshmen nationally to boot 15 or more field goals this season.
- » Ranvier ranks 26th in the country with his 88.2 field goal percentage this season.

Revitalizing the Running Game

- » The Louisville running game got off to a slow start in 2025, especially in games versus Pitt and Virginia. In those two contests, the Cards totaled 106 yards on 61 carries, an average of 1.73 yards per carry.
- » However, over the last three games, the running game has returned to form, averaging 276.0 yards per game, which has allowed the offense to average 33.0 ppg. Louisville has also totaled seven rushing scores over those two contests.
- » The Cardinals rushed for a season high 317 yards against Boston College and 235 yards in the win over Virginia Tech. During that span, the Cardinals have averaged 8.5 yards per carry, and totaled seven runs of 20 or more yards and of over 50 yards. The Cards recorded three rushes of over 60 yards in the win over Boston College.
- » Despite the below average rushing numbers for the season, Louisville still ranks 25th nationally with an average of 5.1 yards per carry. Louisville is tied for the national lead with five rushes of over 60 yards this year.
- » Louisville only averaged 115.7 yards on the ground through the first six games.

Lacy Doing it All

- » Wide receiver Caullin Lacy is a legitimate candidate for the team's Most Valuable Player Award this season. The senior from Mobile, Ala., is sixth nationally and leads the ACC with an average of 128.6 all-purpose yards per game after totaling 193 yards in the win over Virginia Tech — the third game of over 190 yards this season. It pushed his season total to 1,157 yards.
- » In the win over the Hokies, Lacy recorded 53 receiving yards and 139 yards in the return game.
- » The native of Mobile, Ala., is second on the team with 48 receptions for 482 yards and two scores. The senior has done a lot of damage in the punt return game where he has totaled 422 yards —the most since Damien Dorsey recorded 508 yards in 2002.
- » Lacy amassed 268 all-purpose yards, the 12th highest total in a game by a Louisville player in the win over Bowling Green on Sept. 20. He had a 75-yard punt return for a touchdown among three punt returns for 106 yards to go with two kickoff returns for 65 yards and eight receptions for 97 yards.
- » The redshirt senior joins Howard Stevens, Walter Peacock, and Hassan Hall as the fourth Louisville player to have two career games with at least 250 all-purpose yards.

This Unit is Special

- » Coach Jeff Brohm talks exclusively about how special teams can impact the team's overall success, and through nine games, it looks completely accurate. The Cards are ranked fourth in punt returns and 28th in kickoff returns, and are 17-for-20 on field goals, with two misses coming from 50 or more yards. Louisville has allowed only seven punt return yards all season, which is also fifth nationally.

- » Louisville is averaging 21.6 yards a punt returns and have a pair of touchdowns through nine games. Caullin Lacy is third nationally in punt return average with his 23.4 average and is one of two players in the country with at least two punt returns for touchdowns. He also owns three returns of 60 or more yards and his 63-yard return in the third quarter versus Virginia Tech to put the Cards on the five-yard line, and two plays later took the lead for good at 21-16.
- » Louisville is also averaging 23.5 yards on kick returns this season, which is fifth in the ACC.
- » Placekicker Cooper Ranvier is 15-of-17 on field goals and has 30 extra points without a miss. The Lexington native ranks 15th nationally with an average of 1.67 field goals made per game and stands 26th with an 88.2 field goal percentage. He booted a career long 50-yard field goal in the final minutes to send the game into overtime versus Virginia.
- » Keller matched his school record by making a 57-yard field goal for the second straight week versus Pitt. He broke the school record earlier against Bowling Green with a 57-yarder.
- » The Cards are 7-of-9 on field goals of 40 or more yards this season, with Ranvier connecting on 6-of-7 attempts.

Sylvester Stabilizes the Line

- » The offensive line was in flux for most of the season until Trevonte Sylvester returned to the lineup after suffering an injury that would delay the start of his season. The senior was inserted into the starting lineup against Miami, and the offense has taken off, especially in the running game.
- » The combination of Sylvester (left tackle) Lance Robinson (left guard), Pete Nygra (center), Mahamane Moussa (right guard) and Rasheed Miller (right tackle) have helped the Cardinals win the last four games.
- » Louisville has allowed just five sacks over the last four games after allowing 13 in the first five games. The Cardinals are averaging 414.0 yards of total offense and 30.0 points per game over that span.
- » The running game has seen a spike, averaging 223.7 yards rushing yards per game and eight rushing scores.

