3	Kate Timarky and Maura Irish earned their way onto the 2026 Tewaaron watch list as the list of additions was announced on Thursday afternoon. They joined Madison Rassas, who was on the first watch list that was announced mid-February.
2	Freshman goalkeeper Ceci Patterson is second in the ACC with a save percentage of .476 and is second in the ACC with a goals against average of 7.50.
5	Kate Timarky is fifth in the ACC with 17 goals so far this season.
6	Grace Maroney recorded her first career hat trick in the win over No. 3 Boston College on Feb 13, with her behind the back landing at #6 in SportsCenter Top 10.
5	After recording a hat trick in the season-opening win over No. 15/12 Michigan, Timarky scored a career-high five goals in the win over Central Michigan and then tied it, scoring five goals in the win at No. 25/23 Harvard.
6	Rassas recorded a career-best 6 goals and 9 points in the win over Central Michigan.
20	Freshman Uma Kowalski finished the opening weekend with an impressive 20 draw contols, earning ACC Defensive POTW honors. She won nine in the win over No. 15/12 Michigan and won 11 in the win over Central Michigan.
25-0	The 25-0 win over Central Michigan was the third regular season shutout in program history.
10	Ten different players landing in the scoring column in the win over Central Michigan.
12	The Irish welcome 12 freshman to this year's squad.
4	The Irish named four captains for the 2026 campaign: Julia Carr, Abby Lyons, Franny O'Brien, and Kathryn Morrissey.
2	Two new assistant coaches join this season as Marina Miller and Mckenna Davis joined the staff this summer.

2026 Notre Dame Women's Lacrosse

HEAD COACH CHRISTINE HALFPENNY

CHRISTINE HALFPENNY WOMEN'S LACROSSE HEAD COACH

15th Season at Notre Dame
20th as a Head Coach at the DI Level

Christine Halfpenny enters her 15th season as head coach of the Notre Dame women's lacrosse program in 2026 after leading the Irish to the NCAA tournament in nine of the previous 11 completed seasons. In her most recent season, the Irish finished the 7-8 with a ranked win over No. 23 Harvard in an 8-6 victory at home.

The 2024 season saw unprecedented success for the Irish as Halfpenny led the team to break numerous program records, including most points in a game, most draw controls in a game, most goals in a season, most assists in a season, and most points in a season. The 2024 season featured two IWLCA All-Americans in Jackie Wolak and Kasey Choma, a record six IWLCA All-Region honorees, and the first Tewaaron Finalist (Wolak) since 2016. Last season also included the program's first-ever victory over a top-ranked team when they defeated regional rival Northwestern, 14-10, at home. Other notable wins in 2024 include the program's first win at Boston College since 2003 and their first program win in Chapel Hill when they beat UNC in a defensive 7-5 battle in early March.

In 2023, Halfpenny guided the team to its sixth Elite Eight in program history and second in three years, following road wins over the first two rounds of the NCAA Tournament, becoming the only unseeded team to advance to the Elite Eight round. The 2023 season saw the program's largest road win in team history and most goals scored in an NCAA Tournament game by the Irish. Other notable victories in 2023 include snapping UNC's ACC win-streak with a 16-12 victory over the then-No. 3 Tar Heels in Indiana, and a 15-13 win over Virginia in the ACC Quarterfinals. The 2023 season saw six Irish honored as All-Americans, including Madison Ahern, Kasey Choma, Lilly Callahan, Kelly Denes, Hannah Dorney, and Jackie Wolak.

The 2022 season saw the team earn a berth in the NCAA Tournament following a 9-9 record through the ACC Tournament. The Irish, led by Halfpenny, advanced to the ACC Semifinals where they lost heartbreaker to top seeded North Carolina, 14-13.

Halfpenny helped guide the Irish to the Elite Eight for the fifth time in program history in 2021 and sixth ranked wins, including a trio of top-10 victories against Duke (2x) and Virginia. Bridget Deehan was named a First Team IWLCA All-American while Kasey Choma earned Second Team IWLCA All-American honors. En route to the NCAA Quarterfinals, the Irish won two home NCAA Tournament contests for the first time in program history and notched the first-ever shutout in the history of the NCAA Division I Women's Lacrosse Tournament with a 16-0 triumph over Robert Morris in the opening round.

