Nathan Davis enters his third season as UNH head coach.

New Hampshire returns one starter and five letterwinners from last year's team that went 8-24 overall and tied for sixth place in the America East standings with a 6-10 conference record.

The Wildcats welcome nine newcomers to the 2025-26 roster with a breakdown of three freshman and six transfers -- a redshirt freshman, one sophomore and four juniors.

UNH lost its top three point scorers. Junior forward Davide Poser is the top returning scorer; he scored 202 points in 31 games (25 starts) for an average of 6.5 ppg. Poser ranked second in 3-pointers made (52) with a team-high .403 shooting percentage.

The 'Cats lost their top six rebounders. Sophomore forward Jon O'Neill is the top returner at 2.3 rebounds per game. He is followed by Poser at 2.2 rpg.

Poser is also the top returning Wildcat in assists at 1.6 apg (50 assists in 31 games).

The four new juniors -- guards Jack Graham and KiJan Robinson and forwards Belal El Shakery and Comeh Emuobor -- are expected to make an immediate impact.

The last time UNH tipped off against an ACC school was the 2023-24 season opener, when the 'Cats lost 83-72 at Syracuse. Against current ACC teams, UNH is also 0-1 vs. Cal, Duke, Florida State, Miami, N.C. State, SMU, Stanford, Virginia and Wake Forest; the Wildcats are 0-2 vs. Notre Dame, Pitt and Virginia Tech. New Hampshire is 4-27 vs. Boston College.

FRESH OFF THE BENCH: Redshirt freshman guard R.J. Kennedy (6-1, 180) and freshman forward Giannos Xanthopoulos (6-10, 220) are two freshmen expected to be part of the rotation off the bench.

Kennedy did not see game action last season at the University of Alabama at Birmingham. In 2023-24, Kennedy averaged 23.7 points, 4.3 assists and 2.1 steals per game at Middle Georgia Prep. He shot 52 percent from the floor and connected on 42 percent of his 3-point field goals to finish his career as the all-time leading scorer (948 points) in Middle Georgia history while leading the Lions to a 42-6 record.

Head Coach Nathan Davis

Nathan Davis enters his third season as UNH head coach after being named the 21st head coach of the UNH men's basketball program April 7, 2023.

Davis guided the Wildcats to 16 wins -- including a 9-5 home record -- in his first year at the helm in 2023-24, when Clarence Daniels became the first 'Cat named America East Player of the Year.

Injuries beset UNH's roster in the 2024-25 season; the 'Cats finished with six conference wins and eight overall.

In 16 years as a men's basketball head coach, Davis has received five Coach of the Year awards while guiding three programs to a total of 294 wins, five conference tournament titles, and eight NCAA tournament appearances, including one Final Four.

Davis comes to UNH from Bucknell University, where he was a two-time Patriot League Coach of the Year and led the Bison to a pair of NCAA tournament appearances during his eight years as head coach from 2015-23. Under his tutelage, a Bison player was honored as Patriot League Player of the Year in 2017 and 2018.

Davis' impact at Bucknell was immediate. The Bison captured Patriot League regular-season titles each of his first four seasons as head coach, and in 2017 and 2018 they went on to win the Patriot League tournament title to advance to the NCAA tournament.

Davis had previously spent five years (2003-08) as the top assistant coach at Bucknell and was instrumental to the team's historic NCAA tournament victories in 2005 and 2006. In '05, 14th-seeded Bucknell upset No. 3 Kansas in the first round to mark the first NCAA win in school and Patriot League history. One season later, the Bison achieved the first top-25 national ranking in program history, returned to the NCAA tournament as a No. 9 seed, and defeated Arkansas in the first round.

In his very first season as Bucknell head coach in 2015-16, Davis guided the team to a 14-4 Patriot League record (17-14 overall) and was named a finalist for the Joe B. Hall Award, which is presented to the nation's top first-year coach. His 17 wins were the most ever for a Bucknell first-year coach, and he led the team to its third National Invitation Tournament (NIT) appearance.

The following year, Davis repeated as Patriot League Coach of the Year after leading the Bison, 26-9 overall and 15-3 in the league, to yet another regular-season title en route to a tournament championship and his first NCAA tournament appearance as a head coach.

In 2017-18, Davis' squad went 16-2 to successfully defend its regular season and tournament titles to earn a second straight berth into the NCAA tournament. That season, Bucknell recorded 25 wins and became the first team in league history to have three First Team All-PL selections.

In 2018-19, Davis guided the Bison to their third straight 20-win season (21 wins) and fifth straight Patriot League regular-season title.

Davis guided the Bison to 129 wins in eight years, including the COVID-shortened 2020-21 season (12 games played).

After departing Bucknell in 2008, Davis spent one year as an assistant coach at Colgate University before being named the head coach at his alma mater, Randolph-Macon. Davis achieved incredible success in his six seasons with the Yellow Jackets (2009-15). He posted a 141-39 record (.783 win percentage) with three Old Dominion Athletic Conference championships, six NCAA tournament berths, and a Division III Final Four appearance in 2009-10.

In his final season at Randolph-Macon, Davis' squad was ranked No. 1 in the country for three weeks, went undefeated in league play, 28-3 overall, and advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight. The 28 victories tied the school record, and its 25-game winning streak set a new program mark.

Following the 2014-15 campaign, Davis was selected as the ODAC Coach of the Year and the NABC South Region Coach of the Year, and he was a finalist for the Glenn Robinson National Coach of the Year Award. It was his second straight ODAC Coach of the Year honor.

Prior to his stint as Bucknell assistant coach, Davis was an assistant coach at Navy from 1998-2003. Thanks in large part to his recruiting efforts, the Midshipmen made Patriot League championship game appearances in 2000 and 2001, and the team went 80-65 in his five seasons in Annapolis.

A 1997 graduate of Randolph-Macon, Davis was a four-year letterman and two-year captain of the Yellow Jackets' men's basketball team. He was a two-time All-ODAC selection who finished his career with 983 points, and he was one of only five players in school history to record at least 500 rebounds, 300 assists, and 100 steals.