Going for Five

- » Jeff Brohm typically scripts the first drive of the game, and it's resulted in points on UofL's first drives of the games. The Cards enter Friday night's game having scored touchdowns on the first drive in four consecutive contests.
- » Louisville opened the loss against Cal with a 10-play, 78-yard drive that took 5:22 off the clock. In the win over Virginia Tech, the Cardinals went 62 yards on two plays to take a 7-0 lead over the Hokies.
- » The Cardinals opened the 38-24 win over Boston College with a three-play, 75-yard drive that gave the Cards 7-3 lead.
- » Against No. 2 Miami, Louisville took the opening kickoff and went 75 yards on 11 plays to take an early 7-0 lead. The Cards would score on the next drive as well to open a 14-0 advantage.

The 500-Yard Club

- » The potent Louisville offense was on full display in the 38-24 win over Boston College on Oct. 25. The Cardinals recorded 504 yards on offense, marking the Cards' seventh 500-yard game under Jeff Brohm. It was the second-most yards this season since recording 542 yards in the opener against Eastern Kentucky.
- » The Cardinals recorded two plays of over 60 yards — a 73-yard rush by Isaac Brown and a 67-yard touchdown run by Brown.
- » Louisville ran only 59 plays in the win, the second-lowest output of the season. The Cardinals averaged a season best 8.5 yards per play in the win.
- » The Cardinals had only four negative yards on the game, with two yards coming on a pair of kneel downs to close the game.
- » Louisville ranks 59th nationally in total offense at 401.4 yards per game and ranks 46th in the country with an average of 6.02 yards per play.
- » Louisville rushed for 317 yards versus Boston College on the ground for the third 300-yard rushing game under Brohm. It added 235 yards in the win over Virginia Tech.

Closing in on 1,000

- » Wide receiver Chris Bell has become one of the nation's elite wide receivers in his fourth full season with the Cardinals. The senior leads the team with a career high 62 receptions for 792 yards and six scores. He needs just 208 yards in the final three regular season game to achieve a 1,000-yard receiving season for the 12th time in school history and the ninth different player to achieve such a feat.

- » JaCorey Brooks led the Cards with 1,013 yards last season — the last player to record 1,000-yards receiving.

» Entering Friday night's game versus Clemson, Bell ranks sixth in the country with 34 receptions of 10 or more yards. The native of Yazoo City, Miss., stands 15th with an average of 88.0 yards per game and eighth with an average of 6.89 receptions per contest. Bell has four games of eight or more catches, including double-digit receptions against Virginia with a career high 12 and 10 against Pitt. He recorded a game high eight catches for 56 yards in Saturday's win over Virginia Tech.

» Bell is tied for the league lead and 20th nationally with six touchdowns, and ranks second in receiving yards and third in receptions.

- » In the win over Miami, Bell led all receivers with 136 yards on nine receptions, including 35 and 36-yard touchdown receptions to take his career total to 12. Bell had the fifth 100-yard receiving game of his career.
- » Bell was the first Louisville player with three consecutive 100-yard receiving games since Tutu Atwell had four in a row in 2019. Earlier this year, Bell was also the fifth player in school history with three-straight games of 125 or more yards receiving, joining Deion Branch (2001), Mario Urrutia (2005), Harry Douglas (2006-07) and DeVante Parker (2014).
- » Bell had a huge day in the loss to Virginia on Oct. 4. Bell led all receivers with 170 yards on a career best 12 receptions, including 15-yard and 13-yard touchdowns.
- » Bell's 170 yards receiving is the highest total by a Louisville player since Dez Fitzpatrick had 182 yards at Boston College in 2020.
- » Bell was the first Louisville player to have 9+ catches in three consecutive games since Deion Branch in November of 2001.