In a 2020 season that was shortened due to CoVID-19, Halfpenny led the Irish to a 7-0 record and a #2 national ranking, which tied the 2004 squad for the highest ranking in program history. Four Irish earned Inside Lacrosse All-American honors in the abbreviated season, including Andie Aldave (First Team), Kasey Choma (Third Team), Bridget Deehan (First Team) and Madison Ahern (Second Team). Ahern was also named IL's Freshman of the Year and Deehan was named Goaltender of the Year.

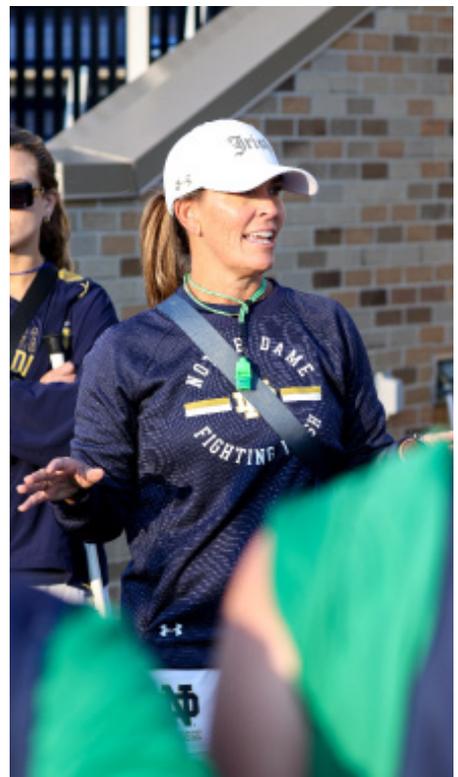

The Irish returned to the NCAA Tournament in 2019 after going a program-best 5-2 in ACC play. Notre Dame finished the 2019 campaign with a 14-5 mark, and the 14 victories tied the 2016 Irish squad for the third-most in a single season in program history. Notre Dame's season included a 9-7 triumph over North Carolina, marking Notre Dame's first-ever win over the Tar Heels. The Irish landed three IWLCA All-Americans, including Andie Aldave (First Team), Samantha Giacolone (Third Team) and Maddie Howe (Honorable Mention). Aldave, Giacolone and Howe joined Hannah Proctor as First Team All-ACC selections, while Savannah Buchanan earned Second Team All-ACC accolades. The four First-Team All-ACC selections are the most the Irish have earned since joining the conference in 2014, and the five total honorees tie the 2016 Irish squad for the most recognitions since becoming an ACC member.

Notre Dame made its sixth consecutive trip to the NCAA Championships in 2017. The Irish ultimately finished the season 11-8 with a 4-3 record in ACC play, matching the program's best record since joining the conference in 2013-14. Notre Dame, which finished third overall in the ACC, led the conference in ground balls and caused turnovers per game. Notre Dame's season was highlighted by a 16-7 victory over then-No. 4 Syracuse in which the Irish seniors tallied 13 points. The Irish landed three All-ACC selections, including Casey Pearsall (first team), Cortney Fortunato (first team) and Alex Dalton (second team). Both Casey Pearsall and Cortney Fortunato were named to the Tewaaron Watch List, and both players received All-America honors.

The 2016 Irish earned a trip to the NCAA Quarterfinals for the first time since 2009. Notre Dame finished 14-7 overall and 4-3 in the Atlantic Coast Conference. Halfpenny's team played a schedule that featured five regular-season, top-10 opponents and 12 teams eventually selected to play in the NCAA Championship. She coached her team to an 8-2 record on their home turf, including two top-10 wins at Arlotta Stadium. Her squad included three IWLCA All-Americans: Cortney Fortunato (first team), Barbara Sullivan (first team) and Casey Pearsall (third team). Three Irish players, including Alex Dalton, Cortney Fortunato and Barbara Sullivan, landed on the Tewaaron Watch List. Halfpenny's roster received five All-ACC accolades, the most all-conference picks by an Irish team since 2004 (six Big East selections).

The 2015 Irish continued striding towards Halfpenny's lofty goals for the program as the Irish beat three top-seven teams on the road en route to an ACC semifinal berth and another trip to the NAAs. The squad saw four of its members pick up All-America honors in Cortney Fortunato (first-team),

2026 Notre Dame Women's Lacrosse

HEAD COACH CHRISTINE HALFPENNY

Barbara Sullivan (first-team), Alex Dalton (second-team) and Casey Pearsall (third-team). Sullivan also became the school's first-ever defensive finalist for the Tewaaron Trophy and just its second finalist overall. Meanwhile, Katherine McManus earned the Yeardeley Reynolds Love Unsung Hero Award for her well-rounded contributions to the community and Caitlin Gargan became the latest in a succession of IWLCA Academic Honor Roll recipients.

