ACC TOURNAMENT HISTORY

From 1954 to 1964, the ACC Champion was determined by regular season dual match play.

From 1965 to 1982, the conference champion was determined solely on the basis of a post season tournament with points awarded based on individual play.

From 1983 to 1985, the conference champion was based on points awarded both for regular season and tournament play. The regular season results accounted for approximately 40 percent of the total and the tournament the remaining 60 percent.

From 1986 to 1989, the conference champion was determined by a three-day single elimination dual match tournament with a playback to determine places one through eight. Since 1990 the conference champion has been determined by a single elimination dual match tournament with no playback.

FORMER CLEMSON COACHES

P.B Holtzendorff (1927)

Holtzendorff was the first tennis coach in 1927. He led the Tigers to a 2-5-1 record. He was best known as the Tigers' men's swimming coach in 1927-1948 and director of the YMCA program at Clemson. He led the Tiger swimmers to a Southern Conference Championship in 1939. Clemson won the Southern Conference titles in boxing and basketball that same year.

Hoke Sloan 1929-1958

The one man who could truly be called the father of Clemson tennis is Hoke Sloan, after whom the varsity tennis center is named. Sloan gave the money that made the facility that the Tigers play on today possible. Coach Sloan was born in nearby Pendleton, SC in 1896. He grew up in Clemson. He attended Clemson and played tennis for the Tigers in 1915. He transferred and graduated from Auburn in 1917. His tennis days started at the city courts while he was a teenager and would continue throughout his entire life. Hoke served in the Navy during WWI and then returned to Clemson to start a tennis club in 1919. He became coach of the Tiger tennis program in 1929. He worked as a volunteer, and he was never paid for his work with the student-athletes until Frank Howard became the football coach in 1940. Coach Sloan would drive his own car on many of the team trips.

The program was completely non-scholarship in those days and most of the tennis players were playing other sports as well. There were two courts at a park in downtown Clemson that were primarily used for practice and matches. Clemson's first varsity courts were clay and were located behind Fike Field House. The ACC was formed in 1953 and Clemson started competing in the conference immediately. Sloan was known as a very kind and capable teacher of the game of tennis. He had a life long love affair for the game and for all of his players. He was also a successful merchant and realtor in downtown Clemson.

Sloan was a great fundraiser for IPTAY as well, and he and Red Richie would travel the backroads of South Carolina to search out every possible Clemson fan for contributions. He signed up nearly everyone he got to talk to as few could refuse his salesmanship and charm when he spoke of athletics at Clemson and the school's great heritage and traditions. In 1957, he coached the team to a 10-3 record and a third-place finish in the ACC. After this season he retired from coaching but he continued to teach the game as the director of tennis at Camp Carolina in Brevard, NC. He gave nearly 40 years of service to Clemson as a volunteer and an employee. Overall, Sloan had a 158-121-4 record during his Clemson tenure. Sloan passed away on December 22, 1979.

Les Longshore 1959-1962

Longshore led the Tigers to a third place finish in the ACC in 1959 and a 9-5 mark during his first year. He led the Tigers to a 14-1 mark overall in 1962 and coached the Tigers' Bobby Burns who finished with a 60-11 record in singles and a 23-5 mark in doubles play. Both marks are first on the Clemson career list for best percentage. In 1946 he won the SEC Men's singles tennis championship as a member of the Tulane University team. He coached at Samford University in 1974-1986. He holds a BS degree from Tulane and a masters from the University of Alabama. He was also an English professor. Longshore had a 26-31 record at Clemson. He is a member of the Southern Tennis Hall of Fame.

Duane Bruley 1963-1973

Bruley Led the Tigers to their first Atlantic Coast Conference Championship in 1969 with a 16-0 mark. He served as the head coach for 11 seasons. He earned his BS from Wisconsin, his MS from Stanford and his PHD in chemical engineering from Tennessee. He served as professor of chemical engineering at Clemson. Bruley had a 150-42 record at Clemson. He is the winningest coaches with five or more years experience regardless of sport.

Bill Beckwith 1974-1975

Beckwith served as an assistant coach for the Tigers from 1964-1973 and head coach in 1974-1975. During his college career, he played for the University of Dubuque and Iowa State.

He earned a BS degree in chemical engineering from Iowa State in 1957 and earned both his MS and PHD degrees there as well. He was a professor in the chemical engineering department at Clemson. Beckwith had a 21-23 record during his two years as a head coach.

Chuck Kriese 1976-2008

Chuck Kriese was Clemson's coach from 1975-2008. He finished his Clemson career with a 685-419 career record in 33 years at Clemson. He was inducted into the ITA National Hall of Fame in 2012. He is also the all-time winningest coach in the ACC for total wins (685) and league victories (166). Under Kriese in the NCAA Tournament, Clemson reached the Final Sixteen 12 times, and the Final Eight seven times. Clemson had a total of 16 top 25 seasons under Kriese. He led the Tigers to 10 ACC championships. Kriese was named National Coach-of-the-Year three times, regional Coach-of-the-Year five times and ACC Coach-of-the-Year six times. Over the years, 20 Tigers won 34 All-America honors under Kriese. Currently, Kriese is the Head Coach men's tennis coach at The Citadel.

Chuck McCuen 2009-2016

Chuck McCuen was Clemson's coach from 2009-2016. In McCuen's eight years as the head coach at Clemson (2009- 16), he amassed 109 career wins, and led the Tigers to back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances in 2013 and 2014. Both seasons, the Tigers won their first-round matches before falling 4-3 to the higher-seeded and home team in the second round, narrowly missing a berth in the NCAA Sweet 16. McCuen's 2014 team finished the season with a 21-9 record, posting the first 20-win season for the program since 2007. Three players earned All-America honors four times during McCuen's tenure as head coach, including Hunter Harrington and Dominique Maden, who reached the semifinals of the NCAA Doubles Championships in 2014. McCuen also coached Doubles All-American Yannick Maden, who was the ACC Men's Tennis Scholar Athlete of the Year in 2013.

FORMER CLEMSON COACHES

John Boetsch 2016-2019

John Boetsch was Clemson's coach from 2016-2019. In his three seasons at the helm of the program he earned 29 wins and eight ACC victories. He led the Tigers to a seven-match winning streak to open the 2017 spring season. In his final season leading the Tigers, Clemson defeated Boston College in the first round of the ACC Tournament, 4-2.

Robbie Weiss 2019-2023

Weiss led the Clemson men's tennis from 2019-2023. He finished his Clemson coaching career with a 41-49 overall record and a 5-34 ACC mark. He led the Tigers to the ACC Quarterfinals in 2022 for the first time since 2015 after defeating No. 22 Duke 4-3 in Rome, Ga.