Cardiac Cards

- » Under head coach Jeff Brohm, the Cardinals have made a habit of coming from behind in his first three seasons. Brohm's team's have enjoyed nine come-from-behind wins when trailing by eight or more points or any deficit in the fourth quarter.
- » Louisville has three come-from-behind wins this season, a pair in 2024 and four in Brohm's first year.
- » This season, the Cards trailed James Madison 14-6 before winning 28-14. Louisville battled back from two 10 or more point deficits against Pitt and came back to beat Virginia Tech after falling behind 16-7 at the half.
- » In 2024, the Cardinals scored late to overcome a 20-17 deficit at Virginia and battled back from a 20-0 disadvantage at Boston College to win 31-27.
- » Brohm's first season saw four come-from-behind wins. They trailed Georgia Tech 28-13 at the half before battling back for a 39-34 win. NC State held a 10-0 half-time lead before the Cards scored 13 points in the second half. Virginia held a 21-14 third-quarter lead before a 17-point fourth quarter lead to a 31-24 victory. The Cards trailed Miami 28-23 in the third quarter before a 15-3 fourth quarter gave UofL the 38-31 win to secure a trip to the ACC title game versus Florida State.

That's Three Straight

- » Despite missing the California game, running back Isaac Brown is one of the elite running backs in the country, and is starting to return to form from his true freshman season in 2024. Brown earned Freshman All-American honors after rushing for 1,173 yards and 11 touchdowns as a true freshman.
- » His sophomore campaign got off to a slow start when he totaled just 334 yards through his first five games.
- » However, over the last three games, Brown has sparked the offense, becoming the first player to rush for over 100 yards in three consecutive games since Lamar Jackson did it during his Heisman Trophy season of 2016.
- » Brown has averaged 149.3 yards per game in his last three contests — rushing for 113 yards against then No. 2 Miami, 205 yards against Boston College and 130 in Saturday's win over Virginia Tech. During that span, Brown is averaging a hefty 9.96 yards per carry as he enters the weekend leading the nation with an average of 8.6 yards among back with at least 75 carries.

Louisville Against Ranked Foes

- » Louisville holds a 22-66-1 record versus AP Top 25 teams after the 24-21 win over Miami, including a 11-18 record at home. Louisville is 5-38-1 against teams ranked in the Top 25 on the road.
- » The Cards are 9-29-1 versus AP top-10 programs, posting a 6-10 record at home. The last win over a top 10 program was the win over No. 2 Miami.
- » In 2023, the Cardinals defeated two AP-ranked opponents in the same season for only the second time in school history when they knocked off No. 10 Notre Dame 33-20 and No. 20 Duke 23-0. The shutout over Duke marked the first over a ranked opponent in school history.
- » Head coach Jeff Brohm is 12-18 all-time against opponents ranked in the AP Poll, which includes a 4-4 record since taking over at Louisville. He's 2-1 at home against ranked opponents since taking over in 2023.
- » As a Power Four head coach, Brohm's teams have gone 12-15. He went 8-11 in his six seasons at Purdue.

- » In his career, Brown owns 10 100-yard games in just 21 career contests, improving to 9-1 when rushing for over 100 yards in a game. The native of Miami, Fla., is tied for seventh all-time with those 10 100-yard rushing games.
- » Brown carried 15 times for 113 yards the previous week in the win over No. 2 Miami.
- » In the win over Boston College Brown rushed 14 times for 205 yards, becoming the third Louisville player to rush for 200 yards with fewer than 15 carries, joining Tom Lucia and Malik Cunningham.
- » Brown ranks in the top 5 nationally in 13 different categories. He leads the nation with five rushes of 50 or more yards and second with four rushes of 60 or more yards and two of 70 or more.
- » With four rushes of 10 or more yards, Brown now has 52 rushing plays of 10+ yards since the beginning of last season.
- » Prior to the last two games, Brown had been limited to 104 yards in the last three games, an average of 34.7 yards per contest.
- » Brown has totaled 1,955 yards and 16 touchdowns in just 21 career contests, and needs just 45 yards to become the 19th player to run for 2,000 yards in a career at UofL.

Second to None

- » Chris Bell has definitely stole the limelight in the wide receiver room, but wide receiver Caullin Lacy has been a big key to the success of the offense this season. Through nine games, Lacy is second on the team with 48 catches for 492 yards and two scores, and has caught four or more passes in eight of the nine games this season after catching four passes for 60 yards against California.
- » In the win over Boston College, Lacy caught six passes for 43 yards, including a 22-yard touchdown reception against the Eagles.
- » Lacy has two games this season where he's caught eight passes in a game — totaling eight for 97 yards versus Bowling Green and also had eight grabs for 95 yards in a come-from-behind victory over Pitt.
- » Last season in only five games, Lacy caught 18 passes for 196 yards and one score.
- » In his sixth season, Lacy has 274 career receptions for 3,199 yards and 16 touchdowns, while averaging 11.7 yards a reception. He ranks first in receptions and second in receiving yards in the career statistics among current players in the FBS.