That success built off of a 2014 season which saw Notre Dame earn a top-eight NCAA Championship seed and play host to its NCAA regional for the first time since 2009. Margaret Smith picked up first-team All-America honors while Cortney Fortunato claimed a second-team award along with WomensLax.com Rookie of the Year award. Smith was a Tewaaron Trophy nominee and the co-Defensive Player of the Year nationally. Senior Molly Shawhan earned her second consecutive Yeardeley Reynolds Love Unsung Hero finalist spot for her tireless work off of the field as well.

The Irish suffered no sophomore slump under Halfpenny in 2013 as the team went 12-5 and again secured a berth to the NCAA Tournament. Notre Dame beat three ranked foes in 2013 and opened the season on a 10-game winning streak, matching the 2004 school record. Barbara Sullivan was named a first-team All-American after the season, leading a defense that ranked amongst the top five teams nationally in both caused turnovers and ground balls. Overall, the 2013 Irish featured five All-BIG EAST players, five IWLCA West/Midwest all-region picks and 18 BIG EAST Academic All-Stars.

The Irish turned in quite a year in Halfpenny's first campaign at the helm of the program as they finished 13-5 in 2012 and earned bids to both the BIG EAST and NCAA Tournaments. The 13 regular season wins was tied for first in school history, while the 13 wins overall was tied for third in school annals. Notre Dame knocked off five ranked teams during the year as it raced out to an 8-0 start, which was the second-best start in school history and the best since 2004. Halfpenny became the first coach in BIG EAST history to start out 8-0 in their opening year at the helm of their program.

Halfpenny helped tutor five All-BIG EAST and IWLCA West/Midwest all-region performers and two All-Americans. Earning All-BIG EAST and All-Region honors were Maggie Tamasis, Margaret Smith, Barbara Sullivan, Megan Sullivan and Lindsay Powell. Tamasis went on to earn second team All-America honors, while Smith was a third teamer.

In the classroom, the 2012 squad was an IWLCA Academic Squad team (combined GPA of 3.0 or higher), while three student-athletes made the IWLCA Academic Honor Roll (Kelly Driscoll, McKenzie Brown and Adelle Bruggeman).

Halfpenny came to Notre Dame from William & Mary, where her teams achieved four straight 10-win seasons and a pair of regular-season conference titles over her final four seasons with the program.

Halfpenny's Tribe squads captured Colonial Athletic Association regular-season titles in both 2008 and 2009 – and she merited CAA coach-of-the-year honors in 2008. Her teams combined for a 20-8 record in league play (including four straight conference tournament bids) – as William & Mary reached double digits in victories each of the last four seasons (10-7 in 2011 and 2009, 10-8 in 2010, 10-9 in 2008). Those four consecutive 10-win seasons matched the best previous stretch in program history.

"Chris brings to Notre Dame the experiences of having been involved with multiple programs and teams that have been to the NCAA final four, won conference titles and produced All-Americans," said Notre Dame vice president and athletics director Jack Swarbrick at the time of her hire. "From a coaching, recruiting and academic standpoint, she understands exactly what the expectations are here at Notre Dame and what it will take for our program to take the next set of steps forward."

Notre Dame's newest head coach tutored two All-Americans at William & Mary, to go along with 26 all-conference selections and 10 all-region honorees. Her 2011 squad became the first in CAA history to receive awards for player of the year, defensive player of the year and rookie of the year in the same season.

Her five seasons with the Tribe produced single-season records for points (347 in 2009), goals (244 in 2009), draw controls (269 in 2009), caused turnovers (third nationally in 2010 at 12.61 per game) and saves (211 in 2008).

In the classroom Halfpenny's players earned 59 combined CAA Commissioner's Academic Awards from 2007-2010, as well as five William & Mary Provost Awards.

Halfpenny went to Williamsburg in the summer of 2006 after three years (2004-2006) as the top women's lacrosse assistant coach at Duke University.

The Blue Devils won the 2005 Atlantic Coast Conference postseason tournament title, won or shared three straight ACC regular-season crowns and made three straight NCAA Championships appearances, advancing to the national semifinals in both 2005 and 2006.