More Than Half the Time

- » The Cardinals' offense heavily relies on the production of wide receivers Caullin Lacy and Chris Bell, who have nearly recorded half of the team's receptions and receiving yards this season. The duo has combined to catch 110 passes for 1,274 yards and eight touchdowns, which is more than half of the completions to UofL receivers this season.
- » In the loss to California, the two caught 10 passes for 109 yards — which was half the receptions and yards.
- » The duo combined for 10 catches for 92 yards and a touchdown in the win over Boston College and 14 for 109 yards and a score against Virginia Tech.
- » In the win over No. 2 Miami, the two combined to catch 14 passes for 175 yards and a pair of touchdowns in the upset win. Bell grabbed nine passes for 136 yards and two scores while Lacy added five catches for 39 yards.
- » Bell caught 12 passes for 170 yards and two touchdowns against Virginia and Lacy added five catches for 21 yards.
- » Lacy is one of the most productive wide receivers in the nation, catching 274 passes for 3,199 career receiving yards with 16 scores in 61 career games while Bell has caught 141 passes for 2,041 yards and 12 scores in 45 games.
- » Bell is coming off a career-best season in 2024, catching 43 passes for 737 yards and four touchdowns, while averaging 17.1 yards a reception. The Yazoo City, Miss., native recorded a pair of 100-yard games coming in consecutive contests. He registered 112 yards versus Stanford and came back with 101 yards in a win over Pitt. He caught a career long 68-yard touchdown pass in the win over the Panthers.

200 Yards is the Number

- » No one thinks of the success head coach Jeff Brohm has had in the running game, but it's been obvious his team's are successful when they are able to run the football. Louisville rushed for 317 yards in the win over Boston College— the 13th time the Cards have ran over 200 yards in a game during his tenure. Louisville added 235 yards in the win over Virginia Tech.
- » Louisville is 13-1 in Brohm's tenure when his teams rush for over 200 yards in a game. The Cardinals are averaging 183.4 yards per game on the ground during Brohm's tenure as head coach.

- » This season, Louisville is averaging a Jeff Brohm low 155.8 yards per game and ranks 102nd nationally.

That's a Rush

- » The Cardinals have struggled much of the year with the run game but it exposed Boston College for a season high 317 yards on the ground in the win over the Eagles. It was the third 300-yard or more game in the Jeff Brohm era and the most since the Cardinals rushed for 358 yards against Kentucky in 2024.
- » The Cardinals averaged 10.2 yards per rushing attempt against Boston College — its fourth highest average in program history. It included two runs of over 60 yards — a 73-yard run on the Cards' first drive and a 67-yard touchdown run — both by running back Isaac Brown.
- » Louisville is tied for the national lead with five rushes of 60 or more yards and is tied for second with six runs of over 50 yards.
- » Brown averaged 14.6 yards per carry and became the third player to rush for 200 yards with fewer than 15 attempts. The sophomore rushed 14 times for 205 yards and a score against Boston College.

Unlikely Leader

- » Head coach Jeff Brohm repeatedly talks about the importance of quarterback Miller Moss in the running game.
- » While the redshirt senior is last on the team in rushing with -73 yards, the Los Angeles native is the team leader with seven rushing touchdowns.
- » Moss rushed for his seventh touchdown of the season in the loss to California, tying Malik Cunningham for the seventh most rushing touchdowns in a season by a quarterback and ranking eighth in career rushing touchdowns by a quarterback despite playing in only nine career games.

The Key to Success

- » Much has been made of Isaac Brown, but Keyjuan Brown is starting to make a name for himself. Over the last three games,

Brown has carried 36 times for 325 yards and three scores in leading the Cards to a 2-1 record.

- » In the loss to California, Brown achieved career highs with 14 carries for 136 yards — the first 100-yard game of his career. The redshirt sophomore averaged 9.7 yards per carry — totaling runs of 35, 21 and 18 yards in the loss to the Bears.
- » He rushed 12 times for 94 yards and two scores against Virginia Tech. After Isaac Brown left the game with about five minutes remaining, Brown closed the game with seven carries for 51 yards, including runs of 20 and 17 yards.
- » The redshirt sophomore had a career-high 95 yards rushing on 10 carries in the win over Boston College, sealing the win with a 67-yard rushing touchdown with 1:49 left in the game.
- » Brown averaged a solid 9.5 yards per carry in the win, which included that career long 67-yard run. He's second on the team with an average of 6.2 yards per carry in 2025.
- » The Alabama native is second on the team with 457 yards rushing and rushing touchdowns with six.
- » Through nine games, Brown has already surpassed his output from the 2024 season.

Moss Set to Make 10th Start

- » Quarterback Miller Moss takes the field for his 10th start Friday night when the Cardinals host Clemson.
- » The senior has been solid in the first nine games, throwing for 2,132 yards and 11 scores, while completing 63.8 percent of his passes
- » Since completing a season low 13-of-23 passes in a win over James Madison, the senior put together a respectable season. Moss has three 300-yard passing contests and a trio of games where he's tossed multiple touchdown passes.
- » He's averaging 21.9 completions per game, which ranks 20th nationally and sixth in the ACC.
- » Moss posted his best numbers in a UofL uniform against Pittsburgh, going 33-of-51 for 339 yards and three touchdowns — his second 300-yard performance.

- » He was just as productive against Bowling Green, completing 23-of-32 passes for 316 yards — his first 300-yard performance at Louisville.
- » Moss ranks 38th nationally and is seventh in the ACC in passing yards with an average of 236.9 yards passing per game. His 63.8 completion percentage is 10th in the ACC.
- » A senior, Moss played four seasons with the Trojans, throwing for 3,469 yards and 27 touchdowns, while completing 65.9 percent of his passes. In his career, Moss has thrown for 5,601 yards and 38 touchdowns.
- » A starter for the Trojans last season, Moss threw for 2,555 yards, 18 touchdowns and nine interceptions in nine starts. He completed 64.4 percent of his passes and threw touchdown passes in all nine starts, passing for multiple touchdowns in six games.

Takeaways the Focal Point of the Defense

- » The Cardinals enter Friday night's game ranked 18th nationally and second in the ACC with 16 turnovers gained.
- » Louisville ranks
- » The Cards haven't allowed opponents to total more than 400 yards of total offense, which would be the first time since 1996.
- » Boston College totaled a season high 360 yards of total offense against the Cards, but did that on 82 plays and just an average of 4.4 yards per play.
- » Louisville is yielding an average of just 4.5 yards per play, which is the 11th-best total in the country.
- » The opposition hasn't totaled over 350 yards of total offense in a game this year, and only three have gone over 300 yards.

No Room Through the Air

- » The Cardinals have been tough to move the ball against through the air to this season, limiting five of the nine teams to less than 200 yards through the air.
- » Louisville leads the ACC and stands 28th nationally yielding only 188.1 yards per game.

- » There are only three teams to throw for more than 200 yards in a game this season: Boston College passed for 244 yards on Oct. 25, and Pitt had 259 on Sept. 27. Miami added 271 yards on Oct. 17.
- » In the overtime loss to Virginia, the Cardinals held the Cavaliers to just 149 yards through the air.
- » Teams are completing only 56.5 percent of their passes against the UofL defense this season.
- » The Cardinals are tied for seventh nationally with 12 interceptions (1.5 per game) after registering 11 over the last six games. The Cards totaled two interceptions against Boston College, a season high four interceptions against Miami, three picks against Pitt and two versus Bowling Green.
- » Louisville recorded four interceptions for the first time since doing so in a win vs. Wake Forest in 2022.
- » Louisville is the third team this century to have four interceptions and no pass touchdowns allowed against a top three team in the AP Poll. They join Purdue (October 16, 2021 at No. 2 Iowa) and Boston College (November 10, 2001 at No. 1 Miami (FL)).
- » Over the last 13 games, the Cardinals have recorded 20 interceptions.
- » Linebacker Antonio Watts leads the team with three picks through the first eight games.