Halfpenny worked specifically with goal-tenders at Duke, assisting Megan Huether in 2005 in earning first-team All-America honors. She played a key role in producing three recruiting classes at Duke that ranked among the top four in the nation (including the number-one-rated class in 2005 by Inside Lacrosse). The 2004 Duke team produced the top women's lacrosse grade-point average in the country (3.46).

Halfpenny also spent a season as an assistant women's lacrosse coach at her alma mater, Virginia Tech, in 2003, directing recruiting and serving as offensive coordinator. She began her coaching career as an assistant coach at Brown University in 2001 and 2002.

Off the field Halfpenny has worked with several national committees including the IWLCA All-American committee, NCAA regional advisory committee, the Tewaaron Award committee and the IWLCA North-South Game selections.

Before joining the college coaching ranks she spent one year as boys' and girls' swimming coach and assistant varsity tennis coach (winning the Virginia Boys AAA state swimming title) at Cave Spring High School in Roanoke, Va.

A four-year letter-winner in women's lacrosse at Virginia Tech, Halfpenny started on the 1999 Hokie team that won the Atlantic 10 Conference championship, finished 11-6 and achieved a program-first top-20 ranking. She received the coaches award that year and was a two-time member of the athletic director's honor roll (1998, 1999). She graduated in 1999 with a degree in health and physical education.

2026 SEASON

IRISH HEAD TO #11/15 CLEMSON

The No. 6/7 Notre Dame Fighting Irish are on the road this Sunday as they look to pick up another ACC win at #11/15 Clemson. If the Irish secure the win, it would be Notre Dame's fifth ranked win of the season.

The Irish lead the overall series 3-1 as they fell to the Tlgers for the first time in their last meeting last season in South Bend, 11-12.

IRISH AND TIMARKY JOIN RASSAS ON TEWAARATON WATCH LIST

Junior Kate Timarky and freshman Maura Irish earned their way onto the 2026 Tewaaraton watch list as the list of additions was announced on Thursday afternoon. They joined sophomore Madison Rassas, who was on the first watch list that was announced mid-February.

Timarky leads the Irish with 17 goals and 22 points so far this season and is also tied on the team with M. Irish for the second most ground balls (11). Timarky is fifth in the ACC with 17 goals and is fourth in the conference with 2.83 goals per game.

Irish has scored 10 goals and dished out seven assists for a total of 17 points so far in her rookie season. She has also recorded 11 draw controls and leads the team with 12 caused turnovers. She is also sixth in the ACC with 2.17 caused turnovers per game. Irish earned her first ACC weekly honor of her career as she was named ACC Co-Offensive Player of the Week after helping guide Notre Dame to wins over No. 3 Boston College and No. 25 Harvard.

Rassas has received several honors already this season, including being named to the 2026 Preseason All-ACC Team and has also received USA Lacrosse Preseason All-American honors. She is eighth in the ACC with 15 goals and is seventh in the conference with 2.50 goals per game. Rassas is second on the team with 20 points so far this season and has recorded seven ground balls and caused four turnovers.

IRISH PICK UP ANOTHER RANKED WIN, DEFEATING #24/23 PITT 12-9

The No. 8/8 Notre Dame Fighting Irish secured another ranked win as they defeated the No. 24/23 Pitt Panthers on Saturday, Feb. 28, in a 12-9 victory at Arlotta Stadium. The Irish have four ranked wins this season and have held their opponents to single-digit scoring five times, including the 25-0 shutout against Central Michigan.

The Irish were led by freshman Maura Irish, who finished with a career-high four goals and four points in the win. Her impressive stat line continued as she tied for a team-best three ground balls and three caused turnovers. Abby Lyons also tied for a team-best three ground balls and Julia Carr tied for a team-best three caused turnovers.

Kate Timarky and Madison Rassas each recorded two goals and two assists apiece for a pair of four-point performances. Emma Murphy also scored two goals, followed by Charley Bacigalupo and Grace Maroney with a goal each.

IRISH FALL 7-9 TO VIRGINIA CAVALIERS

The then-No. 5/4 Notre Dame Fighting Irish (4-1, 1-1) suffered their first loss of the season as they fell, 7-9, to the #24/NR Virginia Cavaliers (2-3, 1-0) on Sunday evening in the Loftus Sports Center.