Cards' Defense No. 14 in the Nation

- » The Cardinals enter Friday night's game with the 14th-rated defense nationally, allowing just 296.8 yards per game.
- » Louisville allowed 427 yards in the loss to California — the only opponent to reach the 400-yard mark this season.
- » California's quarterback Jaron-Keawe Sagapolutele completed 30-of-47 passes for 323 yards and two scores in the 29-26 loss to the Bears — the only quarterback to throw for 300 yards this season.
- » Boston College totaled 360 yards of total offense against the Cards, but did that on 82 plays and just an average of 4.4 yards per play.
- » Louisville is yielding an average of just 4.6 yards per play, which is the 13th-best total in the country.
- » Louisville is allowing just 108.7 yards on the ground and 188.1 yards through the air.

Put the Pressure On

- » The Cardinals have relied on pressuring the quarterbacks through the first nine games of the season. Louisville enters Friday's game against Clemson ranked 60th in the country in sacks with 2.1 per game. Louisville recorded three sacks in the loss to California — the first game of three of more sacks since recording 6.0 in the win over James Madison.

- » The Cardinals recorded two sacks in the win over Boston College.
- » In the win over James Madison, the Cardinals logged a season-high six sacks — the third time under Brohm.
- » Ten different players have recorded sacks this season for the Cardinals.
- » In three seasons under Ron English, the Cards have recorded 87 total sacks in just 36 games — an average of 2.4 sacks per game.
- » The pressure has limited the passing game as the Cards are allowing 188.1 yards through the air, which is the 28th-best total nationally.
- » Louisville has allowed just 11 touchdowns through the air, which is seventh in the country.
- » Louisville has allowed just four of its nine opponents to throw for over 150 yards this year.

Putting the Clamps on

- » Third down is considered the "money down", and the Cards have been right on the money this season. The Cards are third in the ACC limiting the opposition to a 34.1 conversion rate after holding Pitt to just 1-of-10 on third down conversions and 4-of-15 versus Virginia Tech.
- » The Cards have held four opponents this season to a less than 35 percent conversion rate. Eastern Kentucky was just 3-of-13 and Bowling Green was 4-of-12.

No Rush Here

- » Louisville has been solid against the run through nine games this season. The Cardinals are allowing 108.7 yards per game, which is ranked 22nd nationally.
- » Opponents have reached the 100-yard plateau in only four games — James Madison, Bowling Green, Boston College and Virginia Tech.
- » Louisville has held four of six ACC opponents to fewer than 100 yards on the ground. Louisville limited Miami to 63 yards rushing, the sixth lowest output by a ranked opponent in program history.
- » Louisville is allowing an average of 3.30 yards per carry — the 23rd-best total in the country.
- » Louisville has allowed just eight rushing touchdowns this season, which is tied for 17th in the country.

Quinn in the Lead for Three

- » Linebacker TJ Quinn began his fifth season in the program and looks to accomplish something only two other players have in the history of the program.

- » Quinn is attempting to lead the team in tackles in three-straight seasons for the first time since C.J. Avery did it in 2019-21. Current assistant coach Mark Sander also led the team in tackles for three-straight seasons 1988-90.
- » Quinn took over the team lead with 67 tackles through nine games after recording 12 stops versus Boston College, 10 tackles against Virginia Tech — the eighth double-digit tackle game of his career, and eight in the loss to California.
- » Quinn ranks sixth in the ACC with an average of 7.4 tackles per games.
- » In the last three games, Quinn has recorded 30 tackles, including two games of recording double-digit stops.
- » The native of Valdosta Ga., recorded 82 tackles last season, the second-straight season of 80 or more stops. The red-shirt senior registered 92 tackles during the 2023 campaign.
- » Quinn has 261 tackles over the last four seasons over the course of 50 games played. He's started 36-straight games since the start of the 2023 season.
- » Quinn had his first two interceptions of the season and third of his career to go with five tackles in the win over Pitt. Quinn's first interception set Louisville up for its go-ahead touchdown midway through the fourth quarter.
- » The native of Valdosta, Ga., registered his second interception that ended Pittsburgh's final drive, clinching the win with four seconds left.

Hutchinson Saving His Best for Last

- » Safety D'Angelo Hutchinson has been a solid performer for the Cardinals over the last four years, but seems to be taking it to a higher level in 2025. Hutchinson moved up to second on the team in tackles with 56 after recording a career high 11 stops in the overtime loss to Virginia, five tackles against Miami and nine more against Boston College.
- » The native of Florida recorded seven stops in the win over Bowling Green and five versus Pitt. He has 40 tackles over the last six games — totaling nine against Boston College, eight against James Madison and seven versus Bowling Green.
- » Hutchinson recorded his first career interception in the win over Bowling Green.

Watts Having Monster Season

- » Linebacker Antonio Watts is having a huge season for the Cards' defense in 2025. The linebacker is seventh on the team in tackles with 35 after tallying a season high six against Virginia and three versus Miami. He had a key fumble recovery in the win over Boston College.

- » The junior leads with three interceptions, coming in wins over Miami, Bowling Green and Pitt.
- » Watts is second on the team with 5.5 tackles for loss.
- » Last season, Watts recorded a career high 51 tackles and 6.5 tackles for loss.

Second Chance

- » Boston College opened the game with a 15-play drive that took 8:24 off the clock that ended with a field goal. The Eagles ran 23 plays in the first quarter compared to just three for the Cardinals.
- » Even though the Cards held a 21-10 advantage, the Eagles ran 50 plays to only 21 for the Cards. BC totaled 223 yards— 92 on the ground and 142 through the air, while going 6-of-11 on third down.
- » The second half was a completely different story as BC was held to 127 total yards — 25 yards rushing and 102 yards passing. One of the biggest turnarounds was on third down as BC was held to 0-of-5 on their conversion attempts.
- » In the last two games, the Cardinals have allowed 14 points and 226 yards in the second half in wins over Boston College and Virginia Tech.
- » Louisville has allowed just 121 yards through the air in the second half of the last two contests.

Firsts

- » Louisville has been one of the best at forcing turnovers and sacking the quarterback, but they did neither against Virginia Tech. Louisville snapped a 10-game losing streak when the defense had no sacks or didn't force a turnover, winning for the first time since a 45-14 victory over Army in 2002.
- » Louisville won for the 49th consecutive time when it shuts out its opponent in the second half.

Lacy One of the Best Ever

- » Caullin Lacy has established himself as one of the top punt returners in school history. He enters Friday's game with 422 yards, the second-most in school history. Damien Dorsey holds the school record with 508 yards during the 2022 season.
- » Lacy leads the ACC and ranks third nationally in punt return average at 23.4 yards per game. He returned three punt returns for 106 yards, including a 63-yard return to help set up the Cards' touchdown to take a 21-16 lead against VT. It's his third punt return of over 60 or more yards this season.
- » Lacy returned three punts for 106 yards, tying his total versus Bowling Green as the eighth-most punt return yards in a game in program history.

- » Lacy's 35.3-yard punt return average is tied for the fourth highest single-game average in program history.
- » The native of Mobile, Ala., Lacy is the only Louisville player to have multiple 100-yard punt return games, logging his third.
- » Lacy is the first player in program history to have two punt returns of at least 75 yards in a season and is the fourth Louisville player to return two punts for touchdowns in a season and the first since Billy Perrin in 1978.
- » Lacy is the first player in program history to have two career games with at least 100 yards in punt returns.

Bailey and Lubin Having Big Seasons

- » The Cardinals went to the transfer portal to address their needs on the defensive line, and struck gold with the additions of defensive ends Clev Lubin and Wesley Bailey. Lubin has enjoyed a big year in his first season after transferring from Coastal Carolina and Bailey has been just as effective coming from Rutgers.
- » In the loss to California, Lubin led Louisville with 10 tackles, including a game-high nine solo stops. He added a tackle for loss to take his season total to 6.5 tackles for loss.
- » In nine starts, Lubin is fourth on the team with 44 tackles and leads the team with 6.5 tackles for loss. He's second on the team with 4.0 sacks.
- » In the loss to California, Bailey had his fifth sack, sixth tackle for loss, and fifth quarterback hurry of the season to go with three solo tackles.
- » Bailey has registered 34 tackles and leads the team with 5.0 sacks and is second with 6.0 tackles for loss.

On This Date:

Brennan Armstrong ran for two touchdowns and passed for another and Virginia beat Louisville 31-17 on Saturday in a game that was pushed back a week by a COVID-19 outbreak among the Cardinals.