The Irish were led by Grace Maroney and Katie Mallaber, who tied her career high, as they each scored two goals a piece. Maroney finished with a team-best three points.

Emma Murphy and Abby Lyons each scored their first goal of the season, with Madison Rassas also scoring a goal for the Irish. At the draw, Uma Kowalski finished with a team-best four draw controls.

The trio of Sloane Ginevan, Ceci Patterson, and Lila O'Brien led the team with two caused turnovers a piece, recording six of the team's 10 caused turnovers. Ginevan and Patterson also led the Irish with two ground balls each. Patterson capped off her stat line with 11 saves, tying her career-best this season.

2026 Notre Dame Women's Lacrosse

IRISH DEFEAT #25/23 HARVARD, OPENING SEASON 4-0

The then-No. 16/16 Notre Dame Fighting Irish downed the No. 25 Harvard Crimson on the road Sunday afternoon in a 10-7 victory. The Irish picked up their second road win and their third ranked win of the season.

Junior Kate Timarky had herself a day, matching her career-high of five goals in the win. Timarky had a hat trick in the second quarter alone, scoring three straight goals for the Irish.

Maura Irish, Charley Bacigalupo, Franny O'Brien, Grace Maroney, and Madison Rassas all scored a goal in the win.

M. Irish also dished out three assists, recording a career-high four points, career-high four caused turnovers, and a career-high four ground balls. She was followed by Maroney with two assists, tying her career-high.

Abby Lyons and Franny O'Brien each caused three turnovers apiece, with O'Brien also recording a career-high five ground balls. Goalkeeper Ceci Patterson finished the day with four saves and picked up her fourth win of the season.

IRISH TAKE DOWN #3 BOSTON COLLEGE ON THE ROAD IN ACC OPENER

The then-No. 16/16 Notre Dame Fighting Irish (3-0, 1-0) remain undefeated as they took down the No. 3 Boston College Eagles (0-2, 0-1) on Friday night, pulling off the upset with a 12-9 victory to open ACC play. A huge fourth quarter surge powered the Irish to the three-goal road win, shutting out the Eagles 6-0 in the fourth.

"I'm proud of this team and the way they have been working to realize their potential," said Head Coach Chris Halfpenny. "It was a quick turnaround from opening weekend to today, and this team was ready for the challenge. I can't say enough about the combo of this freshmen class and our returning group. We're all having a lot of fun."

The Irish were led by freshman Grace Maroney, recording her first career hat trick in the win. She was followed by Meghan O'Hare, Kate Timarky, and Madison Rassas with two goals apiece. Timarky also led the team with three ground balls.

Freshman Maura Irish scored two goals as well, while also leading the team with five draw controls. Freshman Uma Kowalski finished with four draw controls and graduate student Julia Carr finished with a team-best two caused turnovers. Freshman goal keeper Ceci Patterson recorded eight saves and her third win of the season.

OPENING WEEKEND FOR THE IRISH

The Notre Dame Fighting Irish opened their 2026 season with a 2-0 start at home. After defeating No. 15/12 Michigan in 12-10 victory, the Irish defeated Central Michigan 25-0. The win is the third regular season shutout in program history.

Sophomore preseason All-American Madison Rassas wasted no time, recording a hat trick in her first game of the season. Junior Kate Timarky recorded her sixth career hat trick in the win over Michigan as well. Junior Meghan O'Hare followed with two goals, three ground balls, and six draw controls.

The freshmen trio of Maura Irish, Grace Maroney, and Mackenzie Conley each scored their first career goals in the win with M. Irish netting two goals in her Notre Dame debut.

It was also a big night for freshmen Uma Kowalski and Ceci Patterson in their first game in an Irish uniform. Kowalski led the Irish with nine draw controls and Patterson recorded her first win in goal and finished the night with eight saves.

In the win over Central Michigan, Rassas led the offensive charge for the Irish with a career-high six goals, three assists, and nine points. She posted an impressive stat line of nine goals, three assists, five ground balls, and three caused turnovers for the weekend.

She was followed by another career-high performance from Kate Timarky who recorded a career-best five goals, two assists, and seven points. Timarky also recorded a hat trick in the season-opening win over Michigan for a total of eight goals, three assists, and 11 points on the weekend.

Freshman Charley Bacigalupo not only scored her first career goal, but went on to score her first career hat trick. The rookie midfielder finished with two assists for five points on the day. Kowalski also scored her first career goal and absolutely dominated the draw. She recorded 11 draw controls after recording nine in the season-opening win over Michigan for an impressive total of 20 draws on the weekend.