Armstrong scored on runs of 8 and 9 yards, the latter with 4:29 remaining to give Virginia (3-4, 3-4 Atlantic Coast Conference) a two-score cushion. He also hit Lavel Davis Jr. with a 9-yard scoring pass that gave the Cavaliers a 21-10 lead in the third quarter.

Quarterback Malik Cunningham gave the Cavaliers fits all day as he ran for a career-high 197 yards for the Cardinals (2-6, 1-6), but his first-quarter interception was returned 85 yards for a touchdown by Noah Taylor and he had the ball ripped out of his hands by Nick Grant at the end of 27-yard run, setting up Armstrong's second rushing score.

The Cardinals were without seven players, but did not detail if any of the missing were COVID-related. Cunningham, who ran 20 times, was 13 for 21 throwing the ball for 161 yards.

HEAD COACH

JEFF BROHM

THIRD YEAR • LOUISVILLE '93

Jeff Brohm, a former letterwinner and alumnus, enters his third season as Louisville's head football coach where he has quickly built the Cardinals back into a postseason contender with back-to-back nine win seasons for the first time since 2014, and continues to be one of the nation's most innovative offensive minds in the country.

Brohm was named Louisville's 24th full-time head football coach on Dec. 8, 2022, has guided the program to an 19-8 overall record that's been highlighted by three wins over top 25 teams, a dramatic 35-34 win over Washington in the 2024 Sun Bowl, and the school's first appearance in the Atlantic Coast Conference title game in 2023.

The 2024 campaign saw the Cards finish at 9-4 in a season that featured the school's first win over No. 11 Clemson, the highest ranked opponent that Louisville defeated on the road, and snapping the school's five-game losing streak over arch-rival Kentucky. Louisville also dropped four one-score losses to a pair of playoff teams (Notre Dame and SMU) and lost to nationally ranked Miami 52-45.

Led by a balanced offensive attack, Brohm's 2024 team was tied for eighth nationally in scoring offense at 36.5 points per game and was the only school in the country to score 24 or more points in every game during the season. Louisville also posted a top 15 offense, ranking 13th overall with an average of 449.2 yards per game and was fifth in the country in yards per play at 6.85.

Overall, the Cards were tied for first nationally in scrimmage plays of over 40 yards and tied for second in plays of 50 or more yards.

Led by the trio of quarterback Tyler Shough, wide receiver Ja'Corey Brooks, and freshman sensation Isaac Brown, Brohm's offense produced the school's third season ever with a 3,000-yard passer and a 1,000-yard receiver and rusher. Shough finished with 3,195 passing yards, while Brooks closed with 1,013 receiving yards and Brown ended with 1,173 yards -- the school's first true freshman to rush for over 1,000 yards.

Brohm guided his first team to a 10-4 overall record, the program's first 10-win campaign since 2013. For his efforts, Brohm was named one of three semifinalists for the Steve Spurrier First Year Coach of the Year Award. He led the team to the ACC title game against Florida State and a trip to the Holiday Bowl and became the first coach in NCAA history to guide two different teams to conference championship game appearances in consecutive seasons.

The 2023 season saw the Cardinals race out to a 6-0 start for the first time since 2013, highlighted by wins over No. 10 Notre Dame in front of a record crowd at L&N Stadium and a victory over No. 20 Duke. The Cardinals cracked the Associated Press Top 10 at No. 9 for the first time since the 2016 campaign.

A standout at Trinity High, Brohm was awarded the Kentucky Mr. Football Award as a senior in 1988, while leading the Shamrocks to a state championship and undefeated season. Brohm was named the Kentucky High School Player of the Decade for the 1980s and was inducted into the Kentucky High School Athletic Association Hall of Fame in 2014.

A native of Louisville, Brohm, 53, (born April 24, 1971) earned his bachelor's degree in business administration in 1994. He and his wife, Jennifer, have a son, Brady, and a daughter, Brooke. Jeff is one of four family members to be a football letterwinner at Louisville, along with his father, Oscar (quarterback 1966-69), and brothers, Greg (wide receiver 1989-92) and Brian (quarterback 2004-07). The Brohm family, including mother, Donna, and sister, Kim, was inducted into the Louisville Catholic Sports Hall of Fame in 2013.