M. Irish finished with a full stat line in the win as well as the freshman recorded one goal, one assist, two points, two ground balls, two draw controls, and four caused turnovers.

Shannon Earley, Grace Maroney, Katie Mallaber, and Wynter Jock each recorded two goals a piece for the Irish. Mackenzie Conley also scored a goal in the shutout win.

O'Hare won four draw controls and caused three turnovers, followed by Abby Lyons who caused two turnovers. Sloane Ginevan grabbed four ground balls, followed by Franny O'Brien with three ground balls.

A LOOK AHEAD

The Notre Dame Women's Lacrosse program is ready for spring with the announcement of their 2026 schedule.

The Irish are slated for 16 games with an even eight games at home and eight games on the road. The ACC docket will feature 10 conference games with five games on the road and five games at home.

With eight opportunities to see the Irish at home, it is free admission for both indoor games at Loftus Sports Center and outdoor games at Arlotta Stadium.

THE RASSAS FAMILY IS NO STRANGER TO NOTRE DAME

Rassas isn't just an Irish standout as one of the best players in the country, but she's continuing her family's legacy at Notre Dame.

She comes from a long line of Notre Dame graduates, including both parents (Todd and Angela Rassas) as well as her grandfather and great-grandfather.

Her father, Todd, was an All-American lacrosse player at Notre Dame ('98), while her grandfather and great-grandfather were both football players for the Irish.

As she continues the legacy, she's already picking up several accolades at the start of her sophomore year. She was named to the 2026 Tewaaron Watch List, the 2026 Preseason All-ACC Team and has also received USA Lacrosse Preseason All-American honors.

TWO NEW ADDITIONS TO THE COACHING STAFF

Head Coach Chris Halfpenny introduced two new additions to the staff this season as she welcomed Marina Miller and Mckenna Davis to the Irish.

After graduating from Clemson in 2023, Miller stayed with the Tigers to serve as an assistant coach for the program for the 2024 season. In addition to serving as a coordinator of the defensive unit, Miller was key to the program's draw strategy and success in 2024 as the Tigers were among the top 15 in the nation in draw control percentage and draw controls per game. In June of 2024, Miller started as an assistant coach at Davidson, helping guide the Wildcats to a 12-5 record in the 2025 season.

Miller started her college career at Penn State before playing the next three years at Richmond, where she was a captain in 2022 for her senior season. Miller finished her undergraduate degree at Richmond before joining former Richmond head coach Allison Kwolek at Clemson for her graduate season while competing for the Tigers on their inaugural team in 2023.

A captain at Clemson, Miller started all 18 games and scored 23 goals with 11 assists as she closed out her playing career. She also won 33 draw controls and was selected for the 2023 Senior All-Star Team and the South's All-Region Second Team.

Originally from Pittsburgh, Pa., Miller went to Pine-Richland High School where she was a four-year letter winner and two-time team captain. She led her lacrosse team to back-to-back Western Pennsylvania Interscholastic League (WPIAL) titles and ended her high school career as Pine-Richland's all-time leading scorer with 325 goals and 94 assists.

Davis is a 2025 Boston College alum, where she was an All-ACC standout and three-time All-American attacker for the Eagles. In her four-year Eagle career, Davis recorded 99 goals and 220 assists for 319 career points.

As a junior, Davis helped guide the Eagles to their 2024 National Championship title as she netted two goals and recorded an assist for a total of three points, while also tallying one ground ball and a caused turnover.

In her senior season at Boston College, Davis was second in the nation and the ACC with a personal-high 77 assists, breaking the single-season Eagles record.

IRISH IN THE PROS

With the start of the WLL in 2025, it didn't take long for the Irish to get picked up.

Five Notre Dame Women's Lacrosse alums were all selected to the Boston Guard: Madison Ahern ('24), Kasey Choma ('24), Jackie Wolak ('24), Hannah Dorney ('23), and Andie Aldave ('21).

The Guard won the first ever WLL Championship last February.

Now, the 2026 WLL season is ready to begin and the Irish have six alums on current WLL rosters:

BOSTON GUARD:
Madison Ahern ('24)
Kasey Choma ('24)
Jackie Wolak ('24)
Hannah Dorney ('23)
Andie Aldave ('21).

MARYLAND CHARM:
Kelley Denes ('24)
